INDEX

A
Abies balsamea. See Balsam fir
ACA. See Affordable Care Act
Acer saccharinum. See Silver maple
Achillea millefolium. See Common yarrow; Western yarrow
Acorus calamus L. See Calamus
Acupuncture: benefits of, 100; cautions and contraindications of, 101; defined, 112; history of, 98–99; Jin Shin Do, 100; Ohashiatsu, 100; regulation of, 110; research on, 99; shiatsu, 99; tui na, 99–100; types of, 99–100; Watsu, 100
Acupuncture, 4; Asian Americans using, 271; benefits of, 97; defined, 285; history of, 94–97; meridian model in, 95; NCCAOM and, 105; regulation of, 109–110; risks of, 98; side effects of, 98; 12 meridians in, 95
Affordable Care Act (ACA): American Indians impacted by, 195; CAM/CAIH under, 10–11, 341–342; defined, 23; section 2706 of, 299
Africa: Hispanics/Latinos health beliefs influenced by, 210–211; spiritual practices of, 158–160
African Americans: CAIH approaches among, 235–253; case study, 253; caveat emptor for health care use by, 249–251; consumer issues with for health care use by, 243–245; defined, 253; health professionals, implications of, 245–249; herbal supplements used by, 240–243; modalities in use with, 238–243; population in US of, 235; prayer among, 240; theoretical concepts with, 236–238
Aiga, 270
Air (Akasa), 306
Ajo. See Garlic
Akasa. See Air
Allopathic medicine: bridging gap between CAIH and, 1, 18–19; defined, 23, 320
Allostatic load, 29, 31, 34, 47, 48
Alnus serrulata. See Hazel alder dler
Aloe vera. See Savila
Aloha (Love, compassion), 269–270
Alternative medicine: CAM related definition of, 333; defined, 283–284, 299, 346
American Indian Religious Freedom Act of 1978, 195
American Indians: CAIH approaches among, 177–197; case study, 196–197; causes of “disease” vary greatly among, 181; caveat emptor for health care use by, 194–195; chanting of, 188; consumer issues with for health care use by, 192; crystals of, 189; dance ceremonies of, 190–191; diversity of, 177; healing ceremonies of, 190; health and wellness perceptions with, 179–181; health professionals, implications of, 192–194; heterogeneity of, 178–179; medicinal plants used by, 185–187; modalities in use with, 182–191; theoretical concepts with, 178–182
American red raspberry (Rubus idaeus L.), 185
American Tai chi and Qigong Association, 45
Anis estrella (Star anise), 218
ANS. See Autonomic nervous system
Anthemis cotula. See Stinking chamomile
Apple cider vinegar, African Americans using, 242
Aromatherapy, 127
Arroyo willow (Salix lasiolepis), 186
Art therapy, 130
Artemisia californica. See Coastal sagebrush
Artemisia tridentate. See Big sagebrush
Asarum candadense L. See Canadian wild ginger

COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL
ASEAN. See Association of Southeast Asian Nations
Asian Americans: CAIH approaches among,
259–279; Cambodia practices and traditions used by, 267–268; case study, 277–278; caveat emptor for health care use by, 275–276; Chinese practices and traditions used by, 265–266; communication in health interactions with, 274–275; consumer issues with for health care use by, 272–273; countries of origin for, 259; diversity within, 259;
educational attainment of, 261; health professionals, implications of, 273–274; health status of, 262; healthcare access and quality for, 261; Japanese practices and traditions used by,
266–267; Laos practices and traditions used by,
267–268; modalities used by, 263–272; poverty among, 261; Southeast Asian practices and traditions used by, 267; TCM use by, 264–266;
Thailand practices and traditions used by,
267–268; theoretical concepts with, 260–262;
Vietnam practices and traditions used by,
267–268
Association for Applied Psychophysiology and Biofeedback, 45
Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN), 267
Asteraceae. See Ragleaf bahia
Autogenic therapy, 31
Autonomic nervous system (ANS), 32
Aversion therapy, 130
Ayurveda: AYUSH, 314; CAIH using, 121–141; case study, 138–140; caveat emptor for,
136–137; consumer issues with, 133–134;
defined, 141, 285, 320; doshas of, 124, 141;
five elements in, 124; health professionals, implications of, 134–136; West Asian American using, 306–310, 320
AYUSH, 314, 320

B
Bad eye. See Occhio cattivo
Balance. See Lokahi
Balsam fir (Abies balsamea), 186
Beardlip penstemon (Penstemon barbatus), 186
Big sagebrush (Artemisia tridentata), 186, 187
Biofeedback, 29, 30, 35–36
Biofeedback machine, 285
Bitter gourd. See Cundeamore
Black seed, 308–309
Board of Chiropractic Examiners, 105
Botanicals. See Herbal medicines
Botânicas, 215, 221–222, 229
Bow pulling pose, 238
Bright light therapy. See Light therapy
Bud sagebrush (Picrothamnus desertorum), 186
Buhwang, 267, 271

C
Caída de mollera (Fallen fontanelle), 212 CAIH. See Complementary, alternative, and integrative health
Calamus (Acorus calamus L.), 187
California barberry (Mahonia pinnata), 186
California Massage Therapy Council
(CAMTC), 104
CAM. See Complementary and alternative medicine
Cambodia, practices and traditions of, 267–268
CAMTC. See California Massage Therapy Council
Canadian wild ginger (Asarum candadense L.), 185
Canella (Cinnamon), 216
Cao gio, 271
Carolina willow (Salix amphibian), 185
Cascara sagrada. See Rahmnus purses
Case studies: African Americans, 253; American Indians, 196–197; Asian Americans, 277–278;
Ayurveda, 138–140; CAIH, 22, 345;
Caucasian/European Americans, 283–299;
dietary supplements, 77–78; Hispanics/Latinos,
228–229; manipulative and body-based practices,
111–112; mind-body medicine, 47–48;
modalities, 77–78; spirituality, 167–168; West
Asian American communities, 319
Catnip (Nepeta cataria L.), 187
Cat’s claw. See Uña de gato
Caucasian/European Americans: CAIH approaches among, 283–299; CAIH use recommendations for, 294–295; case study, 298–299; caveat emptor for health care use by, 295–298; consumer issues with for health care use by, 292–293; efficacy of CAIH practices for, 297–298; German heritage, 288; Greek heritage, 288–290; health professionals, implications of, 293–295; Irish heritage, 290–291; Italian heritage, 291–292;
modalities used by, 286–292; regulation CAIH practices for, 296–297; safety of CAIH practices for, 297–298; theoretical concepts with, 283–286
Center for Food Safety and Applied Nutrition
(CFSAN), 71, 74
Center for Mind-Body Medicine (CMBM), 29
Central nervous system (CNS), 32
CFSAN. See Center for Food Safety and Applied
Nutrition
Chair massage, 87
Chamomile (Manzanilla), 222
Chanting, 188
Chelation therapy, 285
Chi. See Qi
Ch’im, 267, 271
China: heritage, CAIH modalities in, 326–327; practices and traditions of, 265–266. See also Traditional Chinese medicine
Chinese pulse diagnosis, 97
Chiropractic care: benefits of, 103–104; craniosacral therapy, 103; defined, 112, 285; high-velocity, low-amplitude thrust adjustment, 103; history of, 101–102; manipulation, 4; network chiropractic, 103; regulation of, 110; risks of, 103–104; spinal manipulation, 102; types of, 102–103
Chopra, Deepak, placebo effect and MBM research pioneered by, 34
Christianity, Hispanics/Latinos health beliefs influenced by, 210
Chromotherapy, 127
''Chuchupate” (Lomatium californicum), 185
Church attendance, 149, 166
Cinnamon. See Canella
Clavo (Cloves), 216
CM. See Complementary medicine
CMBM. See Center for Mind-Body Medicine
CNS. See Central nervous system
Coastal sagebrush (Artemisia californica), 185
Coenzyme Q-10, 70
Cognitive bias: CAM and CAIH use with, 19–20; defined, 23
Coining/spooning/rubbing. See Kav
Cola de caballo. See Shave grass
Color therapy, 31, 127
Comino (Cumin), 216
Common juniper (Juniperus communis L.), 187
Common yarrow (Achillea millefolium), 185, 187
Complementary, alternative, and integrative health (CAIH): Affordable Care Act and, 10–11; African Americans, approaches among, 235–253; Alaska natives, approaches among, 177–197; American Indians, approaches among, 177–197; approaches in contemporary society, 4–6; Asian Americans using, 259–279; Ayurveda approaches to, 121–141; case study, 22, 345; Caucasians using, 283–299; caveat emptor with, 19–21, 341; Chinese modalities in, 326–327; classification of approaches in, 58–67; cognitive bias toward use of, 19–20; consumer issues with, 11, 336–339; consumers recommendations for, 294; critical view of, 334; culture, health, and, 328–331; deception with, 11; defined, 23, 253, 346; efficacy for practices of, 297–298; Egyptians modalities in, 324–325; European Americans using, 283–299; evolution of concept of health and wellness in, 324; gap between Western medicine and, 17–19; Greek modalities in, 325–326; health professionals, implications of, 339–341; health professionals recommendations for, 295; Hispanics/Latinos, approaches among, 207–229; importance of, 1–2; Islamic modalities in, 327; Jewish modalities in, 327–328; modalities used by, 324–328; Native Hawaiians using, 259–279; overview of, 331–332; Pacific Islanders using, 259–279; beyond paradigm of CAM with, 323–346; principles and use of, 332–333; regulation for practices of, 296–297; research studies on cancer effected by, 334; Roman modalities in, 326; safety for practices of, 297–298; theoretical concepts with, 2–4, 324; training for, 13–14; US government role in, 9–10; West Asian American communities using, 305–320
Complementary and alternative medicine (CAM): Affordable Care Act and, 10–11, 341–342; CAIH going beyond paradigm of, 323–346; classification of therapies, 3–4; cognitive bias toward use of, 19–20; consideration of cultural values on, 252; critics of, 335; defined, 23; definitions related to, 333; diversification of US population using, 236–237; education on, 14–15; ethnic distribution for use of, 8; factors leading in increased use of, 7–9; health literacy with, 105–106; Hispanics/Latinos usage of, 208–209; importance of, 1–2; limits of, 333–336; NCCAM grouping of, 333; NCCAM/NCCIH recommendations for safe use of, 337; patient-provider communication about, 338; placebo effect with, 333–336; RCTs in testing, 17–18; 21st century thinking on, 345; US consumers use of, 6–7; women users of, 8
Complementary medicine (CM), 5–6; CAM related definition of, 333; defined, 283–284, 299, 346
Consortium of Academic Health Centers for Integrative Medicine, 14
Consulta, 221, 229
Corn silk. See Pelos de elote
Craniosacral therapy (CST), 103
Crystals, 189
CST. See Craniosacral therapy
Cultural groups: African Americans, 235–253; Alaska natives, 177–197; American Indians, 177–197; Asian Americans, 259–279; Caucasians, 283–299; Chinese, 97, 265–266, 326–327; defined, 48; Egyptian, 324–325; European Americans, 283–299; German, 288; Greek, 288–290, 292; Hindu, 311–312; Hispanics, 207–229; Irish, 290–291; Islamic, 313–314, 327; Italian, 291–292; Japanese, 266; Jewish, 327–328; Korean, 266–267; Laos, 267–268; Latin American, 158–160; Latinos, 207–229; MBM modality practiced by, 37–40, 47; Native Hawaiians, 259–279; Pacific Islanders, 259–279; Roman heritage, 326; Southeast Asian, 267; tai chi practiced by percentage of, 39; Thai, 267–268; West Asian American communities, 305–320

Culture: CAIH, health and, 328–331; defined, 346; massage therapy and, 92–93

Cumin. See Comino

Cundeamore (Bitter gourd), 218

Cupping, 131. See also Ngus

Curanderismo, 159–160, 169, 213, 229

Curandero, 213, 229

D

Dance ceremonies, 190–191

Deep breathing, 29, 30, 36–37, 285

Dietary Supplement Health and Education Act (DSHEA), 10, 66, 75

Dietary supplements, 4, 66–67; case study, 77–78; commonly used, 68–70; consumer knowledge need on, 338; defined, 76; FDA guidelines for quality of, 73; NHIS on American adults using, 58; nonvitamin, nonmineral, 6, 7, 66–68, 284

Doshas, 124, 141

Dossey, Larry, placebo effect and MBM research pioneered by, 34

DSHEA. See Dietary Supplement Health and Education Act

D’um, 267, 271

E

Ear reflexology chart, 90

Earthly matter (Prithvi), 306

Echinacea, 68; African Americans using, 242

Echinacea pallida. See Pale purple coneflower

Egyptian heritage, CAIH modalities in, 324–325

EMDR. See Eye movement desensitization and reprocessing

Empacho (Upset stomach), 212

Energy healing therapy, 285

Envidia (Envy), 212

Enzyme therapy, 130–131

Epasote (Wormseed), 220

Epstein, Dr. Donald, 103

Espiritismo, 159

Espiritistas, 222–223, 229

Estafiate (Wormwood), 218

European Americans. See Caucasian/European Americans

Evil eye. See Mal de Ojo

Executive massage, 87

Eye movement desensitization and reprocessing (EMDR), 31

Eye of death. See Occhio morto

F

Fallen fontanelle. See Cai da de mollera

Family. See ‘Ohana

Fascia stretch, 243

Fasting: brain plasticity, 65; cancer treatment with, 64; defined, 76; religious and spiritual practices associated with, 64; risks with, 64

FDA. See Food and Drug Administration

Federal Trade Commission (FTC), 74

Fish oil, 68

Five elements: in Ayurveda, 124; in TCM, 95, 97

Flaxseed, 69

Food and Drug Administration (FDA), 10; education on fraudulent health products by, 76; guidelines for quality of dietary supplements, 73; homeopathic preparations regulated under, 71; homeopathy regulation by, 60–61; quackery defined by, 12

Foot reflexology chart, 89

FTC. See Federal Trade Commission

G

Garlic (Ajo), 66, 70, 217; African Americans using, 242

German heritage: cultural alert for healthcare of, 288; healthcare practices used by, 288; spirituality with, 288

Ginger (Jengibre), 217

Ginkgo biloba, 66, 69

Ginseng, 69

Glucosamine, 68

Goldenseal, African Americans using, 242

Granada (Pomegranate), 218

Greek heritage: CAIH modalities in, 325–326; cultural alert for healthcare of, 290; healthcare practices used by, 289–290; spirituality with, 288–289

Green tea, African Americans using, 242

Guided imagery, 285
Hahnemann, Samuel, 59
Han bang, 266–267
Hand reflexology chart, 89
Hanyak, 267, 271
Hazel alderdler (Alnum serrulata), 187
Healing ceremonies, 190
Healing touch, 4, 151–154
Health fraud. See Quackery
Healthy People 2020, 236
Helenium puberulum. See Sneezeweed
Herbal medicines, 4; American Indians plant-based healing practices, 183–184; commonly used, 68–70; defined, 65, 76, 279; safety concerns with, 66
Herbal supplements: African Americans using, 240–243; defined, 253; TAIM using, 310
Herbal tea, African Americans using, 242
Herpes zoster, 132, 219
Hierberos. See Yerberos
High-velocity, low-amplitude thrust adjustment chiropractic treatment, 103
Hindu principles: behavior guided by, 311–312; disciplines, 311; Indian government committees supporting, 311. See also Traditional Indian medicine
Hispanics/Latinos: African heritage influencing health beliefs in, 210–211; botánicas among, 215, 221–222, 229; CAIH approaches among, 207–229; case study, 228–229; caveat emptor for health care use by, 226–227; Christianity influencing health beliefs in, 210; Consulta among, 221, 229; consumer issues with for health care use by, 224–225; curandero among, 213, 229; espiritistas among, 222–223, 229; European customs influencing health beliefs in, 210; health beliefs among, 209; health professionals, implications of, 225–226; herb use by, 214–222; indigenous health beliefs among, 209–210; juramentos among, 224; modalities in use with, 211–213; prevalence of CAM use among, 208–209; santería among, 222–223, 229; slavery influencing health beliefs in, 210–211; sobadores among, 214–222, 229; theoretical concepts with, 208–209; yerberos among, 214–222, 229
Hmong people, 267–268
Hno (Pricking skin with needle), 267, 271
Hojasen. See Senna
Homeopathy: AYUSH, 314; defined, 76, 285; FDA on, 60–61, 71; individualized therapy in, 59; law of similars in, 59; literature supporting, 60; small or minimum dose in, 59
Honey, 308
Ho'oponopono, 270
Humor therapy, 31
Huna, 271
Hypnosis, 285
Hypnotherapy, 4
I
IHPC. See Integrative Healthcare Policy Consortium
Immortal (Spider milkweed), 216
Individualized therapy, in homeopathy, 59
Integrative health, 3, 346
Integrative Healthcare Policy Consortium (IHPC), 10
Integrative medicine: CAM related definition of, 333; defined, 346
Irish heritage: cultural alert for healthcare of, 291; healthcare practices used by, 290–291; spirituality with, 290
Islamic tradition: CAIH modalities in, 327; five pillars of practice in, 313; plant medicines used in, 313–314; Qur'an in, 313; will of Allah in, 311
Italian heritage: cultural alert for healthcare of, 292; healthcare practices used by, 292; spirituality with, 291–292
J
Jacobs, Dr. Joseph J., 9
Jala. See Water
Japan, practices and traditions of, 266
Jengibre. See Ginger
Jewish tradition, CAIH modalities in, 327–328
Jin Shin Do, 100
Jin Shin Jyutsu, 271
Juniperus communis L. See Common juniper
Juramentos, 224
K
Kampo, 271
Kapha, 124, 141, 306
Kav (Coining/spooning/rubbing), 267
Kava kava, 66
Khmer people, 268
Kofte, 290
Korea, practices and traditions of, 266–267
L
La’au Kahea, 270
La’au lapa’au, 270, 271
Laos, practices and traditions of, 267–268
Latin American spiritual practices, 158–160
Latinos. See Hispanics/Latinos
Laugh therapy, 31
Laughter yoga, 31
Law of similars, 59
Lemon. See Limon
Lemon grass, African Americans using, 241
Lemon juice, African Americans using, 242
Light therapy, 129–130, 141
Limon (Lemon), 220
Lokahi (Balance), 269
Lomatium californicum. See “Chuchupate”
Lomilomi, 270, 271
Love, compassion. See Aloha
Maghi (Witch), 292
Magnet therapy, 131, 141
Mahonia pinnata. See California barberry
Mal de Ojo (Evil eye), 212, 292
Malama (To care for), 269–270
Manzanilla (Chamomile), 216
Massage therapy: acupressure, 98–112; acupuncture, 4, 94–98, 105, 109–110, 271, 285; benefits of, 93; CAMTC and, 104; Catholic church and, 86; chair massage, 87; culture and, 92–93; defined, 85, 112, 285; executive massage, 87; history of, 85–87; lomilomi, 270; myofascial release, 87–88; pregnancy massage, 88; reflexology, 88–90; regulation of, 108–109; risks of, 93; Rolfing, 4, 84, 87, 91; sense of touch in, 127; sports massage, 91; structural integration, 91; Swedish massage, 91–92; Thai massage, 92; therapeutic process of, 85; trigger point massage, 92; types of, 87–92; Zuaj ib ce, 267
Matai, 270
Matiasma, 289
MBM. See Mind-body medicine
Medicine wheel, 180
Meditation, 4, 130; defined, 285; spirituality with, 149, 166; transcendental, 29, 30, 37–38, 45
Midwives. See Parteras
Mind-body medicine (MBM): case study on, 47–48; caveat emptor for, 45–46; consumer issues with, 41–42; defined, 48; effectiveness of, 45–46; framework for working with clients using, 44; health professionals, implications of, 42–45; modalities of, 29–31, 35–41, 47; nursing with, 42; pioneers in research on, 34; placebo effect with, 33–35; practices, 3–4; regulation of, 46; resources for, 45; stress and, 31–33, 47; theoretical concepts with, 30
Mindfulness meditation, 29, 30
Minerals, 4
Movement therapies, 4
Moxibustion, 271
Multicultural holistic healthcare, 299
Music, 127
Myofascial release, 87–88

N
National Center for Complementary and Alternative Medicine (NCCAM): classification of CAIH approaches, 58–67; classification of CAM therapies by, 3–4; establishment of, 9; manipulative and body-based practices defined by, 83; MBM resources for, 45; mission of, 2; modalities, 57–78; recommendations for safe use of CAM by, 337; Third Strategic Plan 2011–2015 from, 317–318
National Center for Complementary and Integrative Health (NCCIH): classification of CAM therapies by, 3–4; manipulative and body-based practices defined by, 84; mission of, 2; recommendations for safe use of CAM by, 337; recommendations when selecting practitioner, 246
National Certification Commission of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM), 105
National Commission for Health Education Credentialing (NCHEC), 44, 45
National Health Interview Surveys (NHIS), 6; complementary health approaches used by US adults in, 83; dietary supplement used by American adults in, 58; MBM resources for, 45
National Institutes of Health (NIH), 6
Native Americans: CAIH approaches among, 177–197; case study, 196–197; causes of “disease” vary greatly among, 181; caveat emptor for health care use by, 194–195; chanting of, 188; consumer issues with for health care use by, 192; crystals of, 189; dance ceremonies of, 190–191; diversity of, 177; healing ceremonies of, 190; health and wellness perceptions with, 179–181; health professionals, implications of, 192–194; heterogeneity of, 178–179; medicinal plants used by, 185–187; medicine wheel, 180; modalities in use with, 182–191; pipe ceremonies of, 188–189; plant-based healing practices of, 183–184; smudging of, 191; spiritual healing practices of, 184–191; sweat lodge ceremonies of, 188; theoretical concepts with, 178–182; tobacco used for ceremonial purposes, 184, 188; vision quest of, 189–190
Native Hawaiians: CAIH approaches among, 259–279; caveat emptor for health care use by, 275–276; communication in health interactions with, 274–275; consumer issues with for health care use by, 272–273; countries of origin for, 259; educational attainment of, 261; health professionals, implications of, 273–274; health status of, 262–263; healthcare access and quality for, 261; modalities used by, 263–272; poverty among, 261; theoretical concepts with, 260–262
Natural products, 3–4, 286
Naturopathy: approach of, 61–64; defined, 76, 285; principles of, 62–63
NCCAM. See National Center for Complementary and Alternative Medicine
NCCAO. See National Certification Commission of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine
NCCIH. See National Center for Complementary and Integrative Health
NCHEC. See National Commission for Health Education Credentialing
Nepeta cataria L. See Catnip
Network chiropractic, 103
NHIS. See National Health Interview Surveys
NIH. See National Institutes of Health
Non-Discrimination in Health Care. See Section 2706 ACA
Ngus (Cupping), 267

O
OAM. See Office of Alternative Medicine
Oatmeal, African Americans using, 242
Occhio cattivo (Bad eye), 292
Occhio morto (Eye of death), 292
Occhio tristo (Wicked eye), 292
Office of Alternative Medicine (OAM), 5; first director of, 9
‘Ohana (Family), 269–270
Ohashiatsu, 100
Omnibus Appropriations Act of 1999, 9
Oregano, 219
Osteopathic manipulation, 4
Over-the-counter (OTC) medications, 10

P
PACAAPI. See President’s Advisory Commission on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders
Pacific Islanders: CAIH approaches among, 259–279; caveat emptor for health care use by, 275–276; communication in health interactions with, 274–275; consumer issues with for health care used by, 272–273; countries of origin for, 259; educational attainment of, 261; health professionals, implications of, 273–274; health status of, 262–263; healthcare access and quality for, 261; modalities used by, 263–272; poverty among, 261; theoretical concepts with, 260–262 for, 261; modalities used by, 263–272; poverty among, 261; theoretical concepts with, 260–262
INDEX

Pale purple coneflower (Echinacea pallida), 186
Parteras (Midwives), 213
Pelos de elote (Corn silk), 219
Penstemon barbatus. See Beardlip penstemon
Peripheral nervous system, stress with, 32
Pew Forum’s US Religious Landscape Survey, 145
Phototherapy. See Light therapy
Picrothamnus desertorum. See Bud sagebrush
Pilates, 4, 29, 31, 84
Pipe ceremonies, 188–189
Pitta, 124, 141, 306
Placebo effect: indigenous healers with, 34; mind-body medicine with, 33–35; pioneers in research on, 34; recognition in clinical trials of, 33; spontaneous remissions with, 34
Plumajillo (Pleurisy root), 216
Polygonum persicaria L. See Spotted lady’s thumb
Pomegranate. See Granada
Practika, 289
Prana, 268, 279
Prayer: African Americans using, 240; defined, 253; la’au Kahea, 270; spirituality with, 149–151, 166; TAIM using, 309; therapy, 130
Pregnancy massage, 88
President’s Advisory Commission on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders (PACAAPI), 259, 260
Pricking skin with needle. See Hno
Prithvi. See Earthly matter
Probiotics, 4
Provider-based therapy, 253

Q
Qi (Chi), 169, 279
Qi gong, 4; in brief, 31; defined, 279, 286; expenditures on, 41
Quackery: CAIH training for prevention of, 13–14; conditions prominent in, 12; defined, 12; identification of, 13
Qur’an, 313

R
Ragleaf bahia (Asteraceae), 186
Rahmnnus purses (Cascara sagrada), 222
Randomized clinical trials (RCTs), 17–18
Reflexology: defined, 112; ear reflexology chart, 90; effectiveness of, 90; foot reflexology chart, 89; hand reflexology chart, 89; roots of, 88
Reiki, 30, 40–41, 130; Asian Americans using, 271; defined, 286
Relaxation response, 48
Relaxation techniques, 4; expenditures on, 41
Religion, 169
Religiosity: defined, 146; research on, 145–146
Rolfing, 4, 84, 87, 91
Roman heritage, CAIH modalities in, 326
Rubus idaeus L. See American red raspberry

S
Salix amphibian. See Carolina willow
Salix lasiolepis. See Arroyo willow
Salix spp. See Willow leaves
Sanicle (Senicula marilandica L.), 186
Santería, 158, 222–223, 229
Sassafrass (Sassafras albidum), 185
Savila (Aloe vera), 219, 222
Scared-frightened feeling. See Susto
Section 2706 ACA (Non-Discrimination in Health Care), 299
Senicula marilandica L. See Sanicle
Senna (Hojasen), 222
Shaman, 169
Shamanism, 154; in brief, 31
Shave grass (Cola de caballo), 222
Shiatsu, 99, 271
Siddha, 314
Sight, 126–129
Silver maple (Acer saccharinum), 186
Smell, 126–128
Smudging, 191
Sneezeweed (Helenium puberulum), 186
Sobador, 214–222, 229
Social ecological model, 43
Sound, 126–128
Southeast Asia, practices and traditions of, 267
Soy, 66
Spearmint. See Yerbabuena
Spider milkweed. See Immortal
Spinal manipulation, 102
Spirituality: African practices, 158–160; American Indians practices, 184–191; case study, 167–168; caveat emptor for, 164–165; church attendance in, 149, 166; consumer issues with, 160–162; defined, 169; German heritage, 288; Greek heritage, 288–289; healing touch in, 151–154; health professionals, implications of, 162–164; historical considerations with, 147–148; Irish heritage, 290; Italian heritage, 291–292; Latin American practices, 158–160; meditation in, 149,
166; modalities for, 148–160; prayer in, 149–151, 166; research on, 145–146; sense of sight in, 126–129; sense of smell in, 126–128; sense of sound in, 126–128; sense of taste in, 125–126; sense of touch in, 126–127, 129; shamanism in, 154; TCM in, 155–156; theoretical concepts with, 122–123, 146–147; TIM in, 156; treatment plan using, 139–140; yoga in, 149, 166
Sports massage, 91
Spotted ladysthumb (Polygonum persicaria L), 185
St. John’s wort, 66
Star anise. See Anis estrella
Stereotype threat, 29, 33, 47, 48
Stinking chamomile (Anthemis cotula), 187
Stress: autonomic nervous system with, 32; central nervous system with, 32; MBM and, 31–33, 47; peripheral nervous system with, 32
Stress response, 48
Structural integration, 91
Susto (Scared-frightened feeling), 212
Sweat lodge ceremonies, 188
Swedish massage, 91–92
Tai chi, 4, 29, 30, 38–39; American Tai chi and Qigong Association, 45; Asian Americans using, 271; cultural group percentages who practice, 39; defined, 286; expenditures on, 41
TAIM. See Traditional Arabic and Islamic medicine
Tao, 279
Taste, 125–126
TCM. See Traditional Chinese medicine
Tejas, 306
Thai massage, 92
Thailand, practices and traditions of, 267–268
Thyme. See Tomillo
TIM. See Traditional Indian medicine
Timbang, 268
TM. See Traditional medicine; Transcendental meditation
To care for. See Malama
Tobacco, 184, 188
Tomillo (Thyme), 220
Touch, 126–127, 129
Traditional Arabic and Islamic medicine (TAIM): black seed used in, 308–309; countries where practiced, 307; defined, 320; herbal, 308; herbal supplements used in, 310; honey used in, 308; prayer used in, 309
Traditional Chinese medicine (TCM): acupressure in, 98–101, 112; acupuncture in, 4, 94–98, 105, 109–110, 271, 285; Asian Americans using, 264–266; defined, 169, 279; five elements of, 95, 97; history of, 94; meridian model in, 95; spirituality and, 155–156; 12 meridians in, 95; yin and yang in, 95–96
Traditional Indian medicine (TIM): defined, 169; spirituality with, 156–157
Traditional medicine (TM), 5–6
Traditional medicine and complementary medicine (T&CM), 6; WHO’s strategy for, 342
Transcendental meditation (TM), 29, 30, 37–38; resources for, 45
Triax Metabolic Accelerator, 12
Trigger point massage, 92
Tui n, 271
Tui na, 99–100
Txhuav, 267

U
Ulm, 267
Uña de gato (Cat’s claw), 219
Unani medicine, 307, 320; AYUSH, 314
Unconventional medical practices, 9
United States v. Syntrax Innovations, Inc., 12
University of Southern California, 64
Upledger, Dr. John, 103
Upset stomach. See Empacho
US Adults using complementary health approaches, 6
US Department of Health and Human Services, 2, 11, 72, 74, 163, 194
Utilization of partera, 208

V
Vaccinations, 61, 330
Valeriana (Valerian), 220
Vata, 124, 141, 306
Vayu. See Vital force
Vedas, 306
Vendousas, 289–290
Vietnam, practices and traditions of, 267–268
Vikruti, 124, 141
Vision quest, 189–190
Vital force (Vayu), 306
See also Dietary supplements
Vulnerable groups: defined, 23; fraud and quackery attempts on, 12
W
Water (Jala), 306
Watsu, 100, 271
WD-40, African Americans using, 242
West Asian Americans: Allopathic medicine for, 310, 320; CAIH approaches among, 305–320; case study, 319; caveat emptor for health care use by, 317; consumer issues with for health care use by, 315–317; cultural influences on medicine in, 311–314; health professionals, implications of, 316–317; Hindu influences on medicine in, 311–312; Islamic influences on medicine in, 311, 313–314; modalities used by, 306–310; religious influences on medicine in, 311–314; theoretical concepts with, 306; traditional Arabic and Islamic medicine for, 307–310, 320; Unani medicine for, 307, 320
Western medicine, gap between CAIH and, 17–19
Western yarrow (Achilleamillefolium), 186
Wheatgrass juice, African Americans using, 241
White House's Commission on Complementary and Alternative Medicine Policy in 2000, 5
WHO. See World Health Organization
WHO Traditional Medicine Strategy, 5
Wicked eye. See Occhio tristo
Willow leaves (Salix spp), 185
Witch. See Maghi
World Health Organization (WHO): CAM use reported by, 5; health defined by, 324; knowledge needed on CAM methods suggested by, 317
Wormseed. See Epasote
Wormwood. See Estafiate
Y
Years living in United States, 208
Yerbabuena (Spearmint), 208, 214
Yerberos (Hierberos), 214–222, 229
Yin and yang, 279
Yin-yang theory, 95–96
Yoga, 4, 29, 30, 39–40; AYUSH, 314; defined, 286; expenditures on, 41; laughter, 31; spirituality with, 149, 166
Yoga Alliance, 45
Yogurt, 126, 139, 140, 308
Yoruba, 158, 211, 223
Z
Zakariya Razi, Muhammad ibn, 327
Zang organs, 156, 327
Zen Shiatsu, 266
Zoster-Herpes, 132, 219
Zuajibce (Massage), 267