acceptance of illness, agentic vs. resigned, 74 ‘action’ stage, 87–101. see also Rebuilding stage activity(ies), in Rebuilding stage, 89–90, 93 adolescence, schizophrenia beginning in, 4 Adult State Hope Scale, 133
age, as factor in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 12 agency
in hope theory, 140–41
in Rebuilding stage, 90
responsibility and, 57
agentic self, 74
aloneness, existential, resilience and, 99
American Psychiatric Association (APA), 6 antipsychotic(s), in schizophrenia recovery, 15
APA. see American Psychiatric Association (APA) apathy, as stage of loss of hope, 55–6 arbitrary grouping, in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 12 attrition pattern, in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 11 authentic self, in Growth stage, 107–109 autointoxication, schizophrenia due to, 4 autonomous goals, in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 141, 144 autonomous steps, in Preparation stage, 79–81 autonomy
in personal treatment and rehabilitation decisions, 59
in recovery from serious mental illness, 71–2 avolition, schizophrenia and, 55 awakening, followed by building healthy interdependence, 43 awareness, as recovery stage, 46, 47 Awareness stage, 67–76
emotions in, 69–70
goal in, 69–70
hope in, 67–70
identity in, 72–4
meaning in, 74–6
overview of, 67
responsibility in, 70–72
behaviour(s)
goal-directed, lack of, schizophrenia and, 55
self-defeating, changing of, 91 benefit-finding, in loss, 84 bias(es)
methodological sources of, in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 11–12 sampling, in schizophrenia recovery, 14–17
Bleuler, Eugen, in history of schizophrenia, 4–7
Camberwell Assessment of Need Short Appraisal Schedule (CANSAS), 127
CANSAS. see Camberwell Assessment of Need Short Appraisal Schedule (CANSAS) career roles, return to, as recovery requirement, 33–4 caregiver(s), empowerment by, 80–81 catatonia. see schizophrenia chronic illness, powerlessness associated with, 57 clinical practice, assessing recovery outcomes in, 126–7 ‘clinical’ recovery, ‘personal’ recovery vs., 29, 153–4 ‘clinician’s illusion,’ in schizophrenia recovery, 14–17
Collaborative Recovery Model (CRM), 128, 150 commitment, in Growth stage, 103–105 community
    care within, in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 13
    in empowerment, 59
Connor-Davidson Resilience Scale, 133 conscious withdrawal, in schizophrenia recovery, 17 consumer descriptions of recovery, 28–31 consumer empowerment, 58–9
described, 31
consumer-defined recovery, measuring of, 128–9 consumer-oriented model of recovery, 23–50. see also recovery, consumer-oriented model of control, taking of
    in Rebuilding stage, 90–93
    need for, 70–72
    in recovery from serious mental illness, 71–2 control of life, in Growth stage, 105–107 creation, as a metaphor for identity formation
    in Preparation stage, 82–3
    in Rebuilding stage, 98–9
crisis, followed by stage of recuperation, 43
CRM. see Collaborative Recovery Model (CRM) cross-cultural differences, in schizophrenia outcomes, explanations for, 11–13 dawning of hope, 67–70, 88 decision, followed by stage of rebuilding independence, 43 dementia praecox, 4
denial of illness, 72
desirability, hope and, 56
despair, as stage of loss of hope, 55
Determinants of Outcome of Severe Mental Disorders (DOSMeD), 10, 11 devolutional process, recovery as, 45 diagnostic ambiguities, in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 12 Diagnostic and Statistical Manual (DSM), 6
Diagnostic and Statistical Manual–III (DSM–III), 7, 15
Diagnostic and Statistical Manual–IV (DSM–IV), 7, 15 disability(ies)
    living beyond, 45
    living with, 45
    overwhelmed by, 44
    struggling with, 45
discovery, as a metaphor for identity formation
    in Preparation stage, 82–3
    in Rebuilding stage, 98–9
DOSMeD. see Determinants of Outcome of Severe Mental Disorders (DOSMeD) dream a new dream,’ 83
drug(s). see medication(s) economy(ies), informal, in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 12 emotion(s), in Awareness stage, 69 emotional stages, psychological events preceding, 43 empowerment
    community orientation to, 59 concept of, vs. empowerment model, 31
    consumer, 58–9
described, 31
    personal, in taking responsibility, 70–71
    in Preparation stage, 80
    by professionals and caregivers, 80–81 self-orientation to, 59 empowerment model of recovery, 27–8, 30–31 concept of, vs. empowerment, 31 Empowerment Scale, 130
environment(s), healthy, in Rebuilding stage, 95 evidence-based best practices, in consumer-oriented model of recovery, 24 exercise, in Rebuilding stage, 89–90 existential aloneness, resilience and, 99 expectancy, hope and, 56 expected roles, return to, as recovery requirement, 33–4 faith, in Rebuilding stage, 98 family relationships, in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 12–13 Flourish programme, 150 ‘flourishing,’ in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 141, 145–6 former ‘state,’ return to, as recovery requirement, 32
future
optimism about, in Growth stage, 103–105 positive. see also positive psychology towards, 138–54 future goals, loss of, impact of, 65 future self, perceived, in personal hopefulness, 56 future support, in personal hopefulness, 56

GAF. see Global Assessment of Functioning (GAF)
GAS. see Global Assessment Scale (GAS) gender, as factor in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 12
Global Assessment of Functioning (GAF), 125, 131
Global Assessment Scale (GAS), 8, 125 goal(s). see also personal goals autonomous, in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 141, 144
in Awareness stage, 69–70
future, loss of, impact of, 65 higher-order, 105
meaningful, in Rebuilding stage, 96–9 obstacles to, finding pathways around, 105
personal
active pursuit of, 88–90
supporting of, 96–9
in Preparation stage, 79
reassessment of, in Preparation stage, 83–5 self-congruent, in Rebuilding stage, 96–7 self-transcendent, 105
small, attainment of, 89
goal-directed behaviour, lack of, schizophrenia and, 55
Grounded Theory Analysis, 44 growth
personal, in Growth stage, 111–13
in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 141, 144–5
as recovery stage, 46, 47
Growth stage, 46, 47, 103–14
commitment in, 103–105
hope in, 103–105
identity in, 107–109
living meaningful life in, 109–11
meaning in, 109–11
optimism about future in, 103–105
overview of, 103
personal growth in, 111–13
resilience in, 111–13
responsibility in, 105–107
values reassessment in, 110 wisdom in, 111–13

hard work, in Rebuilding stage, 87–8 ‘healing,’ 28
Health of a Nation Outcome Scales (HoNOS), 127, 131
healthy environments, in Rebuilding stage, 95 Hearth Hope Index, 130
hebephrenia. see schizophrenia helplessness, stigma as source of, 61–2 higher-order goals, 105
HoNOS. see Health of a Nation Outcome Scales (HoNOS)
hope
  in Awareness stage, 67–70
  components of, 56, 69
dawn of, 67–70, 88
defined, 35, 140
described, 35–6, 56
in Growth stage, 103–105
inspiration for, 68
loss of, stages of, 55–6
in Moratorium stage, 54–6
in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 140–41
in Preparation stage, 77–9
in Rebuilding stage, 88–90
in recovery process, 35–6 hope theory, 55, 69
  elements of, 140–41
hopefulness
  personal, components of, 56
  in Rebuilding stage, 87–8
hopelessness
  development of, 56
  in Moratorium stage, 54–6

ICD-6. see International Classification of Diseases, Injuries, and Causes of Death (ICD-6)
ICD-10. see International Classification of Diseases, Injuries, and Causes of Death (ICD-10)
identity
  in Awareness stage, 72–4
described, 60
forms of, 60
in Growth stage, 107–109
illness effects on, 43–4
in Moratorium stage, 59–63
‘narrative,’ 109
person’s, 60
positive, building of, in recovery process, 35, 37–8
in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 141–2
in Preparation stage, 81–3
private, 60
in Rebuilding stage, 93–6, 98–9
social, 60
unacceptable, passivity in face of, 62 illness(es). see also specific types and mental illness acceptance of, agentic vs. resigned, 74 chronic, powerlessness associated with, 57 denial of, 72
  explanation for, in Rebuilding stage, 94 living with, in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 141, 145–6 positive explanations of, 72–3 psychological response to, progressiveness of, 43–4 separation of self from, 73 ‘illness as evolution,’ 72–3 ‘illness personified,’ 73
independence
  autonomy vs., 106
decision followed by rebuilding, 43 informal economies, in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 12 information resources, in Preparation stage, 78–9 initiating phase of recovery, 44 inner resources, building of, in Preparation stage, 78 inspiration, hope and, 68 institutionalization, effects on schizophrenia recovery, 15–16 interdependence, awakening followed by building healthy, 43 internal inventory, taking of, in Preparation stage, 81–3 International Classification of Diseases, Injuries and Causes of Death (ICD-6), 6 and Causes of Death (ICD-10), 7 International Pilot Study of Schizophrenia (IPSS), 6, 10 introspection, in Preparation stage, 83–5
IPSS. see International Pilot Study of Schizophrenia (IPSS)
  Kessler-10 (K-10), 131, 132
  Kraepelin, Emil, in history of schizophrenia, 4, 7 labelling
  in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 12
  as ‘mentally ill,’ acceptance of effects of, 62–3 latent schizophrenia, 5
later phase of recovery, 44
learning from others’ experiences, in Preparation stage, 82 Levenstein-Klein-Pollack Scale, 125 life
  control of, in Growth stage, 105–107 purpose in. see purpose in life social, in Rebuilding stage, 90 Life Skills Profile-16 (LSP-16), 131 living beyond disability, 45 living with disability, 45 living with illness, in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 141, 145–6 loss
  benefit-finding in, 84
  sense-making in, 84
  loss of future goals, impact of, 65 loss of purpose in life, in Moratorium stage, 63–5 LSP-16. see Life Skills Profile-16 (LSP-16) mastery, in personal hopefulness, 56 meaning
  in Awareness stage, 74–6
  in Growth stage, 109–11
  in life, in recovery process, 35, 38–40
  in Moratorium stage, 63–5
  in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 140–41
  in Preparation stage, 83–5
  in purpose in life, 64–5
  in Rebuilding stage, 96–9 meaningful goals, in Rebuilding stage, 96–9 meaningful life
  living of, in Growth stage, 109–11 requirements for, 140
meaningful role, finding of, in Rebuilding stage, 97–8 meaningfulness, resilience and, 99 measurement tools, in consumer-oriented model of recovery, 24 medical model of recovery, 25–6 psychological recovery compared with, 29–31 medication(s). see also specific drugs chronicity in schizophrenia related to, 54 effects on schizophrenia recovery, 15 Mental Health Inventory, 127, 133 mental health nursing, Tidal Model of, 27 Mental Health Recovery Measure (MHRM), 129–31 mental health resources, in Rebuilding stage, 92 mental illness
  positive explanations of, 72–3
  recovery from, control and autonomy in, 71–2 ‘recovery from,’ vs. ‘recovery in,’ 153–4 ‘mentally ill’ label, acceptance of effects of, 62–3 MHRM. see Mental Health Recovery Measure (MHRM) middle phase of recovery, 44 moral responsibility, ‘take charge’ responsibility vs., 57–8 Moratorium stage, 53–66
  hope in, 54–6
  hopelessness in, 54–6
  identity in, 59–63
  loss of sense of self in, 59–63
  meaning in, 63–5
  negative symptoms in, 53–4
  overview of, 53
  powerlessness in, 57–9
  as recovery stage, 46, 47
  responsibility in, 57–9
  motivated withdrawal, in schizophrenia recovery, 16–17 motivation
  lack of, schizophrenia and, 53–4
  loss of, in Moratorium stage, 57
NARP. see ‘non-acute remitting psychosis’ (NARP)
  ‘narrative identity,’ 109
National Empowerment Center, 27
National Standards for Mental Health Services 2010, 148–9 negative event, finding benefit in, 111

negative symptoms
  in Moratorium stage, 53–4
  in schizophrenia, psychological and environmental sources of, 54

‘non-acute remitting psychosis’ (NARP), 12 optimism, about future, in Growth stage, 103–105

overwhelmed by disability, 44

paranoia. see schizophrenia pathways, in hope theory, 140–41

patience, with oneself, in Rebuilding stage, 96

‘patient role,’ in schizophrenia recovery, 16

patient’s role, acceptance of, 63

peer support group, in Preparation stage, 80, 82 perceived future self, in personal hopefulness, 56

perseverance
  in Rebuilding stage, 87–8, 99–100
  in face of challenges and set-backs, 92–3
  resilience and, 99

personal empowerment, in taking responsibility, 70–71

personal goals
  active pursuit of, 88–90
  supporting of, in Self Determination Theory, 96 personal growth, in Growth stage, 111–13

personal hopefulness, components of, 56

‘personal’ recovery, ‘clinical’ recovery vs., 29, 153–4 personal resources, ‘taking stock’ of, 78

personal responsibility, 71

person’s identity, described, 60

pessimism, prognostic, schizophrenia-related, 6–7 pilgrimage, in Rebuilding stage, 94

PORT Client Survey, 128–9

positive future. see also positive psychology towards, 138–54 positive identity, building of, in recovery process, 35, 37–8 positive psychology

  relevance to psychological recovery, 139–46 autonomous goals and, 141, 144 ‘flourishing’ and, 141, 145–6 growth and, 141, 144–5
  hope and, 140–41
  identity and, 141–2
  living with illness and, 141, 145–6 meaning and, 140–41
  overview of, 139
  purpose and, 140–41
  resilience and, 141–3
  responsibility in, 141–2
  scientific approach to, 139–41
  strengths and, 141, 143
  values and, 141, 143–4
  well-being and, 141, 145
  science of, 140–41

power imbalance, between practitioner and client, 62

powerlessness
  chronic illness and, 57
  in Moratorium stage, 57–9

preparation, as recovery stage, 46, 47

Preparation stage, 46, 47, 77–85
  building on strengths in, 78
  creation in, 82–3
  discovery in, 82–3
  empowerment in, 80
  goal assessment in, 83–5 goals in, 79
  hope in, 77–9
  identity in, 81–3
  learning from others’ experiences in, 82
  meaning in, 83–5
  overview of, 77
  recording of values in, 82
  reordering of values and priorities in, 84–5 resources in information resources, 78–9
mobilization of, 77–9
personal resources, 78
responsibility in, 79–81
primary enhancement, of psychological well-being, 105 priority(ies), reordering of, in Preparation stage, 84–5 private identity, 60
professional(s), empowerment by, 80–81 ‘prognosis of doom,’ 4
prognostic pessimism, schizophrenia-related, 6–7 psychological events, emotional stages associated with, 43 psychological recovery. see also recovery applications of model, 148–50 characteristics of, 147
compared with other models, consumer descriptions of, 29–31
defined, 40–41
phases of, 42
positive psychology and, 139–46. see also positive psychology, relevance to recovery research directions in current, 152
future, 152–3
scenarios of, 148
stage model of, questions regarding, 115–20. see also stage model of psychological recovery stage(s) of, 45–7, 50–120. see also specific stages, e.g., Moratorium stage Awareness stage, 67–76 Growth stage, 103–14
identifying and describing, 41–5
Moratorium stage, 53–66
Preparation stage, 77–85
psychological events preceding, 43 Rebuilding stage, 87–101
steps along journey of, 41–5 psychological response to illness, progressiveness of, 43–4 psychological well-being primary enhancement of, 105 secondary enhancement of, 105 Psychological Well-Being Scales, 133 psychosis(es), ‘non-acute remitting,’ 12 purpose, in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 140–41 purpose in life
finding of, in recovery process, 35t, 38–40
loss of, in Moratorium stage, 63–5
meaning in, 64–5
need for, 74–6
in personal hopefulness, 56
QOLI. see Quality of Life Interview (QOLI) quality of life, measures of, 127–8
Quality of Life Interview (QOLI), 127–8
Quality of Life Inventory, 128
rage, as stage of loss of hope, 55
RAS. see Recovery Assessment Scale (RAS) reassessment of values, in Growth stage, 110 rebuilding, as recovery stage, 46, 47 Rebuilding stage, 87–101
activity involvement in, 93
agency in, 90
being patient with oneself in, 96 changing self-defeating behaviours in, 91
creation in, 98–9
development of sense of identity in, 96–7
discovery in, 98–9
exercise in, 89–90
explanation for illness in, 94 faith in, 98
finding meaningful role in, 97–8 hard work in, 87–8
hope in, 88–90
hopefulness in, 87–8
identity in, 93–6
meaning in, 96–9
meaningful goals in, 96–9 mental health resources in, 92 nurturing, non-shaming people in healthy environments in, 95
overview of, 87
perseverance in, 87–8, 99–100
in face of challenges and set-backs in, 92–3 pilgrimage in, 94
Rebuilding stage (Continued) rebuilding of identity in, 98–9 rebuilding of social life in, 90
recreational activities in, 89–90
resilience in, 99–100
responsibility in, 90–93
risk-taking in, 91, 99–100
self-care in, 93
self-redefinition in, 93–6 stress management techniques in, 91 support in, 92
sustainability in, 100
symptom management measures in, 90–91
taking control in, 90–93 ‘recovering,’ ‘survivor(s)’ vs., 28
recovery
‘clinical’ vs. ‘personal,’ 29, 153–4
as complex process, 118 component processes of, 34–40, 35t.
see also specific processes and recovery, consumer-oriented model of, component processes of concept of, lack of universal understanding of, 31
conceptualization of, 23–50
consumer descriptions of, 28–31 compared with other models, 29–31
consumer meaning of, 147 consumer-defined
formulation of, 31
measuring of, 128–9
consumer-oriented model of, 23–50 component processes of, 34–40
hope, 35–6
positive identity, 35, 37–8
purpose and meaning in life, 35, 38–40 responsibility, 35, 37
sense of self, 35, 37–8
development of, 24
diverse opinions of, 31–4 empowerment model, 27–8 evidence-based best practices in, 24 measurement tools in, 24
medical model, 25–6
overview of, 23
rehabilitative model, 26–7
search for common ground in, 25 types of, 25–8
defined, 147
described, 20–22
as developmental process, 45 empowerment model of, 27–8, 30–31
vs. empowerment, 31
in historical context, 1–50
as individualized process, 117 meanings of, 153–4
in literature, 25–8
measures of
in clinical work, evaluation, and
research, 151–2
need for, 123–5
measuring of, 121–35. see also recovery-oriented outcome measurement medical model of, 25–6
psychological recovery compared with, 29–31
models of, basis of, 30
operationalizing of, in research, approaches to, 125–6
phases of, 44–45
initiating phase, 44
later phase, 44
middle phase, 44
overarching, 44
rehabilitation vs., 30
rehabilitative model of, 26–7 requirements of
absence of symptoms in, 33 return to expected roles, 33–4 return to former ‘state,’ 32 from schizophrenia, 3–22. see also schizophrenia, recovery from
scientific approach to, 139–41
stages of, 23
steps along journey of, 41–5
Recovery Assessment Scale (RAS), 129–34 recovery process, cornerstones of, 90–93 recovery-oriented outcome measurement, 123–35
assessing outcomes in routine clinical practice, 126–7
from consumer perspective, 127–8 measures based on stage model of psychological recovery, 129–35 measuring of consumer-defined recovery, 128–9
overview of, 123
in research, approaches to, 125–6 recreational activities, in Rebuilding stage, 89–90, 93 recovery, crisis followed by, 43 rehabilitation, recovery vs., 30 rehabilitation programmes, described, 30 rehabilitative model of recovery, 26–7 relapse, possibility of, 116 relationship(s), family, in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 12–13 resilience
defined, 142
in Growth stage, 111–13
personality characteristics associated with, 99
in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 141–3
in Rebuilding stage, 99–100
Resilience Scale, 130
resource(s). see also specific types information, 78–9
inner, building of, 78
mental health, in Rebuilding stage, 92
mobilization of, 77–9
personal, ‘taking stock’ of, 78
in Preparation phase, 77–9
responsibility
agency and, 57
in Awareness stage, 70–72
in Growth stage, 105–107
for life and well-being, in recovery process, 35, 37 moral, vs. ‘take charge’ responsibility, 57–8
in Moratorium stage, 57–9
personal, 71
personal empowerment in taking, 70–71
in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 141–2
in Preparation stage, 79–81
in Rebuilding stage, 90–93
‘take charge,’ vs. moral responsibility, 57–8 risk-taking
in Preparation stage, 80
in Rebuilding stage, 91, 99–100
role(s)
expected, return to, as recovery requirement, 33–4 meaningful, in Rebuilding stage, 97–8
patient’s, acceptance of, 63 sick, 57
sampling bias, in schizophrenia
recovery, 14–17
schizophrenia
age of onset of, 4
avolition in, 55
chronicity in, causes of, 53–4
defined, 4, 5
diagnostic systems for, 6–7 earliest description of, 4
eyear conceptualizations of, 4–6 loss of motivation in, 53–4 latent, 5
loss of self in, 59–63
prognostic pessimism related to, 6–7 persistence of, 13–14
recovery from, 3–22. see also psychological recovery; recovery circularity in diagnosis in, 14–15 ‘clinician’s illusion’ in, 14–17 conscious withdrawal in, 17
described, 20–22
emergence of ‘recovery’ movement in, 18–20 empirical evidence for, 7–13 cross-cultural studies, 9–11 explanations for cross-cultural differences, 11–13 longitudinal studies of outcome, 8–9 institutionalization effects on, 15–16 medication effects on, 15
motivated withdrawal in, 16–17
overview of, 3
‘patient role’ in, 16
phases of, 44–5
schizophrenia (Continued) psychological effects of diagnosis on, 16–17
real possibility of, 17–18
sampling bias in, 14–17
self-stigma in, 16
treatment effects on, 15
symptoms of, 4–6
fundamental vs. accessory, 5
Schizophrenia Patient Outcomes Research Team (PORT) Client Survey, 128–9 Schneider, in history of schizophrenia, 5–6 secondary enhancement, of psychological well-being, 105
self agentic, 74
authentic, in Growth stage, 107–109 durable sense of, development of, 81–2 in identity, 60
perceived future, in personal hopefulness, 56 sense of
loss of, in Moratorium stage, 59–63
renewal of, in recovery process, 35, 37–8
separation from illness, 73
‘taking stock’ of, in Preparation stage, 81–3 Self Determination Theory, 58, 96, 106, 141–2, 144 self-care, in Rebuilding stage, 93 self-congruent goals, in Rebuilding stage, 96–7 self-defeating behaviours, changing of, in Rebuilding stage, 91 self-help groups, 59
self-help programmes, 59
Self-Identified Stage of Recovery (SISR), measures based on, 130–31 self-orientation, to empowerment, 59 self-redefinition, in Rebuilding stage, 93–6 self-reliance, resilience and, 99 self-stigma, 62
in schizophrenia recovery, 16
self-transcendent goals, 105 sense of identity, in Rebuilding stage, 96–7, 98–9 sense of self
loss of, in Moratorium stage, 59–63
renewal of, in recovery process, 35, 37–8
sense-making, in loss, 84
Short Interview to Assess Stages of Recovery (SIST-R), measures based on, 131–2 sick role, 57
SISR. see Self-Identified Stage of Recovery (SISR)
SIST-R. see Short Interview to Assess Stages of Recovery (SIST-R)
Social and Occupational Functioning Scale (SOFAS), 125
social identity, 60
social life, in Rebuilding stage, 90 social roles, return to, as recovery requirement, 33–4 sociocultural factors, in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 12–13 SOFAS. see Social and Occupational Functioning Scale (SOFAS) spirituality, as source of hope, 68 stage(s), emotional, psychology events preceding, 43 stage model of psychological recovery described, 117 five vs. three stages in, 118
intrapersonal nature of, 119 measures based on, 129–35
SISR, 130–31
SIST-R, 131–2
STORI, 132–5
questions regarding, 115–20
recovery ending in, 118–19
relapse possibility in, 116 researchers and professionals colonizing consumers’ experiences in, 117–18 as set of standards for consumers to be measured against, 117 Stages of Change Model vs., 115–16
suffering in, 119
TTM vs., 115–16
Index

Stages of Change Model, stage model of psychological recovery vs., 115–16 stages of psychological recovery, identifying and describing, 41–5. see also specific stages Stages of Recovery Instrument (STORI), 132–5, 151 stigma in cross-cultural differences in schizophrenia, 12
self-, 62
as source of helplessness, 61–2
STORI. see Stages of Recovery Instrument (STORI)
Strauss-Carpenter Levels of Functioning Scale, 8, 125 strength(s)
defined, 143
in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 141, 143
in Preparation stage, building on, 78 stress management, in Rebuilding stage, techniques of, 91 struggling with disability, 45 suffering, in stage model of psychological recovery, 119 support, during recovery, 92 support group, in Preparation stage, 80, 82
'survivor(s)', recovering vs., 28 sustainability, in Rebuilding stage, 100 symptom(s)
absence of, as recovery requirement, 33
management of, in Rebuilding stage, 90–91 negative
in Moratorium stage, 53–4
in schizophrenia, psychological and environmental sources of, 54
'take charge' responsibility, moral responsibility vs., 57–8 taking control
need for, 70–72
in Rebuilding stage, 90–93
in recovery from serious mental illness, 71–2
'taking stock'
of personal resources, in Preparation stage, 78 of self, in Preparation stage, 81–3 temporality, hope and, 56
Tidal Model of mental health nursing, 27
'transformation,' 28
Transtheoretical Model of Change (TTM), stage model of psychological recovery vs., 115–16
TTM. see Transtheoretical Model of Change (TTM) unacceptable identity, passivity in face of, 62
United States–United Kingdom Diagnostic Project, 6 University of Wollongong, 152 value(s)
defined, 143
expressing of, 39
in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 141, 143–4
reassessment of, in Growth stage, 110 recording of, in Preparation stage, 82, 84–5
Vermont Longitudinal Study, 125
Maine vs. Vermont patient treatments in, 17–18 well-being
in positive psychology relevant to recovery, 141, 145
psychological, primary and secondary enhancement of, 105
from wellness to, 147–8 wellness
tcontrol of, in Growth stage, 105–107
to well-being, 147–8
'what now?', 43
WHO. see World Health Organization (WHO)
WHO International Study of Schizophrenia, 9
WHO ISoS studies, 11
'why me?', 43
Wisconsin Quality of Life Index (W-QLI), 128

wisdom, in Growth stage, 111–13

withdrawal

conscious, in schizophrenia recovery, 17

motivated, in schizophrenia recovery, 16–17

World Health Organization (WHO), 6, 10

World Mental Health Day Conference, 27

W-QLI. see Wisconsin Quality of Life Index (W-QLI)