INDEX

Page references followed by fi indicate an illustrated figure; followed by t indicate a table.

A
- Accountable Government Initiative (2010), 81–82
- Accountable Government Initiative memo (2010) [OMB], 87f
- Adopter-nonadopter gap, 68
- Age differences: as barrier to reusing public information, 228–229; Generation Next expectations, 227; in Internet use (2000–2010), 43f; SeeClickFix defusing of digital divide, 167–168
- Agencies. See Government agencies
- Aggregation of preferences, 241
- Ahn, Y.-Y., 134
- Aitoro, J. R., 15, 34, 205
- Allen, T., 22
- Alpha geeks, 47
- Amazon.com, 47, 48
- Amber Alerts, 149
- America COMPETES Act [2011], 87t
- American political system: “checks and balances” in design of, 56; citizen mistrust in the, 55f–56; federalism organization of, 56; systemic challenges to social media inherent in the, 56–57
- Anand, V., 181, 182
- Andersen, K., 232
- Anderson, C., 52
- Anderson, N., 192
- Andrus, D. C., 194, 195
- Anonymous (hacker group), 239
- Apple’s iTunes, 10
- Apps for America, 34, 234
- Apps for Communities, 214
- Apps for Democracy, 34, 178, 214, 234–235
- Arab Spring, 10, 226, 232
- A-Space, 183–184, 185, 186
- Associated Press, 68
- Atlanta Bicycling Coalition, 165

B
- Baird, D. E., 240
- Barcamps (or unconferences), 35, 201, 224
- Behavioral social media drivers: changes in news and information consumption behavior, 44–46; increased social awareness among government officials, 40–42, 43–44; motivations for using social networking sites, 42f; reflecting desire to create content, 39; strength of weak ties supporting social media, 40, 41f
- Behn, R. D., 61
- Beizer, D., 65
- Benkler, Y., 38, 48, 49, 57
- Berkowitz, B., 153, 155, 156, 159, 161, 162, 163–164, 165, 168, 171, 172
- Bertot, J. C., 76
- Best Buy, 97
- Best Buy’s Twitter-based customer service, 118
BetterBuy Wiki project, 115, 191/1
Bidirectional (real-time) exchanges: description of, 14; Government 2.0 tools allowing, 34
Big government fear, 230
Bing Health Maps, 220, 221
Binz-Scharf, M., 4, 61, 240
Blanchard, H., 201
Blau, P., 181
Bloggers: description of, 21; Disney’s CEO embracing “mommy,” 97
Blogging services, 21
Blogs: content sharing on, 21–22; FBI’s Facebook News Blog, 17; iCommandant blog, 22; Intellipedia platform of Intellink, 197; “TooManyWebsites.gov” post, 54; TSA’s responsiveness cycle posted on their, 133; WordPress, 21, 201
Blue Button project (VA), 82
Boase, J., 134
Borgatti, S. P., 181
Boston Globe online, 164, 166
Boyd, D. M., 12, 46
Brabham, D., 51
Breadcrumb concept, 196
Breitneider, S. I., 27, 56, 75, 134, 148
Brewer, J., 201
Brewin, B., 67
Brin, S., 48
Broadband access, 227–228
BroadbandVT.org, 177
Brock, C., 192
Budgetary barriers, 229
Bughin, J., 59
Burke, D., 196
Byers, A. H., 59

C
Calabresi, M., 194
Canadian government: GCConnex, 186, 191t, 198–200
GCPedia, 186, 191t, 198–200
Carpenier, C. A., 9
Carr, D., 60, 131
Castillo, C., 65
Center for Citizen Engagement and New Media (GSA), 92
Center for Excellence in Digital Government (GSA), 90, 238
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC): Klout scores and information on, 136, 138t; pull strategy used by, 114; recalled products bottom of, 128; social media campaign to inform the public, 130, 236–237; 2009 Flu Prevention PSA Contest by, 178
Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), 184
Challenge.gov, 83, 176, 177t, 223
Chang, A.-M., 188
Chen, H., 240
Chesbrough, H. W., 173
Chile earthquake responses, 202
Chui, M., 39
static, 29/fg. “governance through gardening” principle of creating, 196; multilingual inclusiveness of wiki, 205–206; open source and open, 49; peer produced, 47–48; power-law distribution authorship of, 189; Presidential Records Act (1978) on official, 78; rolling documents of wiki, 192; social networking services to co-create, 14; Tag/Connect for tagging, 197; wiki, 84, 115, 118–190, 150; Wikipedia, 47, 188–190. See also Wikis

Cookies: OMB on measuring impact using, 130; tweeting policy on using, 130/fg

“Coolness” factor, 226–227

Copyleft license, 49

Copyright law, 49

Dean, H., 9

Creswell, A. M., 46, 63, 180, 229, 234

Cresswell, A. M., 46, 63, 180, 229, 234

CrimeReports.com, 34–35

CrisisCommons wiki, 35, 191t, 201–202, 203/fg

Cross, R., 181, 182

Cross, R., 181, 182

Crowdsourcing: challenges to designing, 176–177; description and process of, 50–52, 84; Harford County’s innovative portal for, 175/fg local, state, and federal open innovation platforms for, 177/fg low costs driving use of, 224–225; opening government up to ideas from, 175–174

Cyber security, 239, 240

D

Data. See Government data

data.gov.uk, 225

data.gov.uk, 225

Dawes, S. S., 46, 63, 65, 180, 229, 234

Dean, H., 9

Decision making: bottom-up experimentation with social media applications, 64/fg e-government projects, 63/fg Participation 2.0 technologies to include citizens in, 150–152; social media use challenges related to, 62–63/fg deck, F. P., 46, 50

Defense Authorization Bill (2008), 193

Defense Technical Information Center, 194

deloitte, 131

demil, B., 181

Democracy: Apps for Democracy to facilitate, 34, 214, 234–235; developing distributed democracy efforts of, 148–149

Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Blue Button project, 82

DeRosa, A., 10

Dickover, N., 201

digg.com, 48

Digital divide: among government organizations, 239–240; as barrier to reusing public information, 228–229; Generation Next expectations and, 227; Internet use (2000–2010), 43/fg; SeeClickFix defusing the, 167–168

Digital literacy/illiteracy, 68, 206

Digital neighborhoods, 148–149

DigitalGov University, 93

Diplopedia (U.S. Department of State), 183, 185, 191t, 192–193/fg

Distributed democracy efforts, 148–149

Dodds, P. S., 13

DoDTechipedia (DOD), 183, 191t, 193–194, 195/fg

dowley, T., 33

dunn, B., 97

dutta, B., 97

E

Educational and informational apps, 219–221/fg

Eggers, W., 33, 181

E-government: differences between social media and applications of, 27–33; employing blogs as part of, 21–22/fg existing ways of measuring ROI of, 123–124; future development in, 232–242; Open Government Initiative on, 7, 51–52, 58, 75–88, 224, 225, 234; overview differences between Government 2.0 and, 36/fg; overview of differences between Government 2.0 and, 35–36/fg; photo sharing via Flickr, 4, 25–26/fg; Twitter and Facebook adopted as part of, 17/fg–18/fg, 19–21; YouTube accounts by individual agencies, 25. See also Government; Government 2.0 movement; Public sector E-Government Act (2002), 73, 85/fg

E-government websites: Data.gov, 212–224; directionality of information sharing on, 30/fg; example of typical, 28/fg; IT Dashboard tracking performance/expenses of, 54, 76, 77/fg 82, 83/fg providing for social technology interactions on a, 31/fg providing static content on, 29/fg; “TooManyWebsites.gov” blog post on, 54; TSA (Transportation Security Administration) blog post, 32/fg–33; U.S. Department of Defense, 30/fg–31; USA.gov, 27, 28/fg, 217, 218/fg, 219. See also Communications media

Election Night: A Candidate Behind the Scenes, 26/fg

eLLison, N. B., 12, 46

Empowering citizens, 151–152; Encyclopaedia Britannica, 189

Engagement tactic: description of the, 117–119; Klout score as based on, 141; pull strategy example of tweet for, 119/fg; SeeClickFix to engage citizens, 34, 35, 150, 152–172, 221/fg, 222/fg, 223t, 224, 226, 229

English, R., 49

eNtner, R., 227

E-services tactic, 120–121

Estlering, K., 4, 41

Evangelists (marketers), 194

Eventbrite (CrisisCommons tool), 201

Executive Order 13166, 206
Facebook: agency representation on, 115–116; Arab Spring movement organized through, 232; Barack Obama’s groups on, 39; CrisisCommons group on, 201; economic driver of, 52; EPA’s commenting policy for, 95–96, 105, 111–112/fig, 113/fig Facebook Insights tool for corporate accounts, 125; informing citizens through, 149–150; John McCain’s groups on, 39; metrics used to measure impact of, 124–125; networking via, 15–28; newsfeed feature of, 44–45; not covered by OMB memorandum (2004), 74; protest of Time magazine’s Person of the Year (2011) on, 232; SeeClickFix reporting process using, 157/fig–158; social awareness of government officials regarding, 41; strength of weak ties supporting, 40; U.S. Department of State Facebook Terms of Service, 106–111; White House use of, 10. See also Communication media

Facebook Insights, 125
Facebook pages: CDC spread of information via their, 237; Congressional committee, 44; FBI’s, 18/fig FBI’s News Blog, 17/fig

Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI): A-Space developed by, 183–184, 185, 186; Facebook News Blog of, 17/fig–18; Facebook page of the, 18/fig

Federal Communications Commission (FCC), 130–131/fig, 228

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), 132/fig–133

Federal Records Act, 82

Federalism, 56

FedSpace (GSA), 185–186

Feedback: FDIC’s website after incorporating user, 132/fig–133; government not designed to provide instant, 57; social media metrics to access citizen, 125–126; technological social media driver of instant, 46–47; TSA and responsiveness cycle to, 133; Virginia Idea Forum website to solicit, 151–152. See also Citizens; Collaboration; Government data

Fesler, J. W., 56

Find a Health Center app, 219–220/fig

Fisher, M., 240

FixMyStreet (UK), 150, 155

Flickr: anecdotes on using, 26; photo sharing via, 25–26; used during 2008 presidential campaign, 4, 25–26/fig; White House account on, 25

Floyd, P., 30

Flu Trends (Google), 235

Fodor, M., 129

ForeSee, 67

Fountain, J. E., 38, 58, 181

FourSquare, 230

Fractionalization of groups, 240

Free (or libre) software, 49

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 7, 65, 211, 230, 234

Fretwell, L., 40, 168

Friedman, B., 21

Fu, T., 240

Future of Melbourne wiki, 191/fig
Intellectual property rights, 239
Intelligence Community: A-Space of the, 183–184, 197; Galileo award of, 195; Office of the Director of National Intelligence, 65; shifting from “need-to-know” to “need-to-share” culture, 197
Intellipedia, 185, 191, 194–198
Interactions. See Social technology interactions Internet: age differences (2000–2010) in use of, 43; news sources and information consumption using the, 44–46. See also Social technologies iPhone apps. See Mobile apps
Isabella, L. A., 182
Isett, K., 134
IT Dashboard: tracking government spending on IT, 54, 82; tracking performance of government agencies, 76, 77; visual clarity of the, 83
iVideo (video sharing), 197
Jaeger, P. T., 76
Janelle, R., 200
Johnson, J., 45
Joinson, A. N., 46
Jordan, M., 39
Journal of Public Affairs Education, 5
Justice, N., 65
K
Kamensz, A., 168
Kanan, P. K., 188
Kennedy, D., 170
Kennedy School of Government (Harvard University), 4
Kettl, D. F., 56, 211
Kirlin, J. J., 61
Klout: description of, 135–136; examples of scores from, 136–141; NASA’s Klout score, 137; score based on engagement, 141
Knowledge: breadcrumb concept of allowing deep, 196; hierarchical acquisition of, 183; research on informational benefits of seeking, 181–182; vertical and horizontal levels of, 182; wikis used for sharing distributed, 184
See also Information
Krackhardt, D., 182
Kram, K. E., 182
Krishnamurthy, B., 33, 49, 50, 148
Kundra, V., 72–73, 229
L
Lai, C.-H., 134
Lakhani, K. R., 50
Lawlor, M., 194
Lazer, D., 4, 41, 44, 61, 134, 240, 241
Lecocq, X., 181
Legal challenges: multilingual inclusiveness of content, 205–206; public sector use of wikis, 205–206; social media barrier of, 69–70
Lemann, S., 134
Leighninger, M., 149
Lerner, J., 71
Leroux, K., 134
Lessig, L., 49
Levy, J., 105
Library of Congress, 78, 79; 219
Liikanen, J., 47
Limited English Proficiency, 206
Lin, P., 65
LinkedIn: U.S. Navy policy for Navy personnel, 97
White House use of, 10
Lipowicz, A., 44
Literacy: digital literacy/illiteracy issue of, 68, 206; establishing in writing, 237–258
Losey, J., 228
Love Lewisham (UK), 150
Lukensmeyer, C. J., 51, 152
M
Madden, M., 226
Management of Federal Information Resources (Circular A-130 Revised) memo, 85
Manor Labs (Texas), 34, 177, 191
Manz, C. C., 181
Marines, See U.S. Marine Corps
Marks, J., 44
Massey, L. L., 207
MAX Federal Community, 186
Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs (Syracuse University), 5
McCain, J., 39
McCarthy, C., 52
McChure, D. L., 83
McHugh, J.A.M., 49, 50
McNeal, R., 38
Media. See Social media
MediaWiki software, 192
MeetUp, 9
Meinrath, S., 228
Melitski, J., 123
Mello, J. P., Jr., 239
Microblogging: description of, 18; Twitter used for, 18–21
Microsoft, 52, 291
Mischen, P., 134
Mislove, A., 134
Mission: fitting social media guidelines with organizational, 99–100; how social media use may support an agency’s, 134–135; importance of informing public about agency’s, 38
Mission statements: of government agencies, 60;
Mobile apps: access government information, 218; Apps for America, 34, 234; Apps for Communities, 214; Apps for Democracy, 34, 178, 214, 234–235; Apps Showcase on Data.gov, 216; Bing Health Maps, 220, 221; Challenge.gov platform for, 83, 176, 177, 223;
Citizens Connect, 150; Data.gov, 212–221; Data.gov list of, 215; educational and informational, 219–221; federal initiative for, 223; Find a Health Center app, 219–220; FlyOnTime, 215, 216; 217; Health 2.0 initiative to create, 217, 218; increasing cell phone and smartphone diffusion driving, 225; low usage of, 228; NASA Visualization Explorer app, 219; Open311, 214; privacy concerns related to, 230; transactional, 222; 224; Utah’s iPhone and iPad applications, 220–221; See also Communications media; Reusing public information; Smartphones;
Social media tools
“Mommy bloggers,” 97
Moon, M. J., 55, 123, 232
Morozov, E., 68
Morrisson, E. W., 181, 182
Mossberger, K., 29, 38, 123
Motwani, R., 48
Movable Type, 21
Multilingual inclusiveness, 205–206
MuniGov2.0, 34, 73
MySpace: economic driver of, 52; government agency representation on, 115; music and fan base of, 11; not covered by OMB memorandum (2004), 74; user content of, 48
MyTweet311, 34

N
Naaman, M., 134
Nabatchi, T., 58, 152
Nagesh, G., 237
Nanaka, I., 181
Narayanan, A., 13, 29, 100
NASA: Idea Central, 177; Klout scores of, 137; 140; Spacebook, 185, 186; Visualization Explorer app, 219; National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), 76, 82, 250
National Association of State Chief Information Officers (NASCIO), 76
National Center for Digital Government, 4
National Public Radio (NPR), 179, 201
National Security Agency, 184
Nature (journal), 189
Navy Command Social Media Handbook, 96
Nehlo, M., 4, 41
Need-to-know mentality, 64, 197, 229–230, 234
Need-to-share mentality, 64, 197, 229–230, 234
Networking tactics: description of, 114–115; embracing the opportunities of, 119–120
New Haven (Connecticut), 153, 159
New York Times, The, 44, 155
Newman, M.E.J., 13
News sources: changed information consumption and, 44–46; Digg.com and Slashdot.com, 48; Facebook and Twitter newsfeed features, 44–45; trends in individual’s sources of, 45; Twitter as parallel publishing stream, 19
Nextgov.com, 44
9/11 terror attacks, 182, 234
Ning platform, 187
Noisy idiots (trolls), 209
Noveck, B., 180
Noves, K., 240
NYC Simplicity, 174, 177

O
Obama, B.: call for a more collaborative government by, 188; calling for innovation, 226–227; commitment to government openness by, 230; Open Government Initiative of, 7, 51–52, 58, 75–88, 224, 225, 234; promoting use of new technologies, 8; social media used during 2008 presidential campaign of, 9, 25–26; Transparency and Open Government memo (2009) sent out by, 10, 58, 74–75, 85; 224, 225, 231
Office of Citizen Services, 76
Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs (OMB), 78–79
Office of Innovation Technology (GSA), 82–88
Office of Science and Technology Policy (OSTP) [The White House], 125–126
Office of the Director of National Intelligence, 65
Oliphant, J., 238
OMB memorandum (2004), 73–74
Online records management, 239
O'Neill, J.-P., 134
Open Government (2009 to present): Accountable government, 48
Onnell, J.-P., 134
Organizational institution building: Center for Citizen Engagement and New Media organization chart, 92/fg; GSA’s web content site on HowTo.gov, 93/fg; information-ef ting processes for, 98; organizational responsibilities for, 94; personal responsibilities for, 95–97/fg; process required for, 92–94; social media director for “ringmaster,” 94–95
Parallel publishing stream, 19
Participation: “architecture of,” 63; in the Government 2.0 movement, 35; Open Government Initiative focus on, 7, 51–52, 57, 76, 78, 82, 224, 225, 226; SeeClickFix to engage citizens, 34, 55, 150, 152–172, 221/fg, 222/fg, 223/fg, 224, 226, 229; social technologies used to enable civic, 3. See also Citizens; Collaboration; Social technology interactions
Palfrey, J., 39, 47
Paperwork Reduction Act (1995), 85t
Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) [2010], 79, 80
PeopleFinder, 51
Peer production, 47–48
PeopleFnder, 51
Peters, C. S., 100
Plain Language Act (2010), 87
PlainWriting.gov, 84
Policies for Federal Agency Public Websites memo (2004), 85t
Pold, W. W., 181
Power-law distribution authorship, 189
Presidential campaign (2008), Flickr use during Obama’s, 4, 25–26fg
Presidential Records Act (1978), 76, 78
Price, C., 76
Privacy concerns: as barrier to public information, 230; complexity of government, 240; recent cyber attacks and, 239; wikis and related, 206
Program on Networked Governance, 4
Public affairs shop, 98
Public sector: barriers to use of social media in the, 54–70; examining the drivers for social media in the, 37–53; features of social technologies used in the, 12–14; Government 2.0 movement impact on the, 33–35; major social networking services used in the, 14–26fg; regulations and directives for social media use by the, 71–88; slow adoption of innovations by the, 229; social
Parker, A., 181, 182
Pardo, T. A., 46, 63, 180, 229, 234
Parise, S., 100
Pawl, M., 55
Peer production, 47–48
PeopleFnder, 51
Peters, C. S., 100
Pew Internet & American Life Project, 40, 43, 47, 226
Pew Research Center for the People & the Press, 7, 55, 124, 226
Pew Research Center’s Project for Excellence in Journalism, 44, 60
Phillips, M., 76, 78
Photo sharing: CIA Flickr, 197; Flickr used for, 25–26; Gallery, 197; in 2008 presidential campaign, 4, 25–26fg
Plain Writing Act (2010), 87t, 237
PlainLanguage.gov, 84
PlainLanguageAct (2010), 87
Policies for Federal Agency Public Websites memo (2004), 85t
Pold, W. W., 181
Power-law distribution authorship, 189
Presidential campaign (2008), Flickr use during Obama’s, 4, 25–26fg
Presidential Records Act (1978), 76, 78
Price, C., 76
Privacy concerns: as barrier to public information, 230; complexity of government, 240; recent cyber attacks and, 239; wikis and related, 206
Program on Networked Governance, 4
Public affairs shop, 98
Public sector: barriers to use of social media in the, 54–70; examining the drivers for social media in the, 37–53; features of social technologies used in the, 12–14; Government 2.0 movement impact on the, 33–35; major social networking services used in the, 14–26fg; regulations and directives for social media use by the, 71–88; slow adoption of innovations by the, 229; social
PageRank technology, 48
Page, L., 48
PageRank technology, 48
Page, L., 48
PageRank technology, 48
media terminology used by the, 9–12; wiki use in the, 190–210. See also E-government; Government
Pull strategy, description of, 114
Purcell, K., 55
Push strategy: description of, 114; White House tweet as example of, 117

R
Rainie, L., 19
Random Hacks of Kindness, 201
Ranie, L., 55
Rasmussen, C., 196
Real-time analytical tools, 125–126
Real-time exchanges. See Bidirectional (real-time) exchanges
“Recommended Policies and Guidelines for Federal Public Websites” (2004), 73
Recker, G., 58
Rehabilitation Act (Section 508), 205, 228–229
Representation tactic: description of, 115–116; push strategy example of tweet as, 117
Responsible and Effective Use of Internet-Based Capabilities (2010) [DOD], 86
Ressler, S., 187
Retweets: information shared through, 66; social media metrics used to increase quality of, 127–129; symbol used for, 20
Reusing public information: barriers to, 227–230; best practices for mobile applications for, 217–224; by civic hackers, 212; Data.gov used for, 214–224; drivers for, 224–227; educational and informational applications of, 219–229; public sector information reuse initiatives for, 223; public sector initiatives for, 223; transactional applications, 222; U.S. Department of Human and Health Services (HHS) initiative for, 217. See also Information; Mobile apps
Rice, C., 185
Rice, R. E., 182
Richmond (Virginia), 160–162
Richele, D., 50
Rittel, H. W., 38
Rocheleau, B., 122
Rolling documents, 192
Rosenquist, J. N., 134
RSS aggregator, 21
RSS (Real Simple Syndication) feed, 21
RT (retweet), 20

S
Sanford, J., 3, 66
Schellong, A., 120
Schweik, C. M., 3, 49, 62, 66, 181
Scott, W. R., 181
Section 508 (Rehabilitation Act), 205, 228–229
Security issues, 239, 240
SeeClickFix (SCF): alerting citizen needs function of, 153–154; barriers to adopting SeeClickFix, 170–171; black box reporting process of, 154; business model of, 161–162; City of Richmond issue statistics from, 161; consulting and engaging citizens with, 34, 35, 150, 222; costs of, 229; description of, 152–153, 223; dissemination channels, 164–165, 166; drivers of success, 165, 167–168; flowchart of Google Map mashup, 154; future outlook of, 172; innovation and ability to change characteristics of, 226; inspiration for the project and comparable services, 155; issues reported by zip code, 156–157; measuring success of a start-up initiative, 171–172; mobile phone used for reporting process, 158; number of users and reported issues, 162–163; pricing system, 162; reporting process on Facebook, 157; RichmondGov’s Citizens’ Request Page, 160; role of government in the reporting process, 158–160; SeeClickFix access through an elected official’s website, 169; State of Utah’s iPhone and iPad applications for, 221; top-performing cities in citizen responsiveness, 164; user profile, 163–164; Watch Area defined by zip code, 153, 155
“Serious leisure,” 49
Shea, C. M., 27
Shmatikov, V., 13, 29, 100
Siesfeld, T., 55
Simon, H., 181
Simon, M., 149
Slack capacity, 46
Slashdot.com, 48
Slotnick, D., 155
Smartphones: diffusion and affordability of, 227; low use of applications available on, 228; open data movement driven by use of, 225; social networking sites driven by, 225–226. See also Mobile apps
Smith, A., 42
Smith, T., 192
Smithsonian, 219
Smuts, R., 159–160
Social awareness stream, 13
Social graph, 13
Social media: barriers to public sector use of, 54–70; defining the terminology related to, 9–12; differences between e-government applications and, 27–33; Federal Communications Commission (FCC) experiment with, 130–131; filling the trust gap, 67; future development in government use of, 232–242; long tail of tools of, 52; original entertainment purpose of, 11–12; Twitter used as parallel publishing stream, 19; understanding the transformational impact of, 124–127; used to increase government efficiencies, 4; “wicked problem” of public sector use of, 38–39. See also Communication media
Social Media, Web-Based Interactive Technologies and the Paperwork Reduction Act memo (2010), 80, 86
Social media barriers: American political system as, 56–57; financial and lack of trust as, 54–56; future development in social technologies to overcome, 232–242; informational challenges as, 63–67; legal challenges as, 69–70; organizational and cultural challenges as, 58–63; technological challenges as, 67–69

Social media policies: defining the audience as part of developing, 100–101; designing social technology policy and strategy as part of, 112; EPA's commenting policy for Facebook, 95–96, 105, 111–112; fitting with existing organizational mission and norms, 99–100; implementing daily routines and account administration, 104–105, 111–112; questions to use for developing, 99; selecting tools as part of developing, 102–104

Social Media in the Public Sector blog, 5

Social media metrics: capturing citizen data to improve operations, 133–135; changing web practices and procedures as proxy impact indicators, 131–141; current state of impact measurement, 129–131; demonstrating the value through, 122–123; existing ways of measuring e-government ROI, 123–124; goals, success metrics, tools, and outcomes of, 143; how social media directors collect and use, 125–127; how social media use may support an agency's mission, 135; increasing quality of comments and retweets using, 127–129; Klout scores for federal Twitter accounts, 135–141; real-time analytical tools for, 125–126; recommendations for social media directors on using, 141–142; for understanding the transformational impact of tools, 124–127

Social Media Navigator, 90

Social media policies: acceptable use criteria of, 72; building organizational institutions issue of, 92; designing strategy and, 114; E-Government Act (2002), 73, 85; examining the roots of, 72–73; formal guidance and institutionalization issue of, 89–92; guidelines for, 99–105; OMB memorandum (2004), 73–74; Open Government Initiative on, 7, 51–52, 58, 75–88, 224, 225, 234; overview of guiding regulations/directives for, 85–87; "Recommended Policies and Guidelines for Federal Public Websites" (2004), 73; Transparency and Open Government memo (2009) on, 10, 58, 74–75, 85, 224, 225, 231; tweeting the cookie policy, 130; U.S. State Department’s Facebook Terms of Service Agreement, 106–111. See also Social technologies

Social media tactics: designing policy, strategy, and, 114; engagement, 117–119; networking strategy, 114–115, 119–120; pull strategy, 114, 119; push strategy, 114, 117; representation, 115–116; transactions and e-services, 120–121

Social media tools: Apps.gov platform providing instructions on, 102, 103; metrics for measuring value of, 122–143; understanding the transformational impact of, 124–127. See also Mobile apps

Social network applications: corporate and government use of, 10; how the town hall divide can be bridged by, 12; networking via Facebook, 15–18; Presidential Records Act (1978) governing, 76, 78; slack capacity within society for using, 46; turning weak ties into resources for, 12–13

Social networking services: bidirectional (real-time) exchanges of, 14; co-creation of content using, 14; consequences of social search for government, 14; government terms of service (ToS) agreements with, 76, 86; GovLoop.com platform for, 4, 34, 73, 115, 187; research on use of, 12–13; social graph of, 13

Social networking sites: introduction to blogs, 21–22; introduction to Facebook, 15–18; introduction to Flickr, 25–26; introduction to Twitter, 18–21; introduction to YouTube, 22–25; MeetUp, 9; motivations for using, 42; reusing public information driven by increased use of, 225–226; strong and weak ties in, 40, 41. See also specific site

Social technologies: challenges related to adaptation of, 239; decreased costs for public investments in, 233; defining terminology related to, 912; examining how collaboration is supported by, 3, 235–236; examining how transparency is supported by, 3, 235; features of, 12–14; future development in government, 232–242; regulations and directives for using, 71–88; three reasons for adopting, 3, 7; volatility of information increased by, 238. See also Internet; Social media policies

Social technology interactions: different communication media and richness of, 69; providing for a government website, 31. See also Participation

Soong, R., 13

Sorenson, J. A., 65

Spacebook (NASA), 185, 186

Spener, P., 95

Stanton, K. J., 19

Starbucks’ My Starbucks Idea (Twelpforce), 118

State Department of Land and Natural Resources (Hawaii), 149

Statfor (government contractor), 239

Stebbins, R. A., 49

Stepanov, A., 62

Stern, A., 226

Stoneman, P., 47

Stowers, G.N.L., 122, 123

A Strategy for American Innovation (2009), 85

Sulzberger, A. O., Jr., 10

Sunlight Foundation, 234

Surowiecki, J., 48, 51, 66
Sutter, J., 68, 240
SWAG ("stuff we all get"), 62
Syracuse University (New York), 5

T
Tag/Connect, 197
Takeuchi, H., 181
Technological social media drivers: crowdsourcing, 50–52, 84, 173–177, 224–225; direct and quick feedback cycles as, 46–47; open source and open content, 49; peer production, 47–48; user-centered innovation, 49–50
Terdiman, D., 189
Terms of service (ToS) agreements: description of, 76, 84; introduction to discussion of GSA’s procedures for, 102/fg; for public sector wikis, 205; set up by GSA with social networking services, 15, 33–34, 76, 91; U.S. Department of State Facebook, 106–111
Thee-Brenan, M., 55
Thoms, S., 240
Thottam, G., 60
Time magazine’s Person of the Year (2011), 232
Tirel, J., 71
Timms, R. M., 127
Toivanen, O., 47
Tolbert, C. J., 29, 38, 123
“TooManyWebsites.gov” blog post, 54
Torres, L. H., 51, 152
Town hall divide: description of, 7; how social media
Torres, L. H., 51, 152
Town hall divide: description of, 7; how social media applications can bridge the, 12
Transcational applications, 222/fg, 224
Transactions tactic, 120–121
Transformational diplomacy, 185
Transforming Washington’s Budget, 177
Transparency: Open Government Initiative focus on, 7, 51–52, 58, 75–88, 224, 225, 224; social technologies used to increase, 3, 235; Transparancy and Open Government memo (2009) mandating, 10, 58, 74–75, 85t, 224, 225, 231
Transparency and Open Government memo (2009), 10, 58, 74–75, 85t, 224, 225, 231
Transparency 2.0: barriers to reusing public information, 227–230; best practices for mobile applications reusing public information, 217, 219–224; Data.gov for, 212–217, 218/fg description of, 211–212; drivers for reusing public information, 224–227; future challenges facing, 250–251; as priority goal for open government activities, 7
Transportation Security Administration (TSA):
“Hooray Bloggers!” blog post of, 32/fg–33; mission statement of the, 100/fg; responsiveness cycle to feedback by, 133
Trkman, M., 188
Trkman, P., 188
Trolls (noisy idiots), 200
Trust: citizen lack of trust in government, 55/fg, 66–67; how social media can fill the “trust gap,” 67
TSA (Transportation Security Administration) blog post, 32/fg–33
Tweets: description of, 19; on policy on the use of cookies, 130/fg; White House tweet as example of push strategy, 117/fg
Twitter: agency representation on, 115–116; Amber Alerts issued by, 149; Arab Spring and role of, 10, 226, 232; Best Buy’s CEO’s use of, 97; hashtag (#) and RT (retweet) symbols used on, 20; information informally shared through, 66; informing citizens through, 149–150; Library of Congress acquirement of entire archive of, 78, 79/fg; London riots and response role of, 226; Macon Phillips, White House Director of New Media profile on, 78/fg; members and activity of, 19; microblogging using, 18–21; newsfeed feature of, 43; parallel publishing stream use of, 19; social structures and routines of using, 20; Starbucks and Best Buy’s use of, 118. See also Communication media
Twitter accounts: CDC spread of information via their, 237; congressional committee, 44; CrisisCommons, 201; Klout scores for federal, 135–141; metrics used to measure impact of, 124–125; The White House, 10
2009 Flu Prevention PSA Contest (CDC), 178

U
United Kingdom: data.gov.uk, 225; FixMyStreet project in, 151, 155; Love Lewisham project in, 150; Virtual Ward Panels (Westminster City Council), 131
URL shorteners, 68
U.S. Army, 65
U.S. Coast Guard: CG-LIMS acquisition wiki, 207;
Commandant: Web Journal of Admiral Thad Allen, 22/fg
U.S. Constitution, 56
U.S. Department of Defense (DOD): DoDTechipedia of, 183, 191t, 193–194, 195/fg; Policy on Responsible Use of Internet Capabilities, 96/fg; Responsible and Effective Use of Internet-Based Capabilities (2010), 86t; website of, 30/fg–31
U.S. Department of Education, 136, 138t
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS): Bing Health Maps, 220, 221/fg; Find a Health Center app from, 219–220/fg; Health 2.0 initiative to create mobile apps by, 217, 218/fg; Klout scores on, 136, 138t; on reaching citizens through social technologies, 226; reusing public information initiative by, 217
U.S. Department of State, 65, 201; Diplopedia of, 183, 185, 191t, 192–193/fg; Facebook Terms of Service of the, 106–111
U.S. Department of Treasury, 136, 138t
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA): employee platform providing instructions on social media tools, 102, 103/fg; Center for Citizen Engagement and New Media organization chart, 92/fg; Center for Excellence in Digital Government of, 90, 238; Center for New Media and Citizen Engagement established by, 83; Challenge.gov open innovation platform of, 83, 176, 177; weblogs; FedSpace mandate of, 185–186; introduction to discussion of ToS agreements by, 102; Office of Innovative Technology, 82–88; on Social Media Navigator, 90; terms of use agreements with social networking services by, 15, 33–34, 76, 91, 205; ToS (terms of service) agreement undertaken by, 76, 86; USA.gov run by, 27, 28, 217, 218, 219; web content site on HowTo.gov, 93
Index

U.S. Marine Corps: Klout scores and information on, 138; policy on LinkedIn for Navy personnel, 97; U.S. Navy: Social Media Handbook for Navy PAOs, 96; “when in doubt, leave it out” guideline of, 98

U.S. Postal Service (USPS), 10–11

USA.gov: mobile apps available on, 217, 218, 219; screenshot of, 27, 28

User-centered innovation, 49–50

Utah: public sector information reuse initiative in, 223; Utah Professional License Lookup, 220, 221; State Park Field Guide, 220; Web 2.0-style state portal of, 240

V

VA2i2: Veterans Affairs Innovation Initiative, 177;
Veen, C. V., 151
Veterans Administration (VA), 21
Veteritti, J. P., 58
Virginia Idea Forum website, 151–152
Virtual Ward Panels (Westminster City Council), 151
von Hippel, E., 50
von Krogh, G., 50

W

Wales, J., 188
Washington Post’s social sharing service, 12
Wasik, B., 232
WatchArea (SeeClickFix), 153
Watershed Central wiki (EPA), 191
Watts, D. J., 13, 31
Web 1.0 tools, 148
Web 2.0: defining the terminology related to, 9–12; definition of, 11; examples of, 148; Government 2.0 movements and applications of, 33–35; original entertainment purpose of, 11–12
Web Content Managers Forum, 133
Web logs. See Blogs
Webber, M. M., 38
Websites. See E-government websites
Weinberg, B. D., 100
Wells, L., 65
West, D. M., 123

The White House: customer feedback used to improve agencies, 120; on number of government websites, 54; Office of Science and Technology Policy (OSTP) of, 125–126; Open Government Directive by the, 75–76; push strategy example of tweet by, 117; social media applications used by the, 10; YouTube channel of, 10, 23, 24

White House Office of New Media, 90
“The Wiki and the Blog” (Andrus), 195
Wiki public sector issues: digital literacy/illiteracy, 68, 206; information accuracy, 207; legal aspects, 205–206; multilingual inclusiveness, 205–206; privacy, 206
WikiLeaks, 229–230
Wikipedia, 47, 188–190
Wikiplanning project (San Jose), 151, 191; 202–205
Wikis: BetterBuy Wiki project, 115, 191; Canada’s GCConnex, 186, 191; 198–200; Canada’s GCPedia, 186, 191; 198–200; as collaborative 2.0 platforms, 188–190; Crisis Commons, 35, 191; 201–202, 203; Diplopedia (U.S. State Department), 183, 185, 191; 192–193; distributed knowledge sharing using, 184; DoDTechpedia (DOD), 183, 191; 193–194; 195; incentivizing participation in a collaborative, 207–210; Intellipedia, 185, 191; 194–198; Manor Labs (Texas), 34, 177; 191; online content creation using, 150; Open Government Initiative, 84; public sector use of, 190–210; rolling documents of, 192; U.S. Coast Guard’s CG-LIMS acquisition, 207; Wikipedia, 47, 188–190; Wikiplanning project (San Jose), 151, 191; 202–205. See also Content; Information

Wildstrom, S., 68, 240
Wilson, H. J., 100
Winograd, T., 48
“Wisdom of crowds,” 66
Wisdom of Crowds, The (Surowiecki), 51
Wolf, G., 9
Wolf, R. G., 50
WordPress, 21, 201
World Bank: climate data visualization on website of, 236; Open Data Initiative, 235; Random Hacks of Kindness role of, 201
Wouters, W. G., 198
Writing literacy, 237–238
Wylie, S., 65
WYSIWYG (“what you see is what you get”) principle, 188–189

Y

Yahoo, 201
YouTube: Arab Spring and role of, 232; Congressman Mike Honda channel, 24; embracing the opportunities of using, 120; video sharing via, 22–25; viewers and use of, 23; White House channel, 10, 23, 24

Z

Zeleny, J., 55
Zhao, J., 3, 66
Zickuhr, K., 226
Ziniel, C., 4, 41