Index

Note: Page numbers followed by f and t indicate figure and table, respectively.

adverse events, 121
causes, 122–3, 124
human error, 123
root-cause analysis (RCA), 123
in transplantation, 123
Ambulatory Payment Classification system (APC), 76
American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA), 142 benchmarks, 117
“bridge-to-transplant,” 104 calculated panel reactive antibody (CPRA), 9–12 carved-out services, 103–5, 101f case mix, 101f
case-mix index, 101f
case rates, 101f, 103, 105
Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), 47 final report and response, 55, 57–8 future trends, 64
items requested, 566–57f
medicare certification, termination of, 60
mitigating factors, 60–61
most commonly cited program deficiencies, 60 Plan of Correction, 58f preparation, 58–9, 59f process, 51–3, 566–57f
regulations, 52–3, 53f
survey process, 53–5
Systems Improvement Agreement (SIA), 61–4, 62f centers of excellence (COE), 97–100, 101f charity care, 95–6
Clariant, 24
Cleveland Clinic, 22, 23, 40
Clinical Ladder program, 36 clinical outcome data, 53 clinical services
in-patient, 45–6
organ turn downs, 45
overview, 39
pre-transplant, 46–7, 48f–49f post-transplant evaluation, 41–3, 42f, 43f, 44f referral and access broadening, 39–40
growing and improving, 40
hurdles in, 40–41
ways for, 40
waitlist management, 43–5
CMS-2567, 55, 58, 61
compensation, 32–4
computerized patient record (CPR), 132 condition-level deficiency, 55, 57, 60 contract performance, 111–12
contract renewal, 108–9 contribution margin, 91, 92f cost per case, 94
cost report, 80–90, 81f, 82f, 83f–85f, 87f–89f cost report tracking, 90 Covey, Stephen, 173
cumulative sum (CUSUM), 124
data, information, knowledge, and wisdom (DIKW), 129–30, 130f
data integrity, 150–52
data management in transplant center, 133
post-transplant, 134–5
problems with paper-based patient records, 135–6 referral and evaluation, 133–4 spreadsheet and database applications, 136–9, 137f database management system (DBMS), 136–7 deceased donor kidney allocation, 9–11 decision matrix, 176–7, 177f 360-degree tool, 173
Index

destination therapy, 104 diagnosis-related groups (DRGs), 75–6, 76, 106 direct cost, 79, 101f
direct organ acquisition costs, 79–80, 80f DiSC tests, 173
disease-specific care (DSC) standards certification, 70 duties administrative director, 184–5 clinical manager, 185–6 financial coordinator, 186–7 in-patient transplant coordinator, 183–4 medical/surgical director, 191–3 post-transplant coordinator, 182–3 pretransplant coordinator, 181–2 quality assurance coordinator, 188 transplant pharmacist, 188–9 transplant social worker, 187–8 electronic health record (EHR), 132, 142–3, 152 electronic medical records (EMRs), 55 emotional intelligence, 173 exclusive provider organization (EPOs), 101f “Exit Conference,” 54, 55 extended criteria donor (ECD), 11 Facebook, transplant programs on, 168 facility fees, 47–8
failure mode and effects analysis (FMEA), 125, 126f False Claims Act, 79–80
fast-tracking evaluation process, 43, 44f federal poverty level (FPL), 77 Federal Register, 52 financial assistance resources, 95f fiscal intermediary (FI), 78 fixed cost, 91, 101f
flagging of accounts, 90
functional organizational structure, 17
advantages, 18
drawbacks, 18
global rates, 101f, 103
Goleman, Daniel, 173
Google Analytics, 166
“halo effect”, 90
Hardwiring Excellence, 178
Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health (HITECH) Act, 142 health maintenance organizations (HMOs), 77, 101f heart allocation, 14
Heart Allocation System (HAS), 14 heart transplants, 52, 91, 104 hepatocellular carcinoma (HCC), 13 high performers, 178–9 history of transplantation, 1 housing, transplant patients, 41 human resources administrative director duties, 184–5 clinical manager duties, 185–6 compensation, 31–2, 32f financial coordinator duties, 186–7 in-patient transplant coordinator duties, 183–4 interview process
candidate evaluation, 31 interviewer consensus, reaching, 31 program to candidate, selling, 31 market surveys on salary, conducting, 32
medical/surgical director administrative duties, 191 communication process, 191–2 market growth and development, 192 multidisciplinary team development, 191 planning and operations, 193
QAPI, 192
qualifications, 193
regulatory, 192
staffing, 192
training and education, 192
overview, 27
physician compensation and directorships, 32–4, 33f post-transplant coordinator duties, 182–3 pretransplant coordinator duties, 181–2 quality assurance coordinator duties, 188 recruitment process, 30–31 selection process, 31
training and advancement, 35–6 transplant coordinator orientation
in-patient, 195–7
post-transplant, 199–200
pretransplant, 201–2 transplant pharmacist duties, 188–9 transplant social work orientation assessment, 203–5 transplant social worker duties, 187–8 turnover and retention, 34–5
workforce planning, 27–30 Indiana University Health Transplant Institute, 24f roles and responsibilities, 24 standardized clinical protocols, 24 indirect cost, 79, 91, 101f “Institutes of Excellence” (IOE), 97 institutes, see transplant institutes intestine transplants, 52
Johari Window, 173
The Joint Commission (TJC), 124 categories, 124
reviews and questions, 69 survey of ambulatory transplant setting, 69 for VAD program, 70
performance measurement, 71 survey, 71
Index 233

kidney donor profile index (KDPI), 11
kidney–pancreas allocation, 11–12
kidney transplantation, 52, 91
  adult, 225–7
  checklist, 124, 125/

leadership vs. management, 171 length of stay (LOS), 46, 105
liver allocation, 13–14
liver transplants, 52
low performers, 179
lung allocation, 14–15
Lung Allocation Score (LAS), 14–15 lung transplants, 52, 91

managed care department, 110 managed care organizations (MCOs), 77–8, 101/carved-out services, 103–5 centers of excellence (COE), 97–100 collaboration with the business office, 109–10
  contract performance, 111–12
  contract renewal, 108–9 contracting methodologies and reimbursement structure, 102 level of benefit, 112
  operationalizing a contract, 110–11, 111/
  overview, 97
  phases of care, 102–3
  relationship with, 113
  Request for Information (RFI), 97, 98
  sample letter to claims department, 223–4 sample managed care contract, 225–7 stop loss, 105–7
  understanding internal costs, 100, 101/UNOS/RFI, 219–22
market research, 158, 165
marketing plan, transplant programs
  branding, 165
  communication to customers, 165 through annual reports, 167 through billboards, 166 through direct mail, 167 through flyers/brochures, 167 internet presence, 166
  intranet presence, 166
  through newspapers and magazines, 167 public relations, 167
  through radio, 166
  social media, 167–8
  through television, 167
  market research, 158, 165
  overview, 158
  target markets, 158, 165
matrix structure
  advantages, 20
  disadvantages, 20
  roles, 18
maximum transplant benefit, 112
Medicaid, 77
Medicare, 73–6, 76t
Medicare certification, termination of, 60
Medicare cost report, 78, 80, 86, 87/
Medicare and Professional Standards Committee (MPSC), 15, 65, 68 middle performers, 179
minimum transplant benefit, 112
mitigating factors, 60–61
model for end-stage liver disease (MELD) score, 13–14 monitoring financial performance, 94
Myers–Briggs, 173
National Organ Transplant Act (NOTA), 2, 130, 143 nurse practitioner, role of, 46
Office of Inspector General (OIG), 78 organ acquisition, 78
  direct costs, 79–80, 80t
  indirect costs, 79
organ allocation, 2
  deceased donor kidney allocation, 9–11
  ethical frameworks, 6–7
  heart allocation, 14
  history, 1–2
  kidney–pancreas allocation, 11–12
  liver allocation, 13–14
  local unit of, 3
  lung allocation, 14–15
  national unit of, 3
  policies, 4, 9
  regional unit of, 3
organ procurement organization (OPO), 85, 105 Organ Procurement and Transplantation Network (OPTN), 51, 53, 64
Organ Procurement Transplantation Network (OPTN), 2, 130, 151
  final rule, 4
  policy development process, 7–8, 7f/primary goals, 3–4
  responsibilities, 5
  staying in compliance, 15 organ transplantation centers, 1–2
kidney transplantation, 1
  National Organ Transplant Act (NOTA), 3–4
Organ Procurement Transplantation Network (OPTN), 4
organ turn downs, 45
organ-specific outcome reports, 15 organizational structures
  functional organizational structure, 17–18 matrix structure, 18, 20, 21f/
  overview, 17
  service line structure, 20–22, 21f/transplant institute, 22–5, 24f outlier, 101f/
  overhead, definition, 91
Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, 95
Payor mix, 94
Index

pediatric end-stage liver disease (PELD), 14
“Pediatric Share 35” allocation, 10
Per Diem, 101
Performance Analysis and Improvement Subcommittee (PAIS), 68 physician compensation, 32–4 plan of correction (PoC), 57, 58
Plan-Do-Study-Act (PDSA), 120–21, 122
point-of-service plans (POSs), 101 Policy Compliance Subcommittee (PCSC), 65
post-transplant, 46–7, 48–49
clinic, 47, 48–49
preferred provider organizations (PPOs), 101 pretransplant evaluation, 41–3, 42f, 43f, 44f primary care physicians, 78 Principle-Centered Leadership, 173
private insurers, 77–8
procurement fees, 84, 85, 85f product line organization, see service line organization profit margin, 91, 93f
profitability, transplant program, 90–91, 92f–93f, 94 Program Specific Reports (PSR), 15 quality assessment and process improvement (QAPI), 55, 60, 62, 63
adverse events, 121–7
committee responsibilities, 116
key practices, 115
overview, 115
performance improvement, 118–9
Plan-Do-Study-Act (PDSA), 120–21
policy and procedure, 116–7 quality assessment, 117–8, 117f, 119f–120f, 121f
sentinel events, 121–7
qui tam provisions, 79
Quint Studer, 178
Raw Allocation Score, 14
reasonable compensation equivalents (RCEs), 83 Reclassification and Adjustment of Trial Balance of Expenses, 80 referrals, 94
registered nurse (RN), 27, 29
relational database, 137 relative value units (RVUs), 32–4
Report of Organs Offered and Transplanted (ROOT), 45
Request for Information (RFI), 97, 98
resource-based relative value system (RBRVS), 76
root-cause analysis (RCA), 61, 62, 123
satellite clinics, 40
Scientific Registry for Transplant Recipients (SRTR), 2, 5, 6, 68, 124, 143, 149 program-specific reports, 143–5
responsibilities, 5–6
retrospective and prospective analysis, 148–50
risk-adjustment models, 145–8, 147f
sentinel events, 123–4
service line organization, 21f
advantages, 22
benefits, 20
disadvantages, 22
emerging, 20
questions for, 20–22, 21f simultaneous kidney-pancreas (SKP) allocation, 11 situational leadership, 173
South-Eastern Regional Organ Procurement Program (SEOPP), 1 Southeastern Organ Procurement Foundation (SEOPF), 1–2 deceased donor kidney, 2 space costs, 86
staffing survey, 28
standard acquisition charges (SAC) fees, 84–5 standard-level deficiency, 57–8 Stark Law, 33
stop loss methodologies, 105–8 strategic plan, transplant programs
data collection, 156–7, 157f determination, 155
financial plan, 157
implementation and monitoring, 159f–164f mission statement, 155–6
SWOT analysis, 156
vision statement, 156
succession planning, 179
“Survey ready”, 54, 59
SWOT analysis, 156
Systems Improvement Agreement (SIA), 61–4, 62t
target markets, 158, 165
tracer, 72
training and advancement, 35
Transplant Benefit Score, 14
Transplant Candidate Registration (TCR), 134 transplant carve-out services, 103–5, 104f transplant contract information flow, 111f transplant cost report, 78, 79 transplant data collection, 130–132, 131f transplant enterprise leadership, 171–2, 172f management, 171
relationships, 174–5
results orientation, 176–80, 177f self-awareness, 173–4 strategy, 176
succession planning, 179
vision, 175–6
transplant finance
charity care and patient funds, 95–6, 95f
cost report, 80–90, 81f, 82f, 83f–85f, 88f–89f
flagging of accounts, 90
kidney organ procurement rates for 2012, 217–8
monitoring financial performance, 94 organ acquisition, 78–80, 80f, 88f profitability, 90–91, 92f–93f, 94
revenue sources
medicaid, 77
medicare, 75–6, 76f
private insurers, 77–8
transplant information management and system computerization in health care, 132–3 current EHR environment, 142–3
data collection, 130–32, 131f
data, information, knowledge, and wisdom (DIKW), 129–30, 130f
data integrity, 150–52
data management in transplant center, 133
post-transplant, 134–5
problems with paper-based patient records, 135–6
referral and evaluation, 133–4 spreadsheet and database applications, 136–9, 137f–138f, 140f SRTR, 143
program-specific reports, 143–5
retrospective and prospective analysis, 148–50
risk-adjustment models, 145–8, 147f transplant-specific electronic records, 139–42, 142f Transplant Information Management System (TIMS), 139, 140f transplant institutes
advantages, 24
disadvantages, 25
formation, 23, 24
survey of, 22
Transplant Leadership Institute (TLI), 29, 32, 35 transplant program
branding, 165
clinical aspects, 39
compensation, 31–2
human resource department and, 30 improving, 41
medical and surgical leaders, requiring, 33
monitoring financial performance, 94
nursing issue in, 36
outreach, 40
planning for staffing, 27

profitability, 90–91, 92f–93f, 94
program-specific reports (PSRs) for, 143–5 for qualified candidates, 32
QAPI, 207–15
decision making, 216
revenue sources
medicaid, 77
medicare, 75–6, 76f
private insurers, 77–8
staff benchmarking data, focus on, 28
staffing, 30
training and advancement, 35–6
Transplant Program Quarterly Report (TPQR), 53, 53r
Transplant Recipient Follow-up, 143 Transplant Recipient Registration Form (TRF), 134, 143 transplant referral phone line, 40 transplant university, 47
turnover and retention, 34–5
two-tiered transplant network, 99

Uniform Anatomical Gift Act, 1
United Network for Organ Sharing (UNOS), 1, 2, 51, 97, 178, 179 bylaws, 64
onsite survey, 65
policies, 65, 66f–68f
regions, 3
regulations, 64–9, 66f–68f
staffing survey, 28
working with CMS, 68

University Health System Consortium (UHC), 118

variable cost, 101f ventricular assist device (VAD) program, 70–72, 103

waitlist management, 43–5
Waitlist Urgency Score, 14
waitlisted patients, 94
workforce planning
collection data, 28
key reasons, 28
overview, 27–8
patient-to-staff ratio, 28–9 staff benchmarking data and, 28 staff productivity, 29