Contents

Acknowledgements ix

Preface: The Hidden Dimension of Humanity 1

Sequence on Modern Ontology

1. From Theology to Philosophy 19
2. The Four Pillars of Modern Philosophy 28
3. Modern Philosophy: A Theological Critique 49
4. Analogy versus Univocity 50
5. Identity versus Representation 57
6. Intentionality and Embodiment 66
7. Intentionality and Selfhood 72
8. Reason and the Incarnation of the Logos 77
9. The Passivity of Modern Reason 81
10. The Baroque Simulation of Cosmic Order 86
11. Deconstructed Representation and Beyond 88
12. Passivity and Concursus 99
13. Representation in Philosophy 106
14. Actualism versus Possibilism 108
15. Influence versus Concurrence 112
16. Transition 113

Sequence on Political Ontology

1. Cosmos, Law and Morality 114
2. Metaphysics and Modern Politics 128
3. The Fate of the Rational Animal 137
4. The Irony of Representation 142
5. On Legal Concurrence 152
6. The Fate of the Social Animal 154
7. Representation and Mixed Government 170
Contents

8  Bureaucracy and the Formal Distinction 176
9  Form, Matter and Contract 177
10  The Antiquity of Historicism 184
11  The Sovereignty of the Artist 189
12  Eucharistic Creativity and Political Power 195
13  The Conundrum of Kingship 198
14  The Truth of Political Fiction 206
15  The Two Rival Constructions 208
16  Creativity and Mixed Government 211
17  Christological Constitutionalism 214
18  The Fate of the Fabricating Animal 218
19  The Fate of the Beast-Angel 220
20  The Death of Charity 225
21  Augustine’s Three Cities 228
22  Church as Cosmopolis 236
23  Aquinas and Kingship 240
24  The Theology of Ruling 247
25  The Ecumenico-Political Problem 254
26  Supernatural Charity and Global Order 257
27  Socialism Beyond the Left 261
28  Critique of All Materialisms 264

Index 271