CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS vi
FOREWORD vii
INTRODUCTION ix

CHAPTER 1: COLLABORATION 1
Collaboration Unpacked 2
Why Collaborate? 4
Why Collaborate in Museums? 5
How to Collaborate 7
A Case Study: Science Gallery, Dublin 16
An Intrinsic Imperative 19

CHAPTER 2: ADVOCACIES AND ACTION STEPS 21
Advocacy Positions as a Team Creation Strategy 21
Five Advocacies Needed for Every Team 22
Action Steps 34
Dangers and Pitfalls 35

CHAPTER 3: ADVOCACY FOR THE INSTITUTION 39
Creating the Landscape for Exemplary Exhibitions 39
Laying the Foundation 40
Planning Major Change 43
Plan Ahead, Leslie Swartz 47
Reflecting Institutional Identity, Charlie Walter 50
Review, Critique, and Approval 60
Institutional Culture and Risk 64
Assessing Results and Learning from Them 65

CHAPTER 4: ADVOCACY FOR THE SUBJECT MATTER 69
It’s about Something Too! 69
Approach and Philosophy 70
Object or Idea Driven 74
Dangers for the Subject Matter Expert 78
History through Objects, Jessica Neuwirth 80
An Art Historian’s Perspective, Rachel McGarry 83

CHAPTER 5: ADVOCACY FOR VISITOR EXPERIENCES 89
Developing Exhibition Content for Visitors 89
Getting Started: Developing the Concepts 100
Strategies for Organizing Information 103
Synthesizing and Presenting Initial Concepts 107
Organizing the Concepts into a Cohesive Narrative 108
The Story on Storyelling, Leslie Bedford 113
Documentation and Presentation 115
Getting the Details Ironed Out: How Does This Thing Really Work? 119