Contents

Foreword ix

Alexander Osterwalder

1. Moving a Company with the Times: What Makes Haier Unique? 1

2. The Battlefield: The Home Appliance Industry in the West and China 17

3. The Story of Haier and the Evolution of Its Corporate Culture 43

4. Liberating Talent: Tapping the Entrepreneurial Spirit 81

5. Building a Corporate Culture for the Twenty-First Century 109

6. Haier as a High Performer 147

7. A True Hybrid: How to Fashion a Strategically Agile Organization 175

8. A True Disrupter: How Embracing Change Creates Value 211

Postscript: While We Were Writing . . . 227

Appendix: How ZZJYTsy Work 233
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CONTENTS</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>249</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Acknowledgments</td>
<td>261</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Authors</td>
<td>267</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Index</td>
<td>269</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Bill:
To that intrepid band of adventurers who moved to Dalian in 1980 to begin the National Institute for Industrial Science and Technology Development, on behalf of the Chinese and American governments; and to my best friend and partner in everything I’ve ever done, Marie Annette, who not only encouraged me to be a part of the Dalian adventure but brought along Kimberly, Amy, and Billy and changed all our lives. Without her, my life would have been so much poorer!

To Jack N. Behrman, who took me under his wing and taught me to think beyond traditional borders when I was a young neophyte at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

Umberto:
To Roberta, Giovanni, Francesco: my very special ZZJYT!

Fang:
To Thierry, my partner and best friend, who changed my life, allowing me to look at China from a new and deeper perspective.

To Willem, who brought me to IMD and sparked my passion for research, and whose support and encouragement have been invaluable in every initiative I have undertaken.

To Bill, who offered me the opportunity to work on this project, and always showed enormous trust in me.

And, to my beloved family and my homeland.