Index

A
accessing narrative voices 252
accurate empathy 59 activity scheduling 21
adolescents see paediatric and adolescent patients ALARM model for sexual assessment 177 alexithymia 91
attachment theory 188
attention (in mindfulness) 41 attitude (in mindfulness) 41 avoidance 89

B
Behaviour Therapy (BT) 15–16
behavioural experiments 19
mastectomy 22
behavioural marital enhancement 151 bereavement see meaning in bereavement BETTER model for sexual assessment 177–8
biographical methods 253–4 body scan (in mindfulness) 42–3
breast cancer
case examples
CBT 21–2
CFG 155
couple-focused group (CFG) intervention 170
mindfulness 44–5
SEGT 112–14
sexual dysfunction therapies 178–9
Breathing Break 41, 44

C
catharsis 248
change talk 60
Child Behaviour Checklist (CBCL) 229 children see paediatric and adolescent patients chronic disease self-management program (CDSMP) 237 circular questioning 189 cognitive analytic therapy (CAT) 27, 36 benefits in cancer 36
case example 33
exits from RRP 35–6
family history 34
presenting problems 34
previous psychological intervention 34 recognition and monitoring 35
reformulation 34
target groups 33

Cognitive Processing Theory 188
Cognitive Restructuring 19
Cognitive-Behaviour Therapy (CBT) 24
background 15–16
fatigue management 17
paediatrics 18
pain management 18
Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) 17
procedural and treatment related anxiety 17 sexuality and intimacy 18 survivorship issues 17–18
target groups 16–17
behavioural techniques 21
case examples
breast cancer 21–2
mastectomy 22–3
cognitive techniques 19–21
evidence on efficacy 23
key issues
Index

cognitive-behaviour therapy (CBT) (Continued) delivery 24
  outcome assessment 24
  recruitment of patients 23 training and supervision 23 processes and techniques 18–19
  service development 23
cognitive–social–affective processing theory 150 collaborative therapies 18 communication exercise 169–70 complicated grief (CG) 248–9, 250–1 diagnostic criteria 249 Comprehensive Geriatric Assessment (CGA) 236 conditioned responses (CRs) 92 conditioned stimuli (CS) 92 coping and communication support intervention (CCS) 237–8 core beliefs 21
  couple therapy in advanced cancer 161, 172
    case examples
      breast cancer 170
      pancreatic cancer 169
      prostate cancer 170, 171
    couple exercises 169
      communication exercise 169–70
      genogram exercise 169
      hypothetical timeline exercise 170
      relational legacy exercise 170
    evidence on efficacy 171
    integrating meaning-making and intimacy 162 intimacy 163–4
      meaning-making 162–3
    main themes 165
      death anxiety 166
      disfigurement and dignity 166–7 existential distress 165–6
      fear of being a burden 166
      loss and grief 165
      loss and grief, dealing with 165 meaning and purpose of life 167–8
      obsessional control 166
      relational skew 168–9
      spiritual anguish 167
      uncertainty 166
      unfairness 166
    processes 164
      session content 164
      therapist’s style 164–5 rationale 161–2
      service development 171–2
      targeting 162
couple-focused group (CFG) intervention in early breast cancer 149–51, 156–7
  case example 155
  evidence on efficacy 152–3
  processing and techniques 153–5
  service development 155–6
  strategies and main themes 151–2
  target groups 152

  cue controlled relaxation 49–50

D
  Daily Hassles 17–18
  death anxiety 166
  decathexis 248
  denial of disease by patient 5–6 ambivalence and ambiguity 6 developing discrepancy 61 dignity 166–7
  dignity therapy 79
    background 79
      care tenor 82
      defining dignity 79–80
      dignity-conserving repertoire 81–2 generativity 81–2
      illness-related concerns 80–1
      Model of Dignity 80, 81
      social dignity inventory 82
      evidence on efficacy 86–7
      future directions 87–8
    processes and techniques 82
      administration 83
      answering patient questions 84 introduction to patient and family 83 patient identification 83 question framework 83
      target groups 82
      service development 87
      therapist’s role 85–6 protocol schedule summary 86 dignity-conserving perspectives 81 dignity-conserving practices 81 disfigurement 166–7 distraction as a technique 21 Distress Thermometer 140 dual process model 248

E
  elderly patients 235, 244 clinical evaluation 235–6 clinical vignettes
    card game intervention 243 music group 243–4

cognitive–behavioural therapy 241–2
evidence on efficacy 244

forgiveness 240

model applied to cancer 240–1 phase model 240
tailored to interventions 240

interventions

life review 239–40
narratives 239
reminiscence 238–9

life and hope 242–3

psychosocial theories on ageing

chronic disease self-management program (CDSMP) 237
coping and communication support intervention (CCS) 237–8
life strengths 236–7
self-efficacy theory 237

quandaries and reliability of interventions 236

emotional disclosure, written see written emotional disclosure

emotional expression 89–90
emotional expression, inhibited 90–1
emotional stressors 11
emotion-focused couples therapy (EFT-C) 171
end-of-life issues 10
controversies 10
environmental stressors 11
erectile dysfunction (ED) 176
evocation 61
existential distress 165–6

expressive writing intervention (EWI) see written emotional disclosure externalising conversation 72

externally regulated motivation 60
extrinsic motivation 60

Eye Movement Desensitisation Reprocessing (EMDR) 31

F

Family Environment Scale (FES) 185
Family Focused Grief Therapy (FFGT) 162, 185–7, 196

assessment phase 187
case examples 194–6
evidence on efficacy 194
focused treatment phase 187
key challenges 192–3
cross-cultural challenges 193
ethical issues 194

families with young children 193–4
family engagement 193
home therapy 193
limits to therapeutic goals 193

key theoretical models 188
attachment theory 188
cognitive processing theory 188
group adaptation 188

key therapeutic processes 189

facilitating talk about death and dying 189–90
inviting discussion about death 190–1
talk about future needs 192
talk about prognosis 191
talk about talk 191–2

main themes 186–7
service development 196
supporting materials 194
target groups 186
theoretical background 185–6
therapist techniques 188–9

family of patient
absence 10
communication 12
definition 10
support for family
bereavement 12
support for patient
family need for involvement 11–12
patient need 10–11

Family Relationship Index (FRI) 185, 186

fear of being a burden 166
fear of death 9
fight–flight response 49
flexible planning 22
four pillars of psychological support 131
Frankl, Viktor 137

concepts of meaning 138–9
freedom of will 139

G

genetic disposition to cancer 201, 209
case example 207–9
counselling and psychotherapeutic interventions
cognitive and behavioural strategies 205–6
optimal clinic processes 204–5

psychodynamic strategies 206–7

evidence on efficacy 209
genetic testing 201–2

genetic testing, emotional factors 202
ambiguous results 203

genetic mutation absent 203
genetic mutation present 202–3

emotional disclosure, written see written emotional disclosure

emotional expression 89–90
emotional expression, inhibited 90–1
emotional stressors 11
emotion-focused couples therapy (EFT-C) 171
end-of-life issues 10
controversies 10
environmental stressors 11
erectile dysfunction (ED) 176
evocation 61
existential distress 165–6

expressive writing intervention (EWI) see written emotional disclosure

externalising conversation 72
externally regulated motivation 60
extrinsic motivation 60

Eye Movement Desensitisation Reprocessing (EMDR) 31

F

Family Environment Scale (FES) 185
Family Focused Grief Therapy (FFGT) 162, 185–7, 196

assessment phase 187
case examples 194–6
evidence on efficacy 194
focused treatment phase 187
key challenges 192–3
cross-cultural challenges 193
ethical issues 194

families with young children 193–4
family engagement 193
home therapy 193
limits to therapeutic goals 193

key theoretical models 188
attachment theory 188
cognitive processing theory 188
group adaptation 188

key therapeutic processes 189

facilitating talk about death and dying 189–90
inviting discussion about death 190–1
talk about future needs 192
talk about prognosis 191
talk about talk 191–2

main themes 186–7
service development 196
supporting materials 194
target groups 186
theoretical background 185–6
therapist techniques 188–9

family of patient
absence 10
communication 12
definition 10
support for family
bereavement 12
support for patient
family need for involvement 11–12
patient need 10–11

Family Relationship Index (FRI) 185, 186

fear of being a burden 166
fear of death 9
fight–flight response 49
flexible planning 22
four pillars of psychological support 131
Frankl, Viktor 137

concepts of meaning 138–9
freedom of will 139

G

genetic disposition to cancer 201, 209
case example 207–9
counselling and psychotherapeutic interventions
cognitive and behavioural strategies 205–6
optimal clinic processes 204–5

psychodynamic strategies 206–7

evidence on efficacy 209
genetic testing 201–2

genetic testing, emotional factors 202
ambiguous results 203

genetic mutation absent 203
genetic mutation present 202–3
genetic disposition to cancer (Continued) impact on family 203–4
service development 209
genogram exercise 169
goal-setting 22–3
group adaptation 188
guided imagery 50

H
hot cognitions 19
hypothetical timeline exercise 170

I
identity conclusions 72
image based therapy 49–50, 57
case example 54–5
session 1 55
session 2 55
session 3 55
session 4 56
session 5 56
contraindications 52
evidence on efficacy 52–3
guided imagery 50
processes and techniques 53–4
service development 56–7
target groups 50–1
indicators 51
visualisation 50
imaginal dialogues 252–3
important values 72
independence 80
informal mindfulness 43–4
inhibited emotional expression 90–1 integrated motivation 60 intention (in mindfulness) 40–1 Interpersonal Process Model of Intimacy 163–4
intimacy 163–4
Intimacy and Meaning-Making Couples Therapy (IMMCT) 139, 161 intrinsic motivation 60 intrusion 89

J
journaling and letter writing 253
justification 72

K
Karnosky Performance Rating 140

L
leukemia
CAT 30
life imprint 254
life strengths 236–7
Likert scale 53
linear questioning 189

M
Major Life Events 17
meaning in bereavement 255–6
case example 254–5
clinical context 247
evidence on efficacy 255
grief and the quest for meaning 249–51
service development 255
techniques for reconstructing meaning in loss 251
accessing narrative voices 252
biographical methods 253–4
imaginal dialogues 252–3
journaling and letter writing 253
life imprint 254
retelling event story 252
theoretical perspectives 247–9 meaning of life 138, 167–8 meaning reconstruction 250 meaning-centred group psychotherapy (MCGP) 137, 146–7
background 137
defining spirituality 137–8 spiritual well-being 138
case example 145–6
evidence on efficacy 146
key challenges 146
key therapist techniques focus on meaning and sources 144–5 group process skills 144 incorporating basic existential concepts and themes 145 psycho-educational approach 144
main themes and format of therapy Session 1 –concepts and sources of meaning Session 2 –cancer and meaning 141–2
Sessions 3 and 4 –historical sources and meaning 142–3
Session 5 –attitudinal sources of meaning 143
Session 6 –creative sources of meaning 143
Session 7 –experiential sources of meaning 143–4 Session 8 –transitions 144
main themes and format of therapy 140
topics of weekly sessions 140
service development 146
  manuals 146
  training 146
target groups 139–40
theoretical conceptual framework existential philosophy and psychology 139 Frankl’s concepts of meaning 138–9 meaning-focused coping 139 meaning-centred psychotherapy (MCP) 137
meaning-making 162–3
meditation 43
meta-cognitions 21
mindfulness 39, 46
  case example 44–5
  content and processes 40–1 body scan 42–3
    Breathing Break 41, 44
    informal mindfulness 43–4
    introduction 41–2
    meditation 43
  efficacy 45–6
Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction (MBSR) 39–40 role of therapist 40
  target groups 40
  service development 46
Mindfulness-Based Art Therapy (MBAT) 40
Mindfulness-Based Cognitive Therapy (MBCT) 39, 40
Model of Dignity 80
  empirical dignity model 81 motivational counselling 59–61, 67
  case example 64–6
  evidence on efficacy 66–7
  processes and techniques 61–4
  service development 67
motivational interviewing (MI) 59
mutations 202–3
Mutually Agreed Between-Session Assignments (MABSAs) 19
  breast cancer 21

N
naming (in narrative therapy) 72 narrative therapy 69, 77 area of application 70
  case example 75–6
  evidence on efficacy 77
  processes and techniques 70–3
    re-membering 73–4
  responses from outsider witnesses 74–5 purpose 70
  reservation 69–70
  service development 77
  terminology 70
Negative Automatic Thoughts (NATs) 15, 18, 19
  breast cancer 21

O
obsessional control 166

P
paediatric and adolescent patients 213, 222 assessment
    major child developmental theories 214 medical illness and treatment factors 215 patient factors 213–14
    presenting problem factors 214
  case example 220–1
    roles 221–2
  service development 215
  treatment providers 215–16 treatment setting 215 treatment issues
    child development 218–19
    common diagnosis 217–18 counter transference and burnout 220 treatment selection 216–17
pain management 18
palliative care, transition to 9
pancreatic cancer
  couple-focused group (CFG) intervention 169
parents with dependent children
  background 225
  current and future directions 232–3
  evidence on efficacy 231–2
  program components 229–31 session descriptions 230 program summary
    caveats and comments on program 232 training for delivery 232 theoretical and evidence-based rationale 225–6 child’s behavioural–emotional adjustment 228–9 child’s cancer-related concerns 227–8 parental mood and anxiety 226 parenting confidence 227 parenting skills 226–7 quality of parent–child relationship 227 PLEASURE model for sexual assessment 177
PLISSIT model for sexual assessment 177
Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) 17
primary caregiver 11
progressive muscle relaxation (PMR) 49
Project Omega 121
prostate cancer
couple-focused group (CFG) intervention 170, 171
psychoeducation intervention for newly diagnosed cancer patients 119, 132
case example 129–30
processes and techniques
  behavioural techniques and stress management 127 coping mechanisms 127–8 health education 126
integration 128
psychological support 131–2 structured psychiatric intervention model 125
service development 132
target groups
  affective state 122–4
cancer type 124–5
coping methods 124
efficacy 122
illness phase 122
theoretical background 119
  behavioural training 120–1 coping skills training 121 education 119–20
group therapy 121–2
  individual therapy 122
psycho-oncologists 13
  qualifications 4
psychotherapy file (PF) 30, 32

Q
qualifications for psycho-oncology 4

R
Raisin Exercise 41–2
Reciprocal Role Procedures (RRPs) 28, 30–1
Reciprocal Roles (RRs) 27, 30–1
rectal cancer
  sexual dysfunction therapies 180
reflexive questioning 189
Reformulation 28
relational legacy exercise 170
relational skew 168–9
relaxation 49–50, 57
  case example 54–5
  session 1 55
  session 2 55
  session 3 55
  session 4 56
  session 5 56
  contraindications 52
evidence on efficacy 52–3
  guided imagery 50
  processes and techniques 53–4
  service development 56–7
target groups 50–1
  indicators 51
  visualisation 50
religious beliefs 9
re-membering 73–4
repressive coping 90
resisting the righting reflex 62 retelling event story 252
roll with resistance 61

S
Self-Determination Theory 60 self-efficacy 61
self-efficacy theory 237
self-monitoring of thoughts 19 sensate focal exercises 179
sexual dysfunction therapies 175, 180
  background
  fertility 176–7
  sexual assessment 177–8 sexual dysfunction 176
  sexuality 175–6
case examples
  breast cancer 178–9
  rectal cancer 180
evidence on efficacy 180
  processes and techniques 178
  service development 180
  supporting materials 180–2
Signs of Stress activity 153
Social Cognitive Theory (SCT) 230 social constraints 90
social–cognitive processing theory 90
Socratic questioning 18–19 sources of meaning 139
spiritual anguish 167
spirituality 9, 137–8
well-being 138
Stages of Change theory 60 strategic questioning 189 substance dependence 59–61 supportive–expressive group psychotherapy (SEGT) 107, 206–7
  case example 112–14
evidence on efficacy 114
goals 108

detoxify death and dying 110 greater openness and emotional expression 109 improved coping skills 109 improved doctor–patient relationship 109–10 improved social and family support 109 integration of changed self with body image 109 mutual support 108
reorder life priorities 110
processes and techniques 110
active coping facilitation 112 emotional expression facilitation 111 maintain the focus on cancer 111 personal, concrete issue focus 111–12 supportive interactions facilitation 111
service development
facilitation 114–15
recruitment 114
target groups 110
theoretical background 107
emotional expression 108
existential concerns 107–8 social support 108
supportive psychotherapy 3 application in cancer care denial 5–6
disruption of psychological self 6–7 first visit 6
flexibility of approach 5 frequency 5
location 4
need for understanding the disease 5 patient stories 7
symptoms 7
timing 4–5
urgency 5
boundaries in therapy 7–8
definition 3–4
family involvement
absence of family 10
bereavement 12
communication 12
definition 10
family need for involvement 11–12
patient need for family involvement 10–11 history and evidence base 4
qualifications for psycho-oncology 4
service development 13
psycho-oncologist 13
referrals 13
themes in advanced cancer 8 denial of-life 10
family legacies 8
fear of death 9
guilt 8–9
palliative care 9
spirituality and religion 9 therapist issues 12
medication 13
therapist is cancer survivor 12 symptom distress 80
Systematic Desensitisation 16

T
target groups 50–1
indicators 51
thinking errors 19, 20
thought diaries 19, 20
thought stopping 21
trauerarbeit 248
two-track model 248

U
uncertainty 166
unconditioned aversive stimulus (UCS) 92 unconditioned response (UR) 92
unfairness 166

V
vaginal lubricants 179
ventilation of emotions 18
visualisation 50

W
will to meaning 139
written emotional disclosure 89, 91 emotional expression and non-expression 89–90
evidence on efficacy
benefits of expressive writing intervention (EWI) 91–3 effects in healthy and clinical samples 91 EWI with cancer patients 94–5 influence of writing 93–4
target groups 93
inhibited emotional expression 90–1
processes and techniques 97
face-to-face 97–8
internet-based 98
workbooks 98–9
sample writing instructions for cancer patients and survivors 99 written emotional disclosure (Continued) day 1 – post-writing questions  99–100 day 1 – writing instructions  99
  day 2 – writing instructions  100
  day 3 – writing instructions  100
  day 4 – writing instructions  100
social–cognitive processing theory  90

target patients
  cancer patients  95–6
  efficacy versus effectiveness  97 evidence summary  96–7

Z
Youth Self Report (YSR)  229