© 2011 Blackwell Publishing Ltd. Published 2011 by Blackwell Publishing Ltd.

Index

Page numbers in italics denote figures and tables.

The Abortion Act, 49
adolescent care
  attitudes, young people
    Child Poverty Action Group, 101
  ephiebiphobia, 101
  ethical issues and dilemmas, practitioners, 102
  health issues, 102
  media, 101
  policy, 102–3
Connexions Direct, 101
health, 100
phases, 100
pressure groups, champions and young people voice
  education, 106–7
  information source, 103
  11 MILLION, 103
  participation, 105–6
  protection, 104–5
  provision, 104
  reflection, 107
  rights, 104
Social Exclusion Unit, 101 transition patterns, 101 aiming high for disabled children (AHDC), 91, 94, 96 assessment, children and young people ADHD, 116
  approach, 115–16
  core and specific skills, 116
  developmental child’s function, 117
    factors, 117
family needs
  parental interview, 117 strengths and barriers, 117 fluid and dynamic process, 116
information
  nursing aim, 117
  presenting concerns, family, 116–17
NICE guidelines, 116
attention-deficit hyperactive disorder (ADHD), 116, 117
attitudes, young people
  Child Poverty Action Group, 101
  ephiebiphobia, 101
  ethical issues and dilemmas, practitioners, 102
health issues
  diabetes and asthma, 102
  direct engagement, clinical services, 102 dramatic strides, 102
media, 101
policy
  Every Child Matters, 103
  NSF, 103
  social investment strategy, 102 autonomy, school-aged children
beneficence
  description, 70
  sex education, 70
  unintended pregnancy, 71
confidentiality
  advice, 72
  drop in services, 72
  trust and duty of confidence, 72
definition, 70
disclosure/sharing information, 72
informed consent
developmental stages, 72–3 Gillick competent, 73
HPV vaccination programme, 73–4
Lord Fraser’s guidance, 73 vaccine programmes, 73 written information, 74
justice
Bichard inquiry, 71
Sexual Offences Act 2003, 71–2
non-maleficence, 71
school nurse, 70
beneficence
autonomy, school-aged children
description, 70
sex education, 70
unintended pregnancy, 71
children’s pain, paediatric nurses management ethical management, 161
fundamental nature, 161
nurses and parents perceptions, 161
nursing skills, 160–161
pain-assessment tools, 161
principles, 160
Bolam test, 177
CAMHS. See child and adolescent mental health services cancer care, children and young people (CYP) autonomous decisions, 165 day-to-day practice, 165 ethical and legal issues, 165 futility, treatment bone-marrow transplant, 169 haematology and oncology, 169
open communication, 169
informed consent
clinical interventions, 166 fertility preservation, 166 sequenced approach, 166
models, 164
open communication, 164
refusing treatment
burdens and risks, 168
emotional responses, 167
own health-care decisions, 168
radical surgery, 168
resource allocation
private funding, 169
timely therapy, 169
rights and responsibilities, 165 truth telling clinician-patient relationship, 167 oncology, 167
principle, 167
withdrawing treatment
end-of-life decisions, 169 life-threatening effects, 168 child and adolescent mental health services (CAMHS)
assessment, 116
description, 113–14
family needs, 117
life outcomes, mental health problems, 68 childhood philosophies and histories craft/evidence, historians diets nature, 6 ‘forgotten boredom,’ 5
games and songs, 5–6
Historic Iowa Children’s Diaries Project, 6–7 Latin definitions, 4
legal obligation, 6
maturation process, 5
posterity memories, 4–5 Slumdog Millionaire, 7 societal and cultural differences, 7 space nature, 6
suboptimal conditions, 4
European review (see European childhoods review) past generations, 4
public domain, 3
The Sunday Observer, 3
thoughts
antisocial behaviour, 17 children images, 15–16
compromise position, 16 contemporary society, 15 counterculture behaviours, 17 ethical and medical issue, 17–18 innocent players, 16 life, quality, 18
medieval society, 16
orphaned and poor, 18
political and sociocultural context, 18 potentials, 17
sick child convalescence, 18 societal values and moral education, 16 UK legal system, 17
violence, 18
The Children Act (1989)
health-care policy, 104 mental health problems, 118 parental responsibility, 50 children’s community nurses (CCN) end-of-life-care, 196
model, 97
training, 93
beneficence
ethical management, 161
fundamental nature, 161
nurses and parents perceptions, 161
nursing skills, 160–161
pain-assessment tools, 161
principles, 160
cues assessment tool, 160 post-operative analgesia, 160
description, 155
justice, 157
non-maleficence, 155–7
children’s community nurses (CCN) (cont’d)
UN convention, child rights effective pain management, 157 fairness and equality, 158
narrative approach, 159
non-pharmacological management, 159 nurses documentation, 158
principles, 158
self-report tool, 157–8

children’s rights
cartoons, 40
commissioner introduction, 39–40 consultation mechanisms, 40 criminal responsibility age, 36 dependence and independence, 39
ethical principles
autonomy, 37
beneficence and non-maleficence, 37
justice, 38–9
respect, 37–8
medical and nursing care, 39
positive and negative, 37
responding ability, 37
UKCRC
participation, 41–2
protection, 40–41
provision, 41
UNCRC, 36–7
Welsh Assembly Government aims, 39 youth parliaments, 40

community settings nursing, children’s view definition, 77
ethical symmetry
Bauman’s conceptions, 79 cultures of communication, 79 hospital-based care, 77 listening interviews, 78
isolated children, 78
power relationships, 79 services, 78
passing strategy
attempts, rights, 83
disclosure, information, 82–3 living with illness, 82 social sanctions/stigma, 83 social trick, 82
social actors, 78
support, implications dilemma, nurses, 83
education, 84
policy, 85
practice, 83–4
research, 84–5
‘to be like the others’
Clark’s mosaic approach, 80
Coyné’s study, 81–2
nurse visit, home, 80
parents, 82
summary statements, 80
task-orientated approach, nurses, 81 teaching role, nurses, 81

DCSF. See department for children, schools and families department for children, schools and families (DCSF) disabled children, 88
guidance, 105
palliative care services, 92
redesigning services, 94 department for education and skills (DfES)
disabled children, 91
leaving school, 66
DfES. See department for education and skills disabled child care
adult care transition community matron, 97
difficulties, 96–7
health practitioners, 97
paediatric system, 97
children’s and parents concerns communication, 96
ECDM, 95
ECM outcomes, 96
elements, core offer, 96 employment, 95
housing, 96
income and expenses, 95–6 definition, disability, 88 education, paediatric nurses CCN training, 93
drawback, 93
placements, 93
groups, 88–9
low birth weight babies, 88 needs homes and long-stay hospital units, 89 parents and skills, 89–90 technological equipment dependency, 89 Warnock report, 89
paediatric hospices, issues Children’s Hospice movement, 92 fund-raising, 92
health and social service budgets, 92 Icelandic Bank scandal, 92 nursing staff recruitment and retention, 92–3 technology and medical science, advances, 88 throwaway mentality, 88

ECT. See electroconvulsive therapy electroconvulsive therapy (ECT), 120 emotional and psychiatric health needs assessment
ADHD, 116
approach, 115–16
core and specific skills, 116
developmental, 117
family needs, 117
fluid and dynamic process, 116
information, 116–17
NICE guidelines, 116
legal issues (see legal issues)
mental health
CAMHS, 113–14
eyearly investment, 113 engaging families, 114–15
epidemiological research, 113
problems and disorders, 112 psychological building blocks, 112
psychotic disorder, 113
rates, 112–13
end-of-life care
acute decisions
ethical challenges, 193
PICU, 193
positive and negative implications, 193
bereavement care
CCN practice environment, 196 training, skills and resources, 195
children’s involvement
decision-making process, 194
Fraser guidelines, 194
UNCRC, 194
community-based care professionals negotiate care, 195 symptom management, 195
death rate, 192
life expectancy, 192
life-sustaining medical treatment, 192–3 potential issues, 193
ESRC. See European Social Research Council
ethical principles
acknowledging rights, 207 bedrock, 207
beneficence, 206
conduct, 267
distributive justice, 206–7 human subjects, 207
moral dilemmas, 208
non-maleficence, 206
qualitative study, 209
risks and burdens, 207
ethics committees role, neonatology nursing staff
clinical knowledge and experiences, 52 curative and palliative care, 52
NMC, 52
nurses identification, 53 partnership decision making doctors responsibility, 51–2 family-centred care, 50–51
intolerability, 52
maternal cultural background, 51
NCOB, 52
POPPY, 51
RCPCH, 52
European childhoods review acceptance ritual, 8
baptism, 9
child labour, 13
civilisation, 7
councils and professionals, 15 and development stages, 9 early social maturation, 11 economic and social significance, 13 solution, 14
employees, 13–14
Factory Act, 1802, 14
groups, 14
Industrial Revolution, 13 knighthood and warfare, 11 medieval schools, 10
theology, 10–11
Mines Regulation and Inspection Act, 1860, 15 moral labour theory, 14 new steam-propelled technology, 13 open-minded parents, 10 and parent bond, 12 physical immaturity, 9
postoral teaching, 9
Registration Act, 1837, 15
Roman law, 8
royal commission, 14
rural poverty, 12
society
and legal implications, 7
responsibility, 8
St Augustine writings, 8–9 supposition and historians, 12 Thomas Aquinas writings medieval theology, 11
parental preferences, 10
respect, 10
tasks, parenthood, 10
volition and intellectual reflection, 9 Thomas More formal education, 11–12 working conditions, mills, 14
European Social Research Council (ESRC), 78 family-centred care (FCC) beauchamp and childress paradigm
autonomy, 148
justice, 149
non-maleficence, 149
breastfeeding mothers, 145 care-by-parent, 146
childhood and parenting, 146 child–parent separation, 145–6 children’s rights, health care, 148 child’s social and psychological needs, 145 debate and contention defensive parenting, 147
description, 147
ethical principles, 148
managerial efficiency, 148 parent–nurse relationship, 147
phenomenology, 147
socialisation, 148
definition, 148
deontology
consequentialism, 151
health services, 150
moral guides, 150
negative consequences, 150
description, 144–5
health-care facilities, 147
IFCC definition, 144
family-centred care (FCC) (cont’d) infectious diseases and cross-infection, 145 internet-based organisation, 148 negotiated care, 146
  negotiation and effective communication, 145 partnership-in-care, 146
  Platt report, 146
utilitarianism
  act and rule, 151
  care model, 152
  consequentialism, 151
  implementation, 151
  types, 151
virtue ethics, 149

Gilligan-Kohlberg debate, 33

hospitalisation, health-care decision-making autonomy level, 137–8
  children care
    care-by-parent, 128
    environments, 128
    experiences and needs, 128 paediatric health services, 128 perceptions, 128
  communication process, 127 effects adverse aspects, 128
    family life and powerlessness, 129 fears, 128–9
    self-determination loss, 131 treatments and procedures, 130–131 ward environment, 129–30 free-for-all approach, 138 philosophical beliefs, 137 right to be heard
    benefits, 134
    contributory factors, 135 doctor-parent-child communication, 136 health-care matters, 135 incident technique, 136 non-government and voluntary organisations, 134 parenting style, 137
    public health system, 136
    truth telling, 136
Human Rights Act (1998), 49, 50, 118

International Council, nurses ethical code co-workers, 266
  people, 265
  practice, 265–6
  profession, 266
interprofessional education (IPE), 106

justice, ethical principles babies, Down’s syndrome, 38 child poverty, 38
  guiding principles, 38–9
  post-code lottery, 38
  truth-telling, 38

Kantian theories, 177

legal issues
  advocacy, 121–2
  Children Act (1989), 118
  children under 16, 118 competence and capacity evaluation ability, child/youth person, 119 maturity and understanding, 119
  confidentiality, 120
  consent, 118
  ECT, 120
  human rights
    decision-making process, 118
    guiding principles, 118
  Mental Capacity Act 2005, 121
  Mental Health Act 1983, 120
  parent involvement, treatment expressed permission, 119 responsibility, 120
  SCT, 120
  treatment without consent, 119 young people, 16/17 age, 118–19
  ZPC, 121

Mental Capacity Act (2005), 121

mental health
  CAMHS
    description, 113
    multidisciplinary teams, 114 NHS health advisory tiered model, 114 service provision, 114 specialist, 114
  Tier 1 professionals, 114 training and consultation, 114 emotional health and well-being Backing the Future, 113 developmental trajectories, 113 investment, 113
  engaging families
    holistic assessment, 115 philosophical, theoretical and therapeutic approach, 114 epidemiological research, 113
    problems and disorders, 112
    psychological building blocks, 112
    psychotic disorder, 113
    rates, 112–13
  Mental Health Act (1983), 119, 120
  Mines Regulation and Inspection Act, 1860, 15 moral philosophy, paediatric nursing apprenticeships, 23
  caring and nursing ethics emotional drain, 33 gendered perspective, theories, 32
    Gilligan-Kohlberg debate, 33 guide, moral decision-making, 33 categorical imperative I, 25 categorical imperative II fertilisation cases, 25 intrinsic rights, 25
categorical imperative III biomedical principles, 26 professional codes, 26 cultures, 23
deontology, non-consequentialism behaviour, 24
categorical imperatives/maxims, 25 intrinsic value, 24–5
religion and theology, 24 word meaning, 24
European tradition, 23–4 rights and theories basic human needs, 29
children, 30
haves and have-nots, society, 28 human and political, 28 human existence and happiness, 29 interwar period, Poland, 29–30 moral reasoning, 30
socio-political, 28
UNCRC, 29
UNHDR, 30
women, 29
utilitarianism - consequentialism
description, 26
ethical reasoning, 26–7 happiness, 27
moral integrity, 27
principle of utility, 27 qualified health-care professionals, 28 shortened working hours, health-care workers, 27–8 universal education, 27
virtue ethics
Aristotle’s theory, 31
and education, 32
philosophical approach, Europe, 30–31 practical wisdom, 31, 32
virtuous behaviour, 31–2

National institute for health and clinical excellence (NICE)
guidelines, psychological conditions, 116 maltreatment, 59
post-code lottery, 38
national service framework (NSF), 103, 134 NCOB. See Nuffield Council of Bioethics neonatal intensive care unit (NICU) ethical decisions, 47–8 medical and nursing staff, 47 neonatology nursing
ethics committees role
nursing staff, 52–3
partnership decision making, 50–52
RCPCH, 50
framework
The Abortion Act, 49
The Children Act, 50
gestational age, 48–49
health-care practitioners, 50
Human Rights Act, 49, 50
legal guidance, 49
NCOB, 49–50
no-purpose and unbearable situation, 49
RCPCH, 49
NICU, ethical decisions babies treatment, 48
long-term outcome, 47–8 parents, 48
ways, 48
rules and guidelines
BAPM, 48
feature, 48
unilateral decision making, 48
NMC. See Nursing and Midwifery Council
non-maleficence
distressing symptoms, 156 optimal pain, 156
postsurgical pain relieving methods, 156
principles, 157
profound and long-lasting effects, 155–6 under-medication, 155
Nuffield Council of Bioethics (NCOB), 49–50
Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC)
ethical principles, 56
guidance, 52
health visitors, 62
information, disclosure, 72 NMC code (2008)
children’s pain, 161
confidentiality rights, 72 consent, patient/client, 73
non-maleficence, 71
patient risk, reporting, 61 principle of autonomy, 56 professional code, conduct, 24 public health practice, 68 public safety, 61
record keeping, 58–9
school nursing, 67
SCPHN, 67
veracity, 57

paediatric intensive care nursing ethical, legal and professional considerations Bolam test, 177
cornerstone principles, 177
deontology, 177
Kantian theories, 177
non-maleficence, 177
patient autonomy, 178
Toby’s perspective, 177–8
utilitarianism, 176
RCPCH framework, 174–6
withhold/withdraw treatment, nurse role decision-making process, 179
end-of-life decision, 181 final decision-maker, 180 futile care, 178
knowledge and patterns, nursing, 179–80 life-sustaining treatment, 181 limitation, 182
loss of control, 182
paediatric intensive care nursing (cont’d)
managerial roles, 180
moral distress, 181
nursing programmes, 181
one-to-one basis, 178 quality-of-life issues, 179 RCPCH guidelines, 180
responsibility and accountability, 180

paediatric intensive care units (PICUs) death, 173
holistic care, 181
UK, 177
withdrawal, treatment, 175

palliative care, children continuing care and life brain dead child, 187 broad multidisciplinary approach, 187 communication difficulties, 191
decision-making process, 189
diagnosis, 188
disabled children, 188
family link schemes, 192 long-term effects, 188
modern communication, 187 support, family, 189–91 tertiary care facilities, 191

end-of-life care
acute care, 193
bereavement care, 195–6
children’s involvement, 194–5 community-based, 195
death rate, 192
life expectancy, 192
life-sustaining medical treatment, 192–3
potential issues, 193

Parents of Premature Babies Project (POPPY), 51 permanent vegetative state (PVS), 174 personal, social and health education (PSHE), 68–9 phosphorus analysis

child development, 237
child stories
adolescents, 246
allegorical narrative relationships, 247 books and poems, 246–7
Harry Potter stories, 246
Kipling’s poem, 245
moral message, 245
potty training, 245
safety and solace, 247
sympathetic echoes, 245 value systems, 246
forms, narrative, 239–40
generative narratives, 242 healing narratives functions and formats, 244

personal memories, 242 sense making act, 242 symbolic narrative and metaphor, 243 homo viator and homo creator, 237 imagined narrative
arts and humanities, 244 compassion and tolerance, 244 health-care ethics, 244 medical and nursing education, 244 intellectual capacities, 238 internal structures and coherence, 238 narrative context, 238–9 obligatory creative dialogue, 238 persuasive narratives, 241–2 professional narrative context, 240–241 public narratives, 241 public telling and enactment, 238 stories, children
adult perspective, 244
delightful, 245

Platt report, 146
POPPY. See Parents of Premature Babies Project pressure groups, champions and young people voice
education
Adolescent Health Project, 106
Balint method, 106
negative feelings, 107
principalism and narrative ethics, 106
information source, 103
11 MILLION, 103
participation
health care and surveillance transfer, 106 IPE, 106
self management behaviours, 105

protection
decision-making, 105
ethical dilemma, definition, 105 legislation and guidance, 105
NMC and RCN, 105
The Protection of Children in England, 104–5
Sexual Offences Act, 105

provision
adolescent wards, 104
health professionals training, 104
Platt Report, 104

reflection
ethical map trail, 107
MSR, 107

rights, 104
Principle of universality, 25
Principles of Biomedical Ethics, 26

RCPCH. See Royal College of Paediatrics and Child
Health
Registration Act (1837), 15
research, children and young people designing and undertaking, 215 disseminating findings communication forms, 215 IRB-approved consent forms, 216 essential component, 215
Index 275

ethical practice, 215
knowledge and territory
  benefits, 204
codes and governance frameworks, 205 functional representation, 205 risk, 204–5
  stages, 205–6
making preparations
  assent, consent and dissent, 209
ethical principles, 206–9 financial inducement, 214 non-clinical trial, 215 payment types, 214
  proposals and information sheets, 209–14
vs. practice
  health-care research, 203–4 immediate/direct benefit, 204 respite and palliative care, disabled child AHDC, 91
  Children Act, 90
  Continuing Healthcare, 91 friendship and social network development, 90 gastrostomy feeding, 91 government role
  AHDC agenda, 94
  autistic spectrum disorders, 94 dedicated funding, 93–4 eligibility criteria, lack, 95 messages, 94
  ring-fenced budgets, 94 service delivery improvement, 94 short breaks implementation guidance, 94–5 health vs. social care debate, 91 home-based, 90
models, 91
multiple settings, 92
risks, abuse, 90
shared budgets and joint commissioning, 91–2
types, 90
Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health (RCPCH) adolescents ward facilities, 132 brain stem death, 174 compassionate and sensitive approach, 174 disabled and non-disabled children, 189 ethical decision making process, 50
ethics committees role, 50
fundamental principles, 176 intolerable disability, 52 life-threatening condition, 175 minimum legal requirement, 176 no-chance situation, 174
  no-purpose situation, 174 PVS, 174
  unbearable situation, 174 withdrawing and withholding treatment, 49, 176, 261 school-aged children, health
  autonomy
    beneficence, 70–71
    confidentiality, 72
  definition, 70
  information, 72
  informed consent, 72–4
  justice, 71–2
  non-maleficence, 71
health promotion and ethics
  advocacy, 69
  alcohol and illegal drugs, 68 emotional health and psychological well-being, 68 empowerment, 69
  models, 69
  self-confidence and stress management, 68 twin pillars, 69
legal constraints and professional role boundaries, 74 professional vs. personal values and ethics, 69–70
  influencers, 70
school nursing
  government document, 67 internet, 67–8
  NMC standards, 67
  public health practice domains, 68
  SCPHN, 67

SCPHN. See specialist community public health nurses
Sexual Offences Act (2003), 71–2, 105 shaping children, nursing accept/deflect responsibilities, 258 collaborative morality, 257 communication cultures, 257 consumerism
  consumerist approach, 254
  family-centred care, 254
  generalisation, 255 parental consumerist approach, 254 professional and occupational agendas, 254 young patients survey, 254
description, 251
  factors, 256
  gendered agendas
    aspects, 255
    better living arrangement, 255 child-care responsibilities, 255 empirical evidence, 255 masculine medical conventions, 255 UK health policy, 256
    vocational-social contract, 256 landscapes, 251–2
  perceptions and requirements, 257 philosophical principles, 258 political and social position, 256–7 professional care discriminatory and arbitrary practice, 253 medication and monitoring health, 252 technical therapeutic interventions, 252 uncritical and unprincipled approach, 253 theoretical judicial approach, 257 Walker’s morality, 258
specialist community public health nurses (SCPHN) NMC standards, 67
school nurse, 67
spirituality, philosophical and epistemological aspects child-focused literature, 220 child health care
activities and relationships, 227–8 adult awareness, 228 assessment guidelines, 230 barriers, 227
degenerative illnesses, 228–9
health-care facilities, 229 life-limiting and life-shortening conditions, 229 nursing concepts, 227
paediatric nurses, 229
social work and family therapy, 229 children and young people balanced faith, 227
chaotic faith, 224–5
choosing faith, 227
conforming faith, 226–7 Fowler’s stages, 224
life experience, 222
nursed faith, 224
ordering faith, 225–6
religion and secularity overlap, 221 holistic care, child and family dynamic and ecumenical interpretation, 231 emotional well-being, 231 living activities, 231 relationships and roles, 231 systems theory, 231
life cycle
child’s developmental stage, 222 faith and spirituality categories, 223 faith development stages, 223 incremental stages, 223 sensory approach, 222
three-stage model, 223
public domain, 220–221
supervised community treatment (SCT), 120 toddlers and school age children, health visitor domestic abuse

gut feelings, 58–9
multi-agency working, 59 public awareness, 58
reluctance, 58
risks, 58
vulnerability, 57
women, 57–8
ethical issues, 55
immunisation consequence-based theory/consequentialism, 56 ethical dilemma, 56
information, vaccinations, 57 measles, mumps and rubella (MMR), 55–6
NMC, 56–7
non-maleficence, 56
trust, 57

management failure, 62
safeguarding
advocacy, 60
Baby Peter’s death, 59–60 harm, significant, 59
money, 59
moral and professional conduct, 60–61 nature, harm, 60
protection procedures, 59 workload issues, 61–2 treatment refusal, CYP
burdens and risks, 168
emotional responses, 167
own health-care decisions, 168
radical surgery, 168

UNCRC. See United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child
UNDHR. See United Nations Declaration of Human Rights

United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) child cases, 49
fairness and equality, 158
government, 262–4
health care service, 29 management
non-pharmacological, 159 pain, 157
narrative approach, 159
nurses’ documentation, 158 policy development, UK, 39
principles, 158
recognition age, child, 36
rights
organising framework, 36
positive and negative, 37
self-report tool, 157–8
United Nations Declaration of Human Rights (UNDHR), 30

virtue ethics
FCC
Aristotelian virtue theory, 31, 149
definition, 149
moral philosophy, paediatric nursing and education, 32 philosophical approach, Europe, 30–31
practical wisdom, 31, 32
virtuous behaviour, 31–2

Women’s Aid, 57, 58

zone of parental control (ZPC) Mental Health Act Code of Practice, updated, 121
parental responsibility, 121