INDEX

Aamina (case example) 246–8 abandonment 134, 136, 188 abuse (ill-treatment; cruelty) 230 autism spectrum disorder and 90 in care/by caregivers 3, 104–5 personality disorder and 226–7 psychotherapy in 136
  sexual see sexual abuse acting out 135
adolescents and young adults assessment 62
  autism spectrum disorder 89–90
  in residential care 156 seeking support 165
  see also transition to adulthood adult(s) (and later life)
  assessment 16, 62–5
  autism spectrum disorder and 82–3 care staff functioning and attachment in 151–71 with severe ID, key factors in interventions 145
  see also transition to adulthood emotional development and its implications for 174 Adult Attachment Interview (AAI) 16, 18, 38, 39, 40, 62–4, 68, 154
  autism spectrum disorder 82–3, 85
  criticisms 18
  excerpts from 151–2
Adult Attachment Projective Picture System (AAP) 68, 72, 203–7
  trauma and 197, 198, 203–7, 208, 209, 215, 216
  case example 210, 212, 213, 214
Adult Attachment Q sort 63
Adult Attachment Questionnaire 63
Adult Attachment Scale 63
adult attachment styles, expanded model 248 Adult Attachment Styles (scale) 63, 64 affect (negative) and insecure attachment 229 Ainsworth, Mary 14, 60, 259
Ambulance (in Adult Attachment Projective Picture System) 203, 206, 213 anniversaries 176
antenatal screening 34–5 antisocial personality disorder (ASPD) 228, 237, 239 anxious-ambivalent/resistant insecure attachment 15, 16 assessment of 60
  romantic relationships and 248 anxious-avoidant insecure attachment 15, 16
assessment of 60, 63
  personality disorder and offending and 229, 232, 233, 236, 237
  romantic relationships and 248, 249
  sexuality and 253, 254
arousal cycle 176, 181
assessment (and measures) 59–78, 119, 232–4 adults see adults
autism spectrum disorder 84–6, 86–9
case examples 73–5, 178, 189–90
challenging behaviour 112–13
children 60–2
developed specifically for intellectual disability 66–70 for psychotherapy 139–44 strengths and limitations 70–2
trauma and 199
Attachment Q-sort (AQS) 69
autism spectrum disorder 84–5 attuned care 44, 173, 175, 176–7, 181 autism spectrum disorder (ASD) 79–103 assessment of attachment 84–6
case examples 49–52, 91–7
clinical practice 86–97 diagnosis of 79, 81, 82, 84 impact on family 35–6 early social development and 81–2 autonomous secure attachment see secure autonomous attachment aversive methods (punishment) 106, 114, 118 avoidant insecure attachment see anxious-avoidant insecure attachment bereavement 125, 126
case example 250, 252
best interests 107, 136, 181 Billy (case example) 223–4, 234–5 blank-screen approach 134–5 borderline personality disorder (BPD) 140, 227–8, 235, 239 boundaries (professional) 51, 177–80, 181, 183 Bowlby, John 9–14, 105, 153 caregiving system and 251
trauma and 105, 199–200
brain and neuroscience 21–2 Brief Symptom Inventory 139 bullying 201–2, 208–9, 215–16
case example 213–15
Care Index for Infants 61
Care Index for Toddlers 61
caregivers (carers)
abuse by 3, 104–5
formal/professional/in general see professional caregivers informal parents see parents
romantic relationships and 251–3 Cemetery (in Adult Attachment Projective Picture System) 203, 210, 213 challenging behaviour 104–29
autism spectrum disorder 91
child (children)
assessment 60–2
development see development individual therapy with severe disability 132–3 internal working models and 13 of parents with ID 257–61 see also adolescents; early childhood; infant; separation Child Development Team (CDT) in case examples
autism spectrum disorder 49–50, 52
cerebral palsy 25
Christine (case example) 130, 131–2, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 145–6 Circle of Security 23, 162, 163, 166 classification of attachment 14–16, 60–2 cognitive abilities in assessment 66
case example 191
cognitive development, acknowledging person’s level of 108–9 collaborative formulation 90, 95 commitment, ongoing 124–6 communication difficulties (and their management) 230 in autism spectrum disorder 80, 83 nurturing 183
community-based services 131 compassionate care 103, 105, 118, 123, 125 complaints, ongoing, families presenting with 45–52 conditioning models 111–12 confidence (therapist’s) 135 confidentiality 135, 180, 184, 187 confirmation (to client) 157–8 consent 112–13, 181, 185–6, 208 informed 185–6, 187, 207, 254 consistency (staff) 53, 175, 181
constraint 206
CONTACT (video-feedback intervention) 152, 157, 159, 160, 167 contact, physical 177
containment 53, 117–18, 187
challenging behaviour 117–18
pathological mourning 205 contract, therapeutic 183, 184–5 control, language of 112 Corner (in Adult Attachment Projective Picture System) 203, 204, 208, 210, 211, 214 countertransference 186 creative engagement 43, 53–4 criticisms of attachment theory 19 Crittenden’s Dynamic Maturational Model of attachment 17, 61–2 cruelty see abuse culture 18–19
current relationships 162, 250 assessing 63, 68, 118
Dana (case example) 252–3 death (loss through) 199
case example 252, 255
see also bereavement; loss; mourning defensive processing 199, 205 Departure (in Adult Attachment Projective Picture System) 203, 206 dependency
overdependency 246
realistic 111–12
derealization 206, 208, 213 despair (at separation) 10 detachment (at separation) 10
development
adversity in 225, 230–2, 239 emotional see emotional development social (early), and autism spectrum disorder 81–2 diagnosis
autism spectrum disorder see autism spectrum disorder family-centred 54
impact of 35–40
differentiation stage in early emotional development 143, 146 dismissing attachment 63 adults and care staff and 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 164, 166 disorganized attachment 14, 15, 16, 61, 155
assessment 61
challenging behaviour and 109, 110
drawings in house, tree, person test 141–2
Dyadic Developmental
Psychotherapy 23
Dynamic Maturational Model of
attachment 17, 60–1
dynamics (attachment) 65, 130–50 interviews about 66
psychotherapy and 130–50
early childhood 152
autism spectrum disorder and social development in 81–2 emotional development see emotional development
object relations 152
trauma 90
ejection, resisting 116–17 emotion(s) 116–17, 233–5 in assessment of challenging behaviour 113
problems/disorders/distress 45, 224–5, 229, 233
externalizing or internalizing 236
personality disorder and 235–7 regulation 229–30
in therapy 187–8
secure attachment and 173, 229, 233
understanding 116–17
emotional development 142–4, 146–8, 180
acknowledging person’s level of 108–9
becoming stuck/uncompleted/arrested 144, 173–4, 174, 194
case example 178–9
eyearly, observation 142–4
later life implications 174 Mahler’s phases of 174 stages/phases 142–4, 146–8 emotional safety and security 21, 113, 125, 146, 174–80
emotional support 172–91
empathy 123–4
ending of period of
psychotherapy 188–9
engagement 162–4
creative 43, 53–4
excessive attachment
behaviours 160–1
externalizing of emotional problems 236
extroversion 236
families
diagnosis and support centring on 54
grieving models 40–2
presenting with ongoing complaints 45–52
see also parents
father see parents
feedback
in psychotherapy 135
video see video feedback follow-up 122, 125, 182, 225 formulation
attachment-focused 54
case examples 92, 95, 178
collaborative 90, 95 shared with staff teams 180–2 generations, transmission of attachment across 18, 21, 153–4 ‘good enough care’ 172, 173,
175–6, 181
Grace (case examples)
first patient named so 49–52 second patient named so 258–9 grief 40–2
family models of grieving 40–2 unresolved see unresolved losses group level, functioning at 140 Gunel (case example) 254–6 history (personal - of attachment) 173, 180 in assessment for psychotherapy 139 continuing presentation of 110–11 fragmentation 109 staff 166
holding 117–18
house, tree, person test 141–2 human needs 104, 124, 125, 175, 177, 194 ideas shared with staff teams 180–2 independence

in autism spectrum disorder and transition to adulthood 89, 90 program, case example 238, 239 individual (person)
history see history
permanence 160–1
therapy 132–3, 138–9, 182–3 individuation stage in early emotional development 143, 173, 174 infant, assessment 61
infant–parent psychotherapy 23–4 Infant Strange Situation 61, 63, 68 informed consent 185–6, 187, 207, 254 insecure attachment 9, 14, 15, 16, 60, 229 anxious-ambivalent see anxious-ambivalent/resistant insecure attachment anxious-avoidant see anxious-avoidant insecure attachment emotional regulation and 229 insecurity 113
institutional/residential care abuse 104–5
adolescents 156
intellectual capacity assessment 139–44 interactions (adult client–staff) 146, 152, 156–9, 160 intergenerational transmission of attachment 18, 21, 153–4 internal working models 12–14 internalizing of emotional problems 236 International Association for the Scientific Study of ID Special Interest Research Group on Parents and Parenting with ID (IASSID SIRG) 258
interventions 22–7, 120–1
attachment-focused 54
autism spectrum disorder 91, 97
case example 51
challenging behaviour 106, 117, 118, 120–1
case example 107, 108, 126–7 emotional support, case examples 178–9, 190–2 severe disabilities see severe disabilities see also psychotherapy interview (clinical), autism spectrum disorder 86–7 intimate relationships 244–65
development 245–8
romantic relationships 64, 65, 248–57
introversion 236, 237
Isa (case example) 91–3 joint hypothesis in behavioural assessment 113–15, 120, 124
June (case example) 209–12
Leah (case example) 93–6
Lisa (case example) 73–5 loss(s) 19–20
autism spectrum disorder and 90–1
by death see death
of ‘healthy child’ 33–58
mourning for see mourning past 20, 40, 41
proximal 20
unresolved see unresolved losses
Mahler’s phases of emotional development 174
Manchester Attachment Scale – Third Party (MAST) 69–70, 71, 72, 76
  case example 73, 74
Marital Q sort 63
Matt (case example) 189–92 meanings, understanding 186–7 measures of attachment see assessment memories of attachment relationships, examining 63 Mental Capacity Act (2005) 6, 107, 181 mental health assessment (for psychotherapy) 139 attachment influencing 11, 16, 164 see also wellbeing
mental representation see representation Mike (case example) 178–80 mindfulness 117, 182
  parents 21
mindless vs mindful state 21 mind-mindedness 21, 28, 191 mindset 165–6, 167
mother see parents
mourning 197–222
  failed 200, 207
  pathological/complicated 41, 197–222
  adults with ID 197–222
  case examples 209–15
  unresolved see unresolved losses negative affect and insecure attachment 229 negative reinforcement 115 neuroscience 21–2
neuroticism 235
normalization 111
nurturing care 176–7, 181, 183
object relations 106, 142
  technique 140–1
observations
  autism spectrum disorder 87–9, 88
  early emotional development 142–4 offending 230–1, 232–3, 236, 239 one-person level, functioning at 140 oppositional behaviour 225, 231
overdependency 246
parents (incl. mother and other informal caregivers) 33–58
  in autism spectrum disorder 83, 85, 86, 89–90
  as cause 80
  becoming a parent 34–5
  people with ID 257–61
caregiving abilities 42–4 diagnosis and its impact on 33–40 internal working models and 13 mental representation 37, 154, 156 neuroscientific developments 21 psychotherapy involving infant and 23–4 resolution or its absence see resolution; unresolved losses system of caregiving 12 see also families; intergenerational transmission of attachment; separation past losses 20, 40, 41
Patrick (case example) 249–50
Pauline (case example) 250–1
Peer Attachment Interview 63, 64
permanence, person 160–1 person see individual personality disorder 225–8, 235–7, 239 antisocial (ASPD) 228, 239
  borderline (BPD) 140, 227–8, 235, 239 emotion and 235–7
physical contact 177
positive behaviour support 106, 119–22 positive reinforcement 115 post-traumatic stress disorder 235 practising stage in early emotional development 143, 147 pre-individuation phase 146, 174 premature birth 42, 43
prenatal screening 34–5 preoccupation with personal suffering 200, 209 preoccupied attachment 63, 64 care staff and 158, 159, 160, 164, 165, 166 Preschool Assessment of Attachment 61–2 preterm (premature) birth 42, 43 professional caregivers (staff/team) 151–71 adult attachment and functioning of 151–71 autism spectrum disorder and working with 88, 90–1 challenging behaviour and 115–27 emotional security and development through support of 174–80 ideas and formulation shared between 180–2 introducing attachment concepts to, case example 115–16 management 160–4
risk and resilience 164–6 separation by 202
splitting in care team 53, 124 sufficient amount of 138 training and support 138, 180, 182, 191 understanding their attachment strategies 17 workshops 118
projective tests 139–44
protest (at separation) 10 proximal development, zone of 17 proximal losses 20
psychological health and wellbeing see mental health; wellbeing psychotherapy 23–4, 130–50
assessment for 139–44
case example 26
presenting issues and how to work with them 136–7 working through 182–94
see also interventions punishment (aversive methods) 106, 114, 118 Q-sorts 16, 62, 63, 65, 68, 69
autism spectrum disorder 84–5 questions to inform clinical observation of attachment strategies 80 rapprochement in early emotional development 143, 148, 179 Reaction to Diagnosis Interview (RDI) 37, 38, 39–40, 43 realistic dependency 111–12 reality orientation 108–9 referral 119–20, 125
case examples 107–8
reflection 124–6, 184
refrigerator mother 80
reinforcement (of behaviour) 106 negative 115
positive 115
rejection 134, 136, 253, 256
Relationship Scales Questionnaire (RSQ) 232 Relationships Questionnaire (RQ) 63, 64, 232, 233, 236 reliability (staff/therapists) 137, 175, 181 representation (mental) of attachment 151–67 Adult Attachment Projective and coding of 205, 208 mental health and 164–5 mindset and 166
representational assessment 199 support seeking and 165 residential care see institutional/residential care resilience, professional 164–6 resolution, parental 37–8 reward 106
  interventions based on 91 risk, professional 164–6
romantic relationships 64, 65, 248–57
Rusty (case example) 231–2, 237–8 safety see security and safety Sally and Tyrone (case example of couple) 260–1 School-aged Assessment of Attachment 62 screening, antenatal 34–5 secure autonomous attachment 13, 15 adults and care staff functioning and 151, 152, 155, 157, 159, 165, 166
  in assessment 60, 63, 64, 65, 68, 69, 70
autism spectrum disorder and 83, 84, 85 disability and 39–40
  emotions and 173, 229, 233
  intimate relationships and 244, 245, 248, 249, 250, 251, 259, 260, 261
  personality disorder and offending and 226, 229, 232, 233, 236, 237, 239
Secure Base Safe Haven Observation (SBSHO) 68–9, 70, 71, 72, 76 secure unit 138, 213
security and safety 5, 138 emotional 21, 113, 125, 146, 174–80
  five conditions for 113
  in therapy 184–5, 192–3
  see also Circle of Security Security Scale, autism spectrum disorder 85 segregated systems 199, 206, 207, 208
  case example 210, 212
self, sense of 90, 140, 148, 173, 200 self-injury/self-harm 125, 136
  case examples 92, 234, 235
Self-report Assessment of Attachment Security (SRAAS) 66–8, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74
separation
  Bowlby on 10, 105
  by professionals or systems of care 202 strange situation (procedure) see strange situation services
  community-based 131
  emotional support and role of 172–91, 193–4 severe disabilities 108–9
  interventions
    individual therapy 132–3 key factors 144–6
  limited independence 111
sex offenders 230
sexual abuse and assault 225, 230, 256
  case examples 209, 211, 213, 231
sexual behaviour, inappropriate 230, 231, 237, 256 sexuality 253–7
Shanice (case example) 256–7 social development (early) and autism spectrum disorder 81–2 sorrow, chronic 41
splitting in care team 53, 124
staff see professional caregivers Stephanie (case example) 46–9 stereotyped behaviours 87, 162
  case examples 95, 107, 108
Steven (case example) 147 strange situation (procedure) 14, 15, 16, 18, 60, 84 infant 61, 63, 68
styles of attachment 60 adult, expanded model 248 assessment see assessment emotions and 233, 236
intimate relationships and 248–9
personality disorder and 236
support of carers 124–6, 138
emotional 172–91
family-centred 54
seeking 175
  in trauma and chronic unresolved
  mourning 202
  case examples 212, 214–15
wellbeing benefiting from 162 Sylvie (case example) 25–7 termination of period of
  psychotherapy 188–9
Terry (case example) 213–15 theory (of attachment) 1–32
care staff and 153–5
challenging behaviour and 104–29
criticisms of 19
development 9–17
disability psychotherapy and 172–3 reactions to diagnosis and 36–40 therapeutic (client–therapist/staff) relationship 156, 182–9 assessment and the 70
emotionally-nurturing 183–4 ruptures and endings 188–9 three-person level, functioning at 140
Tom (case example) 107–8, 110–11, 115–16, 123, 126–7
Tommie (case example) 159
toolkit of assessments 72, 76 touch 117
training, staff 138, 180, 182, 191 transference 115, 186 transition to adulthood 165
  autism spectrum disorder and 89–90
Transition to Adulthood Attachment Interview 62
trauma (past) 90–1, 197–222
  autism spectrum disorder and 90–1 Bowlby and 105, 199–200 definition 198–201
implications for research and practice 216–17
mourning of see mourning
psychotherapy 136–7
trauma-informed care 131, 138–9
see also abuse
trust in psychotherapy 133, 134, 135, 137, 138, 145, 146, 147, 148
two-person level, functioning at 140 Tyrone and Sally (case example of couple) 260–1
understanding
  language of 112
  of meanings 186–7 unresolved losses (grief and mourning), chronic
  adults with ID 200, 205, 206, 207
  case examples 209–15
care staff and adult
  attachment 155, 157
parents 37, 38, 39, 41, 42, 43, 202
  from past 20
video analysis research in autism spectrum disorder 81, 82 video feedback 23, 24, 156, 158, 159, 162 CONTACT 152, 157, 159, 160, 167
video interaction guidance (VIG) 22–3
violence 230, 239
  personality disorder and 225–6 wellbeing, psychological 80–1, 113
assessment 139
  support from staff contributing to 162
see also abuse; mental health Window (in Adult Attachment
  Projective Picture
  System) 203, 210
Winnicott, W.C. 144, 172
Winterbourne View Hospital 3, 104–5, 202 working through therapy 182–94 workshops, staff 118

young adults see adolescents and young adults

Zoltan (carer in case example) 252–3 zone of proximal development 17