INDEX

A
Accountant, selection for company, 169
Acquisitions, 198
Action business plan, 136
Advertising, 141
campaign, 95
Aggregators, 104
“All-or-Nothing” (AON), 122
Altruism, 111
American Women’s Economic Development Corporation (AWED), 20
Analogs, 32
Anderson, Chris, 65
Angels, 197–198
in early-stage funding, 187–188 identifying, 188
super-angels, 197–198
Annual budget, preparing, 236 cost of goods sold, 236
EBIT, 236
EBITD, 236
gross profit, 236
income taxes, 236
net income, 236
operating expenses, 236
operating profit/loss, 236 other income and expenses, 236 pretax income, 236
sales, 236
Antidilution rights, 206
Ask your target market (AYTM), 80
Aspiring entrepreneurs, 6
Assets, 231
valuation, 280
Attorney selection for company, 169

B Balance sheet
value of, 231–232
book value, 232
going-concern value, 232
goodwill, 232
Bandes, Craig, 259
Bank loans, 9, 190
Board membership, 205
Board of directors, 142, 157
Book value, 232
Bootstrapping, 9, 178–181, 184–187 bartering for goods and services, 185 contingent litigation, 186
cooperative purchases, 185
credit cards, 186
equipment expensive equipment, access to, 185 renting or leasing, 185 used equipment, 185
garage start-up, 185
no or low rent, 184–185
outsourcing, 185
suppliers’ and customers’ help, 185 trading intellectual property rights, 185 Breakeven analysis, preparing, 239–241
breakeven formula, 240–241
Bricolage, 111–112
Bridge financing, 204–205
Brokers, 141
Burn rate, 233
Business demographics, 88
Business Model Generation, 52
Business models, 23, 49–76, See also Franchising; Licensing; Outsourcing Amazon, 65
business model canvas, 52–57
channel phases, 53
cost structure, 54
customer relationships, 54
customer segments, 53
key activities, 54
key partnerships, 54
key resources, 54
revenue streams, 54
testing assumptions and value proposition, 54–55 tinyUpdates, 55–57

COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL
Business models (Continued) universal online registry concept, 55–57 corporate partnering, 72–73
crowdsourcing, 117–118
data collection, 63–64
DBI using data collection, 63–64
DeAngelo, 63
definition of, 51
iTunes, 65
locking-in customers, 66–67
Minimum Viable Product (MVP) concept, 50, 57–63
advancing, 63
customer cocreation process, 59
definition of, 57
Internet-based survey instruments, 62
‘Smoke-Screen’ website, 59–62
three-step process, 58
using Twitter account, 60 Netflix, 65–66
social networks, models built around, 72 supply chain, capturing value in, 64 using databases to create value, 64–66 Business plan, 129–150, See also Writing a business plan definition, 132
getting started, 134
setting goals and objectives, 132–134
value of, 131–132
to attract bank loans and investors, 132 as feasibility test, 131 to increase the likelihood of venture’s success, 132 provide a platform, 132
as safety net, 131
Business-to-business (B2B), 25
Business-to-consumer (B2C), 25
Cash generated, measuring, 235
Cash revenues, 238
Catalyst, 20
C-corporation, 156–162
advantages of, 160–161
ability of corporation to continue indefinitely, 161 ability to attract capital, 160 limited liability of stockholders, 160 skills, expertise, and knowledge, 161 transferable ownership, 161
board of directors, 157
definition, 156
disadvantages, 161
cost and time involved, 161
double taxation, 161
officers, 157
registration, 157–159
availability, 158
Certificate of Incorporation, 158–159
corporate stock, 159
selecting a local agent, 157 shares authorized and issued, 160 stockholders, 157
taxes, 159–160
Certificate of Incorporation, 158–159
Channel phases, 53
Characteristics of entrepreneurs, 5–6
Chemstation’s franchise business model, 70–72
Cherry picking, 104
Chverchko, Matt, 152–153
Closed-end fund, 207
Closed innovation model, 110–111
Cloud computing, 181
Collaborative filtering, 65
Combination market segmentation, 89
Commercializing New Technologies, 16 Competition, analyzing, 77–106
Competitive analysis, conducting, 90–91
Competitive pricing, 140
Confidentiality, 265–270 confidentiality agreement (CA), 252
Cong, Jason, 195–196
Consulting agreement, 252
Contingent litigation, 186
Contribution, 92
Cooperative purchases, 185
Corporate culture, developing, 243–245
Corporate debt, 213–215 banker, building a relationship with, 215 debt terms, establishing, 215
  lending, four Cs of, 214 loan proposal, preparing, 214 rates, 215
Corporate investments, 216–217
Corporate partnering, 72–73
Corporate stock, 159
  par value, 159
  preferred, 159
Cost-plus pricing, 140
Cost structure in business model, 54
Covenants, 205
Creative Barcode, 125
Credit-based crowdfunding, 122–123
Credit cards, 186
Crowdcreation, 112–113
Crowdfunding, 14, 108, 115, 120–125, 212
  credit-/loan-based crowdfunding, 122–123 Dash earbuds, 121–122
  donation-based crowdfunding, 122
  equity-based crowdfunding, 123–124, 126
  factors, 125
  follow-on funding, 124
  global activity, growth in, 120–121 hybrid crowdfunding, 124
  intellectual property issues, 125 network orchestrators, 121 pros and cons, 124
  regulatory issues, 123–124
  reward-based crowdfunding, 122 Crowdsourcing, 108–128, See also Crowdfunding
  business model design, 117–118 closed vs. open innovation model, 110–111
  definition of, 108–109
  finding hires, 118–119
  getting expert advice and help, 118 getting to your first customers, 119 ideation, 116–117
  intellectual property issues, 125
  motivations
    altruism, 111
    bricolage, 111–112
    fame, 112
    peer recognition, 112
    philosophy of life, 111
  types of, 112–115
    collaborative development, 114
    crowdcreation, 112–113
    crowdfunding, 115
    crowd voting, 113
    crowd wisdom, 113–114
    open-source development, 114–115 tournaments, 114
Crowd voting, 113
Crowd wisdom, 113–114
Customer cocreation process, 59
Customer expectations and innovation, 25
Customer relationships, 77–106
D
Daring Visionaries, 6
Dash earbuds, 121–122
Data analysis, 41
Databases
  in value creation, 64–66
    collaborative filtering, 65
    first-mover advantage, 66 mining the long tail, 65–66
Data collection, 40, 63–64
DeAngelo, Neal, 63–64
Debt terms, establishing, 215
Definition of entrepreneurship, 4, 18
Demand pricing, 140
Demographic market segmentation, 88
Digital rights management (DRM), 68
Direct costs, 232
Direct sales, 140
Direct sales force, 97
Discounted cash flow (DCF) valuation, 280 steps involved in, 280–281
Display advertising, 96
Disruptive innovations, 29–31
Distressed situations, 198 Dog-and-pony show, 294
Donation-based crowdfunding, 122
Double taxation, 161
Due diligence, 204–207
  antidual rights, 206
  board membership, 205
  bridge financing, 204–205
  covenants, 205
  forcing exit, 206
  later rounds, 206
  management decisions, 205 performing, 288
  piggybacking, 206
  preferences, 205
  registration rights, 206
Dyson, James, 180–181

E
Early-stage funding, 176–226, See also Bootstrapping; Incubators; University outreach programs angels, 187–188
  bank loans, 190
  factoring and supplier funding, 190 family and friends, 187
  illiquid, 178
  liquidity event, 178
  micro-equity, 188–189
  micro-loans, 188–189
  moonlighting, 184–186
  part-time consulting, 184–186
  personal credit rating, managing, 191 securing, 182
  self-funding, 183–184
  sources of, 182
  ’virtual’ company, 181–182
Early stage of business, valuing at, 217–218 milestone methods, 218 venture capital model, 217–218 Earnings valuation, 279–280
  future earnings, 279
  historical earnings, 279
Earnout agreements, 283
Elevator pitch, 265
Employee, firing, 248–249
Employee stock ownership plan (ESOP), 289 Employer Identification Number (EIN), 170
Employment agreement, 252 confidentiality agreement, 252
  consulting agreement, 252
  sales and marketing agreement, 252
  separation agreement, 252 Entrepreneurial Mindset, The, 38
Equity-based crowdfunding, 123–124, 126
Equity financing, 194–226, See also Venture capital (VC) fundamentals, 198–199
  public stock, 198
  rounds of, 200
  super-angels, 197–198
  warrants, 202
Essential company, 283
Ethical dilemmas
  interest and business ethics conflicts, 250–251 principles to resolve, 251 analysis of conflicts, 251
  full disclosure, 251
  gut-feel test, 251
Ethnic market segmentation, 89
Executive summary, 135–136
Exiting the venture, 276–299, See also Public offering; Selling the business exit strategy, creating, 278 implementing the plan of action, 282–283 meeting agenda, 282–283 starting the negotiation process, 283 merge with another business, 288–289 selling an equity stake to strategic partner, 278–279 valuing later-stage company, 279–281, See also Later-stage valuations
F
Factoring, 190
Family, in early-stage funding, 187
Family-owned businesses, 7
Federal agencies, in funding, 191–192
Federal identification number, 170
Financial projections, preparing, 235–236
  cash generated, measuring, 235–236
  profits, measuring, 235
  sales volume, measuring, 235
Financial statements, 214, 231
Financing agreement, 272
Financing options, 9
  bank loans, 9
  bootstrapping methods, 9
First sixty days of company, 168
First thirty days of company, 167–168
Five-stage entrepreneurial process, 12–15 acquiring financial partners/sources of funding (Stage 3), 14–15 conducting opportunity analysis (Stage 1), 12–14 determining the resources required and implementing the plan (Stage 4), 15 developing the plan and setting up the company (Stage 2), 14 scaling and harvesting the venture (Stage 5), 15
Fixed costs, 92, 239
Forcing exit, 206
Forms of doing business, 153, See also
C-corporation; Limited liability company (LLC); S-corporation; Sole proprietorship Franchising, 67, 69–72, See also Licensing Chemstation’s franchise business model, 70–72
franchise agreement, 69–70 limitations, 70
topics in, 69–70
Uniform Franchise Offering Circular (UFOC), 69
Freemium model, 93
Friends, in early-stage funding, 187
Full business plan, 136
Full disclosure, 204
Funding the venture, See also Early-stage funding; Equity financing government sources of funding, 191–192
Fundraising, private equity for, 199–200
Future earnings, 279

G
Garage start-up, 184
General partners, 207
Geographic market segmentation, 88
Gisholt, Paal, 23–24
Global Consortium of Entrepreneurship Centers (GCEC), 20–21
Going-concern value, 232
Going public, See Public offering Goodwill, 232
Government sources of funding, 191–192
federal agencies, 191–192
Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) Program, 192
Groegen, Robert, 30
Gross profit, 236
Growth capital, 198
Growth entrepreneurs, 6, 7
Growth of entrepreneurial companies, 15–16 entreprenuerism roller coaster, 16 growth period, 16
Gulati, Daniel, 109–110
Gut-feel test, 251

H Halligan, Brian, 78–79
Hired managers, 8–9
Historical earnings, 279
HubSpot, 78–79
Human resources management, 243
finding and hiring the best people, 245–248
interview guide, 247
searching, 246
firing an employee, 248–249 resignation, dealing with, 249
Hviid, Nikolaj, 121
Hybrid crowdfunding, 124

I
Ideas, 35–37, See also Innovation access to, 24–25
assessment, 36
converting an idea into opportunity, 36–37
crowdsourcing, 116–117
evaluation process for, 37 finding, 35–36
Ideation, 116–117
Illiquid, 178
Inbound marketing, 96–97
Incentive stock option (ISO), 253
Income statement, value of, 232–233
Income taxes, 236
Incremental innovations, 29
Initial public offering, 199
Innovation, 22–48, See also Ideas; Opportunity
closed vs. open model, 110–111
definition of, 28
disruptive innovation, 30–31 ideas, finding and assessing, 35–36 importance, 24–28
access to capital, 26 access to knowledge and ideas, 24–25 customer expectations, 25 growth of Internet, 24–25 technological obsolescence, 26–28
trade barriers, 26
S-curves of, 29
Opportunity (Continued)
  skills, learning frameworks, 31–35 analogies, 32
  existing businesses, analyzing, 33–35 points of pain, solving, 33 technology trends, intersection of, 32–33
  types of, 29–31
  disruptive innovations, 29–31
  incremental innovations, 29

Innovative company, cultural attributes of, 245

Insurance issues, 170–171

Intellectual property (IP), 15, See also Patents crowdfunding, 125
management, 67

Internal rate of return (IRR) method, 200, 242

Internet, growth of, 24–25
Interview guide, 247
Inventory costs, 232
Investment decision, analyzing, 241–242
  internal rate of return (IRR) method, 242
  net present value (NPV) method, 241–242

Investors, locating, 259–261 domain or field, 261
  location, 261
  size of investment, 261 stage of company, 261
  stage of fund, 261

J
  Jolly, K., 16
  Jumpstart our Business Startups (JOBS)
    Act, 123

K
  Kauffman Center for Entrepreneurial Leadership, 20 “Keep-it-All” (KIA), 122
  Keyword lists, 83
  Knowledge, access to, 24–25

L
  Later rounds, 206
  Later stage funding, sources of, 182 Later-stage valuations, 279–281 asset valuation, 280
    discounted cash flow valuation, 280–281
    earnings valuation, 279–280
    future earnings, 279
    historical earnings, 279
  Lee, Simon, 112
  Legal issues, 251–252
    employment agreement, 252
  Lehman formula fee schedule, 286
  Lending, four Cs of, 214
    cash flow, 214
    character, 214
    collateral, 214
    contribution, 214
  Letter of intent, creating, 286–287
  Leveraged buyout (LBO), 198
  Licensing, 67–69, See also Franchising license agreement, 67–69 advances or minimums, 68 exchange for gaining rights, 68 level of exclusivity, 68 licensed intellectual property (IP), 67 licensee, 67
    licensor, 67
    running royalties, 68 ‘territory’ allowed for practice of rights, 68
    topics in, 67
    up-front fee, 68
  Licensing Executives Society, 75
  Lifestyle entrepreneurs, 6
  Lifetime value of a customer (LVC), 240
  Limited liability company (LLC), 166
  ‘Limited Partners’ group, 207
  Liquidity event, 178, 277
  Loan-based crowdfunding, 122–123
  Loan proposal, preparing, 214 amount and purpose, 214 business description, 214 financial projections, 214
    financial statements, 214
    management team profiles, 214 repayment plans, 214
    summary, 214
  Local small-business financing initiatives, 193
  Locking-in customers, 66–67
  Loyalty programs, 87

M
  Management buy-out (MBO), 289
  Management decisions, 205
  Management talents and skills, 142
  Managing resources, 228–256, See also Resources management Manufacturer’s representatives, 140
Market, analyzing, 77–106, See also Pricing strategy competitive analysis, conducting, 90–91
conducting marketing research to start the venture BreatheSimple web-based market research tools, 79–82 digital marketing channels, 79 digital tools, applying and using, 82–83 Internet-based survey instruments, 62
keyword lists, 83
preparing market approach, 83–84 reasons for, 79
‘Smoke-Screen’ website, 60–61
using Twitter account, 60 low-cost research, ways of conducting, 104–105 access established communities, 105 informal focus groups, 105 online surveys, 105 marketing research techniques, 104–105 market penetration, 96–99
market segmentation, 88–89
penetrating the market, 96–99 primary research, 99, 104
sales channels, setting up, 96–99 secondary market research, 105 successful marketing plan, formulating, 84–88 customers, 85
digital marketing techniques, 85 future marketing activities, 85 influencer identification, 88
loyalty programs, 87
marketing objectives, 84 niche/target markets, 85–86
one-to-one marketing, 86–87
pricing strategy, 84
sales and distribution, 84 site analysis, 85
strategic market segmentation, 86
visibility, raising, 85
viral marketing, 98–99
Marketing analysis, compiling, 138–140 competition, 139
marketing strategy, 139 market opportunity, 139 market research, 139 physical description, 139 products and services section, 139 sales forecasts, 139
statement regarding stage of development, 139 statement regarding use and appeal, 139 support material, 139 testimonials, 140
Market segmentation, 88–89
business demographics, 88 combination segmentations, 89 demographic segmentations, 88 digital communities, behavioral and interest targeting, 90 ethnic segmentations, 89 Facebook segmentations, 89 geographic segmentation, 88 psychographic segmentation, 88
Markup pricing, 140
McEwan, Rob, 114
McGrath, Rita, 38
McVicker, Wayne, 4
Mentors, finding early mentors, 10–11
Merger, 199
Mezzanine capital, 199
Micro-equity, 188–189
Micro-loans, 188–189
Milestone methods, in early-stage investments valuation, 218 Minard, Becky, 23–24
Minimum Viable Product (MVP), 50, 57–63
advancing, 63
customer cocreation process, 59
definition of, 57
Internet-based survey instruments, 62
‘Smoke-Screen’ website, 60–62
three-step process, 58
using Twitter account, 60
Minorities, financing for, 193
‘mited Partners’ group, 207
Money management, 243
Moonlighting, 184–186

N
Name registration, 170
National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO), 20
National Dialogue on Entrepreneurship (NDE), 20
Net income, 236
Net present value (NPV) method, 241–242
steps involved in, 241–242
Niche markets, 85–86
Nonqualified stock option (NQSO), 253

O
Officers, 157
One-to-one marketing, 86–87
Open innovation, 110–111
Operating expenses, 236
Operating profit/loss, 236
Operations oriented pricing strategy, 94
Opportunity, 37–45
communicating, 257–275, See also Presentations confidentiality, 265–270
elevator pitch, 265
locating investors, 259–261
tea ser, preparing, 261–264
costs, evaluation, 39
data analysis, 41
data collection, 40
factors that create, 38 five phases to success, 37–45 determine the resources needed (Phase 4), 42–43 develop the plan (Phase 3), 41–42 investigate the need through market research (Phase 2), 39–41 manage the business (Phase 5), 43 seize the opportunity (Phase 1), 38–39 framework for evaluating, 43–45 competitive advantage issues, 44 financial and harvest issues, 44 management team and risk issues, 45 market issues, 44
information sources, 40 patent protection, evaluation screening for, 45 preliminary questions, 39–40
resource capabilities, assessing, 42–43 selection, 9
study, designing and executing, 40–41 time horizon, 38
Organizational chart, 142
Original equipment manufacturer (OEM) Sales, 140
Osterwalder, Alexander, 51, 52
Outsourcing, 185
Ownership form, identifying, 153
Ownership in companies, 198 holding shares in publicly traded companies, 198 private equity, 198–199

P
Partners, 8
Partnership, 164–165
advantages of, 164–165
ability to attract limited partners, 165 complementary skills of partners, 164 division of profits, 164 easy to establish, 164
flexibility, 165
larger pool of capital, 165 taxation, 165
disadvantages, 165
capital accumulation, 165 lack of continuity for the general partnership, 165 potential for personality and authority conflicts, 165 restrictions of elimination for the general partnership, 165 unlimited liability of at least one partner, 165
Part-time consulting, 184–186
Par value corporate stock, 159
Patents protection, evaluation screening for, 45
Patronage oriented pricing strategy, 94
Pay-per-click (PPC), 95
Peer recognition, 112
Personal credit rating, managing, 191
Perspective, entrepreneurial, 4
Piggybacking, 206
Points of pain, 24
solving, 33
Policy and strategy for employees, 142
Post-money valuations, 202–203
Preferences, 205
Preferred corporate stock, 159
Preliminary questions, 39–40
Pre-money valuations, 202–203 Presentations, 259
after the presentation, 270–273 creating excitement about the investment, 271 dealing with rejection, 271
financing agreement, 272
learning investor evaluation process, 271 investors’ presentation, template for, 267–269
Pretax income, 236
Price elasticity, 94
Pricing strategy, 140–141
brokers, 141
competitive pricing, 140
contribution, 92
cost-plus pricing, 140
demand pricing, 140
direct sales, 140
fixed costs, 92
freemium model, 93
issues to consider, 94
manufacturer’s representatives, 140
markup pricing, 140
original equipment manufacturer (OEM) sales, 140 preparing, 91–96
price elasticity, 94
pricing objectives, categories of operations oriented, 94 patronage oriented, 94 revenue oriented, 94
rationale, 92
semivariable costs, 92
software as a service (SaaS) model, 93 using digital channels to create demand, 95–96 display ads, 96
preparing advertising campaign, 95 search and pay per click, 95 value, 91
value pricing, 140
variable costs, 92
web e-commerce, 141
Primary market research, 99, 104–105
Principles of the concept, 32
Private equity, 198–199, See also Equity financing distressed or special situations, 198 for fundraising, 199–200, See also Due diligence capitalization, 203
pre-and post-money valuations, 202–203
warrants, 202
growth capital, 198
leveraged buyout (LBO), 198
liquidity in, 199
mezzanine capital, 199
return on investments, avenues, 199 initial public offering, 199
M&A, 199
recapitalization, 199
Private placements, 211–213
Regulation D, exemptions under, 212
Rule 504, 212
Rule 506, 212
Process, entrepreneurial, 2–21, See also Five-stage entrepreneurial process characteristics, 5–6
financing options, 9
finding early mentors, 10–11
growth of entrepreneurial companies, 15–16
hired managers, 8–9
need to control, 7–9 opportunity selection, 9
partners, 8
spiderweb model, 9
stress management, 11–12
Production costs, 232
Profits, measuring, 235
Promotion strategy, 141
Proud, James, 119
Psychographic market segmentation, 88 Public offering, 289–295 disadvantages of going public, 291–292 demands of periodic reporting, 292 limits on management’s freedom to act, 292 loss of control, 292 loss of privacy, 292
new fiduciary responsibilities, 292 sharing the success, 292 timing, 291
upfront expenses, 292 expenses of going public, 294 accounting and legal fees, 295 directors’ and officers’ insurance, 295 post-IPO actions, 295
underwriters’ compensation, 294–295 going public, benefits of, 290–291 IPO event management, 293 registration process, 293 road show, 294
underwriter, selecting, 293 waiting during quiet period, 294
Public relations strategy, 141
Public stock, 198
Purchase agreement, preparing, 288

Q
Quiet period, 294

R
Radical innovation, See Disruptive innovations Reason to be an entrepreneur, 17
Recapitalization, 199
Registration of C-corporation, 157–159
Registration process for public offering, 293–294 registration statement (S1), 293 filing, 293–294
Registration rights, 206
Rejection, dealing with, 271
Repayment plans, 214
Resignation, dealing with, 249
Resource capabilities, assessing, 42–43 financing requirements, 42–43 personal contacts and networking, 42 technical skills, sources of, 43 Resources management, 228–256 annual budget, preparing, 236, See also individual entry balance sheet, value of, 231–232
breakeven analysis, preparing, 239–241
cash flow forecast, preparing, 237–239, See also individual entry cash flow statement, value of, 233–235 corporate culture, developing, 243–245
financial projections, preparing, 235–236
financial statements, 231
human resources management, 243
income statement, value of, 232–233
interest and business ethics conflicts, 250–251
investment decision, analyzing, 241–242
legal issues, 251–252
money and people, 228–256
money management, 243
stock-option agreements, 253 taxes and filing, 242–243
Revenue oriented pricing strategy, 94
Reward-based crowdfunding, 122
Road show, 294
Roller coaster nature of entrepreneurship, 16
Rule of Thumb, 233
Runway, 233

S
Sales agents, 97–98
Sales and marketing agreement, 252
Sales channels, setting up, 96–99
direct sales force, 97
sales agents, 97–98
trade shows, 98
Sales strategy, preparing, 91–96
Sales volume, measuring, 235
Scale-free networks concept, 10–11
S-corporation, 162–164
advantages, 162
disadvantages, 162–163
S-Curves of innovation, 29
Search marketing, 95
Secondary market research, 105
Securing early-stage funding, 182
Securities Act of 1933, 212
Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), 123–124
Self-funding, 183–184
Selling memorandum, preparing, 284–288 closing the deal, 288
due diligence, performing, 288 employees, 285
executive summary, 284
financial projections, 285
historical financial statements, 285 letter of intent, creating, 286–287
management, 285
manufacturing, 285
marketing and sales, 285 products and services, 284
purchase agreement, preparing, 288
Selling the business, 283–284, See also Exiting the venture; Selling memorandum, preparing earnout agreements, 283
employee stock ownership plan (ESOP), using, 289
essential company, 283
management buy-out (MBO), using, 289
Semivariable costs, 92
Separation agreement, 252
Serial entrepreneurs, 6
Setting up the company, 151–173 forms of doing business, 153
C-corporation, 156–162
limited liability company (LLC), 166
partnership, 164–165
S-corporation, 162–164
sole proprietorship, 154–156
ownership form, identifying, 153
S-corporation to C-corporation conversion, 152–153 start-up checklist, 167–171, See also individual entry Shares
in C-corporation authorized, 160
  issued, 160
Shkolnik, Nikolay, 130–131
Silvis, Paul, 230
Small Business Administration, 21
Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) Program, 192
  for minorities, 193
  qualifying for, 192
Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) Program, 192–193 state and local small-business financing initiatives, 193 for women, 193
Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) Program, 192–193
SmartPakT, 23–34
Smilor, Ray, 6
Social entrepreneurship, 6
Social networks, business models built around, 72
  Syndicom.com, 72
  Threadless.com, 72
  Web 2.0 technologies, 72
Software as a service (SaaS), 93
Sole proprietorship, 154–156
  advantages of, 154–155
    easy to discontinue, 155 no special legal restrictions, 155 profit incentive, 154 total decision-making authority, 155
  definition, 154
  disadvantages of, 155–156 lack of continuity for the business, 156 limited access to capital, 155 limited skills and capabilities of the sole owner, 155 unlimited personal liability, 155 low start-up fees, 154
simple to initiate business, 154
Spiderweb model, 9
Start-up checklist, 167–171 accountant selection, 169 attorney selection, 169
  federal identification number, 170
  first sixty days, 168
  first thirty days, 167–168
  by first year end, 169
  insurance issues, 170–171
  name registration, 170
State financing initiatives, 193
Stockholders, 157
Stock-option agreements, 253
  ISO, 253
  NQSO, 253
Strategic market segmentation, 86
Strategic partnerships, 216–217
Strategic sale, 217–218
Stress management, 11–12
Super-angels, 197–198
Supplier funding, 190
Supply chain, capturing value in, 64
Sweat equity, 183
Syndication, 202
T
Table of contents of business plan, 138
Target markets, 85–86
Taxes, 159–160
  and filing, 242–243
Teaser, preparing, 261–264
Technological obsolescence, 26–28
Technology entrepreneurship, 6–7
Term sheet, 272
Time value of money approach, 241
Title page of business plan, 138
Tombstone ads, 294
Tournament-based crowdsourcing, 111, 114
Trade barriers, 26
Trade shows, 98
Trefler, Alan, 277–278
Types of entrepreneurs, 6–7
  aspiring entrepreneurs, 6
  family-owned businesses, 7
  growth entrepreneurs, 6, 7
  lifestyle entrepreneurs, 6
  serial entrepreneurs, 6
Types of entrepreneurs, 6–7 (Continued) social entrepreneurs, 6 technology entrepreneurs, 6–7

U
Uniform Franchise Offering Circular (UFOC), 69

V
Value pricing, 140
Value proposition in business model, 53
Variable costs, 92
Venture capital (VC), 26, 194
crowdfunding, 212
in early-stage investments valuation, 217–218 cash flow estimates, 218
strategic sale, 217–218
firm’s funding decisions, influencing factors, 210–211 location of the venture, 210 specialized industries for the venture, 210 stage of development, 210–211
stage of fund, 210
home runs or singles, question of, 213
private placements, 211–213
selecting a venture capitalist, guide to, 211 state of VC industry, 196–197 understanding, 207–211 working of VC firms, 207–210 funds distribution at liquidity event, 209
general partners, 207
  ‘Limited Partners’ group, 207 money flow in single VC investment, 208
Viral marketing, 98–99
‘Virtual’ company, 181–182

W
Warrants, 202
Web E-commerce, 141
Web 2.0 technologies, 72
Wendle, Ethan, 152–153
Women, financing for, 193
Writing a business plan, 129–150 amount of funds required, establishing, 143 determining business plan type, 136–137 action plan, 136
  executive summary plan, 136
  full business plan, 136
  targeting the plan to selected groups, 136–137
  executive summary, 135–136
  business concept, 136
  current position, 136
  financial features, 136 success factors, 136
failure of business plans, understanding, 143–144 financial plan, describing, 142–143 current balance sheet, 143 projected cash flow statements, 142 projected income statements, 142 set of assumptions, 142 format and content of plan, 138–143
advertising, 141
board of directors and advisory board, 142 describing, 141
executive summary, 138
maintenance and support, 141
management talents and skills, 142 management team, describing, 142
manufacturing, 141
marketing analysis, compiling, 138–140
marketing and sales plans, 140
organizational chart, 142
overview of company, industry, products, and services, 138 policy and strategy for employees, 142 pricing strategy and plan, 140–141 product/service development, 141 promotion strategies, 141 public relations, 141
table of contents, 138
title page, 138
preparation, time required, 137 starting the process, 135–136 draft the outline (Step 2), 135 draft the plan (Step 4), 135–136 objectives, identifying (Step 1), 135 plan review and update (Step 5), 136 review the outline (Step 3), 135 targeting the plan to selected groups, 137