Contents

Preface vii
List of Contributors viii

Part I Introduction 1

1. The Act of Remembering the Past: An Overview 3
   John H. Mace
2. From Diaries to Brain Scans: Methodological Developments in the Investigation of Autobiographical Memory 11
   Christopher T. Ball

Part II Theories and Reviews of Involuntary and Voluntary Remembering 41

3. Involuntary Remembering and Voluntary Remembering: How Different Are They? 43
   John H. Mace
4. Accessing Autobiographical Memories 56
   Martin A. Conway and Catherine Loveday
5. Involuntary and Voluntary Memory Sequencing Phenomena: An Interesting Puzzle for the Study of Autobiographical Memory Organization and Retrieval 71
   Jennifer M. Talarico and John H. Mace
6. Spontaneous Remembering is the Norm: What Integrative Models Tell Us About Human Consciousness and Memory 83
   Stan Franklin and Bernard J. Baars
7. Priming, Automatic Recollection, and Control of Retrieval: Toward an Integrative Retrieval Architecture 111
   Alan Richardson-Klavehn

Part III Broader Issues in the Science of Remembering 181

8. Understanding Autobiographical Remembering from a Spreading Activation Perspective 183
   John H. Mace
Contents

9 Retrieval Inhibition in Autobiographical Memory 202
   Bernhard Pastötter and Karl-Heinz T. Bäuml
10 Seeing Where We’re At: A Review of Visual Perspective and Memory Retrieval 228
   Heather J. Rice
11 The Emergence of Recollection: How We Learn to Recall Ourselves in the Past 259
   Robyn Fivush and Patricia J. Bauer
12 You Get What You Need: The Psychosocial Functions of Remembering 284
   Susan Bluck, Nicole Alea, and Burcu Demiray

Part IV Theories of Abnormal Remembering 309

13 Exploring Involuntary Recall in Posttraumatic Stress Disorder from an Information Processing Perspective: Intrusive Images of Trauma 311
   Julie Krans, Marcella L. Woud, Gérard Näring, Eni S. Becker, and Emily A. Holmes
14 Unwanted Traumatic Intrusions: The Role of Pre-trauma Individual Differences in Executive Control 337
   Johan Verwoerd and Ineke Wessel
15 The Content, Nature, and Persistence of Intrusive Memories in Depression 361
   Alishia D. Williams and Michelle L. Moulds

Author Index 385
Subject Index 399