Illustrations are comprehensively referred to from the text. Therefore, significant items in illustrations (figures and tables) have only been given a page reference in the absence of their concomitant mention in the text referring to that illustration.

abdominal plain films see radiography access renal see nephrolithotomy: retrograde endoscopic approach/access ureteral see ureter acetazolamide 113, 113–14 acetohydroxamic acid, struvite stones 52 acid-base physiology and renal tubular acidosis 93–5 acidification, urinary, tests for 98 active surveillance of asymptomatic renal calculi 140–1 adenine phosphoribosyltransferase (APRT) deficiency 60, 66–7 adhesins 50
α-adrenoceptor blockers see alpha (adrenoceptor) blockers age in pediatric ESWL as predictor of success 199 as surgical indicator 88 AGXT mutation 62
alanine-glyoxylate aminotransferase gene (AGXT) mutation 62 alkalinization, urinary cystinuria 61 renal tubular acidosis 101, 102–3 in retrograde irrigation 259
uric acid stones 30–1
Alligator forceps 238, 276
allopurinol
in adenine phosphoribosyltransferase deficiency 67
calcium stones 42
high doses inducing stone formation 111
uric acid stones 31
alpha (adrenoceptor) blockers
children 75–6
in medical expulsive therapy 127, 128, 137 post-ESWL 76, 211
renal colic 126
stent colic 126
American Urological Association see EUA and/or AUA guidelines amiloride, children 78
aminopenicillins 111
ammonium 23–4
urinary 94
measurement 23–4
see also struvite stones ammonium chloride test 95, 99 ammonium urate stones 32
Amplatz fixed core wire guide 274
Amplatz sheath 273
Amplatz super stiff guidewire 248 analgesics
children 75
renal colic 125–6
anatropic nephrolithotomy 296, 298–301 anesthesia in pediatric ESWL for renal stones 197 angiotensin-converting enzyme inhibitor, Dent’s disease 65 angiotensin receptor blocker, Dent’s disease 65 animal protein intake
  cystinuria and 61
  pediatric stones and 77 sulfate and 23
  uric acid stones and 30
antegrade endoscopic approach combined retrograde and 318–22 ureteric stone 139
antibiotics (antibacterial drugs) postoperative
    in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 292–3
    struvite stones 52, 54
  preoperative
    prophylactic 279
  struvite stones 54
  suppressive, with struvite stones 52 urolithiasis caused by 107, 111 anti-emetics, children 75 anti-retropulsion devices in ureteral lithotripsy 238 anti-retroviral drugs 108–9 antiviral drugs 111
  anti-retroviral 108–9 arrhythmia risk in ESWL 329 ascorbic acid (vitamin C) (vitamin C) and hyperoxaluria 19, 114–15 assessment see evaluation and assessment asymptomatic patients
  in primary hyperparathyroidism 87, 88 renal calculi, management 139–41 atazanavir 110
AUA see EUA and/or AUA guidelines autoimmune renal tubular acidosis 97, 99, 102 avulsion of ureter in ureterorenoscopy 335–7
bacteria biofilms 50, 51, 54
  struvite stones and 49
urease-producing 21, 24, 32, 48, 49, 50, 51, 172, 285 ballistic lithotripsy 236 balloon catheter, tamponade 275, 331 balloon dilation
  percutaneous nephrolithotomy 272, 280
  pediatric 190
  ureteroscopic lithotripsy 231 baskets (for stones) 238–9 Nitinol 180, 238, 275
bicarbonate 94, 95
  distal renal tubular acidosis and 97, 99 reabsorption 93, 94
  see also sodium bicarbonate bi-flange grasper 275
  biofilms, bacterial 50, 51, 54 bisphosphonates in primary hyperparathyroidism 89 BiWire® Nitinol core wire guide 273 bladder 166–71
  outlet obstruction 169–70
  radiography see radiography stones/calculi, surgical management 306 endoscopic 166–71
  laparoscopic or open 297, 306, 307, 308 traumatic rupture 171 bleeding (hemorrhage)
  percutaneous nephrolithotomy 291, 330–1
  ureterorenoscopy 335
bone formation, and renal tubular acidosis 101 mineral density 7–8
  in primary hyperparathyroidism 87, 88, 89
  see also fracture bowel injury in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 291, 332 calcimimetic in primary hyperparathyroidism 89 calcium dietary intake, influence on calcium levels 18 dietary intake, management 9, 41
  children 76–7
  serum levels calcium (cont’d)
elevated see hypercalcemia
measurement 85
as surgical indicator in primary hyperparathyroidism 88 supplementation 114
urine, measurement 18–19
see also familial hypocalciuric hypercalcemia; hypercalciuria see also nephrocalcinosis calcium channel blockers/antagonists (CCBs)
children 75–6
medical expulsive therapy 128, 137
renin colic 126 calcium oxalate (CaOx) stones 19, 43 pH and formation of 21
risk factors/causes 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 77 calcium phosphate, supersaturation, pH effects 21 calcium phosphate (CaP) stones 22, 36 risk factors/causes 39, 41, 43
calcium stones 36–47
bone mineral density and 7
management 9, 41–2
risk factors/causes 38–41, 43
calyces (calyceal system)
children
inferior, ESWL for stones in 207
percutaneous nephrolithotomy and 183
diviectum see diverticulum lower pole, access 255
staghorn calculi see staghorn calculi cancer see malignancy carbonic anhydrase inhibitors 107, 113 cardiac arrhythmia risk in ESWL 329 cardiovascular manifestations of primary hyperparathyroidism 87–8 catheters as nephrostomy tubes 275
as stents see stents for ureteroscopy 247–8 cavitation in ESWL 218
ceftriaxone 111
chemistry 24-hour urine 13–25
serum 14
chemolysis, contact/irrigation 283–5 cystine stones 61, 284
struvite stones 53, 285
uric acid stones 32, 284
children
nephroscope 285
stones in 78–80, 176–208 drug-induced 107
ureteral, management 176–95, 208–12 vesicolithiasis 206
chloride channel gene (CLCN5) mutation 64, 65 citrate in primary hyperparathyroidism 89 citrate, urinary, measurement 19–20 see also hypocitraturia citrate salts (incl. potassium)
calcium stones 42
prevention 10
children 77
preventive use 9–10
renal tubular acidosis 101–2, 102–3
uric acid stones 31
CLCN5 mutation 64, 65
clinic, kidney stone 3–12 clinical manifestations/presentations
children 71–2
generic causes of stones 58
hyperparathyroidism (primary) 87–8
Cobra access catheter 189, 190, 247, 259, 280
Cochrane Collaboration or Review ESWL for ureteral stones in children 209 vs ureteroscopy 138
NSAIDs vs narcotics for renal colic 125
coli, renal 29, 120–31 imaging 123–4, 149–50
stent-related 126–7
collecting system (intrarenal) injury in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 291 techniques for achieving access to 252 colonic injury in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 291, 332 complications (of procedures) 326–38 ESWL 138, 139, 326, 327–9
laparoscopic and open surgery for bladder stones 307
Index

for renal stones 299–300 for ureteral stones 307
percutaneous nephrolithotomy 291–2, 326, 330–3 traumatic see injury ureteroscopy and ureteropyeloscopy/ureterorenoscopy 138, 139, 258, 326, 334–7
children 181
percutaneous puncture-related 189 see also safety considerations composition analysis 14
children 73
CT 144, 145, 152
treatment decisions based on 143–4 computed tomography (CT) 151–3
children 73–5
composition of stones determined by 144, 145, 152 Hounsfield units 144, 152
in percutaneous nephrolithotomy for planning access 265
renal colic 124
uric acid stones 29, 152
congenital anomalies and ESWL 205–6 contact chemolysis see chemolysis corticosteroids in medical expulsive therapy 128 Councilman catheter 275 creatinine 17–18
crystal(s) growth (crystallization) inhibitors, calcium stones 40, 42 urine microscopy see microscopy culture, renal pelvis and stone 54 cystine stones 284
CT 152
pharmacological prevention 10 treatment 61
chemolysis 61, 284
children 207
dietary 9
ESWL 207, 284
cystinuria 60–2
children 71, 73, 76, 77, 78
cystolitholapexy 169 cystolithotomy, open 297, 306, 307 ruptured bladder 171
cystoscopy using holmium laser lithotripsy 167 Dent’s disease 64–5, 103–4 desmopressin, renal colic 126
DHDPSL mutation 62
Dietary Approaches to Stop Hypertension (DASH) diet 9, 41, 102
dietary intake
calcium see calcium magnesium 22
oxalate see oxalate
potassium 22
protein see protein
sodium 18, 22
dietary management/modification 9
calcium stones 41–2, 43
children 76–7
hypercalciuria 22
uric acid stones 30
dietician (kidney stone clinic) 5–6 2,8-dihydroxyadenine (DHA) crystals and stones 60, 66, 67, 68, 70
2,8-dihydroxyadeninuria (APRT deficiency) 60, 66–7 dilation (tract) and dilators pediatric percutaneous nephrolithotomy 189–90
percutaneous nephrolithotomy 271–2, 280
ureteroscopic lithotripsy 231 distal renal tubular acidosis 93, 95, 96, 96–8, 98, 99, 101, 102, 103, 104 distribution of stones see location diuretics, thiazide see thiazide diuretics diverticulum calyceal 289–90
removal (via laparoscopic diverticulectomy) 296, 300, 301–3 stone in 169, 289–90
traversing 255–6
urethral (after urethral reconstruction) 174 Docimo Mini-PERC™ 190
double flexible Roadrunner® PC guide 274 double-J ureteral stent 231, 235, 239 “forgotten” 171
drainage of urine, emergency 157–65 Dresden percutaneous universal nephroscope 275 drug-induced conditions parathyroid dysfunction 84
  stones 106–19

drug therapy see pharmacological agents dry head lithotripters 216, 222 dual-emission X-ray absorptiometry (DEXA) 8
dual-energy CT 152
duodenal injury in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 332 dusting. stone 250
ectopic parathyroid hormone-secreting tumors 84 electrohydraulic shock wave generators 219, 222, 282
electromagnetic shock wave
  generators 220–1, 222
emergency urinary drainage 157–65 diagnostic guidance for access in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 269–70
diagnostic management (endourology) combined antegrade and retrograde 318–22 combined laparoscopic and 317 lower urinary stones 166–75
  struvite stones 53
  ureteral stones see ureteroscopy see also cystoscopy; nephroscope diagnostic toxic lipopolysaccharide 51 diagnostic endourological management see diagnostic endoscopic management; ureteropyeloscopy; ureteroscopy enteric hyperoxaluria 19, 37, 42, 43, 63 environmental factors, calcium stones 38 ephedrine 112
Escherichia coli 49
EUA and/or AUA guidelines antimicrobial prophylaxis 279 renal stones/nephrolithiasis
    children 208, 209, 212
    multimodality therapy 314, 315, 316 ureteral calculi 137, 138, 198
    children 212
European Association of Urology see EUA and/or AUA guidelines evaluation and assessment 6–8
  hyperparathyroidism (primary) 83–7 metabolic see metabolic evaluation
  pediatric 72–5
expulsive therapy see medical expulsive therapy extracorporeal shock wave lithotripsy (ESWL sometimes referred to as just SWL) 208–12, 216–24, 327–9 alpha (adrenoceptor) blockers after 76, 211 combined with other procedures percutaneous nephrolithotomy 314–17
    ureteral stent 312–14
  complications 138, 139, 326, 327–9 composition of stones 143–5 contraindications 327
  evolution/development 216 generators of shock wave 218–21 location of stones 143 mechanisms of stone comminution 217–18 outcome factors 222–4 rate of shock wave delivery 223
  renal stones 140, 142, 143 sequence of shock wave delivery 224 size of stones 142
  staghorn calculi 316
  ungated 197–8
  ureteral stones 137, 138
    children 206, 208–12
    distal 138–9
    proximal 138
  ureteroscopy vs 176, 209, 210 voltage/power and number of shocks 223 extractors 249, 281
    see also baskets; graspers extravasation of irrigant in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 332–3 eye of the needle technique (fluoroscopy-guided access for percutaneous nephrolithotomy) 268 familial hypocalciuric hypercalcemia (FHH) 73, 83–4, 86 familial renal tubular acidosis 97 family history-taking 59
  children 71, 72
febuxostat
  in adenine phosphoribosyltransferase deficiency 67
uric acid stones 31
fixed core wire guide 274 flexible ureteroscope 231, 234–6, 245–6 access over guidewire 248
children 178–9, 179, 180
no-touch access 253–4
with tight distal ureter 252 fluid intake management 8–9
calcium stones 41
cystinuria 61
hyperoxaluria (primary) 63
fluoroscopic guidance puncture for percutaneous nephrolithotomy 267–8, 280 stone basketing 249 focal point/zone in ESWL 219, 221, 222–3 fractures 8, 99
in primary hyperparathyroidism 87, 88
FRAX 8
fruit juices and uric acid stones 30 furosemide, stones induced by 114 furosemide + fludrocortisone (F + F) test 99 general in pediatric ESWL for renal stones 197 genetic factors/causes 57–70
calcium stones 38, 39
children 71
renal tubular acidosis 97
glidewires see guidewires and glidewires glomerular filtration rate and primary hyperparathyroidism treatment 88 gram-negative bacteria and struvite stones 49 gram-positive bacteria and struvite stones 49 grasppers
percutaneous nephrolithotomy 275
ureteroscopy 249
guaifenesin 112
guidewires and glidewires 247–8, 273–4 Nitinol 247, 248, 249, 254, 273–4
for percutaneous nephrolithotomy 273–4, 280
two-guidewire technique for obstructing distal ureteral calculus 252 heart, arrhythmia risk in ESWL 329 hematoma, renal, risk in ESWL 328 hemiacidrin, struvite stones 53 hemorrhage see bleeding hemothorax in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 292 hepatic injury in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 292 hereditary factors see genetic factors HiWire® Nitinol core wire guide 274 HM3 lithotripters 216, 222
ureteral stones 138, 139
HOGAI mutation 62
holmium laser lithotripsy bladder stones 167–9
renal stone location and 143
ureteral stones 236–8, 250, 256
children 180
horseshoe kidney and percutaneous nephrolithotomy 287–9 Hounsfield units 144, 152
hydrocholorothiazide, children 77 hydrogen ions and renal tubular acidosis 93–4 hydronephrosis, infected 157, 158, 159, 160, 161 hydrothorax in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 292 4-hydroxy-2-oxoglutarate aldolase 1 gene (HOGAI) mutation 62 5-hydroxytryptamine-type 3 (5-HT3) antagonists, children 75 hypercalcemia differential diagnosis 83 familial hypocalciuric 73, 83, 86 in hyperparathyroidism (primary) 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 87, 90
hypercalciuria 18, 39
bone mineral density and 7
dietary management 22 hyperparathyroidism (primary) and 82 pharmacological management 43 hyperkalemic renal tubular acidosis 96 hyperoxaluria 19, 39–40, 62–4 calcium oxalate stones and 39–40, 42 enteric 19, 37, 42, 43, 63 primary (PH) 62–4, 71, 73, 76, 78 vitamin C-induced 19, 114–15
hyperparathyroidism
primary 39, 81–92
secondary 84–5, 86
tertiary 85
hypertension risk in ESWL 329 hyperuricosuria 20, 28, 31, 40, 42, 43 hypocalciuric hypercalcemia, familial 73, 83, 86 hypocitraturia 19–20
calcium stones and 40
management 20, 43
hypokalemic (distal) renal tubular acidosis 93, 95, 96, 98, 99, 101, 102, 103, 104 hypomagnesuria 22

imaging see radiology and specific modalities indinavir 108–10

infant ESWL 200–5
infection (and sepsis)
in hydrenephrosis 157, 158, 159, 160, 161 procedures complicated by ESWL 328
percutaneous nephrolithotomy 292–3, 333 procedures complicated by ureterorenoscopy 335 information, patient 6 infundibulum (in ureteropyeloscopy) 255 obstructed/strictured/stenosed 289–90

traversing 255–6, 289–90

inherited factors see genetic factors injury (traumatic)

bladder 171
iatrogenic ESWL 197
percutaneous nephrolithotomy 291–2, 331–2 percutaneous nephrostomy 158
ureterorenoscopy 335–7
spinal cord see spinal cord injury internist (kidney stone clinic) 4–5 interventions (urological) see surgical management and specific interventions intestinal (bowel) injury in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 291, 332 intravenous urography/pyelography 150–1

in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 279
uric acid stones 29

Invisio® Smith digital percutaneous nephroscope 275 iPad-guided access in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 270 irrigation
chemolysis by see chemolysis saline see saline irrigation

“jack” stone 236

Kayte tamponade balloon 275, 331 ketogenic diet 114
ketorolac 125
pediatric stones 75
kidney see renal...
KUB see radiography
Kumpe access catheter 189, 247, 280

laboratory tests
children 72–3

generic causes of stones 58
hyperparathyroidism (primary) 85
renal tubular acidosis 98
see also chemistry Lahme miniature nephroscope 15/18Fr 275 laparoscopic surgery 296–309 combined endoscopic and 317 large upper urinary stones choice of treatment 142–3 ureteropyeloscopic lithotripsy 257–9

laser lithotripsy 236–8, 256
bladder stones 167–9
renal stones 142, 143, 283
ureteral stones 236–8, 256
children 180

laxative abuse 115

lifestyle interventions dietary see dietary management

uric acid stones 30
lipopolysaccharide, endotoxic 51 lithium, parathyroid dysfunction with 84

lithotripsy 137, 142, 143
complications (of various methods) see complications composition of stones and 143–5 laser see laser lithotripsy location of stones and 143 percutaneous intrarenal 282–3 shock wave see shock wave lithotripsy Index

size of stones and 142
ureteroureteroscopically see ureteroureteroscopy; ureteroscopy
uric acid stones 32
liver injury in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 291
location
renal calculi
ESWL in children and, as predictor of success 199
treatment decisions based on 143
ureteral calculi, ureteropyeloscopic lithotripsy and 257
lower urinary stones
endoscopic management 166–75 surgical management 306 Lowe's (oculocerebral) syndrome 64, 65 lung injury, ESWL-induced 197
magnesium 22–3
urine, measurement 22–3
magnesium ammonium phosphate stones see struvite stones magnetic resonance imaging (MRI) 153
renal colic 124
malignancy (cancer)
hypercalcemia of 83
prostate 172, 200
management (incl. treatment) 8–9 indication for conservative vs surgical methods 135–46 multimodal 311–25
pharmacological see pharmacological agents surgical see surgical management uric acid stones see uric acid stones mechanical clearance
bladder stones 281–2
percutaneous nephrolithotomy 281
medical expulsive therapy (MET) 75–6, 127–8
children 75–6, 208
renal colic 127–9
ureteral calculi 127–8, 137
medications see pharmacological agents medullary sponge kidney 97, 183 metabolic evaluation 13–25
children 73
struvite stone formers 52
uric stone formers 29–30 metabolic risk factors in children 71 metabolically-induced kidney
stones 113–15
metallic serial telescopic dilators 272 metallic ureteral stent, stones associated with 172–3 microbiology, struvite stones 49–50 microscopy (urinary), crystals 59–60
children 72–3
migrant urethral calculi 173 mini-perc technique (and Mini-PERC™) 181, 190, 192
miniscope 285
transplant and true pelvic kidneys 290–91 movable core wire guide 274 movers (stone) 249
multimodal therapy 311–25 needles (access) in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 266, 270–1, 280
Nelaton catheter 275
nelfinavir 110
neoplasms see tumors nephrectomy 310
struvite stones 53
nephrocalcinosis, renal tubular acidosis and 98, 99
distal 96, 97, 98, 99, 102, 103
proximal 102
nephrolithiasis see renal stones nephrolithotomy, anatrophic 296, 298–301
nephrolithotomy, percutaneous (PCNL) 181–92, 264–95
access 264–70, 279–81
needles 266, 270–1, 280 patient positioning 265 preoperative planning 264–5 anatomical considerations 287–90 antegrade, combined with retrograde ureteroscopy 318–22
antimicrobial prophylaxis before 279
children 181–92
technique 182–92
clearance of stones 281–5 complications 291–2, 326, 330–3
contraindications 278, 330
ESWL combined with 314–17
exit strategy 285–7
follow-up 282
nephrolithotomy, percutaneous (cont’d)
indications 278
instruments 270–5
size of stones and 143
staghorn calculi 316
struvite stones 53
synchronous stones, and contralateral ureteroscopy 321 tubeless 286, 286–7 nephrologist (kidney stone clinic) 4–5 Nephromax™ 190
nephroscopes 275
pediatric 285
nephrostogram after percutaneous
nephrolithotomy 293
nephrostomy, percutaneous (PCN) 157–65
choice of retrograde ureteral stent vs 158–61
technical aspects 161–3 tubes 275, 286
neuromuscular disease of primary hyperparathyroidism 87
neutral phosphate administration with
calcium stones 42
nifedipine, renal colic 126, 128
Nitinol baskets 180, 238, 275
Nitinol Tipless Stone Extractor 281 Nitinol wires
extractors 249
guidewires 247, 248, 249, 254, 273–4 nitrates in medical expulsive therapy 128 nomogram in pediatric ESWL in prediction of success 200 non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs,
renal colic 125–6

OCLRI mutations 64, 65
oculocerebral (Lowe’s) syndrome 64, 65 ondansetron, children 75 one-step dilators 272 open surgery 296–309
staghorn calculi 316
orthophosphate, primary hyperoxaluria 63
oxalate
dietary 19, 77
restriction in children 77 restriction in primary
hyperoxaluria 64
urine, measurement 19
see also hyperoxaluria pain management pharmacological see analgesics
renal colic 124–7
parathyroid hormone (PTH) levels 81, 83 excess see hyperparathyroidism
measurement 73, 83, 85, 86
parathyroidectomy 82, 87, 88, 89, 90 pathogens and struvite stones 48, 49, 50 patient information 6 positioning see positioning peak pressure in ESWL 222–3 pediatric stones see children pelvic kidneys, true 290 D-penicillamine, cystinuria and cystine
stones 58, 61, 284
children 78
Perc N Circle® Nitinol Tipless Stone Extractor 281
percutaneous techniques see nephrolithotomy; nephrostomy; puncture personnel in kidney stone clinic 4–6 pH, urine
measurement 21
uric acid stones and 27
see also acid-base physiology pharmacological agents (drugs/medications)
adrenaline phosphoribosyltransferase deficiency 67
calcium stones 42, 43
cystinuria 61
Dent’s disease 65
expulsive therapy with see medical expulsive therapy
hyperoxaluria (primary) 63–4
hyperparathyroidism (primary) 89
pediatric stones 75–6, 77–8
preventive use 9–10
struvite stones 52
uric acid stones 30–1
see also specific (types of) drugs phosphate (phosphorus) 22 neutral, administration with calcium
stones 42
urine, measurement 22
see also calcium phosphate; calcium phosphate stones; orthophosphate piezoelectric shock wave
generators 221, 222
plain films see radiography plastic serial dilators 272 pleural injury in percutaneous
nephrolithotomy 292, 331–2 pneumatic lithotripsy of renal
stones 283
pneumothorax in percutaneous
nephrolithotomy 292
positioning
for combined antegrade and retrograde endoscopy 319–20
for percutaneous
nephrolithotomy 265, 266, 279
for ureteroscopy, child 183
potassium 22
urine, measurement 22
see also hyperkalemic renal tubular acidosis; hypokalemic renal tubular acidosis potassium citrate use see citrate salts power in ESWL 223
pressure
in ESWL 217, 218
peak 222–3
irrigation, in ureteroscopic
lithotripsy 233
prevention/prophylaxis of renal stones
children 76
clinic 3–12
preoperative 279
prone positioning
for combined antegrade and
retrograde endoscopy 319–20
for percutaneous
nephrolithotomy 265, 279
for ureteroscopy, child 183
prophylaxis see prevention prostaglandin inhibitors (NSAIDs), renal colic 125–6
prostate benign hyperplasia (BPH) 169–70, 172, 173
calculi 171–2
cancer 172, 200
prostatic urethral calculi 171–3 protease inhibitors 108–10 protein, dietary intake 9, 18, 20, 61
cystinuria and 61
pediatric kidney stones and 77
sulfate and 23
uric acid stones and 30 Proteus mirabilis 24, 49, 71, 98, 285 protons and renal tubular acidosis 93–4 proximal renal tubular acidosis 95–6, 98, 99, 102
pseudoephedrine 112
puncture, percutaneous
nephrolithotomy 266, 267–8 needle 266, 270–1
ureteroscopy 185, 189
complications 189
pyelography, intravenous see intravenous urography/pyelography pyelolithotomy, laparoscopic 296, 298, 299 pyelonephritis 48, 50
xanthogranulomatous 48, 52, 304
pyeloplasty
laparoscopic pyelolithotomy with 298
laparoscopic and robotic 317 pyridoxine, primary hyperoxaluria 63–4
quinolones 111
radiation
for prostate cancer, prostatic urethral calculi following 172 safety considerations in ureteroscopic
lithotripsy 229–30
radiography (conventional/abdominal plain films/kidney–ureter–bladder/KUB) 149
children 75
genetic causes of stones 58 nephrocalcinosis 102
perioperative 149
renal colic 124
uric acid stones 29
radiology (imaging) 7, 148–56
children 73–5
drug-induced stones 115
hyperparathyroidism (primary) 85–7
in percutaneous nephrolithotomy for access guidance 265–8, 280 for preoperative planning 265
perioperative 148–56
renal colic 123–4, 149–50
uric acid stones 29
see also specific modalities radiolucent renal calculi in children, ESWL 207–208 ramping in ESWL 224
renal access see nephrolithotomy:
retrograde endoscopic approach/access renal colic see colic renal disease see colic renal disease chronic with genetic causes of stones 59
in primary hyperparathyroidism 82
renal colic due to 123
renal function with in ESWL, postprocedural 196–7 with struvite stones 51–2 renal hematoma risk in ESWL 328 renal pelvis contrast imaging see intravenous urography/pyelography culture 54
infection see pyelonephritis staghorn calculi see staghorn calculi see also pyelolithotomy; pyeloplasty;
ureteropyeloscopy
renal radiography see radiography renal stones (general references only) and nephrolithiasis asymptomatic 139–41
children, ESWL 195–208
laparoscopic or open surgery 208, 296, 297–304 management/treatment principles 139–45 algorithm 144
percutaneous techniques see nephrolithotomy prevention clinic 3–12
in primary hyperparathyroidism 82
management 90
ureteropyeloscopic lithotripsy 257
see also upper urinary stones renal transplantation see transplantation renal tubules acidosis (RTA) 93–105
and calcium stones 37, 39 distal 93, 95, 96, 96–8, 98, 99, 101, 102, 103, 104
proximal 95–6, 98, 99, 102
Dent’s disease as disorder of 64, 103
ReTrace 232

retrograde endoscopic approach/access (to ureter and kidney) 251–6 combined antegrade and 318–22
large stones 257, 258
in staged ureteropyeloscopic lithotripsy and intrarenal irrigation 259–61 retrograde ureteral stent see stents retropulsion devices in ureteral lithotripsy, prevention 238 ritonavir 110
Roadrunner® PC guide 274
robotic surgery 301, 307 safety considerations
ESWL 327
in ureteroscopic lithotripsy, radiation exposure 229–30 see also complications saline irrigation
in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 281
extravasation of irrigant 332–3 in uretero(pyelo)scopic lithotripsy 233, 246–7, 259–61 sculpting, stone 250 semi-rigid ureteroscope 223–4, 244–5
children 178, 180
sepsis see infection serotonin (5-HT3) antagonists, children 75 serum chemistry 14
shear forces in ESWL 218
sheaths, ureteral access see ureter shock wave lithotripsy (SWL) extracorporeal see extracorporeal shock wave lithotripsy intracorporeal, struvite stones 53 silica-containing drugs 111 single-step dilators 272 size of calculi
ESWL in children and, as predictor of success 198–9
renal stones
sonography and 150
treatment decisions based on 142–3 ureteral stones, indications for ureteroscopy 227–8 ureteropyeloscopic lithotripsy for large stones 257–9 SLC7A9 and SLC3A1 mutations 60 small upper urinary stones, choice of treatment 142 sodium 22
dietary intake 18, 22
urine, measurement 22
sodium bicarbonate
renal tubular acidosis 101, 103
uric acid stones 31
solute carrier family (SLC7A9 and SLC3A1) mutations 60 sonography see ultrasound spallation in ESWL 218
spinal cord injury 170
struvite stones and 48–9
splenic injury in percutaneous nephrolithotomy 291 staged ureteropyeloscopic lithotripsy and retrograde intrarenal irrigation 259–61 staghorn calculi 314–17
ESWL with in children 206–7
percutaneous nephrolithotomy and 314–17
ureteropyeloscopy with 258 steinstrasse following ESWL 138, 139, 312, 328–9 stents, ureteral 247–8 colic 126–7
double-J see double-J ureteral stent ESWL combined with 312–14
“forgotten” 171
metal, stones associated with 172–3 post-ureteroscopy 239
pre-ESWL 198
pre-ureteroscopy 318
retrograde 157, 158
choice of percutaneous nephrostomy vs 158–61
technical aspects 163–4 steroids in medical expulsive therapy 128 strictures infundibular see infundibulum ureterorenoscopy-associated 337 struvite (magnesium ammonium phosphate) stones 48–56, 71, 285
management 52–4
chemolysis 53, 285
preventive 10
Suby’s solution, struvite stones 53 sulfate, urinary, measurement 23 sulfonamides (inc. sulfamethoxazole/sulfadiazine/sulfasalazine) 107, 111 supersaturation/SS (salts) 6–7, 24 calcium phosphate, pH effects 21
calcium stones and 37, 39
cystine, reducing 61
uric acid, pH effects 21
supine position for combined antegrade and retrograde endoscopy 320
for percutaneous nephrolithotomy 265 surgical management (general references excluding parts 2/chapters 12-25)
hyperparathyroidism (primary) 88
struvite stones 53–4
uric acid stones 31–2
surveillance (active) of asymptomatic renal calculi 140–1 tamponade balloon, Kaye 275, 331 tamsulosin
children 76, 211
medical expulsive therapy 128, 211
renal colic 126
tear forces in ESWL 218
tenofovir 110
thiazide diuretics
calcium stones 42
prevention 10
children 77
Dent’s disease 65
parathyroid dysfunction with by 84 thiol drugs, cystinuria 61 three-part bevel tip for access to percutaneous nephrolithotomy 270–1 tiopronin 61
children 78
TLA introducer needle 271
topiramate 113
transplantation (renal) 290 hyperparathyroidism following 85 percutaneous nephrolithotomy in transplanted kidneys 285, 290 in primary hyperoxaluria 64 ureteroscopy before 317–18 trauma see injury treatment see management triameprine 108
triangulation technique (fluoroscopy-guided access for percutaneous nephrolithotomy) 268 triflange grasper 275 tumors ectopic parathyroid hormone-secreting 84 malignant see malignancy
two-guidewire technique for obstructing distal ureteral calculus 252
two-part bevel tip for access to percutaneous nephrolithotomy 271 two-part trocar tip for access to percutaneous nephrolithotomy 271 ultrasound imaging (sonography)
  children 75
  in percutaneous nephrolithotomy for access guidance 265–6
  uric acid stones 29
ultrasound lithotripsy
  renal stones 282–3
  ureteral stones 236
  children 190
Ultraxx™ 190
ungated ESWL 197–8
ureter(s) access sheaths 231–3, 250–1, 269–70
  children 177
  avulsion in ureterorenoscopy 335
  radiography see radiography retrograde access see retrograde endoscopic approach/access stents see stents tight distal, passing flexible ureteroscope through 252 toruous proximal, access through 254 straightening 248
ureteral stones (and consequent obstruction) 136–9, 176–95, 227–63, 304–6 impact 248, 252
management 136–9, 176–95, 227–63, 304–6
children 176–95, 206, 208–12
distal stones 138–9, 210, 211, 228, 252, 257
emergency urinary drainage 157 expectant 136–7
indications for treatment 136
laparoscopic or open surgery 296–7, 304–6, 307, 308
medical expulsive therapy 127–8, 137 mid-third stones 210, 211, 257 proximal stones 138, 209, 210, 211, 257
renal colic due to 122, 228
see also upper urinary stones ureterolithotomy 139, 296–7, 305–6, 307 ureteropelvic junction obstruction laparoscopic and robotic pyeloplasty 317 percutaneous nephrolithotomy in 287
ureteropyeloscopy/
  ureterorenoscopy 243–63, 333–7
  complications see complications
  large stones 257–9
  location of stones and 257
  and retrograde intrarenal irrigation, staged 259–61 ureteroscopy/URS (for lithotripsy) 176–81, 227–63 antegrade 139
children 176–81
equipment 178–9
ESWL vs 176, 209
limitations and complications 181
technique 179–80
complications see complications
contralateral, synchronous unilateral percutaneous nephrolithotomy
and 321
distal stones 138–9
equipment and its choice 233–6, 244–51
children 178–9
fragmentation and removal of
stones 236–9, 249–51
gaining access for 230–3 see also ureters, access sheaths general principles 229, 243–4
indications 227–9
proximal stones 138
setting up for 229–30
size of stones and 142, 143, 227–8
struvite stones 53
technique 251–61
children 179–80
in transplant candidates (before transplantation) 317–18 ureteral stenting before 318 urethral calculi 171–4 anterior 173–4 migrant 173
pediatric 76
prostatic 171–3
urethral reconstruction 173–4 uric acid supersaturation, pH effects 21
urine
drugs promoting excretion in (uricosurics) 115
measurement 20
see also hyperuricosuria
uric acid stones 26–35
diagnosis/investigations 29 CT 29, 152
epidemiology 27
management 29–32
chemolysis 32, 284
pharmacological prevention 10
pathogenesis 27–8
uricosurics 115
urinary diversion calculi 170–1
urine
24-hour collections 6–7, 8 chemistry interpretation 13–25 number required 15
acidification tests 98
alkalinization see alkalinization emergency drainage 157–65 microscopy see microscopy random untimed specimen 15 volume see volume
urography intravenous, uric acid stones 29 magnetic resonance, renal colic 124 Urolift® 173
urologist (kidney stone clinic) 4, 5 vesicolithiasis (childhood) 206 vitamin B6 (pyridoxine), primary
hyperoxaluria 63–4
vitamin C and hyperoxaluria 19, 114–15
vitamin D supplements 114 voltage in ESWL 223
volume (urine) calcium stone formation and 41
measurement 16–18
uric acid stone formation and 28
X-linked hereditary nephrolithiasis
(Dent’s disease) 64–5, 103–4 X-ray films see radiograph xanthine oxidase/dehydrogenase inhibitors (XDHs)
in adenine phosphoribosyltransferase deficiency 67
uric acid stones 31
xanthogranulomatous
pyelonephritis 48, 52, 304
yeasts and struvite stones 49 zonisamide 113