INDEX

Page references followed by fig indicate an illustration; followed by t indicate a table.

A
Aalborg University, 442
Abilene Christian University, 357
The Academic Deanship: Individual Careers and Institutional Roles (Richards and Bright), 70
Academic Leader (journal), 5–6, 7, 11
Academy for Academic Leadership, 8
Accounting: budget planning and, 411–424, 449–456; scenario analysis on strategic planning and, 449–456; sponsored research, 440–447
Administration: entering upper, 54–55, 66–73; interviewing candidates for, 182–186; obtaining another chair position, 51; recognizing that there can be many approaches to, 62; seeking another midlevel position, 52–53; self-assessing your motivation for moving into, 53; taking a dean position, 53–54
Administration candidate interviews: additional resources to help with, 185–186; conducting, 182–183; questions to ask during, 183–185
Administration preparation: assemble library of key resources as part of, 69–72; Fellows Program, 72; types of experience contributing to, 67–69
The Administrative Portfolio: A Practical Guide to Improved Administrative Performance and Personnel Decisions (Seldin and Higgerson), 70–71
Administrative training: role of mentors in, 64; for untenured department head, 38–39
Advancement staff, 426, 427
Aldrich, E. E., 426, 438
All for One or One for All? scenario: case study description of, 389–390; considerations for, 393–394; suggestions for, 394–396
Allegations Con Brio scenario: case study description of, 258–259; considerations for, 259–260; suggestions for, 262–263
Allen, M. J., 361
Ambrose, S. E., 314
American Association of Physics Teachers, 38
American Council on Education (ACE): Department Chair Online Resource Center sponsored by, 6; Fellows Program conducted by, 72
American Mathematical Society, 38
Anderson, V. J., 271
Angel, 139
Angelo, T. A., 135, 361
Anniversary theme, 125–126
Annual theme advantages: interaction between departments and colleagues, 131; leveraging courses, lectures, and events, 130; publicity, 130–131
Annual themes: advantages to using, 130–131; campuswide or institution-wide, 124; department tied into collegewide, 124–125; types and forms of, 125–127; various applications of the, 127–130
Annual themes applications: awards, 129; common readings, 128; course clusters, 130; first-year experiences, 129–130; grant applications, 129; lecture and discussion series, 128
Annual themes types: an anniversary, 125–126; a commemoration, 126; a festival, 127; a publication, 126; a topical focus, 127
Anthony, R., 278
The Archaeology of Knowledge (Foucault), 137
Assessment: conducting posttenure reviews, 380–387; conducting program reviews, 364–368; effective practice of, 352–361; mission, goals, and outcomes of, 354–358; resources available for student learning, 361; scenario analysis on evaluation and, 389–397; strategic planning role of, 403–404; of student learning outcomes, 358–361. See also Evaluation

Association of American Colleges and Universities, 373

Association of Fundraising Professionals, 67

Austen, J., 137

Austen Community College, 330

Autobiography (Franklin), 115

Awards–annual theme integration, 129

Bad behavior. See Behavior

Budget implementation: cost accounting at departmental level, 418–420; salary saving and other unexpended funds, 421–422; year-end expenditures and, 422–424

Budget planning: the basics of, 412–414; cost-benefit analysis role in, 115–118; description of, 411; principles guiding, 414–416; scenario analysis on strategic and, 449–456

Budget planning principles: differentiating one-year and continuous expenditures, 416; income and expenditure components of, 415–416; prioritize requests based on mission and plan, 415, 416; tie all requests to institution’s strategic plan, 414–415

Budgeting: carry-over funding and, 412; historical (or incremental), 412–413; performance-based, 413; responsibility-centered, 413; service-level, 413–414; zero-base, 412, 413

Building the Academic Deanship: Strategies for Success (Krahenbuhl), 70

Candidates: administrator, 182–186; faculty, 158–186, 290–292

C

California Polytechnic State University, 355, 361

Campus codes: based on core principles, 87; concise, easy to remember, and regularly used, 88; from general statements to specific guidance, 88; as inclusive and community building, 87–88; states as positive affirmations, 87
Career plans: become a dean, 53–54; enter upper administration, 54–55, 66–73; obtaining another chair position, 51; retire, 55–56; returning as faculty following chair position, 49–51, 58–64; seek another midlevel position, 52–53
CareerTrack, 330
Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, 6
Carry-over funding, 412
Case studies. See Scenario analysis
Caught in the Middle scenario: case study on, 145–146; considerations for, 149; suggestions for, 152–153
CD-ROM training: Academy for Academic Leadership, 8; Webinar recordings used for, 8
Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning, 132
Center for Innovations in Teaching and Learning, 132
Central Washington University, 360
Chairs. See Department chairs
Change: The Magazine of Higher Learning, 6
The Changing Nature of the Academic Deanship (Wolverton, Gmelch, Montez, and Nies), 70
Charitable lead trust, 437
Charitable remainder trust, 437–438
Chronic complainers: “helpful” type of, 233; “malcontent” type of, 233; “therapeutic” type of, 233
Chronic complaints: pervasiveness and pattern of, 231–232; strategies for resolving, 232–238; three types of “complainers,” 233
Chronic complaints resolution strategies: confront destructive behavior head-on, 233–234; declare department complaint-free zone, 238; declare grievance moratorium, 236–237; determining reason for negativity, 233; ensuring disruptive behavior is not reinforced, 236; establish boundaries for acceptable complaining, 237–238; making constructive department changes, 235–236; modeling behavior you want emulated, 232–233; provide opportunity to tackle “the problem,” 234–235; provide positive mentoring in constructive criticism, 221, 237
Chronicle of Higher Education (journal), 6, 11
Chu, D., 20
Churchill, W., 452
CICCHAIR-LIST (listserv), 7
Cipriano, R. E., 3, 4, 49
Clinics: creating virtual, 139; improving teaching through use of, 138–139; various functions of, 138
Coaching: faculty in writing effective résumés, 274–278; improving leadership skills through, 10–11; to increase faculty productivity, 211–213; resources for, 10–11. See also Faculty; Mentors/mentoring
Code of conduct, 219, 238
Cole, S., 160
Collaborative learning techniques, 313
Colleagues. See Faculty colleagues
The College Administrator’s Survival Guide (Gunsalus), 71
College Deans: Leading from Within (Wolverton and Gmelch), 70
Collegial departments: addressing breaches of collegiality in private, 220; confronting rumors and ancient history head-on for, 220–221; develop departmental code of conduct for, 219, 238; importance of promoting, 217–218; intervene in public breaches of collegiality, 219; landmark litigation cases on issue of, 217; maintain focus on benefits of collegiality for, 222; mentor in art of constructive criticism, 221; seek common ground to promote, 221; start dialogue on collegiality to promote, 218
Collegiality: addressing breaches of, 220; benefits of, 222; code of conduct supporting, 219; conducting department-wide dialogue on, 218; definition and description of, 218; impact on faculty by, 217–218
Commencement theme, 126
Common readings, 128
Communication: chronic complaining, 231–238; constructive criticism, 221, 233, 237; effective syllabus facilitation of, 304–305; expressing your concerns to former chair, 46; failure to listen when fundraising, 434–435; intradepartmental relations and one-on-one, 93. See also Oral evaluation sessions
Conflict: addressing staff, 240–245; overcoming personality disputes and, 247–256; passive-aggressive behavior, 224–229; Publish and Perish scenario on chair and chief academic officer, 392–393, 394, 396–397; staff, 240–245
Conflict of interest, A Textbook Example scenario on, 144–145, 148–149, 150–151
Conflict management: addressing staff conflicts, 240–245; coping with faculty passive-aggressive behavior, 224–229; developing skills for, 15–16; learn to “pick your battles,” 17; overcoming personality conflicts, 247–256; resolving chronic complaints, 231–238; scenario analysis on, 257–263; statement of principles guiding departmental politics and, 88–90. See also Conflict management; Department chair responsibilities; Politics; Scenario analysis
Connell, M. A., 217
Constructive criticism: offered by “helpful complainer,” 233; provide training in, 221, 237
Consultancies: improving leadership skills through, 10–11; resources for, 10–11
Consulting Psychologist Press, 27
Cost-benefit analysis: as departmental decision-making consideration, 115–117; limitations for decision making, 117–118; summer enrollment, 117
Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE), 67
Council of Independent Colleges (CIC) workshops, 7
Council for Resource Development, 67
Course clusters–annual theme integration, 130
Course rotations/schedules: considering perspective of all constituents for, 112; developing alliance with other key departments using, 111; don’t create competition problem, 108–109; including contingency plans when, 109–110; incorporating pedagogical needs and enrollment patterns, 111–112; reviewing rotations in context of student majors, 110–111; spread scheduling throughout the day, 110
Courses: creating effective syllabus for, 302–308; external program review of curriculum and, 372; faculty rotations/scheduling, 108–112; promoting creativity in teaching, 309–315; selecting appropriate metaphor, image, or structural principle for, 311
CourseWork, 139
Cowley, R., 314
Creative teaching: adopting collaborative learning in, 313–314; complete revision of course to promote, 310–311; consider assignments that include creativity component, 312; encouraging students to remain physically active, 314–315; using evaluation methods that encourage students to take risks, 311–312; modeled through course design, 310; providing departmental workshops on, 309–310; reflect on balancing control and flexibility in, 312; selecting metaphor, image, or structural principle for, 311; structuring course around specific problem or inquiry, 313; what-if assignments used for, 313
Crisis Leadership in Higher Education programs (Harvard University), 8
Crisis management: developing skills for, 15–16; learn to “pick your battles,” 17. See also Conflict management
Cropley, A. J., 309
Cross, K. P., 361
Cross, P., 135
Csikszentmihalyi, M., 309
Curriculum vitae: philosophy of teaching included in, 292–293; planned with assumption that it will be photocopied, 277; two questions to ask about faculty, 274–276; which convey as much information as quickly as possible, 276–277
D
Dana, D., 15
De Bono, E., 309
“Deadwood” faculty: coaching, 211–215; description of, 211
Dean and Provost (journal), 70
Deans: discussing former chair issues with your, 46–47; following chair term becoming a, 53–54
The Dean’s “Great News” scenario: case study of, 142–143; considerations for, 146; suggestions for, 149–150

Decision making: cost-benefit analysis considered for all, 115–117; faculty termination, 188–194; four stages of, 120; guidelines for best approach to, 120–122; issues and considerations for making departmental, 114–115; paradox of choice and distinguishing the best choice for, 118–120; supporting material needed for best faculty hiring, 162–164; untenured department chairs making controversial, 39–40. See also Scenario analysis

Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire (Gibbon), 313
The Decline of the West (Spengler), 137
Dees, Mayberry v., 217

Delegation: chairing large departments and issues of, 101–102; empowerment versus, 103; three cardinal rules to follow for, 102–103

Delphic doctrine of “Know thyself,” 26
DeLuca, M. J., 185

Department Chair Administrative Style Inventory, 29–32

Department chair mistakes: allowing new chair to make their own, 61; failing to remain active in scholarship, 50; fundraising, 431–436; not teaching sufficiently or broadly enough, 50–51

Department Chair Online Resource Center, 6

Department Chair (quarterly), 5, 6, 11

Department chair responsibilities: accounting for sponsored research, 440–447; coaching faculty to increase productivity, 211–215; creating departmental centers promoting teaching and learning excellence, 132–139; fundraising, 425–438; hiring faculty, 157–166, 196–201; interviewing faculty candidates, 176–186; making decisions, 39–40, 114–122; mentoring unfocused faculty members, 205–209; planning a budget, 411–416; promoting more collegial department, 217–222; role during the search process, 168–175; scenario analysis on management and politics, 142–153; setting annual themes, 124–131; setting course rotations and schedules, 108–112; terminating faculty, 188–194, 196–201. See also Conflict management

Department chairs: allowing them to set their own agenda, 61–62; coexisting with a former chair, 41–48; of large departments, 99–107; obtaining another chair position, 51; relationship between staff and, 240–241; self-assessment and self-knowledge of, 23–33; of small departments, 92–98; tasks and expectations of, 3; typical lack of preparation of, 3–4; untenured, 34–40. See also Former department chairs

Department chairs preparation: brush up on parliamentary procedures, 17; develop conflict management and resolution skills, 15–16; expand your view, 17–18; finding a mentor, 19; having a person to vent to, 19–20; learn about institutional technical operations, 14–15; learning by sharing, 11; pick your battles, 17; planning how to balance administrative with regular duties, 16; provided to untenured department chair, 38–39; remembering that “it isn’t personal,” 18–19; taking every opportunity to gain experience, 20–21; typical lack of, 3–4. See also Resources

Department Leadership Seminars (IDEA Center), 7

Department mission: budget planning process and role of, 415, 416; development of the, 354–356; external program review of, 374–375; strategic planning role of, 402–403, 404

Departmental centers: clinics supported through, 138–139; discussion groups formed as part of, 136–138; establishing, 132; exploring ways to expand existing, 132–133; including academic area methods of instruction in, 133–136; mentoring activities through, 138; technology and software applications to include in, 136

Departmental elections: chairing large departments and issues of, 106; practice of, 105–106
Departments: chair role in promoting more collegial, 217–222; chairing small, 92–98; code of conduct developed for, 219, 238; cost accounting at level of, 418–420; declared complaint-free zone, 238; developing student learning outcomes goals of, 356–358; engaging former chair’s energies beyond confines of, 45; establishing clear new initiative for, 43–44; fundraising support by, 429–430; generic example of designing goals for, 355; mission of, 354–356, 374–375; teaching creativity workshops offered by, 309–310

DeWaters, J. N., 271
Dhammapada, 26
Diels, H., 307
Dinitz, S., 137
DiSC Personal Profile, 27
Discussion groups: clinic form of, 138–139; departmental center support of, 136–138
Documentation: creating an effective course syllabus, 302–308; maintained throughout faculty termination process, 191–192; oral evaluation central message, 341; on unproductive faculty, 214–215
Donors: as fundraising team member, 428; investigating ties between institution and prospective, 427; Just Haggling over the Price scenario on, 451–452, 453, 456; types of contributions by, 436–438

E
eAppraisal (Halogen Software), 330
eCollege, 139
Edmonds, D., 331
Eidinow, J., 331
Employee unions, 241–242
Empowerment versus delegation, 103
Endowment, 437
The Entrepreneurial College President (Fisher and Koch), 71
The Essential Academic Dean: A Practical Guide to College Leadership (Buller), 69, 70
The Essential College Professor: A Practical Guide to an Academic Career (Buller), 69
Ethics: Aristotle on relationship of politics and, 85; campus codes on, 86–88; developing statement of principles, 88–90; Mansfield Creed (Mansfield University) on, 86–87; Socratic approach to, 46
Evaluation: conducting oral, 337–342; creating written, 327–334; functions of, 353; scenario analysis on assessment and, 389–397; writing letters of recommendation, 343–350. See also Assessment
Evaluations. See Faculty evaluations
Evan, W. J., 17
Ewell, P., 373
Expenditures: differentiating one-year and continuous, 416; year-end, 422–424
External program reviews: areas to include in, 372–376; common mistakes made in, 377–378; preparing for, 371–372; results of the, 376–377

F
Faculty: behavior expectations for, 227; chair mentoring of, 205–209; comparing staff and, 240–241; conducting posttenure reviews of, 380–387; coping with passive-aggressive behavior by, 224–229; external program review of FTE, 373–374; first-year experience of, 267–273; as fundraising team member, 428; post-chair return as part of, 49–51; resolving chronic complaints by, 231–238; returning to the, 49–51, 58–64; sabbaticals of, 390–396; unproductive (or “deadwood”), 211–215; writing effective résumés, 274–278; writing letters of recommendation, 343–350; written evaluation of, 327–334. See also Coaching; Mentors/mentoring
Faculty candidate interviews: additional resources to help with, 185–186; areas of caution and to avoid during, 181–182; avoiding “to take a look,” 171; conducting the, 176–178; evaluating candidate responses, 181; questions to ask during, 178–180; three scheduling mistakes made with, 172–174; videoconferencing, 180–181; what to focus on during, 171–172
Faculty candidates: chair’s role in the search process for, 168–175; important materials which should be requested of, 164; objective evaluation of teaching abilities of, 290–292; writing job
Faculty colleagues: addressing staff conflicts between, 240–245; annual themes as increasing interaction between, 131; first-year programs to facilitate networks among, 271–272; overcoming personality conflicts between, 247–256; rebuilding relationships with, 58–61

Faculty development: coaching in writing effective résumés, 274–278; on creating effective course syllabus, 302–308; on creating effective plan for, 279–289; on creating effective teaching portfolio, 290–301; distinguishing first-year experience programs from, 268–269; facilitating positive first-year experience, 267–273; promoting creativity in teaching and learning, 309–315; scenario analysis on, 317–323

Faculty development plan: issues to consider for, 279–280; for junior faculty: creating tenure and promotion, 280–284; for midcareer faculty members, 284–287; for senior faculty members, 287–288

Faculty first-year experience program: benefits of a strong, 267–268; building institutional literacy through, 272; use a connected topic as theme to guide, 271; create a highly participatory and useful, 272–273; distinguishing faculty development from, 268–269; facilitating networks among faculty members through, 271–272; include both group and individual activities, 270–271; organized along the lines of what they need to know, 269–270

Faculty Focus, 7

Faculty hiring: chair’s role in the search process, 168–175; interviewing candidates, 176–186; scenario analysis on firing and, 196–201; writing job descriptions, 157–164; writing position announcements, 164–166

Faculty job descriptions: important materials rarely requested in, 164; not describing types of employee really needed in error in, 158–161; not including right information about position error, 161–162; not requesting supporting materials used in making best decision, 162–164

Faculty teaching: clinics used to improve, 138–139; departmental centers promotion of, 132–139; effective strategies used for, 134–135; objective evaluation of, 290–292; promoting creativity in, 309–315; statement on philosophy of, 292–293. See also Teaching portfolios

Faculty teaching strategies: creating an effective course syllabus, 302–308; departmental centers support of, 133–136; game show, 135; inside/outside circles, 134; the muddiest point, 135; send a problem, 134; using teaching portfolios, 290–301; top ten list, 135

Faculty termination: act sooner rather than later for, 189–191; be humane but honest during, 193; don’t reveal more than necessary during, 192–193; engaging in as many conversations as needed during, 188; get advice and support for, 188–189; have a witness present whenever possible, 191; maintain good documentation throughout the, 191–192; posttenure review discussion of alternative exit strategies for, 385–386; read and follow institutional internal procedures, 191; scenario analysis on hiring and, 196–201

Falcone, P., 186, 194, 330
Fawcett, S., 350
Fellows Program (American Council on Education), 72
Festival theme, 127
Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), 419
Firing. See Faculty termination
First Among Equals: The Role of the Chief Academic Officer (Martin and Samuels), 71

First-year experiences: annual theme integration with student, 129–130; facilitating positive faculty, 267–273; student success and role of, 267

Fisher, J., 71
Fleischer, C. H., 194
Fliotsos, A. L., 137
Fogg, P., 217

Former department chairs: acting as mentors, 62–64; advantages of availability of, 41; consulting with dean or provost in case of problems with, 46–47; establishing a clear new initiative
Former department chairs (Continued)
differentiating from, 43–44; finding new outlet for energies of, 45; focusing on actual behavior and problems created by, 44–45; generational issues as causing problems with, 42–43; letting it go, 61–62; problems that may occur with, 41–42; rebuilding your bridges, 59; reestablish your identity, 60–61; remembering to have empathy for, 47–48; repay your dues, 60; stating your concerns directly to the, 46. See also Department chairs

Forsyth, D. R., 137
Foucault, M., 137
Franklin, B., 115
“Free Reports” (Faculty Focus), 7
Freed, J. E., 361
Friedberg, S., 137
Friends and Lovers scenario: case study description of, 76–77; considerations for, 78–79; suggestions for, 80–81

FTE faculty. See Faculty
Fulwiler, T., 137

Fundraising: effectiveness of the personal touch for, 428–429; five mistakes and how to avoid them when, 431–436; glossary of terms related to, 436–438; having the proper attitude toward, 430–431; importance of careful preparation for, 425–427; Just Haggling over the Price scenario on, 451–452, 453, 456; significance of strong departmental support of, 429–430; U.S. Internal Revenue Code and accounting standards used for, 437; value of teamwork for, 427–428

Fundraising mistakes: failing to consider all options, 433–434; failing to do your homework, 432–433; failure to follow through, 435–436; failure to listen carefully, 434–435; not being a team player, 431–432

Fundraising preparation: case statement guiding, 426; investigating ties between prospective donor and institution, 427; professional support from advancement staff, 426, 427

Fundraising team: advancement officers, 427–428; faculty member as part of, 428; other donors as part of, 428; students as part of, 428

G
Gaff, J., 373
Game show instruction strategy, 135
Geckeis, C. K., 278
George Mason University, 360
Gift agreement, 437
Gift-in-kind, 437
Glasick, C. E., 50
Gmelch, W. H., 20, 49, 70
Gollidge, R. G., 118
Gollnick, D. M., 330
Gondola, J., 314
Goss, L. S., 137
Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB), 419
Grant applications, 129
Gravity’s Rainbow (Pynchon), 137
Gray, H. H., 71
The Great Compression scenario: case study description of, 317; considerations for, 319–320; suggestions for, 321–322
Grievance moratorium, 236–237
Griggs, R. A., 137
Gunsalus, C. K., 71

H
Halogen Software, 330
Harvard University’s Management Development Program, 8
Heathfield, S., 330
Hebl, M. R., 137
Hecht, I.W.D., 20
Heldref Publications, 6
Helen Dwight Reid Educational Foundation, 6
Helland, P., 50
“Helpful complainer,” 233
Hesburgh, Father T., 71
Higerson, M. L., 20, 46, 70, 71
Higher administrative positions: assemble library of key resources to prepare for, 69–72; board view required for, 66; composite advertisement outlining requirements for, 67–69; Fellows Program preparation for, 72; fundraising experience required for, 67; as retiring chair career path, 54–55
Hiring. See Faculty hiring
Historical budgeting, 412–413
Honemann, D. H., 17
Horowitz, A. S., 194
Horton, D., 24
How Academic Leadership Works: Understanding Success and Failure in the College Presidency (Birnbaum), 71
HRTools, 330
Huba, M. E., 361
Huber, M. T., 50
Human resources, 241–242
Hurston, Z. N., 137
Hyle, A. E., 71
IDEA Center: Chair Coaching Service, 11; consultant list maintained by, 10–11; Feedback for Department Chairs instrument provided by, 11; IDEA papers and resources of, 7
IDEA papers, 7
The Idea of the University (Newman), 126
Incremental budgeting, 412–413
Inside/outside circles instruction strategy, 134
Institutional literacy, 272
Institutional policies: campuswide codes and, 87–88; on course syllabus, 308; criteria for written evaluations, 329; posttenure reviews, 380; staff conflict and role of, 241–242
Institutions: campus codes of, 87–88; creating departmental centers for teaching and learning at, 132–139; learn about technical operations of, 14–15; mission of, 402–403, 404fg; statement of principles built from mission and identity of, 89; strategic planning by, 401–409; untenured department chair challenges and solutions related to, 34–40; vision of, 403, 404fg
Instruction. See Faculty teaching strategies
Internal program reviews: indicators of centrality to mission used for, 368; indicators of quality to use for, 367; indicators of viability to use for, 367–368; making your case during, 369–371; qualitative indicators to use for, 367; quantitative indicators to use for, 366–367; what information to gather for, 365–366
Interviews: additional resources on, 185–186; administration candidates, 182–185; faculty candidates, 172–174, 176–182; three common scheduling mistakes, 172–174
Israel, M., 233
Iyengar, S., 119
Iz, University of Baltimore v., 217
J
Jackson, A. L., 278
Jacksonville State University, 330
Job descriptions. See Faculty job descriptions
Johnson, N., 226
Jones, L., 160
Jossey-Bass: Department Chair quarterly published by, 5, 6, 11; Webinar recordings available through, 8
The Jossey-Bass Academic Administrator’s Guide to Exemplary Leadership (Kouzes and Posner), 71
Jossey-Bass survey (2009), 4
Journal of Higher Education, 70
Joyce, T. A., 46
Jung, C., 26
Junior faculty development plan, 280–284
Just Haggling over the Price scenario: case study description of, 451–452; considerations for, 453; suggestions for, 454–456
K
K-State Academic Chairperson’s Conference, 7–8, 11
Kansas State University, 7, 361
Kazantzakis, N., 307
Keirsey Temperament Sorter, 27
Kelly, R. A., 350
Key performance indicators (KPI), 413
Klee, T., 226
Knobloch, M. A., 278
“Know thyself” (Delphic doctrine), 26
Koch, J., 71
Kouzes, J. M., 71
Krahenbuhl, G. S., 70
L
La Rochefoucauld, F. de, 248
Large departments: being hired from the outside to chair, 104–105; delegation issues of chairing, 101–103; departmental elections of chair of, 105–106; line authority issues of chairing, 100–101; special challenges of chairing, 99–100; workload issues of chairing, 103–104
Lawrence, F. L., 71
Lead trust, 437
Leadership: Theory and Practice (Northouse), 9
Leadership and Controversy: Presidential Perspectives (McLaughlin), 71
Leadership in Higher Education: Views from the Presidency (Lawrence), 71
Leadership style: allowing new chair to develop their own, 61; Department Chair Administrative Style Inventory to assess, 29–32
Leadership training: resources on, 9–10; workshops on, 7–9
Learning, D. R., 9
Lecture and discussion series, 128
Letters of recommendation: determining the strength of the recommendation in, 344; including the basis for recommendation, 345–346; inclusion of examples of the three points, 348; providing new insights for the readers, 348–349; questions to ask prior to drafting, 343–344; three central points to convey in, 347; two final principles to remember for, 349–350
Levin, R., 194
Lieberman, D. J., 226
Line authority: chairing large departments and issues of, 100–101; department heads versus chairs distinguished by, 100
Lloyd, K. L., 231
Lochrie, J., 17
Loose Cannon Wars scenario: case study of, 196–197; considerations for, 197–198; suggestions for, 198–200
Luca, B.M.D., 15
Lucas, A. F., 20
Lucky, W. T., 50
Lyster, S., 330
M
McCabe, E.R.B., 186
McCabe, L. L., 186
McCurdy, D. W., 137
McDaniel, T. R., 231
McDaniels, C., 278
Machiavelli, N., 137
McKeachie, W. J., 271
McLaughlin, J. B., 71
Madsen, S. R., 71
Maeroff, G. I., 50
Magna Publications: Academic Leader published by, 5–6, 11; Faculty Focus service by, 7; Webinar recordings available through, 8
“Malcontent complainer,” 233
Mamchak, P. S., 350
Mamchak, S. R., 350
Management Development Program (Harvard University), 8
Mansfield Creed (Mansfield University), 86–87
Margulies, P., 330
Marston, W. M., 27
Martin, J., 71
Max, D., 330
Mayberry v. Dees, 217
Mayer, B. S., 15
Medford, G. S., 137
Mediation, 253
Mentors/mentoring: administrative training role of, 64; in art of constructive criticism, 221, 237; benefits of department chair, 10; chair preparation by finding a, 19; characteristics of the best, 10; coping with faculty passive-aggressive behavior through, 224–229; departmental centers services related to, 138; former chairs acting as, 62–64; learning by sharing, 11; overcoming personality conflicts through, 247–256; principles to keep in mind as, 63–64; resolving chronic complaints through, 231–238; scenario analysis on, 257–263; of unfocused faculty by chair, 205–209; unproductive faculty assigned to a peer, 213. See also Coaching; Faculty
Midcareer faculty development plan, 284–287
Midlevel positions: after chair position ends seeking another, 52–53; seeking opportunities for, 52–53
The Midyear Budget Cut scenario: case study description of, 450; considerations for, 452–453; suggestions for, 454–455
Miller, E., 301
Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI), 27–28
Miskin, V. D., 20
Mission: budget planning process and role of, 415, 416; development of the department, 354–356; external program review of department, 374–375; strategic planning role of institution, 402–403, 404
Mistakes: allowing new chair to make their own, 61; failing to remain active in scholarship as chair, 50; fundraising, 431–436; not teaching sufficiently or broadly enough as chair, 50–51
Montana State University, 313
Montez, J., 70
Moodle, 139
Moody, J., 160
Moore, G. E., 330–331
Motivation: five top factors of, 214; public recognition as, 214; unproductive faculty and search for, 212
The muddiest point instruction strategy, 135
Myers, I. B., 26
Myers-Briggs type Indicator (MBTI), 26–27
N
National Center for Geographic Information and Analysis, 361
National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education, 330
National Science Teachers Association, 137
Neal, J. E., 330
Newman, J. H., 126
Nies, C. T., 70
No Good Deed Goes Unpunished scenario: case study on, 143–144; considerations for, 147–148; suggestions for, 150–151
Northouse, P., 9
Nussbaum, M., 137
O
The Office Dilemma scenario: case study description of, 257–258; considerations for, 259; suggestions for, 260–262
Old Blindsides scenario: case study description of, 77–78; considerations for, 79–80; suggestions for, 81–82
On Becoming a Woman Leader: Learning from the Experiences of University Presidents (Madsen), 71
Online Chronicle forum, 6
Oral evaluation sessions: be aware of subtext during, 341; be looking forward as well as reviewing past performance, 341; don’t mix meetings, 340; end by reiterating central message of, 341–342; keep good and timely records on, 337–338; prepare carefully for each, 338; provide specific examples during, 340; provide written record of central message of, 341; repeat and clarify your message during, 341; set specific standards as part of the, 340–341; stating the result to begin the, 338–339; take your time in face-to-face, 339–340. See also Communication
Outside chair hires, 104–105
P
Pace University, 292
Padilla, A., 71
Paradox of choice, 118–120
Passive-aggressive coping strategies: provide choice and set behavior standards, 227–228; require updates and progress reports, 228; set goals and timetables for change, 226–227
Passive-aggressive faculty: characteristics of, 224–225; strategies for coping with, 225–228; your role as chair for dealing with, 228–229
Past Practice Versus the Strategic Plan scenario: case study description on, 449–450; considerations for, 452; suggestions for, 454
Peer mentors, 213
Performance Appraisal Solutions (CareerTrack), 330
Performance-based budgeting, 413
Personal assessment: Department Chair Administrative Style Inventory, 29–32; questions to ask when conducting, 28–29
Personality conflict action plan: step 1: gather information, 248–249; step 2: pick your battles carefully, 249–250; step 3: prepare a clear action plan for intervention, 250–251; step 4: make your purpose precise and clear, 251–252; step 5: hold follow-up sessions, 252
Personality conflict resolution: action plan for, 248–252; using mediation for, 253; receivership used for, 254; seeking common ground to smooth over dispute, 221; training for, 253–254
Personality conflicts: problems related to, 247; resolving, 221, 247–256; when more than two faculty members are involved, 253–254; when you as chair are party to, 254–255
Personality inventories: advantages and limitations of using, 28; DiSC Personal Profile tool for, 27; Keirsey Temperament Sorter tool for, 27; Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI), 27–28; Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) tool for, 26–27
Philosophical Investigations (Wittgenstein), 137
Philosophy of teaching, 292–293
Plato, 126
Platonicity (inadequate model beliefs), 118
POD (Professional Organizational Development Notes), 7
Policy. See Institutional policies
Politics: Aristotle on relationship of ethics and, 85; campus codes to frame ethical approach to, 86–88; developing statement of principles to guide, 88–90; scenario analysis on management and, 142–153. See also Conflict management; Scenario analysis
Portraits in Leadership: Six Extraordinary University Presidents (Padilla), 71
Position descriptions: decisions on context of, 164–165; guidelines for writing, 165; template to use for writing, 166
Posner, B. Z., 71
Posttenure reviews: conducting formal, 386–387; differing institutional policies on, 380; discussing alternative exit strategies when needed, 385–386; four possible conclusions of, 382–385; penalties and rewards as part of, 387; preliminary review of materials, 380–386
Princeton University, 447
Productivity: coaching faculty member to increase, 211–215; faculty member’s response to term of, 215
Promotion: decision based on faculty member’s achievement, 284; faculty development plan for, 280–284
Provosts, 46–47
Publication theme, 126
Publish and Perish scenario: case study description of, 392–393; considerations for, 394; suggestions for, 396–397
Pynchon, T., 137
R
Rai, K., 118
Rasch, K., 330
Reacting to the Past series (Barnard College), 314
Receivership, 253
Recognition/rewards: increasing productivity of faculty through, 214; posttenure reviews and use of, 387
Recommendation letters. See Letters of recommendation
Remainder trust, 437–438
Repa, B. K., 194
Republic (Plato), 126
Research. See Sponsored research
Resources: assemble library of administration, 69–72; assessment, 361; candidate interview, 185–186; consultancies and coaching, 10–11; key for administrators, 69–72; leadership training, 9–10; mentors, 10; publications, 5–6; staff conflict management, 245; value to department chairs, 4–5; Web-based materials, 6–7; workshops, 7–9, 308, 309–310. See also Department chair preparation
Responsibility-centered budgeting, 413
Rumors, 220–221
Russo, J. E., 120, 121
Riccaboni, R., 3, 4, 49
Rice, P. C., 137
Richards, M. P., 70
Robert, H. M., 17
Robert’s Rules of Order, 17
Roe, G., 278
Rosse, J. G., 194
Rosso, H. A., 438
Rumors, 220–221
Russo, J. E., 120, 121
INDEX

S
Saaty, T. L., 118
Sabbaticals, 390–396
Samuels, J. E., 71
San Jose State University, 361
Savage, F. G., 217
Scenario analysis topics: on faculty development, 317–323; on faculty evaluation and assessment, 389–397; on hiring and firing faculty, 196–201; how to improve your administrative skills using, 75–76; on management and politics, 142–153; on mentoring challenges, 257–263; on strategic budgeting and planning, 449–456
Schoemaker, P., 120, 121
Schwartz, B., 119
Scott, G. G., 231
Search committees: avoiding common interviewing errors made by, 172–174; chair role in clarifying the search process, 171–172; chair role in keeping focus of, 159, 169–171; interviewing administration candidates, 182–186; interviewing faculty candidates, 176–182
Seiler, T. L., 426, 438
Seldin, P., 37, 70, 71, 292, 301
Self-assessment: Department Chair Administrative Style Inventory, 29–32; path to self-knowledge through, 26; questions to use for, 24–25; trip metaphor used for, 24, 25–26; two principles used for, 25; understanding your leadership style through, 33
Self-knowledge: leadership style, 33; path leading to, 26; personal assessment approach to, 28–32; personality inventories approach to, 26–28
Send a problem instruction problem, 134
Senior faculty development plan, 287–288
Service-level budgeting, 413–414
Sheffield University, 442–443
Showalter, E., 137
Small department interdepartmental relations: become an early adopter, 97–98; highlight your unique mission or methodology, 97; use data to your advantage, 96–97
Small department intradepartmental relations: chair challenges related to, 92–93; communicate one-on-one to improve, 93; create alliances, 94; meet formally to improve, 94; offer exchanges, 95–96; seek support, 95
Small departments: interdepartmental relations issues of, 96–98; intradepartmental relations issues of, 92–96; special challenges of chairing, 92
Smith, D. G., 160
Smith, R. V., 9
Socrates, 26
Socratic ethics, 46
Sophocles, 137
Spengler, O., 137
Sponsored research: activities related to, 440; description of, 440; formal research strategy to fund, 441–443; grants and contracts form of, 441; postaward concerns, 445–447; preaward concerns, 443–445
Staff: chair relationship with, 240–241; comparing faculty and, 240–241; definition of, 240; external program review of, 374; fundraising support by advancement, 426, 427
Staff conflict: guidelines for when you must intervene, 242–245; resources to use for managing, 245; role of HR, unions, and institutional policies in, 241–242

Statement of principles: built from institution mission and identity, 89; providing positive directions for the future, 89–90; reflecting constituencies and audience of, 90; when to consider having a formal, 88–89

Steinberg, H., 315

Strategic planning: assessment and closing the loop through, 408–409; assessment role in, 403–404; strategic to tactical plans using, 406–408; definition of institutional, 401; moving from strategic to tactical plans using, 406–408; process of, 404; SWOT analysis used in, 404–406; unique characteristics of, 401–402; what chairs need to know about, 402–404

Student enrollment: cost-benefit analysis of summer, 117; information on summer, 116; teaching portfolios inclusion of data on, 297–298

Student learning: acknowledging outside classroom, 299–300; adopting collaborative techniques for, 313; assessing outcomes of, 358–361; developing departmental goals for, 356–358; external program review of achievement and, 372–373; promoting creative teaching for, 309–315

Students: acknowledging outside classroom instruction of, 299–300; encouraging them to remain physically active, 314–315; as fundraising team member, 428; GPA (cumulative grade point average) of, 348–349; hypothetical course attendance policy for, 303–304; quoting teaching evaluation comments made by, 299; teaching portfolio inclusion of employment and/or graduate experience, 298–299; teaching portfolios inclusion of academic achievement of, 298; teaching portfolios inclusion rating by, 293–296; writing letters of recommendation for, 343–350

Sugeno, M., 118

Summer enrollment: cost-benefit analysis on, 117; information on, 116

Svinicki, M., 271

Swan, W. S., 330

SWOT analysis: departmental planning use of, 405–406; illustrative diagram of, 405–fig; strategic planning role of, 404–406

Syllabus: conveying the right tone and information, 302–303; divided into variety of documents, 306–307; effective communication of essential information, 304–305; hypothetical course attendance policy included in, 303–304; institutional policies on, 308; instructor’s personality conveyed in a, 307; list of required items for an effective, 306; workshops on design and construction of, 308

Suskie, L. A., 361

Tagg, J., 6

Taleb, N., 118

Technical operations: learn about your institution’s, 14–15; videoconferencing faculty candidate interviews, 180–181

Technical Symposium on Computer Science Education, 39

Technology: department center’s use of, 136; videoconferencing faculty candidate interviews, 180–181; virtual clinics, 139; written evaluations tools, 330. See also Web-based resources

Tempel, E. R., 438

Tenure: conducting posttenure reviews of faculty, 380–387; decision based on faculty member’s potential, 284; faculty development plan for, 280–284
Terano, T., 118
Terk, N., 330
Termination. See Faculty termination
A Textbook Example scenario: case study on, 144–145; considerations for, 148–149; suggestions for, 150–151
Thales of Miletus, 26
“Therapeutic complainer,” 233
Time logs, 207
Top ten list instruction strategy, 135
Topchik, G. S., 226, 231
Topical focus theme, 127
Transfers in a Tight Budget scenario: case study description of, 450–451; considerations for, 453; suggestions for, 455–456
Trapp, A., 137
Trust building, 58–61
Trust donations: definition of, 438; lead (or charitable lead trust), 437; remainder (charitable remainder trust), 437–438
Tucker, A., 20
Tuckman, B. W., 314
Turner, C.S.V., 160
Twale, D. J., 15

U
Unfocused faculty: characteristics of, 205–206; helping them to change their attitude, 209; helping them to not overcommit, 206–207; helping them track use of time, 207; how to use to-do lists with, 208; leveraging mentoring time spent with, 208; setting goals and deadlines for, 206; setting time limits for certain tasks, 207–208; when to use time logs with, 207
Unions, 241–242
University of Baltimore v. Iz, 217
University of Chicago, 71
University of Florida, 447
University of Minnesota, 27
University of Nebraska-Lincoln, 330
University of North Carolina, 447
University of Notre Dame, 71
University of Western Australia, 361
Unproductive faculty: assign a peer mentor to, 213; be clear about their responsibilities and priorities, 212–213; determining the cause of, 211–212; keep paper trail on, 214–215; look for possible sources of pride and motivation, 212; provide public recognition, 214; remove any obstacles that you can, 213–214
Untenured department chairs: administrative training provided to, 38–39; conducting conversations about challenges facing, 37–38; increasing number of, 34; institutional challenges faced by, 34–37; interim solutions to challenges facing, 37–40; making controversial decisions, 39–40
Upheavals of Thought (Nussbaum), 137
Upper administration. See Higher administrative positions
Upton, D., 137

V
Virtual clinics, 139
Vision: budget planning process and role of, 416; definition of institutional, 403; external program review of department mission and, 374–375; strategic planning role of, 404

W
Walvoord, B.E.F., 20, 271, 361
Wartburg College, 360
Web-based resources: CICCHAIR-LIST listserv for department chairs, 7; Department Chair Online Resource Center, 6; Faculty Focus, 7; IDEA Center, 7; online Chronicle forum, 6. See also Technology
Weber, M., 233
Webinars: Academy for Academic Leadership, 8; description and considerations for using, 8–9
Weeks, D., 15
Weiss, D. H., 194
Wergin, J. P., 9
Whalley, S., 350
What-if assignments, 314
Wheeler, D. W., 9
Wiley, C., 214
Willis, M., 330
Wittgenstein, L., 137
Wolf, L. E., 160
Wolverton, M., 70, 71
Women at the Top: What Women University and College Presidents Say About Effective Leadership (Wolverton, Bower, and Hyle), 71–72
Wonder Woman (graphic novel character), 27
Workload balance, 103–104
Workshop resources: Academy for Academic Leadership, 8; Council of Independent Colleges (CIC), 7; on design and construction of syllabus, 308; Harvard University’s Management Development Program, 8; IDEA Center’s Department Leadership Seminars, 7; IDEA papers, 7; K-State Academic Chairperson’s Conference, 7–8, 11; POD (Professional Organizational Development Notes), 7; providing creative teaching, 309–310
Wright, B., 373

Written evaluations: chair role in, 327–328; IDEA Center standardized systems for, 334; questions to ask after drafting, 332–334; questions to ask before beginning, 330–332; questions to set stage for, 328–330; taking opportunity to set future goals, 333

Y
Yager, R. R., 118
Year-end expenditures, 422–424

Z
Zero-base budgeting, 412, 413
Zimmerman, D. P., 17