Index

A
The Active Life (Palmer), 21
Active listening, 136–137
Addams, Jane, 149
Agency, as problem for board members, 32–33
Albrecht, Karl, 139, 140
Andover Newton Laity Project, 171–172, 176, 274n12
Asking questions, 57–58
Autry, James, 18, 23, 47, 71
Awareness: as characteristic of servant-leaders, 14, 72, 143;
Greenleaf on, 80, 208; and levels of perspective, 209–213; in organizational context, 142–145; in philanthropic institutions, 80–81

B
Bakke, Kristin, 121, 126
Batten, Joe, 163
Bellah, Robert, 33
Ben and Jerry’s Ice Cream, 144, 156–157
Benefits-based management (BBM), 146–147, 158
Bennis, Warren, xi, 49, 71, 148
Biel, Amy, 267
Blanchard, Ken, 10, 20, 71, 153, 156
Block, Peter, 15, 20, 23, 49, 71, 85, 154
Board chairperson: personal qualities of, 44–46; relationship between CEO and, 38–39, 41; servant-leadership role of, 42–46
Board members. See Trustees
Board of trustees, 25–46; acting as unitary body, 37–38, 40–41; agendas for, 41; conceptualization by, 14–15, 35–36; governance as responsibility of, 41, 42, 43; poor functioning of, 25–26; relationship to CEO, 38–41, 43–44; relationship to staff, 31, 34, 35, 36–37; as servant to owners, 30–32. See also Board chairperson; Governance; Trustees
Body Shop, 144
Bogle, John C., 91
Bordas, Juana, 21
Borysenko, Joan, 50
Branson, Richard, 153
Broholm, Richard, 167, 171, 173
Buddhism, 261–262
“Building a Model Institution” (Greenleaf), 96
Building community: as characteristic of servant-leaders, 16, 73; Greenleaf on, 16, 87–88, 228; in organizational context, 158; in philanthropic institutions, 87–88; turnover reduced by, 51–52
Burke, Edmund, 253
Burkhardt, John C., 71
Burnett, Bob, 48
Bush, George Sr., xv
Bush, George Jr., xv

C
“Calling” (Kim), 223–224
Calvin, John, 185
Calvin College, 160
Camus, Albert, 5–6, 7
Caring: mediated through institutions, 100, 168–169; in Vanguard Group, 100, 101, 102; in workplace, 55–56
Carlzon, Jan, 139
Carver, John, 19, 25
CEO: board chairperson’s relationship with, 44–45; board’s relationship with, 38–41, 43–44
Chairman of board. See Board chairperson
Change: constant state of, 133, 141–142; in corporate culture, 50–53; dialogue important for initiating, 234–235; and fear, 52–53, 120; participation necessary for, 262–264; social, and philanthropic institutions, 74
Choices, hierarchy of, 217–219, 221
Churches: Greenleaf’s vision of role for, 172–173, 174–177, 199, 200, 273nn10, 12; theology of institutions advocated by, 169–172, 173–174. See also Religion; Theology of institutions
Clarkson, Will, 60
Collaboration, 113–131; communication needed for, 121–122; crises handled in, 126–127; differences and similarities in, 123–126; facilitator’s role in, 127; financing for, 127–128; meaning of term, 115–117; not focused on problem solving, 117–119; recommendations for, 130–131; relationships necessary for, 114; risk as element of, 119–121; synchronicity achieved by, 128–130; written agreement for, 122
Collaborative Leadership (Crislip and Larson), 116
Combining Service and Learning (National Society for Experiential Education), 20
Command and control, 244, 255
Commitment to growth of people: as characteristic of servant-leaders, 15–16, 73; Greenleaf on, 84–85, 134; in organizational context, 155–158; in philanthropic institutions, 84–85
Communication: consequences of ineffective, 135; needed for collaboration, 121–122. See also Dialogue; Listening
Community building. See Building community
Community leadership programs, 19
COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP. See National Association for Community Leadership (COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP)
Conceptualization: as characteristic of servant-leaders, 14–15, 73; in organizational context, 147–150; by philanthropic institutions, 83–84
Confessions of an Accidental Businessman (Autry), 56
Conflict resolution, xiv–xvi, 54–55
Connectedness. See Building community; Interconnectedness
Control: impossibility of, 255; lack of, of events, 243–244; order from chaos without, 219–221
Conversation. See Dialogue
Corporate culture, changing, 50–53
Cosby, Gordon, 175
Courage, to speak up about wrongs, 251, 253–254
Covey, Stephen, 10, 18, 23, 71, 115, 130, 143–144, 148, 165
“Create Dangerously” (Camus), 5–6
Crislip, David, 116
Critical education, 266
Criticism, limitations of, 5
Cultures: corporate, 50–53; traditional, 21–22
Cycle of service, 139–140

D
Dahl, Robert, 159
De Geus, Arie, 203–204
“Death Bed Meditation” (Autry), 64–65
“Death in the Family” (Autry), 63
DeGraaf, Don, 133
Deming, W. Edwards, 204
DePree, Max, 10, 18, 20, 23, 71, 241
Deputy, Paul, 230
Dialogue: as component of persuasion, 146; as hope for future, 265–267; importance of, xv, 234–235; increasing participants in, 251–253; rules of, and theology of institutions, 198–199.
See also Listening
Dilbert, 251
Directors. See Trustees
“Doing no harm,” 242
Door-openers, in listening, 136
Dreams: grandfather without, 225–226; necessity of, 106, 226
Drucker, Peter, xiii, 25, 71

E
Editing, Autry on, 66–67
Education: critical, 266; experiential, 19–20; leadership, 20, 71; preoccupation with criticism in, 5; of trustees, 18–19
Ego, overcoming, 56–58, 67
Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 5
Empathy: as characteristic of servant-leaders, 13, 72, 137–138, 235; needed by leaders, 53; in organizational context, 138–140; in philanthropic institutions, 76–77; techniques for developing, 138–140
Employees, nurturing growth of, 15–16
Empowering Laity for Their Full Ministry (Andover Newton Laity Project), 172
Engineered Products, 188–190, 191–197, 275n21
“The Ethic of Strength” (Greenleaf), 87
Expectations, and empathy development, 138–139
Experiential education, 19–20

F
“A Fable” (Greenleaf), 175
Fackre, Gabriel, 171, 186
Faith At Work, 200
Falls Down, Tim, 230
Faulkner, William, 63
Fear: of aging and dying, 257; of loss vs. change, 120; organizations based on, 249, 255; as reason for resistance to change, 52–53; of speaking up about wrongs, 251, 253
Ferch, Shann R., 225
A Few Good Men, 220–221
Fifth Discipline (Senge), 49
Follett, Mary Parker, xii
Forecasting, vs. predicting, 203–204, 208
Foresight, 201–222; and awareness, 208–209; as characteristic of servant-leaders, 15, 72–73; in context of complexity, 202–208; Greenleaf on, 82, 99–100, 201; and hierarchy of choices, 217–219, 221; how to develop, 152; importance of, 222; lack of, as ethical failure, 201–202; and levels of perspective, 209–213; and order from chaos without control, 219–221; in organizational context, 150–153; in philanthropic institutions, 81–83; in Vanguard Group, 99–100, 101, 102; and vision, 213–217; when facing dilemma with poor options, 195–196
Forgiveness, 225; accompanying servant-leadership, 227, 228; asking for, 231–232; healing accompanying, 267; reconciliation obtained through, 235–238
Foundation for Community Encouragement, 60
Foundations. See Philanthropic institutions
Francis of Assisi, Saint, 75
Freire, Paulo, 234, 266
Fritz, Robert, 217–218

G
Gadamer, Hans-Georg, 234
Gardner, John, 28, 178
Geneen, Harold, 25–26
Giamatti, A. Bartlett, 28
Goal, for Greenleaf’s model institution, 96, 97
Goal-setting, by boards of trustees, 32
Godbey, Geoffrey, 140
Governance: CEO’s role in, 41; defined, 25; need for paradigm shift in, 25–26, 28; as responsibility of boards, 41, 42, 43
Governing board. See Board of trustees
Greenleaf Center for Servant-Leadership: growth of, 22–23; joint conference with COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP, 115–130; logo of, 23; relationship built with COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP, 114; relocated to Indianapolis, 113–114
Greenleaf, Robert K., xiii, 1, 10, 14, 227, 231, 238, 242; on awareness, 80, 208; on building community, 16, 87–88, 228; call for theology of institutions, 168–169, 172–173, 174–177, 273n12; career of, 11, 94–95; on caring, 100, 168–169; on changing institutions, 26, 29; on commitment to growth of people, 84–85, 134; on conceptualization, 83, 84; on empathy, 76, 77, 235; on foresight, 82, 99–100, 201; on future of servant-leadership, 3–6; on healing, 13–14, 235; influence of, 18, 49, 60–62, 71–72, 95–96, 241; on listening, 74, 75, 232; model institution outlined by, 17–18, 96–97, 100; and origin of term servant-leader, 1–2, 11, 133; on persuasion, 78–79, 80; and philanthropic institutions, 73–74; on prophecy, 2–3; on roles of servant-leaders, 6–7, 9, 12, 89; similarity between phrases of Bogle and, 105–107; on stewardship, 86–87; on superior company and liberating vision, 102–103; on transforming small businesses into large institutions, 107–108, 109; on trustees, 26, 32, 35, 37–38, 76, 78; vision of role for churches, 173–174, 174–177, 199, 200, 273nn10, 12. See also specific publications by Greenleaf
Growth: of Greenleaf Center for Servant-Leadership, 22–23; of servant-leadership movement, 22–24, 88, 133–134. See also Commitment to growth of people
Gruenfeld, Lee, 35

H
Haas, Janet, 72
Healing: as characteristic of servant-leaders, 13–14, 72; conversation resulting in, 267; motive for, 235; in organizational context, 140–142; as role of philanthropic institutions, 77–78
Heifetz, Ronald, 120, 124, 129
Helping, vs. meddling, 204–206, 208
Heschel, Abraham Joshua, 76, 175
Hesse, Hermann, 1–2, 7, 11
Hesselbein, Frances, 71
Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 152
Human beings: leaders serving, 250; recognition of spirit (soul) of, 246–247; Vanguard as serving, 98, 101
Hunt, Michele, 148
I

Identity, as dimension of organizational life, 186–187, 194
Idle dreams, vs. visions, 215, 217
“The Institution as Servant” (Greenleaf), 83, 168–169
Institutions: caring mediated through, 100, 168–169; human spirit not recognized in, 249–250; importance of relationships in, 258–259; large, transforming small businesses into, 107–110; model, outlined by Greenleaf, 17–18, 96–97, 100; process for holding, in trust, 190–197. See also Philanthropic institutions; Theology of institutions
Integrity, and servant-leadership characteristics, 163
Interconnectedness, 49–50, 80, 151–152, 244
It’s a Wonderful Life, 247–248, 251

J

Jaworski, Joseph, 71, 80, 124, 129
Jesus: mentioned in work of Tagore, 64; model of organizational life based on, 185–188; as model of servant-leadership, 67–68; for vs. against statement of, 55
John XXIII, Pope, 175
Johnson, Howard W., 100–101
Journey to the East (Hesse), 1–2, 7, 11
Julian of Norwich, 253

K

Kellogg Foundation, 19
Kennedy, John F., 214
Kim, Daniel H., 201, 224
King, Martin Luther, Jr., 236–237, 238, 239
Kouzes, Jim, 71

L

Land, Edwin M., 99
Lao-Tzu, 150–151
Larson, Carl, 116
Lawrence, Michele, 121, 129
Leaders: characteristics of, 53; creating future, 256–257. See also Servant-leaders
Leaders: The Strategies for Taking Charge (Bennis and Nanus), 148
Leadership: after September 11, 242–244; based on persuasion, 78–80; as being vs. doing, 27; as changing worldview, 265; community leadership programs, 19; and followership, 97, 98; key attributes of, xiii–xiv; in public sector, 58–60; questions vs. statements by, 57–58; as role of trustees, 32–37; values as concern of, 29–30; values-based, 50–52. See also Servant-leadership
Leadership and the New Science (Wheatley), 49, 245, 254, 258, 264–265
“Leadership as Partnership” (Moxley), 113
Leadership by the Book: Tools to Transform Your Workplace (Blanchard), 153
“The Leadership Crisis” (Greenleaf), 79
Leadership education, 20, 71
Learning: lifelong, 148; service, 19–20
Learning organizations, 80
Leo, 1, 7
“Leo” (Autry), 63
Leopold, Aldo, 155
Levels of perspective: action modes associated with, 209–213; leading from higher, 213–217
Lewin, Kurt, 28
Lilly Endowment Inc., 19, 114, 128, 174
Listening: active, 136–137; as characteristic of servant-leaders, 13, 72, 135, 232; healing as result of, 267; in organizational context, 135–137; in philanthropic institutions, 74–76; reflective, 136; Tolstoy story about, 233–234. See also Dialogue
Lord, James Gregory, 71
Lore, John, 71
Love, in corporate setting, 48–49, 55–56, 258–259
Love and Profit (Autry), 49
Lowe, Jack, 17, 121
Luther Seminary (St. Paul, Minn.), 176, 200, 274n12
Lynn, Robert, 175

M
MacGregor, Douglas, xii–xiii
Mahadeva, Mano, 121
Managers: difficulty of conceptualization for, 14; middle, change resisted by, 52–53
Managing as a Performing Art (Vaill), 49
Mandela, Nelson, 236, 237, 238
May, Rollo, 31
McGee-Cooper, Ann, 21
McLaughlin, M., 143
Meddling, vs. helping, 204–206, 208
Meditation, 260–261
"Memo on Growing from Small to Large" (Greenleaf), 107–108, 109
Men’s Wearhouse, 17
Mental imagery, to build empathy, 139
Metropolitan Associates of Philadelphia (MAP), 169–171
Military: change in type of leadership in, 244; future-oriented thinking in, 256
Mission statements: personal, 144; showing commitment to virtues, 160
Modus operandi, for Greenleaf’s model institution, 97, 98–99
Moral ownership, by board of trustees, 30–31
Morikawa, Andrew, 119
Morikawa, Jitsuo, 169–170, 173
Mosley, Russ, 113
Muir, John, 151
Murray, Milton, 71
Mutual fund industry, 92–93. See also Vanguard Group

N
Nanus, B., 148
National Association for Community Leadership (COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP): joint conference with Greenleaf Center for Servant-Leadership, 115–130; relationship built with Greenleaf Center for Servant-Leadership, 114; relocated to Indianapolis, 113
National Society for Experiential Education (NSEE), 20
Neal, Larry, 133
“The Need for a Theology of Institutions” (Greenleaf), 174, 176–177, 199, 200
Noble, John, 47, 241
North Korea, xv

O
Objectives, vs. visions, 216, 217
Oklahoma City National Memorial, 141
Old Bull, Elvis, 230
Oliver, Mary, 65
“On Firing a Salesman” (Autry), 63
Organizational structure, for Greenleaf’s model institution, 97, 98–99
Organizations. See Institutions
Our Town (Wilder), 142
Overton, Betty, 71

P
Palmer, Parker, 21
Participation: changing tone of conversation by increasing, 251–253; necessary for change, 262–264
Passion, and servant-leadership characteristics, 163–164
The Path of Least Resistance (Fritz), 217
Payton, Robert, 71
Peck, George, 171, 274n12
Peck, M. Scott, 19, 21, 23, 50, 60, 71
Personal courage, 251, 253–254
Personal mission statements, 144
Personal transformation, 21
Persuasion: as characteristic of servant-leaders, 14, 72; in organizational context, 145–147; by philanthropic institutions, 78–80
Peters, Tom, 28
Philanthropic institutions, 71–89; advocates of servant-leadership in, 71–72; awareness in, 80–81; building community in, 87–88; changes in, 74; commitment to growth of people in, 84–85; conceptualization by, 83–84; empathy in, 76–77; foresight in, 81–83; healing role of, 77–78; listening in, 74–76; persuasion by, 78–80; social change promoted by, 74; stewardship by, 85–87
Plenty Hawk, Juneau, 230
"Pluralistic Reflections on Servant-Leadership" (Bordas), 21
Policy Governance model, 27, 29, 34
Politics: leadership in, 58–60; religion in, 60
Power: based on persuasion, 78–80, 145; legitimate, 227–228; and success of large institutions, 109–110
Predicting, vs. forecasting, 203–204, 208
Pretty Paint, Joe, 230
Prophecy, 2–3
Public sector, leadership in, 58–60
Purpose, as dimension of organizational life, 187, 194
Putnam, Robert, 159

Q
Quakers, 14
Questions, vs. statements by leaders, 57–58

R
Reactors, in listening, 137
Reconciliation, 225, 235–238
Reflection: to develop awareness, 143; and servant-leadership characteristics, 163. See also Spiritual disciplines
Reflections on Leadership (Spears), 133
Reflective listening, 136
Relationships: importance of, in organizations, 258–259; necessary for collaboration, 114, 130; work satisfaction from, 54–55
Religion: models of servant-leadership from, 67–69; in politics, 60. See also Churches; Spiritual disciplines; Spirituality; Theology of institutions
Religious Society of Friends (Quakers), 14
Restorative justice, 235–238
Rides Horse, Stanford, 230
The Road Less Traveled (Peck), 21, 50
Roddick, Anita, 145
Rosso, Henry, 71
Roundface, Marty, 230
Rumi, 64, 65

S
Sampson, Patsy, 21–22
Schoeninger, Douglas, 198
Seminaries, Greenleaf’s vision for role of, 175–177, 273n12
Senge, Peter, 10, 18, 19, 20, 23, 27, 49, 71, 80
September 11, 2001, 242–244, 259
“The Servant as Leader” (Greenleaf), 11, 13–14, 17, 75, 76, 82, 95, 105, 133, 168, 195, 201
Servant-leaders: need for, 89; origin of term, 1–2, 11; as servants first, 6–7, 9, 12
Servant-leaders, characteristics of: applied to organizational life, 135–162; applied to philanthropic institutions, 74–88; common themes in, 163–164; overviews of, 13–16, 72–73; relationship among, 162. See also specific characteristics
Servant-leadership: answering call to, 223–224; as both/and term, 133, 134, 151, 164; contemporary applications of, 16–21; defined, 133–134; importance of, xi-xii; origin of term, 1–2, 11, 133; as paradox, 10, 21, 24; presenting concept of, 61–62; value in contemporary context, 226–227

Servant-Leadership (Greenleaf), 18, 95

Servant-leadership movement: future of, 3–6, 9–10, 268; growth of, 22–24, 88, 133–134

“Servant-Leadership Revisited” (Blanchard), 156

Servants: board of trustees as, to owners, 30–32; how to become, 67–69; as primary role of servant-leaders, 6–7, 9, 12

Service-learning programs, 19–20

ServiceMaster Company, 17

Shannon, James, 72

Social capital, 159

Social justice, retributive vs. restorative, 235–238

South Africa, forgiveness and reconciliation in, 237–238, 267

Southwest Airlines, 17, 20

Speaking out about wrongs, 251–254

Spears, Larry C., 9, 47, 71, 113, 118, 121, 123, 126, 133, 134, 241

Speth, David, 167

Spengler, Otto, 245

Spiritual disciplines: Buddhism as, 261–262; to maintain open heart, 259–261; to overcome ego, 56–57, 67

Spirituality: and healing, 140; intersection of work and, 61–62; in workplace, 245–247. See also Religion; Theology of institutions

Spotted Bear, Marc, 230

Stakeholders, board of trustees as, 30–31

Starbucks, 17

Statistical process control (SPC) techniques, 207

Stewardship: as characteristic of servant-leaders, 15, 73; defined, 15, 85, 153, 154; as dimension of organizational life, 188, 194; in organizational context, 153–155; by philanthropic institutions, 85–87

Stewardship: Choosing Service Over Self-Interest (Block), 154

Stock price, emphasis on, 51

Strange attractors, 220

A Strategy of Hope (Metropolitan Associates of Philadelphia), 170–171

Sullivan, Gordon R., 256, 257

“The Summer Day” (Oliver), 65

Synovus Financial Corporation, 17, 20

T

Tagore, Rabindranath, 63–64

Takes Enemy, Jonathan, 229–231

TDIndustries (TD), 17

Teacher as Servant (Greenleaf), 86

Theology of institutions, 167–200; approach to developing, 177–181; church leaders advocating, 169–172, 173–174; contemporary climate for, 167–168; and gathering to hold institutions in trust, 190–197; Greenleaf’s call for, 168–169, 172–173, 174–177, 273n12; premises about institutions underlying, 181–185, 188–190; and Threefold Model of Organizational Life, 185–188, 197–198; work to be done on, 197–200

“Threads” (Autry), 63

“The Three Hermits” (Tolstoy), 233–234

Threefold Model of Organizational Life, 183, 185–188, 197–198

Threefold Office of Christ, 185–188

Tilley, Colin, 133

Tocqueville, Alexis de, 33

Tolstoy, Aleksey, 233–234

Toro Company, 17
Toynbee, Arnold, 245
Training, of trustees, 18–19, 28
Trustees: agency as problem for,
32–33; education and training of,
18–19, 28; Greenleaf on, 26, 32,
35, 37–38; independent, for
Greenleaf’s model institution, 97, 99; leadership role of, 32–37; in philanthropic institutions, 76, 78.
See also Board of trustees
“Trustees as Servants” (Greenleaf),
18, 26
Truth in Reconciliation Commission,
237–238, 267
Turning to One Another (Wheatley),
261, 265–266
Turnover, reduced by building
community, 51–52
Tutu, Desmond, 236, 237, 238

U
U.S. Cellular, 20

V
Vaill, Peter, 49, 71, 141
Values, leadership’s concern with,
29–30
Values-based management, 50–52
Values-led businesses, 144
Vanguard Group, 91–111; Bogle’s
Greenleaf-like phrases at, 105–107;
Bogle’s stepping down as head of,
108–110; caring in, 100, 101, 102;
foresight in, 99–100, 101, 102; similarity to Greenleaf’s model institution, 96–99; statistics on success of,
93–94; success of servant-leadership at, 110–111; unconventional thinking at, 103–105
Vision: confusion over meaning of,
215–217; in contemporary workplace, 254–256; as level of perspective, 213; liberating, 102–103; need for, 147, 150, 214; relationship between foresight and, 214
Vision statements, 216, 217
Visualization, to build empathy,
139–140

W
Walls, Wendell J., 113, 117
Watson, William, 142
Wheatley, Margaret, 10, 18, 23, 49,
71, 80, 118, 129, 241
Wilder, Thornton, 142
Wink, Walter, 181–182
Wisely, Susan, 72
Women: servant-leadership understood by, 21–22; in workforce, 50–51
Woolman, John, 175
Workplace: caring in, 55–56;
spirituality in, 245–247; vision in,
254–256
A World Waiting to Be Born (Peck), 19

Y
Yeats, William Butler, 65
You Don’t Have to Go Home from Work Exhausted! (McGee-Cooper),
21

Z
Zemke, Ron, 139
Zohar, Danah, 71