Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander 135, 339, 383
abstract ideas 36
accomplished readers, see intermediate and accomplished readers Adelaide Declaration on National Goals for Schooling in the 21st Century 296, 375 adequate yearly progress (AYP) 9 adult education 129
aesthetic literacy stance 342
Alborough, Jez 212
Alexander, B. 358
Alexander, R. 52, 53
Allington, R. L. 432
Allington, Michael 260, 265, 398
alliteration 352
Allan, M. 260, 265, 398
americano 217, 240
alphabet books 217, 240
alphabetical knowledge 178–179, 216–219, 266
Alvermann, Daniel 356
Amanti, C. 16, 73
analysis 220
analytic phonics 60, 102
Anderson, N. 223
analytical phonics 60, 102
Anderson, Michael 223
analogy 220
Anderson, Robinson 131
Anstey, M. 260, 265, 398 anticipation guides 402–404 applied level of meaning 277
Arafeh, S. 6
Armento, B. J. 76
Arter, J. A. 317
Assessment Resource Centre (ARC) 299 autonomy 205–210
authentic assessment practices 301–302
authentic assessment practices, see authentic assessment practices code breaking practices 318–320, 325 critical practices assessment 318–325 diagnostic 296
eyearly assessment 85–86
formative 295–296
gathering information to assess literacy development 316–317 high-stakes tests 304 interest in 304–305
international testing 296
national reading assessments 304–305
NAPLAN testing 296–299, 377
portfolio systems 317
purpose of 295, 299–300 reading practices and types of 318 reflection–assessment–instruction cycle 302–304 reflective cycle for 302, 319 responsible listening 314–315 standards reference 294 summative 295–296
text and 296–302
text meaning assessment 318–325 text participant assessments 322–325 text use assessment 318–325 related text-based models 140 attendance booklet 216 attitude questionnaires and surveys 89–90
Atwell, N. 416
audit trails 114
Australian Aboriginal English (AAE) 41, 46
Australian Association for the Teaching of English (AATE) 132
Australian Bureau of Statistics 375
Australian Council of Educational Research (ACER) 296
Australian Curriculum 24–25, 46, 55, 61, 131, 380
achievement standards 134 and joint position statement 210 benefits of 24
Creating literature sub-strand 355
Creating texts sub-strand 256–259 definition of literature 331 cross-curriculum priorities 377, 339, 368, 383 documents 368
effective literacy teachers 209 emphasis on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander History 76 emphasis on engagement with Asia 76, 77 Examining literature sub-strand 221 general capabilities 368 implementation 132
interpreting, analysing, evaluating sub-strand 256, 258 key learning 256
language variation and change 173 latest version 8.1 25
literacy learning and teaching in 50 Literature strand 338, 340 overarching curriculum 385 relationship with literacy continuum 369 Responding to literature sub-strand 340–344 science curriculum 385
sound knowledge of 244
strands 25, 133, 245, 256
Texts in context sub-strand 256, 258
Text structure and organisation sub-strand 225 version 3 132
website 98
Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) 24, 132, 133, 296, 377, 381
Australian Early Development Census (AEDC) 170
Australian Institute for Teaching and School Leadership 4
Australian Labor Party 131
Australian Literacy Educators Association (ALEA) 3, 132
authentic assessment practices 304–306, 315
classroom and assessment 304–315 textual and 306–315
types of 306–315
authentic purpose 216, 246
authentic texts 129–130 author circles 149–150
author craft 356–357
automaticity 102
autonomous model 18–19
background knowledge 127
Baker, Jeanie 262
Baker, S. 356
Bakhtin, Mikhail 38
balanced approach 126
Banking Education 14
Banks, Angelica 224
Banks, James 97
Barrentine, S. J. 231
Barthes, R. 351
basal readers 128
basal reading series 153
Bear, D. R. 266, 267
Beavis, C. 377
beginning readers and four-resource model 210–227 becoming a text participant 221–225 code breaking to exemplify how words work 211–221 collaborative reading 238–239 individual reading 238 literacy blocks for 227–243 literature discussions 236
reader’s workshop 236
reading aloud, see reading aloud reading program for 243 shared reading events 234–236 thinking critically about texts 226–227 understanding how texts are used 225–226 voluntary free reading 237 writing 239–240
beginning reading and writing conferences and record keeping 240–243 connections to national achievement standards 243–245 experimental reading and writing 206 guiding principles to promote 205–210
INDEX
NSW Education Standards Authority 299
NSW English Syllabus 299

OECD Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA) 417
Oldfather, P. 414
One to one: The art of conferencing with young writers (Calkins, Hartman and White) 243 one-sheet observation method 313 online reading 273
online texts 274
onomatopoeia 353
onset 59
ontological 2
operational dimension 379
oral language development Cambridge’s conditions for language learning 171 in preschool settings 172–173 oral language learning, and emergent reading and writing practices 170–181 oral language skills, conditions for developing 171–172 orientation 224
Ortiz, R. W. 432
overarching curriculum foci 385, 386
Pacifici, L. C. 266
Painter, C. 36, 140
paired books 239
Paley, Vivian 175, 176
Palmer, R. G. 302
Pantaleo, S. 334
Papert, Seymour 9
parent education programs 193, 432 parent education, to support struggling readers 431–435 Park, S. 375
partner reading 271
Pataray-Ching, J. 384
pattern knowledge 266
Pearson, P. D. 140
pedagogical models 139
pedagogical approach 253
pedagogical content knowledge (PCK) 378 pedagogical knowledge (PK) 378 pedagogy 3, 4
pedagogy of multiliteracies 253 personal level of meaning 277 personification 353
persuasive texts 134, 143
phoneme 7, 58, 61
of English and corresponding spelling 58 phonemic awareness 58–61, 178–180, 319 phonemic blending 213
phonemic segmentation 213 phonics 59, 60, 102, 129 phonics-first approach 103 phonics-oriented basals 128 phonological awareness 33
Piaget, J. 96, 167
Picturebooks 332–334, 339
Pinnell, G. S. 138, 219
plurilingual language 45 poetry 357
portfolio systems 317
postmodern picturebooks 332, 339 elements of 333
examples of 334
pre-assessments, see diagnostic assessments predictable texts 168, 212 prefixes 266
Preskyn, M. 376
preschool, conditions to support English language learners 172–173 prescriptive approach 211 Primary English Teaching Association Australia (PETA) 132, 147 primary level literacy blocks 228–229 print-based texts 262, 272 print-rich environment 172 procedural texts 393 ‘process writing’ approach 129 productive modes 168
professional engagement 4 professional knowledge 4 professional practice 4
Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA) 2
Progress in International Reading Literacy Study (PIRLS) 2
Progressive Achievement Tests in Reading (PAT-R) 296 progressive ideologies 129 protolanguage 35
psycholinguistic guessing game 57 psycholinguistics 106
punctuation, learning in 62 quality texts 137
question–answer relationship (QAR) strategy 349–350
RAND Reading Study Group 272
Reach Out and Read (ROAR) project 432
Read, Interrogate, Tell and Explore (RITE) strategy 405 reader response model 112–113
reader’s purpose and attitude 342–344 reader’s theatre 271
reader’s workshop 236
forms for 241
reading curriculum 120
reading difficulties, see struggling readers
reading events, shared 234–236
reading journals 111
reading models for 21st-century classroom 119–120
four-resource model 116–117
Halliday + model 117–118
reader response model 112–113
scaffolding 141
skills model 102–103
whole language model 107–108
reading portfolios 317
reading process checklist 311
reading program, for beginning readers 243
reading readiness 165–167
reading to class
from student-centred perspective 84–85
from teacher-centred perspective 83
reading to learn (R2L) 131, 141
literacy demands in content areas 367–374 ‘reading wars’ 126
reciprocal and supportive classroom talk 53
record-keeping system 240–243, 313
reflection-assessment-instruction cycle 302–304
Reggio Emilia Approach 190
register 43
Reid, D. K. 319
Rendon, P. 74
repeated readings 271
repetition 354–355
resources
inviting children to use informative resources 391
role of informative texts 392
selecting informative texts 392–393
types 390
using a range of texts 395–396

reading and writing procedures 261 curriculum and broader cultural context 142 detailed reading 142 different phases of writing process 148 funds of knowledge 142
guided reading 145–146
guided writing 148
independent 146–147
modelling for composition 147 modelling language and strategies for 143–147 reading aloud to students 142 reading conferences 146 shared reading and writing 144 whole-part–whole strategy 143 reading bookmarks 281
reading centres 154
forms for 241
reading curriculum 120
reading difficulties, see struggling readers
reading events, shared 234–236
reading journals 111
reading models for 21st-century classroom 119–120
four-resource model 116–117
Halliday + model 117–118
reader response model 112–113
scaffolding 141
skills model 102–103
whole language model 107–108
reading portfolios 317
reading process checklist 311
reading program, for beginning readers 243
reading readiness 165–167
reading to class
from student-centred perspective 84–85
from teacher-centred perspective 83
reading to learn (R2L) 131, 141
literacy demands in content areas 367–374
‘reading wars’ 126
reciprocal and supportive classroom talk 53
record-keeping system 240–243, 313
reflection-assessment-instruction cycle 302–304
Reggio Emilia Approach 190
register 43
Reid, D. K. 319
Rendon, P. 74
repeated readings 271
repetition 354–355
resources
inviting children to use informative resources 391
role of informative texts 392
selecting informative texts 392–393
types 390
using a range of texts 395–396
INDEX

450

using to develop knowledge and understanding in content areas 390–396 responsive listening assessments practices 314–315 group discussions 314–315 reading and writing conferences 315 retellings 279, 314

repetitive miscue analysis (RMA) 308–309 of running record 310
Reynolds, P. L. 416
rhymes 213–214, 354–355
rhythm 354–355
Richards, J. 223
rhymes 59
most common patterns in English 214
Rivera, A. 74
Robb, L. 135
Roberson, M. 384
Robinson, Kenneth 414
Rodda, Emily 335
Rog, L. J. 194
Rogoff, B. 339
Roller, C. M. 422
root word 267, 288
roots and branches 267
Rose, D. 142
Rosenblatt, L. 111, 346
Roskos, K. 194
Rothery, J. 140
Routman, R. 419
Rudd, Kevin 285, 287
Rumbold, K. 163
running records 146, 309–310 retrospective miscue analysis of 310 Samuels, S. 102
scaffolding 53, 428–429
for composition 147–152 for literacy 139–141
for reading and viewing 142 reading lesson 142, 144 theories 131
scaffolding reading models 141
schemas 222
school learning 22
school-based literacy practices 20, 80 schooling critical model 14–15
industrial model 9–12, 14, 15 inquiry model 12–13, 15 models of 8–15
science
curriculum foci 385
literacy demands in 372–373 useful information narratives or picture books 396 Year 2 lesson on life cycle of butterfly 387 segmentation 213, 215
self-assessments 306
self-efficacy 415, 417
semantic cueing system 57 semantic wave 56
semiotic systems 259, 287
summary of 265
Senchuk, M. 432
sensorimotor skills 166
sequencing questions 223 Serafini, F. 119, 302
shared reading 144, 234–236, 423 learning opportunities for 234 Shulman, L. S. 378
simile 352–353
Sinha, S. 167
Sipe, L. R. 334
situational literacy practices 130
skills model 102–103
skills-based approaches 103, 127–129, 331
Smith, A. 6
social and cultural capital 4 socio-critical practice 438 socio-cultural emergent perspective 168 sociodramatic play settings 194–195 software, use for creating and publishing own 258 sorting letters and words 218 sound-symbol relationships 127, 221 sounding out 220
sounds 58–61
South Australian Spelling Test (SAST) 296
Spandel, V. 317
spelling 266
code-breaking practices in intermediate and upper years 269–270 developmental stages 269 directed spelling thinking activity 270 incidental word learning 270 strategies students use for 269 spelling analysis chart 321 spelling rules 56
spelling–meaning relationships 270 spoken language development Cambourne’s conditions for reading and writing 37 conditions for language learning 37–38 everyday to educational knowledge 36–37 home to school 36
language and learning 35
learning about language 37, 56–62
learning language 37
learning through language 37, 55–56
learning to talk 33–34
meaning 35
pointing, imitating and pretending 34
use and language variation 38–50
spoken languages 33
and literacy development 33
and written language 51
defining moments 39
in world 46
variations in 40–41
stakeholders 304, 305
stance 342, 346
Standard Australian English (SAE) 7, 41, 42, 53, 77, 130, 297
standardised tests 304
standards-referenced assessment 299
Stauffer, R. J. 195
Stewart, R. A. 392
story innovation 357
story maps 226
story-focused games 336
storybook reading 192, 392
Storyline Online website 230
storytelling checklist 312
Streit, B. V. 18
Strickland, D. S. 171
struggling readers 413, 415
buddy reading 426–427
characteristics 420
comprehension monitoring strategies 429–431
creating partnerships with parents and carers 433–435
curriculum areas 427–428
echo reading 422
evidence 420
independent reading 425, 427
interest and background knowledge 423–424
neurological impress method 423
reading aloud to extend comprehension 424–425
scaffolding 428–429
supporting through parent education 431–435
texts for reluctant readers 427
struggling readers and writers
learning to talk 33–34
learning language 37
learning through language 37, 55–56
learning to talk 33–34
meaning 35
pointing, imitating and pretending 34
use and language variation 38–50
spoken languages 33
and literacy development 33
and written language 51
defining moments 39
in world 46
variations in 40–41
stakeholders 304, 305
stance 342, 346
Standard Australian English (SAE) 7, 41, 42, 53, 77, 130, 297
standardised tests 304
standards-referenced assessment 299
Stauffer, R. J. 195
Stewart, R. A. 392
story innovation 357
story maps 226
story-focused games 336
storybook reading 192, 392
Storyline Online website 230
storytelling checklist 312
Streit, B. V. 18
Strickland, D. S. 171
struggling readers 413, 415
buddy reading 426–427
characteristics 420
comprehension monitoring strategies 429–431
creating partnerships with parents and carers 433–435
curriculum areas 427–428
echo reading 422
evidence 420
independent reading 425, 427
interest and background knowledge 423–424
neurological impress method 423
reading aloud to extend comprehension 424–425
scaffolding 428–429
supporting through parent education 431–435
texts for reluctant readers 427
struggling readers and writers
cognitive processing difficulties 414 differences from proficient students 415 factors contributing to difficulties 413–420 identifying during literacy events 420 instructional practices for 421–431 literacy in twenty-first century 435–437 motivation and boys in middle years 416–419 motivation and engagement 414–419 remedial programs 421
teachers’ and parents’ beliefs and attitudes 419–420 student knowledge and experience, connecting to literacy events 77–78 student-centred read aloud 84 student-led discussions 348–350 evaluator role in 349–350
suffices 266
Sulzby, E. 167
summative assessments 295–296 Sunderland-Smith, W. 261 survey, question, read, recite and review (SQR3) 403–404 sustainability 383
syllable juncture 269
symbolic codes 265
Symons, S. 416
word clouds 285
word families 214–216
word hunts 268
word knowledge 245
word lists 218
word mapping 399–400
word sorts 267
word study strategies 266–268
Wordle tool 285
words, learning in 61
Wright, G. 168
writer’s notebook 240
writer’s workshop 239
writing centres 154, 191–192 writing conferences 149, 151, 240–243, 263–264, 315 characteristics for 264 writing portfolios 317 writing process, different phases of 148 writing tool 183
writing, for beginning readers 239–240 written language 36, 51
Wyatt-Smith, C. 367
Y charts 227
Yamada-Rice, D. 81
Yokota, J. 209
Yopp, H. K. 392
Yopp, R. H. 392
Yopp-Singer Test of Phoneme Segmentation 319, 320
Zambo, D. 418
Zenger, A. A. 23
zone of actual development 139 zone of proximal development 139
Zutell, Jerry 270