CONTENTS

EDITOR’S NOTES
Arthur J. Schwartz

1. Inspiring and Equipping Students to Be Ethical Leaders
Arthur J. Schwartz
This chapter describes the behaviors of the ethical leader and the reasons why student leaders do not always act ethically.

2. Building Moral Strength: Bridging the Moral Judgment–Action Gap
Patrick J. Sweeney, Matthew W. Imboden, Sean T. Hannah
The different motivational forces that enable students to act on their moral judgments are explored in this chapter.

3. Learning About Ethical Leadership Through the Giving Voice to Values Curriculum
Mary C. Gentile
This chapter explores how one approach to integrating ethics and leadership has been used in educational settings across the globe.

4. At What Age Should We Begin Developing Ethical Leaders?
Marin Burton, Christopher A. Ward, Colleen Ramsden
A partnership between the Center for Creative Leadership and an independent school has been established to intentionally develop the citizen-leadership skills of students from pre-K through the 12th grade.

5. When Leading With Integrity Goes Well: Integrating the Mind, Body, and Heart
Nance Lucas
This chapter explores why the practice of mindfulness is critical to making ethical decisions.

Jon C. Dalton
This chapter examines why leaders sometimes fail to live up to their own ethical standards by offering a personal example.
The similarities and differences between various models and measures of ethical leadership are examined in this chapter.