Index

Page references followed by fig indicate an illustrated figure.

A
Abandoned pages, 65
Acceptable Use Policy (AUP), 35, 245–246
Advocacy: blogs for increasing, 161*fig*, 162;
classroom portals for increasing, 128*fig*, 129; DonorsChoose.org used to enable donations as part of, 47–48; e-mail for increasing, 119*fig*, 121; eNewsletter for increasing, 14*fig*, 15; Facebook for increasing, 27*fig*, 28–29; Google for increasing, 208*fig*, 209; LinkedIn for increasing, 191*fig*,
193–194; mobile devices for increasing,
183*fig*–184; Ning for increasing, 73*fig*, 76; online surveys for increasing, 60*fig*, 61; student portfolio for increasing, 143*fig*, 144; Twitter for increasing, 46*fig*, 47–48; YouTube for increasing, 85*fig*,
87–88. See also Dixon Ongoing Social Engagement Model
Affiliate programs, 236, 237*fig*
Akerson, Scott, 126
Alarm app, 172
Amazon: affiliate program of, 236, 237*fig*; Amazon
Highlights Passage feature, 152*fig*; Amazon
Kindle, 41; Reading List, 191
American Hebrew Academy, 32
American Society of Training and Development, 68
Anderson, Carol, 182
Anderson, Steven, 46
Animated GIFs, 64
Ankeny High School, 120
Annotated adventures videos, 91–92
Announcements: blogs used for making, 163;
Facebook used for making, 29; posting faculty job, 195, 227–229; promoting schoolwide community service day, 224–227; robotics team tournament, 30–31; social media for grant award, 233–234;
social media available for event, 225; text blasts used for making, 180; Twitter used for making, 45
Appointment management: Calendar app, 171–172;
Doodle, 225; Google Calendar, 127, 132; Google+, 210
Apps: adopting new, 168; Audible, 176; AwayFind,
173–174; calendar and appointment management, 171–172; Constant Contact, 174; context-based lists, 170; custom mobile, 174–175; document access and backup, 175–176; downloading, 168;
Dragon Dictation, 174; e-mail, 173, 181; Evernote,
175–176; Facebook, 174–175; Google Apps, 132,
133, 207; iBooks, 176; iMessage, 173; introduction to, 167–168; Kindle, 176; location-based reminders, 170*fig*; messaging and communication, 173–174; Mobile Receipt, 176; note-taking apps,
181; personal health, 176–177; SleepCycle, 176–177; time-based reminders, 169–170*fig*; to-do apps, 181; WordPress mobile, 175. See also Mobile devices
AppSumo, 243
Assessing student portfolios, 139–140, 141
Audible app, 176
Availability sharing, 172
Awareness: blog for increasing, 161*fig*; classroom portals for increasing, 128*fig*; e-mail for increasing, 119*fig*–120; eNewsletter social engagement through increased, 13, 14
Facebook for increasing, 26–27; Google+ for increasing, 208; LinkedIn for increasing, 191–192; mobile devices for increasing, 182–183; Ning for increasing, 73–74; online surveys for increasing, 101; school website for increasing, 59–60; student portfolio for increasing, 142–143; Twitter for increasing, 46; YouTube for increasing, 85. See also

Dixon Ongoing Social Engagement Model
AwayFind app, 173–174

Baeder, Justin, 172
Barrett, Helen, 141
Bing searches, 141
Bingham, Tony, 68
Bit.ly, 219
Blog benefits: casting a leadership vision, 147; growing your platform and career, 149; improving your professional practice, 148–149; influencing the educational community, 148; sharing your school's story, 147
Blog social engagement: advocacy increased through ongoing, 161; awareness increased through ongoing, 161; collaboration increased through ongoing, 161; feedback increased through ongoing, 161
Blog topic sources: additional ideas for, 153–154; frequently asked questions, 150; idea websites, 153; the local news, 150–151; the national news, 151; other blogs, 151; quotes, 152; searching Twitter to find trending topics, 153; suggestions for finding, 149
Blog writing times: challenge of finding enough, 154–155; establish a daily routine for, 155; first thing in the morning, 155–156; Freedom (macfreedom.com) productivity application for, 156; reflecting in the afternoon commute for, 156; write during your morning commute, 155
Blogger (blog platform), 156, 160
Blogging best practices: keep it appropriate, 159; keep it updated, 159; make it accessible, 160; make it look professional, 159; make it searchable, 160; make it shareable, 161
Blogging platforms: Blogger, 156, 160; building your, 157–158; Drupal, 142; hosting, themes, and plug-ins features of, 156–157; Tumblr, 156, 160. See also WordPress
Blogs: benefits of using, 147–149; best practices for, 159–161; common school tasks before and after starting a, 162–163; description of, 2, 146–147; embedding YouTube video clips into your, 158; finding time to write, 154–156; finding topics to write about, 149–154; getting started with your, 164; guidelines for writing, 154; making comments to, 152; microblogs, 2; Ning, 70; ongoing social engagement with school leader's, 161–162; posting on LinkedIn, 190; screenshot: school leader's blog, 148; soliciting donations using, 236
Bloomington High School wrestling team (California), 29
Book talks, 210
Broken links, 65
Buck Institute of Education, 246

C
Calendar and appointment management: Calendar app, 171–172; Google calendar for, 127, 132, 225; Google+ for, 210; social media available for event, 225
Calendar apps: agenda attachments, 172; appointment notes, 172; availability sharing, 172; calendar syncing, 171; day planning, 171; meeting invitations, 171; reminder function, 171
Call-Em-All, 180
Catch all e-mail account, 220
Caven, Debra, 126
Celebrating students: building collaboration by, 247; Facebook used for, 24
Cell phones: parents and school leaders', 177–180; students and, 180–182
Checkbox Online, 96, 97
Childnet International, 242
Children's Internet Protection Act (CIPA), 78
Circles (Google+), 206–207, 209
Classroom 2.0 social network, 5
Classroom portal benefits: authentic assessment, 126; enabling collaboration of teachers and students, 126; enhanced access to students, 125; fewer photocopies, 128; increased engagement, 127; real-world relevance, 127
Classroom portal social engagement: advocacy increased through ongoing, 128; awareness increased through ongoing, 128; collaboration increased through ongoing, 128; feedback increased through ongoing, 128
Classroom portal tips: evaluate implementation of, 133–134; use Google Apps, 132; offer training resources, 132; sharing best practices with other teachers, 133
Classroom portals: benefits of, 125–128; common school tasks before and after, 129–132; description of, 123–124; features of, 124–125; getting started with, 134; ongoing social engagement with, 128; screenshot: classroom portal, 124; tips for implementing, 132–134
Classroom portals features: classroom information, 124–125; collaboration tools and multimedia sharing, 125; downloadable documents, 125; user management, 125
Classrooms: flipped, 90; using online surveys in the, 105; using YouTube in the, 88–91
Collaboration: blog for increasing, 161; commenting on LinkedIn, 190; screenshot: school leader's blog, 148; soliciting donations using, 236 portals for increasing, 128ff, 129; e-mail for increasing, 119ff, 120–121; eNewsletter for increasing, 14ff; Facebook for increasing, 27ff, 28; Google+ for increasing, 208ff, 209; Internet safety by building a culture of, 246–247; LinkedIn for increasing, 191ff, 193–194; mobile devices for increasing, 183ff; Ning as online network for, 68–80; Ning for increasing, 73ff, 75; online surveys for increasing, 101ff, 102; project-based learning (PBL) for, 246; providing frequent training to teachers on, 247; school website for increasing, 60ff–61; student portfolio, 139; student portfolio for increasing, 143ff–144; Twitter for increasing, 46ff, 47; YouTube for increasing, 85ff, 87. See also Dixon Ongoing Social Engagement Model

Collaborative school culture, social media for building, 3–4

Comer, James, 120

Comic Sans font, 64

Comments: blog, 152; LinkedIn, 193; soliciting donations using, 236; YouTube, 83, 84. See also Messages

Community-based Internet safety partners: Internet safety nonprofits, 241–242; the sheriff’s department, 241

Community members: broadcasting emergency message across networks to, 180; how online surveys are used with, 96; LinkedIn for connecting and empowering your, 194; using LinkedIn to engage, 200–201; promoting schoolwide community service day to, 224–227

Community School of Excellences (St. Paul), 182

Conner, Marcia, 68

Constant Contact, 103, 225

Constant Contact app, 174

Content management systems: Acceptable Use Policy (AUP) as part of, 35, 245–246; adding keyword tags, 56–57; adding tag clouds, 57, 58ff; content categories arranged by, 56; empowering faculty to approve and delete content, 245; keeping static pages updated, 56; for managing multiple users, 55; moving your website to a new, 59; plug-ins feature, 57; for updated posts, 56; website themes, 57. See also WordPress

Context-based lists apps, 170

Craigslist: description of, 228; as tool for hiring great teachers, 227, 228

Cyberbullying: description and dangers of, 240; Facebook and, 34; monitoring Facebook activity in order to help control, 36–37

D

Davis, Michelle, 72

Decker, Larry, 60

Decker, Virginia, 60

Delmatoff, Elizabeth, 129

DeWitt, Peter, 44

District policies, 5. See also School policies

Dixon Ongoing Social Engagement Model: introducing advocacy stage of, 6ff; introducing awareness stage of, 6ff; introducing collaboration stage of, 6ff; introducing feedback stage of, 6ff; overview of the, 6ff–7. See also Social engagement; Social media; specific stages

Documents: classroom portal and downloadable, 125; Evernote app for backing up, 175–176; Google Docs, 128, 131, 190, 232; Mobile Receipt app for organizing receipts, 176

Domain names: finding the perfect, 216–217; protecting your, 217–218

Donation solicitation: affiliate programs for, 236; direct outreach request for, 235–236; DonorsChoose.org used to enable, 47–48; online donation sites for, 236–237; screenshot: Amazon Affiliate Link, 237ff; social media used for, 234–237ff. See also Fundraising

Donors: using Google+ to collaborate on fundraising to, 209; increasing your online presence to, 214; using LinkedIn to engage, 200–201

DonorsChoose.org, 47

Doodle, 225

Dragon Dictation app, 174

Drupal (blog platform), 142

Dunn, Jeff, 194

Dupli checker, 141

E

E-mail address capturing: contests, 18; e-mail signatures, 18; online surveys used for, 102–103; phone calls, 18; registration forms for, 17

E-mail address management: Constant Contact for, 103; MailChimp for, 103

E-mail addresses: catch-all e-mail account for, 220; features available for Gmail or Gmail Labs, 114, 116; standardized signatures for, 118–119; when it is time to get new, 114

E-mail advanced features: canned responses, 115–116; FollowUpThen service, 112; for Gmail or Gmail Labs, 114, 116; internal human resources issues, 116; undo send, 115

E-mail batch processing, 109

E-mail management: batch processing for, 109; four-step e-mail processing for, 109–112; getting started with, 122; need to learn and practice, 108; receiving less e-mail strategies for, 114; setting up five folders for, 113–114

E-mail processing: step 1: select all, 110; step 2: star important e-mails, 111; step 3: archive the rest of the e-mails, 111; step 4: review the starred e-mails, 111–112

E-mail school rules: on using single-topic e-mails, 117–118; using smart subject lines, 116–117; on standardized signatures, 118–119
E-mail screenshots: Inbox, 110; No New Mail, 112; Review Stars, 112; Select All, 110; Star Important, 111

E-mail signatures, 18

E-mail social engagement: advocacy increased through ongoing, 119; awareness increased through ongoing, 119; collaboration increased through ongoing, 119, 120–121; feedback increased through ongoing, 119, 120

E-mails: asking for information from grant sources, 231; asking students to send reflections on events via, 227; AwayFind app for, 173–174; catch-all e-mail account for, 220; Google Alerts set up to alert you via, 231; mobile devices for sending, 173; school rules regarding, 116–119; schoolwide community service day information sent by, 224; spam, 17, 114

“Eat that frog” productivity concept, 155–156

Eat That Frog (Tracy), 155

eBay actions, 236–237
eBay Giving, 236

Education Week, 72, 151, 196

Edudemic, 194, 207

Edutopia, 16, 29, 129, 133, 246

Emergency alert system: broadcasting message across networks, 180; using e-mail for parents, 120; mobile devices used as part of, 179–180; sending text blast, 180; TextMarks tool for, 179–180. See also Messages eNewsletter advantages: customizable tools and services as, 12; digital content as, 11–12; intelligent data as, 12–13 eNewsletter content: advantages of digital, 11–12; archiving, 11; call readers to action with, 17; using compelling e-mail subject line, 16; don't bury the headline, 16; offer value through, 17; using pictures, 16

eNewsletter social engagement: advocacy component of, 14; collaboration component of, 14; feedback component of, 14; increased awareness component of, 13, 14 eNewsletter tasks: archiving content, 11; collecting your contact list, 10; communicating information to specific groups, 15; comparing traditional newsletter tasks and, 15; resending the eNewsletter as needed, 11; sending the eNewsletter, 10, 15; tracking recipients' interactions, 10, 13, 15; writing the eNewsletter, 10 eNewsletters: advantages of, 11–13; best practices for, 16–18; comparing traditional newsletter and, 15; description of, 2, 9; Facebook and Twitter links on, 15; getting started with, 18; grant award announcements through, 233; Internet safety articles on, 244; ongoing social engagement through use of, 13–15; reducing your e-mail by unsubscribing from, 114; school tasks before and after sending, 15; school website providing sign-up form for, 63; soliciting donations using, 235; tasks involved in, 10–11; as tool for hiring great teachers, 229

eNewsletters best practices: avoiding spam, 17; capturing e-mail addresses, 17–18; writing relevant content, 16–17

Epps, Kathy, 73

Events: announcing, 225; blogs used to promote, 150; e-mailed announcements on, 121; Facebook Events to share information on, 24, 25, 31; using Facebook to announce, 31; fishbowl business card contests, 18; LinkedIn to announce, 192, 198; mobile devices used to announce, 171, 175; Ning for announcing, 72, 74; robotics team tournament, 30–31; scheduling, 225; schoolwide community service day case study on promoting, 224–227; sharing, 225; using social media to engage families in, 3; social media tools for planning, 224–225; Twitter used to announce, 42, 44, 48; YouTube used to share, 86, 88

Evernote app, 175–176

Facebook: adding your friends on, 21; advanced tech-savvy features of, 37–38; advantages of Ning for collaboration over, 72; asking students to post reflections on event on their account, 227; benefits to school community, 25–26; building leadership credibility through use of, 4; communicating with your friends on, 21; comparing school tasks before and after innovation of, 29–31; connection options on, 21–25; creating your profile on, 20–21; description of, 20; eNewsletters links to, 15; getting started with, 38; grant award announcements through, 233, 234; linking LinkedIn to, 192; Livescribe pen for posting notes to, 184; ongoing social engagement using, 26–29; privacy and safety concerns on, 34–37, 242; school advertising in, 32–34; school's Acceptable Use Policy for students on, 35; soliciting donations using, 235; as tool for hiring great teachers, 229; Twitter compared to, 40

Facebook ad statistics: amount spent on one day of advertising, 34; average cost per click (CPC), 34; click-through rate (CTR), 34; clicks, 33; impressions, 33; social percentage, 33

Facebook ads: creating a, 32–33; measuring return on investment of, 33–34; targeting your, 33

Facebook advanced features: Facebook Places to “check-in,” 37–38; iFrames, 37

Facebook app, 174–175

Facebook benefits: accessibility, 25–26; easy to use, 25; manageability, 26; ubiquitous nature, 26

Facebook connections: Facebook Events, 25; Facebook groups, 24; Facebook pages, 22–24
Facebook Events, 25
Facebook groups, 24
Facebook page elements: “about” section, 22; contact information, 22; profile icon, 22; recent updates, 22; school name, 22; sharing feature, 22
Facebook page tips: keep it fun and positive, 24; post new content every day, 23–24; share relevant information, 24; upload multimedia content, 24
Facebook pages: description of, 22; elements of, 22; keys to creating a dynamic, 23–24; screenshot of, 23
Facebook Places, 37–38
Facebook profile: creating school mascot’s, 36; creating your school’s, 20–21; screening teacher candidates by looking at their, 229–230
Facebook social engagement: advocacy component of, 27/fig, 28–29; awareness component of, 26–27/fig; collaboration component of, 27/fig, 28; feedback component of, 27/fig–28
FaceTime, 183
Faculty. See Teachers
Faculty information, 63
Fadel, Charles, 69
Families, social media for engaging, 3
Feedback: blog for increasing, 161/fig, 162; classroom portals for increasing, 128/fig, 129; e-mail for increasing, 119/fig, 120; eNewsletter for increasing, 14/fig; Facebook for increasing, 27/fig–28; Google+ for increasing, 208/fig–209; LinkedIn for increasing, 191/fig, 192–193; mobile devices for increasing, 183/fig; Ning for increasing, 73/fig, 74–75; Ning for soliciting parent, 76; Ning used for providing student work, 76; online survey and, 98, 101/fig–102, 103, 104–105; online surveys for increasing, 101/fig–102; school website for increasing, 60/fig; solicited for your school leader blog, 154; student portfolio for increasing, 141, 143/fig; Twitter for increasing, 46/fig–47; YouTube for increasing, 85/fig, 86–87; on YouTube video, 83. See also Dixon Ongoing Social Engagement Model
Ferris, Tim, 171
Field trip forms, 130
Fishman, Brittany, 32
Flipped classroom, 90
FollowUpThen (e-mail service), 112
Forums, Ning, 70–71, 74–75
Freedom (macfreedom.com), 156
Frequently asked questions: finding blog topics using, 150; school website section on, 64
Fundraising: using Google+ to collaborate on, 209; increasing your online presence for, 214; using LinkedIn to engage donors for, 200–201; soliciting donations with social media, 234–237/fig; tasks before and after Facebook, 30. See also Donation solicitation
Furger, Roberta, 16
G
George Lucas Foundation, 246
Gmail Labs, 114, 116
Google Alerts, 231
Google Apps: classroom portals and use of, 132; Google+ for integrating all your, 207; implementing grant programs through Manymoon integrating with, 234; training teachers to use, 133
Google Calendar: allowing students to schedule appointments, 127; sending e-mail invitations from, 117; implementing grant programs by using, 234; scheduling events using, 225; scheduling parent conferences on, 132; for tracking grant application deadlines, 233
Google Docs: classroom portals and downloadable, 128; for editing grant fund writing, 232; for sharing presentations on LinkedIn, 190; student presentations using, 131
Google Maps, 222/fig
Google Places, 221
Google Search: checking for plagiarism using, 141; having your website appear at top of, 214; locating grant sources using, 231; of teacher candidate names, 230
Google Sites: student portfolios on blog platforms like, 135, 142; training tools available on, 142
Google+ features: Circles, 206–207, 209; Hangouts, 205–206, 210; Huddle, 206; integration facilitated by, 207; Photos, 207; profiles, 204–205; Sparks, 205, 207; stream, 205
Google+ (or Google Plus): common school tasks before and after, 209–210; description of, 203–204; features of, 204–207; four main benefits to using, 204; getting started with, 211; ongoing social engagement with, 207–209; screening teacher candidates by looking at their, 229–230
Google+ social engagement: advocacy increased through ongoing, 208/fig, 209; awareness increased through ongoing, 208/fig; collaboration increased through ongoing, 208/fig, 209; feedback increased through ongoing, 208/fig–209
Gowanda High school (Western New York), 162
Grant funding: announcing grant awards, 233–234; implementing programs funded by successful, 2334; locating grant sources with social media, 231; social media tools for grant writing process, 231–232; social media tools used for, 230–231; tracking grant application deadlines, 232–233; updating your school website to position school for, 232
Grunewald, Nancy, 89
H
Hadley, Ann, 151
Hangouts (Google+), 205–206, 210
Hargadon, Steve, 5
Hashtag (# symbol), 42

Index 257
Hiring teachers. See Teacher hiring process
Homework assignment checking, 130
Huddle (Google+), 206

iBooks app, 176
Idea websites, 153
iFrames (Facebook page), 37
iMessage, 173
Inappropriate online relationships, 240
International School of Central Switzerland, 73
Internet dangers: cyberbullying, 23, 36–37, 240;
engaging in appropriate relationships, 240;
sexting, 24
Internet safety: Children's Internet Protection Act (CIPA) on, 78; Facebook privacy issues and,
34–37, 242; getting started with, 247; Ning used for training, 76; online dangers to students,
239–240; password protection and management,
79–80, 220; six steps for, 241–247; as social media barrier, 5
Internet safety nonprofits, 241–242
Internet safety steps: building a culture of collaboration for, 246–247; getting trained, 241–243/fig; using group policing approach to, 245–246; hire great faculty and staff with expertise, 243–244; start learning with one technology tool, 241
Internet safety training: become an expert, 242;
building a partner network, 241–242; to parents, 244; pursue training resources, 242–243;
screenshot: Lynda.com for, 243/fig
iSAFE, 242

Johnson, Steve, 28
Jones, Leigh, 182
Jones, Stephen, 198

K
K7 (voicemail), 179
Kagan, Noah, 243
KeepVid, 92
Kent Elementary School (British Columbia),
44, 55
Keyword tags: adding website, 56–57; Twitter #
symbol (or hashtag), 42
Kindle app, 176
Kindle's “share to Twitter” feature, 41
“Klout Score” (klout.com), 158
Koehler, Ron, 11
Kupfer, Peter, 23
Kuroneko, Kisu, 14, 56

L
Latest news (Twitter), 45
Lewis, Mark, 206
LinkedIn: advanced and next-level strategies for using, 200–201; Amazon's Reading List application for sharing on, 191, 228–229; best practices for, 196–199; description of, 188;
features of, 189–191; getting started with, 201;
hiring great teachers before and after, 194–195;
how it works, 188–189; linking to Twitter and Facebook, 192; multimedia sharing on, 190–191, 192; ongoing social engagement using, 191fig–194; screening teacher candidates by looking at their page, 230; as tool for hiring great teachers, 227; whether or not to connect to your fellow faculty on, 189; WordPress plug-in to post your blog to, 158
LinkedIn advanced strategies: creating LinkedIn
Ads, 200; engaging donors and community members, 200–201; establishing your school's organization page, 200
LinkedIn best practices: connect professionally, 197–199; provide value, 196–197; reply promptly and appropriately, 199
LinkedIn groups, 190, 193
LinkedIn social engagement: advocacy increased by ongoing, 191fig–193–194; awareness increased by ongoing, 191fig–192; collaboration increased by ongoing, 191fig, 193; feedback increased by ongoing, 191fig, 192–193
LiveHelpNow (chat tool), 66
Livescribe Echo pen, 184
Livescribe paper, 184
Location-based tools: Google Maps, 221, 222fig;
Google Places account, 221; reminders apps,
170fig
Lowder, Steven, 183
Lynda.com, 243/fig

M
Mahesh, Naveen, 86
MailChimp, 103
Mansfield, Heather, 55
Manymoon, 234
Maynard, Norman, 150
McLeod, Scott, 162
McMichael High School (North Carolina), 182
Media: capturing and archiving local news coverage by, 226; post your own versions of news coverage online, 227; sharing news stories on your school events to local news, 226
Melton, Kimberly, 27
Mentors, 49
Mentorship Academy: MentorshipAcademy.org domain name of, 218; promoting schoolwide community service day using social media at,
224–227; YouTube channel of, 85
Messages: Call-Em-All for text blast, 180; e-mail for sharing school-related, 121; Google+, 210; LinkedIn, 192, 198–199; mobile devices and apps for sending, 173–174; Ning, 70, 74; Ning commenting and feedback system, 75; sent across networks, 180; text messaging, 178; Twitter, 43. See also Comments; Emergency alert system

Microblogs, 2

Mobile device social engagement: advocacy increased with ongoing, 183/fig–184; awareness increased with ongoing, 182–183/fig; collaboration increased with ongoing, 183/fig; feedback increased with ongoing, 183/fig

Mobile devices: calendar and appointment management using, 171–172; cell phones, 177–182; description and functions of, 166–167; getting started with, 185; increasing availability of, 167; increasing your productivity with, 168–177; ongoing social engagement with, 182–184; professional development facilitated by, 176; setting up your, 167; smartpens category of, 184. See also Apps

Mobile polls, 182

Mobile Receipt app, 176

Monitoring Facebook activity, 36–37

Moritz, Kimberly, 162

Multimedia hosting sites, 2

Multimedia sharing: classroom portal, 125; Facebook feature for, 22; LinkedIn and, 190–191, 192; Livecribe pen for, 184; of local press coverage of your school event, 226–227; Ning and, 72; Ping.fm for, 158, 192, 218–219; school website inclusion of embedded, 63; social media available for event, 225; as tool for hiring great teachers, 227, 229; of your blog, 160, 161

N

National Education Technology Plan, 137

National School Public Relations Association, 11

Nelson, Darren, 90

NetSmartz, 244

New Milford High School (New Jersey), 22, 41

New York Times, 73

Newton, Lyn, 122

Nielsen, Lisa, 181

Ning: advantages over Facebook, 72; asking students to send reflections on events via, 227; best practices with, 78–80; common school tasks before and after, 76; description as collaborative network, 68; features of, 69–72; getting started with, 80; groups feature of, 71–72, 77; how it works, 69; main page on, 72; managing inappropriate content on your, 77–78; multimedia sharing on, 72; ongoing social engagement with, 73/fig–76; screenshot: class discussion in Ning, 71/fig; teaching parents Internet safety using, 244

Ning best practices: beta testing, 78–79; password protection, 79–80; user management, 79

Ning groups: engaging parents through, 77; features of, 71–72

Ning management: blocking inappropriate content, 77–78; flagging inappropriate content, 78, 245

Ning social engagement: advocacy increased through, 73/fig, 76; awareness increased through, 73/fig–74; collaboration increased through, 73/fig, 75; feedback increased through, 73/fig, 74–75

Nonprofit Tech 2.0, 55

Note-taking apps, 181

O

Olympic View Elementary School (Seattle), 172

Online collaborative network: characteristics of an, 68; Ning's function as, 68–80

Online donation sites, 236–237

Online presence: benefits of improving your web visibility, 213–214; getting started with your, 222; using location-based tools to increase your, 221–222/fig; managing your school's reputation and, 220–221; strategies to increase your, 214–220

Online presence strategies: always linking to your school website homepage, 220; using catch-all e-mail account, 220; frequently posting relevant content, 215/fig; linking social media accounts, 219; managing passwords, 220; protecting your domain name, 217–218; screenshot: NameChk, 217/fig; shortening your URL through Bit.ly, 219; signing up for multiple social networks, 217; unifying domain names and usernames, 216–217; widely distributing content, 218–219

Online project management software, 234

Online survey analysis: best practices for, 100; filtering and chart creation for, 104–105

Online survey forms: to help plan schoolwide community service day, 224; for requesting information on grant writing, 231–232; on school websites to collect information, 54; screening teacher candidates using, 229–230; as tool for hiring great teachers, 227, 228

Online survey social engagement: advocacy increased through ongoing, 101/fig, 102–103; awareness increased through ongoing, 101/fig; collaboration increased through ongoing, 101/fig, 102; feedback increased through ongoing, 101/fig–102

Online survey tools: Checkbox Online, 96, 97; description of, 2; for exporting survey data, 104; survey templates, 99; SurveyMonkey, 96, 97, 104; for tracking feedback over time, 104–105; Wufoo, 96, 97, 104

Online surveys: used in the classroom, 105; common school tasks before and after, 103–104; description and uses of, 96; e-mail address captured through, 102–103; features of, 99–100; feedback component of of, 98, 101/fg–102, 103, 104–105; getting started with, 105; ongoing social engagement with, 100–103; planning, 100; ten steps for successful, 97–99. See also Parent survey tasks

P

Painter, Steven, 57
Pappalardo, Gaetan, 42

Parent conferences: classroom portals for scheduling, 132; Google+ for arranging, 210
Parent survey tasks, 103. See also Online surveys

“Parent university” night, 35

Parents: using contests to capture e-mail addresses of, 18; using e-mail as part of emergency alert system for, 120; e-mail for teacher communication with, 122; Facebook as facilitating collaboration between students and, 28; Facebook training for, 35; how online surveys are used with, 96; Ning for soliciting feedback from, 76; Ning groups for online collaboration with, 77; providing faculty information to, 63; school leader cell phones and, 177–180; teaching Internet safety to, 244; voicemail hotline provided to, 178–179

Partnership for 21st Century Skills, 69

Passwords: management tips for your, 220; protecting your, 79–80

Personal health apps, 176–177
Photos (Google+), 207
Ping.fm: increasing online presence using, 218–219; linking LinkedIn using, 192; for multimedia sharing, 158

Plagiarism, 141

Poestenkill Elementary School (New York), 44

Press coverage: converting news post to video on your school website, 226; grant award announcements through press release and, 233; leveraging for your school service day, 226–227; post your own versions of news coverage online, 227; sharing news stories on your school events to local news, 226; uploading news post to your YouTube account, 226

Principals. See School leaders

Principals and Teachers Network, 198

Privacy issues: Facebook, 34–35; YouTube tutorial on Facebook, 242

Productivity: “eat that frog” concept of, 155–156; Freedom (macfreedom.com) tool for increased, 156; mobiles devices used to increase your, 168–177

Professional development: how a blog helps with your, 149; LinkedIn used for, 196–199; mobile devices used to facilitate, 176; Twitter 140-character tool used for, 49

Profiles: asking students to post reflections on event on their own, 227; Facebook, 20–21, 36, 229–230; Google+ (or Google Plus), 204–205; LinkedIn, 190–191; Ning, 70; screenshot of, 189/fg; student portfolio “about me” page, 136/fg; Twitter, 229; for your school on LinkedIn, 200

Project-based learning (PBL), 246

Promoting service day. See Schoolwide community service day case study

Provenzano, Nicholas, 127

Quotes: as blog topic source, 152; screenshot: Amazon Highlights as source for finding, 152/fg

R

Rate, Nick, 45
Recruiting teachers. See Teacher hiring process
Registration e-mail forms, 17
Retweets (RT), 43
Ring, Sara, 133
Robotics team tournaments: announcing event before and after Facebook, 31; fundraising before and after Facebook, 31; hosting year-end banquet before and after Facebook, 31; promoting tasks before and after Facebook, 30

Roner, Shawn, 24

SafeShare.TV, 92

Safety. See Internet safety
SafetyClicks blog, 244
Salem School District (Oregon), 27
Salsbury, Marina, 207

Scheduling. See Calendar and appointment management
School administrators. See School leaders

School calendar, 64
School community: benefits of eNewsletters for, 11–13; benefits of Facebook for, 25–26; benefits of social media for, 3–4; how social media builds relationships within, 4; school website for engaging your, 54–55

School culture: Internet safety by building collaborative, 246–247; social media for building collaborative, 3–4. See also Social engagement

School leader cell phones: providing your number to parents, 177–178; text messaging with, 178; voicemail hotline, 178–179

School leader commentaries: Ann Hadley on blogs, 151; Carl Anderson on student cell phones, 182; Eric Sheninger on blogs, 147; Eric Sheninger on Facebook, 22; Eric Sheninger on Twitter, 41; Gary Vaynerchuk on blogs, 150; Jeff Dunn on LinkedIn, 194; Justin Baeder on mobile devices, 172; Kimberly Moritz on blogs, 162; Leigh Jones on Twitter as classroom tool, 182; Lisa Nielsen and Willyn Webb on student cell phones, 181; Norman Maynard on blogs, 150; Scott McLeod on blogs, 162; Stephen Jones’s use of LinkedIn, 198; Steven Lowder on mobile apps, 183
School leaders: benefits of social media for, 3–4; using blogs for sharing best practices, 163; blogs of, 145–164; using cell phones to communicate with parents, 177–180; how social technology has shifted roles of, 1; increasing your online presence, 213–222; leading the social media conversation, 4; personal Facebook account by, 36–37; technophobic, 5

School policies: Acceptable Use Policy (AUP), 35, 245–246; Children's Internet Protection Act (CIPA) requirements for, 78; empowering faculty to approve and delete content, 245; forming student technology team, 245; schoolwide e-mail rules, 116–119; as social media barrier, 5; on student cell phones, 180–181. See also District policies

School tasks: advertising on Facebook, 32–34; before and after classroom portals, 129–132; before and after e-mail, 121; before and after Facebook, 29–31; before and after Google+, 209–210; before and after Ning, 76; before and after online surveys, 103–104; before and after school leader blog, 162–163; before and after school website, 61–62; before and after Twitter, 48; comparing eNewsletter and traditional newsletter, 15; hiring great teachers before and after LinkedIn, 194–195

School website advanced features: live help, 66; squeeze page, 65–66; user management, 66

School website information: online surveys used to collect, 54; WordPress for collecting, 52–53, 55, 56, 57, 60

School website social engagement: advocacy increased through, 60/fg, 61; awareness increased through, 59–60/fg; collaboration increased through, 60/fg–61; feedback increased through, 60/fg

School website: affiliate programs linked to your, 236; appearing near top of Google Search results, 214; calendar on the, 64; collecting information to place on your, 52–54; common school tasks before and after designing, 61–62; content management systems for, 55–59; converting news post to video on your, 226; frequently asked questions on, 64; getting started with your, 66; grant award announcements on your, 233–234; ideas for advanced features of your, 65–66; increasing online presence by always linking to homepage of, 220; inviting engagement with your school community, 54–55; ongoing social engagement with, 57, 59–61; as primary source of information about your school, 52; schoolwide community service day information posted on, 224; screenshot: survey embedded on a, 54/fg; shortening your URL by using Bit.ly, 219; as tool for hiring great teachers, 227, 228; updated in order to position your school for grants, 232; what to avoid on your, 64–65; what to include on your, 63–64

School: using a blog to share the story of your, 147–148/fg; contact information of, 63; creating LinkedIn profile for your, 200; domain name and username for your, 216–218; Facebook Places feature allowing visitors to check in on, 38; grant funding with social media for, 230–234; managing the online reputation of your, 220–221; promoting schoolwide community service day for, 224–230

Schoolwide community service day case study: announcing the event, 225; background information on the event, 224; how relationship with the media helped promote event, 226; leveraging local press coverage of event, 226–227; planning the event, 224–225; reflecting and getting feedback on event, 227; scheduling the event, 225; sharing the event, 225

Screening teacher candidates, 229–230

Screenshots: Amazon Affili ate Link, 237/fg; Amazon Highlights, 152/fg; class discussion in Ning, 71/fg; classroom portal, 124/fg; e-mail, 110/fg–112/fg; Facebook page, 23/fg; Google Maps, 222/fg; LinkedIn, 189/fg; Lynda.com, 243/fg; NameChk, 217/fg; reminders app, 170/fg; school leader's blog, 148/fg; student portfolio, 136/fg; survey embedded on a school website, 54/fg; tag cloud created with Wordle, 58/fg; teacher recruiting video, 93/fg; website categories, 215/fg; WordPress Dashboard, 53/fg

search.twitter.com, 44
Seattle Pacific University, 141

Service day. See Schoolwide community service day case study

 Sexting, 240

Sharing. See Multimedia sharing

ShareThis (plug-in), 60
Sheninger, Eric, 22, 41, 147

Skype: soliciting donations using, 235; videoconferencing using, 183

Skype's Online Number (voicemail), 179

SleepCycle app, 176–177

Slideshare, 190, 241

Smartpens, 184

Smartphones. See Mobile devices

Social engagement: blog used for ongoing, 161–162; classroom portals used for ongoing, 128/fg–129; e-mail used for ongoing, 119/fg–121; eNewsletters used for ongoing, 13–15; Facebook used for ongoing, 26–29; Google+ used for ongoing, 207–209; LinkedIn used for ongoing, 191/fg–194; mobile devices used for ongoing, 182–184; online surveys used for ongoing, 100–103; school website used for ongoing, 57, 59–61; student portfolios used for ongoing, 142–144; Twitter used for ongoing, 45–48; YouTube used for ongoing, 85/fg–88. See also Dixon Ongoing Social Engagement Model; School culture

Social media: barriers to using, 4–5; benefits for school community, 3–4; communication enabled Student profiles.

Student presentations, classroom portals facilitating, 131

Student portfolios: authentic assessment using, 139–140; benefits of using, 137–140; best practices for using, 140–141; description of, 135–136; features of, 136/fig–137; getting started with, 144; media literacy skills improved through, 140; mobile devices for updating, 182; ongoing social engagement with, 142–144; technology tips for using, 142

Student portfolios features: “about me” page (student profile), 136/fig; learning goals list, 137; online résumé, 137; student-created work, 136–137

Student portfolios social engagement: advocacy increased through ongoing, 143/fig, 144; awareness increased through ongoing, 142–143/fig; collaboration increased through ongoing, 143/fig–144; feedback increased through ongoing, 141, 143/fig

Student presentations, classroom portals facilitating, 131

Student profiles. See Profiles

Student recruiting: increasing your online presence for, 214; student portfolios used as tool for, 139; YouTube used for, 92

Student technology team, 245

Student training: on Facebook use, 36; on Internet safety, 76, 241–243/fig

Students: celebrating, 24, 247; cell phones and, 180–182; Facebook as facilitating collaboration between parents and, 28; how online surveys are used with, 96; improving media literacy skills of, 140; Ning for providing feedback on work to, 76; online dangers to, 239–240; school's Facebook

Acceptable Use Policy for, 35; social media for engaging, 3

SurveyMonkey, 96, 97, 104

Surveys. See Online surveys

symbol (or hashtag), 42

T

T-shirt sales, 31

Tag cloud: description of, 57; screenshot: tag cloud created with Wordle, 58/fig

Teacher classroom portal commentaries: Debra Caven, 126; Elizabeth Delmatoff, 129; Julia Hill, 133; Kechia Williams, 125; Nicholas Provenzano, 127; Sara Ring, 133; Scott Akerson, 126

Teacher e-mail commentaries: James Comer, 120; Lyn Newton, 122; Norris Haynes, 120

Teacher eNewsletter commentaries: Kisu Kuroneko, 14; Roberta Furger, 16; Ron Koehler, 11

Teacher Facebook commentaries: Brittany Fishman, 32; Heather Wolpert-Gawron, 29; Kimberly Melton, 27; Peter Kupfer, 23; Shawn Roner, 24; Steve Johnson, 28

Teacher Google+ commentaries: Marina Salsbury, 207; Mark Lewis, 206

Teacher hiring process: screening candidates with social media, 229–230; social media tools used for, 227–229; social media tools used to help make the decision, 230

Teacher Ning commentaries: Bernie Trilling, 69; Charles Fadel, 69; Kathy Epps, 73; Marcia Conner, 68; Michelle Davis, 72; Tony Bingham, 68

Teacher social networking commentary, 5

Teacher student portfolio commentaries: Helen Barrett, 141; Jessie Thaler, 138

Teacher Twitter commentaries: Chris Wejr, 44; Geatan Papalardo, 42; Nick Rate, 45; Peter DeWitt, 44; Steven Anderson, 46

Teacher website commentaries: Chris Wejr, 55; Heather Carver, 61; Heather Mansfield, 55; Kisu Kuroneko on WordPress, 56; Larry and Virginia Decker, 60; Steven Painter on WordPress, 57

Teacher YouTube commentaries: Darren Nelson, 90; Jennifer Hillner, 87; Nancy Grunewald, 89; Naveen Mahesh, 86

Teachers: e-mail communication between parents and, 122; empowering them to approve and delete content, 245; hiring great teachers before and after LinkedIn, 194–195; how online surveys are used with, 96; increasing your online presence for recruiting, 214; Internet safety expertise by, 243–244; posting photos on school website, 64–65; providing frequent collaboration training to, 247; school website contact information on, 63; screenshot: teacher recruiting video, 93; social media used for recruiting, screening, and hiring, 227–230; technophobic, 5; YouTube classroom applications by, 88–91

TeacherTube, 92

Teaching Generation Text (Nielsen and Webb), 181

Technophobia, 5

Telephone calls: capturing e-mail addresses through, 18; parents and school leaders' cell phones, 177–180; student cell phones and, 180–182

Text blast, 180

Text messaging, 178

Textmarks, 179–180

Thaler, Jessie, 138

Time-based reminders apps, 169–170

Tracy, Brian, 155

Trending topics (Twitter), 44–45

Trilling, Bernie, 69

TubeMogul, 158

Tumblr (blog platform), 156, 160

Turnitin (software), 141

Tweets: description of, 40; reading, 40; RT (retweets), 43

Twitter: Amazon Kindle's “share to Twitter” feature, 41; best practices for using, 49; common school tasks before and after, 48; comparing school tasks before and after, 48; description of, 40; eNewsletters links to, 15; Facebook compared to, 40; features of, 43–45; getting started with, 50; grant award announcements through, 233, 234; how businesses are using, 4; “Klout Score” (klout.com) measuring your online impact on, 158; learning the lingo of, 41–43; linking LinkedIn to, 192; locating grant sources through, 231; ongoing social engagement with, 45–48; posting, 41; screening teacher candidates by looking at their, 229–230; soliciting donations using, 235; as source for trending topics, 153; as tool for hiring great teachers, 229

Twitter best practices: engaging mentors, 49; 140-character professional development, 49

Twitter features: direct messages, 43; following and followers, 43; latest news, 45; trending topics, 44–45; Twitter search, 44

Twitter social engagement: advocacy through ongoing, 46fg; collaboration through ongoing, 46fg; feedback through ongoing, 46fg; how Twitter facilitates, 45; increased awareness through ongoing, 46fg

Twitter “twitterisms”: # symbol (or hashtag), 42; retweets (RT), 43; @usernames, 41–42

“Twitterverse,” 40

U

“Under construction” posts, 64

U.S. Department of Education, 137

User management: classroom portal, 125; Ning and, 79; school website, 66; student portfolios, 142

Usernames: increasing online presence by unifying domain names and, 216–217; Twitter @ usernames, 41–42

V

Vaynerchuk, Gary, 150

Video lectures, 89

Videoconferencing tools, 183

Videos: annotated adventures, 91–92; converting news post to video on your school website, 226; flipped classroom, 90; inspirational YouTube, 90–91; lectures delivered through, 89; LinkedIn for sharing, 190, 193; student-created projects, 90; TED (technology, entertainment, and design), 91; YouTube alternatives, 92. See also YouTube

ViewPure, 92

Voicemail hotline, 178–179

Volunteer recruitment, 104

W

Washington Post, 151

Web Wise Kids, 242

Webb, Willyn, 181

Websites. See School website

Wejr, Chris, 44, 55

Williams, Kechia, 125

Willowbank School (New Zealand), 45

Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools, 46

Wired magazine, 68

Wolpert-Gawron, Heather, 29

Worcester Technical High School (Maryland), 133

WordPress: blog hosting feature of, 157; content management of your school website using, 52, 55, 57; controlling levels of access to website using, 56; feedback collected through, 60; mobile app for, 175; for posting blogs on LinkedIn, 190; professional looking blog using themes feature of, 159; screenshot: WordPress Dashboard, 53fg; student portfolios on blog platforms like, 135, 142; training tools available on, 142. See also Blogging platforms; Content management systems

WordPress app, 175

Wufoo, 96, 97, 104

Y

Yahoo searches, 141

YourBlogTitle.wordpress.com, 157

YouTube: alternatives to, 92; building leadership credibility through use of, 4; classroom teaching with, 88–92; description of, 82; embedding video clips in your blog, 158; getting started with, 93–94; grant award announcements through, 233; having fun online with, 88; how it works, 82–83; interacting with, 84–85; Internet safety tutorials on, 241, 242; Livescribe pen for posting notes to, 184; ongoing social engagement with, 85fig–88; recruiting students with, 92; recruiting teachers with, 93fig; school website inclusion of embedded, 63; as tool for hiring great teachers, 227, 229; uploading news post on your service day to your, 226. See also Videos

YouTube classroom applications: annotated adventures, 91–92; flipped classroom, 90; inspirational videos, 90–91; student-created projects, 90; video lectures, 89

YouTube social engagement: advocacy increased through ongoing, 85fig, 87–88; awareness increased through ongoing, 85fig, 86; collaboration increased through ongoing, 85fig, 87; feedback increased through ongoing, 85fig, 86–87

YouTube Teachers Community, 87