Index

Italicized page numbers refer to information in figures.

absence, 21, 49

  see also presence

absoluteness, 53, 64, 79

Adams, Martin, 220

afterlife, 4, 8, 38, 40, 47, 50

ageing, 19, 54, 57, 187

Aletheia, 195

alienation

  couples/personal relationships, 110, 239

  EvD’s experience, 51, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 151

  and loss of passion, 91–92

  in a mobile and multicultural world, 77, 84, 85

  and ontological insecurity, 23, 25, 30, 32, 33

  and ontonomical living, 213

  phases of, 86

  physical appearance, 80–81, 148–149, 151, 153

  post-modern age, 47–49, 100, 163–164, 170

  reminders of home, 79–80, 81

  and social acceptance (abroad), 77, 78–79

  through over-competitiveness, 235–236

  as a valuable experience, 85

Vicky (client study), 228

aliveness/vitality, 30, 34–36, 183, 225, 263

  see also passion

aloneness see isolation/loneliness

Andersen, Hans Christian, 40, 165

Anne (client study), 135–137

anthropology, 184, 185–186

anti-psychiatry, 27, 31, 128, 130, 192

anxiety

  of death, addiction to, 55, 56

  existential therapy, 44, 193, 194, 197–198, 206

  for passionate living, 22, 43, 92, 93, 94, 101

  pathologized, 8, 173, 184

  see also ontological insecurity

appearance

  cultural alienation, 80–81, 148–149, 151, 153

  Marie-Louise’s identity (client study), 227, 229, 231

  applied philosophy movement, 202–203

  Arbour’s Community, 31, 131–134, 192

  Aristotle, 99, 203

  artists/poets, 31, 43, 55, 99, 191

  atheism, 210, 212, 216

  availability (true dialogue), 73, 196
bad faith, 53, 60–61, 195, 230
Baudrillard, Jean, 118
behavioural therapy see cognitive-behavioural therapy Berdyaev, Nikolai, 48
bereavement/grief, 8, 150, 153, 154, 174, 175
Bettelheim, Bruno, 34
bias
and client dissonance, 145
cultural, 180–181, 186, 212
and Hélène’s treatment (client study), 129
humility, 142
interpretations of truth, 177, 212
and Marie-Louise’s treatment (client study), 229 part of the human condition, 140
in phenomenology, 194
and philosophical practice, 200, 201–202, 206 therapeutic focus on death, 45, 49
Binswanger, Ludwig, 197, 205
Birgit (client study), 148–154, 173–175
blame
blind spots, 137
Sophie’s death (client study), 126–128
boredom, 3, 19, 89, 96, 97, 264
Boss, Medard, 205
Bowlby, John, 118
brain see neuroscience
British School of Existential Therapy, 189–190 Buber, Martin, 72–73, 75
bullying, 26, 175, 191, 220
Camus, Albert, 104–105, 214
cancer, 50
caring
daily labour, 55
and depression, 94
experienced therapists, 156
Greek translation of ‘psychotherapy’, 184
human desire for, 34
human torment, 70
risking loss, 101
therapy as religion, 162
catharsis, 98
celebrities, 2–3
childhood
EvD’s, 37–42, 43, 47, 54, 109, 190
freedom, 19, 37, 42
learning and change, 15–18, 20, 90 passionate living, 89–90
as source of trauma/schizophrenia, 24, 29–30, 33–34, 35, 132–133, 138 storytelling/lying, 108, 109
and universal human principles, 187
client studies
Anne, 135–137
Birgit, 148–154, 173–175
Hélène, 129–131
Irma, 114–117
Jerry see Jerry
Laura, 102–103
Marcel and Sophie, 125–128
Marie-Louise, 227–232
Peter, 241–250
Philip, 132–134
Rosa, 65–67, 103
Teresa, 137–139
Vicky, 233–240
clothes, 80–81, 153
colour observation, 186
communication
dialogue, 72–76, 196–197, 199, 206
and intimacy, 69–71
strangers abroad, 82–83
communities see therapeutic communities consumerism, 3–4, 33, 159, 162, 163–164, 226 contradictions see paradox counselling, 100, 160, 161
see also therapeutic practice couple therapy, 129, 159
courage
existential, 93, 146
and honesty, 110
through facing fears and death, 20, 56, 195
critical thinking
attitude to living, 21
EvD’s practice of deconstruction, 50
existential therapy, 202, 212
scepticism and progress (client study), 245 and secular values of the mass media, 163 and theoretical circularity, 45–46 culture
context for truths, 180–181, 185–187 cultural learning, 17–18
and integration abroad, 77, 78, 80–81, 83–84, 85
relativity, 187
therapy as a cultural phenomenon, 159
cynicism
disillusionment with materialism, 4 EvD's studies in deconstruction, 50 modern media portrayals of violence and
death, 47–48
and Nietzsche, 193
Peter (client study), 245, 247, 248
as psychopathy, 181
Dante, Alighieri, 158
Dawkins, Richard, 202, 210
death
absoluteness, 53, 96
as an existentialist preoccupation, 44, 45, 46, 49, 56
bereavement/grief, 8, 150, 153, 154, 174, 175
choosing to live, 51, 53–54, 56–57, 220 Heidegger on, 37, 42–43, 185, 194–195 idea of nothingness/oblivion, 37–38, 39–40 inevitability of, 1, 19
and the labour of the everyday, 55–56
as perfection/cure for life, 10, 34 physical realities of, 50–51, 52
and post-modern society, 47–49, 170 reincarnation, 38
security, 36
as surrender to passion, 97 treatment in therapeutic practice, 40, 41, 44–45 and the value of life, 21, 54
death-wish see self-destruction; suicide deceit see lying deconstructionism, 50, 55, 118 Dennett, Daniel, 62, 202
depersonalization, 24–25
depression
Birgit (client study), 174
in compass of emotions, 198 Irma (client study), 115
and passion, 90–94
as pathology, 10, 47, 173
social norms, 8
Tony (Teresa’s client study), 138
Derrida, Jacques, 118
Descartes, René, 204
Deurzen, Emmy van
childhood lying, 109
and death, 37–43, 45, 46–47, 49, 50–51, 52, 53–54
hard-earned lessons see hard-earned lessons interest in existentialism, 45, 134, 135, 189, 190–192 motherhood, 110, 135–137, 139
post-war upbringing, 40–41, 54, 190 psychoanalysis of, 40, 41, 167–168
public relationships, 64
as a stranger in a foreign land, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 151 therapeutic community experience, 27–28, 30, 31–32, 52, 122–128, 192 Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of the American Psychiatric Association (DSM), 7–8
dialectical progress, 206, 213–214, 217, 265
dialogue, 72–76, 196–197, 199, 206
disembodiment, 25
doctors, 55, 160–161
double bind concept, 24, 33
drugs
client request/self-medication, 4, 7, 83
effectiveness, 9, 174, 175, 183
psychiatrists, 201
stigma, 161
DSM (Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of the American Psychiatric Association), 7–8 duologue, 72–75
egocentricity, 163, 164–166, 193
eidetic reduction, 194
Einfühlung, 148
Eliot, George, 103
Eliot, T.S., 70, 107, 119
emotions
compass of, 198–199
cultural similarities, 186
mood and the creation of meaning, 196, 198–199
in regressive state, 129
see also passion
engulfment, 24
Epicureans, 99, 203
Erwin, Edward, 201–202
ethics
humanistic way of life, 216 and materialism, 3
morality through therapy, 102–103, 212–213, 220, 221 philosophical roots of psychotherapy, 200 and religion, 215
of self-centredness, 164–166
therapists as philosophers, 201–203, 264 everyday labour, 55–56

evidence-based therapy, 100, 175–176, 182

existentialism
courage, 93, 146
on death, 44, 45, 46, 48–49, 56
emergence as a philosophical movement, 204 as interest of Jerry (client study), 259–260
ontological insecurity, 24, 29, 30–32, 34–36, 93
view of self, 32, 60–62
see also existential therapy

existential therapy
alternative to pathology, 7–11, 94, 173–176, 201
and bias, 12, 140, 145, 177, 186 client-therapist resonance and co-agency, 140, 145, 146–148, 154–157, 196–197, 199 and cross-cultural universal truths, 185–188 EvD’s interest in, 134, 135, 189, 190–192 focus on role of suffering, 44–45, 264–265 foundation of, 204–205
methodology, 189–190, 196–199, 205–206, 219
and passion, 12, 98, 176, 193
practical lessons, 223–226
as secular priesthood, 55
theoretical aspects of, 192–196 towards transcendence, 209–214, 217–219, 220

failure
criticism of therapeutic professions, 160 fear/self-blame, 4–5, 34, 91, 96, 153 learning through living and failing, 2, 5, 9, 11–12, 21, 93
see also hard-earned lessons
as paradox of life, 2, 20, 34, 220–221
and progress, 93, 157, 194–195, 210, 215, 220–221 false memories, 117

family
EvD’s, 37–38, 39–41, 190
as source of trauma/schizophrenia, 24, 29–30, 33–34, 35, 132–133, 138 traditional domain of psychological solutions, 160, 161
see also parents/parenting

Federn, Paul, 59
forgiveness, 76, 92, 141
fortune telling, 4, 38–39, 216
Foucault, Michel, 162
Frankl, Viktor Emil, 100
freedom
and the acceptance of death, 37, 42–43, 194 childhood and adulthood, 19, 165–166
in the creation of meaning, 108 EvD’s childhood, 37, 42
and the existential view of self, 61 individual rights (client study), 238 and mature judgement, 18
strangers in foreign lands, 77–78, 79

Freud/Freudian analysis, 46, 59, 83, 108, 203
gambling, 97
gender, 186
genius, 31, 46
God, 48, 105, 166, 193, 212, 215
grace, 56
grandmother, death of EvD’s, 39–40

group therapy
couples, 129, 159
intimacy, 69, 76
see also therapeutic communities

happiness
appreciation through loss, 21 childhood idea of, 90
and existential therapy, 94, 198
positive psychology, 45, 163, 180
post-modern vision, 48
pursuit of, 3, 12, 20, 45, 163–164
hard-earned lessons
blind spots, 137–140
death as the great supervisor, 122–128
regression, 128–131
therapeutic delusions, 131–134 unexpected limitations, 134–137 value of, 121–122, 140–142

Heidegger, Martin
concept of self, 32, 60, 61
on existential anxiety, 31
and existential psychotherapy, 204–205
God and being, 48
‘impassioned freedom towards death’, 37, 42–43, 194 importance of caring, 70
resolution and releasement, 56, 195
on risk-taking, 44
on thinking, 107–108
on time and finitude, 42–43, 185, 194
on truth, 195
Index  277

Hélène, (client study), 129–131

hospitals
  EvD’s exposure to the reality of death, 50–51 psychiatric hospitals as safe places, 27

human condition
  beyond see transcendence
cross-cultural universal dimensions, 185–188
curability, 5, 10, 182–183
dialectical processes of, 206 and imperfection, 34
  isolation/loneliness, 1, 32, 63, 197 and ontological insecurity/anxiety, 23, 25, 26, 30, 31, 34–36
  and ontonomical living, 213
  paradox’s centrality, 15–22, 197, 220–221, 263 passion’s centrality, 87–94, 97, 104–105
  and professional bias, 140, 177, 186 theoretical aspects of existential analysis, 192–196

  and therapist-client resonance, 140, 145, 146–147

humanism
  defining transcendence, 216
  and existential psychotherapy, 205
  narrowness of base, 170
  and passion, 98, 100
  self-centredness of, 163, 166, 195
  version of truth, 112–113
human potential movement, 100 Hume, David, 59, 98, 204
humility, 142
Husserl, Edmund, 193–194, 204, 219

ICD (International Classification of Disease of the World Health Organization), 7–8 identity see self

ideology, 164–166, 169, 180, 202, 211, 218, 264 immigration see migration/migrants imperfection, 34, 140, 198, 215
implosion, 24
individualism, 163, 164–166, 193, 238

insecurity
  Sartre’s bad faith, 195
  as a stranger in a foreign land, 79–80, 86
  see also ontological insecurity

integrative approach to truth, 112–113, 181

International Classification of Disease of the World Health Organization (ICD), 7–8 imminence
  and communication problems, 70–71
  in group meetings, 69, 76
  therapeutic relationship, 71, 73–74, 75–76
  in true dialogue, 72–76

Irma (client study), 114–117
isolaton/loneliness
  aloneness and death, 43
  and culture shock/living abroad, 78, 82, 228
  EvD’s experience, 25, 28, 39, 50, 51, 168
  leading to self-perception, 62
  as living/human condition, 1, 32, 63, 197 and personal relationships, 110, 220, 238 risk in a transcultural world, 77

Jacobson, Edith, 59
Jaspers, Karl, 95–96, 195, 196, 204

Jerry (client study)
  background, 252–253
  first impressions, 251
  outcome, 261–262
  presenting problem, 253–254
  therapy, 254–261
Jewish identity, 84

Kernberg, Otto F., 59
Kierkegaard, Søren, 27, 29, 31, 48, 192–193, 204
Kohut, Heinz, 59

labelling, 5, 7, 12, 155, 175, 211, 263
Lacan, Jacques, 59
Laing, Ronald David
  family as source of disturbance, 24, 33, 138
  ontological insecurity, 23, 24, 25, 26–27, 29, 30–31, 35–36
  practical application of anti-psychiatry, 128 psychotherapy as re-search, 68 schizophrenics notion of self, 59–60 language
  and alienation, 78, 82–83, 84
  cultural similarities, 186
Laura (client study), 102–103
learning
childhood, 15–18, 20, 90
cultural, 17–18
from existential therapeutic practice, 210, 223–226, 264–265
opposites, 21
systems as a universal human principle, 187 through living and failing, 2, 5, 9, 11–12, 21, 93
see also hard-earned lessons
time, 219
limit situations, 95–96, 195
“Little Mermaid, The”, 165
logical positivism, 204
loneliness see isolation/loneliness love
childhood learning, 15
human desire for, 34
and passion, 88–89
Rosa’s infatuation and selfhood, 65–67, 103
see also intimacy
lying, 108–109, 110
MacNeice, Louis, 71
maps of existence, 197
Marcel, Gabriel, 73, 196
Marcel and Sophie (client study), 125–128
Marie-Louise (client study), 227–232
mass media, 47–48, 163
materialism, 3, 4, 33
see also consumerism
Mead, Margaret, 186
meaning
created through passion, 89, 264
emptiness and implosion, 24 existential theory, 192–196 post-modern lack of, 3–4, 47–49, 100, 163–164
and self-indulgence (client study), 242–243, 244 and therapy, 147–148, 169, 173, 176, 199, 209–210, 225
through mood, 196
and the transcendence of human paradox, 220–221
see also truth
medicalization see pathology/pathologization medication
client request/self-medication, 4, 7, 83
effectiveness, 9, 174, 175, 183
psychiatrists, 201
stigma, 161
medicine (discipline of), and psychological issues, 160–161 migration/migrants
alienation and freedom in a foreign land, 77, 78–79 and language abroad, 78, 82–83, 84
reminders of home, 79–80
welcome/acceptance, 85
Miller, Alice, 29–30
monologue, 72
morality see ethics
mothers/motherhood
Birgit’s bereavement and care of (client study), 150, 153–154, 174
EvD’s experience, 110, 135–137, 139
Jerry’s relationship with (client study), 252–253, 254, 255, 257, 258–259, 261
and life’s mysteries, 55 Teresa’s emotional withdrawal (client study), 138–139 mountain allegory, 178–180 multiculturalism, 77, 84, 85
Nagel, Thomas, 202
natural world, 17, 217
neuroscience, 5, 8–9, 93, 184, 202–203
new age spirituality, 216 Nietzsche, Friedrich
on death of God, 48, 193
existential psychotherapy, 204 Laing compared to, 27, 31
on meaning/purpose, 12, 48–49
on risk-taking, 35, 44
on truth, 106, 119
nihilism, 4, 48, 60, 113, 118, 188, 193
nothingness
death/oblivion, 10, 37–38, 39–40, 47, 49, 53, 54
human longing, 34
human substance, 32, 195 Nussbaum, Martha, 203
object-relations school of psychoanalysis, 29–30, 35, 59 oblivion/nothingness, 10, 37–38, 39–40, 47, 49, 53, 54
occult see fortune telling
ontological insecurity
definition, 23, 24–25
EvD’s experience, 25–26, 28, 30
existential perspective, 24, 29, 30–32, 34–36 family background as source of, 24, 29–30, 33–34
therapeutic communities, 27–28
ontonomy, 171, 213, 264
paganism, 216
pantheism, 216
paradox
acceptance and progress, 34, 54–55, 169, 208, 218–221, 224, 232 Binswanger’s four dimensions, 197, 198 central role of, 1, 11–13, 15–22, 170, 220–221, 263, 265
of motherhood, 136, 138
and passion, 87, 89, 91, 97, 105
selfhood, 65
therapist exposure to, 132, 141 universal social recognition of, 186 Vicky’s openness to others (client study), 238 parameters of safety, 16–18
parents/parenting
EvD’s upbringing, 37–38, 39, 40–41, 54, 190 and Jerry (client study), 252–253, 254, 255, 257, 258–259, 261
as obstacles in Disney’s “The Little Mermaid”, 165 teaching boundaries, 16–17
and therapist suitability for resonant work, 156 and Vicky (client study), 234, 235, 237
see also mothers/motherhood Pascal, Blaise, 95, 97
passion
anxiety and passionate living, 22, 43, 92, 93, 94, 101
definition, 95
evasion of, 12, 87, 90–91, 96–97, 104, 264 French language, 83
and the human condition, 87–94, 97, 104–105
in philosophical tradition, 98–99, 100, 193, 203
and reason, 97–98, 101–102, 103
and therapy, 96, 98, 99–103, 104, 153, 176, 264, 265
pathology/pathologization curing the human condition, 5, 182–183 drugs as a quick fix, 4, 7, 83, 161 and EvD’s childhood fascination with death, 40, 41
and existential therapy, 7–11, 94, 173–176, 201, 223
ontological insecurity, 23, 25, 29, 31, 32
stigma, 155, 161, 174
therapeutic relationship, 154–155
unhappy childhoods, 33
and a well-lived life, 56
perfection, 34, 140, 157, 198, 215
Peter (client study), 241–250
petrification, 24–5
phenomenology, 128, 144, 193–194, 205, 214, 219 Philip (client study), 132–134
philosophy
concepts of self, 32, 58–62
on death, 44, 45, 46, 48–49, 56
existential anxiety, 24, 29, 30–32 on passion, 98–99, 100, 193, 203 psychotherapist’s embedded value system, 200–201
see also existential therapy
in therapist training, 6, 200, 201–203
physical appearance
and cultural alienation, 80–81, 148–149, 151, 153
Marie-Louise’s identity (client study), 227, 229, 231
Plato, 38, 98, 107, 191, 203
poets/artists, 43, 55, 99, 191
Ponty, Merleau, 196, 204
Pope, Alexander, 87
Popper, Karl, 46
positive psychology, 45, 163, 180, 216
positivism, 204
post-modern age
celebrities as role models, 2–3
concept of self, 4, 33, 59, 162
and egocentricity, 163, 164–166
lack of meaning, 47–49, 100, 163–164
nihilism, 4, 48, 60, 113, 118
pressure of, 225–226
suicide statistics, 170
therapy as a cultural phenomenon, 159–160
therapy as self-indulgence, 159, 242 pre-industrial learning, 17
prejudice see bias
presence
  engagement with life, 21, 94
  therapeutic relationship, 75–76
  see also resonance
prevention, 6, 171
priests, 55, 162–164
projects, 214–215, 219
psychiatry, 26, 161, 201
  anti-psychiatry’s failures, 27, 31, 130
  science of, 119
  see also psychiatric hospitals psychoanalysis
  as art and science combined, 118–119
  concept of self, 59
  EvD’s experience of, 40, 41, 167–168 nature of thought/reflection, 108 need for critical thinking, 46 reason and passion, 98
  version of truth, 112
psychodrama, 123
psychodynamic therapy, 98, 112
psychology
  EvD’s degree, 128, 192
  humanistic, 100, 205
  objective and normative focus, 161 positive, 45, 163, 180, 216
  and psychotherapy, 204
  science of, 119
psychopathy see pathology/pathologization
psychosis, 211–212
  see also schizophrenia psychotherapy see therapeutic practice rationality see reason
rat race, 162
Read, Herbert, 74
reality
  facing human dilemmas, 12–13
  implosion, 24
  see also meaning; truth
reason, 97–98, 98–99, 101–102, 103, 107
  regression, 129–131, 174 Relate, 159
relationships
  authenticity and isolation, 110, 220, 238 Birgit and Miguel (client study), 149, 150, 153–154, 174–175 client and therapist see therapeutic relationship communication problems, 70–71
in existential analysis, 209
gratification, 226
Hélène’s regression (client study), 129 intimacy issues in group meetings, 69
Jerry (client study), 252–253, 254–255, 257, 258–259, 261–262
Marcel and Sophie (client study), 125–128
Marie-Louise and François (client study), 227, 229, 230, 231 paradox of, 20
and passion, 88–89, 102
personal relationships and the self, 65–67
and shared truth/reality, 109–110, 114–117
true dialogue, 72–76
Vicky (client study), 233–240
see also parents/parenting
releasement and resolution, 56, 92, 195 religion
  anti-religion, 210, 215
  Christian grace, 56
  community focus, 165
  control of passions, 99
  defining transcendence, 215
  EvD’s occult fascination, 39 guilt, 215, 230
  heroes and saints, 18
  philosophy of, 184
  religious passion, 104
  therapy as replacement, 55, 162–164, 170 traditional domain of psychological solutions/pastoral care, 4, 160, 161, 162–163 resolution and releasement, 56, 92, 195
resonance
  and co-agency, 140, 145, 146–148, 152, 154–157, 196–197, 199
  erring and learning, 135–137, 139–140, 142
  EvD and Birgit, 151–153, 154
  EvD and Laura, 102
  risk of bias, 140, 145, 177
  and truth, 111
  and truthful investigation, 146–147, 155
  unavoidability of personal engagement, 73–74, 143–144 Rieff, Philip, 162
risk-taking
  avoidance, 11, 87, 90–91, 96–97, 104
  and breakthrough, 101
Index

EvD's experience, 41–42, 43, 52
and learning, 210, 265
Nietzschean experience, 35, 44
therapists’ personal exposure, 144, 210
Rosa (client study), 65–67, 103
Rycroft, Charles, 201

safety parameters, 16–18
St. Theresa, 104
Sartre, Jean-Paul
‘bad faith’, 53, 60–61, 195
on community belonging, 78
on the creation of meaning, 108, 196 EvD's absorption with his intellectual despair, 49
on existential anxiety, 31
and the existential movement, 203, 204
on hell, 70
human progress through time, 219
on Jewish identity, 84
on selfhood, 32, 60, 82
Sasha (EvD’s daughter), 110
Sceptics, 99, 203

schizophrenia
childhood trauma, 24, 29–30, 33–34, 138 EvD’s dissertation, 51
and the existential predicament, 23, 25, 26, 29, 30, 32, 59–60
and existential therapy, 211
heightened awareness/creative insight, 26–27, 31, 32 Laing’s definition of self, 59–60
object-relations psychoanalysis, 29–30

science and technology
see technology and science

Second World War and aftermath, 40–41, 54, 190

security
see ontological insecurity self
and cultural integration abroad, 80–81, 83–84
in existential approaches to, 205 identity and language, 82–83, 84
and intimacy, 69, 71, 72–73, 74–76
Marie-Louise (client study), 227, 228, 229–230
and organisation membership, 64–65 personally situated transcendence, 217 personal relationships, 65–67 philosophical concepts of, 32, 58–62, 192

post-modern concept of, 4, 33, 59, 162 and worldly participation/negotiation, 58, 62, 63, 64–65, 197–198, 205, 208–210 self-centredness, 163, 164–166, 193
self-destruction
EvD’s accidents, 41–42 existential machismo, 43–44
response to post-modern society, 48, 170 sacrifice in “The Little Mermaid”, 165
see also suicide
self-mutilation, 47
self-responsibility
EvD’s realisation, 28
and Heidegger’s ‘impassioned freedom towards death’, 194 humanistic values, 163
individualist ideology, 164–166
Marie-Louise (client study), 229, 231–232
for passions/emotions, 100 Peter’s decision-making (client study), 243–244 through therapy, 2, 5, 9, 176, 212, 226
Vicky’s desire for self-sufficiency (client study), 236–237

Sisyphus, 104–105
Smith, Stevie, 170

smugness (client study), 244, 245

society
community belonging, 78
cross-cultural universal dimensions, 186–187
modern multiculturalism, 77, 84, 85 participation/negotiation of identity, 58, 62, 63, 64–65, 197–198, 205, 208–210 pathologizing non-conformity, 5, 8, 27, 31, 33, 111–112, 155 post-modern cynicism and despair, 47–48 socially situated transcendence, 217
and universal elements of the human condition, 186
see also culture; post-modern age

Socrates, 38, 191, 203
Sophie and Marcel (client study), 125–128

spiritual meaning, 169, 209, 210–213

Stoics, 99, 203

storytelling, 108–109

suicide, 39, 47, 49, 170

swearing, 71, 83
technology and science
and egocentricity, 166
knowledge and truth, 21
limited solutions, 48, 106–107, 162, 173
logical positivism, 204
movement for universal truth, 178, 181 rise of consumerism, 163
transcendence, 210, 216, 217
teenagers, 18, 166, 186
Teresa (client study), 137–139
therapeutic practice
anti-psychiatry, 27, 31, 128, 131
see also existential therapy
as art and science combined, 118–119, 170
criticisms of, 159, 161
as cultural phenomenon, 159–160, 180–181 disciplinary framework, 160–161
dogmatic frameworks (applied to EvD’s)
childhood, 41
effectiveness, 158–159, 169–171
object-relations psychoanalysis, 29–30
and passion, 96, 98, 99–103, 104, 153, 176, 264, 265 and personal practitioner capacities, 166–168
as religion, 55, 162–164, 170 and the search for self, 67–68
and self-centredness, 163, 164–166 stigmatization/criticisms of, 159, 161
and truth, 111–113, 177, 181
view/treatment of death, 40, 41, 44–45
see also client studies; psychiatric hospitals; therapeutic relationship
therapeutic relationship
cultural neutrality, 212
effectiveness, 9
intimacy, 71, 73–74, 75–76
Jerry (client study), 251, 261
Peter’s attitude to therapy (client study), 241, 242, 245, 247, 248, 249–250 and pre-established frames of reference, 12, 133–134, 199 undue influence, 201, 206
see also resonance
Theresa, St., 104

thinking, Heidegger on, 107–108 Tillich, Paul, 36, 105, 195, 206
time, 194, 218–219
Tosquelles, François, 128
tourists, 78, 79
transcendence
defining, 215–218
existential therapy, 209–214, 217–219
importance of a goal/project, 214–215 paradoxes of human existence, 220–221 passion as essence of, 88
transcendental reduction, 194 trust see lying truth
see meaning; reality
van Deurzen, Emmy see Deurzen, Emmy van Vicky (client study), 233–240
vitality/aliveness, 30, 34–36, 183, 225, 263
see also passion
voluntarism, 64, 95

Weldon, Fay, 159
well-lived life
see
limitation of therapists, 56, 168
materialism/consumerism, 3–4, 162, 164, 226 and paradox and passion, 18–22, 91 passion and the human condition, 87–94, 97, 104–105 philosophical traditions of, 98–99, 200
Western culture, 47–48, 60, 107, 159–160, 162–163
Wilson, Colin, 79
Index 283

Winnicott, Donald Woods, 24, 29, 34, 59
Winnicott, Donald Woods
Wisdom
Learning through failure, 21, 121
Learning through failure
Anxiety, insecurity and doubt, 12, 17, 32, 34, 206, 220
Existentialist therapy, 146, 156, 190, 210, 218, 220, 224
Humanism, 216
Philosophic, 184, 185, 202, 263
Scientific knowledge, 107, 210
In therapeutic literature, 2
Working abroad see migration/migrants
Yeats, W.B., 76