9/11 conspiracy theories, 75
ability tests, 17, 147–8, 156–8, 179–81 abnormal behavior, and creativity, 323–8 abnormality, 7–8
and creativity, 308, 323–8
defining, 111–13
see also psychopathology abstract intelligence, 244, 247
academic achievement
and intelligence, 179–81
and personality, 80–3
Thurstone’s seven primary abilities, 159–60 acquired needs theory, McClelland, 291–2 Adams’s equity theory, 292–3
adaptation and intelligence, 9, 10
addictive behaviors, 225–6
adoption studies
intelligence, 167–8, 191, 208, 211–12, 217–18
IQ–social status link, 192
personality, 223, 226
schizophrenia, 129
affective disorders, 130–3 Agreeableness, 55, 56, 58
and behavioral CQ, 161
behavioral genetics, 223, 235, 236
and health, 87
and intrinsic religiosity, 74
leadership, 349, 350, 352, 353, 362, 363
love dimensions, 77
and prosocial behavior, 72, 73
psychopathology, 88, 122
subjective wellbeing, 90
and work, 85, 288
alcohol use, 51–2, 220, 225–6
alien life, belief in, 74–5
alleles, 224
Alternate Uses Test, 330–1
altruism
altruistic motivation, 273–7 empathy–altruism hypothesis, 274–7 animal behavior, evolutionary psychology, 234–7, 278 anorexia, 137, 138
anti-social personality disorder, 136
antisocial behavior, 73, 226, 229
antisocial sensation seeking, 226 anxiety disorders, 133–6 arousability, Eysenck’s personality theory, 39, 45–7, 49, 79–80, 223 arousal-state-trait relationship, 280–1 arousal theories, motivation, 281–3 artists’ creativity, 313
and intelligence, 20, 319
and personality, 329
versus scientists, 333
artists’ psychopathology, 19, 324, 325
assortative mating, 213–14
attachment theory, 135–6
attributional/implicit theories of leadership, 347
autism, 246, 249
average, measures of, 67 behavioral activation system (BAS)/behavioral inhibition system (BIS) personality theory. Gray, 48–50
behavioral genetics, 13, 104, 205–38
DNA, 208–11
early foundations, 207–8 educational implications, 228–9 environment, importance of, 214–16
evolutionary psychology, 234–7
Flynn effect, 229–34
intelligence and assortative mating, 213–14
intelligence, heritability of, 211–13
maladaptive behaviors, 225–6
personality and intelligence, 227–8
personality traits, 221–5
behavioral paradigm, 308
behavioral therapy, 118
behaviorism, 117–18
and personality theory, 97, 99–100
bell curve, 155–6, 177, 189–90
beta (β) coefficient, 69
Big Five personality traits, 53–8, 62, 141, 233, 354
and creativity, 328–30
heritability estimates, 223–4
and Holland’s RIASEC types, 385–6
and job performance, 85
and leadership, 349–54, 362
and personality disorders, 140–1
as predictors of work-related motivation, 292
psychopathology, 88
and social behavior, 73–5
see also Agreeableness; Conscientiousness; Extraversion; Neuroticism; Openness to Experience Binet, Alfred, origins of IQ testing, 153–6
biological approaches
personality, 45–7, 103–4
psychopathology, 120–1
see also behavioral genetics
biological paradigm, 308
biometric information, 45
biopsychological, meaning of term, 46 biopsychosocial approach, 122–3 Bowlby’s attachment theory, 135–6 brain activity, measurement of, 201–3 brain arousal, 39, 46–7, 49, 51, 228, 282, 308 brain neurotransmitters, 120–1, 129, 135, 209, 224–5, 226 brain size and intelligence, 168, 195, 196, 197, 199, 219 brainstorming, 309
career choices, 372, 373, 377–9, 386–7
case studies, 63, 64–5
catharsis, 116
Cattell, James McKeen, mental test, 152–3
Cattell, Raymond, 54
16PF and lexical hypothesis, 50–3
creativity, 315–16
fluid and crystallized intelligence, 164–6, 218
causation
and correlation, 68
structural equation modeling (SEM), 69–72
celebrity politicians, 359–60
central tendency, 67
charismatic leadership, 356–8 choleric type, 30, 31, 32, 33, 297 chromosomes, 210
circumscription and compromise theory, 386–7
class see socioeconomic status (SES) classification, 5–6, 8
personality types, 29–34
psychological disorders, 124–6 clinical paradigm, 308
co-operation, evolutionary advantages, 235 cognitive ability see intelligence cognitive-behavioral therapy (CBT), anxiety, 136 cognitive paradigm, 308–9 cognitive psychology, 99
cognitive therapy (CT), 119, 129, 130–1, 132
comorbidity, 139
competition and intelligence, 8–10
concordance rate, 129
Conscientiousness, 39, 45
academic performance, 80–1, 82–3, 179
clerical/conventional trait complex, 388 correlate of job performance, 84 evolutionary advantage, 121–2
heritability estimates, 223
leadership, 349–53, 362–3
link to commitment, 77
and metacognitive CQ, 161
one of the Big Five, 53, 55–6
and social behavior, 73, 74, 75
trait complex, 388
consistent patterns of behavior, 16–17
conspiracies, beliefs in, 74–5 contingency model, leadership, 340, 341 convergent thinking, 309
effects of personality and threat of evaluation on, 310–11
core affect, 299
correlation, 36
and causation, 68
statistical tests, 65–7
cortical/brain arousal, 39, 46–7, 49, 51, 228, 282, 308
creativity, 18–20, 303–35
from arts to sciences, 333
definitions and conceptualizations, 305–7 differential approaches to, 312–13
and intelligence, 314–21
and personality, 322–30
psychological paradigms, 308–11
testing, 330–3

crystallized intelligence (gc), 164–5, 218, 228, 231, 320

cultural approaches, 105–6

cultural intelligence (CQ), 160–3

Dark Triad/dark traits, 90–3 Darwin, Charles, 150, 151, 234, 342, 343
data reduction technique, factor analysis, 41–3, 156–7 defense mechanisms, 279–80 dependence on leaders, 357, 361–2 depression, 88, 119–20, 130–3 developmental psychology
attachment theory, 135–6
cognitive ability, Piaget, 168–70
vocational interests, 372
diagnosis
classification of disorders, 124–6
criticism of diagnostic approach, 138–9

Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM), 124–5
diathesis-stress model, 123
differential psychology, 3–5 goals and applications, 6
dimensional view of psychopathology, 139–42 discrimination, 11, 74
dispositional approaches, 26
developments outside, 83–106
mood states, 297–8
stability of interests, 374–6
vs. situational approaches, 34–8 distress, 111–12
divergent thinking, 309, 315
effects of personality and threat of evaluation on, 310–11
tests, 330–2
see also creativity

DNA, 208–11
dopamine, 47, 104, 120–1, 224–5, 226
drive theories, 278–9
drug use, 51–2, 225–6
eating disorders, 137–8
ectomorphs, 33
educational implications of behavior-genetics findings, 228–9 educational paradigm, 309
educational performance and intelligence, 179–81
and personality, 80–3
effective/emergent leadership traits, 350–3 egoistic motivation, 273–4, 275, 276 electroconvulsive therapy (ECT), 130 electroencephalography (EEG), 47, 202, 282 emotion regulation, 47, 104, 264, 299
emotional intelligence (EQ), 255–8 debate surrounding, 258–60
origins and measurement problems, 260–1 trait EQ, self-efficacy, 261–4
emotional self-efficacy, 261–4 Emotional Stability, 32, 40, 54, 57
and behavioral CQ, 161, 163
and happiness, 89
and job performance, 85
and leadership, 350, 351, 362
link to forgiveness, 72 emotionally-oriented leaders, 340 empathy, 72, 236, 257, 299, 362
and altruism, 273–7
lack of, “dark traits”, 91, 92, 93, 354
empowerment
charismatic leaders, 356, 357
transformational leaders, 361–2 endomorphs, 32
energy mobilization, 282
environment-gene interaction, 214–16, 227–8
equity theory, Adams, 292–3 ERG theory of motivation, 286–7
eugenics, 193
event-related potentials (ERPs), 201, 202
evolutionary approach, 234–7
instincts, 278
personality, 57, 105–6
phobias and anxiety disorders, 134–5
psychopathology, 121–2
existence, relatedness, and growth (ERG) theory, Alderfer, 286–7 existential approaches, 101–2, 372
expectancy theories, 283
experimental designs, 65 expressed emotion, 130
extraterrestrials, belief in, 74–5 Extraversion, 31, 32, 33, 37
and academic performance, 81–2
biological basis, 45–7
creativity link, 310–11, 329, 330
cultural intelligence, 161
Eysenck’s Gigantic Three, 39, 40, 42, 44
Five Factor Model, 53, 55–6, 57
happiness, 89
heritability, 222, 223
job performance, 84–5, 292
and leadership, 349–53, 362–3
link to RIASEC types, 385–6
and love styles, 79
maladaptive behaviors, 226
and positive mood, 297
prosocial behavior, 72
psychopathology link, 88, 140–2
Psychoticism link, 49
social intelligence, 250
trait complex theory, 388
extrinsic motivation, 288, 289
goal-setting theories, 284
noncreative individuals, 323
two-process theories, 292–3 Eysenck, Hans, Gigantic Three, 38–41 factor analysis, 41–3, 56, 156–7, 158
Fiedler, F.E., contingency model, 340
Five Factor Model see Big Five personality traits fluency, 19–20, 325, 329
fluid intelligence (gf), 164–5, 218, 228, 231, 316, 320
Flynn effect, 229–34
forgiveness, 72–3
Foucault, Michel, on mental illness, 138
Freud, Sigmund, 98
leadership theory, 342–4
motivation, 279–80
psychoanalysis, 94–7, 116–17
g (general intelligence factor), 156–8 “lower” correlates of, 200–3
vs. multiple abilities, 170–3
Gage, Phineas, 116
Galen, personality theory, 29–31
Galton, Francis, 150–2, 207
Game Theory, 235
gender differences
dark traits, 92–3
eating disorders, 137
intelligence, 195, 198–200, 203–4
leadership styles, 364–6, 367
phobias, 134
Psychoticism, 226
trait emotional intelligence, 255–7
vocational interests, 376–80
gene-environment interaction, 12–15, 214–16 age-related changes in heritability, 219–20
personality and intelligence, 227–8
 genetic factors, 206–38
affective disorders, 132
intelligence, 167–8, 194–5, 196–7
maladaptive behaviors, 225–6
personality, 45–7
schizophrenia, 129
see also heritability
genome, 209
genotype, 209
George Washington Social Intelligence Test
(GWSIT), 250
giftedness, three-ring theory, 321 Gigantic Three Theory, Eysenck, 38–41, 42, 44, 55–6, 222
goal-setting theories, 284
Gottfredson, vocational theory, 386–7
Gray, Jeffrey, personality theory, 38–50 “Great Man” theory of leadership, 344–6
group psychology, Freud on leadership, 342–4
happiness, 89–90, 296
health
and intelligence, 185–8
and personality, 86–8 hereditarian hypothesis, IQ, 196–7 hereditary genius, Galton, 150–2
heritability, 12–15
biopsychosocial model, 122–3
evolutionary approaches, 121–2
intelligence, 166–8, 211–13
see also behavioral genetics
heritability estimates (HEs), 208, 213, 223, 226, 229
decomposing, 200–3
definition, 9
genetic vs. environmental causes, 166–8 health outcomes, 185–8
and leadership, 345
occupational outcomes, 182–5
and social class, 189–92
see also emotional intelligence (EQ)
intelligence, heritability of, 211–13
intelligence quotient (IQ) increase over time, Flynn effect, 229–34 race differences, 193–5, 196–7 sex differences, 195, 198–200 intelligence testing, 150–64 Cattell’s mental test, 152–3
cultural intelligence (CQ), 160–3 Galton’s hereditary genius, 150–2 origins of, 153–6
overview, 163–4
physiological measures, 168
Spearman’s g factor, 156–8
Thurstone’s “primary” abilities, 158–60
Wechsler Adult Intelligence Scale (WAIS), 176–9
intelligence theory, 10–11 interests, 21–2
stability of over the lifespan, 374–6
International Classification of Diseases, Injuries, and Causes of Death (ICD), 124, 126 Internet as source of research subjects, 44 interpersonal relationships, 75–9 interpersonally-oriented leadership style, 355 intrinsic motivation, 284, 285, 288
creative individuals, 323
and job satisfaction, 289–90
introspection, 64
Introversion, 32, 40, 55
biological basis, 45–7, 281
heritability of, 222
see also Extraversion
investment theory, 316
IQ testing, origins of, 153–6
irrational beliefs, 119–20
job analysis, 183
job interviews, employer assessment, 242
heroes and psychopathy, 92
Herzberg’s two-factor theory, 287–8
hierarchical model of abilities, 160 Hippocrates
personality theory, 29–31
and psychopathology, 113–14
Holland, John, interest types, 380–4, 389–90 Prediger’s reclassification of, 384–5 relationship with Big Five, 385–6 hot intelligence, 240–1 debate around EQ, 258–60
early problems, 249–53
emotional intelligence (EQ), 255–8
emotional self-efficacy, 261–4
origins and measurement problems of EQ, 260–1 practical intelligence, 265–6
recent approaches, 253–4
social intelligence, Thorndike, 243–8 streetwise vs. book smart, 241–3 theoretical importance of social intelligence, 248–9 humanistic personality theories, 101–2 humanistic psychology, 286–7, 324 humors, 29, 30–1
hygiene factor, 287–8, 290
hypnosis, 116
identification, 343, 344, 356–7
social identification, 357–8 idiographic paradigm, 25–6
implicit theories
of intelligence, 265
of leadership, 347
of personality, 24–5
impulsivity, 264
individual differences, 2–22
inequity, consequences of, 292–3 insomnia and creativity, 326–8 inspection time, 201
instincts, 278
psychodynamic approaches, 279, 342
intelligence
and assortative mating, 213–14
competition and adaptation, 9–10 concepts and definitions, 148–50
job analysis, 183
job interviews, employer assessment, 242
job analysis, 183
job interviews, employer assessment, 242
job performance
  and intelligence, 182–5
  and intrinsic motivation, 290
  and personality, 83–6
  and trait emotional intelligence, 263–4
job satisfaction
  and Conscientiousness, 84, 290
  Herzberg’s two-factor theory, 287–8 motivating factors, 289, 290
  person-environment fit, 380
  and personality, 290, 350
  trait emotional intelligence, 263
job status, 288
Jung, Carl, personality types, 33
laissez-faire leadership style, 357, 365
lateralization, 198
Lavater, Johann Kaspar, temperament types, 30
leadership, 20–1, 338–9
  as a perceived construct, 347
  contingency/situational approach, 340–2
  dark traits, 91–2
  Freud’s group psychology, 342–4
  and gender, 364–6
  Great Man theory, 344–6
  and intelligence, 345
  trait approaches, 344–6, 347–54
leadership styles, 355–6
  charismatic, 356–8
  transactional, 362–4
  transformational, 358–62
learned associations, 280–1 learned helplessness/hopelessness, 131 lexical hypothesis, 50, 53 Likert scales, 39, 43–4 linear regression analysis, 68–9
“Little Albert” study, Watson, 99
Locke’s leadership traits, 348–9
Locus of Control, 131
longevity and intelligence, 185–8
longitudinal data, 13
love, 77–8
love styles, 79
Machiavellianism, 91, 92, 93
maladaptive behaviors
  at both ends of Bell curve, 121–2 genetic basis of, 223–6
maladaptiveness, 112, 113
mania, 132
marriage, 76
Maslow’s hierarchy of needs, 284–6
McClelland’s acquired needs theory, 291–2 mean, 67
mechanical intelligence, 244, 245, 247
mediation, 70, 72, 298
melancholic type, 30, 31, 32, 33
mental illness approach, 112–13
mental tests, 152–3, 158
  see also intelligence testing mentors, leaders as, 358–62
Mesmer, Franz Anton, mesmerism, 116
mesomorphs, 32–3
meta-analysis, 36
Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI-2), 88
moderation, 70–1, 298
molecular genetics, 224
money and work-related motivation, 289–90 mood/mood states, 16–18, 270, 293–4, 300
  and behavior, 271–2
  dispositional influences, 297–8
  integrative framework, 298–9
  recent approaches, 298–9
  situational determinants, 296–7 structure of mood, 295–6
moral treatment, 115
motivation, 16–18, 272–3
  Adams’s equity theory, 290, 292–3
  Alderfer’s ERG theory, 286–7
  altruistic, 273–7
  arousal theories, 281–3
  drive theories, 278–9
  expectancy theories, 283
  goal-setting theories, 284
  Herzberg’s two-factor theory, 287–8
  intrinsic, 289–90
  as learned associations, 280–1
  Maslow’s hierarchy of needs, 284–6
  McClelland, acquired needs theory, 291–2
  psychodynamic approaches, 279–80
  reflexes, 277–8
multiple abilities, 170–3
multiple factor analysis, 158
multiple intelligences, Gardner, 241, 244, 260, multivariate genetic analysis, 219
Myers–Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI), 33

narcissism, 91–3
natural selection, 234–5
nature vs. nurture debate, 12–15

see also gene-environment interaction needs see motivation
negative affect, 295, 296
negative attributional style, 131 negative symptoms, schizophrenia, 127 neural efficiency/speed, measurement of, 201
neuropsychology, 47
Neuroticism, 32, 33

a Big Five personality trait, 53–8 behavioral inhibition system (BIS), 280
biological basis, 45–7
and divergent thinking, 311
and exam performance, 81, 82
Eysenck’s Gigantic Three, 39–40, 42, 44
Gray’s theory, 49
heritability of, 222
and job performance, 85
leadership, 351–2, 363
link to social behavior, 73
and love styles, 79
and mood variability, 297–8
personality disorders, 140–1
psychopathology link, 88
and romantic relations, 76
work variables, 350
neurotransmitters, 120–1, 129, 135, 209, 224–5, 226 Nietzsche, self-preservation instinct, 279 nomothetic paradigm, 25, 102
normal behavior and creativity, 328–30 normal distribution, 40–1, 121–2, 155–6, 177, 189–90 normality, 7–8
novel abilities/intelligences, 15–16
nucleotides, 208–9
nutrition and IQ gains, 231–3, 234

oblique rotation, 50
observational learning, 100
observational research method, 64
obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD), 134

occupational choice see vocational interests occupational performance see job performance Openness to Experience, 55, 56
academic performance, 81, 82
cultural intelligence, 161
heritability, 223
and leadership, 350, 352, 362, 363
link to creativity, 310–11, 328–9, 330
link to RIASEC types, 385–6
and political attitudes, 73–4 predicting academic performance, 82
trait complex theory, 388
optimism, 132–3, 257
originality, 19, 19–20, 305–6, 325–6, 329
overinclusive thinking, 324 paranormal beliefs, 74–5
partner selection and personality, 78–9 Pearson correlation, 65–6
performance
and personality, 79–86
see also educational performance; job performance person approach to creativity, 312 person-environment (P-E) fit, 380 personal distress, 111–12
personality, 3–6, 24–5
behavior-genetic movement, 104
biological approaches, 103–4
biological basis of, 45–7 and cultural intelligence, 160–3 dispositional and situational approaches, 26–7, 34–8 evolutionary and cultural approaches, 105–6 Gray’s theory, 48–50
history of, 29–34
and intelligence, 227–8
and leadership style, 366–7 nomothetic and idiographic paradigms, 25–6 nondispositional approaches, 93–106 questionnaire, 37
social-cognitive theories, 102–3
and subjective wellbeing, 89–90
personality disorders
anti-social PD, 136
Axis II of DSM-IV, 124–5, 135, 139–40
and the Big Five, 140–1
definition, 139
dimensional view of, 139–42
high-level business executives, 353–4 link to neurotransmitters, 120–1
obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD), 134
stability of, 141–2
personality traits, 5–7, 27–8
genetic causes of, 221–5 Gigantic Three, Eysenck, 38–41
vs. states, 34–8
phenomenological approaches, 101–2 phenotype, 207, 209
changes in heritability over lifespan, 219–20
phlegmatic type, 30, 31, 32, 33, 297
phobias, 134–5
phrenology, 31, 32
physiological arousal, 68, 281–3
Piaget, Jean, cognitive development, 168–70
Pinel, Philippe, moral treatment, 115
Plato, on mental disorders, 114 political attitudes, 73, 74
political leadership, 338 politics, celebrity, 359–60 popular culture, 359–60 positive affect, 295, 296
positive psychology, 89–90 positive symptoms, schizophrenia, 128
post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 136
practical intelligence, 265–6 Prediger’s three-factor model, 384–5 prejudice, 8, 11, 74
presidential leadership, 346
press approach to creativity, 312–13 Prisoner’s Dilemma, 235–6 process approach to creativity, 312 product approach to creativity, 312 Progressive Matrices, 232
projective tests, 291
prosocial behavior, 72–3, 273, 277
see also altruism; empathy psychanalysis, 116–17
and personality theory, 94–7
psychodynamic theories, 116–17
motivation, 279–80
vocational interests, 372
psychogenic origin, 86
psychometric paradigm, 310
psychometric tests/testing, 36–8, 39, 43, 331
psychometrics, defined, 36
psychopathology, 110–43
biopsychosocial model, 122–3
criticisms of diagnostic approach, 138–9 defining abnormality, 111–13
diagnosis of disorders, 124–6 dimensional view, 139–42
historical roots of, 113–15
major psychological disorders, 126–38
modern approaches, 115–22
psychopathy, 76, 78
Dark Triad trait, 91–3
evolutionary advantages, 92, 122
incidence of, 235–6
psychotic symptoms, 132
Psychoticism, 39, 40, 42, 44
and addictive/compulsive behaviors, 226
alcohol and drug use, 226
and anxiety, 49
biological basis, 47
correlation with Five Factor taxonomy, 55, 56
and creativity, 325–6
gender differences, 226
QI, QII, and QVIII, higher-order personality factors, 50 race and IQ, 193–5, 196–7, 199
radical behaviorism, 99 rational emotive therapy (RET), 119 reaction time, 201
reflexes, 277–8
regression analysis, 67–9
reinforcement, 280–1
reliability, 36, 126
religion/religiosity, 74, 75, 120 Remote Associations Test, 331
research methods, 64–5
reward-deficiency hypothesis, 225, 226 rewards and punishments, 280–1 RIASEC model, interest types, 380–4 right-wing authoritarianism, 74
romantic relationships and personality, 75–9, 92–3 sadism, trait from Dark Tetrad, 93 sanguine temperament, 29, 30, 32, 33
schema, 102
schizophrenia, 126–30
schooling, effect on IQ, 231
scientists, creativity, 333
self-actualization, 101–2, 286–7, 324 self-efficacy, 81, 86, 99, 119 emotional intelligence, 261–4 self-fulfilling prophecies, 364–5 self-report inventories, 41–5 serotonin, 104, 120, 121, 129, 135, 225 sex differences see gender differences shared vs. nonshared environment, 104, 212–13, 218, 221, 223, 227–8, 229 Sheldon, William, somatotype theory, 32–3 situational approaches, 26, 27
   to leadership, 340–2
   mood states, 296–7
   personality, 34–8
situational factors, 17–18
situational judgment scenario, 243 Skinner, operant conditioning, 280
smartphones, 45
Sociability see Agreeableness social anxiety disorder, 134, 135 social class see socioeconomic status (SES) social-cognitive theories of personality, 102–3 social competence, 254
social intelligence, 243–8
social learning theory, 100
social media, 45, 93
social norms, 111
socioeconomic status (SES)
   and health/longevity, 186, 188
   and intelligence, 166, 189–92
sociopathy, 40
somatogenic approaches, 86, 114, 115–16, 129
somatotype theory, Sheldon, 32–3
spatial ability, sex differences, 198 Spearman, Charles, 156–8, 160, 218 standard deviation (SD), 67, 155 Standard Progressive Matrices (SPM), 232–3 statistical deviance, 111
stereotype threat, 197, 199
streetwise intelligence, 241–3, 247 stress, 27–8, 70–2, 81
   diathesis-stress model, 123
structural equation modeling (SEM), 69–72
subjective wellbeing, 89–90
sublimation, 279–80
substance use, 51–2, 225–6 success, predicting, 10–12
task-oriented leaders, 340, 355
taxonomy, 28
technological advances
   adaptation to and creativity, 334
   behavioral genetics, 13
   neuropsychology, 120–1
   phobia treatment, 134
   psychometric testing, 44–5
temperaments, 29–32
Ten-Item Personality Inventory (TIPI), 37
Terman, L.M., IQ testing, 155, 156, 177, 189, 195 test-retest reliability, 163, 374
Thematic Apperception Test (TAT), 291 therapy, 118, 119, 130
   see also psychoanalysis Thorndike, Edward, social intelligence, 243–8 threat of evaluation, 310–11
three-factor model, interest types, 384–5 three-ring theory of giftedness, 321 threshold theory of creativity and intelligence, 320 Thurstone, Louis
   definition of intelligence, 149 “primary” mental abilities, 158–60
Torrance Test of Creativity and Thinking (TTCT), 332
trait
   definition of, 5
   see also personality traits
trait approaches, 34–8
   criticisms of, 340, 354
   leadership, 341, 344–6, 347–54
trait complex theory, 387–9
trait emotional intelligence, 261–4 transactional leadership, 356, 362–4 transformational leadership, 358–62
Tuke, William, treatment of mentally ill, 115, 138
twin studies, 207–8
assortative mating, 214
generalizability concerns, 224
intelligence, 167–8, 211–13, 216–17
personality, 120, 129, 132, 135, 221–2, 223–4
substance abuses, 226
two-factor theory of motivation, Herzberg, 287–90
two-process theories, motivation, 292–3 Type A and Type B personalities, 34 unconscious processes, 94–8, 116–17, 343 validity, 36, 126, 331–2
vocational interests, 21–2, 370–90
approaches to, 371–3
circumscription and compromise theory, 386–7
gender differences, 376–80
linking theory and practice, 373–4
person-environment fit, 380
RIASEC typology, 380–4, 385–6, 389–90 stability of interests over lifespan, 374–6
three-factor model, 384–5
trait complexes, 387–9
Watson, John, behaviorism, 97, 99, 118
Wechsler Adult Intelligence Scale (WAIS), 172, 176–9, 250–1
Wechsler, David, 160
definition of intelligence, 149
wellbeing, 89–90, 132, 289
Williams Syndrome (WMS), 246
Witmer, Lightner, 118
work-related motivation, 289–90
and Big Five personality traits, 292 work variables and personality, 330
Yerkes–Dodson arousal laws, 281, 283, 284