CONTENTS

The Gorbachev Years: A Chronology vii
Preface and Acknowledgements xi

Introduction 1
1 Preparing the Change 9
   Dual-Track Diplomacy 9
   The Military-Diplomatic Complex 17
   ‘Moles’ in the Corridors of Power 24
   Cracks in the Monolith 34
2 Ambitions and Illusions of the ‘New Political Thinking’ 43
   Training for Leadership 43
   First Exercises in Foreign Policy 52
   Building the New Team 58
   Summits in Paris and Geneva 62
   A ‘Tail’ of Soviet Diplomacy? 66
   ‘New Thinking’ or Ideology Revisited? 70
   From Philosophy to Politics 75
   Reykjavik – ‘the Failed Summit’? 80
   ‘New Political Thinking’: Rules and Tools 86
3 Breaking the Ice 93
   Untying the Reykjavik ‘Package’ 93
   Withdrawing from Afghanistan and Retiring from the ‘Third World’ 100
vi CONTENTS

‘Abandoning’ Eastern Europe 114
Destroying the Berlin Wall 131

4 Up to the Peak and Down the Slope 163
  Gorbachev’s ‘Anti-Fulton’ Speech at the UN 163
  1989 – the Year of ‘the Great Turn’ 169
  Malta – a Belated Triumph 176
  On the Other Bank of the Rubicon 184
  The War in the Gulf and Shevardnadze’s Resignation 191
  The G7 in London: The Summit of a Last (Lost) Chance 200

5 The Winds of Change 214

Notes 234
Bibliography 257
Index 261