Contents

Acknowledgments ........................................... vii
Introduction ............................................... ix

Part I: The Rainmaker Model ................................. 1
1. What Is a Rainmaker? .................................. 3
2. What Rainmakers Know or the Mathematics of Selling ......................................................... 19
3. How Rainmakers Think or the Skill of Optimism ... 45
4. What Rainmakers Do or the Power of Systems ...... 59
5. Limits to the Rainmaker Model ......................... 69

Part II: The Elements of Rainmaking .................... 77
6. Targeting and Positioning ............................... 79
7. Creating Value with Ideas ............................... 99
8. Finding a Lead Generation Approach That Works .. 113
9. Building Relationships That Produce Business .... 131
10. Questioning and Synthesizing Methods .............. 149
11. Anecdotal Selling ................................. 157
12. Finessing a Sale ....................................... 169
13. After You Are Hired ............................... 187
14. Creating Rainmakers ................................. 193
Conclusion ............................................... 203
Introduction to Appendices .............................. 205

Appendix A: Recruiting Rainmakers ...................... 207
   by Terence Gallagher

Appendix B: Compensating Professionals for Making Rain: A Tale of Two Law Firms ........ 219
   by J. Mark Santiago

Appendix C: Three Legs of a Stool: The Decisions
   That Shape the Marketing Function .............. 237
   by Abigail J. Gouverneur and John Bliss

Appendix D: Creating Presenters ....................... 249
   by Sims Wyeth

Endnotes .................................................. 259

Index ..................................................... 267