Index

A
Adversarial collaboration, 60
African Comprehensive
HIV/AIDS Partnerships
(ACHAP), 121
Aguilera, R. V., 48
Aguinis, H., 42, 44
Alcoa, 172–174, 186
Alignment: cases in transactional relationships, 88–93; found in integrative partnerships, 98; philanthropic stage, 70–71;
relevance in collaboration, 124,
125; seen in transformational stage, 110–111; smart practices for, 203–204
Alliance Boots, 76
Alliance for Environmental
Innovation, 100–101
American Airlines, 83
American Express, 82, 89–90, 97
American Humane
Association, 22
American Library Association
(ALA), 74
American Medical Association
(AMA), 91–92
Amnesty International, 32, 135
Andrioff, J., 52
Anglo American PLC, 157
Anupindi, R., 51
ANZ Bank, 13, 27
Apple, 97
Aravind Eye Hospital, 101
Armani, 97
Articulating social problems:
antihunger cause-related marketing, 89–91; case examples for, 134–136; process of, 132, 133. See also Cause-related marketing;
Corporate social responsibility;
Environmental issues; Health-related nonprofits
Ashoka, 101
Assessing collaboration outcomes:
anticipating challenges,
189–191; attributing results to programs, 192–193; benefits internal to partnership, 182–
184; best practices for, 206–207;
clarity of objectives needed,
190, 206; evaluating external benefits of partnerships, 185– 186; evaluation costs, 194–195;
example of mapping outcomes,
186–189; identifying value creation and change when,
190–191; mindset required
for measuring outcomes, 190,
206; reasons for, 179–181; subjectivity of stakeholders, 194; time required to effect change, 193; value generated for collaboration, 184
Association of Fundraising Professionals, 98
Associational values: analyzing, 35–37; case examples of, 27–28; overview of, 38, 182, 201; understanding, 25–26
Austin, J.E., 65, 192
Avon, 74

B
Back of America, 83
Bakker, Peter, 196
Barnett, M.L., 46–47
Barton, Dominic, 45
Base of the Pyramid (BoP) movement: about, 51; building social value with, 54, 57; collaborations supporting, 101; Starbucks collaboration supporting, 108; successes with, 53
Bell Atlantic, 34
Berger, G., 183
Berkeley Open Infrastructure for Network Computing, 120
Beta San Miquel Group, 75
Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, 121
Bojer, M., 119
Bonding with partners, 210–212
Bono, 96
BoP movement. See Base of the Pyramid movement
Bowen, F., 99
BP, 135–136
Brands, 95–96, 112
Branzei, O., 53–54
Brazilian Volunteer Partners Network, 76–77
Brinker, Laura, 95
British American Tobacco, 27–28
Brown, L.D., 58
Browne, Lord John, 135–136
Brugmann, J., 101
Bryson, J.M., 212
Budinich, V., 101
Buffet, Warren, 91
Bullying, 94–95
Burtch, Bruce, 215
Business for Innovative Climate and Energy Policy Coalition, 114
Business in the Community, 54
Businesses: achieving industry-level transformation, 114; assessing benefits internal to, 182–184; assessing position of potential partners, 134–135; beginning collaboration with others, 71–73; benefits of philanthropic acts, 70–71; cause-related marketing by, 82; certification arrangements with, 84–86; creating value with process pathways, 172–174; CSR’s influence on, 42–43; evaluating external benefits of partnerships, 185–186; evolving toward integrative partnerships, 97–98; expectation of responsibility by, 2; finding resource complementarity with nonprofit, 14–17; increased collaborations with nonprofits, 1–2; influence of NGOs on, 59–60; linking interests with nonprofits, 20–22; mastering relationships with partners, 166–167; mindsets of, 42–43; multiple motivations in mindsets of, 43, 47–48; nature of resources used by, 17–20; problem-focused projects by, 86–88; promoting employee volunteer programs, 76–78; question of partnering visibility, 140–141; recognizing organizational capabilities of, 149–151; sponsorships and licensing by, 83–84; synergistic values with health-related nonprofits, 34; taking operational measures with partners, 163–164; using empiricism in evaluating performance, 42, 46–47; value generated for collaboration by, 184. See also CEOs

C
Calvert Social Index, 50
Cancer Society of New Zealand, 13, 14, 27
Canon, 83
Canon USA, 96
Cape Town partnership example, 169
Carter Center, 121
Carter, Jimmy, 71

Case examples: alignment within partnerships, 88–93; articulating social problems, 134–136; assessing risks of partnering, 155; associational values, 27–28; Cape Town multisector partnership, 169; creating value with process pathways, 172–174; detecting prepartnership champions, 133, 144–145; developing insights into partner organization, 138–140; developing partnership-specific criteria, 153–154; directional flows, 13–14; drafting memorandum of understanding, 160–161; employee volunteer programs, 79–81; engagement as value driver, 114–116; evaluating partnership’s performance, 165; finding complementarity, 151; interaction value, 31–32; linked interests, 22; mapping outcomes assessment, 186–189; nature of resources for collaborative use, 19–20; personal familiarization, 169–170; reflecting resource complementarity, 16–17; synergistic values, 33–34; transferred-asset value, 29–30; using outcomes measurement, 191

Casey, Carolyn, 113

Cause-related marketing (CRM): AMA and Sunbeam’s, 91–92; antihunger, 89–91; bonding between partners in, 210–212; effectiveness of campaigns, 94; expanding number of partners in, 96; KFC contributions to Komen fund, 92–93; Kraft Foods, 90; leveraging brand value, 95–96; providing in engagement in causes, 93–95; public support of, 82; TUMS launch of, 89; Walmart’s Good Works programs, 91

CC. See Collaboration Continuum Center for Corporate Community Relations, 47–48

Center of Effective Philanthropy, 191

CEOs: CSR obligations of, 49; incorporating CSR standards in practices, 50; serving nonprofits as board members, 78–79; views on collaboration, 1–2; views on cross-sector partnerships, 52–53; volunteer service by, 78–79

Certification arrangements, 84–86

Chandler, Jr., A. D., 209

Change: collaboration as transformation, 216; identifying, 190–191; measuring social, 192; time required to effect, 193

Charge Against Hunger, 89

Charity Commission, 180

Chiquita Brands, 56

CI. See Conservation International

Cikaliuk, M., 113

Citibank, 143

City partnerships, 116

City Year, 79–80, 98, 99–100, 112–113

Cleveland, Ohio, 116

Coca-Cola, 70, 82, 141

Colegio de San Ignacio de Loyola Vizcaínas, 75

Collaboration: advancing through stages of, 203–205; bonding required for, 210–212; co-creation of resources, 12; creating value with, 4–7; cross-sector and same-sector, 7; embedding in operations, 165–168; governance in, 170–172, 212–214; governing and organizing in, 212–214; interrelated themes about, 199–200; resource complementarity in, 14–17, 23–24, 38, 76, 151, 200; rising importance of, 1–4; as transformation, 216. See also Assessing collaboration outcomes; Collaboration Continuum (CC); CVC Framework; Value creation

Collaboration Continuum (CC): cross-sector partnering in, 65–66; integrative stage, 66, 97–109; migrating along, 174; movement along, 67; philanthropic stage, 66, 68–75; questions for reflection, 126; reflected in CVC Framework, 5, 6; stages of, 65–66; transactional stage, 66, 75–97; transformational stage, 66,
109–123; value drivers for, 67, 123–126. See also Stages
Collaboration Process Value Chain: formation phase, 130–132, 133, 175; illustrated, 129, 177; implementation phase, 130, 155–158, 176; institutionalization phase, 165, 166, 176; pathways contributing to, 127–128; questions for reflection on, 178; revealed in CVC Framework, 5, 6; selection phase in, 130, 145–146, 147, 175–176. See also specific phases
Collaboration Value Portfolio: about, 36–37; mapping, 133, 141–144
Collaborative value: case examples of, 184; defined, 4; defining sources of, 11; emergent, 131; planned, 132
Collaborative Value Creation Framework. See CVC Framework
Collaborative Value Creation Spectrum (VCS): about, 4, 9–11; associational values, 25–28, 35–37, 38; CVC Framework approach to, 4; different value types, 10, 24–25, 35–37; examining sources of value, 23–24; finding linked interests, 20–22, 24, 38; illustrated, 6, 10, 14, 16, 19; interaction value, 30–32; questions addressed by, 10–11; questions for reflection on, 39–40; resource complementarity, 14–17, 23–24, 38, 151, 200; resource directionality, 11–14, 23–24, 38, 76, 200; resource nature, 17–20, 24, 38, 200; reviewing, 37–39; sources of collaborative value, 11; synergistic value, 33–37; transferred-asset value, 28–30. See also Value creation
Collaborative Value Mindset: achieving, 202–203; characteristics of, 45–46; dimensions of, 60–63. See also Mindsets
Commitment, 211–212
Communications: example of synergistic value with broadcasters, 33; needed in collaborative partnerships, 214–215
Community: creating value for, 104; developing goodwill with, 69
Compatibility: assessing partnership, 133; partnering visibility and, 140–141; recognizing organizational, 149–151
Cone Communications, 82, 94
Conference Board, 77
Conflicts, 213–214
Conroy, M.E., 58–59
Conservation International (CI): aligning to social issues, 111–112; assessing risks of partnering, 155; complementarity with Starbucks, 151; drafting memorandum of understanding, 160–161; evaluating partnership’s performance, 165; mapping collaboration outcomes for, 186–189; mapping linked interests, 146–148; partnering with Starbucks, 102–109; personal familiarization for, 170

Conservation Principles for Coffee Production, 105–106

Consumers Choice Council, 106

Corporate Environmental Responsibility Group (CERG), 138

Corporate social responsibility (CSR): assessing collaboration for, 179–180; changing expectations of businesses, 2; empiricism in evaluating performance, 42, 46–47; focusing on cross-sector collaboration, 43, 52–55; influence on business mindsets, 42–43; multiple motivations in mindsets, 43, 47–48; serving shareholders or stakeholders, 42, 43–46; time required to effect change, 193; value integration in mindsets, 43, 48–52

Covey, J., 58

Crane, A., 157

CRM. See cause-related marketing

Crosby, B.C., 212

Cross-sector partnerships: assessing risks of future, 154–155; businesses perceptions of, 58; CEO views on, 52–53; criticism of misaligned, 91–93; cross-sector collaboration mindsets, 43, 52–55; development phases in, 127, 130; evolution of, 65; integrative stage of, 66, 97–109; leveraging special capabilities in, 96; pathways for developing, 127–129; philanthropic stage of, 66, 68–75; between Starbucks and Conservation International, 102–109; transactional stage of, 66, 75–97; transformational stage of, 66, 109–123; visibility in, 140–141. See also Partnership fit; Process pathways

Crutchfield, L.R., 55

CSR. See Corporate social responsibility

CTA-Toyota, 162–163

CVC Framework: assessing collaborative outcomes, 179; Collaboration Continuum in, 65–67; Collaborative Value Creation Spectrum, 10–11; components of, 4–5; concepts of, 6–7; illustrated, 6; past research on value creation, 3–4; processes in, 127–129; research presented on, 7–8; themes relating to, 199–200. See also specific components

D

Danone de Mexico, 93–94

DATA (Debt, AIDS, Trade, Africa), 96

DeBeers Group, 50

Deiglmeier, K., 118

Deloitte, 54, 68, 74
Deutsche Bank, 101
Development Through Service program, 81
DHL, 86
Diageo, 70
Disaster relief, 123
Dow Jones Sustainability Indexes, 50, 179
Drayton, Bill, 101
Drucker, Peter, 43–44
Dual creation of resources, 12
Dumain, Jill, 116
Duracell, 69

Energy industries, 29–30, 122
Engagement: examples of integrative stage, 99–100; philanthropic stage, 71–73; providing in transactional relationships, 93–95; relevance in collaboration, 124–125; smart practices for, 203, 204; used in transformational stage, 113–114
Environmental Defense Fund (EDF), 87–88
Environmental issues: collaborative relationships in, 87–88; developing recycling solutions, 114; linking organic fiber producers and buyers, 115–116; problems of overfishing, 114–115; supporting fair trade coffee, 102–109
Equator Principles, 84
Ese’eja community, 22
Executives. See CEOs
External-benefits mindsets, 46

F
Fair Labor Association (FLA), 115
Falkenberg, L., 115
Farmacias Ahumada, 31
Feeding America, 90
FEMSA, 50, 70
Finnish Association for Nature Conservation, 32
First Responder Institute, 89
Five Guys, 90, 96
Foege, William, 121
Ford, 83
Forest Stewardship Council, 84
Formation phase: about, 130–132; articulating social problems, 134–136; best practices for, 205; detecting prepartnership champions, 133, 144–145; determining partner’s intentions, 136–137; developing insights into partner organization, 137–140; illustrated, 133; mapping collaborative value portfolio, 133, 141–144; other terms for, 130; overview of, 175; question of visibility, 140–141; subprocesses in, 132–134

Frames. See Value frames

Friedman, Milton, 43, 49
Friends of the Earth, 135
Frisk, Patrik, 80
FTSE4Good, 50, 141, 151
Fundación Las Rosas, 31

G

Ganapathi, J., 48
Garrison, John, 99
Gayatri, B., 192, 193

GE Global Innovation Barometer
2011, 118

General Electric (GE), 77, 114
General Mills Foundation, 73
Generic resources, 18, 19
Genesis, 13–14
George, Bill, 44
Georgia-Pacific, 14, 16, 83, 184
Gilmartin, Raymond, 117
Glavas, A., 42, 44

Global Citizenship Report (Hewlett-Packard), 140

Global Climate Coalition (GCC), 135
Global Corporate Volunteering Research Project, 77
Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis, and Malaria, 96, 97
Global Partnership Initiative, 117
Global Witness, 32
Goldman Sachs, 47
Goodwill Industries, 73, 74
Googins, B.K., 54, 101
Gourlay, Alex, 76
Gourville, J.T., 91

Governance: among collaborators, 170–172; areas requiring, 212–214

Governance school of partnership analysis, 157
GrameenPhone, 53
Grant, H.M., 55
Gree Alliance, 135
Greening Australia (GA), 172–174, 186

Greenpeace, 57–58

H

Habitat for Humanity International, 95
Halal, W. E., 45–46, 54
Hartman, C.L., 168
Hawkins, E., 181

Health-related nonprofits: Cancer Society of New Zealand, 13, 14, 27; effectiveness of (Product)RED campaign, 96–97; finding resource nature for, 20; linking interests with, 22; Merck’s collaboration with, 117, 121; nature of resources used by, 17–20; synergistic values with, 34; transferred-asset value with, 29–30

H.E.B., 16–17
Helene Curtis, Inc., 81
Hermansen, Tormod, 53
Herremans, I., 99
Heugens, P.P.M.A.R., 59
Hewlett Packard, 118, 140
Hills, G., 181
Hiscox, M., 82
Hitt, M.A., 185
Home Depot, 16, 84
Honeywell, 122–123
Hoven, Patricia, 123
Hunger Action Month, 90
Hunter, D.E.K., 164, 189
Huntly Energy Efficiency Trust (HEET), 13–14

IBM, 78, 101–102, 119–120, 143
IEG Consulting Group, 97
IFRC (International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies), 86, 139–140
ILA Trust, 140

Implementation phase: about, 130, 155–158; adapting to new partnerships, 161–163; best practices for, 205; evaluating partnerships, 164–165; experimenting, 158–160; illustrated, 156; operationalizing in, 163–164; overview of, 176; subprocesses of, 158

Inclusionary mindsets, 44
Initiative for Responsible Mining Assurance, 84
InnoCentive, 122
Innovation mindset, 56
Institutionalization mindset phase: about, 130; best practices for, 206; converging from value frames, 168–170; embedding collaboration in operations, 165–168; governing collaboratively, 170–172; overview of, 176; processes in, 165, 166
Integrative mindsets, 43, 48–52, 55, 59
Integrative stage, 97–109;
interaction values: about, 30–31; analyzing, 35–37; case examples of, 31–32; overview of, 38, 183, 201–202
Interdependence mindset, 51, 55, 59
International Agency for the Prevention of Blindness, 101
International Council on Mining and Metals, 160
International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC), 86, 139–140
International Trachoma Institute, 121
Ireland, R.D., 185
ISEAL Alliance, 115

J
Jamaican Social Investment Fund (JSIF), 192
James, Gil, 81
Jenkins, B., 109
Jensen, Michael, 44–45
Jocz, K.E., 49

K
KaBOOM!, 16
Kaku, Ryuzaburo, 54
Kania, J., 113
Kanter, Rosabeth Moss, 45, 49, 50–51, 99, 100
Kentucky Fried Chicken (KFC), 92–93
Key success-related resources, 18, 19
Khandker, S.R., 192
Knoepke, Diane, 97–98
Koolwal, G.B., 192, 193
Koschmann, M.A., 58
Kraft Foods, 90, 96, 117
Kramer, M., 113
Kramer, M.R., 48, 51, 54, 57, 70, 75, 179, 181
Krupp, Fred, 88
Kuhn, T.R., 58

L
La Casa de Amistad, 93
La Nación, 184
Latin American Youth Center, 195
Le Ber, M.J., 53–54
Leal, Guilherme Peirão, 110–111
Learning: to be partners, 114; collaboratively, 125, 215–216; maximizing values via, 216
Leonard, H.B., 192
Let’s Build Their Dreams, 94
Leverage: leveraging brand value in CRM, 95–96; philanthropic stage, 74–75; relevance in collaboration, 125–126; smart practices for, 204–205; synergy in integrative relationships, 100–102; transformational stage, 118–123; using in transactional relationships, 95–97
Libraries Online project, 75
Lim, T., 76
Linked interests: case examples for, 22; finding fit between resource complementarity and, 207–208; guiding interactions with, 156–157; illustrated, 21; mapping, 146–148; with partners, 20–22; with transactional relationships, 76; value creation from, 20–22, 24, 38, 200–201
London, T., 51
Long-term mindsets, 45

M
Mackey, John, 57
MacMillan, P., 113
Madar, William, 81
MADD (Mothers Against Drunk Driving), 82
Magdi Soda Company, 143–144
Mair, J., 53, 57
Mapping: collaborative value portfolio, 133, 141–144; linked interests, 146–148; multilevel, 206
Margolis, J.D., 46, 47, 49
Marine Stewardship Council, 115
Marks & Spencer, 163
Márquez, P., 183
Marriott, 99
Martin, R.L., 109
Mastering relationships, 166–167
McDonald’s, 69, 87–88, 141
McKinsey & Company, 2, 45, 48, 49, 69, 70
“Mean Stinks” campaign, 94–95
Measurements: complications in performance, 192–195; managing toward measurable outcomes, 189; measuring social change, 192; mindset required for measuring outcomes, 190, 206
Mecklenburg, Sue, 107
Medtronics, 44
Merck, 71, 117, 121
Merck, Jr., George W., 71
Microsoft, 74–75
Middleton Stone, M., 212
Miller, D.T., 118
Mindsets: achieving collaborative value, 202–203; cross-sector collaboration in, 43, 52–55; CVC Framework approach to, 5, 6; dimensions of, 60–63; evolving nonprofit, 55–60; multiple motivations in, 43, 47–48; overview of, 60–63; questions for reflection, 63; required for measuring outcomes, 190, 206; serving shareholders or stakeholders, 42, 43–46; themes in business, 42–43; transformation possibilities with collaborative, 113–114; understanding collaborative, 41–42; using empiricism in evaluating performance, 42, 46–47; value integration in, 43, 48–52
Minewatch, 135
Mirvis, P.H., 54, 101
Mission: finding fit with partner’s, 208–209; reviewing nonprofit, 136–137
MIT Sloan School of Management, 114
Monterrey Food Bank, 16–17
Moody-Stuart, Mark, 157
Morino, Mario, 180
Morris, Jen, 103
Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), 82
Motivational mindsets, 43, 47–48
Mulgan, Geoff, 180
N
Nadolny, Mark, 92
National Alliance of Breast Cancer Organizations, 74
National Bullying Prevention Center, 95
National Cheeseburger Day, 90
National Science Foundation, 120
Natura, 31, 110–111
Nature Conservancy, 14, 16, 83, 96, 184
Negative publicity: criticism of misaligned partnerships, 91–93; supporting partners affected by, 99–100
Nelson, J., 109
Nestlé, 70, 139–140, 141, 143
Nestlé Creating Shared Value Summary Report, 139
New Balance, 83
Newenham-Kahindi, A., 99
Newquist, S.C., 58
NGOs. See Nongovernmental organizations; nonprofits
Nike, 96–97, 141, 195–196
Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs): adapting to new partnerships, 162–163; articulating problems with, 134–135; assessing benefits internal to, 182–184; assisting in certification arrangements, 85–86; changing business practices, 59–60; collaboration by SMEs, 66; confrontations with businesses, 56–58; cross-sector partnerships with, 58; evaluating external benefits of partnerships, 185–186; example of transferred-asset value with, 29–30; FLA’s Workplace Code of Conduct, 115; initiating collaborative relationships with business, 87–88; rise in partnerships with, 2; scrutinizing track record of, 136; taking operational measures with, 163–164; transactional relationships with businesses and, 87–88; trust in, 69; value generated for collaboration by, 184
Nonprofits: assessing benefits internal to, 182–184; case examples of interaction values with, 32; CEOs on boards of, 78–79; creating value with process pathways, 172–174; evaluating external benefits of partnerships, 185–186; evaluating resource complementarity with businesses, 14–17; evolving mindsets of, 55–60; evolving toward integrative partnerships, 97–98; increased collaborations with businesses, 1–2; linking interests with businesses, 20–22; nature of resources used by health-related, 17–20; recognizing organizational capabilities of, 149–151; reviewing mission of, 136–137; study of resources used complementarily by, 20; taking operational measures with, 163–164; trust attributed to, 69; value generated for collaboration by, 184.
See also Nongovernmental organizations
Nordson, 81
Nordstrom, 100, 115
Nordstrom, Blake, 100
Olson, Arthur J., 120
ONE Campaign, 96
Organic Exchange, 115–116
Organization-specific resources, 18, 19
Osberg, S., 109
Outcomes assessment framework: about, 181–182; anticipating challenges, 189–191; benefits internal to partnership, 182–184; clarity of objectives needed for, 190, 206; complications in measuring performance, 192–195; CVC Framework approach to outcomes, 5, 6; identifying value creation and change for, 190–191; mindset for measurement, 190, 206; questions for reflection, 197; reviewing, 195–197
Oxfam, 135, 163

P
Packard, Ben, 102–103, 105
Paine, Lynn, 48
Palmisano, Samuel J., 102, 119–120
Paper Recovery Alliance, 114
Parent Advocacy Coalition for Educational Rights (PACER), 95
Partizans, 135
Partners: achieving Collaborative Value Mindset, 202–203; adapting to new, 161–163; advancing through collaboration stages, 203–205; aligning with, 98; assessing benefits internal to, 182–184; bonding with, 210–212; building trust with, 159–160, 215; choosing carefully, 91–93; communications among, 214–215; conflict and power management between, 213–214; detecting champions for, 133, 144–145; determining value of resources, 148–149; developing specific criteria for, 152–154; effect of negative publicity on, 99–100; effect of poor pairing with, 130–131; emotional connection of, 211; empathy between, 210; evaluating position of potential, 134–135; expanding number of, 96; experimenting with new, 158–160; finding linking interests with, 20–22; governance among collaboration, 170–172, 212–214; intentions of, 132, 133, 136–137; learning to be, 114; mastering relationships, 166–167; memorandum of understanding with, 160–161; phases of development for, 127; planning and decision making among, 213; recognizing organizational capabilities of, 149–151; risks with future, 154–155; roles and responsibilities of, 212–213; Starbucks and Conservation International as, 102–109; taking operational measures with, 163–164; understanding required for, 210; visibility of future, 140–141. See also Cross-sector partnerships; Partnership fit Partnership fit: assessing benefits internal to partners, 182–184; defined, 133; evaluating performance with partners, 164–165; external benefits of partnerships, 185–186; finding, 207–210
Patagonia, 116
Patscheke, S., 181
Peachley, Ben, 160
Peloza, J., 115, 180
People against RTZ, 135
Pepsi, 72–73
Performance: assessing social and financial, 42, 46–47; complications in measuring, 192–195; evaluating partnership’s, 165; partnership fit and, 164–165. See also Assessing collaboration outcomes
Pew Charitable Trusts, 88
Pfarrer, M.D., 58
Pfizer, M., 181
Philanthropic stage: alignment in, 70–71; defined, 66; engagement in, 71–73; leverage, 74–75; relationships in, 68–69; transactional vs., 75–76
Phills, Jr., J.A., 118
Planned collaborative value, 132, 138–139
Polman, Roger, 54
Polonsky, M.J., 168
Porter, M.E., 48, 49, 51, 54, 57, 70, 75, 179, 181
Prahalad, C.K., 101
Prevention of Blindness, 101
Prickett, Glenn, 111
Prince’s Trust, 132, 144–145, 153–154, 159, 166, 169–170
Problem-focused projects, 86–88
Process pathways: creating value with, 172–174; formation phase, 130–132, 175; illustrated, 129, 177; implementation phase, 155–158, 175; institutionalization phase, 165, 166, 175; selection phase, 130, 145–146, 175; types of, 127. See also Subprocesses; and specific phases
Process school of partnership analysis, 157
Processes: analyzing collaborative, 5, 6; collaborating on, 215–216; defined, 127; evaluating resource complementarity and fit, 15; intention and flexibility in, 128; managing value-creation, 205–206. See also Process pathways
Procter & Gamble, 94–95
(Product) RED campaign, 96
Public schools, 31, 34
Q
Quelch, J.A., 49
Questions: about Collaboration Process Value Chain, 178; addressed by VCS, 10–11; on Collaboration Continuum, 126; on collaborative value creation spectrum, 39–40; defining collaborative value, 11; evaluating mindsets, 63; maximizing collaboration, 217; partnering visibility, 140–141; reflecting on smart practices, 178; regarding subprocesses, 178
Rainforest Action Network, 84
Rainforest Alliance, 106
Rainforest Expeditions, 22
Ralston Purina, 22
Random acts of kindness, 71
Rangan, V.K., 91
RE/MAX, 83
Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, 86
Red Cross Society of Côte d’Ivoire, 139
Red Solidaria, 184
Reficco, E., 183, 192
Relationships. See Partners; Cross-sector relationships; Stages
Reputation Institute, 69
Resource complementarity: best practices in finding, 200; case example of finding, 16–17, 151; evaluating with potential partners, 14–17, 23–24, 38, 76
Resources: categorizing nature of, 17–20, 24, 38, 200; determining value of partner’s, 148–149; examining directionality of values, 11–14, 23–24, 38, 76, 200; identifying key, 9, 10, 200–201; illustrated, 12, 19; questions focusing on, 40; value shifts in transactional relationships, 75–76. See also Resource complementarity
Responsible Mining Assurance, 84
Rio Tinto, 131, 134–135, 138, 151, 153, 161, 170
Risks of future partnerships, 154–155
Roberts Enterprise Development Fund (REDF), 194–195
Rochlin, S.A., 54, 101
Rockefeller Foundation, 122
Ronald McDonald Houses, 69
Royal Bank of Scotland Group (RBSG), 132, 153–154, 159, 166, 169–170
Rupp, D.E., 48
Salamon, L.M., 52
Samad, H.A., 192, 193
Save the Children, 135
Scared Straight, 195
Schatz, R., 58
Schonland, Marc, 111
Schultz, Howard, 103, 104, 106, 111, 112
Scott, Leo, 49
Scripps Research Institute, 120
Seeing Is Believing, 80–81
Seelos, C., 53, 57
Seitanidi, M.M., 58, 157
Selection phase: about, 130, 145–146; assessing risks, 154–155; best practices for, 205; determining value of resources, 148–149; developing partnership-specific criteria, 152–154; illustrated, 147; mapping linked interests, 146–148; overview of, 175–176; recognizing organizational capabilities, 149–151; subprocesses in, 146
Self Magazine, 83
Seligmann, Peter, 109
Senge, Peter, 114
Shamir, R., 46
Share Our Strength (SOS), 89–90, 96
Shared value, 143
Shareholders: creating value for community, workers and, 104; focusing on stakeholders or, 42, 43–46; mindsets of, 43
Shore, Bill, 89, 90
Shriver, Bobby, 96
SightSavers International, 80–81
Sirmon, D.G., 185
Sisodia, Raj, 57
Skoczlas, Amy, 105
Small and medium enterprises (SMEs), 66
SMEs (small and medium enterprises), 66
Smith, Orin, 103, 104, 107, 114
Smithsonian Migratory Bird Center, 106
Smyth, N., 82
Social Accountability (SA) International, 115
Social Investment Index, 50
Social problems. See Articulating social problems; and specific issues
Sole creation of resources: defined, 11
Sponsorships and licensing, 83–84
SROI (Social Return on Investment) Network, 194
Stafford, E.R., 168
Stages: advancing through collaboration, 203–205; CVC Framework approach to collaboration, 5, 6; integrative, 66, 97–109; philanthropic, 66, 68–75; suggested in Collaboration Continuum, 65–67; transactional, 66, 75–97; transformational, 66, 109–123. See also specific stages
Stakeholders: focusing on shareholders or, 42, 43–46; redefining scope of, 104; subjectivity of, 194
Standard Charter Bank, 80–81
Stanley Steamer, 83
Starbucks: aligning to social issues, 111–112; assessing risks of partnering, 155; brand value of, 95; complementarity with CI, 151; creating competency in partnering, 114; drafting memorandum of understanding, 160–161; evaluating partnership’s performance, 165; mapping collaboration outcomes for, 186–189; mapping linked interests, 146–148;
partnering with Conservation International, 102–109; personal familiarization for, 170; (Product) RED campaign at, 97
Stora Enso, 32
Strive Initiative, 191
Subprocesses: formation phase, 132–134; illustrated, 177; implementation phase, 158; questions for reflection on, 178; selection phase, 146
Subsidiaries, 135
Sunbeam, 91–92
Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, 83, 92–93
Sustainable Conservation, 119
Swartz, Jeff, 57–58, 79, 80, 98, 113
Synergistic values: about, 33–34; analyzing, 35–37; overview of, 39, 183, 202; research reflecting, 48–49
Synergy mindsets, 44
T
Telenor, 53
Thust, Bob, 54, 74
Tiffany & Co., 32
Timberland, 57–58, 79–80, 98, 99–100, 112–113
TNT, 86
Trahms, C., 185
Transactional relationships: cause-related marketing, 82; certification arrangements, 84–86; employee volunteer programs in, 76–81; engagement in, 93–95; leveraging, 95–97; paths of alignment in, 88–93; problem-focused projects in, 86–88; shifting sources of value in, 75–76; sponsorships and licensing, 83–84; types of, 76. See also Employee volunteer programs
Transactional stage: characteristics of, 75–76; defined, 66. See also Transactional relationships
Transferred-asset values: about, 28–29; analyzing, 35–37; case examples of, 29–30; overview of, 38, 183, 201
Transformational stage, 109–123; alignment at, 110–111; assessing evolution to, 133–134; case examples for, 111–123; characteristics of, 109–110; defined, 66; engagement used in, 113–114; leveraging the, 118
Trust: associated with nonprofits, 69; best practice in building, 215; building with partners, 159–160; institutionalizing, 167
TUMS, 89
U
Understanding, 210
Unilever, 27, 54, 114–115
United Nations: Environment Programme Finance Initiative, 50; UNICEF, 117
United States: Green Building Council, 114; State Department, 117
United Way, 100
UPS, 101
Vagelos, Roy, 71
Value Configuration Matrix, 149
Value creation: assessing collaboration outcomes, 186–189, 206–207; charting, 133, 137–140; creating value with process pathways, 172–177; CVC Framework approach to collaborative, 4–7; effect of flexibility in, 128; examining potential sources for, 23–24; identifying for outcomes assessment framework, 190–191; identifying value sources and types, 10; intention leading to, 128; linking interests for, 20–22, 24, 38, 200–201; managing processes in, 205–206; past research weaknesses on, 3–4; phases of partnership development for, 127–129; smart practices for, 200–202. See also Collaborative Value Creation Spectrum; CVC Framework
Value drivers: for Collaboration Continuum, 67; engagement as, 114–116; overview of, 67, 123–126; relationship stages and, 125
Value frames: function of, 168; personal familiarization, 169–170; values converging in, 169
Value relationships. See Cross-sector partnerships
Value types: analyzing, 35–37; associational, 25–28, 35–37, 38–39, 182, 201; different, 24–25; interaction, 30–32, 35–37, 38, 183, 201–202; questions focusing on, 40; reviewing, 38–39; specifying key, 9, 10; synergistic, 33–37, 39, 48–49, 183, 202; transferred-asset value, 28–30, 35–37, 183, 201
Values: associational, 25–28, 35–37, 38–39, 182; characterizing CC stages, 66; Collaboration Continuum value drivers, 67, 123–126; engagement as driver of, 114–116; interaction, 30–32, 35–37, 38, 183; leveraging employee volunteerism, 78; leveraging transformation with, 118–123; maximizing via learning, 216; mindsets of shareholders and stakeholders on, 42, 43–46; transferred-asset, 28–30, 36–37, 183. See also Resources; Value creation; Value types
VCS. See Collaborative Value Creation Spectrum
Venture Philanthropy Partners, 180
Verde Ventures Fund, 108
VF Corporation, 80
Volunteer programs. See Employee volunteer programs
W
Waddock, S., 52
Wal-Mart, 49
Walgreens, 83
Walmart, 91
Walsh, J.P., 46, 47, 49
Weber, K., 49
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
<th>297</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Wei-Skillern, J., 192</td>
<td>World Food Program, 86, 123</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Whole Foods Market, 57</td>
<td>World Health Organization, 117</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Williams, C.A., 48</td>
<td>World Wildlife Fund, 27, 55, 114–115</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Williams, Mary, 111</td>
<td>World Business Council for Sustainable Development, 196</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Workplace Code of Conduct, 115</td>
<td>World Community Grid, 119–120</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>World Bank, 192</td>
<td>World Development Movement, 135</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>World Business Council for Sustainable Development, 196</td>
<td>World Economic Forum, 69, 70, 96</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>World Community Grid, 119–120</td>
<td>World Federation of Exchanges, 50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>World Development Movement, 135</td>
<td>World Food Program, 86, 123</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>World Economic Forum, 69, 70, 96</td>
<td>World Health Organization, 117</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>World Federation of Exchanges, 50</td>
<td>World Wildlife Fund, 27, 55, 114–115</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Y
- Yad Sarah, 17, 19
- Yeatman, Perry, 117
- Yoplait, 83, 93
- Yunnus, Mohammed, 53

Z
- Zadeck, S., 49, 54
- ZTA, 83