INDEX

Page numbers in italics refer to figures and tables.

A
Abbreviations, use of, 113
Absolute scoring, 240
Accomplished facilitator rating, 410
Action, follow-up. See Follow-up action
Actions list, 70, 108, 119, 158, 164–165, 344
Adobe Connect, 293
Advance notification. See Meeting notices
Advanced Class, The (course), 423
Advanced facilitator rating, 410
Advanced Facilitator Workshop, The (course), 421
Advisor role, 2
African Americans, 356
African cultures, introductions and, 338
Agenda checkpoints. See Checkpoints
Agenda development from scratch: need for,
275; secret to, 275; steps for, 276–277
Agenda setting: applying the secrets to, to a first meeting, 281–284; case study involving,
267–268; checklist for, 284–285; covering O-P-Q-R-S-T in, 277–278, 294; and creating facilitation guides, 277–278, 279; in cross-cultural facilitation, 348–351; customization in, 273–275; and developing agendas from scratch, 275–277; and estimating time, 279–281; exercise on, 285; principle of, overview of,
xxix, xxxiv, xxxvi; standard agendas for, using,
269–273; and the starting question, 18–19, 278,
294; and tracking time, 281; and understanding process, 268–269; for virtual meetings, 294. See also Agendas; Preparing Agendas: accommodating hull times on, 254; buy-in to, gaining, 63–64, 76; conventional wisdom about, 59; customizing, 273–275, 348–351; estimating time for individual items on, 280–281; for first meetings of task forces, sample demonstrating, 282–284; gathering time and start time on, 46, 47, 74, 75;
highly structured, for virtual meetings, 288;
importance of, 54; in information gathering and processing, 128; linking personal objectives to, 63–64, 338; meeting notices and, 46, 47;
order for, covering the, 278, 294; as a process,
269; reviewing, 58, 63, 64, 73, 80, 81, 157, 338,
396; standard, using, 269–273; wording of, 278.
See also Agenda setting; Process
Agile Business Leader, The (Brewster and Dowse), 323, 327
Agreed-upon comments, seeking, before recording, problem of, 103
 Agreeing on solutions: to disagreements, bridge to, 224–225; to dysfunctional situations,
187–188, 204; to neutrality dilemma, 416. See also Consensus; Consensus building
Alerting, 91, 405
Alternative report-back process, 95–96, 143, 144, 306
Alternatives: creating new, 232; identifying, under discussion, 225; multiple, processing, 243; scoring, 237, 238, 239–240; strengths and weaknesses of, identifying, 229. See also Consensus building
Ambiguity and discomfort, embracing, 357–358
American Society for Training and Development, xxxix
Americans: dominance and, 352, 355, 356–357, 357–358; placement of, on a continuum of cultural dimensions, 324, 325; stereotyping, 322; as a term, dominance reflected in use of, 367n2; and their view of meetings, 318
Analytical approaches: need for, determining, 224, 235; preference for, 253. See also Weighted score method
Anonymity: in briefings, to gain buy-in, 13; cross-cultural sessions and, 335, 341; virtual meeting and, 299–300
Apologizing, 200, 203
Applause, using, 257
Apprentice facilitator rating, 410
Arabs, 324, 325
Arrival time: for facilitators, 73–74; for participants, 46, 47, 74–75
Art of Facilitation, The (Hunter), 15n1, 424
Asian Americans, 356
Asian cultures, 338, 344. See also specific Asian group
Asking versus telling, 106–107
Assessing and certifying facilitators. See Facilitator certification
Assessment, as a competency area, 411
Assigned order, 127
Assigned seating, 181
Associate facilitator rating, 410
Audience for communication, 166, 167
Austin, G., 15n1
Australians, 319–320, 325
Austrians, 324, 325
Authenticity, energy and, 252–253
B
Baby Boomers, 326, 328–329
Bad meetings, 395
Bailey, A., 424
Barkman, G., 388–389, 392
Barriers, potential, strategies to address, 160–162
Baseline behaviors, 184
Behaviors, cultural. See Cultural behaviors
Behaviors, dysfunctional. See Dysfunctional behavior
Beliefs. See Values/beliefs
Bens, I., 15n1
“Beyond Individualism/Collectivism” (Schwartz), 424
Big view: explaining the, 80, 81–82, 83, 97; omitting the, dangers in, 82–83
Blindfolded instruction, 260
Blondell, B., 389
Bowne and Company, case of, 386–387
Brainstorm lists, 295
Brainstorming: cross-cultural facilitation and, 343; energy and, 257; and focusing, 87; for information gathering, 128, 136–138, 151; preliminary, 295; recommended reading on, 424
Brazilians, 322, 324, 325
Breakout groups: appropriate use of, understanding, 126; cross-cultural facilitation and, 340–341; for inquiring, 134, 135; large group facilitation and, 305–306, 307; managing, 90–97; for reaching consensus on wording, 242; report-back process for, 95–96, 143, 144–145; secret to effective, 90; using smaller, to maintain energy, 258; very small groups and, 405; for virtual meetings, 297
Breaks: additional, taking, to maintain energy, 258; conference facilitation and, 312; from consensus building activities, 241, 346; managing dysfunction during, 182–183, 186, 188; resetting the energy level following, 255; time for, estimating, 281
Brewster, B., 323, 327, 348
Bridge builders, facilitators as, 7
Brief encounters method, 147, 309
Briefing participants, 13, 44–45, 46
Briggs, B., 393
British people, 318
British Telecom (BT), 388
Brittingham, G., 72
Buddhists, 334
Building-block processes, focus on, xxvi, xxvii, 125.
  See also Information gathering and processing
Buy-in: to the agenda, gaining, 63–64, 76; applying the secrets to gain, role of facilitator in, 13–14; creating, questioning and, 29, 89; for facilitator development program, case study involving, 382; when facilitation is needed for, 4, 5, 9

C
“Call-in” location, having a, 295
Canadian government, 11
Canadians, 319–320, 322
Capability, internal facilitation, building. See Internal facilitator capability, building
Caribbean culture, case study involving, 336–337
Caring people, facilitators as, 7, 8
“Case for Masterful Meetings, The” (Wilkinson), xviii
Categorizing: additional method for, 148; as a building-block process, xxvii, 125; examining a method for, 130–133; purpose of, 126; sample method selected for, 128; secret to, 130
Cell phone junkies, managing, 189
Certification Preparation Class, The (course), 421
Certified facilitators: aging of, 12; comparing types of, 409; types of, 11; youthful, need for, 12–13. See also specific type
Certified Master Facilitators (CMF), 11, 384, 408–411, 418, 420, 421, 423
Certified Professional Facilitators (CPF), 11, 408, 409, 418, 420, 424
Challenges of Virtual and Blended Meetings (Smith), 293
Change management, organizational alignment versus, 371–372
Change, resistance to, course on facilitating, 422
Changes, recommended, and whether to speak up for them, 243
Charts. See Flip charts
Checkpoints: applying, 97; cross-cultural facilitation and, 339; extended, 83; and gathering information, 128, 129, 131, 133, 135, 136, 142, 143, 144, 146; multiple, using, 82; sample, 81, 86; secret to using, 80; using, 80–83; for virtual meetings, 298; wording for, providing sample of, to team leaders, 306. See also Consensus checks; Dysfunction checks
Chinese people, 318, 324, 325
Clairvoyants, facilitators as, 7
Closing: adequate time for, planning, 169; and assigning actions, 164–165; case study involving, 155–156; checklists for, 172–173, 399; and clearing the issues list, 163–164; in conference facilitation, 310; and confirming commitment to decisions made, 158–163; in cross-cultural facilitation, 343–344; debriefing during, 157, 169; defining communicating about the session in, 156, 165–167; evaluating the session in the, 167, 168, 284; exercise on, 173; and formally ending the session, 169; partial, delivering a, 171–172; principle of, overview of, xxix, xxx, xxxiii, xxxiv, secret to, 157; sequence for, 156–157; and sessions running behind, 170–171; and sessions running over, 171; simple meetings and, 397; standard segment for reviewing and, including, on agendas, 274; for virtual meetings, 291–292; without reviewing, a Guerrilla Facilitator’s response to, 403, 404
Closing time, planning adequate, 169
Coaching facilitators. See Facilitator training
Codes of behavior, cultural, 318
Commitment: to decisions, xxv, 6, 158–163; to reaching agreement, lack of, 220, 222
Communal Space vs. Territorial dimension, 324, 349
Communicating about the session, defining, in closing, 156, 165–167
Communication: anonymous versus open, 300; as a competency area, 411; impact of culture on, 319, 320; styles of, recognizing, 184, 185, 197
Communication, indirect versus direct. See Indirect Communication vs. Direct dimension Communication Plan Matrix, 165, 166–167
Communication plan, setting up a, 282, 283
Communicator, person responsible for being the, 166, 167

Competency model for facilitator certification:
benefits of using a, 410; drafting the, 408–409;
major competencies in the, summarized, 411

Compliance style, 184, 185

Concise recording, 110–113

Concrete products, 41

Conference committees, meeting with, 313

Conference facilitation: agenda for, 270; brief encounters method in, 309; case study involving, 307–310; checklist for, 314–315; closings in, 310;
exercise on, 315; focusing the audience in, 308;
introductory portion of, 308; and managing speakers, 312; overview of, xxxvii; panel approach in, 309; planning and designing for, guidance on, 310–313; post-questions in, 308; pre-questions in,
309; reflection process in, 308–309; secret to, 310.

See also Large group facilitation

Conference format, 307

Conflicts, constructive, 397. See also Disagreement, understanding

Conflict resolution sessions, steps in, 221

Conscious dysfunctional behavior, 178

Consensus: checking for, after scoring, 141,
143; defining, 162, 210–211; five-finger,
213–215; full, insisting on, issue with, 211, 213;
misunderstanding the concept of, implications of, 210–211; secret to understanding, 211; on wording, applying the secrets to, 242–243

Consensus building: after prioritizing, 143;
applying the secrets to, to manage the wording process, 242–243; case studies involving, 209–210, 234–235; checklist for, 244–245; for conference facilitation, 311; in cross-cultural facilitation, 345–346; and deciding how to decide, 212–215; and defining consensus, 210–211; exercise on, 245; and knowing when to move on, 241; principle of, overview of, xxxix, xxxiv, xxxv; relationships among the strategies for, 224; techniques for, 223–241, 241–242, 346;
and understanding disagreement, 215–223

Consensus checks, 227–228, 230, 233, 239, 243, 298

Consistency: agenda setting and, 270, 278, 281, 282;
as a competency area, 411; full-time facilitators providing, 392; scoring, in competency assessment, 410; virtual meetings and, 293

Constructive conflict, 397

“Constructivist Listening for Empowerment and Change” (Weissglass), 425

Consultants/experts: applying the secrets as, strategies for, 407–408; case study involving, 406–407; creating the solutions, problem with, xxiii–xxiv, xxv; expectations organizations often have of, 405; secret for, 405

Contagious energy, 251

Content neutrality, 31

Context setting, 342

Control, as a competency area, 411

“Could,” impact of, as a term, 25, 26

Crawford, D., 47–48

Creation mode, 43

Creative Problem Solving Institute, 313

Criteria: defining the, 236; key points on, 239;
weights for the, establishing, 236–237

Critical question, determining the, 276

Cross-cultural competency, defined, 321

Cross-cultural facilitation: agenda setting in, 348–351; applying the secrets to, 333–351; assessing cultural awareness for, 324–325; case studies involving, 334, 336–337; checklist for, 364–366; closing in, 343–344; consensus building in, 345–346; cultural competency and, understanding, 318–333; energy in, 347; exercise on, 366; focusing in, 339–341; and generational differences, 326–332; information gathering in, 342–343; institutional power and, 351–364; managing dysfunction in, 344–345;
and national differences, 322–332; overview of, xxxvii–xxxviii; preparing for, 334–336, 345;
questioning in, 333–334; recommended reading for, 424, 425; recording in, 341–342; and the role of stereotyping plays in, 322; secret to, 323; starting and, 336–339; suggestions for, 332–333; use of empathy in, 322–323; veteran facilitators with experience in, introducing, 317–318; and working with multicultural groups, 351
CROSSING THE RIVER ACTIVITY, 260–264

CULTURAL AWARENESS ASSESSMENT, 323, 324–325, 326, 335, 366

CULTURAL BEHAVIORS: AND CODES OF BEHAVIOR, 318; DEFINED, 321

CULTURAL BIAS, UNDERSTANDING, 332, 335, 351. SEE ALSO CULTURAL AWARENESS ASSESSMENT

CULTURAL COMPETENCY, UNDERSTANDING, 318–333. SEE ALSO CROSS-CULTURAL FACILITATION

CULTURAL DEFINITIONS, 319–321

CULTURAL DIMENSIONS: CONTINUUM OF, PLACEMENT OF NATIONS ON A, 324–325; CUSTOMIZING AGENDAS BASED ON, 348–351

CULTURE: DEFINED, 320, 359–360; TYPES OF, 320–321

CULTURE’S CONSEQUENCES (HOFSTEDÉ), 424

CUSTOMER SALES CALLS, APPLYING THE 5 PS TO, XXXIX, 52

CUSTOMERS, IRRATE, MANAGING, 203–204

CUSTOMIZING AGENDAS: FOR CROSS-CULTURAL FACILITATION, 348–351; EXAMPLES OF, 274; PRINCIPLES OF, 274–275; REASON FOR, 273; SECRET TO, 274

D

DANISH PEOPLE, 324, 325

DATE OF COMMUNICATION, 166, 167

DEBRIEFING, 157, 169

DECISION FORMULA, XXX, 6

DECISION MAKING: BUILDING A COMMON SET OF VALUES PRIOR TO, 275; CHOOSING A METHOD FOR, 212–215, 282, 345–346; RECOMMENDED READING ON, 424

DECISIONS: CONFIRMING COMMITMENT TO, 158–163; DOCUMENTING, AND BENEFITS, 158, 159–160; LEVEL OF COMMITMENT TO, IN THE DECISION FORMULA, XXX; 6; POTENTIAL BARRIERS TO IMPLEMENTING, STRATEGIES TO ADDRESS, 160–162; REVIEWING, IN CLOSING, 158, 397; SECRET TO CONFIRMING COMMITMENT TO, 158

DECISIONS LIST, 70, 108, 119, 158, 159

DELAYED STARTS, PLANNING FOR, IN CONFERENCE FACILITATION, 312

DELINEATING QUESTIONS, ASKING, 224, 225–227, 228, 229

DELINEATION TECHNIQUE: DISCOVERING LEVEL 1 DISAGreements IN THE, 223, 228–229; KEY POINTS IN THE, 228; RELATIONSHIP OF THE, TO OTHER

CONSensus BUILDING STRATEGIES, 224; RESULTS FROM, 227; SELECTING TOP ALTERNATIVE FOR USING THE, 233; STEPS IN THE, 224–228; FOR THE TOP ALTERNATIVE, 233

DELIVERABLES, DEFINING, 42. SEE ALSO PRODuctS

DENMARK, PEOPLE OF, 324, 325

DETAILS, GETTING. SEE FACTS, GATHERING

DIRECT PROBES, 28, 116, 228, 298, 334

DIRECT SUPPLY CASE STUDY, 377–379, 386, 392

DIRECTS, DELIVERING: TO BREAKOUT TEAMS, 94; CLEARLY, 85–87; CROSS-CULTURAL FACILITATION AND, 339–340; SAMPLE OF, 86; SECRET TO, 85; IN VIRTUAL MEETINGS, 298; WORDING FOR, PROVIDING SAMPLE OF, TO TEAM LEADERS, 306. SEE ALSO PeDeQs

DIRECTION-SETTING MODE, 43

DISAGREEMENT, UNDERSTANDING: AND CONFIRMING THE SOURCE, 225; IMPORTANCE OF, 210; BY KNOWING THE LEVELS, 210, 215–223; SECRET TO, 215; SIMPLE MEETINGS AND, 397. SEE ALSO Consensus building

DISC COMMUNICATION STYLES, 184, 185, 197

DISCOMFORT AND AMBIGUITY, EMBRACING, 357–358

DISTRUST/DISRESPECT, 118, 299

DITCHED, DEFINED, 45

DIVERSITY, GROUP, LACK OF, IN VERY SMALL GROUPS, 405

DOCUMENTING. SEE RECORDING

DOMINANCE EFFECT, UNDERSTANDING THE, 352–354. SEE ALSO Institutional power

DOMINANT CULTURE, DEFINED, 321

DOMINATORS OF DISCUSSIONS, ADDRESSING. SEE LOUDMOUTHS, MANAGING

DOOR SLAMMERS, MANAGING, 190

DOT VOTING, 128, 139, 141, 142–143, 404

DOWSE, E., 15N1, 317–318, 323, 327, 348

DOYLE, M., 424

DRAINING DOWN, 32, 33

DRIVE STYLE, 184, 185, 197

DRIVERS MODEL, 287

DROPOUTS, MANAGING, 190, 403, 404

DUAL LIST, 165, 166

DUMP AND CLUMP METHOD, 148

DURNFORD, T., 391

DUTCH PEOPLE, 325

DYSFUNCTION CHECKS, 183, 184
Dysfunction, managing: applying the secrets to, 203–204; case studies involving, 175–176, 198–199; checklist for, 205–207; with a clean resolution, 185–188, 202–203, 203–204; in cross-cultural facilitation, 344–345; with early detection, 183–184, 185, 202; exercise on, 207; Guerrilla Facilitation and, 403, 404; lesson learned about, 201–202; prevention strategies for, 180–183, 185, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 201–202; principle of, overview of, xxix, xxxiii–xxxv; recommended responses for, 188–196; in recording, 114; and responding to mistakes and attacks, 198–201; by rewarding functional behavior, 201; sins committed by facilitators involving, 118; by understanding what dysfunctional behavior is, 177–180; when the unexpected happens, 196–198

Dysfunctional behavior: common types of, causes and description of, and responses to, 189–196; as culture specific, 344–345; defined, 178, 344; detecting, secret to, 183; early signs of, 183–184; functional versus, 178–179; prevalence of, xvii–xviii; preventing, secret to, 180; resolving, secret to, 185; root causes versus symptoms of, 178, 179–180; steps to resolving, 185–188; as a substitution, 178; as a symptom, 178, 179–180; understanding, secret to, 178

E

Early detection of dysfunction: lesson learned about, 202; secret to, 183; techniques for, 183–184, 185

Early leavers/late arrivers, managing, 191

Editing flip charts, 117

Effective Facilitator, The (course), xvii, xxi–xxii, xxxix, 419, 421

Egos, facilitators putting aside, 8, 199, 200, 415

Egyptians, 324

“Elephant in the living room” situations, 197

Elevating facilitators, impact of high energy on, 248, 249

Elevator speech method, 148

ELMO (“Enough, Let’s Move On”) cards, 107

Emotional Expressive vs. Refrained dimension, 325, 350

Emotionally charged words: managing situations involving, 197; speaking, 118, 188

Empathic characteristics, 323

Empathizing, 186, 201, 202, 203, 322–323

Empathy, defined, 322

Empowering participants, 58, 60, 86, 400, 405; and cross-cultural facilitation, 338, 341; recommended reading on, 425; in virtual meetings, 296

End times: running over, 171; specifying, 295; on time, 170, 396

Ending of the opening, 58

Ending sessions, 157, 169. See also Closing

Energizing topics, 248, 249

Energy: and adjusting to lullaby times, 253–254; and authenticity, 252–253; case studies involving, 247–248, 253, 258–259, 347–348; checklist for, 264; conference facilitation and, 312; in cross-cultural facilitation, 347; exercise on, 265; favorite team building exercise for raising, 260–264; impact of, understanding the, 248–249; irritating, 249; maintaining, during the session, 254–258; principle of, overview of, xxix, xxxix, xxxvi, xxxix–xxxvi; projecting, from the start, 250–253; secret of, 248; using team building activities for raising, guidelines for, 259; and very small groups, 404

Energy maintenance: resetting the energy level for, 255; secret to, 255; variety of techniques for, 254–258

Engagement indicators, 183

Engagement strategies: as a competency area, 411; for conference facilitation, 311, 312, 313; impact of high energy on, 248, 249; need for a variety of, 124; tip involving, 132; varying, to maintain energy, 257–258; for virtual meetings, 297

Escalation period, 177

Evaluating Training Programs (Kirkpatrick), 391, 424
Evaluation: in closing, 156, 167, 168, 284, 391; criteria for, using, to build commonality, 275; during sessions, 169
Evaluation form, 168
Evaluation questions, using delineating questions instead of, 228
Examples, use of, for focusing, 85, 86, 87. See also PeDeQs
Exceptions, explaining, 85, 86, 87. See also PeDeQs
Exciting participants, 58, 60, 61–62, 82, 296, 338, 400, 405
Executing activities, sample wording for, providing, 306
Executing simple meetings: checklist for, 398–399; elements in, 396–397
Executive lead, influence of the, 342–343
Executive power, transfer of, 59
Executives: recommended reading for, 425; as sponsors, level of, example of, 386. See also Sponsors
Expected participants, creating a list of, for virtual meetings, 295
Experience differences, as a cause of disagreement, 218. See also Level 2 disagreements Extended checkpoints, 83
Extended prompt questions, 88–89, 130, 138
“Eyes in the room” person, assigning someone as, 296, 299

F
Facilitate with Ease (Bens), 15n1
Facilitate.com, 15n1
Facilitated session, defined, 5–6
Facilitating Change (course), 422
Facilitating IT Sessions (course), 421
Facilitating Virtual Meetings (course), 421
Facilitation: benefits of, xxxix; case studies demonstrating the power of, xx–xxii, xxiv–xxv; flow of, xxix–xxxiii, 28, 396; fundamental secret of, xxiv, 13–14, 405; group dynamics of, xxxiii–xxxvi; learning the secret of, case study on, xxiii–xxiv; learning to apply the secret of, xxvi–xxviii; list containing all the secrets of, 427–430; more ways to apply the secret of, xxxix; SMART methodology for, principles of the, xxviii–xxxvi; specific applications for, xxxvi–xxxviii; studying the secrets of, suggestions for, 417; and when it is appropriate, 4–5, 10; and when it is not appropriate, 8–10. See also specific SMART Facilitation principles and specific aspects of facilitation Facilitation associations, joining, and attending conferences, 418. See also specific associations and organizations
Facilitation cycle, xxix, xxx, xxxi, xxxiv
Facilitation for Trainers (course), 419, 421
Facilitation guides: creating, contents for, 278; purpose of, 277; resource for, 419; sample of, 279; for team leaders of large groups, 306
Facilitation Guides, The (Leadership Strategies), 419
Facilitation industry: current state of the, 10–11; future of the, 11–13
Facilitative Consultant, The (course), 419, 421
Facilitative Leader, The (course), 422
Facilitator cadres, internal, developing. See Internal facilitator capability, building
Facilitator certification, 11, 384, 408–411, 418, 420, 421, 421–423
Facilitator locator, 420
Facilitator resource guide, 419–425
Facilitator role: abusing the pen in the, 102–104; applying the secrets in the, to gain buy-in, 13–14; case study involving the, 1–2; characteristics of the “soul” required for the, 7–8; checklist for understanding facilitation and the, 14–15; core competencies for the, 411; creating a just environment in the, 361–364; defined, 5; development and coaching process for the, establishing a, 393–394; different definitions of the, 6; elevating the, impact of high energy on, 248, 249; engaging an outsider for the, 381; exercise on the, 15; expectations of the, generational culture and, 327–328, 329, 330,
331, 332; falling out of the, 106; full-time or part-time, deciding on, for facilitation cadres, 392; Guerrilla, techniques for the, 402–403, 404; and knowing when facilitation is appropriate, 4–5, 10; and knowing when it is not appropriate, 8–10; making mistakes in the, and responding to attacks, 198–201; manipulation in the, 8, 413; opportunities to practice the, seizing, 417; power of the, abusing the, caution against, 31; as process creator, 269; recommended reading for the, 424–425; recruiting and vetting process for the, 393; remotely working in the, difficulties of, strategies for, 296, 299; responsibilities in the, 6–7; risk of failure in the, 52; scenarios demonstrating need for the, 3–4; shift from, to facilitation as a skill, 11–12; understanding the definition of a facilitated session and, 5–6. See also specific aspects pertaining to facilitators

Facilitator training: evaluating programs for, recommended reading on, 424; focus of most courses for, xxvi, xxvii; need for foundational skills as part of, addressing the, xxvi–xxviii; number-one company in, 419; organizations/courses providing, xvii, xxi–xxii, xxxix, 408, 419, 420–424; process for, establishing a, 393–394; signing up for, considering, 418. See also Internal facilitator capability, building

Facilitator’s Guide to Participatory Decision-Making (Kaner), 424

“Facipulation,” 8, 413

Facts, gathering: additional method for, 148; as a building-block process, xxvii, 125; examining a method for, 128–130; purpose of, 126; sample method selected for, 128; secret to, 129. See also Information gathering and processing

Failure, risk of, 52

“False image” questions, 23, 24–25

False imaging, 24–25

Farrell, J., 425

FAST Session Leader Reference Manual, 188, 424

FAST Session Leader Workshop (course), 423

Fear, xxx, xxxiv, 299, 341

Feedback, getting: additional methods for, 147, 150; applying, 151; for breakout groups, 95, 96, 144; as a building-block process, xxvii, 125; in closing, 145–147, 167; examining a method for, 145–147; following scored competency assessment, 410; on follow-up actions, 391; importance of, 145, 417; purpose of, 126; in reporting, 144–145; sample method selected for, 128; secret to, 145; from very small groups, 405

Fight-or-flight response, 32

Filipinos, 324

Final directions, giving, 94

FindaFacilitator Database, 420

First items, facilitating, with breakout groups, 91–92

First meetings, task force, agenda setting for, 281–284

5 Ps, the, 38–39, 48, 294, 307. See also Participants; Probable issues; Process; Product; Purpose

Five-finger consensus: described, 213–215; secret to, 214

Flip charts: in closing, 157, 159, 160, 162; creating new alternatives from strengths listed on, 232; editing, 117; having a plan for, 116, 295; for information gathering, 130, 131, 141; labeling, 88, 129; listing strengths and weaknesses on, 230; and managing the pages, 117; for recording, 94, 102–103, 106, 113, 114, 119, 138; rotating, 95–96, 143, 144, 404; sample, 130, 131, 137; spell-checking, 117; summarizing delineated information on, 227; tearing, 118

Floating ideas, 29–32, 413

Flow: guiding, secret to, 28; overview of, xxix–xxxiii; of simple meetings, 396

Focusing: applying the secrets to, 97; case study involving, 79–80; checklist for, 97–99; checkpoints for, 80–83; the conference audience, 308; in cross-cultural facilitation, 339–341; by delivering clear directions, 85–87; exercise on, 99; getting off track from, a Guerrilla Facilitator’s response to, 402, 404; by keeping groups on track, 88–90; by managing breakout groups, 90–97; principle of, overview of, xxix, xxx, xxxi–xxxii, xxxiv; recording and, 104, 119; simple meetings and, 396–397; sin committed by facilitators involving, 118; and very small groups, 404; virtual meetings and, 295; by warming up a group, 84
Follow-up action: ensuring, 14, 149, 157, 164, 397; measuring, 391
Forced analogies method, 148
Ground rules: case study involving, 68–69; consideration of, in agenda setting, 282, 283; determining appropriateness of, for cross-cultural groups, 335; establishing recharge activities as, 255, 256; explaining, 66–67; for managing dysfunction, 181, 182, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195; midway reviewing, 69; parking boards and, 71; and preparing for and starting simple meetings, 401; for reaching consensus on wording, 243; sample list of, 65; secret to using, 65–66; for simple meetings, reviewing, 396; sin committed by facilitators involving, 118; using, in openings, 58, 65–66, 75–76, 338, 339; for virtual meetings, 294, 296
Group diversity, lack of, in very small groups, 405
Group Facilitation Methods (course), 423
Grove Consultants International, 293
Guerrilla Facilitation: secret to, 402; techniques for, 402–403, 404
ASTRO Facilitation, 15n1
Gatherings, facilitation. See Facilitation gatherings
Gifts and hooks activity, 72, 283
Gill, G., 15
Google Docs, 293
GotoMeeting, 293
Government facilitation, 11, 12
Greeks, 322, 325
Group diversity, lack of, in very small groups, 405
Group Facilitation Methods (course), 423
Grouping, 128, 130, 131–133, 134, 138, 257, 280, 306
Groups/teams. See Team entries
H
Hall, E. T., 424
Hampden-Turner, C., 425
Headline technique, 113, 114
Headsets/earphones, use of, 294
Helpful people, facilitators as, 8
Hermann Brain Dominance Indicators, 184
Higher-level processes, focus on, xxvi, xxvii, 125
Hofstede, G., 424
Hogan, D., 381
How to Lead Work Teams (Rees), 424
How to Make Meetings Work! (Doyle and Straus), 424
Human resources (HR), transforming, case study involving, 386–387
Hungarians, 324
G7, 12
Games Trainers Play (Newstrom and Scannell), 259, 424
Gender culture, defined, 321
General directions, giving, 85, 86, 87. See also PeDeQs
Generation X, 326, 329–330
Generation Y, 326, 330–331
Generation Z, 326, 331–332
Generational culture: defined, 321, 326; differences in, understanding, 326–332
Germans, 318, 324, 325
Gifts and hooks activity, 72, 283
Gilbraith, M., 15n1
Global dominance, 355
Global Facilitators Serving Communities, 15n1
Goals, shared, quickly defining, 319
Gold of the Desert Kings simulation activity, 260
Google Docs, 293
Government facilitation, 11, 12
Greek people, 318, 325
Full consensus/agreement, insisting on, issue with, 211, 213
Full groups, appropriate use of, understanding, 126
Full-time facilitators, 392
Functional behavior: as culture specific, 344; versus dysfunctional behavior, 178–179; rewarding, 201
Future letter method, 149
Future Possibilities vs. Past Experiences dimension, 325, 350
Guides, facilitation. See Facilitation guides
Guides, facilitators as, 7
How to Lead Work Teams (Rees), 424
How to Make Meetings Work! (Doyle and Straus), 424
Human resources (HR), transforming, case study involving, 386–387
Hungarians, 324
Hunter, D., 15n1, 424
Hydro One case study, 370–376, 386, 390, 391, 392, 394

I

IAF Handbook of Group Facilitation, The (Schuman), 15n1
IBM, xxxix
Iceberg analogy, 219
Ideas, floating, 29–32, 413
Ideas, generating: additional methods for, 148; as a building-block process, xxvii, 125; examining a method for, 136–138; purpose of, 126; sample method selected for, 128; secret to, 136 IEEI (Inform, excite, empower, involve), 58, 59–61, 295, 296. See also Starting iLinc, 293
Imaging, 19, 20, 21, 24–25
iMeet, 293
Immigrants, 356, 357
Improvement suggestions, getting and processing, for feedback: in closing, 145–147, 167; in reporting, 144–145
Indirect Communication vs. Direct dimension, 324, 335, 339, 349
Indirect probes, 28
Individual culture, defined, 321
Individual power, institutional power versus, 352–354
Individual vs. Group Interests dimension, 325, 341, 350
Individuals, appropriate use of, understanding, 126
Indonesians, 324, 325
Influence style, 184, 185, 197
Inform, excite, empower, involve (IEEI), 58, 59–61, 295, 296. See also Starting Informal meetings, holding, 182–183
Informally facilitating and using the secrets, xxxix, 417
Information: to be communicated, plan for, 166, 167; common base of, providing the, early in the process, 275; preparing the, for simple meetings, 396; summarizing, 227, 298, 344, 397
Information gathering and processing: additional strategies for, 147–150; applying the secrets to, 150–151; appropriate processing groups for, 126; being overwhelmed by numerous tools for, handling, 125; case studies involving, 123–124, 151–152; checklist for, 152–153; in cross-cultural facilitation, 342–343; engaging strategies for, need for, 124; examining methods for, 128–147; exercise on, 153; major functions of, 125, 126; principle of, overview of, xxix, xxx, xxxii–xxxiii, xxxiv, and processing order, 127; purposes of, 126, 128; sample methods for, 127, 128; secret to, 127; and very small groups, 404
Information, shared, lack of, as a cause of disagreement, 215–217, 275. See also Level 1 disagreements
Informed majority process, 242, 243
Informing participants, 58, 60, 296, 338, 399, 405
Initial agreement, starting with, 224–225
Inquiring: additional methods for, 148, 150; as a building-block process, xxvii, 125; examining a method for, 133–136; purpose of, 126; sample method selected for, 128; secret to, 133. See also Questioning
Institute for Cultural Affairs, 423
Institutional power: and the dominance effect, 352–354; embracing discomfort and ambiguity to address, 357–358; facilitator’s role in countering, 361–364; and how it reinforces dominance, 355; impacts of dominance and, on facilitation, 355–357; versus individual power, understanding, 354–357; and making mistakes, 358–359; need for understanding and addressing, 351; separating culture from cultural patterns in response to, 359–361
Institutions, defining, 354
Intangible products, defining, 42. See also Products
Intellectual products, 41
Intention, importance of, in communication, 319
Interaction Associates, 422
Internal facilitator capability, building: benefits of, in case studies, 375–376, 378; best practices strategies for, 385–394; and buy-in, case study example of, 382; case studies involving, 370–385; challenges of, case study involving, 375; and collecting and reporting results, 391–392; development program for, case study of, 379–385,
Index

394; exercise for, 394; and initial cadre function, 386; intentional marketing of, to raise awareness, 389–391; and launching the facilitators, 383; lessons learned about, 384; mixed success with, 383–384; moving from training to, case study demonstrating, 377–379; multiple reasons for, overview of, 369; overview of, xxxviii; pilot program for, 382; and pitfalls to avoid in establishing facilitator cadres, 394; pointing out benefits of, 385; projects resulting from, case study sample of, 374–375; with a pull strategy, case study demonstrating, 370–376; and readiness, 383; secret to establishing a facilitator cadre and, 385; and selection of facilitators, case study example of, 377; and serving customers, case study example of, 377–378; sponsorship of, levels of, 386; staffing for, case study demonstrating, 372–373; successful, keys to, in case studies, 376, 378–379; time spent on, determining, 392; value-added by, clearly defining, 388–389

International Association of Facilitators (IAF), 10, 15n1, 313, 318, 408, 409, 420, 424

International Institute for Facilitation (INIFAC), 11, 15n1, 317, 393, 394, 408, 409, 420, 421, 423

Interpretations, recording, 103, 118

Interpreters, using, 342, 363

Interrupters, managing, 191

Intolerance for Ambiguity vs. Tolerance dimension, 325, 340, 350

Introducing agenda items, estimating time for, 280

“Introduction to Facilitation, An” (webinar), 419

Introductions: culture and, 338; in openings, 58, 71–73, 338; secret to, 72

Involving participants, 58, 60, 62–63, 96, 296, 338, 400, 405

Irish people, 324

Irrational disagreements, 220, 222

Irritating energy, 249

Israelis, 324

Issue resolution agendas, 269, 271

Issue resolution, as a higher-level process, xxvii

Issues: tabling, 69, 89, 117; underlying, versus positions, 219; when facilitation is needed to address, 4. See also Probable issues

Issues list, 70, 89, 90, 97, 107, 108, 119, 158, 163–164

Italians, 318, 322, 325

J

Japanese people: facilitating a group of, applying the secrets to, 333–351; placement of, on a continuum of cultural dimensions, 324, 325; and their view of meetings, 318

Jews, 359

Jiménez, N. L., 318, 351

Join.Me, 293

Jury analogy, 211

Just environment, creating a, 361–364

K

Kanter, S., 424

Kean, J., xxii

Key strengths: combining, 231, 232; identifying, 231–232, 241

Keynote speakers, 307

Kickoff speaker, readiness of the, ensuring, 75

Kirkpatrick, D., 391, 424

Kirkpatrick, J., 424

Klekar, C., 107

Kluckhohn, F., 424

Knowledge, as an intangible product, 42.

See also Products

Koreans, 324, 325

L

Labeling charts, 88, 129

Language: addressing, in recording cross-cultural sessions, 341–342; as an axis of dominance, 356–357; culture and, impact of, on communication, 319, 320

Large group facilitation: case study involving, 303–305; checklist for, 314; exercise on, 315; guidelines for, 305–307; overview of, xxxvii; secret to, 305. See also Conference facilitation

Last person standing method, 149, 258

Late arrivers/early leavers, managing, 191

Latinos/Latinas, 324, 325, 344, 364

Lazan, G. B., 15n1

Lead person, influence of the, 342–343
Leaders: as deciders, 213; recommended reading for, 424; roles of, 2. See also Meeting leader role
Leadership Atlanta, 1
Leadership New York, 1
Leadership Strategies—The Facilitation Company, xxiv, xxvi, 408, 419, 420, 421
Leadership Through Facilitation (course), 421
Leading questions, 28, 29, 30, 31, 413
Legible writing, 105–107, 117
Level 1 disagreements: classification as, 210, 215; consensus building strategies for, 223–231; described, 215–217; discovering, 228–229; identifying, example of, 223; root cause of, 215–216; secret to resolving, 224; solving, 217
Level 1 energy, 250, 252, 253, 347, 404
Level 2 disagreements: classification as, 210, 215; consensus building strategies for, 231–239, 241–242; described, 217–219; identifying, example of, 223; root cause of, 218; secret to resolving, 231; solving, 219; technique identifying, 230
Level 2 energy, 250, 253, 347, 405
Level 3 disagreements: classification as, 210, 215; described, 219–221; root cause of, 220; ruling out, example of, 222–223; secret to resolving, 221; solving, 221
Level 3 energy, 251–252, 253, 347–348, 404
Levinson, B., 387, 387–388, 392
Lindeman, R., 390–391
Listing, 128, 129–130, 151, 257, 280
Live Meeting, 293
Lobbying period, providing a, 140, 142, 151, 258
Logistics. See Meeting logistics
Long-Term Orientation vs. Short-Term dimension, 324, 349
Loose ends, 156
Loudmouths, managing, 191–192, 403, 404
Low-energy groups, managing, 195–196
Lullaby times: adjusting to, 253–254; raising the energy level during, activity for, 256; secret to adjusting to, 254; standard, 254
Lulls when writing, avoiding: secret to, 114; strategies for, 113–116
M
Majority rule, 213, 214, 242, 243
Making Questions Work (Strachan), 15n1
Malaysians, 324
Manager role, 2
Managers as Facilitators (Weaver and Farrell), 425
Manipulator versus facilitator, 8, 413
Marital disagreements: level of, 218; revisiting scenario of, using consensus building, 241–242; scenario depicting level of, 218–219
Marketing, being intentional about, to raise awareness, 389–391
Master Facilitators: certified, 11, 384, 408–411; major competencies of, summarized, 411
Masterful meetings: checklist for leaders of, 397–399; elements of, 396–397; form for planning and starting, 399–401; training classes on, 421; vision of, 395
Mastering the Technology of Participation (course), 423
Materazzi, H., 387
McCall, D., 15n1
MCI study, xvii
Meeting advisor role, 2, 6
Meeting informally, 182–183
Meeting leader role, 2, 6, 7, 8, 402. See also Facilitator role
Meeting logistics: consideration of, in preparing, 39; meeting notices and, 46, 47; operational, consideration of, in agenda setting, 283; questions about, for sponsors, 49
Meeting manager role, 2, 6
Meeting notices, 46–47, 294–295, 396
Meeting virtually. See Virtual meetings
Meetings: different cultural views of, 318; modes in, types of, 43; productivity in, issue of, xvii–xviii; recommended reading on, 424, 425; typical, quality of, 395. See also specific aspects pertaining to meetings
Meetings and Events (Travel Management Institute), xviii
Meetings in America (MCI), xvii
Merge technique: example of, 242; key points in the, 233; relationship of the, to other consensus building strategies, 224; results from, 232; steps in the, 230–233
Merit-based recording, problem of, 102–103, 118
Meritocracy, myth of, debunking the, 355
Mexicans, 324, 325, 356, 357, 364
Meyers-Briggs Type Indicators, 184, 377
MG Rush Systems, 188, 422–423, 424
Miller, B. C., 259, 424
Minimizing word use, 112–113
Miscommunication, cultural, 320
Mistakes and attacks, responding to, 198–201; secret to, 199. See also Dysfunction, managing Mistakes, making, importance of, 358–359
Monitoring, 94, 188, 305–306
More of/Less of method, 149
More Quick Team-Building Activities for Busy Managers (Miller), 424
Morehouse case study, 347–348
Motivators, facilitators as, 7
Moving on, knowing when to, 241
Multicultural groups, working with, 351
Murfitt, S., 388
“Must,” impact of, as a term, 25, 26
Myopic views, avoiding, 140

N
Name tents, providing participants with, 181
National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), 359
National culture: defined, 320; differences in, understanding, 322–326, 333; self-awareness of, exercise on, assessment for, 323, 324–325
Naysayers, managing, 32–33, 192–193, 203
Nelson, J., 15n1
Netherlands, people of the, 325
Neutrality: boundaries for, in the hybrid approach, maintaining, 414–415; and caution in using the hybrid approach, 415; comparing the two views of, 413; consultants/experts and, 405; of content, 31; dilemma over, 412; hybrid view of, 413, 414, 414–415; issue with, and power imbalance, 354; losing, avoiding, 188; maintaining, while praising, 257; sin committed by facilitators involving, 118; strengths and weaknesses in each view of, 414; traditional view of, 412, 414
Newstrom, J., 259, 424
Next steps, 157, 169, 284, 288
Nigerians, 324
Nominal group technique. See Grouping
Nominating facilitator candidates, 393
North American Certification Panel, 408
Notebook pads, use of, 119

O
Objectives. See Personal objectives; Purpose
Online resources, 55, 77, 408, 409, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423
Online tools for virtual meetings, 293
Open versus anonymous communication, 300, 335
Opening segment. See Starting
Operating principles. See Ground rules
Operational logistics, consideration of, 283.
See also Meeting logistics
O-P-Q-R-S-T, covering, 277, 278, 294, 305, 306
Optimists, 32, 33
Order: of agendas, covering the, 278, 294, 305; processing, understanding, 127
Organizational alignment, change management versus, 371–372
Organizational culture: defined, 320; understanding the, importance of, 333
Orientation sessions: for team leaders in large group facilitation, 307; for virtual meetings, 294, 296
“Ostrich technique,” 176
Outcomes achievement: conditions critical to, identifying, for conferences, 310–311; measuring, 391; sequence to, in closing, 156–157
Outcomes desired. See Products
Outside factors, as a cause of disagreement, 220. See also Level 3 disagreements Overlooking remote participants, strategies for avoiding, 298–300
Ownership: creating, 29, 106, 108; importance of, xxv; increasing, in breakout groups, 96; secret to influencing, 30; shared, reduced opportunities for, 93, 103

P
Pairs, appropriate use of, understanding, 126
Pakistanis, 324, 325
Panel approach, using a, 306, 309
Parking boards: in closing, 158; in openings, 58, 70–71, 338; and preparing for and starting simple meetings, 401; recording and, 107, 108; secret to, 70
Partial closing, 171–172
Participant selection, 38, 39, 42–45, 53, 54
Participants: additional questions for sponsors about, 49; consideration of the, in agenda setting, 269, 273, 274; desired characteristics for, 43–44; as Guerrilla Facilitator’s, 402–403, 404; increasing familiarity among, 71–72; interviewing, cross-cultural facilitation and, 335–336; and preparing for simple meetings, 396, 399; and preparing for virtual meetings, 294; questions for identifying, preparing with, 42–43; remote, overlooking, strategies for avoiding, 298–300; responsibility for the, 48; and their need for answers, 59; turning over power, 61. See also specific aspects pertaining to participants
Participating leader role, 2, 6
Participation, positive and passionate, for simple meetings, 397
Participatory decision making, recommended reading on, 424
Partners in Facilitator Development program, 394, 420
Part-time facilitators, 392
Passive receivers, 307
Peacemakers, facilitators as, 7
Pen, power of the. See Power of the pen
Perfect comments, waiting for, before recording, 103–104

Permission, asking for: to record facilitator’s words, 102; for the session to run over, 171; to table an issue, 89, 90
Personal objectives: identifying, 58, 60, 63, 338; linking, to the agenda, 63–64, 338; reviewing, 157
Physical attackers, managing, 193
Planning and preparation. See Preparing Playback questions, 28, 298
Political disagreements, level of, 218
Polling the jury, method of, 162–163
Polls, virtual, use of, 297
Portuguese people, 325
Position level, staying at the, 219
Position Power vs. Shared dimension, 324, 338, 340, 341, 345, 349
Positive and passionate participation, 397
Post-questions, 308
Power imbalances, addressing: actions for, example of, 363; facilitator’s role in, 361; questions for, 362; responsibility for, 351. See also Institutional power
Power of the pen: abusing, 102–104, 118; case study involving, 107; cross-cultural facilitation and, 341; using, 104–107, 129, 138
Power turnover, 59, 61
Powerful secret. See Fundamental secret
Powernoodle, 293
Practicing with technology, 293–294
Praise, employing, 257
Praisers, facilitators as, 7
Preamble phrases, 115
Pre-assigning teams, 92
Preparation questions: determining logical order of, 276–277; identifying appropriate, 276; transforming, into agenda items, 277
Preparing: the 5 Ps of, 38–39, 48, 52, 294; and applying the 5 Ps, as situational, 53–54; case studies involving, 37–38, 47–48, 334; checklists for, 54, 397–398; for conference facilitation, time spent on, 313; by covering O-P-Q-R-S-T, 277, 278, 294; for cross-cultural facilitation, 334–336; by defining the product, 38, 39, 41–42, 53, 54; to deliver the opening statement, 63; for dysfunction, in cross-cultural facilitation, 345;
exercise on, 54; by identifying probable issues, 38, 39, 45–46, 48, 53, 54; and managing a sponsor, 48–52; with a meeting notice, 46–47; principle of, overview of, xxix, xxx–xxxi, xxxiv; of the process, 38, 39, 46, 53, 54; reducing time spent on, 278; by selecting participants, 38, 39, 42–45, 53, 54; for simple meetings, 53, 396, 397–398, 399–401; by understanding the purpose, 38, 39–41, 53, 54; for virtual meetings, 288–289, 293–295

Pre-questioning, 128, 133–136, 150–151, 309

Presence, as a competency area, 411

Pre-session interaction, to prevent dysfunction, 181–182

Pretense, giving up, 358–359

Preventing dysfunction: lesson learned about, 201–202; and responding to common dysfunctions, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196; secret to, 180; techniques for, 180–183, 185

Previewing, 80, 81, 83, 97

Prioritizing: additional methods for, 149; applying, 151; as a building-block process, xxviii, 125; criteria for, defining, 139–140, 142; examining methods for, 138–143; moving to, 258; purpose of, 126; sample method selected for, 128; secret to, 139; and very small groups, 404

Private conversations, 186, 189, 190, 191, 195

Probable issues: additional questions for sponsors about, 49; consideration of the, in agenda setting, 269, 273, 274, 282, 283; identifying, 38, 39, 45–46, 48, 53, 54; and preparing for simple meetings, 400; and preparing for virtual meetings, 294

Problem solving: applying the process of, 151; as a building-block process, xxvi, xxviii

Procedure design, as a higher-level process, xxviii

Process: consideration of the, in agenda setting, 269, 270, 271–272, 272–273, 282, 283; and preparing for and starting simple meetings, 401; and preparing for virtual meetings, 294; preparing the, 38, 39, 46, 53, 54; questions for sponsors about the, 49; requests for change in, responding to, 199–200; three-step development of the, for large groups, 305–306; understanding, 268–269. See also Agendas

Process improvement agendas, 269, 271–272, 279, 280

Process improvement, as a higher-level process, xxvii

Process knowledge, facilitation, ensuring: by having a detailed facilitation guide, 277–278, 279, secret to, 277

Process techniques, covering, 278, 294, 305. See also specific techniques

Processing groups, understanding, 126

Processing order, understanding, 127

Products: addressing the, in openings, 58, 60, 73; consideration of the, in agenda setting, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 282; defining the, 38, 39, 41–42, 53, 54, 310; expected, meeting notices containing the, 46, 47; facilitation guides covering the, 277; and preparing for and starting simple meetings, 396, 399; and preparing for virtual meetings, 294; questions for identifying the, preparing with, 42; responsibility for the, 48; secret to defining the, 42

Professional facilitators, use of, 307

Program planning, as a higher-level process, xxvii

Project planning agendas, 269, 272

Projecting energy, secret to, 250, 252

Prompt questions, 28, 29, 30, 88–89, 130, 138, 298

Publicly correcting people, 188

Purpose: of additional information gathering strategies, 147, 148, 149, 150; addressing, in openings, 58, 60, 73; conference facilitation and developing the, 310; consideration of the, in agenda setting, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 282; creating the process for achieving the, importance of, 269; culture and, 334; of facilitation guides, 277; facilitation guides covering the, 277; and focusing, 81, 85, 86, 87; of information gathering and processing, 126, 128; meeting notices containing the, 46, 47; and preparing for and starting simple meetings, 396, 399; and preparing for virtual meetings, 294; questions for identifying the, preparing with, 39; responsibility for the, 48; secret power of, 40; selecting team building activities tied to meeting a, 259; starting without a clear, a
Guerrilla Facilitator’s response to, 402, 404; understanding the, 5, 38, 39–41, 53, 54
Purpose statements, 41, 310

Q
Q&A sessions. See Inquiring
Quality tools, as a building-block process, xxvi, xxvii
Questioners, facilitators as, 7
Questioning: applying the techniques of, 32–34; case studies involving, 17–18, 26–27; checklist for, 34–35; in cross-cultural facilitation, 333–334; and delivering great starting questions, 21–26; exercise on, 35; final note on, 34; and floating ideas, 29–32; for focusing, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89–90, 89–90, 97; and gathering facts, 129–130; and generating ideas, 138; and guiding a group, 28; to identify and address power imbalance, 362; and influencing ownership, 30; principle of, overview of, xxix–xxx, xxxiv; and the reacting questions, 27–29; recording and, 106–107; for resolving level 1 disagreements, 217, 224, 225–227, 228; of sponsors, 48–49; and the starting question, 18–20; warm-up technique involving. See also Inquiring; specific types of questions
Quick Brainstorming Activities for Busy Managers (Miller), 424
Quick Team-Building Activities for Busy Managers (Miller), 259, 424

R
Racial culture, defined, 321
Randel, M., 389
Random order, 127
Rankin, J., 370, 376, 390
Rated feedback, 128, 145–147, 410
Reacting questions, 27–29, 30, 35, 107, 129, 334
Reactions: measuring, 39; paying attention to, 182
Recaps, publishing, 298
Recharge activities, establishing, 255–257
“Recordable” words, listening for, 115
Recorders, appointing, 93
Recording: abuse of the pen in, 102–104, 118; additional techniques for, 116–118; applying the secrets to, 119; avoiding lulls while, 113–116; case studies involving, 101–102, 107; checklist for, 119–120; covering, 278, 294, 306; in cross-cultural facilitation, 341–342; exercise on, 120–121; as a focusing tool, 94, 104, 119; and knowing what to record, 107–108; lack of, a Guerrilla Facilitator’s response to, 403, 404; managing the process of, 110–113, 129, 138; principle of, overview of, xxix, xxx, xxxii, xxxiv; samples of, 109–110; sins committed by facilitators involving, 118; using the pen in, 104–107, 138; while giving directions, avoiding, 87
Recording media: labeling, 88; for reporting, 94; staying close to, 115. See also Flip charts
Recruiting facilitator candidates, 393
Red herrings, defined, 45
Redirection questions, 28, 89–90, 97, 108, 340, 402, 404
Reengineering, as a higher-level process, xxvii
Rees, F., 424
Reflection process, in conference facilitation, 308–309
Relational products, 41
Relative scoring, 240
Relevant analysis and comments, recording, 108, 119
Reminders, 83
Remote meeting etiquette, 296
Repeating recordable words, 115–116, 341–342, 403, 404
Report-back process: alternative, 95–96, 143, 144, 306; as a method of gathering information, 128; secret to, 144; standard, 94–95, 96, 144–145
Reporting: as a building-block process, xxvii, 125; collecting results and, to justify having facilitation cadres, 391–392; examining methods for, 143–145; purpose of, 126; sample method selected for, 128
Requirements analysis, as a higher-level process, xxvi, xxvii
Researching and documenting results, 391, 392
Resistance to change, course on facilitating, 422
Resolution mode, 43
Resolving dysfunction: applying techniques for, to irate customers, 203–204; lesson learned about, 202–203; secret to, 185; techniques for, 185–188. See also Dysfunction, managing Respect Though Status vs. Accomplishments dimension, 324, 338, 343, 348
Responsibility, reinforcing, 165
Results: collecting and reporting, to justify having facilitation cadres, 391–392; effective, secret to achieving, xxiv, 13–14, 405; successful facilitation defined by, 5–6. See also Purpose
Review mode, 43
Reviewing: closing and, 80, 81, 83, 97, 156, 157, 158, 167, 268, 274, 298, 397; lack of, in closing, a Guerrilla Facilitator’s response to, 403, 404; midway, 69; starting and, 58, 63, 64, 69, 73, 338, 396, 397
Rewriting, avoiding, 105
Riding the Waves of Culture (Trompenaars and Hampden-Turner), 425
Roger Schwarz and Associates, 421–422
Roll calls, 296, 298
Room setup, for cross-cultural sessions, 336
Root causes: addressing, of dysfunction, 186, 204; of disagreements, described, 215–216, 218; symptom versus, dysfunction and, 178, 179–180
Ropes courses, 260, 377
Rotating flip charts, 95–96, 143, 144, 404
Round-robin technique, 127, 145, 146, 167, 197, 198, 258, 297
Runoff voting, 243
Rush, G., 15n1
Russians, 324
Rutkiewicz, J., 377

S
Sampling approach, using a, 306
Saudi Arabia, 324, 379
Saudi Aramco case study, 379–385, 386, 392, 393, 394
Scandinavians, 324, 325
Scannell, E., 259, 424
Schuman, S., 15n1
Schwartz, S. H., 424
Schwarz, R., 15n1, 425
Scoring, 139, 141, 239–240. See also Weighted score method
Scribes: appointing, 93, 295; bilingual, having, 341, 342; use of, and practicing with, 116
Secrets of Facilitation, The (Wilkinson), first edition of, xvi, xx, xxxix, 419
Secrets to Facilitating Strategy (course), 421
Secrets to Masterful Meetings (course), 421
Secrets to Masterful Meetings, The (Wilkinson), 188, 395, 397, 425
Selecting facilitator candidates, 393
Self-awareness exercise, cultural. See Cultural Awareness Assessment
Self-determination, illusion of, 355
Setup time, 73–74, 295
Seven deadly sins of facilitation, 118
Seven Separators of Facilitation Excellence, The (course), 421
Shankland, E., 318, 333, 334
Shared goals, quickly defining, 319
Shared information, lack of, as a cause of disagreements, 215–217, 275. See also Level 1 disagreements
Sherrif, C., 15n1
“Should,” impact of, as a term, 25, 26
Silence, 20, 84, 138, 298
Silent Generation, 326, 327–328
Simple communication list, 165
Simple meetings: applying the secrets to, 395–401; closing, and follow up, 397, 399; execution of, 396–397, 398–399; preparing for, 53, 396, 397–398, 399–401; starting, 396, 398, 399–401
Simple processes, choosing, 306
Singaporeans, 325
Socioeconomic class imbalances, 356
Solution agreement. See Agreeing on solutions
Solutions: consultants/experts creating, problem with, xxiii–xxiv, xxv; team/group, need for, 3; when facilitation is needed to develop, 4
Spanish people, 325
Speakers at conferences: identifying, 311; keynote and breakout session, described, 307; managing time with, secret to, 312; working with, suggestions for, 312, 313
Speeding up sessions, negative impact of, 170–171
Spell-checking, 117
Sponsors: abbreviated interview of, 52; and applying the 5 Ps, 53; asking, to complete the Cultural Awareness Assessment, 323, 335; for building internal facilitation cadres, 385, 386; gaining agreement from, on approach to neutrality, 416; interviewing, 46, 48–49, 52; managing, 48–52; managing dysfunction in cross-cultural facilitation using, 345; meeting with, in preparing for conference facilitation, 313; and minimizing potential negative impact of their presence, 51–52; role and involvement level of, determining the, 49–50, 51; secret to managing the presence of, 51; surrogate, 52
Standard agendas: advantages of, 270; secret of, 269; using, 269–273; using facilitation guides for, 277, 278
Start times, scheduling, 46, 47, 74, 75, 295, 337
Starting: applying the secrets to, 75–76; case studies involving, 57–58, 68–69; checklists for, 76–77, 398; in cross-cultural facilitation, 336–339; with energy, secret to, 250, 253; exercise on, 77; and gaining buy-in to the agenda, 63–64; and getting started on time, 46, 74–75, 170, 295, 337; and ground rules, 65–69, 71; and introductions, 58, 71–73; and parking boards, 70–71; preparing for, 63; principle of, overview of, xxix, xxx, xxxi, xxxiv; recommended order for the opening in, 58, 338; setup time for, 73–74; for simple meetings, 396, 398, 399–401; standard opening segment for, including, on agendas, 274, 288; strong opening for, achieving a, 59–63; that are nonfacilitated, 73; and the transfer of power in, 59; for very small groups, 405; for virtual meetings, 289–290, 295–296; without a clear purpose, a Guerrilla Facilitator’s response to, 402, 404
Starting questions: case study involving, 17–18; choosing appropriate verbs for, 25–26; common mistakes with, 22–23; consistently using, in virtual meetings, 298; covering, 278, 294, 306; cross-cultural facilitation and, 333–334; delivering great, 21–26; “false image,” 23, 24–25; for focusing, 85, 86, 87; and generating ideas, 138; and getting feedback, 146; for inquiring, 134; sample, 23–24; secret of, 20; technique of, 18–20; wording for, providing sample of, to team leaders, 306
Start/Stop/Continue method, 150
Status meetings, 44, 46
Staying on track, 88–90, 104, 170
Steadiness style, 184, 185
Stereotyping, role of, understanding the, 322, 333
Stoddard, L., 394
Storytellers, managing, 193–194
Strachan, D., 15n1
Strategic planning: agenda for, 272–273; applying the secrets to gain buy-in during, 13–14; as a higher-level process, xxvi, xxvii; methodology for, 287; using breakout groups for, 91
Straus, D., 424
Strengths and weaknesses technique: for building a common set of values, 275; and getting feedback on sessions, 145; key points in the, 230–231; relationship of the, to other consensus building strategies, 224; results from, 230, 241; steps in the, 229–230. See also Key strengths
Strodtbeck, F., 424
Strong openings: achieving, 59–61; secret to, 59
Structured Meeting and Relating Techniques (SMART) Facilitation principles, xxviii–xxxvi. See also specific principles and their techniques
Substitution, dysfunction as, 178
Success strategies, defining, for conferences, 311
Successes, early, achieving, arranging agendas for, 275
Summarizing information, 227, 298, 344, 397
Supermajority rule, 213
Supplies, covering, 278, 294, 306
Swedish people, 324, 325
Swiss people, 324, 325
SWOT analysis, 91
Symphony metaphor, 347
Symptom: empathizing with the, 186; versus root cause, dysfunction and, 178, 179–180

T
Talking stick method, 150
Tangible products, defining, 42. See also Products
Task forces: applying the 5 Ps to, 53; facilitating with consultants, case study involving, 406–407; first meeting of, agenda setting for the, 281–284
Taskmasters, facilitators as, 7
Taylor, B., 424
Team building activities, using: case study involving mistake made in, 258–259; in cross-cultural facilitation, 348; recommended reading on, 424; secret to, 259
Team building agenda, 273
Team building, as a higher-level process, xxvii
Team culture: defined, 320; identifying the, 335; understanding the, importance of, 333
Team leaders: appointing, 63, 92, 93; providing a facilitation guide for, 306
Team members. See Participants
Team size, 43, 63, 92, 258. See also Large group facilitation; Smaller groups
Team solutions, need for, 3
Teams/groups: dividing into, 63, 92–93, 132; roles and responsibilities of, defining and assigning, 93–94. See also Large group facilitation; Smaller groups
TeamViewer, 293
Technical issues: having a partner to assist with, 294; unexpected, allowing time for, 295
Technology: choosing and preparing, for virtual meetings, 293–294; orienting participants on how to use, 294, 296
Technology of Participation (ToP) method, 423
Telling, pitfalls of, 106
“Temperature” checks, 169
Template method, 112
Testing improvement suggestions, 145, 146, 147
Thanking participants, 169, 199, 200
ThinkTank, 293
Time: estimating, 278, 279–281, 294; managing, 170, 312; saving, breakout sessions and, 96–97; spent on conference facilitation planning, 313; tracking, 281. See also specific types of time
Time estimates, secret to, 279
Time limits, 72–73, 134, 138, 396
Time pressures, managing, 196
Time zones, 295
Timely starts: culture and, 337; importance of, 170; scheduling for, 46, 295, 337; secret to, 74–75; for simple meetings, 396
Timing: covering, 278, 294, 306; in managing dysfunction, 188
Tombazian, C., 234–235
Topic jumpers, managing, 194
Topics: defined, 45; energizing, 248, 249; panel approach to, 306
Tracking time, 281
Training facilitators. See Facilitator training
Transforming the Mature Information Technology Organization (Zawacki), xxv
Transitions: sample words for, providing, to team leaders, 306; smooth, 83. See also Checkpoints
Translators, using, 342, 364
Travel Management Institute, xviii
Trompenaars, F., 425
Trust walks, 260
TTI Performance Systems, 184
Two-minute warnings, 75
Type A questions, 19, 20, 21, 23, 24, 25
Type B questions, 19, 20, 21–23, 24, 25, 26, 33–34, 278, 294, 296, 297, 298, 306

U
Unconscious dysfunctional behavior, 178
Understanding Cultural Differences (Hall and Hall), 424
Unexpected situations, managing: lesson learned about, 203; responses for, 196–198; secret to, 197
Unit time, estimating, and number of units, 280
United Kingdom, people of the, 325
United Nations, 12
Uruguayans, 325
U.S. culture/people. See Americans
V
Value differences, as a cause of disagreement, 218, 230. See also Level 2 disagreements Values/beliefs: of Baby Boomers, 328; building a common set of, 275; cultural, and codes of behavior, 318; of Generation X, 329–330; of Generation Y, 330–331; of Generation Z, 331–332; as intangible products, 42; recommended reading on variations in, 424; of the Silent Generation, 327. See also Products

Variations in Value Orientations (Kluckhohn and Strodtbeck), 424
Vehicle for communication, 166, 167
Venezuelans, 325
Verbal attackers, managing, 194
Verbs, choosing appropriate, 25–26
Veto rights, 213
Vetting facilitator candidates, 393
Violent agreement, 217, 229
Virtual meetings: additional preparation steps for, 294–295; case study involving, 287–292; checklist for, 300–302; choosing and preparing technology for, 293–294; closing, 291–292; defined, 292; engagement secret for, 297; exercise on, 302; fundamental issues common to, 292; and highly structured agendas, 288; increase in, xvii, xviii; overview of facilitating, xxxvi–xxxvii; preparation secret for, 293; preparing for, 288–289, 293–295; running, 290–291, 296–298; shift toward, 12; special cases in, 298–300; starting, 289–290, 295–296; time allotted for, 295; training course on facilitating, 421
Voice level, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 347, 405. See also Energy
Voting: call for, 243; dot, 128, 139, 141, 142–143; majority rule, 213, 214, 242, 243; runoff, 243
Vuolanto, M., 390

W
“Walk the walls” approach, 157 “Walk-aways.” See Products
Wall plans, 116
Wall Street Journal (newspaper), 387
Warming up groups, 84–85
Weaknesses, identifying. See Strengths and weaknesses technique
Weaver, R., 425
Weavill, A., xx
Web resources. See Online resources
WebEx, 293
Webinars, 419
Weighted score method: key points in the, 239–240; need for, as an analytical approach, 224, 235; for prioritizing, 139; relationship of the, to other consensus building strategies, 224; secret to using the, 236; steps in the, 236–239
Weights: applying, 238–239; key points on, 239
Weissglass, J., 425
Welcome, the, 58, 282
Whip, the, method of, 150, 258, 297
Whisperers, managing, 195
Whites, 356
Wide-to-narrow experience, designing agendas to create a, 274–275
Wilkinson, M., 425
“Will,” impact of, as a term, 25, 26
Wilson, S., 15n1
Wolfe, B., 319
Wording agendas, 278
Wording process, gaining consensus in the, 242–243
Workaholics, managing, 195
Workflow process, as a higher-level process, xxvii
Wrap-up time, estimating, 280
Writing first, discussing second, 104–105, 117. See also Recording

Z
Zawacki, R., xxv
Zen of Groups, The (Hunter, Bailey, and Taylor), 424
Zschuschen-van der Wel, L., 392