Contents

Acknowledgements vii

Introduction: reason for the book 1

1 Preliminary considerations and symbols 9

2 Care for the older person requiring assistance with personal cleansing 27

Procedure One: Making or changing the older person’s bed with the person still in bed 31
Procedure Two: Assisting the older person requiring a wash in bed or chair, including care of hands and feet 34
Procedure Three: Assisting the older person to wash in the bath or shower, including care of hands and feet 39
Procedure Four: Assisting the bed-bound older person to wash his or her hair 42
Procedure Five: Assisting the older person with cleansing of the mouth, including care of dentures 44
Procedure Six: Assisting the older person requiring eye care 47

3 Care for the older person requiring assistance with movement 49

Vicky MacArthur RGN, BSc (hons), MSc, PGDip HPE

Procedure Seven: Assisting the older person to move up the bed 58
Procedure Eight: Assisting the older person to move from a lying to a sitting position 61
Procedure Nine: Assisting the older person with a lateral transfer while they are in a lying position 64
Procedure Ten: Assisting the older person to sit back in the chair 67
Procedure Eleven: Assisting the older person from a sitting to a standing position 69
Procedure Twelve: Assisting the older person to walk 74

4 Care for the older person requiring assistance to maintain nutrition and fluid intake 81

Procedure Thirteen: Assisting the older person to eat and drink 84
Procedure Fourteen: Nasogastric tube insertion and position checking 88
vi CONTENTS

Procedure Fifteen: Assisting the older person with nutrition and fluid intake via a nasogastric tube 91

Procedure Sixteen: Care of percutaneous endoscopically guided gastrostomy (PEG) tube site until stoma well established (1–14 days) 95

Procedure Seventeen: Care of percutaneous endoscopically guided gastrostomy (PEG) tube site when stoma well established 97

Procedure Eighteen: Assisting the older person with nutrition and fluid intake via a percutaneous endoscopically guided gastrostomy (PEG) tube 99

5 Care for the older person requiring assistance with toilet needs 103

Procedure Nineteen: Assisting the older person to use toilet, commode or bedpan 106

Procedure Twenty: Assisting the older person requiring bowel care: administration of suppositories 110

Procedure Twenty-one: Assisting the older person requiring bowel care: administration of an evacuant enema 112

Procedure Twenty-two: Obtaining a specimen of faeces for observation, assessment and analysis 115

Procedure Twenty-three: Obtaining a specimen of urine for observation, assessment and analysis 117

Procedure Twenty-four: Assisting the older person with catheter care 122

Procedure Twenty-five: Assisting the older person to empty a catheter bag 124

Procedure Twenty-six: Obtaining a catheter specimen of urine for observation, assessment and analysis 126

6 Care for the older person requiring observation and monitoring 129

Procedure Twenty-seven: Measuring and recording temperature 132

Procedure Twenty-eight: Measuring and recording temperature using a tympanic thermometer 134

Procedure Twenty-nine: Measuring and recording blood pressure 135

Procedure Thirty: Measuring and recording pulse 138

Procedure Thirty-one: Measuring and recording respiratory rate 139

7 Care for the older person at the end of his or her life 141

Procedure Thirty-two: Caring for the body of the older person following death 144

References and further reading 149

Index 155