Subject Index

Abilify, 140, 143

Academic achievement examples
  elementary bilingual student, reassessing special education eligibility, placement, and services, 166–168
  elementary student evaluation for autism, 160–161
  elementary student evaluation for specific learning disability, 131–132
  high school student reevaluation for emotional disturbance, 140–141

Academic adjustments, 95

Academic skills
  assessment data presentation, 90–91
  present-levels of functioning questions, 73–74
  strengths, 73

Academic skills examples
  elementary bilingual student, reassessing special education eligibility, placement, and services, 168–169
  elementary student evaluation for autism, 160–161
  elementary student evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, 150–151
  elementary student evaluation for specific learning disability, 133–134
  high school student reevaluation assessing for intellectual disability, 122–124

Academic supports, 95

Accessibility of reports, 37

Accommodations, 95

Active voice
  converting passive voice to, 53
  readability and, 50, 52

Activities
  interview questions about, 172

Adaptive behaviors
  defined, 22, 124
  types of, 22

Adaptive skills examples
  elementary student evaluation for autism, 163
  high school student reevaluation for intellectual disability, 124–125
Adjectives, 51–52
Adoption, 139, 140, 143
Adult literacy skills, 45
Adverbs, 51–52
Aids recommendations, 95
American Psychological Association (APA)
  APA style, 110
  Standards for Educational and Psychological Testing, 32, 37
Antidepressants, 140
Anxiety, screening for, 173
APA style, 110
Appendices, for technical detail, 54
Approximate reliability, 32
Areas of need
  assessment of, 19
  hard and soft data for identifying, 20–21
Assessment
  of areas of need, 19
  comprehensiveness of, 19–21 as data-based decision making, 6
  defined, 3, 39
  of English skills, 28–29
  fairness of, 27–29
  IDEA requirements for, 17–18 language used for, 27 legally defensible reports and, 13–16 providing detailed information about, 13–16
  question-driven, 3
  report writing and, 3–4, 8
  RIOT, 21–22, 40, 89, 107
  Rule of Two, 22, 40, 89
  school district report templates for, 104
  by school psychologists, 4–6 of suspected disability, 19 time requirements, 4, 106–107 tools, 21–27, 104, 119
truth in, 13, 17
usefulness of, 39, 102
validity and reliability of procedures, 32–34 variety in, 21–27
Assessment data. See also Data clear presentation of, 37 hard, 20
integration of, 90–92, 100, 103
from multiple sources, 86–92 presented in charts and tables, 109 report structure and, 58
soft, 20–21
Assessment plans
collaborative development of, 39 disability classification and, 75–76
time requirements, 106–107
Assessment procedures, examples elementary bilingual student, reassessing
  special education eligibility, placement,
  and services, 165–166
elementary student evaluation for autism, 157–158, 159
elementary student evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, 148
elementary student evaluation for specific earning disability, 130–131, 130–137 high school student reevaluation for emotional disturbance, 138–139
high school student reevaluation for intellectual disability, 120–121
Assessment questions and results, examples
elementary bilingual student, reassessing
  special education eligibility, placement,
  and services, 166–170
Subject Index

elementary student evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, 148–150
high school student reevaluation for emotional disturbance, 140–144
high school student reevaluation for intellectual disability, 122–129 Attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), 138, 139 screening for, 173
Attorneys, 38
Atypicality, 142
Auditory Cohesion subtests, 55, 56
Auditory Comprehension subtest, 55, 56
Auditory Memory subtests, 55, 56
Auditory Reasoning subtest, 55, 56
Auditory skills assessment reports, 55–56 Autism
assessing as possible disability, 20 challenges of, 20
defined, 127
elementary student initial evaluation, example, 157–164 federal definition of, 19 high-functioning, 122
high school student, reevaluation assessment for intellectual disability, example, 122, 127–128 Autism spectrum disorder (ASD), 157 behavioral checklist, 161–162
Autistic-Like Behaviors criteria, 163
Average intelligence, 48

Background information
beneficence and, 80
birth and early development, 82–83
checklist for, 115
community-based evaluations and treatment, 83–84 confidentiality and, 80 divorce information, 81–82
educational history, 84–86
evaluation question examples, 131–132
health, 82–83
medical history, 83–84
positive phrasing of, 82
purpose of, 99–100
purposes of, 79
relevance of, 80
sensitive information, 80–82
situating the child in the family, 81 social and emotional functioning, 86
writing, 79–86
Background Information and Record Review examples
elementary student evaluation for autism, 158–159
high school student reevaluation for emotional disturbance, 139–140
high school student reevaluation for intellectual disability, 121–122
Basic Auditory Skills subtests, 55–56
Basic literacy level, 45
Behavior Assessment System for Children 3: (BASC-3), 135–136
Behavior Assessment System for Children 3: Parent Rating Scales, 24, 143–144
Behavior Assessment System for Children 3: Self-Report of Personality (BASC-3 SRP), 142, 145 Behavior Assessment System for Children 3: Teacher Rating Scales, 24, 144 Behavior examples
  elementary student evaluation assessment for autism, 161–163
  elementary student evaluation for specific learning disability, 135–136 Below Basic literacy level, 45
Beneficence, 80
Best practices, 34
Best Practices in School Psychology (NASP), 7 Bilingual/bicultural students assessment fairness and, 27–29 report variability for, 107 triennial review for elementary student, reassessing special education eligibility, placement, and services, example, 165–170
Bipolar disorder, 140
Birth, background information, 82–83
Blueprint for Training and Practice III, 63
Blueprint for Training and Practice III (NASP), 6
Blue Print III (NASP), 31
Boilerplate legal language legal defensibility and, 13–15 parents and teachers and, 38 placing in appendices, 54 in psychoeducational reports, 2 replacing with detailed information, 13–16
  school district report templates and, 103–104
Borderline personality disorder, 139, 140
Café-au-lait spots, 149
California Education Code (CEC)
  report requirements, 12
  school psychologist described in, 31–32
California English Language Development Test (CELDT), 28
California Special Education Code, 163 Charts, 109
Checklist for reports, 113–117 background history, 114 evaluation planning, 114
  evaluation questions, 114
  evaluation results, 115
  legal defensibility, 117
  reason for referral, 114
  recommendations, 115
  usefulness, 117
  writing strategies, 115
Claims, legally defensible, 13–15
Clarity, 45
Classroom accommodations, 95
Classroom adaptive skills examples
  elementary bilingual student, reassessing special education eligibility, placement, and services, example, 169 elementary student evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, example, 151–152
Cluster scores, 151
Cognitive Academic Language Proficiency Level (CALP), 29 Cognitive functioning
  present-levels of functioning questions, 73–74
  strengths, 73
Cognitive functioning examples
  elementary student evaluation for autism, 159–160
  elementary student evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, 152–154
Subject Index

elementary student evaluation for specific learning disability, 134–135 Collaboration with parents and teachers, 76 sensitive information and, 80 Communication effectiveness of, 6–8
of purpose of evaluation, 66–71 Community resources
community-based evaluations and treatment, 83–84
connecting children and families to, 95–96 Competence
professional experience and, 30 scope of practice and, 30–32
Composite scores, 33
Comprehension
readability and, 46
report format and, 61–62
Comprehensive evaluations, 19–21
Comprehensive Test of Phonological Processing (CTOPP), 26, 135
Conceptual skills, 22
Conclusion section, 87
Confidence intervals, 33
Confidentiality, 80
Consumers. See also Parents; Teachers making reports more useful for, 37–63 recommendations and, 92–93
writing reports for, 38–39
Conversational communication, 162
Coping, 172
Copying subtest, 153
Cultural bias, 27

Curriculum-based measurement (CBM)
Reading Fluency Rate, 24–25
value of, 21, 26–27
Curriculum modifications, 95

Data. See also Assessment data functional, 22–25
hard and soft, 20–21
interpretation and readability of, 55–57 relevant, 25–27
Data-based decision making, 6
Definitions, 105
Depression, 140–146
screening for, 173
Developmental delay
use of term, 48
Developmental Delay (DD) criteria, 166 Developmental factors
academic achievement and, 79–86
identifying, 79
Diagnostic questions, 73
writing, 75–77
Differential Ability Scales-2 (DAS-2), 151, 153–154, 156, 159–160
Disability
Education for All Handicapped Children Act and, 4–5 suspected, 75–77
Disability classifications assessments designed for, 39 IDEA categories, 76
identifying, 39, 75–77
Disability questions, 72–73
writing, 75–77
District-created phonemic awareness test, 26–27
Divorce, 81–82
Domain-based reports, 59, 61, 104

Early development, 82–83

Educational history
background information, 84–86
for elementary bilingual student special education reassessment, example, 166–168 review of, 39

Educational planning, 41–44

Education for All Handicapped Children Act (Public Law 94-142), 4–5, 11 Elementary school students initial evaluation for autism, 157–164 initial evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, 147–155 initial evaluation for specific learning disability, 150–157 triennial evaluation reassessing special education eligibility, placement, and services, example, 165–170

Emotional development. See also Social and emotional functioning high school student reevaluation for emotional disturbance, example, 141–144

Emotional disturbance
federal and state definition of, 144–145
high school student reevaluation for emotional disturbance, example, 138–146

Emotional self-regulation, 22

English-language learners (ELLs), 28–29

English skills, 28–29

Environmental factors, 131–132

Evaluation cycle
evaluation questions and, 71–72
time requirements for, 106–107

Evaluation planning checklist, 114

Evaluation questions
checklist for, 115
developing, 103, 105
as headings, 103, 105
IDEA and, 72–73
initial referral, 77
legal framework for, 72–73
posing and answering, 87 Reason for Referral section and, 71 thematic statements and, 88, 119 triennial review, 77–78
types of, 99
well-formed, 71–73
writing, 71–73, 77–89

Evaluation Results section structure of, 86–87
writing, 86–92

Evaluative Procedures (IDEA), 17–18

Evaluators
competence of, 30–32

Executive functioning, 22

Fairness, of assessment, 27–29

Family. See also Parents
interview questions about, 171

Federal laws and regulations, 19. See also specific laws

Flesch-Kincaid Reading Level (FKRL), 46, 47

Flesch Reading Ease, 46

Functional competencies, of school psychologists, 31

Functional data, 22–25
Subject Index

gathering, 22–23
organizing, 23–25
types of, 22

General Cognitive Ability (GCA), 151
Gilliam Autism Rating Scale (GARS), 161–162
Goals and aspirations, interview questions about, 173
Grade level, 48
Guided Reading, 24, 25

Hard data, 20
Headings, 110
Health issues
academic achievement and, 79–86
background information, 82–83 evaluation examples, 147–155
evaluation question examples, 131–132
identifying, 79
Helpfulness, interview questions about, 172
High school students
reevaluation for emotional disturbance, 138–146 reevaluation for intellectual disability, 120–126 Home. See also Parents
interview questions about, 171
Hyperactive, 48

Independence
for high school student, reevaluation assessment for intellectual disability, example, 124–125 Independent education evaluation (IEE) reports
length of, 54
technical information in, 54–55

Index scores, 33
Individualized Education Program (IEP), 5 boilerplate language and, 14–15
evaluation questions and, 72–73
identification of strengths and needs and, 93 meaningful recommendations, 42–43 parental involvement in, 11
school district report templates and, 104
Individualized Education Program (IEP) example recommendations for elementary bilingual student triennial evaluation for special education eligibility, 167, 170 for elementary student, initial assessment for specific learning disability, 137 for high school student reevaluation for intellectual disability, 128–129 Individuals with Disability Education Improvement Act (IDEA), 11, 34 disability categories, 76 disability questions and, 75
evaluation questions and, 72–73
evaluative procedures, 17–18 parental involvement and, 11, 102 present level of functioning questions and, 72–73
report writing and, 102
support services under, 95, 96
Information quality, readability and, 53–58
Initial referral questions, 77 Intellectual development example for high school student reevaluation for intellectual disability, 122–124
Subject Index

Intellectual disability
  defined, 128
  high school student reevaluation assessing, example, 120–129 Intensifiers, 51
Intermediate literacy level, 45
Interview protocol, 171–174
Intrapersonal skills, 22

Jargon
  readability and, 48–50, 105
  rewriting, 49–50

Kaufman Assessment Battery for Children
  Non-verbal Index (KABC Non-verbal Index), 29

Language
  assessment and, 27–29
  jargon, 48–50
Language arts evaluation examples
  elementary bilingual student, reassessing special education eligibility, placement, and services, 168–169
  elementary student evaluation for autism, 160–161
  elementary student evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, 150–151 Learning disabilities functional information and, 23–25 neurofibromatosis and, 149, 155 relevant information and, 25 Learning disabilities evaluation examples elementary school student initial evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, 147–155 elementary school student initial evaluation for specific learning disability, 130–137 Legal competence
  professional experience, 30
  scope of practice, 30–32
Legal defensibility, 2, 11–35 assessment requirements, 13–16 best practices and, 34
  checklist for reports, 113–117
  federal laws and regulations, 11–12
  recommendations, 34
  school district report templates and, 103–104
  of standardized tests, 73
  state laws and regulations, 12
  takeaway points, 35
Lisch nodules, 149
Lists
  checklist for reports, 113–117
  presenting recommendations as, 96
Literacy levels, 45
Local Occupational Program (LOP), 128–129

Math evaluation examples
  elementary bilingual student, reassessing special education eligibility, placement, and services, 169
  elementary student evaluation for autism, 161
  elementary student evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, 151
Matrixes subtest, 160
Measurement error, 33
Medical history, 83–84
MODEL, 27
Mood diary, 146
Mood disorders, 140
Motor skills
  interview questions about, 171
  test fairness and, 27

Naming Vocabulary subtest, 152–153, 160 Narratives
  psychoeducational reports as, 38, 39
  recommendations as, 96–98, 119
National Assessment of Adult Literacy (NAAL), 45
National Association of School Psychologists (NASP), 6
  Blueprint for Training and Practice III, 31, 63
  Principles for Professional Ethics, 37, 43 on school psychologist’s role, 31 Native language, 28–29
Needs
  elementary student evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, example, 152–154
  identification of, 93, 94
  recommendations for, 94
Neurofibromas, 149
Neurofibromatosis (NFI), 147–150, 154–155
Newspaper articles, readability of, 46
Non-literate adults, 45
Nonverbal Reasoning Ability cluster, 153
Non-Verbal Reasoning cluster, 153
Number Memory Forward subtest, 55, 56
Number Memory Reversed subtest, 55, 56
Occupational therapy (OT), 167, 170
ODD screening, 173
Office of Civil Rights, 11
Office of Special Education and Rehabilitation Services, 11
Office of Special Education Programs, 11
Open Court reading, 160
Open Court Unit Test, 24, 25
Other Health Impairment (OHI) criteria, 154, 155 Parents
  collaboration with, 76
  as consumers of psychoeducational reports, 38 IDEA and, 11, 102
  interview protocol, 171–174
  interviews with, 24, 25
  involvement of, 11
  literacy skills of, 45
  psychoeducational reports for, 1, 2, 7, 12
  Reason for Referral statements and, 70
  recommendations and, 42–44, 93
  report format and, 62
  report usability for, 37
Participation in community, interview questions about, 173
Passive voice, 50, 52–53
Pattern Construction subtest, 153, 160
Phonemic awareness skills, 150, 161
Phonics-based decoding skills, 26
Phonological awareness evaluation of elementary student, initial evaluation for learning disability
    example, 135
  rewriting technical jargon, 49–50
Subject Index

Phonological Awareness Composite Score, 135
Phonological Blending subtest, 55, 56
Phonological Memory Composite Score, 135
Phonological processing skills, 153–154
Phonological Processing subtest, 153
Phonological Segmentation subtest, 55, 56
Physicians, 38
Picture Similarities subtest, 153
P.J.s (professional judgments), 3
Planning and organizational skills, 22
Politics and the English Language (Orwell), 50 Positive language, 82
Post-secondary goals, 129
Practical intelligence, 22
Practical problems, in report writing, 101–111
Practical skills, 22
Pre-academic skills, 160–161
Pre-reading skills, 151
Pre-referral process, 19, 23
Present-levels of functioning questions
  IDEA and, 72–73
  identifying domains of concern, 75
  writing, 73–75
Principles for Professional Ethics and Guidelines for the Provision of School Psychological Services (NASP), 7, 37, 43 Problem-solving psychological reports and, 6 in question-driven report writing, 101–111 Processing Speed cluster, 154
Professional Competence standards (NASP), 43
Professional experience, of school psychologists, 30
Proficient literacy level, 45
Prose literacy skills, of adults, 45
Psychoeducational Report format, 61 Psychoeducational reports. See also Question-driven, referral-based reports;
    Report writing
    accessibility of, 37
adult literacy skills and, 45
boilerplate legal language in, 2, 38
checklist for, 113–117
clarity of, 6–8, 43–44, 45 cutting words in, 50–53 ethical and legal issues and, 1 federal laws and regulations affecting, 1, 11–12 focusing on strengths in, 40–41 formats, 2, 110
improving, 1–3
legal defensible, 2, 11–35
length of, 2, 54
literacy skills required for reading, 46 parents and, 1, 2, 7, 12
purposes of, 6–7
readability of, 38, 45–62, 105 recommendations for educational planning, 41–44 report format, 58–62
response to referral questions in, 37, 39
school district report templates and, 103–106
state laws and regulations affecting, 1, 12 as stories, 38, 39
structure of, 3, 58–62, 86–88
takeaway points, 8–9
teachers and, 1, 2, 7
trends in, 2
Subject Index

usefulness of, 37–63, 100
variability in, 2
weaknesses of, 1
word choice in, 50–53
writing with the audience in mind, 38–39
Psychosis, 140
Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 110
Public Law 94-142 (Education for All Handicapped Children Act), 4–5

Quantitative literacy skills of adults, 45
Question-and-Answer report format, 61 Question-driven, referral-based reports, 59–60, 61, 65–100. See also Psychoeducational reports; report writing characteristics of, 62–63
charts and tables in, 109 development of, 101
examples, 119–170
format, 62–63, 100
high school student, intellectual disability assessment, 120–126 school district mandates and, 103–106 solving practical problems in, 101–111 structure for, 87
time-requirements, 106–107
value of, 111
variability in, 107, 119
writing, 65–100
Question-driven assessments, 3

Racial bias, 27
Rapid Naming Composite Score, 135
Rapid Naming subtest, 154 Readability

active voice and, 50, 52–53 comprehension and, 46
data interpretation, 55–57 determining, 46, 47
factors affecting, 45–46
increasing, 48–62
information quality and, 53–58 jargon and, 48–50
of psychoeducational reports, 38, 45–62, 105 report length and, 53–54
report structure and, 58–62
takeaway points, 63
technical detail and, 54
usefulness and, 45–62
word choice and, 50–53
Reader-centered reports, 110
Reading benchmarks, 133, 161, 167–168
Reading evaluation examples elementary bilingual student, triennial evaluation reassessing special education eligibility, placement, and services, 167–168
elementary student evaluation for specific learning disability, 133–134
Reading evaluation tools, 23–24
Reading Fluency Rate, 24–25
Reason for Referral section adding detail to, 103
checklist for, 114
disability identification and, 76 evaluation questions and, 71
format, 71
parents and, 70
poorly written statements, 66–67
purpose of, 86, 99
recommended contents of, 67–71 Reason for Referral section (continued)
  teachers and, 70
  in triennial reviews, 108–109
  writing, 66–71
Reason for Referral section examples, 68–70
  elementary student evaluation for autism, 157
  elementary student evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, 147
  elementary student evaluation for specific learning disability, 130 elementary student initial evaluation assessing for autism, 157
  high school student reevaluation for emotional disturbance, 138
  high school student reevaluation for intellectual disability, 120 Recommendations
  academic supports, 95
  accommodations, 95
  avoiding, 43
  categories for developing, 99
  checklist for, 115
  curriculum modifications, 95
  for educational planning, 41–44 for further evaluation, 94–95 general to specific, 93–94 generic, 93
  identification of strengths and needs and, 93
  as a list, 96
  meaningful, 41–44, 93, 100
  parents and teachers and, 92–93 presenting as a narrative, 97–99 presenting as “What do we do about this?” questions, 96–98 referrals, 95
  school psychologists’ reluctance to provide, 93 support services, 95
  types of, 94
  useful, 37, 93–99
  writing, 93–99
Recommendations examples
  elementary bilingual student reassessing special education eligibility, placement, and services, 169–170
  elementary student evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, 154–155 elementary student initial assessment for specific learning disability, 136–137 elementary student initial evaluation for autism, 164 high school student reevaluation assessing for emotional disturbance, 145–146
  high school student reevaluation assessing for intellectual disability, 127–129 for special education services, 136–137, 145–146, 154–155 Referral-Based Consultative Assessment/Report Writing Model (Batsche), 62–63
  evaluation questions and, 71
Referral-based reports. See Question-driven, referral-based reports Referral questions
  recommendations for, 39
  useful responses to, 37, 39
Referrals, 95
Relevant information
  defined, 25
  gathering, 25–27
Reliability
Subject Index

of assessment procedures, 32–34
defined, 33
Remedial interventions, 95
Report writing, 65–100
adult literacy skills and, 45
assessment and, 8
assessment data from multiple sources, 86–92 background information, 79–86, 100
best practices, 7
changing format, 103
checklist for, 113–117
diagnostic or disability questions, 75–77
evaluation questions, 71–73, 100
format, 62, 103, 110
importance of, 3–4
practical problems in, 101–111
present-levels of functioning questions, 73–75 Reason for Referral section, 66–71, 100 referred-based reports, 65–100 report length, 53–54
school district report templates and, 103–106
by school psychologists, 4–6 solution-based, or “What do we do about this?” questions, 77–78 structure, 58–62, 86–87, 105 summary, 105–106
takeaway points, 99–100
time requirements, 4, 106–107
undervaluing of, 4
Responsibility standards (NASP), 43
RIO (records, interviews, and observations), 107
RIOT model, 21–22, 40, 89, 107, 119
Role models, interview questions about, 172
Rule of Two, 22
Rule of Two (Merrell), 22, 40, 89
School, interview questions about, 171–172 School district mandates report templates, 103–105 standardized measures, 73 School psychologists
assessment and report writing by, 4–6
California Education Code (CEC)
  description of, 31–32
  competence of, 30–32
  concerns of, 4
  functional competencies of, 31 history, 4–5
  legislation and, 5
  NASP view of role of, 31
  reference to self in passive voice, 52–53 reluctance to provide recommendations, 93 roles and functions of, 5–6 scope of practice of, 30–32 services of, 31–32
  time required for report writing, 106–107
Scoliosis, 149
Scope of practice, 30–32
Selective serotonin reuptake inhibitors (SSRIs), 140
Self-care, 22, 163
Sensitive information, 79–82
Sensory skills, 27
Sentence Memory subtest, 55, 56
Sentence structure, 46
Short Form report format, 61
Social and emotional functioning
  academic achievement and, 79–86
  background information, 86
  identifying, 79
  present-levels of functioning questions, 73–74
  screening for, 173
  social and interpersonal skills, 22
  strengths, 73
Social and emotional functioning examples
  elementary student evaluation for autism, 161–163
  elementary student evaluation for specific learning disability, 135–136
  high school student, reevaluation assessing for emotional disturbance, 141–144
  high school student reevaluation for intellectual disability, 125–127
Social Skills Improvement System Rating Scales (SSIS), 125–127
Social support, interview questions about, 172
Soft data, 20–21
Solution-based questions, 77–78
Spatial Ability cluster, 153, 160
Speaking skills, 27
Special education legislation complexity of, 11
  impact on roles of school psychologists, 5 Special education services recommendations, examples elementary bilingual student, reassessing special education eligibility, placement, and services, 169–170
  elementary student evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, 154–155
  elementary student evaluation for specific learning disability, 136–137 high school student reevaluation for assessing intellectual disability, 127–128 high school student reevaluation for emotional disturbance, 145–146
  high school student reevaluation for intellectual disability, 127–128
Specific Learning Disability (SLD), 136–137, 165, 167, 169–170
Speech and language therapy, 167
Speed of Information Processing subtest, 154
Standardized achievement tests IEP report writing and, 26 requirements for, 73
Standardized intelligence tests, 73
Standardized tests
  district mandates for, 73
  examples, 155–156
  legal defensibility of, 73 reliability of, 33
  validity of, 34
Standards for Educational and Psychological Testing (APA), 32, 33, 37
State laws and regulations regarding school psychologists, 32
  report requirements, 12
Stereotyped Behaviors subtest, 162 Stories
  psychoeducational reports as, 38, 39
  recommendations as, 96–98, 119
Strengths
  assessment data presentation, 90
  elementary student evaluation for learning disability and other health impairment, example, 152
Subject Index

focusing on, 40–41
identification of, 93, 94
incorporating into present-levels of functioning questions, 73 matrix assessment of, 40–41
Student-parent relations, 139, 140, 143, 143
Subaverage, 128
Subheadings, 110
Suicide attempts, 138, 139–140, 141, 142–143
Summary interview questions, 174
Summary section
for elementary student evaluation for autism, example, 163–164
purpose of, 105–106
writing, 87
Support services, IDEA and, 95, 96
Suspected disability
assessment of, 19
hard and soft data for identifying, 20–21
Systemic behavioral screening tools, 21

Tables, 109, 110
Teachers
  collaboration with, 76
  as consumers of psychoeducational reports, 38
  interview protocol, 171–174
  interviews with, 24, 25
  psychoeducational reports for, 1, 2, 7
Reason for Referral statements and, 70
recommendations and, 42–44, 92–93
report format and, 62
report usability and, 37 Technical terminology
  readability and, 48–50, 54, 105
  rewriting, 49–50
Technological aids, 95
Test accommodations, 95
Test-based reports, 58–59, 61, 104
Test interpretations, 34
Test of Auditory Processing Skills (TAPS-3), 55–57
Theme statements, 119
defined, 3, 87–88
examples, 88–91
highlighting, 88
narratives following, 89
number of, 92
as organizing tool, 87–88
as subheadings, 103
uses of, 92
writing, 86–92
Time requirements, for report writing, 4, 106–107 Transitions
  interview questions about, 173
  Transition Plan, 125, 129
Triennial reviews
  characteristics of, 107–109
  example, 108
  example for elementary bilingual student, reassessing special education eligibility, placement, and services, 165–170
  purpose of, 107–108
  solution-based, or “What do we do about this?” questions, 77
Truth, in assessments, 13–16, 17

Usefulness, 37–63
  of assessments, 39
  characteristics of, 39
  checklist for reports, 113–117
  clarity and, 45
Usefulness (continued)
  importance of, 102
  meaningful recommendations and,
    41–44
  readability and, 45–62
  of recommendations, 41–44, 93–99 response to referral questions and, 37, 39
  school district report templates and, 103
  strategies for, 39

Validity
  of assessment procedures, 32–34
  defined, 33
  Verbal cluster, 160
  Verbal Comprehension subtest, 152, 160
  Veterans Administration mental health workers, 38
  Visual-motor integration, 49
  Visual processing, 48
  Vocabulary
    readability and, 46
    of students, 152–153, 160

“What Waking Day” interview questions, 173
Wechsler Individual Achievement Test III
  (WIAT-III), 23, 24, 26
Wechsler Intelligence Scale for Children, 23, 29
Welbutrin, 140
“What do we do about this?” questions presenting recommendations as, 96–98
  writing, 77–78
Word choice, 50–53
Word Discrimination subtest, 55–56
Word Memory subtest, 55, 56
Words, editing, 50–53
Working Memory cluster, 154
Writing strategies checklist, 115
Written language ability, 34
Written language evaluation examples elementary bilingual student evaluation for special education, 169
  elementary student evaluation for specific learning disability, 154
Zoloft, 140, 143