Contents

List of Figures viii
List of Tables ix
List of Abbreviations x
Archival References xi
Series Editors’ Preface xii
Preface xiii

1 Imperial Delhi 1
   Security, Territory, Population 2
      Governmental rationalities 2
      Limits of governmentality 14
   Colonial Governmentality 20
      The spatial differences of colonial governmentality 20
      The temporal differences of colonial governmentality 25
   New Delhi: Showcase of Sovereignty 28
      A case for urban regicide? Beyond the capital 30
      The tombstone of the Raj? 33

2 Residential and Racial Segregation: A Spatial Archaeology 37
   Archaeology 38
   Colonial Spaces of Dispersion 41
   The Spatial Administration of Precedence 43
CONTENTS

Visualisation: Objects of imperial discourse 43
Identity: Grids of specification 48
The conceptual landscape 54
The Spatial Dissolution of Order 59
Problematisation: Spaces and subjects of dissension 59
Identities: Enunciative modalities 66
Re-visioning the conceptual landscape 75

3 Disciplining Delhi 82

New Delhi: Policing the Heart of Empire 83
Policing: From government to discipline 83
Policing the capital 85
The Keep: Protecting the core 90
Picket and patrol: Protecting the glacis 94
Anti-colonial Nationalism and Urban Order 96
Sovereignty, law and discipline 97
Identity: Civil Lines 99
Visibility: Disciplined space 101
Techné of discipline: Towards a ‘moral effect’ 103
Problematisations 111
‘Religious Nationalism’ and Urban Diagrams 119
Diagrams, communalism and policing festivals 119
Sketches of urban order: 1886–1923 122
From urban violence to the CRS: 1924–34 125
Diagrams through festivals: 1936–46 135

4 Biopolitics and the Urban Environment 149

Population Expansion and Urban Disorder 149
Domains of government 149
Planning without vision 151
The disease of darkness: Tuberculosis and failing urban technologies 156
The ‘Delhi Death Trap’: Problematising urban governance 159
Congestion Relief, Calculation and the ‘Intensity Map’ 164
Visualisation, the intensity map and the imperial ethos 164
The improvement techne 174
Ongoing problematisations 181
CONTENTS

The Western Extension, Protest and Failed Relief 183

Administrative deadlock and the call for expansion: 1912–36 183

Improving the Western Extension: 1937–47 187

Slum Clearance and the Strictures of Imperial Finance 190

The Delhi–Ajmeri Gate Slum Clearance Scheme 190

‘A tale of two cities’: Delhi’s aesthetic and political landscape 193

Imperial finances and local resistance 200

Re-housing and welfare biopolitics 204

5 Conclusions: Within and Beyond the City 210

Interlinked Landscapes of Ordering 211

Practised connections 211

Analytical connections 212

Beyond Colonial Delhi 216

Space 216

Time 218

Notes 221

Bibliography 233

Index 247