Index

Note: Page references in italics refer to figures.

A
abbreviations, for texting, 244 Abraham, Richard, 249–250 achievement need, 250 actions, controlling, 6 adaptive mindset (adopt, adapt, adept), 11–12 AMMO framework, 225, 227–233, 228 anchor, for RBO Turnaround Framework, 186, 186, 187 Angelou, Maya, 101
appointments
asking for, 143–144
(See also message)
planning in-person prospecting (IPP) around, 204, 205 scheduling, 72, 74–76
See also in-person prospecting (IPP) Arruda, William, 117 “ask” assumptive “ask,” 148–151
e-mail prospecting for, 227–233
in-person prospecting (IPP) and, 210 message for, 146–147
for RBO Turnaround Framework, 186, 186, 188 attachments, e-mail and, 217 attention, of prospects, 134–135, 165, 165, 167. See also message attitude, 260–262
awareness, content curation and, 127

B
balanced approach, for prospecting, 20–24 “because,” 140–143, 168–170
Berra, Yogi, 71
biographical profiles, for social selling, 117–118, 119 blocking, of time, 56–57 body language, 149–151
bounced e-mail, 218
boundaries, setting, 53 branding, Law of Familiarity and, 102–104 breakfast, 259–260
brevity, 243
bridging
with e-mail, 227, 230–231
message and, 141–143
with telephone prospecting, 168–170
Brooks, Mike, 194
Brown, Brené, 178
brush-off, defined, 182. See also reflex responses, brush-offs, objections (RBOs) bulk e-mail, avoiding, 216–217, 218 Burke, Sean, 97
buying-cycle awareness, 121–122

C
calling-other-extensions hack, 196–197 calling prospects. See telephone prospecting call reluctance, 45–46
Canva.com, 117
CEO mindset, 51–52
Chamfort, Nicholas, 177
Churchill, Winston, 248
Cialdini, Robert, 139–140
Cicero, 254
closing
as core objective, 72, 80–81
in–person prospecting (IPP) and, 206, 207
Law of Replacement and, 29–31 prospecting problem versus closing problem, 28 cold calling
need for, 13–19
social media and, 108–110
(See also social selling)
Take the Cold Out of Cold Calling (Richter), 122
See also message; telephone prospecting Comm 100, 217
competitive mindset, 10, 249–250 concentration, need for, 60–62 confidence, 135–137, 148–151, 207 confident mindset, 11, 136 connecting with e-mail, 223–224, 227–228
with gatekeepers, 195
social selling and, 123–125
See also message
consistency, social selling and, 128 contact information leaving information on voice mail messages, 171–174, 174
social selling and, 118, 123
contact rate, for telephone prospecting, 156–157 content creation, 125–126, 129–130 content curation, 126–127, 129 correlation
of e-mail, 223–224
social selling and, 127–128
cortisol, 136
cover image, for social selling, 117 CRM
importance of, 92–95
for in–person prospecting (IPP), 205, 207 Croner, Chris, 249–250
cross-linking, of social profile pages, 118 Cuddy, Amy, 136
customer referrals, 99

database, importance of, 92–95 decision making, prospecting pyramid for, 84–91, 88 deliberation, 54, 55–56
De Sena, Joe, 5 desire, for mental toughness, 250–252 diet, 259–260
direct connecting, social selling and, 124 disrupters, for RBO Turnaround Framework, 186, 186, 187–188 distractions, avoiding, 62–63, 64–66 distribution, social selling and, 130 diversification, of prospects, 20–24 Duckworth, Angela, 247
eating, for health, 259–260 Eat That Frog (Tracy), 177 efficiency, tracking sales calls and, 36–40 efficient mindset, 11
e–mail, as distraction, 64–66 e–mail prospecting, 214–234 AMMO framework for, 225, 227–233, 228 avoiding gatekeepers and, 196
overview, 214–215
practice for, 233
preparation for, 224, 224–227
proofreading e–mail, 234 Three Cardinal Rules of, 216, 216–224 timing of e-mail, 233–234 emotion, bridging with, 144–145 engagement
social selling and, 130
text messaging and, 242–243
enthusiasm conveying, 135–137, 148–151 enthusiastic mindset, 10 exercise, 257–258

F
failure, attracting, 26–27 familiarity. See Law of Familiarity Fanatical Prospecting
Fanatical Prospecting Boot Camp, 51, 155
Gold Level access to, 48 Web site resources of, 51, 60, 113, 129 fanatical prospecting techniques avoiding sales slumps, 28, 31–35 balanced approach for, 20–24 cold calling and, 13–19
as contact sport, 73–74 defined, 3
Law of Replacement and, 29–31
mindsets of fanatical prospectors, 9–12 motivation for, 266–270
need for, 1–8
objectives of, 71–83
as persistent and consistent, 98 Power Hours for, 58–59
social prospecting tools, 107, 128–130 telephone as most powerful tool for, 157–158 30-Day Rule for, 27–29
time spent on, 25–26
tracking sales calls, 36–40
Universal Law of Need and, 26–27
“when it is time to go home, make one more call” (mantra), 264–265 See also CRM; e-mail prospecting; gatekeepers; in-person prospecting (IPP); Law of Familiarity; mental toughness; message; objectives; prospecting pyramid; reflex responses, brush-offs, objections (RBOs); social selling; telephone prospecting; text messaging; time management fear, of “no,” 18–19, 150–151, 158–160 first impression, importance of, 115, 194
Five Cs of social selling, 107, 123–128 Fiverr.com, 117
flexible mindset, 11–12 focus, 59–62
four pillars of mental toughness desire, 250–252
learning, 254–257
mental resilience, 252–254
overview, 250
physical resilience, 257–260
“14 Signs Your Perfectionism Has Gotten Out of Control” (Gregoire), 44
Fuller, Ryan, 56

G
Gandhi, Mohandas, 254
Gao, Kevin, 217
gatekeepers, 193–200
avoiding, 195, 196–197, 202 dealing with, 194–196
defined, 193–194
Gitomer, Jeffrey, 148 go-around-back hack, 199–200
Golden Hours, 50, 52–55, 69
Gregoire, Carolyn, 44
“Grit: Perseverance and Passion for Long-Term Goals” (Duckworth), 247 Guide to Social Selling Tools, 129

H
handwritten notes
for avoiding gatekeepers, 196 networking with, 239 Harvard University, 136, 140–141 headshots, for social selling, 116 honesty, 195
hook, for e-mail message, 227, 228–230 hormones, conveying confidence and, 136–137 Horstman’s Corollary, 57–59 hot prospects, cold calling, 17–18 Hub-and-Spoke Technique, 204–205
Hubspot, 131
Huffington Post, 44
hyperlinks
e-mail and, 217
texting and, 244
I Iannarino, Anthony, 64, 65, 66 identification, transparency of, 168, 194, 208–209, 243 images, e-mail and, 217 “I’m so much better at . . .” excuse, 20–21 inbound prospecting, social selling and, 120–121, 130–131 inflection, importance of, 149–151 Influence (Cialdini), 139–140 information gathering, 72, 76–80, 122, 205, 209. See also preparation; research in-person prospecting (IPP), 201–213
avoiding gatekeepers and, 196, 202
Five-Step Hub-and-Spoke Technique for, 204–205 Five-Step process for, 207, 208, 208–210, 210 limited application of, 202–204
overview, 201–202
preparing for, 205–207
“sales goggles” for, 211–213
T-Call technique, 202
intelligence gathering, social selling and, 130 intent, content curation and, 127 interrupting cold calling as, 13–19, 110 “What’s in it for me?” (WIIFM) and, 137–140
K
KiteDesk, 97
Konrath, Jill, 138

Index

L
Langer, Ellen, 140–141
Law of Familiarity, 96–104 building familiarity as core objective, 72, 81–83 caring trust of prospects, 97
e-mail prospecting and, 219–220 engaging prospects and, 96–97 Familiarity Threshold, 97
in-person prospecting (IPP) and, 205
networking and, 100–101
persistent and consistent prospecting for, 98 personal brand and, 103–104 recognized brands and, 102–103 referrals and introductions for, 98–100
social selling and, 119–120
text messaging and, 237–238
Law of Replacement, 29–31
Law of Triviality, 69
Lead360, 236, 237
learning, 254–257
Lee, Kendra, 229
LinkedIn
networking follow-up and, 101 for social selling, 113, 118, 131
texting and, 239
Little Red Book of Selling, The (Gitomer), 148
Loehr, James, 246–247
M meetings. See appointments; in-person prospecting (IPP) mental toughness, 245–263 attitude and, 260–262
as choice, 247–250
desire, 250–252
four pillars of, 250–260 mindset and, 6–8, 9–12, 51–52, 136, 249–250 overcoming complacency, 262–263
overview, 245–247
message, 132–153
the “ask” and, 146–147
bridging to “because,” 141–143, 168–170
Index

connecting with, 123–125, 195, 223–224, 227–228 conveying enthusiasm and confidence with, 135–137, 148–151 conveying with texting, 243 for e-mail prospecting, 224, 224–227 descriptions of, 144–146 giving prospect’s attention with, 134–135, 165, 165, 167 importance of silence for, 152–153
overview, 132–134
power of “because,” 140–141
preparation for, 143–144
“What’s in it for me?” (WIIFM) and, 137–140, 231–233
See also telephone prospecting mindset of CEO, 51–52
competitive, 10, 249–250
confident, 11, 136
controlling, 6–8
mindsets of fanatical prospectors, 9–12
See also mental toughness mobile devices, as distractors, 62–63 motivation, 266–270
multitasking, problem of, 60–62
Murray, Henry, 250

N need for achievement, 250 negative emotion, recognizing, 33–34 networking
Law of Familiarity and, 100–101
text messaging and, 238–239, 239
Never Hire a Bad Salesperson (Crone, Abraham), 249–250
New Sales Simplified (Weinberg), 139 nonsales activity, time for, 52–55.
See also time management nonverbal communication, 135–137, 148–151 nutrition, 259–260

O
objections, defined, 183. See also reflex responses, brush-offs, objections (RBOs) objectives, 71–83
building familiarity, 81–83 closing sale, 80–81
gathering information and qualifying prospect, 76–80
for in-person prospecting (IPP), 207
overview, 71–74
for scheduled phone blocks, 162–163 setting an appointment, 74–76 of social selling, 107, 113–114 optimistic mindset, 10, 249–250 outbound marketing
cold calling and, 13–19
social selling and, 130–131
See also e-mail prospecting;
in-person prospecting (IPP);
networking; social selling;
television prospecting; text messaging

P
Palmer, Arnold, 34
paralysis from analysis, 45–46
Parkinson’s Law, 57
passive connecting, social selling and, 125 pauses, avoiding, 165–166 perfectionism, 43–45
personal branding
Law of Familiarity and, 103–104
social selling and, 114–119
personalization, need for, 207 personal referrals, 99
Photo Feeler, 116
physical resilience, 257–260
physiological responses, 136–137
Platinum Hours, 54, 58–59, 66–67
“please,” using twice, 194 podcasts, 257
Possible Value Propositions, 138
Power Hours, 58–59, 163
Power of Vulnerability (Brown), 178 power posing, 13
Power Statements, 139
preparation
for e-mail prospecting, 224, 224–227 Platinum Hours for, 66–67 practice for e-mail prospecting, 233 prioritizing, 53–54. See also time management procrastination, 41–43
professional referrals, 99 profiles, for social selling, 117–118, 119 proofreading
  of e-mail, 234
  of text messages, 244
prospecting pyramid, 84–91 managing, 86–88, 88
  overview, 84–86
  powerful lists for, 89–91
qualification of prospects as core objective, 72, 76–80 prospecting pyramid for, 84–91, 88 reactions, controlling, 6 reading, to learn, 254–257 Real Secrets of the Top 20 Percent, The (Brooks), 194 reciprocal connecting, social selling and, 124–125 referrals, 98–100
reflex responses, brush-offs, objections (RBOs), 178–192 brush-off, 182
  examples, 189–190
  fear of rejection, 18–19, 150–151, 158–160 handling, 153
  moving on after, 188–190 objections, 183
  overview, 178–179
  as personal rejection, 179–181 planning for, 183–185
  reflex response, 181–182
  Turnaround Framework for, 184, 185–188, 186, 210 rejection. See reflex responses, brush-offs, objections (RBOs) relating, with e-mail message, 228, 230 relentless mindset, 11 research
  importance of, 44, 66–67
  information gathering, 72, 76–80, 122, 205, 209 Index
for in-person prospecting (IPP), 205–207
social selling for, 122, 143–144 See also preparation resilience
  mental, 252–254
  physical, 257–260
Richter, Sam, 122
Robertson, Kelly, 209–210
Rohn, Jim, 7, 49
Sales Blog, The, 64
“Sales Gods” phenomenon, 34
“sales goggles,” 211–213
Sales Gravy
  business practices of, 236
  Golden Hours, 50, 52–55, 69
  outbound prospecting calls by, 58
  Power Hours, 58–59, 163
See also Fanatical Prospecting Sales Magnet, The (Lee), 229 salespeople-help-salespeople hack, 197–199 sales pipeline, 20–24, 25–35
  avoiding sales slumps, 28, 31–35
  balanced approach to, 20–24
  Law of Replacement for, 29–31
  30-Day Rule for, 27–29
  time spent prospecting, 25–26
  Universal Law of Need and, 26–27 silence, importance of, 152–153, 170 sleep, 258–259
slumps, avoiding, 28, 31–35
Smart Calling (Sobzack), 138
Snap Selling (Konrath), 138 Sobzack, Art, 138
social selling, 105–131 avoiding gatekeepers through, 195 building familiarity with, 119–120 challenge of, 108–110 choosing channels for, 111–113
  defined, 110–111
  e-mail prospecting and, 215
  Five Cs of, 123–128
  inbound prospecting with, 120–121
  objectives of, 113–114
  outbound prospecting combined with inbound prospecting, 130–131
overview, 105–108
personal branding for, 114–119 for preparation, 122, 143–144 for research and information gathering, 122 social media prospecting tools, 128–130 strategic prospecting campaign (SPC), 120–121
text messaging and, 239
trigger events and buying-cycle awareness, 121–122 spam, sending e-mail and, 216–218 Spartan Up (De Sena), 5 speaking engagements, volunteering for, 103–104 Stanton, Brian, 250 statistics, for sales calls, 36–40 strategic bridging, 141–143, 168–170 strategic prospecting campaigns (SPCs), 82–83, 120–121 strike zone, defining, 79–80 subject line, of e-mail messages, 220–221 Superstars, 1–8
systematic mindset, 11

T
Take the Cold Out of Cold Calling (Richter), 122 targeted bridging, 141–143, 168–170 T-Call technique, 202
technology
CRM importance and, 92–95
social media and, 105, 107
(See also social selling)
Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP), 236
See also e-mail prospecting; social selling; telephone prospecting; text messaging telephone prospecting, 154–177
call reluctance, 45–46
cold calling, 13–19, 108–110, 122
contact rate statistics, 156–157 difficulty of, 158–160
effective voice mail messages and, 162, 171–174, 174 logging/tracking calls, 36–40, 94–95, 207, 244
overview, 154–155
scheduling phone blocks for, 162–163
steps for, 163–171, 165 telephone as most powerful sales prospecting tool, 157–158 timing and, 174–177
training for, 160–162
Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) and, 236 testing, for e-mail prospecting, 222–223 testosterone, 136
text messaging, 235–244 engagement with, 242–243 familiarity and, 237–238 following trigger events, 239–240, 240 networking and, 238–239, 239
for nurturing prospects, 241–242
overview, 235–236
popularity of, 236–237 rules for, 243–244
thirst for knowledge, as mindset, 11 30-Day Rule, 27–29
“3 Behaviors that Drive Successful Salespeople” (Fuller), 56
Three Cardinal Rules, for e-mail, 216, 216–224 “three Ps,” 41–48
disrupting, 46–47
paralysis from analysis, 45–46
perfectionism, 43–45
procrastination, 41–43
time management, 49–70
avoiding distractions for, 62–63, 64–66 blocking time for, 56–57 CEO mindset for, 51–52
delegating and, 54, 55–56 e-mail prospecting and timing of e-mail, 233–234 focus and, 59–62
Golden Hours, 50, 52–55, 69
Horstman’s Corollary of, 57–59
for in-person prospecting (IPP), 205–207
time management (continued) measuring your worth for, 67–70
overview, 49–51
Platinum Hours, 54, 58–59, 66–67
problems of timing telephone prospecting, 174–177
scheduling phone blocks for prospecting, 162–163
touches, building familiarity with, 72, 81–83, 96–97
tracking, of sales calls, 36–40, 94–95, 207, 244
Tracy, Brian, 177
training, for telephone prospecting, 160–162
transparency, 168, 194, 208–209, 243 trigger events
social selling and, 121–122
text messaging and, 239–240, 240 trust, earning, 97
Turnaround Framework, 184, 185–188, 186
Twitter, 112–113

U
“ugly deals,” avoiding, 76–80

V
universal law of need, 26–27
URLs, custom, 118
value proposition, 138
voice mail messages, effectiveness of,
162, 171–174, 174
Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP), 236
voice tone, 149–151
VoloMetrix, 56
volunteering, for familiarity, 102, 103–104

W
Weinberg, Mike, 139
“what's in it for me?” (WIIFM)
e-mail prospecting and, 231–233
interrupting and, 137–140 “when it is time to go home, make one more call” (mantra), 264–265 wording, spam filters and, 217 worth, measuring, 67–70

Z
Ziglar, Zig, 44, 256