Contents

Contributors, ix
Foreword, x
Preface, xii

Chapter 1  Lisa Taylor
What is employability and what does it mean for you?, 1
Introduction, 1
What does the literature say on employability and how it has evolved?, 2
Towards a common language of employability, 2
Models of employability, 3
Personal responsibility for employability, 6
External influences on employability, 6
Response to changing expectations within the workplace and personal circumstances, 7
How is employability approached within education?, 9
Maximising your own employability potential, 11
What do employers want from graduates?, 12
Healthcare employability, 14
Evidencing your employability, 16
Conclusions, 17
References, 19

Chapter 2  Adrienne Jolly
Career planning and management, 21
Introduction – Aims of this chapter, 21
What do we mean by ‘Career’?, 22
Factors that influence our career, 27
Making good career decisions, 31
Possible causes of career change, 34
In summary: What do we know? How can this help in considering future chapters?, 35
References, 36

Chapter 3  Rosemarie Mason
Professionalism, 37
What is a profession?, 37
Why is professional identity important?, 44
Learning professionalism, 46
Summary, 49
References, 50

Chapter 4  James Gazzard
Continuing professional development (CPD), 54
Introduction, 54
Objectives, 55
The terminology of CPD, 56
A definition of CPD, 56
Motivations to engage with CPD, 58
The precursors of effective CPD, 59
Types of CPD: What counts as CPD?, 60
Ensuring that different types of CPD are recorded, 63
Levels of CPD, credit-bearing or non-credit-bearing CPD, 64
Where to access CPD, 66
How to access CPD: Overcoming barriers, 67
Evaluating the effectiveness of CPD, 68
An outline practical approach to planning and undertaking a balanced CPD portfolio, 70
Conclusions, 71
References, 72
Further reading, 72
Chapter 5  Neil Sellen
Leadership, 73
Introduction, 73
What is leadership?, 73
Why is leadership important in health care?, 74
Leadership as a professional responsibility, 75
Why choose to be a leader?, 75
Leadership and management, 77
Leadership and culture, 78
What is your approach to leading?, 78
What do employers want in early and developing leaders?, 79
What are the component behaviours and personal qualities that influence leadership effectiveness?, 80
What sort of leader are you?, 81
Typical leadership development activities, 82
Employers’ expectations of early career healthcare professionals, 82
When will you feel like a leader?, 83
Tips and trips, 84
References, 85
Further reading, 85

Chapter 6  Jonathan Larner
Service improvement, 87
Background and context, 87
Where has service improvement come from?, 89
How does service improvement feature in healthcare education?, 92
Service improvement as an ‘employability skill’, 93
What level of service improvement experience will be expected?, 94
What specific skills can I demonstrate through service improvement experience?, 96
Service improvement and leadership skills, 99
Conclusions, 100
Case studies, 100
References, 107