INDEX

accessibility, increase, 43
acoustics, 195–196
adaptive reuse, 143
building types, conversion issues, 147–148
case studies, 153, 157, 163
code/regulatory issues, 144–145 design considerations, 145–147 design process, preparation, 151–152 eyearly analysis, importance, 146
exterior design, 150–151
floor plans, variety, 146 irregular layouts/opportunities, 145 layouts, testing (importance), 146 mechanical systems, integration, 146–147 mixed-use possibilities, 145 multiple apartment types, 145–146
parking, 149–150
requirements, 149
planning, 149–150
site issues, 149–150
sustainability, 151–152
air-source heat pump, 187–188 air systems, usage, 186
American Builder’s Companion (Benjamin), 68 American community, example (Vermont), 7 Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), 75 automobiles (cars) accommodation, 70–71
case studies, 70–71
celebration/separation, 9–11
impact, 7–8
balconies
details (Hans Kollhoff/Arthur Ovaska), 126 richness/opportunities (Seniorenwohnhaus), 127 BedZED (Beddington) buildings aerodynamic design, 91
innovations/design, 90
case study, 89–93
computer-generated image, 92
development, 91
east elevation, 91
legal precedents, 91
live-work units, 93
row houses, construction, 90
site design, 89–90
site plan, 90
solar-oriented block, placement, 92
Benjamin, Asher, 68
Borneo Sporenburg (Amsterdam) bridges, connection, 77
building design, 79, 81
case study, 76–82
courtyards/patios, 80
development process, 81
Eastern Docklands, aerial view, 76 houses/boats, variety, 77 Masten-broek/van Gameren house, interior, 80
o pen voids, 81
patios, 79
planning, 76–79
private spaces, 80
prototype dwelling, 79
public sidewalks, 77
site design, 76–79
site entry, 77
townhouse facades, 78
building
depth, 184
evelope
insulative properties, 183–184 systems, 182
exterior (egg crate), 105, 108
placement, 39–40
reuse, 143–144
types, conversion issues, 147–148 building codes
impact, 172, 204
requirements, strictness, 172
strictness, 144
Building Officials and Code Administration International (BOCA)
code, 97, 123, 171
building systems, 171
acoustics, 195–196
design, 171
electrical systems, 192–193
elevators, 194–195
energy, 188–189
fire protection systems, 191–192
HVAC, 185–188
LEED certification/sustainability, 172
lighting, 193–194
plumbing systems, 190–191 regulatory requirements, 171–172 security, 193
structural systems, 172–184
sustainable materials, 196
Chatham Village (Pennsylvania), housing development, 39 chilled beams, usage, 187 chilled water, pumping, 187 cold domestic water supply, copper pipe (usage), 190 Colorado Court (Santa Monica) building design, 110–112 building section, example, 111
case study, 109–113
facade, 109
LEED certification, 109
location, 110
materials/colors, juxtaposition, 111 natural ventilation, design, 113 north elevation, 112
site, 110
communities, 7–8
case studies, 21, 26, 32
concept, 1–2
contact (fostering), main streets (usage), 20
design
precedents, 8–12
trends, 11
differences, 2
informal discussions, 205 project participation, 205 reintroduction, 12
sense, promotion building design, impact, 15 housing types/issues, impact, 19 success, 1
community creation
diversity, impact, 12
principles, 12–17
strategies housing design, usage, 15–17 urban design, usage, 13–14 community plaza (Mizner Park), 3 composite steel deck/concrete fill combination, advantages, 177–178 concept, 198–199
concrete block/plank, usage, 179–180 block walls, sound transmission resistance, 195–196 detailing (University Plaza), 101 fill, composite steel deck combination (advantages), 177–178 frame, exposure, 100 planks, advantages, 179–180 concrete-block construction, diagram, 180 concrete-frame construction system, components, 179 condominium complex (FP3), 151
construction
conditions, 202
methods, exploration, 5 technology, advances, 124 construction manager (CM), engagement, 197 consultants, number (increase), 197 cooling coil condensate, collection, 191 cooling tower blowdown, 191 copper pipe, usage, 190 corrugated metal/concrete topping, usage, 178 Cotton Mill mechanical systems, exposure, 148 selective demolition, 145 cross-cavity ties, usage, 176 curb-side parking, provision, 16 Danielson Grove (Kirkland) building design, 44
case study, 44–47
cottages
developments, 38
placement, 45
development, 45–46
floor plans, 46
kitchen view, 47
Madrona, home type, 47
site plan, 44–45
walkways, composition, 45
Davis, Robert, 8
deck design, 178
decorative lighting, impact, 194 destination retail/entertainment centers, 121 detached house, 37
building type, 39–40
case studies, 44, 55, 60
detached housing, configuration, 39
detached housing, 37
building type, 39–40
case studies, 44, 55, 60
detached housing, configuration, 39

209
INDEX

domestic hot water, provision, 190 double-loaded building layouts, 96 dwelling-unit size, variation, 69–70 ecofriendly home designs, 43 egg crate (building exterior), 105, 108
electrical systems, 192–193
low-voltage systems, 192–193
transformers, 192
twining, 192
elevators, 194–195
requirements, 195
types, 194–195
enclosing wall material/skin, 127
energy, 188–189
surface parking, visual impact, 122 floor plans, flexibility, 43 tower placement (Prairie Crossing), 43 garden apartment buildings, cluster, 74 Garden City movement, 39 glazed areas, openings, 101 grand arched window (Queen Anne High School), 146 gravity film exchanger (GFX), 101, 183
high-rise, 119
heat-recovery systems, impact, 188 heat pump air-conditioner (HPAC), 188 heat pump systems, alternative, 187 commonness, 187–188
heat-recovery systems, impact, 188
high-cost housing, amenities, 122
high-rise, 119
architectural issues, 122–127 building configurations, 123–124
case studies, 128, 134, 138
construction technology, advances, 124 detailing (Lakeshore Drive), 124 elements, 122–123
elevators, number (minimum), 123 enclosing wall material/wall, 127
detail level, 136
exterior design, 125–127
fire-rated stairs, requirement, 123
housing, 120–121
commercial space/parking, combination, 121
parking, 121–122
pedestrian activity, generation, 119 residential design, potential, 120–121 residential development, section, 121
site design, 121
skyline, capitalization, 126
surface parking, visual impact, 122
tower configuration, 123–124
design, 120
floor plans, 124
tower in a park (Reston), 122
unit purchase, 124
unit types, 124–125
high-traffic street scene, 13 historic architectural styles, copying, 74 historic buildings, conversion, tax incentives, 144–145
detail level, 150
location, 149
site, importance, 152
holeless hydraulic elevators, 194 HOPE VI program, 8
hot water, domestic supply, production, 186–187 pumping, 187
housed apartments (Lucca), 143
housing, 7–8
adaptive reuse, 143
case studies, 21, 26, 32
communities, development process, 197–199 construction, cessation, 120 directions, 4–6
development, process, 197
dispersion, 7–8 financing, 6
limitation, 173
options, diversity (provision), 14 sustainable design, impact, 6 types, HVAC systems (selection), 185–188 hydraulic elevators, 194 impact insulation class (IIC), ratings, basis, 196 standards, 195
indoor air quality (IAQ), 140 industrial buildings, conversion issues, 147–148 informal space, flexibility, 43 infrastructure, impact, 202
International Building Code (IBC), 171
La Brea Franklin Family Housing (Los Angeles), building design/construction, 62–64
case study, 60–65
competition model, 61
courtyard, 63
kitchen, 64
parking, 62
deck/courtyards, 61
program, 60–61
site design, 60–61
site plan, 63
townhouse, cross-section, 65 units, semiprivate porch, sharing, 62 stepdown, 62
Langham Court (Boston), arch detail, 87
archive view, 86
building design, 84–85
case study, 83–88
construction system, 85–86
courtyard, 83, 85
financing/development, 86, 88
mid-rise housing, 85
site plan, 84
stacked three-bedroom duplex, plan, 88 structural system, 85, 88 structured parking, 72
townhouses, 84
underground parking, 87 lateral bracing, provision, 174 Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED), 71–72 certification, 109, 172 Platinum residence (Visionaire), 138
sustainability, 172
Leopold, Aldo, 50
Levittown, development, 38
mass-produced housing, 39
Libeskind, Daniel, 10
lighting, 193–194
light metal framing, 173, 175–176 perforated webs, usage, 175–176 wood replacement, 175
Lincoln Triangle (New York City), appearance, 137
case study, 134–137
design, 136
development, 136
ground-floor plan, 135
mixed uses, 137
residential floor plan, 135 retail occupancy, 134
sheath, 136
site, triangle formation, 134 Unit A floor plan, 135
livable densities, design, 13–14 local zoning laws/regulatory processes, impact, 203 location, importance, 202 low-rise housing, 67, 75
building type, 69–70
case studies, 76, 83, 89
exterior design, 73–74
modernist design (Munich), 69
parking, 70–72
site design, 70–72
variations, 72–73
low-rise multifamily buildings, central
INDEX

single-family homes, 37
energy efficiency, 186
single-family housing development initiation, 38
organization, 40–41
single-loaded building layouts, 96 sites
analysis/selection, 200–203 design/parking, 40–41
process, complication, 202 skip-stop plans, 98–99
slab building, loading, 123 smart homes, components, 193 soil conditions, impact, 180 sound transmission class (STC) ratings, basis, 196 units, measurement, 195
Southern Building Code Congress International (SBCCI), 171 space, uses (cultural/individual differences), 70 specialized housing types, 2–4 sprinkler systems, efficacy, 191 steel, structural framing material, 176–177 steel frame building, construction, 177 steel framing, 176–178
lateral bracing support, requirements, 178 Stephen, James, 157
street-level commercial space (The Heritage), 2 street-level doorways, provision, 17 street life observation, encouragement (design), 17 streets
hierarchy, 20
layout alternatives, 41 observation (Harbor Point), 17
structurally insulated panel (SIP) components, 182 insulation, diagram, 181
structural systems, 172–184
relative costs, 180
structures, selective demolition (Cotton Mill), 145 super high-rise buildings, 124 surface parking, visual parking, 122 sustainability, promotion, 12
sustainable materials, 196
Swan’s Marketplace (Oakland) alteration, 164 appearance, 168
building design, 169–170
case study, 163–170
cohousing plans/sections, 166 cohousing/rental units, 165 集聚空间, 167
gathering space, 167
ground floor, 165
landmark, importance, 168
location/size, 164
Ninth Street facade, 163
outdoor corridor, 169
residential units, location, 166 size, 166–167
Tango (Malmo)
building design, 114–115
building floor plan, 117
case study, 114–118
design, 116
site design, 114–115
steel, usage, 114
sustainability, 115–116
technology, 116
textured white concrete, 115 unit plan, 117
upper/lower units, section (example), 117
U-shape form, outer edge, 114
Tent City (Boston)
aerial photograph, 26
case study, 26–31
financing/development, 31
floor plans, 29
interior courtyard, 29
mixed-income example, 9 planning/design concept, 26–27
site plan, 27
townhouses, 28
interior, 30
unit design, 30
thermal break, creation, 176 thermal energy transfer, envelope resistance (improvement), 152 tower
configuration, 123–124
design, 120
tower floor plans, 124
tower in a park (Reston), 122
townhouses
construction, impetus, 68–69
energy efficiency, 186
example (Wohnbebauung Jugerhalde), 73
longitudinal section, 70 materials, selection, 73–74 neighborhood (Richmond), 67 parking, alternative, 71 plane, example, 70
street, proximity, 70–71 units, combination, 72 traction elevators, 194
transformers, 192
transportation modes, selection, 14 tree-lined neighborhood (Albacoa), 1 two-pipe system, usage, 187 uncovered parking spaces, access, 41 Uniform Building Code (UBC), 123, 171 urban design, principles, 12
U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC), 172
Yerba Buena Lofts (San Francisco)
axonometric view, 104 bays, rhythmic placement, 104
building section, example, 106
building design, 105, 107
case study, 103–108
construction, 107–108
exposed concrete structural walls, 106 geometric glass-cube projections, 105
ground-floor plan, 104
location, 103
lofts, mezzanine level, 107
parking, 108
site, 103
type three floor plan, 108 type two floor plan, 108 water conservation, 191 waterfront mid-rise building (Regatta), 95 wet pipe systems, 191–192 windows
limitation, 69
placement, 194
repair, 150
units
types, 101–102
usage, 126
walls, 102
wind turbines, feasibility, 189 wiring, 192
wood-frame construction, requirements, 174 wood framing, 173–175