Contents

Foreword v
Acknowledgements vii

Part I  The United Kingdom

1  Introduction 3
1.1 Overview 3
1.2 Background to statutory adjudication in the UK 4
1.3 Statutory adjudication regimes 5
1.4 Use of case law in this part 6

2  Adjudication in a nutshell 9

3  Deciding to adjudicate 13
3.1 Overview 13
3.2 Do I have a claim? 14
3.3 Is it worth it? 15
3.3.1 In a nutshell 15
3.3.2 Amount in dispute 15
3.3.3 Likely recovery 16
3.3.4 Professional fees 16
3.3.5 Resources 17
3.3.6 Relationships 17
3.4 Is adjudication the right forum? 18
3.4.1 In a nutshell 18
3.4.2 Advantages 18
3.4.3 Disadvantages 21
3.4.4 Statistics 24
3.5 Other forms of ‘rapid’ dispute resolution 24
3.5.1 In a nutshell 24
3.5.2 Early neutral evaluation 24
3.5.3 Expert determination 25
3.5.4 Mediation 26
3.5.5 Fast-track arbitration 27
3.5.6 Statutory demand or winding-up petition 29
x

Contents

3.5.7 Part 8 claim 29
3.5.8 Summary judgment 29

3.6 Adjudication on behalf of, or against, an insolvent party 30
3.6.1 In a nutshell 30
3.6.2 Why do it? 30
3.6.3 Trigger for insolvency 31
3.6.4 Liquidation 33
3.6.5 Voluntary or compulsory administration 37
3.6.6 Administrative receivership 38
3.6.7 A company voluntary arrangement (CVA) 38
3.6.8 Bankruptcy 39
3.6.9 Individual voluntary arrangement (IVA) 39
3.6.10 Problems enforcing the adjudicator’s decision 39

3.7 Who to involve 40
3.7.1 In a nutshell 40
3.7.2 In-house lawyers 40
3.7.3 External lawyers 41
3.7.4 Claims consultants 41
3.7.5 Experts 41
3.7.6 Project team 42

3.8 Checklist: considering whether or not to adjudicate 42

4 Statutory adjudication 43
4.1 Overview 43
4.2 Old or new act 44
4.3 Existence and terms of a contract 44
4.3.1 In a nutshell 44
4.3.2 Contract formation and terms 45
4.3.3 Contract terminated 46
4.3.4 Void or voidable contract 46
4.3.5 Choice of terms 47
4.3.6 Incorporation of terms 47
4.4 Construction contract 49
4.4.1 In a nutshell 49
4.4.2 Carrying out, arranging, providing labour for construction operations (Act s. 104(1)) 49
4.4.3 Consultants and advisers (Act s. 104(2)) 50
4.4.4 Contracts of employment (Act s. 104(3)) 50
4.4.5 Construction operations and other matters (Act s. 104(5)) 50
4.4.6 Application of the Act to contracts (Act s. 104(6)) 51
4.4.7 Ancillary agreements 52
4.5 Construction operations 55
4.5.1 In a nutshell 55
4.5.2 Definition of construction operations (Act s. 105(1)) 55
4.6 Excluded construction operations 58
4.6.1 In a nutshell 58
4.6.2 Approach to interpreting the exclusion provisions at section 105(2) of the Act 59
Contents

4.6.3 Court’s approach to applying the exclusions at subsection 105(2) 59
4.6.4 Drilling and extraction (Act s. 105(2)(a) and (b)) 60
4.6.5 Assembly, installation, erection, demolition in connection with certain activities (Act s. 105(2)(c)) 60
4.6.6 Manufacture, delivery, installation (Act s. 105(2)(d)) 62

4.7 Excluded agreements 62
4.7.1 In a nutshell 62
4.7.2 Residential occupier (Act s. 106(1)(a) and (2)) 63
4.7.3 Exclusion Order (2009 Act, s. 106A; 1996 Act, s. 106(1)(b)) 64

4.8 Contract in writing 66
4.8.1 In a nutshell 66
4.8.2 2009 Act 67
4.8.3 1996 Act only applies to agreements in writing (1996 Act s. 107(1)) 68
4.8.4 ’In writing’ (1996 Act s. 107(2)) 68
4.8.5 An agreement made ‘otherwise than in writing’ (1996 Act s. 107(3)) 69
4.8.6 An agreement ‘evidenced in writing’ (1996 Act s. 107(4)) 70
4.8.7 ‘An exchange of written submissions in adjudication proceedings’ (1996 Act s. 107(5)) 70
4.8.8 Scenarios 71

4.9 Checklist: What form of adjudication am I subject to? 74

5 Contractual and ad hoc adjudication 75
5.1 Overview 75
5.2 Contractual adjudication 75
5.2.1 In a nutshell 75
5.2.2 What is a contractual adjudication? 76
5.2.3 Treatment of contractual adjudications by the court 77
5.3 Ad hoc adjudication 79
5.3.1 In a nutshell 79
5.3.2 Ad hoc adjudication by choice 79
5.3.3 Ad hoc jurisdiction by mistake 80
5.3.4 Ad hoc jurisdiction on issues 82

6 Adjudication procedure 83
6.1 Overview 83
6.2 Scheme 84
6.2.1 In a nutshell 84
6.2.2 Does the Scheme apply and the failure to comply with section 108(1)–(4) (Act s. 108(5) and 114(4)) 84
6.2.3 Why choose the Scheme? 86
6.2.4 Scheme variants 87
6.3 Contractual procedures 88
6.3.1 In a nutshell 88
6.3.2 JCT 89
6.3.3 ICE/ICC 90
6.3.4 IChemE 91
6.3.5 NEC 92
Contents

6.3.6 TeCSA 93
6.3.7 CIC 94
6.3.8 CEDR Solve 95
6.3.9 Bespoke rules 96
6.4 Checklist: What adjudication procedure am I subject to? 96

7 Preconditions and restrictions to statutory adjudication 97
7.1 Overview 97
7.2 Is there a dispute? 98
    7.2.1 In a nutshell 98
    7.2.2 Court's approach 98
    7.2.3 A claim must have been made 99
    7.2.4 The meaning of 'dispute' (Acts.108(1)) 100
    7.2.5 The point at which to assess whether or not there is a dispute 102
    7.2.6 Time period following a claim until a dispute is formed 102
    7.2.7 Ambush 104
    7.2.8 Scenarios 104
7.3 More than one dispute 108
    7.3.1 In a nutshell 108
    7.3.2 More than one dispute (Act s.108(1)) 109
    7.3.3 The Scheme (Scheme p. 8) 111
7.4 Substantially the same dispute (Scheme p. 9) 111
    7.4.1 In a nutshell 111
    7.4.2 Substantially the same dispute 112
7.5 Does the dispute arise 'under' the contract (Act s. 108(1))? 115
    7.5.1 In a nutshell 115
    7.5.2 Meaning of 'under' the contract 115
7.6 More than one contract 117
    7.6.1 In a nutshell 117
    7.6.2 More than one contract (Act s. 108(1)) 118
    7.6.3 Scheme (Scheme p. 8(2)) 119
7.7 Commencing an adjudication 'at any time' 119
    7.7.1 In a nutshell 119
    7.7.2 Act (Act s. 108(2)(a)) 119
    7.7.3 Conclusivity clauses 121
    7.7.4 Statutory limitation 122
    7.7.5 Insolvent party 122

8 Adjudication strategy 123
8.1 Overview 123
8.2 Commencing the adjudication process 123
    8.2.1 Choosing the right time to start 123
    8.2.2 Getting in there first 124
8.3 More than one adjudication 125
    8.3.1 Multiple adjudications during the project 125
    8.3.2 Concurrent adjudications 125
8.4 Choosing the dispute to refer 126
Contents

8.4.1 Appropriate expertise 126
8.4.2 Pecuniary and declaratory claims 127
8.4.3 Contractual interpretation 128
8.4.4 'Smash and grab' 129
8.4.5 'Cherry-picking' 136
8.4.6 Large-scale adjudications 137
8.4.7 Without prejudice correspondence 139
8.5 Deploying arguments 139
8.5.1 Save the best until last 139
8.5.2 Reverse ambush 140
8.6 Assessing the other party’s willingness and ability to pay 141
8.6.1 Securing assets before the adjudication 141
8.6.2 Can the other party pay? 142
8.7 Removing procedural uncertainty 142
8.7.1 Taking a jurisdiction point early 142

9 Initiating the adjudication 144
9.1 Overview 144
9.2 A precis on jurisdiction and natural justice 145
9.3 Notice of adjudication 146
9.3.1 In a nutshell 146
9.3.2 The Scheme (Scheme p. 1(2) and (3)) 147
9.3.3 Practical considerations 147
9.4 Checklist: Before serving the notice of adjudication – referring party 151
9.5 Checklist: On receiving the notice of adjudication – responding party 151
9.6 Appointing the adjudicator 152
9.6.1 In a nutshell 152
9.6.2 Timing (Act s. 108(2)(b), Scheme p. 7) 152
9.6.3 Appointment procedure (Scheme p. 2, 3, 5 and 6) 153
9.6.4 Inoperable procedure or defective appointment 155
9.6.5 Appointment by an ANB 156
9.6.6 Choosing the right ANB where one is not specified 158
9.6.7 Forum shopping 160
9.6.8 Appointment of an individual named in the contract 161
9.6.9 Nominated or appointed adjudicator too busy, unwilling or unable to act 162
9.6.10 Natural person and no conflict of interest (Scheme, p. 4) 163
9.6.11 Objections to the appointed adjudicator (Scheme, p. 10) 163
9.6.12 A party’s assessment of an adjudicator’s capability 164
9.6.13 The prospective adjudicator’s assessment of whether he should accept the appointment 166
9.6.14 Post appointment before the dispute is referred 167
9.6.15 Adjudicator’s agreement 167
9.6.16 Revoking the adjudicator’s appointment (Scheme p. 11) 170
9.7 Checklist: Appointing the adjudicator – referring party 171
9.8 Checklist: Appointing the adjudicator – responding party 171
9.9 Checklist: Accepting the appointment – adjudicator 172
10 The adjudication

10.1 Overview 173

10.2 Referral notice 174
10.2.1 In a nutshell 174
10.2.2 Timing (Act s. 108(2)(b)) 174
10.2.3 Scheme (Scheme p. 7) 175
10.2.4 Practical considerations and strategy 177
10.2.5 Actions for the adjudicator once the dispute is referred 180

10.3 Response 181
10.3.1 In a nutshell 181
10.3.2 Timing 182
10.3.3 Practical considerations and strategy 182

10.4 Reply, rejoinder and sur-rejoinder 184
10.4.1 In a nutshell 184
10.4.2 Practical considerations and strategy 184
10.4.3 Parallel correspondence 186

10.5 Meetings 186
10.6 Other matters 188
10.6.1 In a nutshell 188
10.6.2 Communicating with the other party and with the adjudicator during the adjudication 189
10.6.3 Pressure from the parties or the adjudicator 190
10.6.4 Set-off and abatement 191
10.6.5 Dropping a head of claim during the adjudication 194
10.6.6 Withdrawing from the adjudication entirely 195
10.6.7 Privilege 195
10.6.8 Disclosure of documents 198
10.6.9 Settlement offers 199
10.6.10 Staying adjudication proceedings 199
10.6.11 Confidential nature of adjudication (Scheme p. 18) 200
10.6.12 Service of documents and notices (Act s. 115) 200
10.6.13 Reckoning of time (Act s. 116) 201

10.7 Adjudicator’s powers and duties 201
10.7.1 In a nutshell 201
10.7.2 Duty to act impartially (Act s. 108(2)(e) and Scheme p. 12(a)) 201
10.7.3 Power to take the initiative (Act s. 108(2)(f) and Scheme p. 13) 202
10.7.4 Power to make requests or directions (Scheme p. 14 and 15) 204
10.7.5 Power to seek assistance (Act s. 108(2)(f) and Scheme p. 13(f)) 205
10.7.6 Duty to consider relevant information and provide it to the parties (Scheme p. 17) 206
10.7.7 Scope of what the adjudicator can decide (Scheme p. 20(a) and (b)) 207
10.7.8 Power to award interest (Scheme p. 20(c)) 208
10.7.9 Power to award damages 209
10.7.10 Adjudicator’s immunity (Act s. 108(4), Scheme p. 26) 209
10.7.11 Adjudicator resignation (Scheme p. 9) 210

10.8 Checklist: Managing the adjudication – the adjudicator 212
11 The decision 214

11.1 Overview 214

11.2 What is the adjudicator required to do? 214

11.2.1 In a nutshell 214

11.2.2 Purpose and nature of the decision 215

11.2.3 Structure, format and content of the decision 216

11.2.4 Reasons 217

11.3 On receiving the decision 218

11.4 Timing 219

11.4.1 In a nutshell 219

11.4.2 Act and Scheme (Act s. 108(2)(c) and (d) and Scheme p.19) 219

11.4.3 Rigidity of the time limit 222

11.4.4 Decision made and decision communicated 222

11.4.5 Responding to the adjudicator’s request for an extension 223

11.5 Effect and compliance 223

11.5.1 In a nutshell 223

11.5.2 Temporary finality (Act s. 108(3), Scheme p.23) 224

11.5.3 Compliance with the decision (Scheme p. 21) 225

11.5.4 Delaying compliance by contract 225

11.5.5 Insurance claims 226

12 Post decision 227

12.1 Overview 227

12.2 Adjudicator’s costs 228

12.2.1 In a nutshell 228

12.2.2 2009 Act and 2011 Scheme (2009 Act s. 108A; 2011 Scheme p. 25) 228

12.2.3 1996 Act and 1998 Scheme (1998 Scheme p. 25) 228

12.2.4 Liability for fees 229

12.2.5 Reasonableness of fees and expenses 231

12.2.6 Lien on the decision 232

12.2.7 Payment of fees when the decision is in breach of natural justice 232

12.2.8 Award of adjudicator’s costs 232

12.2.9 Payment of fees on paying party’s insolvency 233

12.3 Parties’ costs 233

12.3.1 In a nutshell 233

12.3.2 2009 Act (s. 108A) 233

12.3.3 1996 Act 234

12.3.4 The Late Payment of Commercial Debt (Interest) Act 1998 235

12.4 Apportioning costs 237

12.4.1 In a nutshell 237

12.4.2 Timing 237

12.4.3 Assessment 238

12.5 Correcting errors in the decision 239

12.5.1 In a nutshell 239

12.5.2 The 2009 Act and 2011 Scheme (2009 Act s. 108(3)(A); 2011 Scheme p. 22A) 239

12.5.3 The 1996 Act and 1998 Scheme 240
12.6 Setting off against the decision

12.6.1 In a nutshell

12.6.2 General rule and exceptions

12.6.3 Contractual right to set off

12.6.4 Later interim or final certificate

12.6.5 Issuing a withholding or pay less notice

12.6.6 Setting off liquidated damages

12.6.7 Setoff permitted but not quantified in the decision

12.6.8 Set-off not formulated before the adjudication

12.6.9 Adjudication rules prevent set-off in enforcement proceedings

12.6.10 Multiple adjudications

12.6.11 Litigation on foot

12.6.12 Arbitration award

12.6.13 Other arguments for set-off

13 Enforcement: options and procedure

13.1 Overview

13.2 Key statements of principle and the court's policy

13.2.1 Principles of enforcement

13.2.2 Enforcement for contractual adjudications

13.3 TCC summary enforcement procedure

13.3.1 In a nutshell

13.3.2 Nature of summary judgment applications in adjudication

13.3.3 Options for commencing the claim

13.3.4 Commencing the claim

13.3.5 Directions

13.3.6 Responding to the claim

13.3.7 Submission of cost budgets

13.3.8 Hearing bundle and skeletons

13.3.9 Extent of the evidence to be submitted

13.3.10 Judgment in default and setting aside

13.3.11 Representation

13.3.12 Timetable to a decision

13.3.13 The decision

13.3.14 The effect of the court’s decision

13.3.15 Setting aside a summary judgment

13.3.16 Costs: basis of assessment

13.3.17 Costs: assessment of the bill of costs

13.3.18 Costs: ATE insurance and conditional fee arrangements

13.3.19 Costs: interest

13.3.20 Costs: settlement reached before summary judgment

13.3.21 Appealing a judgment of the court

13.3.22 Staying enforcement proceedings where there is an arbitration agreement (s. 9 Arbitration Act 1996)

13.4 Other procedures for enforcement

13.4.1 In a nutshell

13.4.2 Pre-emptory order (Scheme p. 23(1) and 24)

13.4.3 Mandatory injunction
Contents

13.4.4 Statutory demand 278
13.4.5 Scotland 280
13.5 Complying with an order of the court 280
  13.5.1 In a nutshell 280
  13.5.2 Time for payment 280
  13.5.3 Extending the time for payment 281
  13.5.4 Failing to comply 281
13.6 Checklist: Avoiding the consequences of an adjudicator’s decision 284

14 Enforcement: insolvency, stay and severability 285
  14.1 Overview 285
  14.2 Insolvency avoids summary judgment 286
    14.2.1 In a nutshell 286
    14.2.2 Liquidation 287
    14.2.3 Administration 287
    14.2.4 Administrative receivership 289
    14.2.5 CVA 289
    14.2.6 Individual insolvency or bankruptcy 290
  14.3 Stay of execution 290
    14.3.1 In a nutshell 290
    14.3.2 Court’s discretion to order a stay of execution 291
    14.3.3 Insolvency proceedings pending or not concluded 293
    14.3.4 Financial difficulty 296
    14.3.5 Imminent resolution of other proceedings 298
    14.3.6 Manifest injustice 299
    14.3.7 Other circumstances in which an application for a stay has failed 299
    14.3.8 Partial stay 300
    14.3.9 Conditions imposed on granting the stay 301
    14.3.10 Severability 301

15 Final determination 304
  15.1 Overview 304
  15.2 Finalising the adjudicator’s decision 305
    15.2.1 In a nutshell 305
    15.2.2 Adjudicator’s decision made final by contract 305
    15.2.3 Adjudicator’s decision made final by agreement 306
    15.2.4 Adjudicator’s decision made final by the passing of time 306
  15.3 Adjudication and other proceedings 307
    15.3.1 In a nutshell 307
    15.3.2 Final determination at the same time as enforcement proceedings 307
    15.3.3 Final determination at the same time as adjudication 308
    15.3.4 Final determination without complying with the adjudicator’s decision 309
    15.3.5 Final determination in breach of the contractual dispute resolution procedure (including an agreement to adjudicate) 309
15.4 Commencement, onus of proof and costs

15.4.1 In a nutshell

15.4.2 Cause of action and limitation period for commencing final proceedings

15.4.3 Delaying the final determination

15.4.4 Onus of proof in subsequent proceedings

15.4.5 Final decision different to adjudicator’s decision

15.4.6 Recovery of adjudication costs as part of the costs of a final determination

16 The adjudicator’s jurisdiction

16.1 Overview

16.2 When to think about jurisdiction

16.3 Options when a jurisdictional issue arises

16.3.1 In a nutshell

16.3.2 Option 1: Determination from the court

16.3.3 Option 2: Determination by the adjudicator

16.3.4 Option 3: Determination from another adjudicator

16.3.5 Option 4: Reserve the position and proceed with the adjudication

16.3.6 Option 5: Withdraw

16.3.7 Option 6: Injunction

16.4 Losing the right to challenge the adjudicator’s jurisdiction

16.4.1 In a nutshell

16.4.2 Waiver

16.4.3 No reservation or late reservation

16.4.4 Abandoning the reservation

16.4.5 Initial consent before objection

16.4.6 Approbation and reprobation

16.4.7 Consequence of losing the right: ad hoc jurisdiction

16.5 Threshold jurisdiction challenges

16.5.1 In a nutshell

16.5.2 No contract

16.5.3 Contract is not a construction contract

16.5.4 Construction contract is not in writing

16.5.5 No dispute

16.5.6 More than one dispute

16.5.7 Substantially the same dispute

16.5.8 Dispute not under the contract

16.6 Process jurisdiction challenges

16.6.1 In a nutshell

16.6.2 Incorrect parties named

16.6.3 Adjudicator not correctly appointed

16.6.4 Referral notice served out of time

16.6.5 Arguments outside the scope of the dispute

16.6.6 Defective service

16.6.7 New material during the adjudication

16.6.8 Other procedural improprieties
Contents

16.7 Decision based jurisdiction challenges 349
   16.7.1 In a nutshell 349
   16.7.2 Lien over the decision 350
   16.7.3 Failure to reach the decision within the required timescale 350
   16.7.4 Signing the decision 351
   16.7.5 Sufficiency of written reasons 351
   16.7.6 Scope of the decision 353
   16.7.7 Errors 357
   16.7.8 Correcting minor errors in the decision 360

16.8 Checklist: Jurisdiction – the parties 360

16.9 Checklist: Jurisdiction – the adjudicator 361

17 Natural justice 362
   17.1 Overview 362
      17.1.1 What is it? 362
      17.1.2 Materiality 363
   17.2 When to think about natural justice 364
   17.3 Options when a natural justice point arises 364
   17.4 Bias and apparent bias 366
      17.4.1 In a nutshell 366
      17.4.2 Actual bias 367
      17.4.3 Apparent bias 368
      17.4.4 Prior involvement in the project or in a separate dispute 369
      17.4.5 Appointment of the same adjudicator 370
      17.4.6 Communication between the adjudicator and one party:
         pre-appointment 371
      17.4.7 Communication between the adjudicator and one party:
         post-appointment 373
      17.4.8 Evidence 373
      17.4.9 Failure to make information available to the parties 375
      17.4.10 Failure to carry out a site visit 375
      17.4.11 Organisation of meetings and hearings 376
      17.4.12 Quasi-mediator 376
      17.4.13 Without prejudice communications 377
      17.4.14 Preliminary view 377
   17.5 Procedural fairness 378
      17.5.1 In a nutshell 378
      17.5.2 Referring party’s conduct pre-adjudication 379
      17.5.3 Abuse of process 380
      17.5.4 Ambush/no opportunity or insufficient opportunity to respond 380
      17.5.5 Christmas claims 382
      17.5.6 Dispute is too large or complex 382
      17.5.7 Failing to address an issue, part of a submission or evidence 384
      17.5.8 Failure to permit a further submission or information 389
      17.5.9 Failure to follow the agreed procedure 390
      17.5.10 Adjudicator’s timetable unfair 391
      17.5.11 Documents received late or not at all 391
Contents

17.5.12 Failure to inform the parties about an approach taken or methodology used 392
17.5.13 Failure to inform the parties about advice from a third party 395
17.5.14 Failure to inform the parties about use of own knowledge and expertise 395
17.5.15 Failure to inform the parties about preliminary view 397
17.5.16 Sufficiency of reasons 398
17.6 Checklist: Natural justice – the parties and the adjudicator 399

18 Further grounds for resisting enforcement 400
18.1 Overview 400
18.2 Fraud or deceit 401
18.3 Duress 402
18.4 UTCCR 403
18.5 Human Rights Act 404

19 Scotland: Tony Jones 406
19.1 Overview 406
19.2 Differences between the Scheme and the Scottish Scheme 408
  19.2.1 1998 Scheme and 1998 Scottish Scheme 408
  19.2.2 2011 Scheme and 2011 Scottish Scheme 410
19.3 Enforcement of an adjudicator's award 411
  19.3.1 In a nutshell 411
  19.3.2 Enforcement procedure 412
  19.3.3 Counterclaims 414
  19.3.4 The Scottish courts’ approach to jurisdictional challenges 415
  19.3.5 The Scottish courts’ approach to natural justice challenges 416
  19.3.6 Miscellaneous points 417
19.4 Issues of divergence between England and Wales and Scotland 418
  19.4.1 In a nutshell 418
  19.4.2 Failure to comply with subsections 108(1)–(4) of the Act 418
  19.4.3 Adjudicator’s decision out of time 419
  19.4.4 Parties’ costs under the 1996 Act 419
  19.4.5 Insolvency 420
  19.4.6 Approbation and reprobation 422
  19.4.7 The size and nature of the claim 422
  19.4.8 Abuse of process 423
  19.4.9 The adjudicator taking advice from a third party or using his own knowledge 424
  19.4.10 Human Rights Act 425

20 Northern Ireland: Michael Humphreys QC 427
20.1 Overview 427
20.2 Enforcement of adjudicators’ awards 429
  20.2.1 The writ of summons 430
  20.2.2 The application for summary judgment 431
  20.2.3 The hearing of the application 432
Contents

20.2.4 Incidence of costs 433
20.2.5 Taxation of costs 433
20.2.6 Enforcement of judgments 434
20.3 An alternative remedy – declaratory relief 434
20.4 Judicial consideration 435
  20.4.1 In a nutshell 435
  20.4.2 No construction contract 435
  20.4.3 No dispute 436
  20.4.4 Setting off against an adjudicator’s decision 437
  20.4.5 Financial difficulty of the paying party 437
  20.4.6 Insufficient time to respond 439
  20.4.7 Abuse of process 439

Part II International

21 Introduction 443

22 Australia: Peter Wood and Phillip Greenham 446
  22.1 Overview 446
    22.1.1 Initial introduction in NSW 446
    22.1.2 Rollout across the remaining states 447
    22.1.3 East-west coast divide 448
    22.1.4 Consequences of the divide 448
  22.2 Requirements for commencing an adjudication 449
    22.2.1 Construction contract 449
    22.2.2 Construction work 450
    22.2.3 Claimable variations and excluded amounts in Victoria 451
    22.2.4 Reference date 451
    22.2.5 Time limits 452
    22.2.6 Who may refer a dispute under a construction contract to adjudication? 453
  22.3 Adjudication process 453
    22.3.1 Appointment of the adjudicator 453
    22.3.2 Conduct of the adjudication 455
  22.4 Determination, effect and costs 456
    22.4.1 Form of the decision 456
    22.4.2 Effect of the decision 456
    22.4.3 Costs 457
  22.5 Enforcement 458
    22.5.1 Process for enforcement 458
    22.5.2 Express rights of appeal 458
    22.5.3 Judicial review of adjudication determinations 459

23 Ireland: Dermot McEvoy 461
  23.1 Overview 461
  23.2 Requirements for commencing an adjudication 462
23.3 Adjudication process 464
  23.3.1 Notice of adjudication 464
  23.3.2 Appointment of an adjudicator 465
  23.3.3 Powers and duties of an adjudicator 467
23.4 Determination, effect and costs 469
23.5 Enforcement 470
23.6 Conclusion 471

24 Malaysia: Philip Koh 473
24.1 Overview 473
24.2 Requirements for commencing the adjudication process 474
  24.2.1 What contracts are caught by the 2012 Act? 474
  24.2.2 Retrospective effect of the 2012 Act 478
24.3 Adjudication process 478
  24.3.1 Step 1: Payment claim 479
  24.3.2 Step 2: Initiation of adjudication 479
  24.3.3 Step 3: Appointment 479
  24.3.4 Step 4: Submissions 480
  24.3.5 Step 5: The adjudicator 480
24.4 Administration of the adjudication 481
24.5 Determination, effect and costs 482
  24.5.1 Form and timing of the decision 482
  24.5.2 Effect of the decision 482
  24.5.3 Costs 483
24.6 Enforcement 484
  24.6.1 Suspension or a reduction in the pace of work 484
  24.6.2 Secure direct payment from principal 485
24.7 Conclusion 485

25 New Zealand: Tómas Kennedy-Grant QC 487
25.1 Overview 487
25.2 Requirements for commencing an adjudication 488
25.3 Adjudication process 490
25.4 Determination, effect and costs 493
  25.4.1 Rights of a non-respondent owner 496
25.5 Enforcement 496
  25.5.1 Judicial review 499
25.6 Proposed amendments 500

26 Singapore: Steven Cannon 501
26.1 Overview 501
26.2 Requirements for commencing an adjudication 502
  26.2.1 What contracts are caught by the 2004 Act? 502
  26.2.2 Contracting out, the date of execution of the contract and contracts made in writing 503
26.3 Payment regime 504
Contents

26.3.1 The right to progress payments 504
26.3.2 The payment regime 504
26.3.3 The crystallisation of a dispute and the dispute settlement period 507

26.4 Adjudication process 508
26.4.1 The role of the Singapore Mediation Centre 508
26.4.2 Notice of an intention to adjudicate 508
26.4.3 The adjudication application 509
26.4.4 The role of the adjudicator 512

26.5 Determination, effect and costs 515
26.5.1 The adjudicator's determination 515
26.5.2 The costs of the adjudication 516
26.5.3 Adjudication review applications 517
26.5.4 The effect of an adjudicator's determination 517

26.6 Enforcement 518
26.6.1 Enforcement of the adjudicator's determination 518
26.6.2 Setting aside the adjudicator's determination 518

26.7 Conclusion 520

Appendices

Appendix 1 – The 1996 Act as amended 523
Appendix 2 – The 1998 Scheme as amended 530
Appendix 3 – Glossary (UK only) 538
Appendix 4 – Model forms 542
Appendix 5 – Summary comparison of UK adjudication rules 561
Appendix 6 – Details of UK adjudicator nominating bodies 570
Appendix 7 – Comparison of UK and international statutory regimes 578
Appendix 8 – Case index: by subject matter 584
Appendix 9 – Alphabetical case index 678

Index 709