Index

A
Accountability: No Screaming policy and, 25, 26; teachers’ loss of emotional control and, 28
Actors, teachers as, 56, 57, 58
Administrator report cards, 130–133
Anger: indications of, 27; questioning students in, 170–171; screaming of teachers in, 24, 25; teachers’ biggest mistake regarding, 28; tips for defusing, 36–40
Apologies, 181–184
Appreciation, of students, 96–99
“Are You All Right?” technique, 171–172
Assignments, class, 51–54
Attention, of students: bell-to-bell teaching and, 51–54; strategies for gaining, 6–8; teachers’ movement around room and, 66
Audience involvement, 193

B
Back to School Night, 79–82
Behavior, inappropriate. See Misbehavior
Behavior, positive, 116–117
Bell-to-bell teaching, 51–54
Body language, 192
Boring instruction, 72
Breaux, A., 20, 188, 197

C
Calm demeanor, 37
Car trips, 31, 32
Classroom management: establishing rules/procedures and, 10–13; facts about, 5; ignoring misbehavior and, 31–35; importance of, 6; misbehavior and, 15–18; movement of teacher in classroom and, 65–66; rhetorical questions in, 170–172; screaming as, 23–26; sharing strategies for, 19–22, 48–49, 134–138; student attention and, 6–8; teachers’ loss of emotional control and, 23–30; teachers’ mistakes related to, 16, 27–30; teachers observing other teachers to learn about, 139–142
Classroom organization, 106–109
Coaches, teachers as, 59–63
Collaboration, of teachers, 134–138
Colorful classrooms, 108, 109
Communication: hurtful types of, 182, 183; with parents, 114–118
Conflict resolution, 36–40
Consequences, establishment of, 13
Consistency: in implementing procedures, 8; for managing a classroom, 20
Creed, of teachers, 185–188
D
Decision making, student-based, 147–150
Delegating responsibilities, 195
Desks, teachers', 61, 62
Displays, classroom, 107, 108

E
Early finishers, 52, 54
Effective teaching: enthusiasm and, 56–58;
fun activities in, 72–75; importance of, 48;
versus ineffective teaching, 44–45;
meaningful lessons in, 68–71; recognizing, 43; report cards for, 121–128; strategies for increasing, 45, 48–49; student engagement and, 51–54; student-based decisions in, 147–150; teachers' creed and, 185–188;
teachers' movement around room and,
65–66; teachers' observation of, 139–142;
using inservice to promote, 193–194
Emotional control, lack of, 23–30, 36–40
Enabling negative teachers, 103, 104
Endorphins, 168
Engagement, of students, 51–52
Enthusiasm: during Back to School Night, 80, 82; of principals, 70, 83, 84, 191; of teachers, 56–58, 85
Eye contact, 192

F
Faculty meetings: goal of, 1; greeting teachers at, 84; length of, 1; seating arrangement during, 64, 65; securing audience attention at, 8
Favorite teachers, 174–180
Feedback: for principals, from teachers,
130–133, 193; for teachers, from students,
121–128
Follow-through, 87–88, 195
Football games, 60
Fun lessons, 72–74

G
Gossip, 104, 111–112
Greeting students, 83–85
Gripe sessions, 134, 135

H
Habits, 64–65
Humor, 192

I
Ignoring misbehavior, 31–35
Inservices: benefits of, 2; capturing audience attention during, 6; effective presentations in, 191–195; follow-through with, 87–88, 195; goal of, 47; greeting teachers at, 84; leaders of, 194; length of, 1, 194; review meeting for, 87–89
Invitations, for Back to School Night, 80–82
Isolation, of teachers, 134–135

L
Last word, 181
Laughter, 192
Learning, incorporating fun into, 72–75
Lecturing, 72
Lesson planning: for bell-to-bell teaching, 52, 54; coaches versus teachers and, 60, 61, 62; fun activities in, 72–75; meaningful activities in, 68–71; sharing ideas for, 74
Likeable teachers, 152–154

M
Meaningful lessons, 68–71
Meetings. See Faculty meetings
Misbehavior: audience for, 15; consequences and, 13; contacting parents about, 117;
effective versus ineffective strategies for,
48–49; ignoring of, 31–35; negative coworkers and, 103; questioning students about, 170–172; screaming at students for,
23–26; smiling and, 168; strategies for managing, 16–18; teachers’ loss of emotional control due to, 23–30; teachers’ mistakes related to, 15, 16; teachers’ movement around room and, 65–66
Motivation, of students: coaches versus teachers and, 59, 61, 62; likeable teachers and, 152–154

N
No Screaming policy, 25
Notes, to parents, 115–116

O
Off-task behavior, 66
Organized workspaces, 106–109

P
Parents: defusing anger from, 36–40; involvement of, 79–82, 115; positive communication with, 114–118
Personal stories, 192
Personalized inservice, 193
Phone calls to parents: for Back to School Night, 80; positive notes home and, 117
Popularity, of teachers, 152, 153
Positive school environment, 92–95; focusing on, 161–165; smiling and, 166–169; teachers’ lounge and, 110–111, 112
Power struggles, 31, 38
Practice, 60, 62
Presentations, 191–195
Pride, in school, 91–95
Principals: effective presentations of, 191–195; enthusiasm of, 70, 191; goal of, 2; inservice organization and, xii; positive focus of, 162; report cards for, 130–133
Private practice session technique, 16–18
Prizes: for Back to School Night, 81, 82; for welcoming classroom environments, 109
Procedures: consequences for violating, 13; establishment of, 10–13; versus rules, 12; for securing student attention, 7–8
Professionalism: characteristics of, 156–159; defusing anger and, 39; negativity and, 155–156; screaming and, 24, 25, 28

Q
Questioning students, about misbehavior, 170–172

R
Recess, 16–18
Relationship building: apologies and, 181–182; likeable teachers and, 152–154; positive notes and, 117–118; questioning students and, 171–172; teachers’ creed and, 185–188
Relevance, 192
Reminder inservice, 87–89
Report cards: for principals, 130–133; for teachers, 121–128
Respect, 182
Rhetorical questions, 170–172
Role models: principals as, 194–195; smiling of, 167–168; teachers as, 24–25
Rules, classroom: common mistake regarding, 11; establishment of, 10–13; versus procedures, 12

S
School climate: classroom environment and, 106–109; greeting students and, 83–84; negative co-workers and, 101–104; parent communication and, 114–118; parent involvement and, 79–82; reminder inservice and, 87–89; school pride and, 91–95; student appreciation and, 96–99; teachers’ lounge and, 110–113
School pride, 91–95
Screaming at students, 23–26, 27–28
Seating arrangements, 64–65
Serious appearance, 167
Sharing sessions, 134–138
Signals, for securing student attention, 7
Skill practice, 61, 62
Smiling, 84, 111, 166–168
Staff developers, 2
Storytelling, 192
Stress, 168
Struggling teachers: bell-to-bell teaching by, 54; sharing classroom management strategies with, 19–22
Student achievement: benefits of inservice for, 2; celebrating, 57; effective teaching and, 48; fun activities for, 72–75; meaningful lessons and, 68
Student Appreciation Week, 96–99
Student-based decisions, 147–150
Students: apologizing to, 181–184; appreciation for, 96–99; celebrating success of, 57, 96; daily greeting of, 83–85; defusing anger from, 36–40; displaying work of, 107, 108; as early finishers of class activities, 52; teacher report cards from, 121–128
Sympathetic leaders, 193

T
Talking in class: rule against, 11, 12, 13; strategy for addressing, 16–18
Teachers: acknowledging progress of, 89; as actors, 56, 57, 58; characteristics of effective, 175, 185–186; as coaches, 59–63; collaboration of, 134–138; enthusiasm of, 56–58; favorite versus least favorite, 174–180; human nature of, 181–182; influence of, 174–175; isolation of, 134–135; location of, in classroom, 61, 62, 64–66; loss of control by, 23–26; movement of, around classroom, 65–66; negative attitude of, 101–104; observations of teachers by, 139–142; organized workspaces of, 106–109; popularity of, 152, 153; report cards for, 121–128; as role models, 24–25; sharing of strategies by, 19–22; types of, 2
Teachers’ creed, 185–188
Teachers’ lounge, 110–113
Teaching, effective. See Effective teaching
Time fillers, 54
Trust, establishing, 182

W
Walmart, 84
Welcoming environment, 107, 108
Whitaker, T., 188, 197