INDEX

3M 105
80-20 rule 44

activity 15
adaptive reactive learning 300–2 adhocracies 232, 244–5, 299
Adobe Systems 276–8, 281
    Creative Suite 276–8
aggregation of analysis 114, 116–17
agility, lack of 267
Alpine reconnaissance mission 312–13
Amazon 9, 149–50
ambidexterity 238–41
ambiguity 90
analysis 87–118
    aggregation and consolidation 114, 116–17
    competitors 192–5
    externally-focused 176–8, 178–9
    extricating insights 116
    frameworks 90–1, 112–17
    high-level 87–8, 111–13, 119–73
    industry-level 179, 182–7
    insight-driven frameworks 87–8, 112–17
    internally-focused 197–212
    market-level 179, 187–97
    PESTLE 181–2
    purposes 88–90
    sense making 65–6
    set up and execution 113–17
    strategic challenges 88–90
    supporting-level 111–12, 175–218
    SWOT 163–4
    unique competing space 129–36
    value proposition framework 122–7
see also strategic analysis Anglo-Saxon capitalism 7
Ansoff’s “growth matrix” 224
Apple 106–8, 135–6
    iPhone 101–2, 107, 136, 179, 273
    iTunes 93, 106
    iWatch 190–2
appraising resources 203–8
appropriate learning mindsets 310–11 articulation, strategic mindsets 88–90 ascription of meaning 69–72
aspirations 122, 125, 264
assessment of opportunity 170–1, 241–5 assets, intangible 203–7
assumptions 45–51, 72–3, 92, 94–5
audit, strategic resources 112 Auftragstaktik 48
autonomy 74
B Lab 110
barista experience 5
basis of competitiveness 242 battle of Trafalgar 10–11
Baumard, P. 75
Bayer AG 78–80
behavioral economics 95
Benefit Corporation (B Corp) 110
benzene structure discovery 64–5
Berkshire Hathaway 275
Bertelsmann 8
bias for action 15, 16
black boxes 61–2
black swans 52
BlackBerry 139–41
Black-Scholes formula 94
blind faith 96
book-to-market value ratios 204 Bosch 8
boundary conditions 142–56
boutique ski manufacturers 145–6 brand 203
brand experience 101
branding, cultural 78–80
building blocks 13–14, 42, 43, 247–8, 250, 281–4 Burgelman, R.A. 295
business models, new 274–5
business paradigms 46
business sector 109
buy-in, lack of 268
capabilities
appraising 203–8
identification 203–7
as resources 199–203
Capability Maturity Model (CMM) 284–7 capital ‘lock-in’ 8
cargo cult of Pacific islanders 98
Caribou bone technique 307 Carlsberg 8
challenge space 34–5
challenges, insight generation 88–90 Chandler, A.D. 4
change management, strategic boundaries 151–3 Clausewitz, Carl von 56
Clegg, S. 81
cluster analysis 195
comparative competitor analysis 192–5 competence destroying 274
competencies 274
competing trajectories 164–6
competition 106–7
internal 36–7
competitive advantage 129, 296–7 competitive basis of firm 134 competitive differentiation 12, 13, 80–1, 126–8 competitive intelligence 192–5
competitive wherewithal 134
competitiveness 80, 170–1, 296
of value offering 101
see also unique competing space competitor analysis 192–5 competitor intelligence 193
competitor interface 143
competitors’ offering 131, 133 complex environments, sense making 73–80
complexity 73
consolidation
strategic analysis 116–17
unique competing space analysis 145 contextual insight 112
continual monitoring 44–5
Cook, Tim 135
coo-petition 196
correlation analysis 155
creative chaos 74
critical juncture points 270 cross-organizational alignment and commitment 266
cultural branding 78–80
curve-jumping 269–70, 271–4
customer interface 147
customer intimacy 126–7
customers’ needs 138

Darwin, Charles 314
data
availability 97, 117
hard 18
reliability of 90–3, 97, 117
soft 18
storage 103
De Bono, E. 295
decision making 88–90, 91, 96, 97–9, 109 decline phases 184–5
deep smarts 21
deliberate strategy 9–10
delivering value proposition 124–5 derivatives trading 94
diabetes (type 2) treatment 132 differentiation 6, 80–1, 126–8
value 273
Dimon, J. 97–9, 295
dissonance, strategic 302–4, 306
distortion 70–1
Drucker, Peter F. 31, 122, 263
dynamic capabilities 167–71, 203
dynamic organizations 232, 234–5 education 242
Eastman Kodak 135
economics, behavioral 95 efficient-markets hypothesis 94–5 Einstein, Albert 278
emergent phases 184–5
emergent strategy 9–10
enactment 78
enlightened rationalist 19–21
entrepreneurial organizations 232, 233–4 epistemological assumptions 59–60 Etsy 109–10
execution of strategy 261, 262–3 expectations, unrealistic 264–6 experience curve 162
exploitation 261
external competitive environment 36, 122, 123–4 external environment triggers 36
externally-focused analysis 176–8, 178–9
competitors 192–5
factors 114, 116
industry-level 179, 182–7
key success factors 188–92
life-cycle analysis 183–5
macro-economic environment 179–82
market-level 187–97
PESTLE 181–2
Porter’s five forces 192–5
value 273
extraordinary management 301, 302
extricating insights 116
Facebook 7, 9, 93, 106
family-owned firms 236–7
feedback mechanisms 262
Feynman Rule 98
financial crisis (2007) 94 Fingerspitzengefühl 51
firm, purpose of 7–9
firm-internal threshold 147–9 five forces, Porter’s 192–5 fluctuation 74
Forbes: innovation premium 280
Ford Motor Company 50
formal organizations 213–15
formation of strategy see strategy formation frame-breaking 269–70, 271–4
frameworks
externally-focused analysis 176–8, 178–9
high-level analysis 87–8, 119–73
frameworks \( Continued \) insight-driven analysis 96–7, 112–17
  internally-focused analysis 197–212
  limitations 215–16
  in practice 214–15
  strategic thinking 31–54
  strategy option evaluation 245–51
  supporting-level analysis 175–218
  unique competing space 129–61
  value proposition 122–7
framing
  issues 33, 39–40
  strategic questions 44–5
France, German invasion of 1940 46–8 ‘freemium model’ 7, 103, 105–6 generative learning 300–2
generic strategies 224
German invasion of France, 1940 46–8
Gerstner, Lou 264
Gleicher strategic change formula 288–90 global news media industry 240–1
Google 9, 93
Grant’s profit-earning potential framework 208–10 growth matrix 224
growth phases 184–5 Guerras-Martin, L. A. 3–4, 5
guiding principles, value proposition 125
gut feeling 51
Heisenberg, Werner 32
high context settings 69–72
high-level analysis 119–73
  concepts 111–12
  purpose 120
SWOT 163–4
unique competing space 129–36
  value proposition framework 122–7
high-level positioning 176 high-level strategy questions 39–40, 41–5 high-velocity markets 91
hot spots, value chains 187 human factor, market behavior 95 hunches 51
IBM 158–9, 264, 275
iceberg model of organizations 213–14 identification of problems 113 identity 77
inactivity 15
incremental transformation 269–70 industry context, unique competing space 132–3 industry life-cycle analysis 183–5
industry logic 46
industry maturity analysis 112 industry value chain analysis 186–7 industry-level analysis 179, 182–7 inflection points 302–4 informal organization 213–15
innovation premium 280
insight 62–3
  extricating 116
  sense making 80–1
  insight formation 80–1
insight-driven strategic analysis 87–118
  aggregation and consolidation 114, 116–17
  extricating insights 116
  frameworks 88–9, 112–17
  high-level 111–13, 119–73
  opportunity–response purposes 88–90
  set up and execution 113–17
  strategic challenges 111–13
  supporting-level 111–12, 175–218
SWOT 163–4
unique competing space 129–61
value proposition framework 122–7
insight-driven strategy 21–4 in perspective 293–316
sense making 60–1, 62–5
vs. strategic planning 22–3 institutionalized logic 309–10 institutions
cultural branding 78–80
organizational learning 76–7
insulin production 132
intangible assets 203–7
intangible values 121–2
integration
organizational learning 76
strategic analysis 95, 96
Intel 275, 302–6
intentions 74
internal basis of competitiveness 122, 124–5
internal competition 36–7
internal conflict 140
internal threshold 147–9
internal value chain analysis 211–12
internally-focused analysis 197–212
appraising resources 203–8
capabilities as resources 199–203
factors 111–12, 114, 116
identifying resources 203–7
value chains 211–12
interpretation 69–72, 76
inter-relationships in unique competing space 154–6
intuition 50–1, 66–8, 76
irrationality of markets 95 isolation mechanisms 106, 107
issues framing 33, 39–40, 113–15

J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. 97–9, 295
Kant, I. 175
Kekulé, F.A. 64–5
key performance indicators (KPIs) 189
key stakeholders 41
key success factors (KSFs) analysis 112, 188–92
Klein, G. 98
knowledge competency 201–2 knowledge curve 162
knowledge territorialization 72
Kodak 275
KPIs (key performance indicators) 189
KSFs (key success factors) 112, 188–92 Labrador, Naskapi natives 307 leadership, entrepreneurial 233–4
learning
adaptive/generative 300–2 appropriate mindset adoption 310–11 organizational 300–11
sense making 72
strategic 232, 234
Lego 127–8
Lehman Brothers 8, 93
leverage 93
limitations
frameworks 215–16
industry life-cycle analysis 185
sense making in organizations 81–2 line of demarcation 144–6
logic, institutionalized 309–10 loss of competitive ground 139–42 low context settings 70 loyalty, cultural branding 79–80
macro-economic environment 132–3, 179–82
Malleus Maleficarium 71 management, ordinary/extraordinary 301 mapping 266–7
market context 132–3
market-level analysis 187–92
competitors 192–5
key success factors 188–92
five forces framework 195–7 market opportunity curve 242 market place logic 188
market pricing 94–5, 184–5 market-side thinking 166 maturity 284–7
industry life cycle 183–5 McNamara, R. 19–21
memory chips 302–4
microporcessors 302–4
Microsoft Windows 102–4
Mintzberg, H. 1, 4, 10, 15, 18, 81, 219, 224–5, 231–2, 311
Mittelstand firms 236–7
Moltke, Helmuth Graf von 266–7
multiple possible futures 298–9

Naskapi natives of Labrador 307
Nelson, Lord H. 10–11, 12
Nespresso 37–8, 42, 49
Nestlé 9
neuroscience, insight 64–5
Nokia 93, 135–6, 229–31, 275
Nonaka, I. 74–5
non-governmental organizations (NGOs) 107
not-for-profit sector 109 Novo Nordisk 131–2

ongoing projects 79
ontological assumptions 59–60 operating systems 93, 139–41 operational excellence 126, 185 opportunity space 129
competing trajectories 164–6
dynamic capabilities 167–71
opportunity-side perspectives 166 response-side perspectives 165–6 strategic assessment 241–5 opportunity-side thinking 166
O–R see opportunity–response framework order winners 190

ordinary management 301
organizational learning 75–7, 300–11
organizational wherewithal 134 organizations
adhoocracies 232, 244–5
competitive wherewithal 134
complexity 73–80
emerging, dynamic contexts 234–5 entrepreneurial 233–4
formal and informal aspects 213–16 institutionalized 233
professional 232, 235–6
sense making 73–80, 81–2
strategy formation 222
strategy implementation 243–4
outperformance, differentiation 12

Pacific islanders, cargo cult 98
paradigms 45–51
Pareto principle 44, 157
patents, expiry 37–8
path dependency 200
performance metrics dilemma 290–1 performance, differentiation 12, 80–1, 126–8 PEST [political, economic, societal and technological] factors 124
PESTLE [Political, Economic, Societal, Technological, Legal, Environmental] analysis 181–2 Pietersen, W. 80
planning, strategic see strategic planning plausibility 78
political, economic, societal and technological [PEST] factors 124 Political, Economic, Societal, Technological, Legal, Environmental [PESTLE] analysis 181–2
INDEX

Porter, Michael 166
five forces 192–5
generic strategies 224
portfolio perspective, unique competing space 156–9 positivism 59
power in markets 179
practical perspectives 293–316
pre-mortem 98
prevailing logic 45–51
price-based competition 273
pricing 94–5, 184–5
primary industries 186
principal component analysis 154–5 probing 45
product families 102
product leadership 126
professional organizations 232, 235–6 profit-earning potential framework 208–19 profit-equivalents 108
public sector 109
purposeful strategic analysis 88–90
qualifiers 190
qualitative measures of 281
quantitative/semi-quantifiable measures of 279–81 quaternary industries 186 questions see strategic questions quintessential knowledge 63 resource-based view [RBV] 166–7, 170–1, 198–9 resources 199–212
appraising 203–8
capabilities 199–203
identification 203–7
relevance analysis 204–5, 206–7
utilization 147–9
response-side thinking 166–7 retrospection 72, 77, 295, 307
return on equity [ROE] 93
Rhineland Model 78
rigor 18
RIM [Research In Motion] 139–41
ROE [return on equity] 93
Rondo-Pupo, G.A. 3–4, 5
salient cues/evidence 78
Schultz, Howard 5
sciences, insight 64–5
scoping 33–5
scrutinizing 45, 113
S-curve analysis 183–5
SECI (socialization, externalization, combination and internalization) model 75–6 Second World War 46–8
secondary industries 186
securitizations 94
seizing opportunities 169
sense making 55–85
analysis 66
assumptions 72–3
Baumard 75
boundary conditions 153
complex environments 73–80
concepts 56–8
cultural branding 78–80
distortion 70–1
failure in 57
insight formation 60–1, 80–2
interpretation 69–72
intuition 66–8
sense making (Continued)
learning 72–3
limitations in organizations 81–2 organizational context 77–8 positivism and social constructionism 59 process perspective 65–72
spatial perspective 61–5
strategic boundaries 151–3
strategic insight 62–3
triggers 65–6
sense making space 34, 60–2, 66
sensing opportunities 169 shared understanding, lack of 268 shareholder value 7, 8 Shell 9
shrinkage, unique competing space 139–42
simplicity 134–6
ski manufacturers 145–6
Sloan, J. 32
SMART goals 287
smartphones sector 92, 101–2, 135–6, 139–41, 179, 229–31, 242
snapshot analyses 182
social constructionism 59
social context 77
socialization, externalization, combination and internalization (SECI) model 75–6 society at large 109
spatial perspective, sense making 60–2, 66
Spotify 106
Stacey, R.D. 301–2
stakeholder engagement, monitoring and management 287–90 stakeholders 34, 41, 100, 108–11, 121–2 definitive 110
needs 133–4
positions 108–11
Starbucks 5
strategic ambidexterity 238–41
strategic analysis
aggregation and consolidation 114, 116–17
externally-focused 176–8, 178–9
industry-level 179, 182–7
macro-economic environment 179–82
market-level 187–97
Porter’s five forces 192–5
frameworks 88–90, 112–17
limitations 92–9, 215–16
in practice 214–15
high-level 87–8, 119–73
industry-level 179, 182–7
insight-driven 87–118
high-level 87–8, 119–73
opportunity–response framework 161–71
unique competing space 129–61
value proposition framework 122–7
integration 95
internally-focused 197–212
appraising 203–8
capabilities as resources 199–203
identification 203–7
irrational 91
issues framing 113–15
macro-economic environment 179–82
market-level 187–97
multiple possible futures 298–9
organizational learning perspective 300–11
purposes 88–90
rational 91
set up and execution 113–17
strategic boundaries 142–56
supporting-level 111–13, 175–218
core concepts 176
externally-focused 176–8, 178–9
internally-focused 197–212
SWOT 163–4
value chains 186–7, 211–12
strategic attractiveness 145
strategic boundaries 142–56
interdependencies 153–4 empirical research 154–6
strategic issues 151–3
strategic challenges
articulation 33–5
relevance 111–13
strategic change formula 288–90
strategic clock 224
strategic dissonance 302–4, 306
strategic growth 137
strategic inflection points 302–4, 306
strategic insight 55–85
concepts 21–4
positivism and social constructionism 59
sense making mechanisms 63
strategic intent 122, 126–8
strategic learning 232, 234–5, 239 strategic management literature 258 strategic maturity continuum 284–7 strategic options 262
evaluation 245–51
formation 224–37
space 223–5
strategic performance 278–84
qualitative measures of 281
quantitative/semi-quantifiable measures of 279–81
see also building blocks
strategic performance measurement 263
strategic planning
concepts 19–21
obstruction by 266–7
opportunity–response framework 169–71, 241–5
vs. insight-driven strategy 22–3
strategic questions 121
analysis frameworks 90–1
articulation 113–15
assumptions, hypothesis and
prevailing logic 45–51
high-level 39–40, 41–5
internal competition 36–7
intuition 50–1
issues framing 39–40
subordinate issues analysis 40
triggers 35–8
strategic relevance 36, 39, 145, 204–5, 206–7, 271
strategic resources 198–212
appraising 203–8
capabilities 199–203
identification 203–7
strategic resources audit and analysis 112
strategic thinking 31–54, 259, 313
framework 34
strategic value imperative 121–2 strategic venturing 232, 235 strategic visioning 232, 239
strategizing, failed 257 strategy
Chandler’s definition 4
concepts 2–18
Rondo-Pupo/Guerras-Martin’s
definition 3–4, 5
strategy as practice 23–4 strategy as winning 10–12
strategy design
bias for action 15, 16
building blocks 13–14, 42, 43, 148, 247–8, 250, 281–4
strategy execution 255–92
agility, lack of 267
aspirations 264
basic principles 268–78
concepts 258–9
cross-organizational alignment and commitment 266
strategy execution (Continued)
reason for failure 257–8, 263–8 shared understanding and buy-in, lack of 268 strategic planning and 266–7 strategy formation and 261–3 third boundary perspective 260–1, 263 unrealistic targets and expectations 264–6
strategy formation 219–54
ambidexterity 238–41
option discrimination 246
option evaluation 245–51
option formation 220–4
primary mechanisms 238
strategy execution and 261–3
strategy implementation 243–4
strategy in perspective 293–316 strategy insight, formation 80–1 strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, threats (SWOT) framework 163–4 stretch 126
structure–conduct–performance paradigm 166, 195–6 subconscious processes, sense making 62, 65, 67
subordinate issues analysis 40
supporting-level analysis 175–218
competitors 192–5
core concepts 111–12, 176
externally-focused 176–8, 178–9
industry-level 179, 182–7
internally-focused 176–8, 197–212
life-cycle analysis 183–5
market level analysis 187–97
PESTLE 181–2
Porter’s five forces 195–7
value chain analysis 186–7, 211–12
SWOT (strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, threats) framework 163–4 synergistic effects, black swans 52
tacit knowledge 200–1
Takeuchi, H. 74–5
Taleb, N.N. 52
tangible resources 203–7
targets, unrealistic 264–6 Tata 8
technical functionality 101
Teece, D.J. 168
territorialization of knowledge 72
tertiary industries 186 theory of business, Drucker 122 third generation (3G) telecommunications 165 time-to-market advantage 242 Trafalgar, battle of 10–11 transformation 269–76
curve-jumping or frame-breaking 269–70, 271–4
as function of need for change 271 incremental 269–70
translation of information 74
trend analyses 182
trial by red-hot iron 70–1
triggers 35–8, 65–6
type 2 diabetes treatment 132
UCS see unique competing space
UMTS (Universal Mobile Telecommunications Systems) 165 unique competing space (UCS) 43, 112, 120, 176, 225, 294 analysis and framework 129–36 boundary inter-relationships 129, 154–6 change management 151–3 competitive basis 131, 134 competitors’ offerings 131, 133
competitor interface 143
customer interface 147
inter-boundary analysis 154–6
internal threshold 147–9
limitations 159–60
line of demarcation 144–5
macro-economic environment 132–3
new strategic options 224–37
overview 129–31
portfolio perspective 156–9 shrinkage 139–42
simplicity 134–6
strategic boundaries 142–56
strategy execution 257
third boundary 257, 261
threats to 225, 226
value propositions 136–9
Universal 106
Universal Mobile Telecommunications Systems (UMTS) 165
user experience 101

Valuable, Rare, Imitable, Organizational (VRIO) framework 210–11 value, centrality in strategy 6–9 value appropriation 105 value at risk (VAR) 98
value at stake 99, 120
value bundles 100–1
value capture 6–7, 104–8
value chain analysis
   internal 211–12
market-level 187–90
value creation 6, 100–4, 187
value disciplines 126–7 value offering 120
   concepts 5, 6, 13, 100–1
   industry maturity 184–5
   portfolio of 102
value premium 6, 101, 273
corporate 102
value proposition (VP) 112, 120, 122–8, 176, 274
   aspirations 122, 125
   external competitive environment 122, 123–4
   guiding principles 125
   internal basis of competitiveness 122, 124–5
   strategic intent 122, 126–8
   unique competing space 136–9
value slippage 7, 104–6
values, intangible 122
VAR (value at risk) 98
venturing, strategic 232, 235, 239
visioning, strategic 232, 239
VP see value proposition
VRIO (Valuable, Rare, Imitable, Organizational) framework 210–11
Weick 312
Welch, Jack 8
winning 10–12, 121, 190, 256
Winstein, Albert 55
witch trials 70–1
World War II 46–8