Contents

Notes on Contributors v
Foreword ix
Preface x
Acknowledgements xii

Part I The Philosophical Foundations of Caring for Children and Young People 1

1 Histories and Philosophies of Childhood
   Gosia M. Brykczynska 3

2 Theories of Moral Philosophy Applied to Paediatric Nursing
   Gosia M. Brykczynska 23

3 A Review of Children’s Rights as Applied to Paediatric Nursing
   Jim Richardson 36

Part II Ethical Aspects of the Continuum of Care 45

4 Beginning of Life: Ethical Issues in Neonatology Nursing
   Amanda Williamson and Julie Mullett 47

5 Ethical Issues in Caring for Toddlers and School Age Children: Ethical Aspects of the Role and Work of the Health Visitor
   Monica Davis 55

6 Promoting the Health of School-Aged Children: An Ethical Perspective
   Gill Coverdale 66

7 ‘To Be Like the Others’: Children’s Views of Nursing in Community Settings
   Duncan Randall 77

8 Care of the Severely Disabled Child: A Moral Imperative
   Vicki Rowse 88

9 Ethical Aspects of Care of the Adolescent
   Yvonne Dexter 100

10 Ethical and Legal Aspects of Working with Children and Young People with Emotional and Psychiatric Health Needs
   Tim McDougall 112
Part III Ethical Issues in the Acute Care Setting 125

11 Children’s Experience of Hospitalisation and Their Participation in Health-Care Decision-Making 127
   Imelda Coyne

12 The Ethics of Family-Centred Care for Hospitalised Children 144
   Linda Shields

13 Above All Else do No Harm: An Ethical Evaluation of Paediatric Nurses Management of Children’s Pain 155
   Joan Simons

14 Ethical Aspects in Children’s and Young People’s Cancer Care: Professional Views 164
   Faith Gibson

15 Withholding and Withdrawal of Treatment: Ethical, Legal and Philosophical Aspects of Paediatric Intensive Care Nursing 173
   Karen Harrison-White

16 Palliative Care of Children: Some Ethical Dilemmas 187
   Vicki Rowse and Martin Smith

Part IV Philosophical Considerations in Professional Practice 199

17 Researching Children and Young People: Exploring the Ethical Territory 201
   Bernie Carter

18 Philosophical and Epistemological Aspects of Children’s Spirituality 220
   Rita Pfund

19 ‘Are you Sitting Comfortably?’ Storytelling and the Power of Narratives – A Philosophical Analysis 237
   Gosia M. Brykczynska

20 Who is Shaping Children’s Nursing? 251
   Duncan Randall

Appendices

Appendix I Summary of Possible Situations for Withdrawal and Withholding Treatment in Children According to the Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health Guidelines 261

Appendix II United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (Abridged) 262

Appendix III Summary of the International Council of Nurses Ethical Code 265

Appendix IV Summary of the Principles for the Ethical Conduct of Medical Research Involving Children 267

Index 268