CONTENTS

EDITORS’ NOTES
Rita Sinorita Fierro, Alissa Schwartz, Dawn Hanson Smart

1. Facilitating Evaluation to Lead Meaningful Change
Tessie Tzavaras Catsambas
A discussion of traditional evaluation education and the facilitation tools and techniques that can enhance the effectiveness and use of an evaluation.

2. Enhancing Facilitation Skills: Dancing with Dynamic Tensions
Rita Sinorita Fierro
A review of information to help evaluators improve their facilitation skills in managing dynamic tensions—the opposite tendencies that coexist in group interactions.

3. MĀRAMATANGA (Enlightenment): A Creative Approach to Connecting Facilitation and Evaluation
Kataraina Pipi
A personal narrative from an indigenous practitioner who uses creative facilitation methods as part of her evaluation work with indigenous people in Aotearoa (New Zealand).

4. Planning and Facilitating Working Sessions with Evaluation Stakeholders
Rosalie T. Torres
An outline of 15 planning components of working sessions that can take place during evaluations, what may influence decisions about these components, and the facilitation issues to consider in each.

5. Facilitating Interactive Evaluation Practice: Engaging Stakeholders Constructively
Laurie Stevahn, Jean A. King
An introduction to interactive evaluation practice (IEP) for grounding and guiding decisions, actions, and reflection and applying an “evaluator’s dozen” of strategies useful for facilitating interaction among stakeholders.

6. Data Placemats: A Facilitative Technique Designed to Enhance Stakeholder Understanding of Data
Veena Pankaj, Ann K. Emery
An explanation of how evaluators can facilitate stakeholder meetings and gain feedback on evaluation findings using one-page visual summaries of data findings.
7. Evaluating Participatory Facilitated Conversations within the Art of Hosting Framework
   Alissa Schwartz
   An overview of many of the conversational structures used in the Art of Hosting community and a suggested framework for making decisions about evaluating participatory conversations.

8. Invisible and Unbound? The Challenge and Practice of Evaluating Embedded Facilitation
   Jessica Dart, Megan Roberts
   A description of the evaluation of the facilitation of Australia's Landcare programs, a 15-year effort placing government-funded facilitators into a resource management intervention.