INDEX

A
Accountability: accountable collaboration, 31–32, 155; as change lever, 134–137; culture and, 103; enacting systemic change, 155–157; envisioning systemic change, 147–149, 151; external, 165n1; horizontal, 135–136; internal, 165n1; modeling, 111; preparing for systemic change, 140–141; for students, 165n2; vertical, 135–136
Adaptive challenges: change leadership and, 221–227; conditions and culture, 199–200; and need for adaptability, 5; personal learning required, 206; preparing for systemic change, 138; systemic change and, 195; technical vs., 8–12
Administrators: developing new kinds of teams, 214–218; involving in instruction, 198–202. See also Principals; Superintendents
Agreements: enacting systemic change, 156; engagement and, 70; teams and, 217
Ambiguity, tolerance for, 138
Annenberg grants, 210–211
As Is-To Be tool, 107–110, 119–120
Assessment standards: diagnostic data and, 31–32; rigor and, 40; shared vision, 29–30
Assumptions: change leadership and, 221; immunity map, 86, 91, 127–129; lenses of trust and, 165n2. See also Big Assumptions
Attitude: key competencies needed, 5; relationships and, 135
Authority: respect for, 7–8; unrecognized beliefs about, 210
Autonomy: as organizational belief and behavior, 13–14; principals and, 71

B
Barth, Roland, 228
Basic skills, need for, 4–5
Behaviors: counterproductive, 57–58; organizational beliefs and, 11–14; relationships and, 135. See also Individual beliefs and behaviors
Berger, Jennifer, 210
Big Assumptions: about social expectations, 209; biography of, 177; challenges to, 175–176; change coach case study, 189; concentrating on change and, 220; designing tests, 182–183; immunity map and, 86, 91, 127–129; leading to other assumptions, 211–212; observing, 173–175; overturning, 167, 185–190; testing, 178–183; welcoming contradictions, 225–226
Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, 80, 222
Bleke, Bert, 140–142, 147
Boston Public Schools, 14
Boy Scouts of America, 40
Bryk, Anthony S., 39, 69, 136, 165n2
Buckerey, Gloria, 111–114
Building a New Structure for School Leadership (Elmore), 165n3
Building administrators, 198–202
Bureaucracies, 25, 68

C
Carnevale, Anthony P., 5, 10
Central office administrators, 198–202
Challenges: accepting the, 16–18; to Big Assumptions, 175–176; of change, 9; to collaboration, 103; effective instruction, 99–100; to effective supervision, 100–101; of high-stakes test scores, 163–165; to instructional improvement, 24–26; with time, 101. See also Adaptive challenges
Change: challenge of, 9; and change levers, 134–137; concentrating on, 218–221; and conditions of teaching and learning, 112; goal of, 98; inward and outward, 193–195; obstacles vs. momentum for, 64–74; recommended reading, 256; starting points for, 90–92; systems thinking and, 98–110. See also Immunities to change; Individual change; Organizational change; Systemic change; Urgency for change
Change leadership: adaptive work and, 221–227; complacency and, 207; data and, 136; enacting systemic change, 153; envisioning systemic change, 145; personal learning required for, 206; recommended reading, 256
Change Leadership Group (CLG), 11, 25
Charter schools, 25
CLG (Change Leadership Group), 11, 25
Coaches: change coach case study, 187–190; enacting systemic change, 155; isolation and, 77–78; for teachers, 113
Coalition of Essential Schools, 43, 75
Collaboration: accountable, 31–32, 155; challenges to, 103; envisioning systemic change, 145, 150; isolation and, 71–74; lesson study process, 122n8; moving toward, 16–18; with parents, 103, 105; preparing for systemic change, 138; principals in, 114; professional development and, 31; relationships and, 142; teamwork and, 72
College-readiness of graduates, 2–5, 104
Collins, Jim, 208
Commitment: competing, 87–90, 124–126, 196–198; evaluating, 84–86; horizontal accountability and, 135; to instructional improvement, 51–60; relationships and, 135–136; SoCal District example, 196; to teaching literacy, 66, 110–111; teamwork and, 210, 218. See also Hidden commitments
Communication: accountability and, 136; among leaders, 103; envisioning systemic change, 145–147; key competencies needed, 5; preparing for systemic change, 140–142; systems thinking and, 105
Communities: envisioning systemic change, 145–153; focus groups from, 165n5; preparing for systemic change, 136–145
Communities of practice: horizontal accountability and, 135; leadership practice communities, 76–80; lesson study process, 122n8; moving toward, 16–18; as strategy, 74–80. See also Leadership practice communities
Community School District 2: culture, 122n8; effective practices, 27; PS 198, 111–118; reorganization of, 110
Competency: communication and, 5; educational transformation, 162; mastering core, 39–41; systems thinking, 99–101; and transformation, 112–113; trust and, 136, 165n2
Competing commitments, 87–90, 124–126, 196–198
Compacency, 207
Compliance: communities of practice and, 80; generating momentum and, 74; as organizational tendency, 64, 68–71; vertical accountability and, 135
Conditions: adaptive challenges and, 199–200; for learning at home, 105; systems thinking, 101–102
Connecticut Center for School Change, 80
Consciously immune, 185–186
Consciously released, 185–186
Context, 104–106
Continuous improvement of instruction: ecology of change and, 136, 139–140, 154–157; generating momentum for, 74–78; obstacles vs. momentum, 64–74
Contradictions, welcoming, 225–226
Corning-Painted Post School District (New York): educational transformation, 162–163; enacting systemic change, 154–158; envisioning systemic change, 146–151; preparing for systemic change, 136, 139–142; urgency for change and, 208
Costs, identifying, 169–172
Counterproductive behaviors, 57–58
Craft knowledge, 24, 65, 76
Creative noncompliers, 14
Csikszentmihalyi, Mihaly, 7
Culture: adaptive challenges and, 199–200; Community School District 2, 122; defined, 102; educational transformation, 162; leaders and, 111; organizational, 17; povrecito, 197–198, 219; principals and, 103, 113–114; recommended reading, 262; systems thinking, 102–103, 105; transformation and, 113–119
Curriculum: autonomy with, 71; educational transformation, 162; enacting systemic change, 158; improved instruction and, 104; relevance of, 41–42
D
Data: with accountable collaboration, 31–32; change leadership and, 136; as change lever, 134–137; collecting for Big Assumption test, 178; enacting systemic change, 154–155; envisioning systemic change, 145–147; instructional improvements using, 28, 133; preparing for systemic change, 139–140
Decision-making, 24, 142
Deming, W. Edwards, 75–76
Designing tests, 178–180, 182–183
Desrochers, Donna M., 5
Diagnostic tools/exercises: Challenges to the Big Assumption, 176; Change Phase Diagnostic: Enacting, 159–161, 245–250; Change Phase Diagnostic: Envisioning, 152–153, 245–202; Change Phase Diagnostic: Preparing, 143–145, 245–250; Compliance Versus Engagement Diagnostic, 70–71, 239–240; Define Rigor on a Learning Walk, 45–48, 235–237; Evaluate Your Commitment and Behaviors, 84–85; 4 C’s Diagnostic Tool—As Is, 107–110, 242–244; Groupwide Approach to Diagnosing the Immunity to Change, 251–254; Identifying the Problem, 18–19, 231–232; Isolation Versus Collaboration Diagnostic, 73–74, 241–242; Look Inward: Your Four-Column Immunity Map, 86–92; Make the Commitment, 52–54; Moving Toward the Goal, via the 4 C’s, 119–120; Protocol for Building Communities of Practice, 78–80; Reaction Versus Purpose and Focus Diagnostic, 67–68, 237–239; Recognize Counterproductive Behaviors, 57–58; Refining Problem Statement, 26; Review and Revise Your Strategies, 161; Running the Test, 182; Take Stock:
Diagnostic tools (continued)
Seven Disciplines for Strengthening Instruction, 33–34, 232–233; Test Your Assumption, 179–180; Your Big Assumption in Action, 174–175; Your Big Assumption, Revisited, 183; Your Vision of Success, 172–173
Disciplines to improved instruction, 27–34. See also Seven Disciplines for Strengthening Instruction
Dropout rates, 139–140
Du Fu, 228
DuFour, Rick, 75

E
Edmonson, Amy, 69
Education system. See Public education system
Education Week Research Center, 199
Educational Testing Service, 5
Educators. See Teachers
Effective instruction: competencies, 99–100; conditions for, 102; culture and, 103; as discipline, 30, 32; leadership practice communities and, 77
Effective supervision: competencies, 100–101; conditions for, 102; culture and, 103; as discipline, 30, 32; leadership practice communities and, 77
Enacting phase (systemic change), 133–134, 136–137, 153–161
Engagement: agreement and, 70; compliance and, 68–71
Envisioning phase (systemic change), 133–134, 136–137, 145–153
Escalante, Hyamie, 72
Excellence, random acts of, 16
Exercises. See Diagnostic tools/exercises

F
Failure, 221
Feedback, 178, 182, 184–185
The Fifth Discipline (Senge), 97
Fink, Elaine, 29, 66, 110–114
Focus: communities of practice and, 75; importance of, 112; on priorities, 198–207; reaction and, 65–68
Focus groups: community-wide, 165n5; envisioning systemic change, 148; instructional improvements using, 28; on respectful relationships, 42
Forrester, Jay, 97
Forster, Greg, 2
4 C’s. See Competency; Conditions; Context; Culture

G
Girl Scouts of America, 40
Goleman, Daniel, 5, 10
Good teaching. See Effective instruction
Good to Great (Collins), 208
Graduates, college-readiness of graduates, 2–5, 104
Grand Rapids School District (Michigan): coaching in, 77; educational transformation, 162–163; enacting systemic change, 155–158; envisioning systemic change, 147, 149, 151; As Is–To Be tool, 120–121; preparing for systemic change, 136, 140–143
Greene, Jay, 2
Group effectiveness, 5

H
Hammerman, Jim, 210
Harvard Business School, 69
Harvard University, 223
Heifitz, Ron, 10–11, 195, 209
Hidden commitments: change leadership and, 221, 226; finding, 87–90; personal immunities and, 124–126; SoCal District example, 196–198
Hiebert, James, 75–76, 122n8
Historical events, relevance of, 41
“Home alone,” societal changes and, 7
Horizontal accountability, 135–136, 155–156
House, Gerry, 199
Identifying progress, 169–173

Immunities to change:
- becoming fully released, 187–190; concentrating on change and, 219–221; group-level, 230n15;
- individual, 83–92, 124–129; overturning, 185–187; SoCal District example, 197–198; steps for powerful learning, 184–185; steps toward change, 168–184

Immunity maps: Annenberg grant recipients, 210–211; assumptions and, 86, 91, 127–129; change coach case study, 187–190; exercise, 86–92; hidden commitments, 124–126; importance of, 193–194; of a principal, 201; SoCal District, 196; of superintendents, 203–205, 212

Improved instruction. See Instructional improvement

Individual beliefs and behaviors: attending to countering, 83–85; considerations, 14–16; external risks, 14–15; hidden commitments and immunities, 124–126; investigating, 85–86; uncovering with immunity maps, 194

Individual change:
- immunities to, 83–92; leaders and, 193; organizational change and, 194–195; steps toward, 168–184

Influence, 5

Input. See Feedback

Instructional improvement:
- building and central office administrators and, 198–202; challenges to, 24–26; commitment to, 51–60; conditions for, 102; creating systems based on, 23–24; educational transformation, 162; envisioning systemic change, 145; 4 C’s, 98–110; implications of term, 9; launching, 34; leaders and, 165n3; new 3 R’s of, 38–49; recommended reading, 255–256; Seven Disciplines, 27–34, 133; shared vision for, 35–38; urgency for, 133; using focus groups, 28; using interviews, 28. See also Continuous improvement of instruction; Effective instruction

Integrity, 136, 165n2, 218

Interviews, 28

Isolation: coaches and, 77–78; communities of practice and, 80; culture and, 103; as organizational tendency, 64, 71–74; PS 198 motto, 113

Japan, 76, 122n8

Kearns, David, 3

Keating, John, 72

Kegan, Robert, 190n1

Kinsley, Dale, 16

Knowledge economy, 3–6

Kotter, John, 207

Labor force, 3, 5

Lahey, Lisa, 190n1

Larson, Reed, 7

Leaders: collaborative learning and, 16–18; communication among, 103; communities of practice for, 76–80; concentrating on change, 218–221; culture and, 111; educational transformation, 162; enacting systemic change, 153–161; encouraging new kinds of, 209–213; envisioning systemic change, 145–153; growing on the job, 223; immunities to change, 83–92; improvement and, 165n3, 193; learning and, 175–176; “no shame, no blame, no excuses,” 143; organizational beliefs and behaviors, 11, 13–14; preparing for systemic change, 138–145; principals as, 77, 198–202; prioritizing goals, 100–101; recommended reading, 262; self-reflection and, 56. See also Change leadership

Leadership Academy (San Diego), 29

Leadership practice communities (LPC):
- concentrating on change, 217–221; evolving to, 17, 214–216; overview, 76–80.
  See also Communities of practice

Leading Change (Kotter), 207
Learning: accountability and, 136; change leadership and, 206; changing conditions of, 112; enacting systemic change, 154–159; encouraging, 224–225; leaders and, 175–176; moving toward collaborative, 16–18; PS 198 motto, 114; recommended reading, 255; societal changes and, 6–8; steps for, 184–185; success as, 171; systems thinking and, 105

Learning walks: Big Assumption tests and, 178–179; defining rigor on, 45–48; enacting systemic change, 154, 156

Lesson study process, 122n8

Levy, Frank, 3

Lieberman, Ann, 75

Literacy, teaching: action plan for, 111–113, 147; challenges in, 99–100; commitment to, 66, 110–111; ecology of change and, 140–142, 147, 155; professional development and, 31; systems thinking and, 104

LPC (leadership practice communities): concentrating on change, 218–221; evolving to, 17, 214–216; overview, 76–80

M

MacArthur Foundation “genius prize,” 14

Manhattan Institute for Policy Research, 2

Mason, Perry, 72

Meetings: about effective instruction, 29, 32; educational transformation, 162; enacting systemic change, 156, 158; engagement in, 69–70; improving, 113; LPCs and, 214–215; nature of, 13; preparing for systemic change, 139; principals’, 114; professional development and, 64; systems thinking, 102–103

Meier, Deborah, 14

“Merit badge” approach, 40

Metrics, designing, 169–173

Midcourse correction, 136

Milgram, Stanley, 210

Momentum, 64–74, 138

Murnane, Richard, 3

N

NAEP (National Assessment of Educational Progress), 1

Nagaoka, Jenny K., 39

Names, importance of, 214

A Nation at Risk, 1

National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP), 1

National School Reform Faculty, 75

New 3 R’s framework, 38–49

New York City Public Schools, 14

Newmann, Fred M., 39

“No Child Left Behind,” 1, 11, 164, 195

Obstacles: immunities to change, 83–92; to learning walks, 48; political and structural barriers, 25; self-reflection and, 55–58; vs. momentum for improvement, 64–74

Olmos, Edward James, 72

Organizational change: accepting the challenge, 16–18; change levers, 134–137; communities of practice and, 74–80; creating cultures, 17; ecology of transformation, 162–163; education “problem” and, 11–14; enacting systemic change, 133–134, 136–137, 153–161; envisioning systemic change, 133–134, 136–137, 145–153; generating momentum for, 74; increasing personal capacities through, 226–227; individual change and, 194–195; leaders and, 193; measuring success, 163–165; obstacles to, 64–74; phases of systemic, 133–134; preparing for systemic change, 133–134, 136–145

Outcomes: enacting systemic change, 153; envisioning systemic change, 145; preparing for systemic change, 138–139

Overindulgence, societal changes and, 7

P

Parents: collaboration with, 103, 105; educational transformation, 163; envisioning systemic change, 149–150; responsibility of, 165n2; as source of complaint, 13
Payzant, Tom, 207
Perception gap, 6
Performance standards:
   - ecology of change and, 139–140; educational
transformation, 163–164;
   - enacting systemic change, 154; rigor and, 40; shared
   - vision, 29–30; systems
   - thinking about, 104
Perini, Matthew J., 39
Personal change. See
   - Individual change
Personal management, 5
Personal regard for others,
   - 136, 165n2
Peters, Mark, 28
Phillips, Vicki, 28, 31,
   - 69–70, 146
Plant management, 198–199
Politics, teachers and, 65
Povrecito culture,
   - 197–198, 219
Preparing phase (systemic
   - change), 133–134,
   - 136–145
Principals: autonomy and, 71;
   - culture and, 103, 113–114;
   - developing competencies
   - of, 112–113; encouraging
   - new links of leaders, 210;
   - “growing two heads,” 216;
   - as instructional leaders, 77,
   - 198–202; power structure
   - and, 165n2; reporting
   - structure, 68; Research
   - Center study, 199
Priorities: education reform
   - as, 1; educational
   - transformation, 163;
   - envisioning systemic
   - change, 149; focusing on,
   - 198–207; for goals,
   - 100–101; improving test
   - scores, 65; setting, 102
Problem statement, 26
Professional development:
   - communities of practice
   - and, 75; competencies
   - and, 99; as discipline,
   - 31–32; effective meetings
   - and, 64; enacting systemic
   - change, 154; envisioning
   - systemic change, 145, 147;
   - infrastructure for, 111
Progress, identifying, 169–173
Project Zero (Harvard), 75
PS 198, 111–118
Public Agenda Foundation,
   - 3–4, 6, 43
Public education system:
   - envisioning systemic
   - change, 145–146; identifying
   - problems, 18–19,
   - 231–232; obsolescence of,
   - 9–10; reframing, 1–20;
   - shared accountability for,
   - 140–141
Public perception,
   - managing, 207–208
Qualitative data: envisioning
   - systemic change, 146;
   - instructional improvements
   - using, 28; value of,
   - 134–135
Quantitative data: envisioning
   - systemic change, 146;
   - instructional improvements
   - using, 28
Quantum Leap Project, 142,
   - 146, 158
Random acts of excellence, 16
Relational trust, 136, 165n2
Relationships: as change lever,
   - 134–137; educational
   - transformation, 162;
   - enacting systemic change,
   - 157–159; envisioning
   - systemic change, 149–151;
   - need for, 7; preparing for
   - systemic change, 141–143;
   - renegotiating, 206, 209;
   - respectful, 38, 42–45,
   - 135–136
Relevance, as framework, 38,
   - 41–42, 44–45
Respect: accountability and,
   - 136; for authority, 7–8;
   - culture and, 103; demand
   - for, 4, 28; envisioning
   - systemic change, 150;
   - horizontal accountability
   - and, 135; modeling, 111;
   - preparing for systemic
   - change, 142; trust and,
   - 136, 165n2
Respectful relationships, 38,
   - 42–45, 135–136
Responsiveness, 12
Rigor: defining on learning
   - walk, 45–48, 235–237; as
   - framework, 38–41, 44–45;
   - importance of, 113
Risks, 15–18, 206
Rosier, Paul, 16
Schneider, Barbara, 69, 136,
   - 165n2
School improvement. See
   - Instructional improvement
Scientific method, 40
Security of buildings, 199
Self-control, 7, 20n15
Self-discipline, 7, 20n15
Senge, Peter, 11, 97
Seven Disciplines for
   - Strengthening Instruc-
   - tion: ecology of change
   - and, 133; enacting

Index 263
Seven Disciplines (continued)

Shared vision: developing, 35–38, 147; of student achievement, 29–30; of success, 171–173

Silver, Harvey J., 39

Simulated shock experiment, 209

Snyder, W. M., 75

SoCal District, 196–197

Societal expectations, 3, 6–8, 209

Standards. See Assessment standards; Performance standards

Staples, Judy, 157

Steele-Pierce, Mary Ellen, 48

Steering committees: envisioning systemic change, 146, 148; preparing for systemic change, 139, 142

Step Back Consulting, 78–80

Stigler, James, 75–76, 122n8

Strategies. See Working strategically

Strong, Richard W., 39

Student achievement: at charter schools, 25; ecology of change and, 140; envisioning systemic change, 146–147; focused priorities and, 66; high expectations for, 196–198; principals as educators and, 199; relational trust and, 136; shared accountability for, 140–141; shared vision of, 29–30

Success, defining, 171–172, 220

Superintendents: communities of practice and, 80; fostering feelings of urgency for change, 207–209; immunity maps of, 203–205, 212–213; reporting structure, 68

Supervision. See Effective supervision

Systems, 97

Systems thinking: assumptions in, 127–129; competencies, 99–101; conditions, 101–102; context, 104–106; culture, 102–103; defined, 97; 4 C’s diagnostic tool—as is, 107–110; hidden commitments, 124–126; learning organizations and, 97; phases of organizational change, 133–134; transformation with, 110–120

T

Teachers: blaming others, 8; coaching, 113; communities of practice for, 75–76; competencies and, 99; culture and, 103; decision-making and, 24; developing competencies of, 112–113; educational transformation, 162; encouraging new kinds of leaders, 211; envisioning systemic change, 145; leaders as buffers for, 13; lesson study process, 122n8; power structure and, 165n2; reporting structure, 68; students’ need for relationships with, 7; turnover rates for, 8. See also Professional development

Teaching: changing conditions of, 112; enacting systemic change, 154–159; impact of societal changes on, 6; PS 198 motto, 114. See also Instructional improvement

The Teaching Gap (Stigler and Hiebert), 75, 122n8

Team exercises: Change Phase Diagnostic: Enacting, 159–161, 245–250; Change Phase Diagnostic: Envisioning, 152–153, 245–250; Change Phase Diagnostic: Preparing,
Teamwork: commitment and, 210, 218; educators and, 72; preparing for systemic change, 138; team agreements, 217; trust and, 69

Technical challenges, adaptive vs., 8–12

Technologies, 7, 10–11

Testing, 178–183. See also Performance standards; Student achievement

“Theory of change,” 23

Time, challenges with, 101

Tools. See Diagnostic tools/exercises

TQM (Total Quality Management), 75–76

Transformation: adaptive challenges and, 11; to communities of practice, 17; competencies and, 112–113; of compliance, 68–71; conditions and, 112; context and, 111–112; culture and, 113–119; ecology of, 162–163; 4 C’s, 110–111; of isolation, 71–74; of reaction, 65–68

Trombley, Donald, 141, 146, 207–208

Trust: accountability and, 136; critical lenses, 165n2; educational transformation, 162; envisioning systemic change, 150–151; modeling, 111; preparing for systemic change, 142–143; recommended reading, 256; relational, 135–136, 157, 165n2; team learning and, 69

Trust in Schools (Bryk and Schneider), 136

Turnover rates, 8

Unconscious immunity, 185–186

Unconsciously released, 185, 187

Urgency for change: envisioning systemic change, 146; fostering feelings of, 207–209; instructional improvement and, 28, 133; preparing for systemic change, 138–140

Vertical accountability, 135–136

Vocabulary, lack of shared, 29, 34

Waller, Willard, 227

Ward, Michael, 15, 17, 207–208, 212–213, 223

Welby, Marcus, 72

Wenger, E., 75

West Clermont Public School District: adaptive challenges and, 212; effective instruction and, 48; internal risks and, 15; measuring success, 164; urgency for change and, 28, 207

Williams, Robin, 72

Working strategically: change levers, 134–137; communities of practice and, 74–80; ecology of transformation, 162–163; focusing relentlessly on priorities, 198–202; measuring success, 163–165; midcourse correction, 136; phases of organizational change, 133–134; phases of systemic change, 138–161

Writing skills, 4–5, 104