Contents

The Rationale for a Book about Evidence Based Midwifery vii
Notes on the Contributors xiii
Acknowledgements xix

1. The Nature and Use of Evidence in Midwifery Care Jane Munro and Helen Spiby 1

2. The Development of Evidence Based Midwifery in the Netherlands The Journey from Midwifery Knowledge to Midwifery Research to Midwifery Standards of Practice Marianne P. Amelink-Verburg, Kathy C. Herschderfer, Pien M. Offerhaus and Simone E. Buitendijk 17

3. Vaginal Birth After Caesarean (VBAC) Is there a Link Between the VBAC Decline since the Second Half of the 1990s and Scientific Studies on the Risks of VBAC? Hélène Vadeboncoeur 38

4. Midwives and Maternity Services in Greece – Historical Context and Current Challenges Olga Arvanitidou 57

5. Reflections on Running an Evidence Course Denis Walsh 69

6. Evidence Based Practice and Problem Based Learning – a Natural Alliance? Fiona MacVane Phipps 81

7. Supervision of Midwifery and Evidence Based Practice Carol Paeglis 94
Contents

   Tina Lavender

9. Guidelines and the Consultant Midwife 123
   The Challenges of the Interdisciplinary Guideline Group
   Helen Shallow

10. Unpicking the Rhetoric of Midwifery Practice 137
    Marianne Mead

11. The Potential of Service User Groups to Support Evidence Based Midwifery 151
    Belinda Phipps and Gillian Fletcher

12. Evidence Based Midwifery 167
    Current Status and Future Priorities
    Helen Spiby and Jane Munro

Appendix Writing Midwifery Evidence 184
    Marlene Sinclair

Index 195