Contents

Forewords, xix

Ellen M. Berman, MD
Lloyd I. Sederer, MD

Preface, xxvii
Acknowledgments, xxxi
A Guide for Using the Text, xxxiii
List of Tables, xxxvii
List of Figures, xxxix

Section I  Family Therapy in Context

1 The Field of Couples and Family Therapy: Development and Definition, 5
Objectives for the Reader, 5
Introduction, 5
Development of the Family Therapy Field, 6
Definition of Couples and Family Therapy, 9
Core Concepts, 10
General Systems Theory, 10
Family Systems Theory and Homeostasis Over Time, 14
An Integrative Interpersonal Model, 16
Dissociation of Family Therapy From Other Psychotherapies, 16
Clinical Practice Implications, 19
Suggested Reading, 19
References, 19

2 Family Life in Historical and Sociological Perspective, 23
Objectives for the Reader, 23
Introduction, 23
Structure and Function of the American Family, 23
Immigration, 24
Ethnicity, 24
Secular View of Marriage, 25
Structures of Marriage, 26
Divorce, 26
The Functional Single-Parent Family, 27
Steppfamilies, 27
LGBTQ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer) Couples, 28
Parenting in Post-modern Relationships, 29
Family Types, 30
Multiracial Families, 30
African-American Families, 31
Latino Families, 31
Asian Families, 31
Social Class, 32
Aging of the Population, 33
The Changing Family Life Cycle, 33
Clinical Practice Implications, 34
Suggested Reading, 34
References, 34

Section II  Functional and Dysfunctional Families

3 Understanding the Functional Family, 41
Objectives for the Reader, 41
Introduction, 41
The Family as a System, 42
The Couples/Marital and Family Life Cycle, 44
The Individual Life Cycle, 44
The Couples/Marital Life Cycle, 46
Phase of Relationship and Tasks, 46
Marital Coalition, 47
Sex, Intimacy, and Companionship, 49
The Family Life Cycle, 49
Family Tasks, 52
Provision of Basic Needs, 52
Rearing and Socialization of Children, 53
Family Belief Systems, 55
Family Resilience, 55
Contents

Clinical Practice Implications, 55
Suggested Readings, 56
References, 56

4 Understanding the Functional Family in a Variety of Family Forms, 59
Objectives for the Reader, 59
Introduction, 59
Impact of an Extended Individual Life Cycle, 59
Marriage, 60
Divorce, 60
  Marital Separation, 61
  Divorce, 61
  Children and Divorce, 62
Binuclear Families, 62
  The Functional Single-Parent Family, 63
  Mother-Headed Single-Parent Families, 64
  Father-Headed Single-Parent Families, 65
Remarriage and Blended Families, 65
  Remarried Couple, 66
Stepfamilies (Blended Families), 66
Grandparent-Headed Families, 67
Lesbian, Gay, or Transgendered Families, 67
Parents with a Gender Non-conforming Child, 68
Multiple-Partner Fertility Families, 69
Adoption and Families, 69
Interracial Families, 69
Trends in Parenting, 70
Clinical Practice Implications, 70
Suggested Reading, 70
References, 71

5 Problems and Dysfunction from an Integrated Family Systems Perspective, 75
Objectives for the Reader, 75
Introduction: The Dysfunctional Family System, 75
A Systems Approach to Problems and Dysfunction, 76
  Historical Perspectives, 76
  Current Perspectives, 77
  Structural Problems, 78
  The Solution as the Problem, 79
Family Beliefs and Myths, 80
The Larger Social System and Dysfunction, 84
Implications for Treatment—The Development of Symptoms in a Particular Person, 85
Life Cycle Problems and Dysfunction, 86
  Unresolved Grief, 87
  Toxic Secrets, 87
Task Performance in the Dysfunctional Family, 87
  Providing for the Family’s Basic Needs, 88
  Maintaining a Functional Marriage: Issues of Sex, Intimacy, and Commitment, 88
  Rearing and Socializing of Children, 88
Clinical Practice Implications, 89
Suggested Reading, 89
References, 89

Section III Family Evaluation

6 The Process of Evaluation, 95
Objectives for the Reader, 95
Introduction, 95
Who to Include in the Family Evaluation, 95
Progression of the Family Evaluation Interview, 96
Dimensions of Couple and Family Assessment, 97
  Joining with the Couple or Family, 97
  Seeing Systemic Patterns, 98
  Recognizing Family Developmental Stage, History, and Culture, 98
  Identifying Family Structure, 99
Working with a Systemic Model of Change, 100
Role of Historical Material, 101
Role of Individual and Family Diagnoses, 102
Clinical Practice Implications, 102
References, 103

7 The Content of Evaluation, 107
Objectives for the Reader, 107
Introduction, 107
Dimensions of Family Function, 107
Family Evaluation Outline, 107
  Gathering Identifying Data and Establishing
  Current Phase of Family Life Cycle, 108
  Gathering Explicit Interview Data, 109
Contents

- What is the Background of the Family Problem?, 110
- What is the History of Past Treatment Attempts?, 111
- What are the Families Goals and Expectations of the Treatment?, 112
- The Family Genogram, 114
- Clinical Practice Implications, 114
- References, 114

8 Formulating an Understanding of the Family Problem Areas, 117
- Objectives for the Reader, 117
- Introduction, 117
- Rating Important Dimensions of Family Functioning, 117
  - Communication, 117
  - Problem Solving, 118
  - Roles and Coalitions, 118
  - Affective Responsiveness and Involvement, 118
  - Operative Family Beliefs and Stories, 119
  - Recent Family Events and Stresses, 119
- Family Classification and Diagnosis, 119
- Planning the Therapeutic Approach and Establishing the Treatment Contract, 124
- Case Example Illustrating Evaluation and Case Formulation, 126
- Suggested Reading, 132
- References, 132

Section IV Family Treatment

9 Major Family Therapy Schools and Their Treatment Strategies, 137
- Objectives for the Reader, 137
- Introduction, 137
- Insight-Awareness Model, 137
- Family of Origin Model, 140
- Systemic-Strategic Model, 141
- Structural Model, 141
- Cognitive–Behavioral Model, 142
- Experiential Model, 143
- Narrative Model, 143
- Psychoeducational Model, 143
- Clinical Practice Implications, 144
- Recommended Readings, 144
- References, 144

10 Goals, 147
- Objectives for the Reader, 147
- Introduction, 147
- Mediating and Final Goals as They Relate to Schools, 147
  - The Most Common Mediating Goals, 147
  - The Most Common Final Goals, 148
- Individualizing Goals With the Family, 149
- Goals and Their Relation to Process and Content Issues, 151
- Mediating Goals and Their Related Strategies, 151
- Goals and Related Strategies Common to All Family Therapy Schools, 152
- Clinical Practice Implications, 153
- Reference, 153

11 Family Treatment: Integrated Strategies and Techniques, 157
- Objectives for the Reader, 157
- Introduction, 157
- General Elements of Psychotherapy and Their Relationship to Family Therapy, 157
- Basic Strategies of Family Intervention, 158
  - Techniques for Supporting Adaptive Mechanisms and Strengths: The Psychoeducational Approach, 158
  - Techniques for Expanding Emotional Experience, 160
  - Techniques for Developing Interpersonal Skills, 161
  - Techniques for Reorganizing the Family Structure, 163
  - Techniques for Increasing Insight and Conflict Resolution, 167
  - Techniques for a More Effective Construction of Family Reality, 169
- Treatment Packages, 170
- Indications for Differential Use of the Basic Strategies, 170
- Clinical Practice Implications, 171
- References, 171

12 The Course of Family Treatment, 175
- Objectives for the Reader, 175
- Introduction, 175
- Early Phase, 175
  - Identifying Objectives of the Early Phase, 175
Contents

13 Promoting Change in Family Treatment: Issues of Alliance and Resistance, 189
   Objectives for the Reader, 189
   Introduction, 189
   The Therapeutic Alliance, 189
   Models for Dealing with Families That Have Trouble Forming an Alliance, 191
      Medical Model, 191
      Coaching Model, 191
      Conflict Model, 191
      Strategic Systems Model, 192
   Problems in Creating Change: Resistance and Disconnection, 192
      Problems in Creating Change: Emanating from the Family, 193
      Problems in Creating Change: Emanating from the Therapist, 193

14 Family Therapy: General Considerations, 203
   Objectives for the Reader, 203
   Introduction, 203
   Family Participants, 203
      Extended Family and Significant Others, 205
      Caregivers, 205
   Including Children and Adolescents in Family Therapy, 206
      Diagnostic Family Evaluation, 206
      Treatment, 207
   Therapist Combinations, 208
      Co-Therapy, 208
      Working as a Team, 209
   Setting, 210
   Time, Scheduling, and Fees, 210
   Keeping a Record of Treatment, 211
   Family Therapy in Combination with Other Psychosocial Therapies, 211
      Practical Guidelines, 213
      Effective Family Intervention, 214
      Comparison of Therapy Formats and Strategies, 214
   Clinical Practice Implications, 215
   References, 215
Section V  Couples Therapy

15  Dysfunctional Couples and Couples Therapy, 221
   Objectives for the Reader, 221
   Introduction, 221
   Marriage in Its Historical Context, 221
   Couples Difficulties, Problems, and Dysfunction, 222
      From a Dynamic Point of View, 223
      From a Behavioral Point of View, 223
      From a Systems Point of View, 224
      From a Psychiatric Illness Point of View, 224
   Couples' Development Dysfunction, 224
   Couples Therapy, 225
      The Issue of Commitment—The Problem of Affairs, 225
      Evaluation of Partners, 226
      Goals, 227
      Strategies and Techniques of Intervention, 227
      A Model for Intervention Based on Patterns of Interaction, 227
      Individual Models, 228
      Strategies and Techniques, 229
   Clinical Practice Implications, 231
   References, 231

16  Sex, Couples, and Sex Therapy, 235
   Objectives for the Reader, 235
   Introduction, 235
   Diagnosis—Systems Issues, 236
   Some Parameters of Sexual Function, 236
   Assessment of Sexual Disorder, 237
   Treatment, 240
      Lack of Desire, 240
      Erectile Disorder, 240
      Premature (Early) Ejaculation, 240
      Painful Intercourse/Female Orgasmic Disorder, 240
   Other Issues Related to Sexuality and Couples, 242
      The Spectrum of Sexuality, 242
      Sexual Functioning After Rape or Sexual Abuse, 243
      Sexual Problems After Medical Illness, 243
      Sexual Problems in the Elderly, 244
   Clinical Practice Implications, 244
   Suggested Reading, 244
   References, 244

17  Couples and Families Breaking Apart: Separation and Divorce, 249
   Objectives for the Reader, 249
   Introduction, 249
   Separation, 249
      Separation Leading to Divorce, 250
      Communicating the Issue of Divorce to Children, 251
      Immediate Issues, 252
   Therapy for Families Facing Divorce, 253
   Divorce and Post-divorce Treatment, 254
   Single-Parent and Binuclear Families, 255
   Blended Families (Stepfamilies), 255
      Goals, 256
      Evaluation and Treatment, 256
   Cohabiting Couples, 259
   Serial Relationships, 260
   Clinical Practice Implications, 260
   Suggested Reading, 261
   References, 261

Section VI  Family Treatment When One Member Has a Psychiatric Disorder or Other Special Problem

18  Family Treatment in the Context of Individual Psychiatric Disorders, 267
   Objectives for the Reader, 267
   Introduction, 267
   The Family Model and Individual Diagnosis, 267
   Schizophrenia, 268
      Rationale, 268
      Treatment Considerations, 269
   Mood Disorders: Bipolar Disorder, 274
      Rationale, 274
      Treatment Considerations, 276
   Mood Disorders: Persistent Depressive Disorder and Major Depressive Disorder, 277
      Rationale, 277
      Treatment Considerations, 279
Contents

Borderline Personality Disorder (BPD), 281
  Rationale, 281
  Treatment Considerations, 282
Anxiety Disorders, 283
  Rationale, 283
  Panic Disorder and Agoraphobia, 284
  Treatment, 284
Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder, 285
  Rationale, 285
  Treatment, 285
Post-traumatic Stress Disorder, 285
  Rationale, 285
  Treatment, 286
Dementia, Amnesia, and Other Cognitive Disorders, 286
  Rationale, 286
  Treatment Considerations, 287
Eating Disorders, 288
  Rationale, 288
  Treatment Considerations, 288
Substance-Related Disorders, 289
  Rationale, 289
  Assessment and Treatment Guidelines, 290
  Children of Alcoholic Parents, 291
Psychiatric Disorders of Childhood, 291
  Intellectual Disability, 291
  Treatment, 291
  Autism Spectrum Disorder, 292
  Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder, 292
  Oppositional Defiant Disorder and Conduct Disorder, 294
  Anxiety Disorders, 294
  Mood Disorders, 294
  Childhood Obesity, 295
Clinical Practice Implications, 295
  Suggested Reading, 295
  References, 295

19 Family Treatment in the Context of Other Special Problems—Violence to Self and Others, 301
  Objectives for the Reader, 301
  Introduction, 301
  The Family Model and Violence, 302
    Description of the Problem, 302
    How Violent Acts Occur: The Cycle of Violence, 303
  Assessment of Individual and Family Systems
    Issues, 304
  Physical and Psychological Consequences of Violence, 305
    Treatment, 306
  Clinical Issues for Therapists, 309
Intrafamilial Child Sexual Abuse, 310
  Individual Issues, 310
  Family Issues, 310
  Larger System Issues, 311
  Assessment, 311
  Treatment, 312
  Outcomes, 312
The Family Model and Child Abuse, 312
The Suicidal Patient and the Family, 314
  Acute Management, 314
  Evaluating the Family, 315
  Involving the Family, 315
  Treating the Family, 316
  Discharging the Hospitalized Patient, 316
Clinical Practice Implications, 316
  Suggested Reading, 316
  References, 317

20 The Family and Treatment of Acute and Chronic Psychiatric Illness, 321
  Objectives for the Reader, 321
  Introduction, 321
  Background, 322
  Acute Treatment, 322
    The Function of the Acute Team for the Family, 322
    Family Responses to Mental Illness of a Family Member, 323
    The Family Burden in Psychotic Illness, 323
    Rationale for Acute Treatment of Families, 324
    Process of Family Treatment in Acute Care, 325
    Common Goals of Acute Family Intervention, 326
    Particular Decisions in Acute Care and Family Intervention, 328
    Family Techniques, 329
    A Working Model of Acute Family Intervention, 330
    Guidelines for Recommending Family Intervention in an Acute Care Setting, 331
    Empirical Studies, 332
Families of the Chronically Ill, 333
Community-Based Support Groups, 335
Controversies in the Treatment of Acute and Chronic Psychiatric Illness, 336
Clinical Practice Implications, 337
References, 337

21 Working with Families in the Medical Setting, 343
Objectives for the Reader, 343
Introduction, 343
How Family Functioning Impacts Illness, 343
Gender Matters, 344
Family Health Beliefs, 344
Family Adherence, 344
How Illness Impacts Family Functioning, 345
Family Coping and Adaptation to Illness, 345
Learning to Cope and Adapt, 346
Providing a Therapeutic Space, 347
Caregiving, 347
A Family Systems Interview for Families with Medical Illness, 347
1. Problem Solving, 348
2. Communication, 348
3. Roles, 348
4. Affective responsiveness, 349
5. Affective involvement, 349
6. Behavior control, 350
Family Interventions, 350
Family Support, 350
Family Psychoeducation, 350
Family Systemic Interventions, 351
Multifamily Groups, 352
Clinical Practice Implications, 352
Suggested Reading, 352
References, 352

Section VII Results of and Guidelines for Recommending Family Therapy

22 Indications for and the Sequence of Family Therapy Evaluation and Treatment, 359
Objectives for the Reader, 359
Introduction, 359
Sequence of Evaluation and Treatment Planning, 359
Step 1: Is Family Evaluation Indicated?, 360
Step 2: Is Family Treatment Indicated?, 361
Family Therapy Versus Individual Therapy, 361
Managed Care, 364
Individual, Couples, or Sex Therapy for Sexual Problems, 364
Family Crisis Therapy Versus Hospitalization, 365
Step 3: What Shall Be the Duration and Intensity of Family Therapy?, 365
Family Crisis Therapy, 366
Brief Family Therapy, 366
Long-Term Family Therapy, 366
Step 4: What Model of Family Intervention Is Indicated?, 367
Clinical Practice Implications, 367
References, 367

23 Controversies, Relative Contraindications, and the Use and Misuse of Couples and Family Therapy, 371
Objectives for the Reader, 371
Introduction, 371
Couples Therapy, 371
Couples Conflict and Dissatisfaction, 371
Sexual Issues, 373
Families in the Process of Divorce, 373
Unmarried Couples, 373
The Child as the Identified Patient, 373
The Adolescent as the Identified Patient, 374
Family of Origin Issues, 375
Situations in Which Family Therapy Is Difficult and Perhaps Contraindicated, 375
When Psychopathology in One Family Member Makes Family Therapy Ineffective, 375
When the Family or Therapist Thinks the Risks of Therapy Outweigh the Advantages, 376
When the Family as a Whole Denies Having Family Problems, 377
When Cultural or Religious Prejudices Are Present, 377
Skills and Attributes of the Therapist as They Affect Family Work, 377
Clinical Practice Implications, 377
References, 378
Contents

24 Results: The Outcomes of Couples and Family Therapy, 381
Objectives for the Reader, 381
Introduction, 381
Overview of Psychotherapy Outcome Research, 381
1. Specificity, 381
2. The Difference Between Efficacy and Effectiveness, 382
3. The Difference Between Qualitative and Quantitative, or Exploratory and Confirmatory, Research, 382
4. The Difference Between Process and Outcome Research, 383
What the Studies Show?, 383
Couples Treatments for Adult Disorders, 384
Insight-Oriented Marital Therapy for Marital Distress, 384
Integrative Behavioral Couple Therapy for Marital Distress, 384
Emotionally Focused Couples Therapy for Marital Distress, 385
Behavioral Marital Therapy for Depression, 385
Behavioral Couples Therapy for Alcoholism, 385
Couples Therapy for Posttraumatic Stress Disorder, 386
Family Treatments for Adult Disorders, 386
Schizophrenia and Major Mental Illness, 386
Focused Family Therapy for Bipolar Disorder, 386
Family Treatments for Child and Adolescent Disorders, 387
Brief Strategic Family Therapy for Children and Adolescents with Externalizing Disorders, 387
Functional Family Therapy for Delinquent Adolescents, 388
Multidimensional Family Therapy for Adolescent Substance Abuse, 388
Multisystemic Therapy for Youth at Risk, 388
Functional Family Therapy for Adolescents with Bipolar Disorder, 388
Family-Based Treatment for Anorexia Nervosa, 389
Family Interventions for Medical Illnesses, 389
The Effectiveness of Combining Medication and Family Therapy, 389
Limitations of Family Therapy, 390
Negative Effects of Family Therapy, 391
Inability to Engage and Premature Termination of Family Therapy, 394
Clinical Implications of Data from Couples and Family Therapy Outcome Studies, 395
Clinical Practice Implications, 396
References, 396

Section VIII Ethical, Professional, and Training Issues

25 Ethical and Professional Issues in Couples and Family Therapy, 405
Objectives for the Reader, 405
Introduction, 405
Ethical Issues Inherent in Family Therapy, 405
Conflicting Interests of Family Members, 406
Understanding HIPPA, 406
Secrets and Confidentiality, 407
Issues Involving Gender, Gender Roles, and Sexuality, 409
Ethics in a Managed Care World, 409
Informed Consent, 410
Financial Issues, 410
Professional Issues, 411
The Problem of Boundaries and Dual Relationships, 411
Competencies, 411
Training Issues, 414
Clinical Experiences, 416
Training Programs in Family Psychiatry, 417
A Multidisciplinary Field, 417
Family Therapy Fellowships, 418
Training and Licensure, 418
Clinical Practice Implications, 418
Suggested Reading, 419
References, 419
Index, 421