Index

Page references followed by fig indicates an illustrated figure; by t indicates a table; by e indicates an exhibit.

A
Accounting methods: accrual basis, 244; cash basis, 244; hybrid, 245
Accrual basis accounting, 244
Achieving Global Growth survey (ASAE), 69, 73
Acquisition metrics: calculated from a direct mail campaign, 233; on cost to acquire a new member, 232–233
Action Alert newsletter (AAUW), 212
Ad hoc volunteer opportunities, 143
Adjudicating violations authority, 42
Advanced Medical Technology Association (AdvaMed), 66
Affinity programs: description of, 114; member department responsibilities for, 114
Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (AOPA), 156
Amazon, 9
American Academy of Cosmetic Dentistry, 38
American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) membership dashboard, 239–242 fig
American Alliance of Museums (AAM), 37, 272–273
American Association of University Women (AAUW): Action Alert newsletter by, 212; before and after redesigned website of, 213–214, 216, 216e–217e, 219e–222e; changes in print pieces put out by, 220; How to Market Your Branch presentation by, 224; Mission & Action submissions process of, 215, 218; Quad process of marketing used by, 229; social media channels used by, 215, 218; webinars produced by, 225; Younger Women Task Force Chapters of, 212
American Coal Council, 148
American College of Surgeons (ACS), 87
American Dental Association, 136
American Gas Association, 41
American Hospital Association, 273
American Institute of Chemical Engineers (AIChE), 267
American Nurses Association, 275
American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), 270–271
American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA), 274
American Water Works Association (AWWA): description of, 177; MGAM campaign of, 177–178, 179–181; Thank-You Page Graphic used by, 179, 180 fig
America’s Essential Hospitals: adapting a new focus example of, 16; decision to add private nonprofit hospitals to its membership, 15
AMS/CRM implementation: data quality/ data conversion plan, 98, 100–101; data reporting, 98, 101; “mock” go live and debriefing process, 98, 102; process improvement and standard operating procedures, 98, 99; project governance and management for, 98, 99; security, 98, 101; system integration, 98, 99–100; thorough and ongoing training, 98, 101–102
AMS/CRM systems: achieving a successful implementation, 98–102; database features of, 95–97; description of, 94; determining requirements for, 95; managing and using data using, 102–109; as prerequisite for data-driven organizations, 94–95; selecting a new, 95, 97–98; tips for effective use of, 97. See also Association Management Software (AMS); Customer relationship management system (CRM)
Anniversary billing cycle, 132, 245t–246
Antitrust laws, 255–256
Any tech user, 7
Aplebaum, Lowell M., 263, 278
Apple, 9
The Art of Membership: How to Attract, Retain, and Cement Member Loyalty (Jacobs), 127, 208–209, 210, 265
ASAE (American society of Associations Executives): ASAE Collaborate of, 117; Bylaws on differentiating between governance and management, 35; Center for Association Leadership of, 42; Circle Club program of, 274; components as defined by, 136; Great Ideas Conference (2012) of, 264–265; no mention of dues in the bylaws of, 40; up-to-date resources available through, 204–205
ASAE Collaborate, 117
ASAE Foundation: Exploring the Future of Membership published by, 209; Future Perspectives published by, 3
ASAE Handbook of Professional Practices in Association Management, 247
ASAE publications: Achieving Global Growth survey, 69, 73; ASAE Handbook of Professional Practices in Association Management, 247; Association Law Book, 247; The Decision to Join (DTJ) study, 23, 43, 44, 157–158, 175; The End of Membership As We Know It: Building the Fortune-Flipping Must-Have Association of the Next Century, 39, 47–48, 277; Environmental Scanning for Associations, 208; How to Engage Member Leaders in Member Retention, 224; Making an Impact with Your Membership Materials: What Works, What Doesn’t, Part 1, 212; Principles of Association Management, 6, 37, 41, 49; Race for Relevance: 5 Radical Changes for Associations, 42, 47; Retaining Next-Gen Association Professionals, 212; 7 Missions of Success: What Remarkable Associations Do That Others Don’t, 38, 42, 44, 55, 162, 208; Supporting the Decision to Join, 44
Association CareerHQ, 117
Association for Operations Management (APICS), 128
Association Laboratory, 209
Association Law Book (ASAE), 247
Association Listserv, 203t
Association management system (AMS), 235
Association Management Software (AMS), 93–94. See also AMS/CRM systems
Association membership growth rate: as metric of strategic planning, 18; PSIA-AASI’s member-centric mindset and, 14–15fig
Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP), 73
Association of periOperative Registered Nurses (AORN), 58, 121
Associations: ASAE’s 2012 Great Ideas Conference for, 264–265; challenges associated with virtual community of, 5–6; considering potential direction for your, 276–277; cultural changes experienced by, 2; economic changes that have impacted, 2–3; “House organ” blogs of, 202, 203t; how technological advances have impacted, 6–8; membership goals of your, 48t; mission statement setting goals of your, 14; redefinition of work and impact on, 3; types of organization of, 136. See also Membership; Websites
Associations Now (journal), 44, 139, 147, 151
Associations Now Volunteer Leadership Issue, 38
Audits, 245
Automatic credit card renewals, 172
Avenue M Group, 74
Awards for recognition, 121

B
Baby Boomers (born 1946 to 1964): association appeal to, 4; description and characteristics of, 4; retired professional member segment among, 267–269
Baby Boomers in Your Boardroom (Geer), 3
Basic-premium (low/high) membership model, 130
Basic tech user, 7
Benefits. See Association member benefits
Best customer identification, 107–108
Bias: measurement, 88; sampling, 88; systematic, 88
Billing cycles: calendar year vs. anniversary year, 132, 245t–246; membership term and, 132
Blogs: member engagement through, 201–202, 203t; Rad’s Blog and Nonprofit Blog Carnival, 212; Successful Communication Strategies for Associations blog (Kolar), 212
Board members: corporation legal regulations related to, 252–253; dangerous self-deception mentality adopted by, 43–44; encouraging diversity among, 141; how membership staff can support, 44–45; Supporting the Decision to Join: What Association Boards should Know and Do About Membership and Affiliation (ASAE) for, 44; volunteer opportunities to serve as, 140–141. See also Governance.

Bowman, Susanne Connors, 231, 249

“Boycotts” prohibition, 255, 256

Brennan, Carolyn, 181, 186

Budgeting: member renewal activities, 172–173; membership functions, 244–246; MGAM campaign, 185; projecting revenue and revenue mix for future, 246–247

Budgeting accounting methods: accrual basis, 244; cash basis, 244; hybrid, 245

Budgeting terminology and practice: audit, 245; billing cycles, 132, 245–246; deferred income, 245; internal controls, 245

Budziak, Sherry, 93, 109

Byers, Mary, 42, 47

C

Calendar year billing cycle, 132, 245t–246

Calhoun, Andrew, 61, 74

CAN SPAM law, 170, 259

Caraveli, Anna, 139, 211–212

Cash basis accounting, 244

Center for Association Leadership (ASAE), 42

Certified Association Executive (CAE) credential, 251

CFA Institute, 72

Chapter websites: hosted, 69; issues to consider for, 68–69

Chapters: AAUW Younger Women Task Force Chapters, 212; international, 66–69

Chavis, D. W., 199

“Checkbook members,” 2

Circle Club program (ASAE), 274

Clinical Laboratory Standards Institute (CLSI): CLSI Simulator analysis of membership, 76; declining membership of, 75; identified barriers to membership retention and acquisition, 75–76

Coerver, Harrison, 42, 47

Colhoun, Andrew, 61

College movie-in day metaphor, 198

Committees: program and resource development role of, 141; volunteer opportunities to serve as, 141–143, 145–146; work plan of, 146

Communication: for building communities, 218, 222–224; considerations with a global audience, 64, 69–71t, 210–211; continuous two-way and personalized, 9–10; developing member engagement through, 214–215, 218; emerging demographic trends impacting membership, 209–210; engaging member volunteers in, 214–215, 218; on how membership dollars are spent, 247–248t; member “gamer” mentality and expectations for, 7–8; membership department responsibility for member related, 112; on the membership value to members, 24–26; new considerations for, 8–10; segmenting your member audience for, 214; training members in marketing and, 224–225; understanding your members’ world to facilitate, 208–209; volunteer interaction and, 146

Communication tools: association website as a, 213–214; positioning as, 211; strategic ideas and new tactical examples, 212–213

Communities: challenges associated with managing a virtual, 6; communication strategies for building, 218, 222–224; as driver of association membership, 5–6; opportunities of transition from physical to virtual, 6; Sense of Community theory on, 199–201. See also Online communities

Community building: components of success for, 223; fundamental concepts of, 222–223; the use of video for, 223–224

Community strategic resources: community strategy template, 195; Online Community Software Selection Guide, 197; worksheet to help develop your community strategy, 195

Components (chapters, sections), 136

CompTIA, 273

comScore, 203–204

Confidentiality: legal regulations related to membership, 257–259; member staff training on membership, 120

Construction Specifications Institute, 14
Consumer Price Index, 41
Content ads, 160
Content management system (CMS), 94, 204
Copyright law, 260
Corporations: Internal Revenue Service (IRS) regulations on, 252; legal considerations related to, 252–253
CPA Institute, 40
CTIA: The Wireless Association, 24
Culture: global membership consideration of differences in, 62–63; how changes have impacted association membership, 2–3. See also Organizational culture
Cummings, Michael, 143
Currency issues, 64
Customer relationship management system (CRM), 94. See also AMS/CRM systems
Customer service: AMS/CRM system as part of, 94–102; customer relationship management system (CRM) for, 93; illustrated diagram of a membership department incorporating, 118/fig; to international chapters, 68; member staff training on, 120; membership department role in, 115

D
Data: AMS/CRM systems for managing and using, 102–109; confidentiality of membership information, 120, 257–259; governance practices for using, 42–43; identifying best customers by using your, 107–108; measuring member engagement, 103–104; membership market, 84; order entry/processing for member, 113–114; primary versus secondary, 84; successful associations and their use of, 42
Data integrity reports, 106, 107
Data mining, 85
Databases: AMS/CRM systems features, 96–97; assessing if your database is supporting your mission, 93–94; member staff training on membership, 120; National Change of address (NICOA) services, 106; Target Market identification using your, 154
Day, John, 151
De Cagna, Jeff, 44
Deale, Charles W. L., 33
Decision-makers: deciding who the research results will go to, 78–79; presenting membership research results to, 89–90; understanding the impact of the membership research decisions by, 80t–81
Decision making: AMS/CRM systems for managing and using data for, 102–109; dues increase, 41; time frame of the membership research, 79–80; understanding the impact of the membership research, 80t–81; venues for membership, 79
The Decision to Join (DTJ) study [ASAE], 23, 43, 44, 157–158, 175
Deferred income, 245
Direct mail marketing channel, 161t
Discounts: communicating membership value of, 25; international chapters and advocacy support, 69; Massachusetts Medical Society (MMS), 127; as offer strategy, 156
DOJ (Department of Justice), 255, 256
Dolci, Joel, 143
Dorsey, Mark, 14
Doyle, Kenneth A., 1
Dual memberships: description of, 39; various governance practices on, 39–40
Due process, 256
Dues: governance over rates and increase of, 40–41; governance over structure of, 37; how they are spent, 248/fig; organizational (or enterprise) rates of, 128; paid to nonprofit organizations, 254; “square root of assets” approach to, 271–272; “take the top off” approach to, 271. See also Revenue
Dues increases: governance decisions on, 41; 2015 Marketing General benchmarking study on, 41
Dues payments: automatic credit card, 172; installment option for, 157, 172
Dues rates: decisions related to, 40–41; governance authority over establishing, 40
Dues reporting oversight, 41–42
Dues structures: description of, 37; as function of governance, 37

E
E-membership model, 128–129
Eadie, Douglas C., 38
Economic changes, 2–3
8 Leader Essentials for Membership Vice Presidents (AAUW), 217
Email marketing channel, 161t
Emotional connection, 201

The End of Membership As We Know It: Building the Fortune-Flipping Must-Have Association of the Next Century (Sladek), 39, 47–48, 277

Energy Education Council mission statement, 35, 36

Engagement. See Member engagement

Enterprise membership. See Organizational (or enterprise) membership

Environmental Scanning for Associations: The Everyday Guide to Capturing, Analyzing, and Interpreting Strategic Information (ASAE), 208

Ernstthal, Henry L., 37, 39, 40

Established business relationship (EBR), 170

Explicit interest, 108–109

Exploring the Future of Membership (ASAE Foundation), 209

Extended membership offer, 156–157

F

Face-to-face sales, 161

Facebook: association use of, 203; decreasing reach for associations of, 192; recruitment marketing channel using, 160; “The Science of Storytelling: Why Telling a Story is the Most Powerful Way to Activate Our Brains” on, 212

Fay, Brad, 176

FCC Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 170

Federal Trade Commission (FTC), 156, 255, 256, 257–258, 259

Federation associations, 136

Financial issues: communicating how membership dollars are spent, 247–248; projecting revenue, 246–247; terms to know and understand related to, 233; understand what is related to serving members vs. overhead, 234

Financial metrics: acquisition of new member, 232–233; American Academy of Pediatrics example of tracking and presenting, 239–242; cost to renew a member, 234–235, 236–238; cost to serve a member, 233–234; lifetime value of a member (LTV), 235–236; return on investment (ROI) applications, 235; terms to know and understand related to, 233

501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, 253–254

Focus group market research, 253–254

For-profit organizations: Recreational Equipment, Inc. (REI), 275, 276; Starbucks, 275, 276

Ford, Henry, 58

“Freemium” or open-access membership model, 129–130

“Friends of the U.S. Chamber” social media network, 275

Fulfillment of needs, 201

Full-premium (medium/high) membership model, 130

Future Perspectives (ASAE Foundation), 3

G

The gamer mentality, 8

Gammel, David, 103

Geer, Rod, 3

Generation X (born 1965 to 1980): association appeal to, 4–5; description and characteristics of, 4

Glassie, Jefferson C., 251, 261

Global MedTech Compliance Conference, 66

Global membership: additional thoughts on managing a, 73–74; association segmentation of, 269–271; case studies on, 72–73; considerations relations to managing a, 61–65; efforts to connect and recognize local achievements by, 269–271; marketing to and communication with a, 69–71; support of chapters, 66–69; volunteer leadership role in, 65–66

Global membership consideration: cultural differences as, 62–63; differing perceptions by members, 64; legal, 63–64; local currency, 64; member and customer support, 63; when communicating with a global audience, 64

Golden, Mark, 38, 44

Good-better-best (low/medium/high) membership model, 131

Google marketing channel, 160

Governance: AMS/CRM implementation by effective project, 98, 99; differentiating between management and, 34–35; how membership staff can support, 44–45; involvement and personal perspective of members on, 43; membership functions
Governance (continued)
under, 37–43; refraining from intruding on management's domain, 35–37; translating purpose into focus through, 35. See also Board members
Governance functions: active engagement, 38; adjudicating violations, 42; dual memberships, 39–40; dues increases, 41; dues rates, 40–41; dues reporting oversight, 41–42; dues structures, 37; marketplace expansion, 38–39; membership categories or models, 39; monitoring results, trends, and projections, 42–43; special assessments, 41
Gracey, Lori, 193
Gramm–Leach–Bliley Act, 257
Grantmakers for Effective Organizations (GEO), 103–104
Great Ideas Conference (2012) [ASAE], 264–265
Great recession, 5
Greater Durham Chamber of Commerce, 274–275
Greatest generation (Traditionalists), 3–4

H
Hall, Molly M., 35
Hatcher, Lori, 177, 186
Health Information Management Systems Society (HIMSS), 128
Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), 257
The Hidden Wealth of Customers (Lee), 243
High tech user, 7
Hosted chapter portals, 69
“House organ” blogs, 202, 203
How to Engage Member Leaders in Member Retention (ASAE), 224
How to Market Your Branch presentation (AAUW), 224
Hybrid accounting, 245
Hyken, Shep, 149

I
Idea Architects, 148
Implied interest, 108–109
In person staff training, 119
Inbound marketing channel, 159–160
Individual membership organization (IMO), 136
Individual professional development, 119
Influence attribute of community, 200
Informal staff recognition, 122
Instagram, 202, 203
Installment payment option, 157
Intangible benefits, tangible versus, 25
Integrated address verification software, 106
Integration attribute of community, 201
Intellectual property, 259–260
Internal controls, 245
Internal Revenue Code (Code), 252
Internal Revenue Service (IRS): corporations regulations by the, 252; Form 990 or 990-EZ submitted by nonprofits to the, 255; nonprofit membership association tax exemption, 253–255; UBIT (unrelated business income tax) reporting to, 247, 254–255
International Association for Dental Research (IADR), 107
International chapters: association support of, 68–69; importance of, 66–67; structuring, 67–68; translated materials provided to, 69
International Facility Management Association (IFMA), 270
International Society for Pharmaceutical Engineering’s volunteer Appreciate Week, 147
ISACA, 72, 74

J
Jacobs, Sheri: The Art of Membership by, 127, 208–209, 210, 265; professional background of, 137; on the willingness to pay membership issue, 74
Job description of membership staff, 121
Jones, Christy, 207, 226
Jordan-Carr, Melody A., 263, 278
Junk Fax Prevention Act, 170
INDEX

K
KaBOOM!, 244e
Kachelski, Barbara, 38
Kao, John, 264
Karen, Jay, 21
Keller, Ed, 176
“Keys to a Successful Career in Dentistry” white paper, 156
Kolar, Carrie, 212
Kotler, Philip, 162
Kren, Jay, 32

L
Lee, Bill, 243
Legal issues: antitrust laws, 255–256; CAN SPAM law, 170, 259; copyright law, 260; corporate, 252–253; due process laws, 256; global membership and, 63–64; Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), 257; intellectual property, 259–260; membership information and confidentiality, 257–259; Sarbanes-Oxley Act, 245; social media and related, 261; tax exemptions, 253–255
Lifetime value of member (LTV) metric: data points required to calculate, 235; description of, 18; example of a calculation of, 236t; terminology related to, 236t; what this information tells you, 235 “Likes” spreadsheet, 122
LinkedIn, 203t
Localytics study (2014), 204

M
McMillan, D. M., 199
Mailing lists management, 114–115
“Making Membership Relevant (Gen Y)” (Association Impact), 212
Management: differentiating between governance and, 34–35; refraining from governance intruding on domain of, 35–37
Marketing: AAUW’s Quad process of, 229; international membership and, 69–71f; member staff training on membership, 120; membership department responsibility of, 112–113; membership recruitment message, 154, 157–159; MGAM campaign tactics and budget, 182–186; training members in communication and, 224–225
Marketing channels: comparing, 161t–162t; content ads, 160; Google and Facebook remarketing, 160; optimizing renewals through use of, 170–171t; return on investment (ROI) of, 160–161; search engine marketing (SEM), 159, 161t; social media advertising, 160; word of mouth marketing, 162t, 175–176
Marketing General, 38
Marketing General benchmarking study (2015), 41
Marketing General (MGI) Membership Marketing Benchmarking Study (2015), 175
Martin, Benjamin, 191, 205
Massachusetts Medical Society (MMS), 127
Measurement bias, 88
Medical Group Management Association, 149
Meerkat, 203
Melia, Greg, 263, 278
Melissa Data, 106
Member benefits: affinity programs, 114; assessing relevance and/or effectiveness of, 27–28f; communicating membership value of, 25; creation, delivery, and promotion of, 53t; features versus, 26–27; recruitment message on, 158–159; tangible versus intangible, 25; web delivery of, 203–204
MEMBER concept, 1–2
Member engagement: AMS/CRM system use of data to measure, 103–104; communication strategies for developing, 214–215, 218; membership department responsibility for, 112–113; in membership strategic planning, 17–20; online communities and social networks, 192–201; Sense of Community theory on community and, 199–201; social media tools for, 201–203t; of student member segment, 266; trending metrics on, 243; web delivery of benefits and, 203–204
Member Engagement: From Participation to Relationships (Caraveli), 211–212
Member engagement development:
changes in print pieces for, 215; online communication strategies for, 218; segment your audience for, 214; social media channels to use for, 215, 218; social medical channels to use for, 215, 218

Member-get-a-member (MGM), 161

Member recruitment: acquisition metrics on cost of acquiring a new member, 232–233; best practices for, 135–136; calculating rates of, 168; factors influencing, 167–168; key principles to effective, 133; membership department responsibility for, 112; strategies for, 154–165; tracking, 168–170. See also Membership models

Member recruitment messages: addressing needs, 157–158; crafting benefits copy, 158–159

Member recruitment strategies: marketing message, 154, 157–159; the offer, 154, 155–157; promotional tactics, 154, 159–162; Target Market, 154–155; testing, tracking, and analysis, 154, 162–165

Member renewal costs: calculations for, 236–238t; factors to consider as part of, 234–235; lifetime value of a member (LTV) and, 235–236t; return on investment (ROI) of, 235

Member renewals: benchmarking, 166, 167–170; budgeting for activities related to, 172–173; costs for, 234–238t; membership department responsibilities for, 112; optimizing, 170–173; sample contact schedule for, 171t; strategies for, 165–166t; top options for, 172t; tracking, 168–170

Member segments: effective communication using, 214; global stage, 269–271; retired professionals, 267–269; students, 265–267. See also Membership categories

Member Services: affinity programs, 114; association’s online presence, 115; mailing lists, 114–115; order entry/processing, 113–114; record management, 113; sales, 115; surveys and research, 114

Members: acquisition metrics on cost to acquire new, 232–233t; association membership value to new, 31; engagement of, 17–20, 103–104, 112–113; involvement and personal perspective on governance by, 43; understanding explicit vs. implied interest of, 108–109; using data to identify best customers among, 107–108

Membership: as attribute of sense of community, 199–200; benefits versus features, 26–27; categories or models of, 39; changing meaning and implications for, 1–2; “checkbook members” among, 2; considering potential direction for your, 276–277; defining and communicating the value of, 21–32; differing levels of technologically savvy users among, 7; dual, 39–40; generational differences in, 35; how cultural, economic, and technological changes impact, 2–3, 6–8; how technology has impacted expectations and “gamer” mentality of, 7; is your database supporting your mission for, 93–94; managing a global, 61–74; member staff training on basics of, 120; offering extended, 156–157; opportunities and challenges of changing community of, 5–6; redefinition of work done by, 3; wider geographic, 10. See also Associations; Retention

Membership analysis: basic information required for, 165; testing component of, 162–164; tracking component of, 164–165, 168–170, 179–181; used by individual and trade associations, 163t

Membership attribute of community, 201

Membership categories: description and purpose of, 132; membership term and billing cycle determined by, 132. See also Member segments

MEMBERSHIP concept, 1–2

Membership department: connectivity between other departments and, 56f, g; dashboard transforming actions into value, 57t–58; discouraging silos in, 55–57; illustrated diagrams of a one-person, small, and large, 117f, g–118f, g; Member Services administered by, 113–116; members benefits and ownership of member features, 53t; mind map of daily activities of the, 52f, g; other department promoting membership and the, 54t–55t; promoting other departments, 53t–54t; responsibilities of the, 111–116; shared internal functions and new opportunities with other departments, 50t; starting with the right people and the right values, 48–49; understand how other departments see membership, 49–50; understand how the executives see membership, 49; understand how your team sees membership, 51. See also Staff
Membership department responsibilities: additional, 116; marketing, 112–113; member services, 113–115
Membership features: comprehension report as, 17; member benefits versus, 26–27; membership directory as, 27; networking events as, 27; ownership of member, 53
Membership information: intellectual property issues related to, 259–260; legal regulations related to confidentiality of, 120, 257–259; member staff training on security of, 120; personally identifiable information (PII), 257–259; written information security plan (WISP) on, 258
Membership market research: American College of Surgeons (ACS), 87; benefits of external research assistance, 91; common tools of, 85–86; engaging a research consultant for, 90–91, 92; how to analyze the results, 88–89; identifying membership market, 81; methodologies for associations, 84–85; presenting research results to decision-makers, 89–90; research audit questions, 92; survey deployment and analysis, 86–87, 114
Membership market research tools: data mining, 85; in-person or online focus groups, 85–86; stakeholder interviews, 85; surveys, 86–87, 114
Membership marketing Benchmarking Report (Marketing General), 38, 166
Membership marketing strategy: association performance assessment, 82–83; competing influencing assessment, 83–84; deciding who is going to use the results, 78–79; membership environment assessment, 82; what is the impact of the decisions being researched, 80–81; what is the time frame of the decision, 79–80; what is the venue(s) for decision making, 79
Membership models: e-memberships, 128–129; emergence of new, 127–128; examples from for-profit industry, 275–276; explore your value chain and adjust your, 272; factors to consider before selecting, 134; “freemium” or open-access, 129–130; hybrid, 127; multi-tier, 130–131; organizational (or enterprise), 126–127; questions to answer before adopting new structure and, 134–135; “square root of assets,” 271–272; “take the top off,” 271; trade association, 271–276. See also Member recruitment
Membership research: areas of inquiry for, 81; establishing a research management strategy, 78–81; identifying the goals of your, 77; key questions that can be addressed by, 77–78; member department responsibilities for, 114; methodologies for associations, 84–85; presenting results to decision-makers, 89–90; qualitative vs. quantitative, 84–85; why it is important, 77
Membership retention: CLSI identification of barrier to, 75–76; getting members involved in planning for, 19; as metric of strategic planning, 18
Membership staff training/professional development: additional staff retention efforts, 121–122; identifying the training topic(s), 120; individual vs. team, 119; in person vs. online, 119
Mercado, Stephanie, 16
Metal Training Institute, 274
Metrics. See Performance metrics
Metter, Kristine, 13, 20
MGAM (Member-Get-a-Member) campaign: American Water Works Association (AWWA), 177–178, 179–181; goals and strategy of a, 176, 177–178; Institute for Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE), 177–178, 181, 182; mapping process of, 185–186; marketing tactics and budget, 176, 182–186; net promoter score (NPS) for, 178–179; rewards and rules, 177, 180–181; tracking and reporting, 177, 179–181; Urban Land Institute (ULI), 177, 181–185, 186–189. See also Word of mouth marketing
Millennials (born 1981 to 2001): association appeal to, 5; description and characteristics of, 5
Miller, Sara, 47, 111, 123
Minimal tech user, 7
Mission statements: Energy Education Council, 35, 36; as a roadmap to the association’s work, 14
Mixed mode surveys, 86, 87
Mobile apps, 204
Mobile technology: Content management system (CMS) responsive to, 204; growth of, 65
Moesch, Jamie, 174, 176, 177, 178, 181
Monitoring duty, 42–43
Most Common Methods to Communicate with Association Members (Kolar), 212
MTI, 274
Multi-tier membership models: design overview of, 131; types of, 130–131
“My Starbucks Rewards Program,” 278
Net promoter score (NPS), 178–179
New Generation (born 2001): association appeal to, 5; description and characteristics of, 5
New York Society of Association Executives (NYSAE), 143
The Next America (Taylor and Pew Research Center), 210
Nielsen trust survey, 176
9/11, 5
Ning, 203
Non-dues revenue, 247
Nonprofit Blog Carnival, 212
Nonprofit membership associations:
  dues paid to, 254; 501(c)(3), 253–254; 501(c)(6), 253–254; Form 990 or 990-EZ submitted to the IRS by, 255; tax exemptions of, 253–255
Offer (recruitment): description of the, 154; ROI on special, 164; strategic applications of your, 155–157
Online communities: Association Listserv, 203; description of, 192; five phases to launching member benefit of a private, 194–199; four attributes driving a sense of community in, 199–201; sample community management tasks for, 199; TCEA case study on, 193; what you need to know for your organization, 192–194. See also Communities; Social media channels
Online community launch phases: 1: set a community strategy aligned with your strategic plan, 194–195; 2: select an online community platform, 195–197; 3: implement the community software, 197–198; 4: release the community to your members, 198; 5: commit to a scientific community management process, 199
Online Community Software Selection Guide, 197
Online inbound marketing, 162
Online presence: association website for a, 115; member department responsibilities for, 115. See also Websites
Online staff training, 119
Online surveys, 86

N
NAHB Spike Club Program, 147
National Association for Healthcare Quality (NAHA), 16
National Association of College and University Business Officers (NACUBO), 108
National Association of Home Builders (NAHB), 136
National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO), 17
National Association of Public Hospitals and Health Systems (NAPH), 15
National Association of REALTORS, 39
National Association of REALTORS Consumer Advertising Campaign, 41
National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI), 78
National Change of address (NICOA) services, 106
National Defense Industry Association (NDIA), 272
National Home Builders Association, 147
National Press Photographers Association (NPPA), 40
National Society of Professional Engineers, 44
NATSO, Inc., 40
Online update campaigns, 106
Order entry/processing, 113–114
Organization types: components (chapters, sections), 136; federation associations, 136; individual membership organization (IMO), 136. See also Trade associations
Organizational culture: effective data management supported by your, 104–105. See also Culture
Organizational (or enterprise) membership: categories, term, and billing cycle of, 132; description of, 126; dues rates of, 128; e-memberships, 128–129; emergence of new models of, 127–128; factors related to, 126; “freemium” or open-access, 129–130; group enrollment, 127; hybrid, 127; multi-tier model of, 130–131; recruitment for, 133–136
Oser, Scott D., 1

P
Paid search engine marketing (SEM), 159
Penoyar, Melanie J., 175, 189
Performance metrics: American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) membership dashboard, 239–242|fig; financial, 232–242|fig; intent and good practices for, 232; lifetime value of member(LTV), 18, 235–236|t; member engagement and social return on investment (SROI), 243–244|e; rate of membership growth, 18; retention rate, 18; tracking and presenting, 238–242|fig
Periscope, 203
Personalized offerings: continuous two-way access of, 9; as important change in association communication, 9–10
Personally identifiable information (PII), 257–259
Pew Research Center, 210
Pine, Sue, 17
Pinterest, 202, 203|t
Porter, Michael, 83
Positioning your organization, 211
Postcard update campaigns, 106
Premium or gift, 158
Primary data, 84
Principles of Association Management (ASAE), 6, 37, 41, 49
Print advertising marketing channel, 161|t
Product fulfillment, 115
Professional development. See Membership staff training/professional development
Professional Ski Instructors of America–American Association of Snowboard Instructors (PSIA–AASI): its member-centric mindset leading to growth, 14–15; membership compared to ski areas, 15|fig
Project Management Institute (PMI), 72
Projections, 42–43
Promotional tactics: inbound marketing channel, 159–160; reaching prospective members with your, 159; recruitment, 154, 159–162|t

Q
Quad marketing (AAUW), 229
Qualitative membership research, 84–85
Quantitative membership research, 84–85
Quiet generation (Traditionalist), 3–4

R
Race for Relevance: 5 Radical Changes for Associations (Coerver and Byers), 42, 47
Rad’s Blog, 212
Reagan, Ronald, 41
Record management responsibility, 113
Recreational Equipment, Inc. (REI), 275, 276
Recruitment. See Member recruitment
Reddit, 202, 203|t
Redefinition of work, 3
Regional leadership conferences, 69
Reicheld, Fred, 178
Renewals. See Member renewals
Research consultants: benefits of getting assistance of an external, 91; considerations for engaging a, 90–91; Research Audi Questions to determining your needs for, 92|e
Retaining Next-Gen Association Professionals (Harrison), 212
Retention. See Membership retention
Retired professional membership: connections of the, 268–269; giving back by the, 269; historical insights and industry insights from, 268; as membership segment, 267–268
Revenue: non-dues, 247; offset of student members, 266; projecting, 246t; revenue mix of, 247; unrelated business income tax (UBIT), 247, 254–255. See also Dues

Revenue mix, 247

Rewards/recognition: AORN’s ROCK (“Random Occurrence of Co-Worker Kudos”) dollars, 121; awards used as, 121; AWWA’s MGAM campaign rules and, 181–182; informal approaches to staff, 122; “My Starbucks Rewards Program” of Starbucks, 278; of volunteers, 147–148

ROCK (“Random Occurrence of Co-Worker Kudos”) dollars [AORN], 121

“Role of Committee vs. Role of Staff: Who Does What and When” (Medical Group Management Association), 149

Rominiecki, Joe, 38, 151

Rossell, Tony, 153

S

Sales: face-to-face, 161t; member staff training on membership, 120; membership department management of, 115; telephone, 161t; upselling, 120, 134

Sample for surveys, 87

Sampling bias, 88

Sarbanes-Oxley Act, 245

Science of testing, 164

Search engine marketing (SEM), 159, 161t

Search engine optimization (SEO), 155, 159

Secondary data, 84

Security: AMS/CRM system, 98, 101; confidentiality of membership information, 120, 257–259

Sense of Community attributes: on influence attribute, 200; on integration and fulfillment of needs attribute, 201; on membership attribute, 199–200; on shared emotional connection attribute, 201

Sense of Community theory: description of the, 199; on four attributes driving sense of community, 199–201

Services: communicating membership value of, 25; cost of member, 233–234t; customer, 68, 93–102, 115, 118fig, 120

7 Missions of Success: What Remarkable Associations Do That Others Don’t (ASAE), 38, 42, 44, 55, 162, 208

Sky areas (compared to PSIA–AASI membership), 15fig

Sladek, Sarah L., 39, 47–48, 277

Snapchat, 202

Social media: legal considerations related to, 261; member engagement through, 201–203t; membership advertising through, 160. See also Online communities

Social media channels: blogs, 201–202, 203t, 212; building your own recruitment Target Market list using your, 155; Facebook, 160, 192, 203t, 212; “Friends of the U.S. Chamber” social media network, 275; image sharing sites, 202, 203t; member engagement development through, 215, 218; Reddit, 202, 203t; Twitter, 202, 203t. See also Online communities

Social return on investment (SROI): description and elements of, 243; KaBOOM!, 244e

Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), 136

Society of Petroleum Engineers (SPE), 128, 151, 270

Special Assessments, 41

Special offers: ROI (return on investment) of, 164; strategic applications of, 155–157

“Square root of assets” membership model, 271–272

Staff: AMS/CRM successful implementation role of the, 105; comparing role of volunteers and, 148–150; how they can support their governing body, 44–45; informal recognition of, 122; “likes” spreadsheet of individual hobbies and favorites of your, 122; role of volunteer liaison, 149; roles and responsibilities of, 116–117; training and professional development of, 119–122. See also Membership department

Stakeholder interviews, 85

Starbucks, 275, 276

Stone, Bob, 163

Strategic planning: adapting your association’s focus for, 15–16; challenges of engaging members in, 18–19; decisions made on mission and brand promise as part of, 16; key membership questions for, 20; making the case for, 14; member-oriented metrics of, 18; PSIA–AASI’s membership growth due to, 14–19; tactics for engaging members in, 17
Strezoff, Denise, 107
Student members: AIChE’s ScaleUp program for, 267; drop-off of, 267; engagement of, 266; issues related to segmenting, 265–266; revenue offset of, 266
Student Youth Travel Association (SYTA), 134
Successful Communication Strategies for Associations blog (Kolar), 212
Successful Direct Marketing Methods (Stone), 163
Sudler, Anthony, 148
Supporting the Decision to Join: What Association Boards should Know and Do About Membership and Affiliation (ASAE), 44
Surveys: deployment and analysis of, 86; member department responsibilities for research and, 114; mixed mode, 86, 87; online, 86; sampling plan for, 87; telephone, 86
Sweepstakes trip or prize, 156
Systematic bias, 88

T
“Take the top off” membership model, 271
Tangible benefits, intangible versus, 25
Target Markets: build your own list for, 154–155; do outside list research to identify your, 155; harvest your database to identify, 154; recruitment of your, 154–155
Taylor, Paul, 210
TCEA (formerly Texas Computer Education Association) online community, 193
Team professional development, 119
Technological advances: creating wider geographic membership, 10; the gamer mentality born of, 8; impact on associations by, 6–8
Technologically savvy users, 7
Technology: AMS/CRM successful implementation role and tools, 105, 106–109; mobile, 65(fig), 204
Technophile, 7
Telemarketing, 161t
Telephone sales, 161t
Telephone surveys, 86
“The Science of Storytelling: Why Telling a Story is the Most Powerful Way to Activate Our Brains” (Facebook), 212
Top 5 Tips for Standing Out from the Crowd (Nonprofit Blog Carnival), 212
Total member value (TMV): assessing benefit relevance and effectiveness of, 27–28(fig); of benefits vs. features, 26–27; communicating to members, 24–26; dashboard transforming membership department actions into, 571–58; defining the, 21–22; member perspective on, 22–23; new member value, 31; ways to improve, 28–30; the “What’s in it for me?” question on, 23–24
Tracking: active approach to, 179; membership analysis component of, 164–165; membership recruitment and renewals, 168–170; MGAM (Member-Get-a-Member) campaign, 177, 179–180(fig); micro level of, 169; passive approach to, 179
Trade associations: description of, 136; membership analysis used by, 163t; membership models of, 271–276. See also Organization types
Traditionalists (born before 1945): association appeal to, 4; description and characteristics of, 3–4
Training. See Membership staff training/professional development
Translated materials, 69
Trending metrics: member engagement, 243; social return on investment (SROI), 243–244e
Trolchil, Wes, 93, 109
“Trust but verify,” 41, 42
Trusted referrals, 175
2015 Marketing General benchmarking study, 41
2015 Membership Marketing Benchmarking Report, 166
Twitter, 202, 203t
Two-tier pricing membership model, 130–131

U
Unrelated business income tax (UBIT), 247, 254–255
Update campaigns: online, 106; postcard, 106
Upselling membership, 120, 134
Urban Land Institute (ULI): banner ad of, 185fig; description of, 189; invite sent out by, 187fig; MGAM campaign case study of, 186–188; MGAM campaign goals and strategy, 177; MGAM campaign tactics and budget, 182–186; postcard sent out by, 183fig; recruiter message of, 188fig
U.S. Chamber of Commerce, 136, 275
U.S. Copyright Office, 260
U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), 255, 256
U.S. Postal Service, 106, 156

V
Value chain: adjusting your membership structure according to your, 272; examples of adjusting membership structure and, 272–275; sample membership flowchart on, 272, 273fig
Value proposition: assessing and improving membership benefits, 22–31; defining the value in your membership, 21–22; lifetime value of member (LTV) metric, 18, 235–236t
Videos: community building through the use of, 223–224; video sharing services, 203t
Virginia Hospitality and Travel Association, 39
Volunteer leadership: ad hoc opportunities for, 143; board of directors opportunities for, 140–141; chapter websites providing information to, 68–69; committee opportunities for, 141–143, 145–146; at the international level, 65–66; opportunities for, 140–143; publications targeted to, 69
Volunteers: AAUW webinars used for training, 225; as association ambassadors, 150–151; communication partnership with, 224–225; comparing role of staff and, 148–150; creating a meaningful experience for, 144–148; evaluation and feedback on their experience from, 148; interaction and communication with, 146; orientation of, 145; questions to ask that can reveal passion and interests of, 144; recognition of, 147–148; recruitment of, 144–145; staff liaison with, 149; stewarding, 147; why they matter, 139–140

W
Walling, Melissa, 239, 249
Weaver, Elizabeth, 147
Webbright Services, 212
Webinars, 225
Websites: as association communication tool, 213–214; before and after redesigned AAUW, 213–214, 216, 216e–217e, 219e–222e; building your own recruitment Target Market list using SEO of your, 155; chapter, 68–69; inbound marketing by optimizing SEO of your, 159; mobile adaptive, 204; single online community sign-on in main part of your, 195. See also Associations; Online presence
Wellness and Recognition Committee (Association of periOperative Registered Nurses, AORN), 121
West, Dean A., 75
When Millennials Take Cover (Notter and Grant), 47
Wilde, Oscar, 178
Wolk, Miriam, 139, 152
Word of mouth marketing, 162t, 175–176. See also MGAM (Member-Get-a-Member) campaign
Work redefinition, 3
Workforce generation span, 3–5
World Bank, 62
Written information security plan (WISP), 258

Y
YouTube, 203t, 204

Z
Zappos, 9
Zuckerberg, Mark, 175