Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Contributors</th>
<th>ix</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Foreword</td>
<td>xiii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Preface</td>
<td>xv</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Introduction</td>
<td>xvii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Section 1 – Past and current influences on practice</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1 Historical perspectives from past to present</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Robin Means</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Introduction</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Family, kinship and older people</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The welfare state, older people and the changing role of institutions</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Towards Care in the Community</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Modernisation muddles</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion</td>
<td>22</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>References</td>
<td>23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2 Older people’s experiences: social context and contemporary social policy</td>
<td>27</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tina Fear and Grace Boddy</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Introduction</td>
<td>27</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Social context</td>
<td>27</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Policy as a response to needs of older people</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Health and social care provision</td>
<td>47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conclusion</td>
<td>54</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>References</td>
<td>55</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
3 Ethical tensions for the older person and carers ............................... 61
Lesley Moore
Introduction .............................................. 61
Paradigm shifts in health and social care .............................. 61
Factors influencing moral reasoning and behaviour .............. 65
Values and beliefs ............................................. 65
Significant ethical theories .................................. 67
Power versus professional perspectives .............................. 74
End of life and decision-making ................................. 78
The diversities and tensions of caring ............................. 81
Conclusion ...................................................... 87
References .................................................... 88

Section 2 – Contemporary challenges ........................................... 93

4 Healthy ageing, active ageing: the challenges ...................... 95
Angela Hudson, Jane Buswell and Natalie Godfrey
Introduction .............................................. 95
The context .................................................. 96
Active ageing ............................................... 99
Healthy ageing ............................................. 100
Barriers ....................................................... 100
Policy frameworks ......................................... 103
Health promotion versus health education ......................... 104
Targeted health education for older people ....................... 107
Challenges ................................................... 109
Complementary therapies ..................................... 110
Controversy and cultural shifts .................................. 111
Conclusion ..................................................... 130
References .................................................... 131
Useful websites ............................................ 138

5 Older people with learning disabilities ................................. 139
Kim Scarborough
Introduction .............................................. 139
Defining learning disability .................................... 139
Recent policy and people with learning disabilities ............. 141
Impact of having a learning disability ............................ 141
Communicating with older people with learning disabilities .............................................. 142
Vulnerability ................................................. 145
Principles underpinning services for people with learning disabilities .............................................. 146
References ...................................................... 199
Useful websites ............................................. 204

Section 3 – Future challenges ................................. 205

7 Future trends .................................................... 207

Lesley Moore and Angela Hudson

Introduction .................................................. 207

Significant trends leading to the 60th year of the NHS 208

The empowerment of patients through the Expert Patients

Programme .................................................. 211

Community hospitals ......................................... 213

Cancer care – bringing diagnostic technology and chemotherapy treatment closer to patients ............ 215

The National Programme for IT ............................. 216

Telecare, telehealth, telenursing and telemedicine .... 218

Whole System Demonstrators ............................. 224

Moving towards seamless care ............................ 225

Partnership for Older People Projects .................... 230

Conclusion .................................................... 232

References .................................................... 233

Useful websites ............................................. 235

Index .......................................................... 237