Annual goals: evaluating progress on, 80–82; mini-case studies on evaluating progress of, 81–82; mini-case studies on setting, 79; setting new, 78–79

Annual performance appraisals: evaluating progress on annual goals, 80–82; formative-summative, 82–84; four key steps to follow for all, 86; given when major issues arise, 85–86; offering constructive criticism during, 68–73; offering praise and recognition during, 74–77; setting new annual goals during, 78–79; for the staff, 84–85; understanding difference between annual and overall progress, 71; wide-spread institutional use of, 67–68

Apologies, 122

Appeals: behaviors that can be cause of, 239; best practices for reducing, 237–240; common grounds for, 240

Appraisals: annual performance, 67–87; description of, 15, 68

Armstrong Atlantic State University, 143

Arreola model: adapted to individual institution needs and culture, 194; advantages and disadvantages of the, 205–206; using appropriate sources about scholarship, 200–203; core composite indicators derived from, 210; creating an integrated approach by borrowing from the, 230, 231–232/fig. 233–234/fig.; effectiveness at emphasizing most important factors, 34; eight-step process of, 193–194; identifying and using mechanisms for obtaining needed information, 203–204; mini-case studies on using the, 209–211/f, 212–213/f; objectivity advantage of, 199, 229; observable behaviors associated with performance skills defined by, 197–200; origins and development of the, 193; overall composite ratings calculated using the, 204–205, 210; strategies for benefiting from the, 207–208. See also Faculty roles; Scholarship; Service activities; Teaching activities

Arreola, R. A., 166, 193, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 202, 215, 246
Arum, R., 9
Assessment: comparing characteristics of evaluation and, 15–17; FSA (formative-summative assessment), 13–14. See also Evaluations

Assessment and Evaluation in Higher Education (journal), 20
Assessment in Higher Education (journal), 20

Assidere (sit beside), 16
Assistant professor rank, 176
Associate professor rank, 176, 177
Astin, A., 7
ATLAS: Academic Training, Leadership, and Assessment Services, 246

B
Balanced track, 235
Banta, T., 7
Baum, S., 9
Bell-shaped distribution: avoiding the Lake Wobegon effect on, 140–141; experimenting with classifying faculty members using, 141–143
Beran, T., 39, 40
Best, J., 39
Best practices: for becoming more confident as reviewer, 240–245; the best practice of all—treat others as you'd like to be treated, 246; don't overlook the value of 360-degree review processes, 37–38; focus documented evidence on observable behaviors/verifiable results, 27–31; follow your institution's established procedures to the letter, 23–27, 237; make actual judgments when conducting summative evaluations, 35–36; for merit evaluations, 137–145; for oral reviews, 46–47; for posttenure reviews, 112–123; for promotion evaluations, 177–186; for reducing appeals, grievances, and legal challenges, 237–240; remember that you already know more than you think, 36–37; use statistical measurements appropriately, 31–35; for written evaluations, 53–57. See also Evaluations; Reviews

Boston University, 153, 176
Bowen, H., 7
Boyer, E., 180, 199
Brandon, C., 9
Braskamp, L., 10, 38, 145, 182, 204
Breach of collegiality, 31
Brifthaupt, T. M., 138
Buller, J. L., 15, 47, 133, 135, 164, 167, 218

C
Campus climate, 7
Cannell, J. J., 140

Career planning, 114
Carnegie Classification, 197
Carney, R., 140
Cashin, W., 39
Centra, J. A., 180
Chair rank, 186
Change (magazine), 139
Changing Practices in Evaluating Teacher (Seldin), 215
Chronicle of Higher Education (journal), 20

Clayson, D. E., 39, 139
Colleagues: breach in collegiality of, 31; letters of support from, 230; role of collegiality in tenure decisions, 164–166. See also Peer evaluation

College Board, 8
College Pays 2010: The Benefits of Higher education for Individuals and Society (College Board), 8–9
Collegiality: breach in, 31; tenure decisions and role of, 164–166
Combined oral and written reviews: mini-case studies on, 60–62; process of creating, 58–59
Communication: avoiding mixed messages, 99–101; avoiding statements containing you and your, 121; dealing with hostility or denial, 101–103; handling negative results of posttenure review, 120–123; of negative tenure evaluation results, 166–168; offering constructive criticism, 68–73; offering praise and recognition, 74–77; preserving constructive posttenure review, 111–112; reporting decisions at each level of multilevel promotion review, 181–182. See also Language; Mini-case studies

Community and Technical College (University of Alaska Anchorage), 176–177
Composite role rating: approaches to information required for, 203–204; core composite indicators used as part of, 210; description and calculation of, 202–203; mini-study calculation of, 209–211, 2127–2137. See also Overall composite rating

Connell, M. A., 165
Congressional Record (April 10, 2000), 8
Connell, M. A., 165
Constructive criticism: during annual performance appraisal, 68–72; five principles for giving, 69–72; mini-case studies on, 72–73; wounded egos issue of giving, 72

Cooperative Institutional Research Program's Freshman Survey, 4
Copeland, J. D., 24
Council of Colleges of Arts and Sciences, 245
Crittenden, K., S., 39

D
Dalager, J., 239, 240
Declaration of Principles (1915) [AAUP], 152–153
Dees, Mayberry v., 25, 165
Denial: options for dealing with, 101–103; reviewing tenure committee's specific concerns in case of, 103; when the faculty member reacts with, 101
Developing a Comprehensive Faculty Evaluation System (Arreola), 193, 205
Diagnostic processes: description of evaluation, 11; description of review, 14
Diamond, R. M., 92, 138, 181, 208
Discrimination, 239
Distinguished teaching professor rank, 186
Documented evidence: examples of unacceptable versus acceptable, 281–296; failure to base conclusions on, 26–27; that focuses on observable behaviors/verifiable results, 27–31; understanding nature of verifiable, 30. See also Statistical measurements
Dreifus, C., 9

E
Education Resources Information Center, 8
Econometric, 113, 138
Economic impact, 138
Educational ROI (return on investment), 8–9
Education Resources Information Center, 8
E
ducation: formative-summative processes: of annual performance appraisals, 10–17; what to look for when reviewing a portfolio, 222–223
Evaluations: comparing assessment, review, appraisal, and, 14–17; comparing characteristics of assessment and, 15; description of, 68; diagnostic processes of, 11; formative processes of, 11, 12–14; formative-summative assessment (FSA) of, 13–14; lists of typical higher education forms of, 4–5; reasons for higher education, 5–6; summative processes of, 11, 12–14. See also Assessment; Best practices; Faculty evaluations; Reviews
Evaluations (out of, from), 16
Evidence. See Documented evidence
Ewen, A. J., 38
External letters of review: best practices for selection and use of, 178, 180; getting permission to obtain, 183

F
Faculty: benefits of specialized tracks to, 236; dealing with hostility or denial by, 101–103; experimenting with two different approaches to classifying, 141–143; impact of promotion decisions on, 160; offering constructive criticism to, 68–73; offering praise and recognition to, 74–77, 116–117; posttenure review buy-in by, 110–111; wounded egos of, 72. See also Tenure
Faculty ranks: assistant professor, 176, 177; associate professor, 176, 177; evaluating faculty members for special, 186; professor, 176–177, 183–185
Faculty roles: appropriate sources used to evaluate, 200–203; composite role rating of, 202–204, 211f; drawing up self-inventory of work-related activities, 195; mini-case studies on, 209–211, 212–213; observable behaviors of specific, 197–199; overall composite rating of, 204, 205f, 210f, 213f; weighting system on importance of each activity and, 196–197, 199–200, 211f. See also Arreola model: Scholarship; Service activities; Teaching activities
Fairmont State University (West Virginia), 205
Fieldman, K., 7, 39
Fiddler, M., 138
Financial issues: increased demand for education ROI, 8–9; lack of funding for merit increase systems, 132
Fite, D., 162, 163, 164
The Five-Year Party (Brandon), 9
Pogg, P., 165
Formative processes: description of evaluation, 11; description of review, 14; probationary period pretenure, 96–101; when it becomes a summative process, 11, 12–114
Formative-summative assessment (FSA), 13–14
Formative-summative processes: of annual performance appraisal, 82–84; description of evaluation, 13–14; description of review, 14; of posttenure review, 109–110; of probationary period pretenure, 89–90, 91–101. See also Summative processes
Four Critical Years (Astin), 7
Franke, A., 163
French, J., 78
Frideler, J., 40
Frostburg State University (Maryland), 205
GI Bill, 6

Goal setting: during annual performance appraisals, 78–79; establishing measurable standards during oral review, 48; merging reviews into single process with, 18–20; Seldin model use of reflection to inform, 224–225

Goals: annual performance appraisal for evaluating progress on annual, 80–82; expressing standards in numerical form, 48–49

Goucher College, Krotkoff v., 155

Grade inflation, 140

Grievances: behaviors that can be cause of, 239; best practices for reducing, 237–240; common grounds for, 240; how apologies can be admission of culpability in, 122

Grote, D., 30, 36, 55, 85

Hacker, A., 9

Haley, D. A., 139

Haley, M. R., 140

Hamilton, L. C., 39

Hamner, W. C., 78

Haskell, R. E., 24

Herold, D. M., 47

Higgenson, M. L., 215

Higher Education? (Hacker and Dreifus), 9

Higher Education Research Institute (UCLA), 4

Higher education trends: desire to increase retention rates and student success, 6–7; increasing costs creating need for ROI data, 8–9; new model for measuring education impact and benefits, 7

Hostility: don't use logic to overcome, 122; handling posttenure review, 120–123; options for dealing with, 101–103

IDEA Center’s Department Chair Seminars, 245, 246

Impact Factor (ISI), 113, 138

The Impact of College on Students (Feldman and Newcomb), 7

Innovative Educators, 246

“Input activities,” 54

Institute for Scientific Information (ISI), 113

Institution procedures: common mistakes made when failing to follow, 24–27; importance of cross-department consistency in, 24; importance of following the, 23–27, 237

Institutions: Carnegie Classification of, 197; demands for accountability of, 6–9, 10–17, 109; demands for increased retention rates/student success, 6–7; review procedures of, 23–27, 237

Instructor review Web sites, 5

Insufficient record keeping, 239

Integrated evaluation model: as advantage for institutions with specialized faculty tracks, 235–237; blending quantitative and qualitative approaches for, 230–234/fg; borrowing from the Arreola model to create, 230, 231–232/fg, 233–234/fg; borrowing from the Seldin model to create portfolio, 231, 234/fg; sources of information gathered for, 232–233

Integrated scholar rank, 186

Investment in Learning (Bowen), 7

Iowa State University, 180

Irritable language, 29t

Ivancevich, J. M., 38, 46

Iz, University of Baltimore v., 165

J

Jasper, M., 224

Jimenez v. Almodovar, 155

Johnson, M., 140

Jossey-Bass, 246

Kansas State University Academic Chairpersons Conference, 245

Kaplin, W. A., 24, 155, 156

Kay, E., 78

Kehm, B., 3

Keillor, G., 140

Kim, J. S., 78

Kline, D., 40

Konopaske, R., 38, 46

Krotkoff v. Goucher College, 155

Kruger, I., 140

Kulik, J. A., 180

Lake Wobegon effect, 140–143

Lander University, 19

Language: irritable, 29t; use of profanity, 28t. See also Communication

Lawsuits/legal challenges: behaviors which can lead to, 239; best practices for reducing appeals, grievances, and, 237–240; common grounds for, 240; how apologies can be admission of culpability in, 122; Jimenez v. Almodovar over tenure, 155; Krotkoff v. Goucher College over tenure, 155; Mayberry v. Dees over tenure, 25, 165

Leap, T. L., 24

LeBailly, R. K., 39

Lee, B. A., 24, 155, 156

Lewis, H. R., 40

Licata, C. M., 109, 112, 114

Lindenwood University in Missouri, 154

Loope, D. R., 152

M

Ma, J., 9

Magna Publications, 246

Making Tenure Decisions: Philosophy, Criteria, and Expectations (University of Wyoming), 157–158

Manning, R. C., 12, 131

Marienau, C., 138

Marsh, H. W., 39

Martin, G., 86

Matteson, M. T., 38, 46

Mayberry v. Dees, 25, 165

McCarthy era, 153

McGee, M. K., 140

McGury, S., 138
Measurements. See Statistical measurements

Meiners, R. E., 155

Merit: challenges of defining and measuring, 133; definition of, 134; determining in a complex academic system, 136–137; disentangling issues of equity from, 134–135; disentangling issues of worth from, 136–145

Merit evaluation best practices: avoiding the Lake Wobegon effect, 140–143; consult sources on research in different disciplines, 138; determining merit in a complex academic system, 136–137; establish evaluation rubric prior to, 137–138; evaluate teaching based on impact not popularity, 139; tying merit to institutional priorities, 143–145

Merit evaluations: best practices for, 136–145; description of, 131; mini-case studies on, 145–147; problem issues of, 132–133

Merit systems: challenges of defining and measuring merit, 133; lack of funding for merit increase systems, 132; small merit pools to support, 132–133

Meyer, H., 78

Miller, E., 215

Millis, B., 216, 217

Min, H., 3

Mini-case studies: on Arreola model approach to faculty role evaluation, 209–211f, 212–213f; on combined oral and written reviews, 60–62; on conducting oral reviews, 50–51; on merit evaluations, 145–147; on offering constructive criticism, 72–73; on offering praise and recognition, 76–77; on posttenure reviews, 123–126; on probationary period pretenure, 103–106; on promotion evaluations, 187–188; on reviewing annual goals, 81–82; on role playing to improve evaluation process, 242–243; on Seldin model, 225–227; on setting annual goals, 79; on tenure evaluations, 168–169. See also Communication

Morreale, J. C., 109, 112, 114

Murry, J. W., R., 24

myedu.com, 5

N

Named chair rank, 186

National Academy for Academic Leadership, 92

National Institutes of Health, 137

Nature (journal), 137

Neeley School of Business (Texas Christian University), 235

Nelson, B., 76

Newcomb, T., 7

9/11, 153

No Child Left Behind Act (2001), 9

No Sucker Left Behind (Scheer), 9

Nor, J. L., 39

Numerical rating scales, 36

O

O’Brien, L., 46

Observable behaviors: description and types of, 197; performance skills associated with specific, 198; scholarship, teaching, and service roles broken down into specific, 198–199

O’Meara, K. A., 110, 138

Oral review meetings: expressing standards in oral format, 59; on setting annual goals, 81–82; on role playing to improve evaluation process, 242–243; on Seldin model, 225–227; setting annual goals, 79; on tenure evaluations, 168–169. See also Communication

O’Meara, K. A., 110, 138

Oral reviews: advantages and limitations of, 44–46; on promotion evaluations, 187–188; on setting annual goals, 81–82; on role playing to improve evaluation process, 242–243; on Seldin model, 225–227; on setting annual goals, 79; on tenure evaluations, 168–169. See also Communication

P

Pace, R., 7

Pace University (New York), 215

Parsons, C. K., 47

Patrick, C. L., 39

Plater, W. M., 116

Pomerantz, J. P., 138

Payea, K., 9

Peek, R. P., 138

Peer evaluation: as foundation of effective posttenure review, 116; 360-degree reviews, 37–38, 53. See also Colleagues

Personal safety issues, 121

Peterson, T. O., 47

Plater, W. M., 116

Pomerantz, J. P., 138

Portfolio evaluation approach: contents of a portfolio, 220–222; five reasons for effectiveness of, 216–218; nature of a portfolio, 218–220; red flag warning during, 221–222; reflective examination of portfolio, 224; what to look for when reviewing portfolio, 222–223. See also Seldin model

Poskanzer, S. G., 24

Posttenure review best practices: conducting regular reviews versus triggered reviews, 118–120; constructive advice focused on career growth and development, 114; criteria and standards understanding by all parties, 112–113; dialogue that includes everyone affected by tenure, 115; handling negative results of review, 120–123; include rewards and recognition as part of review, 116–117; multiple sources of information used for review, 113–114; peer evaluation as foundation, 116; reflective self-evaluation by faculty member, 114; strategies for benefiting from, 117–123
Posttenure reviews: as best practice, 112–123; driven by demand for accountability, 109; faculty buy-in to, 110–111; formative-summative nature of, 109–110; mini-case studies on, 123–126; preserving a constructive and future-oriented approach toward, 111–117. See also Tenure

Prairie Home Companion (radio program), 140

Praise: annual performance appraisal and offering, 74–76; five objectives achieved by effective, 75; guidelines for giving, 76; mini-case studies on offering, 76–77

Primary education quality, 9

Profanity, 28

Professional development: posttenure reviews

ProfessorPerformance.com, 5

Professionals: posttenure: avoiding mixed messages during, 99–101; considerations of the formative nature of, 96–101; considerations of the summative nature of, 91–96; dealing with hostility or denial during, 101–103; description of, 89; as formative-summative assessment, 89–90; mini-case studies on, 103–106. See also Tenure

Probationary period pretenure: avoiding mixed messages, 99–101; in case of adequate progress what advice to increase likelihood of success, 96–98; making recommendations to improve weak areas, 98–101

Probationary period pretenure summative issues: establishing quality of progress, 92–93; establishing significance of progress, 93–94; if there is not adequate progress can situation improve?, 91, 94–96; is faculty member making adequate progress?, 91–92; two unwritten rules to remember, 94–95

Pro forma apology, 122

Professional development: posttenure reviews focused on, 114; setting annual goals for, 78–82

Professor rank: description and promotion process for, 176–177; recommended strategies for promoting faculty to, 183–185

ProfessorPerformance.com, 5

Promotion evaluation best practices: evaluators should be of equal or higher rank, 178; on external letters of review, 178, 180, 183; minority opinions as part of process, 178–179; multiple evidence of teaching effectiveness, 179–180; neutral observers should be part of process, 180; reporting decisions at each level of multilevel review, 181–182; reviewer awareness of nontraditional patterns of process, 180–181; strategies for benefiting from, 182–186

Promotion evaluation strategies: evaluating faculty members for special ranks, 186; issues to consider for getting most out of, 182–183; promoting faculty members to rank of professor, 183–185

Promotion evaluations: aligning standards with, 174–177; benefiting from best practices regardless of procedures, 182–186; best practices in, 177–182; mini-case studies of, 187–188

Q

Quantitative/qualitative blended analysis: as advantage for institutions with specialized faculty tracks, 235–237; Arreola model used to help create, 230, 231–232/fg, 233–234/fg; creating integrated approach using, 230–234/fg; Seldin model used to help create, 230, 231–232/fg, 233–234/fg

R

Race to the Program (2009), 9

Racism, 28f

rateemyprofessors.com, 5

ratemyprof.com, 5

Rating scales: based on evaluation concept, 36; numerical, 36; verbal, 36

Rebell, M. A., 24

Reclusiveness, 29

Redmon, W. K., 78

Reflective self-evaluation, 114

Rensvold, R. B., 47

Research professor rank, 186

Research track, 235

Retention rates, 6–7

Reviewers. See Evaluation reviewers

Reviews: annual performance appraisal, 67–87; appraisal form of, 15; Arreola model used for, 193–211f, 212f–213f, 229, 230, 231–232/fg, 233–234/fg; combining oral and written, 58–62; concluding with a “what’s next” discussion, 19–20; definition of, 14; distinctions between different processes of, 14; don’t overlook the value of 360-degree, 37–38; four key steps to follow for all, 86; four ways of making sure genuine evaluative approach to, 36; importance of understanding differences in, 17–18; integrated approach to, 229–237; merging goal setting into single process with, 18–20; merit evaluations, 131–148; oral, 44–51; posttenure, 109–126; probationary period pretenure, 89–107; promotion evaluations, 157–160, 173–189; reducing appeals, grievances, and legal challenges, 237–240; Seldin model for portfolio approach to, 215–227; 231–232/fg; tenure evaluations, 161–170; 360-degree, 37–38, 53; written, 51–58. See also Best practices; Evaluations

Rewards/recognition: annual performance appraisal and offering, 74–76; differences between tenure and promotion decisions related to, 157–158, 173; five objectives achieved by effective, 75; guidelines for giving, 76; mini-case studies on offering, 76–77; as posttenure review best practice, 116–117; Texas Tech University’s strategies for posttenure, 117

Rogers, R., 138

ROI (return on investment) of education, 8–9

Rolfe, G., 224

Rosovsky, H., 153

Routledge, 20

Rust, D. Z., 138

Rutgers University Senate Faculty Affairs and Personnel Committee, 12
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index Term</th>
<th>Page(s)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Seldin, C.</td>
<td>215, 219</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Secondary education quality</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Second-year reviews</td>
<td>89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Self-evaluation, written evaluations and inclusion of</td>
<td>110, 117, 246</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Science</td>
<td>137</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Scopus’s Source Normalized Impact per Paper</td>
<td>113, 138</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Self-evaluation, written evaluations and inclusion of</td>
<td>53–54</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Service activities: appropriate sources of information on</td>
<td>200–203; benefiting from the Arreola model calculation of, 207–208; broken down into specific observable behaviors, 197–199; calculation of composite role rating, 211f; core composite indicators of, 210f; defining the institutional context of, 195; fixed weighting system to assess importance of, 199–200, 201–203, 211f; mini-case studies on using Arreola model to calculate, 209–213f; objectivity of review by defining, 199; overall composite rating for, 205f, 210f, 213f. See also Arreola model; Faculty roles</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sexual orientation</td>
<td>28f</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Shannah, J.</td>
<td>152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Silber, J.</td>
<td>153</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Smith, B.</td>
<td>117</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Snyder, M.</td>
<td>153</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Specialized tracks: advantage of integrated evaluation approach for, 235–237; balanced track, 235; benefits to faculty of, 236; research track, 235; teaching track, 235</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Spencer, K.</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>St. Ambrose University (Iowa)</td>
<td>205</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Staff annual performance appraisals</td>
<td>84–85</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Standardized testing</td>
<td>9–10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure (1940) [AAUP]</td>
<td>153</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Statistical measurement errors: assumption that all items in review possess equal merit, 34–35; misunderstanding of averages, 32–33; overinterpretation of the results, 31–32; using only averages to analyze data, 33</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Statistical measurements: appropriate use of statistical, 31–35; challenge of defining and measuring merit, 133; distinguishing between verifiable and measurability, 30; Eigenfactor, 113, 138; established during oral review for set goals, 48; four ways of making sure genuine evaluative approach to, 36; Impact Factor of the ISI (Institute for Scientific Information), 113, 138; Scopus’s Source Normalized Impact per Paper, 113, 138. See also Documented evidence</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stodolsky, S. S.</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stripling, J.</td>
<td>154</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Student-centered environment</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Student satisfaction surveys</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Student success demands</td>
<td>6–7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Successful Use of Teaching Portfolios (Seldin)</td>
<td>215</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Summative evaluations: description of processes, 11; make actual judgments when conducting, 35–36</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Summative processes: description of evaluation, 11; description of review, 14; probationary period pretenure, 91–96; when a formative process becomes a, 12–14. See also Formative-summative processes</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Swansea University (England)</td>
<td>224</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SWOT analysis</td>
<td>11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>T</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tagg, J.</td>
<td>139</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teaching activities: appropriate sources of information on, 200–203; benefiting from the Arreola model calculation of, 207–208; broken down into specific observable behaviors, 197–199; calculation of composite role rating, 211f; core composite indicators of, 210f; defining the institutional context of, 195; fixed weighting system to assess importance of, 199–200, 201–203, 211f; mini-case studies on using Arreola model to calculate, 209–213f; objectivity of review by defining, 199; overall composite rating for, 205f, 210f, 213f. See also Arreola model; Faculty roles</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teaching and Learning Center (University of Texas at San Antonio)</td>
<td>216</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Teaching Portfolio (Seldin, Miller, and Seldin)</td>
<td>215</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teaching track</td>
<td>235</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tenure: as academic equivalent of marriage</td>
<td>151; brief history of, 152–154; differences between decisions for promotion and, 157–160; how the posttenure review has weakened system of, 110; institutional rules regarding, 19–20; three common grounds for revoking, 155–156; two unwritten rules to remember about progress to, 94–95; what it is and is not, 154–157. See also Faculty; Posttenure reviews; Probationary period pretenure</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tenure decisions: AAUP recommended strategies for, 161–162; caution against &quot;managing through&quot; practice of, 163–164; court challenges to, 155, 162, 165; differences between promotion decisions and, 157–160, 173–174; how to convey results of negative, 166–168; on revoking tenure, 155–157; role of collegiality in, 164–166; University of...</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Baltimore v. Iz, 165; University of Wyoming's guide on, 164
Tenure evaluations: how to convey results of negative, 166–168; incorporating both rigor and fairness into, 161–164; mini-case studies on, 168–169
Tenure lawsuits: Jimenez v. Almodovar, 155; Krotkoff v. Goucher College, 155; Mayberry v. Dees, 25, 165; Supreme Court decision (1990) on confidentiality of process, 163
Tenure revocation grounds: cause as, 155–156; financial exigency as, 155; legal challenges to, 155; limitations of, 156–157; program closure as, 155
Texas Christian University, 235
Texas Tech University, 117
Third-year reviews, 89
360-degree reviews: don't overlook the value of, 37–38; written evaluations inclusion of, 53
Tohoku University (Japan), 144
Trower, C., 154

U
Unacceptable evidence, 287–291
United Educators Insurance Risk Retention Group, 162, 168
University of Alaska Anchorage, 176–177
University of Alaska Fairbanks, 181
University of Baltimore, 25
University of Baltimore v. Iz, 165
University of Colorado Boulder, 154
University of Florida, 177
University of Illinois, 154
University of Louisiana at Monroe, 19–20
University of Maryland, 216
University of North Carolina at Greensboro, 180
University of Notre Dame, 30
University of South Florida, Fort Myers, 154
University of Tennessee, 20
University of Tennessee Health Science Center, 193
University of Tennessee, Knoxville, 53, 55
University of Texas at San Antonio, 216
University of Texas Southwest Medical Center, 154
University of West Florida, 86
University of Wyoming, 157, 164
U.S. Department of Education, 8

V
Valere (to be strong, to have strengths), 16
Van Fleet, D. D., 47
Van Fleet, E. W., 47
Verbal rating scales: based on expected standard of performance, 36; description of evaluative, 36
Vietnam War, 153
Violato, C., 39, 40
Volunteer State Community College (Tennessee), 177

W
Warrington, J. D., 39
Wayne State College (Nebraska), 239
West Virginia University, 183–184
Western Kentucky University, 13
Wilk, L. A., 78
Wineringer, S., 13
Wiseman, S., 3
Worth: definition of, 136; disentangling issues of merit from, 136–145
Wounded egos, 72
Written evaluations: advantages and limitations of, 52–53; best practices for, 53–57; considered in context of previous evaluations, 56–57; creating comprehensive evaluation combining oral and, 58–59; description of, 51; how “output” and “input” activities are treated in, 54; “keep it simple” tip for, 55; limits of confidentiality, 56; mini-case studies on combining oral and, 60–62; mini-case studies on providing, 57–58; self-evaluation included in, 53–54

X
Xiuwen, Y., 3