Index

Note: Page numbers in boldface type refer to tables or figures.

Abortion, and couples therapy, 409 Accommodation
   early phase of treatment and, 176
   family evaluation and, 96
Acute care, for psychiatric illness, see also Psychiatric disorders definition of, 321
   difficulties of, 321–322 family responses to mental illness and, 323–324 family treatment and, 324–329 function of for family of patient, 322–323 working model of family intervention for, 330–332 Acute family intervention (AFI), 331 Adaptation
   dysfunctional family and, 85–86
   goals of treatment and, 152
   as key concept, 13–14 techniques for supporting, 158–160 Addiction, 289
Addiction Severity Index, 290
Adherence, 344–345. See also Family functioning Adolescence and adolescents antisocial behavior and coercive behavior by parents, 148 borderline personality disorder and, 282
   depression and, 278, 282 disorders, family therapy in context of, 387–389
   divorce and, 254
   family life cycle and, 51
   as identified patient, 374–375 inclusion of in family sessions, 206–208 mood disorders and, 294–295 Adolescent group therapy (AGT), 388
   Adoption and families, 69
   Adult children, see also Children cognitive disorders in elderly and, 286
   family life cycle and, 51 family-of-origin issues and, 375 post-divorce treatment and, 254–255 relational disorders and, 121–122
   secrets and, 408
   Adult Children of Alcoholics, 291 Adult disorders
      couples treatment, 384–386
      family therapy in context of, 386–387
   Affective bonds and marriage, 223
   Affective involvement, 349–350
   Affective responsiveness, and family evaluation, 118–119, 130, 349
   Affordable Care Act (ACA), 8 African Americans, see also Race and racism historical development of family structure, 31 socialization of children and, 55 Age, see also Children; Elderly child abuse and, 313–314 childrearing techniques and, 53
      divorce and, 60–61, 254
      marriage and, 46–47
      of population, 33
      of therapist, 377
   Agoraphobia, 283–285
   AIDS, see also HIV status counseling on sexual practices and, 244 Alcoholism, see also Substance abuse behavioral couples therapy for, 385–386
      depression and, 278
      dysfunctional family and, 80–81
      family therapy in context of, 376
      resistance and, 193
   Alcohol Use Disorders Identification Test (AUDIT), 290 Alliances, therapeutic acute and chronic psychiatric disorders and, 325 coaching model of, 191 conflict model of, 191–192
      dysfunctional family and, 78–79
      early phase of treatment and, 176–178 establishment of as mediating goal, 147 family violence and, 309
      medical model of, 191 strategic systems model of, 192 therapist and establishment of, 189–191
      use of term, 189
   Alzheimer’s disease, 286
   Ambivalence, and couples therapy, 372–373
   American Anthropological Association, 24
   American Association of Marital and Family Therapists, 7, 412–413, 419 American Family Therapy Academy (AFTA), 419–420
   American Family Therapy Association, 7 American Orthopsychiatric Association, 7
American Psychiatric Association, 7, 211, 289. See also DSM-5
American Psychological Association (APA), 347 American Schizophrenic Association, 334
Amnesia, 286–288
Anorexia nervosa, see also Eating disorders
family therapy in context of, 389
Antidepressants, see Medication; Tricyclic antidepressants Antihypertensive medications, 244 Antisocial behavior in adolescents and coercive behavior by parents, 148
family therapy in context of, 294
psychodrama and, 159
Antisocial personality disorder, 375
Anxiety, and phases of family treatment, 180 Anxiety disorders, family therapy in context of, 283–285, 294
Asian families, 31–32
Assisted reproductive technology, 204 Assumptions, and stalled therapy, 199
Attachment, and divorce, 60–61
Attempted solutions, clarification of as mediating goal, 148 Attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder, 292–294 failure to diagnose, 193 family crisis therapy and, 366
family therapy in context of, 292–294 systemic therapy for, 387 Authority
adolescents, and therapist as figure of, 375
stepfamily and, 258
Autism spectrum disorder, 292
Autonomy, and inclusion of adolescents in family therapy, 208 Avoidant restrictive food intake disorder, see Eating disorders Basic needs, family and provision of, 52–53, 88 Behavior, see also Antisocial behavior; Oppositional behavior brief family therapy and exploration of alternatives, 183–184
child abuse and, 305
care for families with medical illness, 350 dysfunctional family and cycles of, 79–80
family evaluation and, 119, 130
marital conflict and, 223–224 parental conflicts and problems in children, 376–377 Behavioral couples therapy, 290 for alcoholism, 385–386
Behavioral marital therapy, depression, 385 Behavioral therapy, see also Cognitive-behavioral therapy
couples therapy and, 229 family therapy combined with, 212 Behavior exchange model, 142–143 Belief systems, of family dysfunctional family and, 80–84
family evaluation and, 119, 130–131 family reality and, 169–170 functional family and, 55 narrative model of treatment and, 143 Binge eating disorder, see Eating disorders Binuclear family as alternative family form, 62–65
couples therapy and, 255
Biography, and family history, 102 Biological models of psychopathology, 19, 75–76 sexual dysfunctions and, 241 Bipolar disorder family care of patients with, 324
family evaluation and, 363
family therapy in context of, 274–277, 337, 386–389 marital interaction and, 227–228
Bisexuality, and couples therapy, 243
Borderline personality disorder, family therapy in context of, 281–283 Boundaries
dysfunctional family and, 78
interpersonal relationships and, 48 of organized family system, 12–14 professional issues and, 411 reorganization of family structure and, 165–166 society and, 52
stepfamily and, 258
structural model of treatment and, 141–142 Brief family therapy behavioral and emotional rehearsal, 183–184 conducting, 180–185
couples therapy and, 227
course of, 181–182
crisis intervention and, 185 and family strengths, 183 goals, 182–183 homework and family tasks, 184 indications for, 181, 366 problem-oriented school of, 184–185 and reconceptualization, 183 referrals for long-term family therapy and, 367 setting definite end point, 182–183 techniques, 182
Brief strategic family therapy (BSFT), 387–388
Bulimia nervosa, see Eating disorders CAGE, 290
Camberwell Family Interview, 269 Cancer, 243
Carbamazepine, 275
Caregiver Health Effects Study, 347
Caregivers and caretaking, see also Child care Alzheimer’s disease and, 286 depression and marriage, 279 family coping and adaptation to illness, 347
inclusion of in family sessions, 205–206
schizophrenia and, 324
Cerebral vascular accidents, 286 Change
family myths and, 83–84 mediating goals and, 147–148 resistance and disconnection as issues in creating, 192–198 Child abuse, see also Sexual abuse; Violence, domestic alcoholism and, 303–304 assessment and, 304–305 DSM-5 diagnostic categories related to, 120 family model and, 312–314 parenting training and, 309 physical effects of, 305 therapists and reporting of, 119 Child care, see also Caregivers and caretaking biological parents and responsibility for, 255 women and responsibility for, 33, 50 Child disorders, family treatment for adolescent substance abuse, 388 anorexia nervosa and, 389 with bipolar disorder, 388–389 delinquent adolescents and, 388 emotional and behavioral symptoms, 387 externalizing disorders, 387–388 for youth at risk, 388 Childhood, psychiatric conditions of anxiety disorders, 294
attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder, 292–294
autism spectrum disorder, 291 conduct disorder, 294 intellectual disability, 291 mood disorders, 294–295 obesity, 295
oppositional defiant disorder, 294
Child-parent fit, 54, 89 Child psychiatry family therapy field and, 206–207, 213 parent–child interactions and, 374 training programs in, 206 Children, see also Adult children; Age Infants: School-age children adoption and families, 69 of alcoholic parents, 291 anxiety disorders in, 294 behavioral problems in response to parental conflicts, 376–377 of bipolar patients, 276–278 cohabitation and, 60 depression in parents of, 279
divorce and, 26–27, 62, 251–252, 254 dysfunctional family and rearing of, 88–89
family life cycle and, 45, 49–51
family myths and, 84
geneic predisposition to schizophrenia, 269 grandparent-headed families and, 67
inclusion of in family sessions, 206–208
joint custody and binuclear families, 62 lesbian, gay, or transgendered families and, 67–68 parents and interactions with, 374 psychiatric conditions of, 291–295 of schizophrenia patients, 274 sexual abuse of, 310–312 assessment, 311–312
family issues, 310–311
individual issues, 310
larger system issues, 311 outcomes, 312
treatment, 312
single-parent family and, 27, 64 socialization of as family task, 53–55, 88–89
stepfamily and, 27–28, 256
violence and, 302
Choice points, and family evaluation, 96–97
Circular causality, and systems perspective on psychiatric illness, 76 Class, socioeconomic family as caretakers of psychotic patients and, 324
family evaluation and, 110
socialization of children and, 55
Classification, and family evaluation, 119, 120–124, 121–122, 124, 131
Classification of relational disorders (CORD), 122 Coaching model, of therapeutic alliance, 191 Coalitions
dysfunctional family and, 78–79
family evaluation and, 118, 129–130
goals of treatment and, 142, 148 marital, 47–49, 163–164 parental, 53
reorganization of family structure and, 163, 164
siblings and, 54
Cognitive–behavioral conjoint therapy (CBCT), 386 Cognitive behavioral therapy, 385.
See also Behavioral therapy
family violence and, 307
other treatment approaches compared to, 138 resistance and, 191
techniques of, 142–143 Conflict
couples therapy and dissatisfaction, 371–373 couples therapy and history of chronic, 228
divorce and, 222, 252–253 strategies for resolution of, 167–169 Conflict (Continued)
termination phase of treatment and, 179–180 therapeutic alliance and, 191–192 Confrontation, and insight, 167
Conjoint family therapy, 204, 212
Conjoint marital therapy, 204
Constructivism, and narrative model of treatment, 219 Consultation, stalled therapy and, 199
Consumer groups, and psychotherapy, 213
Content issues, and goals of treatment, 151 Context, of family therapy family as system and, 42, 55 importance of, 1
Continuum, of systems, 12 Contract
brief family therapy and, 181 family evaluation and treatment, 124–126
marriage and, 222–223
no-violence, 307
Contraction, and development of couples, 224–225 Contraindications, psychotherapy, 213 Control
family violence and, 308
as key concept in family therapy, 13–14
stepfamily and, 259
Coping
dysfunctional family and, 87 strategies and illness management, 345 termination phase of treatment and, 179
Corrective feedback, 13 Cost, see also Financial issues
brief family therapy and, 180 research on efficacy of family therapy and, 382, 396 Co-therapy, 208–209
Council on Contemporary Families, 254–255 Countertransference, see also Transference boundaries and dual relationships, 411 insight-awareness model and, 140.
See also Transference referrals and, 377 resistance to creating change and, 193–194
sexual abuse and, 312
Couple and family assessment family developmental stage, history, and culture, 98–99, 99 identifying family structure, 99–100. 100 joining with couple/family, 97–98 systemic patterns, 98
Couples, see also Couples therapy
definition of, 10
and family assessment, 97–100 formation of, 28–29, 46–47 LGBTQ, 28–29
use of term, 1
Couples therapy, see also Couples therapy anxiety disorders and, 284 behavioral couples therapy for alcoholism, 385–386 blended families (stepfamilies) and, 255–259 cohabiting couples and, 259–260 commitment and, 225–226
depression and, 272, 280–281, 385 emotionally focused couples therapy, 385 evaluation of partners, 226–227 goals of, 227
guidelines for interviews, 230 integrative behavioral couple therapy (IBCT), 384–385 marital distress and, 384 posttraumatic stress disorder, 386 separation and divorce, 249–260 serial relationships and, 260 sexual dysfunction and sex therapy, 235–244 single-parent and binuclear families, 255 strategies and techniques of intervention, 227–230 Courtship, 46, 177–178
Crisis family interventions, 185, 365–366, 365, see also Emergencies, psychiatric Cross-sectional view, of family functioning, 101 Culture, see also Ethnicity; Immigrants
dysfunctional family and, 84–85
family myths and, 81
functional family and, 43, 55
marriage and, 24, 221–222
prejudices and, 377 psychiatric care of family members and, 322 sexuality and language, 239 socialization of children and, 55
violence and, 302
Current situation, and family evaluation, 101–102 Cybernetic epistemology, 10–11 Cycle theory, of violence, 303–304 Danger, family violence and assessment of risk, 305–306 Decision making, and family evaluation, 122 Deconstruction, of family stories, 143
Defenses, and resistance, 197
Defiance-based therapy, 377
Deinstitutionalization movement, and schizophrenia, 269–270 Delinquent adolescents, family therapy in context of, 388 Dementia, 286–288
Democracy, and single-parent families, 255 Denial
family responses to mental illness in member and, 323
resistance and, 196, 377
sexual abuse and, 312
Depression, see also Major depressive disorder in adolescents and young adults, 278, 332 behavioral marital therapy for, 385
couples therapy and, 272
dysfunctional family and, 85 family and individual therapy compared, 18 family crisis therapy and, 366
marital interaction and, 228 middle phase of treatment and, 178–179
psychoeducation and, 159
reorganization of family structure and, 165
resistance and, 195
separation and divorce, 249
single-parent family and, 255 therapist and, 377
Deterioration rate, 384
Detouring, and dysfunctional family, 79 Development, see also Life cycles
child abuse and, 313
couples, 224–225
family crisis therapy and, 366 family evaluation and history of individual, 110 longitudinal view of family, 49, 50 marital separation and differences in adult, 61 parents and individual phases of, 109 phases of adult, 46–47 Diagnosis, see also Evaluation choice of treatment strategies and, 170–171 family evaluation and classification, 102, 119, 120–124, 121–122, 124, 131, 206–207 family model and individual, 267–268
goals of treatment and, 150
and psychotherapy, 213
sexual dysfunction and, 236–238
violence and, 304
Difficult Divorce, The (Isaacs et al., 1986), 253
Disagreements, and family myths, 82
Distressed couples, 383 Divorce, 26–27. See also Marriage; alternative family forms and, 60–62 and conflict, 222
depression and, 279
post-divorce treatment and, 254–255 separation leading to, 250–251 suicide attempts and, 313–316
view of as failure, 84
Dopamine, 290
Drawings, and family sessions, 207
Dropout rate, for family therapy, 394 DSM-5, see also American Psychiatric Association anxiety-related disorders and, 283 classification of family pathology, 102, 121 diagnostic categories related to child abuse or neglect, 120 relational disorders in, 120–121, 121 sexual dysfunction and, 235
Dual relationships, 411 Dynamic approach
family evaluation and, 125
family violence and, 308–309
marital therapy and, 223 Dysfunctional family beliefs and myths, 80–84 current perspectives, 77–78 evaluation and, 107, 117–119 family structure and, 163–164 historical perspectives, 76–77
secrets and, 87
sibling relationships and, 54 social system and, 84–85 solution-as-the-problem approach to, 79–80 structural problems, 78–79 symptoms in individual member and, 85–86 task performance in, 87–89 unresolved grief and, 87
Dysthymia, family therapy in context of, 278–279
Early adulthood, and family and marital life cycles, 44, 45–47 Eating disorders
dysfunctional family and, 79–80
family therapy in context of, 288–289 types of, 288
Ecology, and family system, 14 Education, see also Psychoeducation
acute and chronic psychiatric disorders and, 326, 334
child abuse and, 309
depression and, 280
eating disorders and, 289
goals of treatment and, 148
treatment strategies and, 170 Efficacy and effectiveness, definition of in context of family therapy, 382 Elderly, see also Age chronic mental illness in, 333 cognitive disorders and, 286–288 depression in, 279
sexual problems in, 244 Emergencies, psychiatric, see also Crisis family interventions
brief family therapy and, 185
family evaluation and, 360 Emotion, see also Emotional experience; Expressed emotion brief family therapy and rehearsal of alternatives, 183–184 intensity of and interpersonal relationships, 48 stepparent and, 259
Emotional abuse, 302
Emotional and behavioral symptoms, family therapy in context of, 387 Emotional experience, see also Emotion
goals of treatment and, 152
treatment strategies and, 160–161
Emotionally focused couples therapy (EFT), 385 Empathy, and termination phase of treatment, 179 Empty-nest syndrome, and family evaluation, 108–109, 126–129 Enactment, and reorganization of family structure, 165 Endpoint, of brief family therapy, 182–183 Energy, and living systems, 14
Enmeshment, and dysfunctional family, 78
Erectile disorders, 240, 243
Escape plan, and family violence, 306 Ethics
conflicting interests of family members, 406 managed care and, 409–410
marital therapy and, 377 responsibility and, 412–413 secrets and confidentiality, 407–409 Ethnicity, 24–25. See also Culture; Race and racism
family evaluation and, 110
Evaluation, see also Diagnosis acute and chronic psychiatric disorders and family, 325
brief family therapy and, 181–182 classification and diagnosis, 119–122, 120–124, 124, 206–207 comprehensive schema for, 123 as continuing process, 95
couples therapy and, 226–227 dimensions of couple and family, 97–100 family function and, 107, 117–119 family history and, 101–102 genogram and, 114 Evaluation (Continued) goals and, 125 indication of family members in, 95–96 individual diagnosis and, 102 interview and, 96–97 long-term family therapy and, 366–367 priorities of, 107, 117 problems in creating change and, 194–196
sexual abuse and, 311–312
sexual dysfunction and, 237–240
stepfamily and, 256–259
of suicide risk, 315 systemic model of change, 100–101, 101
therapeutic approach and treatment contract, 124–126, 131–132 treatment compared to, 178
violence and, 304–305
Exaggeration, and systemic-strategic model of treatment, 141 Exclusion, and interpersonal relationships, 48 Expansion, and development of couples, 224–225
Experiential-existential model, of treatment, 139, 143, 214 Expressed emotion, see also Emotion chronic psychiatric illnesses and, 327, 333–334 families of schizophrenia patients and, 269
family evaluation and, 118 Extended family
evaluation and, 110
inclusion of in family sessions, 205 Externalizing disorders, family therapy in context of, 387–388 Extramarital affairs commitment and, 225–226
ethical issues and, 409
family myths and, 84
separation and, 250, 391 FAMCON model, family systemic interventions, 351
Family, see also Dysfunctional family; Family of origin; Family structure; Family systems; Family therapy; Functional family
African-American, 31
Asian families, 31–32
boundary of, 12, 13
of chronic mental illness patients, 333–335 DSM-IV and classification of pathology, 102 forms of, 59–71
immigrants, 24
Latino, 31
life in historical and sociological perspective, 23–34
multiracial, 30–31
resilience, 55, 70
single-parent, 27
structure and function of American, 23–24
use of term, 1
Family adherence, 344–345 Family advocacy movement, and schizophrenia, 270
Family-based treatment (FBT), 389
Family clinics, 361 Family coping and adaptation to illness caregiving, 347
culturally determined coping styles, 346
dyadic coping, 345–346, 346 family research, 345 illness management, 345
learning for, 346–347 managing symptoms and illness, 345 resilient families, 345
therapeutic space and, 347 Family focused treatment for bipolar adolescents (FFTA), 388–389 Family functioning coping and adaptation to illness, 345–347
evidence-based family
interventions, 350–352
illness impacts, 345 impacts on illness factors, 343
family adherence, 344–345
family health beliefs, 344 gender role, 344 identification, 344
illness relapse, 344
life stage transition time, 344 risk factors, 344 systems interview, 347–350 Family history
early phase of treatment and, 176–178
evaluation and role of, 101–102 stalled therapy and retaking of, 198
violence and, 304
Family intervention, basic strategies do, 158
Family interventions family support, 350
multifamily groups (MFGs), 352
psychoeducation, 350–351
systemic interventions, 351–352 Family interventions for medical illnesses, 389
Family life cycle centrifugal stages, 99
centripetal stages, 99
historical and sociological perspective, 33–34
Family management skills, 163
Family marathons, 161
Family model, and individual diagnosis, 267–268
Family model and violence clinical issues for therapists, 309 cycle of violence, 303–304 individual and family systems issues, 304–305 physical consequences, 305–306 problem, description of, 302–303 psychological consequences, 305–306
treatment, 306–309
Family of origin adult children and family therapy, 375 as model for treatment, 140–141
use of term, 5
Family psychoeducation, in-depth illness education, 350–351 Family resilience, 55 Family structure, see also Household composition
dysfunctional family and, 78–79 and function of American, 23–24
goals of treatment and reorganization of, 152–153 life cycle and, 51–52
techniques for reorganization of, 163–167
Family support, evidence-based family interventions, 350 Family systems, see also Systems theory dysfunctional families and, 75–89 Family systems interview for families with medical illness affective involvement, 349–350 affective responsiveness, 349 behavior control, 350 communication, 348
Problem-Centered Systems Therapy, 348
problem solving, 348
roles, 348–349
therapist role, 347–348 Family therapy, see also Couples therapy; Marital therapy adult disorders, 386–387
child abuse and, 312–314
child and adolescent disorders, 387–389 combining medication and, 389–390 context of, 1
contraindications for, possible, 375–377 controversies on use and misuse of, 371–377 core concepts in, 10–19
definition of, 9–10
development of, 6–9
differentiation of from other psychotherapies, 16–19, 17
divorce and, 253
ethical issues in, 405–409, 412–413 evaluation content of, 107–114 process of, 95–103
understanding of problem areas, 117–132 fellowships, 420
financial issues, 410–411 functional, 388 GAP proposal for specific family systems competencies, 414, 415 guidelines on indications for and sequence of, 359–367 versus individual, relative selection criteria for treatment format, 362–363 individual psychiatric disorders and concurrent anxiety disorders and, 283–285 bipolar disorder and, 274–277
borderline personality disorder and, 281–283
cognitive disorders and, 286–288 diagnosis and, 267–268
eating disorders and, 288–289
intellectual disability and, 291
major depressive disorder, 277–281 persistent depressive disorder, 277–281
schizophrenia and, 268–274
substance-related disorders and, 289–291 informant consent, 410 licensure and training, 420–421 marriage and family therapists (MFTs), 419–420 multidimensional, 388 professional issues in, 411 psychiatric training in, 417–419 psychologists, 419
psychotherapy and, 157–158 research on outcome of, 381–396 sexual abuse of children and, 310 assessment, 311–312
family issues, 310–311
outcomes, 312
suicidal patients and, 314–316 training of therapists, 414–416 treatment acute and chronic psychiatric illness and, 321–337 alliance and resistance issues in, 189–200 children and adolescents as participants in, 206–208 combination of with other psychosocial therapies, 211–215 comparison of formats and strategies, 214, 214–215
course of, 175–185
family participants, 203–206
goals of, 147–153
major models of, 137–144 record of, 211
setting and, 210
strategies and techniques of, 157–171 therapist combinations and, 208–211 time, scheduling, and fees for, 210–211 use of terms, 1
Family treatment, definition of, 10
Fantasy stage, and stepfamily, 67 Fathers, see also Parents and parenting noncustodial and children, 65 participation of in treatment, 195
sexual abuse and, 310
single-parent family and, 27, 65
Feedback
family myths and, 83
systems perspective on psychiatric illness and, 13, 76 Fees, for family sessions, 210–211
 Femininity, and socialization of children, 53–54
Final goals, of treatment, 148–149 Financial issues, see also Cost; Poverty
divorce and, 251
Focused family therapy for bipolar disorder, 386–387
Focusing, and reorganization of family structure, 165
Food, eating disorders and societal preoccupation with, 288 Frames of reference, and evaluation, 109 Functional family, see also Family defining characteristics of, 42, 43 evaluation and, 107, 117–119 extended individual life cycle, impact of, 59–60 family belief systems and, 55 family life cycle and, 44, 49–52, 50 family tasks, 52–55 individual life cycle and, 44–46 marital life cycle and, 44, 46–49 and marriages, 60 poverty rates of, 64
single-parent family and, 27, 62–65
as system, 42–44
variety of family forms, 59–71 Gender and gender roles, see also Roles; Women
borderline personality disorder and, 282 Gender and gender roles (Continued) cognitive-behavioral model of treatment and, 142–143 communication and, 223
depression and, 272, 278–279
divorce and, 251
dysfunctional family and, 84–85
ethical issues and, 409 family functioning and, 344
schizophrenia and, 272
socialization of children, 53–54
of therapist, 377
violence and, 302
General systems theory, see Systems theory
Generations, and boundaries, 52–53 Genetics
bipolar disorder and, 274–275 etiology of mental illness and, 76, 85 obsessive-compulsive disorder
and, 285
substance-related disorders, 289–290
Genogram
acute and chronic psychiatric disorders and, 325
couples therapy and, 228
example, 110, 112 family and symbols, 110, 111
family evaluation and, 101–102, 114
family violence and, 308
family with symptomatic dughter, 99
remarried families and, 165 sexual history and, 238–239 Global Assessment of Relational Functioning (GARF), 121–122, 123–124, 131
Goals, of treatment acute and chronic psychiatric disorders and, 326–328, 336 beginning therapist and, 153
brief family therapy and, 182–183
couples therapy and, 227
duration of treatment and, 210–211
early phase of treatment and, 176
family evaluation and, 112–113, 125, 129
of family therapy compared to individual and group formats, 16, 17, 18
final goals, 148–149
individualizing of with family, 149–150
mediating goals, 147–148, 151, 152 perspectives on, 147 process and content issues and, 151 psychotherapy and, 213
resistance and disagreement on, 194–196
setting for brief family therapy, 182–183
stepfamilies and, 256
strategies of intervention and, 151–152
termination phase of treatment and, 179–180
treatment planning after setting of, 150 Grandparents
children and family life cycle, 51 families headed by as alternative family form, 67 inclusion of in treatment, 205 single-parent families and, 255 Grief
cognitive disorders and, 286–287
dysfunctional family and unresolved, 87
stepfamilies and, 256
Group for Advancement of Psychiatry (GAP), 121 Group therapy
family therapy compared to, 16–19
sexual dysfunctions and, 241–242
Guided fantasy, 161
Guidelines for families of schizophrenia patients, 271
on indications for and sequence of family therapy, 359–367 for interviewing couples, 230 for recommending family intervention in acute care setting, 331–332
for records of family therapy, 211 for separation and divorce, 250 substance-related disorders, 290–291
Guilt
divorce and, 61
family responses to mental illness in member and, 323
medical model of alliance and, 191 Guns, and family violence, 305, 309 Health care, see also Managed care
bipolar disorder and noncompliance with medication, 274
child abuse and, 313
schizophrenia and, 272
suicide and, 314
Heart attack, and sexual function, 243–244
Helping agencies, cognitive disorders
and, 287
Help-seeking, and family evaluation, 361 Hierarchy
organization of family system and, 11, 12
secrets and, 408
single-parent families and, 255 structural model of treatment and,
141–142
History development of African American family and, 31
marriage and, 221–222
psychosocial interventions for schizophrenia and, 269
systems theory and, 76–77 HIV status, 408. See also AIDS Hoffman's time capsule, 15 Holistic agreement, and interpersonal skills, 163 Homeostasis
as core concept in family systems theory, 14–16
family as system and, 42
Homework
brief family therapy and, 184
goals of treatment and, 153 reorganization of family structure
and, 167
resistance and, 197
Homophobia, and same-sex couples 243 Homosexuality, see also Same-sex couples and families
couples therapy and, 243
disclosure of, 408
Honesty
family myths and, 82
secrets and, 198
Hospitalization
acute and chronic psychiatric disorders and, 330, 333–335
eating disorders and, 289 family crisis therapy versus, 365, 366
schizophrenia and, 270
suicide attempts and, 314 Household composition, see also Family structure
family evaluation and, 127 Identified patient
dysfunctional family and, 85–86
use of term, 10
Identity
divorce and re-formation of, 61 family, 70
illness management, 345
illness relapse, 344
Immigrants, see also Culture
marriage and, 24
Incest, see also Sexual abuse
definition of, 310
dysfunctional family and, 88
Inclusion, and interpersonal relationships, 48 Individual diagnosis, and family evaluation, 102, 131 Individual models of marriage, 228 Individual psychotherapy, see also Acute care; Psychiatric disorders adolescents and family therapy, 207 concurrent couples therapy and, 226–227, 371 concurrent family therapy and, 204, 212
family evaluation and, 111–112
family therapy compared to, 16–19
indications for, 361–365
separation and divorce, 251
sexual problems and, 365 Infants, see also Children child abuse and neglect, 313
inclusion of in family sessions, 206–207
Informed consent, 410, 412, 416
Insight, techniques for increasing, 167–169 Insight-awareness model, 137, 138–139, 140, 142, 153, 214 Insight-oriented marital therapy for marital distress, 384
Integrative behavioral couple therapy (IBCT), 384–385
Integrative interpersonal model, 16
Integrative marital therapy model, 229 Intelligence disability, 291 Intellectualization, as defense strategy, 197 interactional patterns
couples therapy and, 227–228
family evaluation and, 110, 128
Intergenerational relational disorders, 122 Interpersonal relationships, see also Peer systems classical family therapy and, 16 dimensions of, 48
secrets and, 408
Interpersonal skills
goals of treatment and development of, 152 techniques for developing, 161–163 Interpretation, and techniques to increase insight, 167–168 Interracial families, 69–70
Interviews
early phase of treatment and, 176 family evaluation and content of, 109–110, 126–129 family evaluation and process of, 96–97 guidelines for couples therapy and, 230 Intimacy, and interpersonal relationships, 48–49 Involvement, and family evaluation, 118–119, 130 Isolation
family violence and, 307
Joint custody, of children, 62
Labeling, systemic-strategic model of treatment and, 141 Language, and sexual topics, 239
Latino families, 31
Learning theory, and cognitive-behavioral model of treatment, 142 Legal issues joint custody and, 62
separation and divorce, 61, 250, 252
stepfamilies and, 28, 66–67 violence and reporting requirements, 306 Lesbians, see Homosexuality; Same-sex couples and families
Licensed clinical social worker (LCSW), 419 Life cycles, see also Development adult development and, 44–45
dysfunctional family and, 86–87
evaluation and, 108–109, 126, 178
functional family and, 49–52
individual and, 44–46
marriage and, 46–49
Life events, and family evaluation, 119
Life history, 102
Life stage transition time, 344
Limitations, of family therapy, 390–391
Lithium, 275
Living apart together (LAT), 66
Longitudinal approach, to family evaluation, 101
Long-term family therapy, indications for, 366–367
Major depressive disorder, family therapy in context of, 277–281.
see also Depression
Major mental illness, family therapy in context of, 386 Managed care, see also Health care
brief family therapy and, 180 choice of individual or family treatment and, 364 ethical issues and, 409–410 financial issues facing family therapy, 8 integration of family therapy with child psychiatry and, 206–207 Mandatory reporting laws, and family violence, 306, 314 Manuals
treatment packages and, 170
Marital coalition, 47–49, 163–165
Marital life cycle, and functional family, 46–49
Marital rape, 243
Marital schism, 77
Marital skew, 77
Marital therapy, see also Couples therapy; Family therapy; Marriage
bipolar disorder and
psychoeducation, 277
brief therapy and, 180
controversies on use and misuse of, 371–377 criteria for sex therapy and, 365

Index

Marital therapy (Continued)
- development of, 7
- emotional experience and, 261
- negative effects of, 391, 394
- panic disorders and, 284–285
- sexual therapy and, 212
- use of terms, 1

Marriage, see also Divorce; Marital therapy; Separation, marital
- and age, 46–47
- agoraphobia and, 284–285
- attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder and, 292–294
- borderline personality disorder and, 282–283
- couples therapy and concurrent, 226–227
- depression and, 279–281
- eating disorders, 288–289
- family therapy in conjunction with, 336–337
- for obsessive-compulsive disorder, 285
- panic disorders and, 284–285
- for post-traumatic stress disorder, 286
- psychosis and, 329–330
- schizophrenia and dosage strategies, 272
- Mental illness, see also Psychiatric disorders; Psychopathology family responses to, 323–324
- Mental retardation, see Intellectual disability
- Meta-analysis, 383
- Microenvironments, for siblings, 54
- Mid-adulthood, and family and marital life cycles, 44, 45–47
- Middle phase, of treatment, 178–179
- Mood disorders, 294–295. See also Depression
- Mothers, see also Parents and parenting
- noncustodial and children, 65
- sexual abuse and, 310
- single-parent family and, 27, 64–65
- Motivation
- choice of treatment strategies and, 170
- commitment and couples therapy, 225
- family evaluation and, 113, 129
- goals of treatment and, 150
- premature termination of family therapy and, 394
- violence and, 304
- Multidimensional family therapy (MDFT), 388
- Multifamily educational intervention (MEI), 388
- Multifamily groups (MFGs), 352
- Multiple-family groups (MFG) therapy
- psychoeducation, 386
- Multiple-impact therapy, 210
- Multiple-partner fertility families (MPF), 69
- Multiracial families, 30–31
- Multisystemic therapy (MST), 388
- Munchausen syndrome by proxy, 313
- Murder, and family violence, 302
- Mutually shared experience, and experiential therapy, 143
- Myths
- dysfunctional family and, 80–84, 86
- family evaluation and, 119, 130–131
- Narrative model, of treatment, 139, 143, 153
- Narrative therapy, 351–352
- National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI), 271, 273, 325, 335
- National Institute of Mental Health, 76
- National Survey of Family Growth (NSFG), 60
- Negative effects of, of family therapy, 391–395
- Neglect, and child abuse, 120, 313
- Neuroleptics, 329, 337. See also Medication
- Neuropeptides, 5
- Neuropsychology, and psychiatric illness, 75–76
- Neutrality, and therapist, 250
- Nonverbal communication, and family evaluation, 109
- Nuclear family
- family evaluation and, 95–96, 110
- resistance and inclusion of others besides, 194
- stepfamily compared to, 256–257

Medical Family Therapy (MedFT), 351
Medical illness
- dysfunctional family and, 86
- sexual problems and, 243–244

Medical model, of alliance, 191

Medication, see also Compliance;
- Neuroleptics; Tricyclic antidepressants
- agoraphobia and, 284–285
- attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder and, 293–294
- bipolar disorder and, 274, 276
- borderline personality disorder and, 282–283
- couples therapy and concurrent, 226–227
- depression and, 279–281
- eating disorders, 288–289
- for obsessive-compulsive disorder, 285

Medical examinations
- sexual dysfunctions and, 239
- victims of violence and, 305–306

Medical Family Therapy (MedFT), 351
Medical illness
- dysfunctional family and, 86
- sexual problems and, 243–244

Medical model, of alliance, 191

Medication, see also Compliance;
- Neuroleptics; Tricyclic antidepressants
- agoraphobia and, 284–285
- attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder and, 293–294
- bipolar disorder and, 274, 276
- borderline personality disorder and, 282–283
- couples therapy and concurrent, 226–227
- depression and, 279–281
- eating disorders, 288–289
- family therapy in conjunction with, 336–337
- for obsessive-compulsive disorder, 285
- panic disorders and, 284–285
- for post-traumatic stress disorder, 286
- psychosis and, 329–330
- schizophrenia and dosage strategies, 272
- Mental illness, see also Psychiatric disorders; Psychopathology
- family responses to, 323–324
- Mental retardation, see Intellectual disability
- Meta-analysis, 383
- Microenvironments, for siblings, 54
- Mid-adulthood, and family and marital life cycles, 44, 45–47
- Middle phase, of treatment, 178–179
- Mood disorders, 294–295. See also Depression
- Mothers, see also Parents and parenting
- noncustodial and children, 65
- sexual abuse and, 310
- single-parent family and, 27, 64–65
- Motivation
- choice of treatment strategies and, 170
- commitment and couples therapy, 225
- family evaluation and, 113, 129
- goals of treatment and, 150
- premature termination of family therapy and, 394
- violence and, 304
- Multidimensional family therapy (MDFT), 388
- Multifamily educational intervention (MEI), 388
- Multifamily groups (MFGs), 352
- Multiple-family groups (MFG) therapy
- psychoeducation, 386
- Multiple-impact therapy, 210
- Multiple-partner fertility families (MPF), 69
- Multiracial families, 30–31
- Multisystemic therapy (MST), 388
- Munchausen syndrome by proxy, 313
- Murder, and family violence, 302
- Mutually shared experience, and experiential therapy, 143
- Myths
- dysfunctional family and, 80–84, 86
- family evaluation and, 119, 130–131
- Narrative model, of treatment, 139, 143, 153
- Narrative therapy, 351–352
- National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI), 271, 273, 325, 335
- National Institute of Mental Health, 76
- National Survey of Family Growth (NSFG), 60
- Negative effects of, of family therapy, 391–395
- Neglect, and child abuse, 120, 313
- Neuroleptics, 329, 337. See also Medication
- Neuropeptides, 5
- Neuropsychology, and psychiatric illness, 75–76
- Neutrality, and therapist, 250
- Nonverbal communication, and family evaluation, 109
- Nuclear family
- family evaluation and, 95–96, 110
- resistance and inclusion of others besides, 194
- stepfamily compared to, 256–257.
Index

Obesity, childhood, 295
Object relations theory, and family-of-origin model of treatment, 141
Obsessive-compulsive disorder, 285
Older adulthood, and family life cycle, 44, 46–47
One-way mirror, and observation of family therapy, 97, 208–209 Oppositional behavior, and response of parents, 207
Oppositional defiant disorder, 294
Organization, and systems theory, 11–13
Orgasmic disorders, 237–238
Othermothering, 30
Outcomes research on family therapy and, 381–396 of sexual abuse treatment, 312 Overeaters Anonymous, 289
Painful intercourse/female orgasmic disorder, 240–242
Panic disorder, 284–285
Paradoxical techniques, and reorganization of family structure, 166–167 Paranoid schizophrenia, 109, 324 Parent-child relational problem, 120 Parents and parenting, see also Fathers; Mothers alcoholic, 291 antisocial behavior in adolescents and coercive behavior in, 148 Asian-American, 31–32
behavioral control over children in family sessions, 208 child abuse and education or training of, 309 child-parent fit and, 54, 89 children and interactions with, 374 cohesion and childrearing, 53
depression and, 279
eyear marriage and, 46–47 evaluation and non-custodial, 96 with gender non-conforming child, 68–69 individual developmental phase of, 109 in post-modern relationships, 29–30 stepfamily and relationship with child, 27–28, 66–67 trends in, 70
Partner relational problem, 120
Pathogenic family, 78
Patient history, see Family history
Peer systems, and adolescents, 278, 375. See also Interpersonal relationships Persistent depressive disorder, family therapy in context of, 277–281.
See also Depression Personality, 48
bipolar disorder and, 274
gons and family myths, 82–83
Socialization of children and, 53
Personality disorders, and family evaluation, 131 Phobias, 294
Physical abuse, of adults, see also Violence borderline personality disorder and, 281
definition of, 302
DSM-5 and, 120
resistance and, 193
Physical violence, 302
Play, and family sessions, 207 Population, aging of, 33
Positive reinforcement, and negative feedback, 83
Post-divorce treatment, 254–255
Postpartum psychosis, 204–205
Post-traumatic stress disorder, 285–286
Poverty, and single-parent families, 63 Power
family violence and, 308
interpersonal relationships and, 48
marriage and, 221–222
secrets and, 198
stepfamilies and, 258
Premature (early) ejaculation, 240
Present-oriented approach, to family evaluation, 102
Problem-Centered Systems Therapy, 348
Problem solving
depression and, 280
dysfunctional family and, 79–80
family evaluation and, 111–112, 118, 126–127, 129 interpersonal skills and, 161–163 redefinition of problem as goal of treatment, 148 specification of problem(s), 147 Problem-solving approach, to treatment
brief family therapy and, 184–185
family evaluation and, 125 Process evaluation as, 95
goals of treatment and, 151
Process research, 383
Professional issues, boundaries and dual relationships as, 411
Prostate cancer, 243–244
Pseudohostility, 77
Pseudomutuality, 77
Psychiatric disorders, see also Acute care; Mental illness; Individual psychotherapy acute and chronic forms of, 321–337 anxiety disorders and, 283–285
bipolar disorder and, 274–277
borderline personality disorder and, 282
cognitive disorders and, 286–288
eating disorders and, 288–289 family model and diagnosis of, 267–268 intellectual disability and, 291
major depressive disorder, 277–281
persistent depressive disorder, 277–281
schizophrenia and, 268–274
substance-related disorders and, 289–291
Psychiatric training in family therapy, 417–419 Psychoanalysis development of field of family therapy and, 7 models of psychopathology and, 75, 77 Psychodrama, 161
Psychodynamic child therapy, 387–388
Psychoeducation
acute and chronic psychiatric illnesses and, 325, 330, 333 attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder and, 293
bipolar disorder and, 276–277 coping skills and, 158–159
depression and, 159
Psychoeducation (Continued) in-depth illness education, 350–351 multifamily groups (MFGs), 352 obsessive-compulsive disorder and, 285
resistance and, 191
schizophrenia, 7, 159, 170, 270, 271–272, 272
steppfamily and, 258
Psychoeducational model, of treatment, 143–144
Psychologists, for family systems training, 419 Psychology, and subspecialty in family therapy, 7 Psychopathology, see also Mental illness contraindications for family therapy, 375–376 family therapy and models of, 18–19, 75
marital conflict and, 224 Psychosis, see also Schizophrenia family burden in cases of, 323–324 family intervention for, 329–330, 332
resistance and, 196
Psychosocial therapies, combination of with family therapy, 211–215 Psychotherapy, and family therapy, 157–158. See also Individual psychotherapy Public health, and suicide, 314
Public Health Service Act, Title III, Section 303(d), 7 Pursuit withdrawal, and interaction patterns in couples, 227 Qualitative research, 382–383 Quality treatment equation, for schizophrenia, 270, 270
Quantitative research, 382–383
Race and racism, see also African Americans; Ethnicity of therapist, 377 Randomized controlled trial (RCT), 385
Rape, and sexual functioning, 243
Rationalization, as defense strategy, 197 Reality
acute and chronic psychiatric disorders and, 326–327
family responses to mental illness in member and, 323 reorganization of family structure and creation of systemic, 166 techniques for construction of more effective, 169–170 Records, of treatment, 211 Referrals
countertransference and, 377
family evaluation and, 110
family violence and, 304
for long-term family therapy, 366–367
Reframing, and reorganization of family structure, 165 Relapse
of bipolar disorder, 274 chronic mental illness and, 334 depression and rates of, 281 Relational ethics, 405
Relational problem not otherwise specified, 120 Relational problem related to a mental disorder or general medical condition, 120 Relational problems, and DSM-5 diagnostic categories, 119, 120–124, 121–122, 124 Relativism, and narrative model of treatment, 220 Religion, prejudices and family therapy, 377 Remarriage and remarried families, see also Stepfamilies as alternative family form, 65–66 boundaries and, 14 complicated structure of, 165
Remarried couple, 66
Reproductive issues, family secrets and assisted reproduction, 204 Research
acute and chronic psychiatric disorders and, 332–333
bipolar disorder and, 276
brief family therapy and, 180 development of field of family therapy, 8 on outcomes of family therapy, 381–396 treatment packages and, 170
Resilient families, 345 Resistance
cognitive-behavioral model of, 191 disconnection and creation of change, 192–198
family evaluation and, 113, 129 and psychoeducation, 191 rules for sessions and, 211 stalled therapy and, 198–199
use of term, 189
Resolution, and development of couples, 224 Responsibility as ethical issue, 412–413
stalled therapy and, 199
Retirement, and depression in elderly, 279
Role models, and marriage, 222 Roles, see also Gender and gender roles changes in as goal of treatment, 148 Rules, and marital coalition, 47 Safety, and family violence, 306–307 Same-sex couples and families, see also Homosexuality as alternative family form, 67–68 Scapegoats
dysfunctional family and, 86
family evaluation and, 129, 130
goals of treatment and, 150
Scheduling, of family sessions, 210–211
Schizoaffective disorder, 330 Schizophrenia, see also Psychosis
brief family therapy and, 182
development of field of family therapy, 7–8 efficacy of family therapy for, 333, 336–337 expressed emotion in family members, 333 family approaches to, 214 family caretakers of patients with chronic, 324 family history of, 204–205
family therapy in context of, 268–274, 364, 386 goals of family therapy and, 148 indications for family intervention, 332 individual psychotherapy combined with family therapy, 211–212 problem solving and families of patients, 118 psychoeducation and, 159, 170
psychoeducational family therapy for, 389–390 School-age children, see also Children child abuse and, 313
family life cycle and, 51
School phobias, 294 Secrets
dysfunctional family and, 87
eating disorders and, 288 ethics and, 407–409 evaluation of couples and, 226 extramarital affairs and, 225 family participants in therapy and, 204 resistance and, 193, 197–198
sexuality and, 239
Self-destructive behavior, and resistance, 195
Self-help groups, and family violence, 307 Separation, marital, see also Divorce;
Marriage
as alternative family form, 60–62
divorce and, 61–62, 250–251
process of, 249–250
view of as failure, 84
Sequencing, and psychotherapy, 213 Serial relationships
as alternative family form, 60
couples therapy and, 260
Setting, of family therapy, 210
Sex, 49
Sexual abuse, see also Child abuse; Incest; Violence, domestic assessment of, 311–312
borderline personality disorder and, 281 of children, 310–312
definition of, 302, 310
DSM-5 diagnostic categories related to, 120 family issues and, 310–311
individual issues, 310
larger system issues, 311 outcomes of, 312
resistance and, 193
sexual functioning and, 243
treatment of, 312
Sexual arousal disorders, 237–238
Sexual desire disorders, 237–238 Sexual dysfunctions, see also Sexuality and sexual behavior assessment of sexual disorder, 237–240, 239
definition of, 235
diagnosis of, 236–240 medical illness and, 243–244 parameters of, 236–237
treatment of, 240–242
erectile disorder, 240 lack of desire, 240
painful intercourse/female orgasmic disorder, 240–242 premature (early) ejaculation, 240
Sexual history, 178, 237–239 Sexual orientation, 243. See also Homosexuality
Sexual pain disorders, 238, 240–242 Sexual therapy, see also Sexual dysfunctions; Sexuality and sexual behavior choice of individual versus couples therapy, 364–365
marital therapy and, 212
rape and sexual abuse, 243
sexual dysfunctions and, 240–242 Sexuality and sexual behavior, see also Homosexuality; Sexual dysfunctions; Sexual therapy elderly and, 244
ethical issues and, 409
family myths and, 83
socialization of children, 53–54
Siblings boundaries of subsystems and, 12 coalitions and, 54
dysfunctional family and, 86
family life cycle and, 51
relational problem, 120 of schizophrenia patients, 273
sexual abuse and, 310
Significant others
family evaluation and, 96
inclusion of in family sessions, 205
use of terms, 1
Sildenafil, 240, 243
Single-parent family
brief family therapy and, 184–185
couples therapy and, 255
as functional family, 27, 53
Skewed families, and reorganization of structure, 164
S-MAST, 290
Social classes, 32–33
Social learning theory, 163
Social work, and subspecialty in family therapy, 7 Socialization, of children
dysfunctional family and, 88–89
as family task, 53–55 school and, 208
Society
dysfunctional family and, 84–85 family boundaries and, 52 social classes of, 32–33 Solution-as-the-problem approach, to dysfunctional family, 79–80 Solving Your Problems Together: Family Therapy for the Whole Family (Annunziata and Jacobson-Kram 1994), 126 Specificity, of family therapy, 381–382
Spectrum of sexuality, 242–243
SSRI, see Selective serotonin reuptake inhibitor Stabilization phase, of schizophrenia, 271 Stable coalition, and dysfunctional family, 79
Staff, acute and chronic psychiatric disorders and, 328–329
Stanford University Medical Center, 111, 114 Stepfamilies, 27–28. See also Remarriage and remarried families as alternative family form, 66–67
couples therapy and, 255–259 nuclear family compared to, 256, 256–257
stepfamily and, 66–67
Stories, family evaluation and belief systems, 119, 130–131
Strategic approach therapy (SAT), 386
Strategic systems model, of alliance, 192
Strengths, of family and brief therapy, 183 Stress
acute and chronic psychiatric disorders and, 327
of bipolar disorder, 274 coping and, 87
divorce and, 61–62
dysfunctional family and, 77–78
everal adult marriages and, 47 family crisis therapy and, 366 family of psychotic patients and, 323 life events and, 119
single-parent family and, 63
Stroke, and sexual functioning, 243–244
Structural model, of treatment, 141–142 Substance abuse, see also Alcoholism
depression and, 278
family therapy in context of individual diagnosis of, 289–291, 375–376
family violence and, 302–303
resistance and, 193
sexual functioning and, 243
Substantive choice points, and evaluation, 96–97 Subsystems, of family boundaries of, 12
life cycle and, 51
Suicide and suicide attempts
bipolar disorder and, 274
borderline personality disorder and, 282
brief family therapy and, 182–183
cognitive disorders in elderly and, 286
depression and, 278
discharge of hospitalized patient, 316 evaluation of risk, 315 family involvement, 315–316 family therapy for, 332 family treatment, 316
family violence and, 305 management of acute risk, 314–315 as public health problem, 314 substance-related disorders and, 290 Support groups community-based for acute and chronic psychiatric disorders, 335–336
separation and divorce, 251
Support systems, family violence and, 308 Supra-family system, 65
Survival skills workshop, 159
Symbols, and family genogram, 111, 114
Symmetrical relationships, and interactional patterns in couples, 227–228
Symptoms
definition and characteristics of, 78
dysfunctional family and, 85–86
goals of treatment and, 148
middle phase of treatment and, 178–179 negative effects of family therapy and, 391, 392–393 reorganization of family structure and, 166
termination phase of treatment and, 180, 197 of trauma in abuse victims, 305 Systemic interventions, evidence-based family interventions communication and, 351
FAMCON model, 351
Medical Family Therapy (MedFT), 351 narrative therapy, 351–352
therapist role, 351
Systemic model of change, 100–101, 101
Systemic motivational therapy, 290–291
Systemic reality, and reorganization of family structure, 166
Systemic-strategic model, of family therapy, 138, 141, 214 Systems theory, see also Family systems core concepts of family therapy and, 10–14
definition of, 5
diagnosis of sexual dysfunction and, 236 etiology of psychiatric illness and, 76
marital conflict and, 224
structural model of family treatment and, 141–142 Tasks, family
brief family therapy and, 184
dysfunctional family and, 87–89
functional family and, 52–55
Teachers, therapists as, 159 Team combinations of therapists and, 209–210
family evaluation and, 97 multiple-impact therapy and, 210 Technical choice points, and evaluation, 96–97
Telephone contact, and family history, 176 Temperament, 48 Termination of marital therapy, 180 as phase of treatment, 179–180, 197 premature, 394
Therapists, see also Trainees and training choice of treatment model, 144, 148 choice of treatment strategy, 170–171 clinical issues for family model and violence, 309 combinations of, 208–211 competencies of, 411–413
couples therapy and, 229 dyadic coping identification, 346, 346
family evaluation and, 114 and family scenarios, 179 family systemic interventions and, 351
goals of treatment and, 152–153 managed care and ethics, 409–410 mismatch between family and, 194 neutrality and couples therapy, 250 problems in creating change and, 193–194
resistance and, 196
skills and attributes of, 377 as teachers, 159
therapist as referee, 176 Threats, and family evaluation, 119 Time, and treatment issues
acute and chronic psychiatric disorders and, 328
early phase of treatment and, 176 individual versus family therapy and, 364 length of sessions and duration of treatment, 210 Time capsule, 14–16, 15
Time-limited therapies, see Brief family therapy Time-outs, and family violence, 309
Togetherness, as family myth, 81–82 Traditional behavioral couple therapy (TBCT), 384–385 Trainees and training, in family, see also Education; Therapists couples and family assessment and intervention, 416 fellowships, 419
Index

internship, 414
psychiatric training, 417–419 teacher and supervisor, 416 training sites, 414
treatment rooms, 416 Trainees and training, in family therapy co-therapy and, 208–209 couples therapy, 231
eyearly phase of treatment and, 175
goals of treatment and, 151 indications for differential use of strategies, 170–171 treatment teams and, 209–210 Transference, see also Countertransference
couples therapy and, 229
definition of, 75
family evaluation and, 360 individual psychotherapy and, 211, 213 insight-awareness model and, 138, 140
Transnationalism, 24
Trauma, symptoms of in abuse victims, 305 Traumatic stress symptoms, 344–345.
See also Family functioning Treatment, see Couples therapy; Family therapy; Marital therapy;
Medication
Trial separations, 62, 249
Triangulation process, and dysfunctional family, 76–79 Tricyclic antidepressants, 275. See also Medication Unbalancing, and reorganization of family structure, 166 Unmarried couples, 373
Untoward effects, of medications, 213
Verbal abuse, 302
Verbal communication, and family evaluation, 109 Violence, domestic, see also Child abuse; Physical abuse; Sexual abuse assessment of individual and family systems and, 304–305 causes of, 302
couples therapy and, 227 cycle of, 303–304
definition of terms, 302
ethical issues and, 408
family evaluation and, 119
family model and, 302–309 physical, 302 resistance and fears of, 193
schizophrenia and, 273
substance abuse and, 302–303 substance-related disorders and, 290 treatment for, 306–309 Vulnerability-stress model, of schizophrenia, 268, 268

Women, see also Gender companionate model of marriage and, 25–26 older adulthood and, 46 stereotypes, 223