Contents

1 Introduction
   Critical community psychology in Manchester 2
   Why Manchester? 3
   Learning through action and action through learning 5
   Action learning 7
   Action research 7
   Language, discourse and representation 9
   What do we mean by ‘critical’? 12
   Orientation to the book 13

PART I: THINK! 15

2 What is critical community psychology? 17
   The nature and origins of community psychology 18
   Definitions 21
   The emergence of community psychology in different parts of the world 24
   Key themes in critical community psychology 28
   Core values underpinning a critical community psychology 36
   Social justice 37
   Stewardship 38
   Community 38
   Conclusion 39

3 Core elements of a critical community psychology 41
   Elements of critical community psychology 42
   The ecological metaphor 42
   The systems perspective 47
   Multiple levels of analysis 48
   The person-in-context 49
   Working together 59
   Prefigurative action 60
   Core principles underlying a critical community psychology 62
   Diversity 62
   Innovation 62
   Liberation 63
   Commitment 63
   Critical reflection 63
   Humility 63
   Conclusions 67
4 The contested nature of community
What is community? 71
Theory descriptions of community 73
Dimensions of community: Sentiment, social structure and space 74
   Sentiment 74
   Space 79
   Social structure 81
      Multi-dimensional communities 83
Social exclusion 85
Conclusions 87

5 Community as social ties 89
Social ties 90
   Affection 91
   Interdependence 91
   Coercion 92
Theory prescriptions for community 93
   Ties of affection and co-operation: Community as social capital 94
   Ties of coercion: Community as ghetto 98
Social boundaries: benign or benevolent? 102
Community and social policy 103
Nature of participation 104
Conclusion 110

Critical disruption of Think! 111
   Critically disrupting the challenge to individualism 111
   Critically disrupting our history of community psychology 113

Resources for Part I 117

PART II: ACT! 121

6 Problem definition 123
Social issues 125
Need 126
   Positionality and problem definition 130
   Whose need? 131
Getting to know the community 132
   Community audit 132
   Community profiling 133
   Use of statistics 137
   Observation 137
   Community walks 138
Making contact and gaining entry in the community 139
Problem situations as human systems 142
Stakeholders and stakeholder analyses 151
Conclusion 154
7 Action planning

- Decision making
  - Stakeholder analysis and action planning
  - Boundary critique: towards value-based decision making
  - Fourth generation evaluation
  - Participatory appraisal of needs and development of action
  - Strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats
  - Force field analysis
- Option appraisal
  - Compromise
  - Visioning
- Mixing methods
- Complex decision making: Polarity management

8 Action 1: Furtherance of critical consciousness and creation of new forms of social settings

- Action for change
  - Strategies of critical community psychological action
  - Furtherance of critical consciousness (conscientisation)
    - Problematisation
    - Experiential learning
    - ‘Capacitation’
    - Deideologisation
  - Creation of new forms of social relations and settings
    - Multi-dimensional nature of social situations
    - Behaviour settings
    - New or alternative social settings
    - The radical nature of alternative social settings

9 Action 2: Development of alliances, and accompaniment, advocacy and analysis of policy

- Making links, the development of alliances and counter systems
  - Processes of making links and working together
  - Communities of interest or communities of practice
  - Alliances and coalitions
  - Partnerships
  - Working at the ecological edge
  - Alliances, new social settings and connecting with social movements
- Accompaniment, advocacy and analysis of policy
  - Accompaniment
  - Advocacy
  - Analysis of policy
- Conclusions

Critical disruption of Act!

- Chronic uncertainty
- Work ethic
Resources for Part II

PART III: REFLECT!

10 Evaluation

- Purpose of evaluation
- Principles of evaluation
- Evaluation frameworks
- Politics of evaluation
- What is to be evaluated?
  - ‘Theory of change’ perspectives on evaluation
  - Realistic or realist perspectives on evaluation
- Capacity building for evaluation
- Participation and evaluation
  - Participation and empowerment in evaluation
  - Resistance to involvement as a barrier to participation
- Skills for evaluation
- Conclusions

11 Change, influence and power

- The nature of social change
  - Incremental or radical change
  - Linear and non-linear change
  - Stage approaches to change
  - Strategic change
- Resistance to change
- Action research as change
- Social movements, power and ideology
- Social influence
- Social change tactics
- Social power, powerlessness and empowerment
  - Taxonomy of power
  - The social structure of social power
- Power analysis

12 Roles, skills and reflections on learning for community psychologists

- Roles for facilitating change
  - Facilitation roles
  - Educational roles
  - Representational roles
  - Technical roles
- Skills for facilitating change
  - Interpersonal communication skills
  - Social problem solving skills
  - Organisation skills
  - Research skills
The context of community psychological action 310
Reflexivity as part of practice 314
Constraints on working as a community psychologist and spaces for resistance 316
Ethical issues 319
Risk 320
Power (again) 322
Prefigurative learning 323
The case for and against community psychology 323
Community psychology as oppression or liberation 325
Conclusion 327

Critical disruption of Reflect! 329
Evaluation and the audit culture 329
Auditing skills 331
Critical disruption of critical reflection 333

Resources for Part III 335

13 Critical disruption: Does critical community psychology have an adequate praxis? 337
A new context: extreme and globalised oppression 340
Rethinking the amelioration–transformation distinction 341

References 343
Index 369