Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Foreword xiii

Peter H. Raven

PART I

Public Gardens and Their Significance 1

Chapter 1

What Is a Public Garden? 3

Donald A. Rakow

Chapter 2

The History and Significance of Public Gardens 15

Christine Flanagan

PART II

The Emerging Garden 31

Chapter 3

Critical Issues in Starting a Public Garden 33

Robert Lyons

Chapter 4

The Process of Organizing a New Garden 41

Mary Pat Matheson

Chapter 5

Land Acquisition 54

Maureen Heffernan
CHAPTER 6
Designing for Plants and People
Iain M. Robertson

PART III
Administrative Functions

CHAPTER 7
Staffing and Personnel Management
Gerard T. Donnelly and Nancy L. Peske

CHAPTER 8
Volunteer Recruitment and Management
Arlene Ferris

CHAPTER 9
Budgeting and Financial Planning
Richard Piacentini and Lisa Macioce

CHAPTER 10
Fund-raising and Membership Development
Patricia Rich

CHAPTER 11
Earned Income Opportunities
Richard H. Daley

CHAPTER 12
Facilities and Infrastructure
Eric Tschanz

CHAPTER 13
Grounds Management and Security
Vincent A. Simeone

PART IV
Programmatic Functions

CHAPTER 14
Public Gardens and Their Communities: The Value of Outreach
Susan Lacerte
CHAPTER 15
Formal Education for Students, Teachers, and Youth at Public Gardens
Patsy Benveniste and Jennifer Schwarz-Ballard

CHAPTER 16
Continuing, Professional, and Higher Education
Larry DeBuhr

CHAPTER 17
Interpreting Gardens to Visitors
Kitty Connolly

CHAPTER 18
Evaluation of Garden Programming and Planning
Julie Warsowe

CHAPTER 19
Public Relations and Marketing Communications
LeeAnn Lavin and Elizabeth Randolph

CHAPTER 20
Collections Management
David C. Michener

CHAPTER 21
Research at Public Gardens
Kayri Havens

CHAPTER 22
Conservation Practices at Public Gardens
Sarah Reichard

PART V
Long-Term Initiatives

CHAPTER 23
A Strategic Approach to Leadership and Management
Kathleen Socolofsky and Mary Burke

CHAPTER 24
Associations and Partnerships
Claire Sawyers