CONTENTS

Foreword xvii
Paul A. Volcker

Preface xxi
James L. Perry and Robert K. Christensen

The Editors xxvii
The Contributors xxxi

Acknowledgments xlvii

PART ONE: GOVERNING FOR COLLECTIVE ACTION 1

1 Governing in an Age of Transformation 5
Donald F. Kettl
The Changing Environment 6
Transformation 11
From the Administrative State to Stateless Administration 19
Summary 21
2 The Changing Character of the American Intergovernmental System
Laurence J. O’Toole Jr.
Knowledge about Effective Practice  25
Implications  35
Summary  36

3 Governance in an Era of Partnerships  38
Barbara C. Crosby, Melissa M. Stone, and John M. Bryson
Clarifying Terms  40
The Environment and Its Effects on Collaborations  42
Environmental Effects on a Collaboration’s Governance Processes and Structures  47
Implications  51
Summary  53

4 Governing in a Global Context  55
Jonathan G. S. Koppell
Organizational Responses to Globalization  56
Public Administration in the Age of Globalization  63
Implications of Transnational Organization Design for Public Administration and Management  68
Summary  69

PART TWO: BUILDING INFRASTRUCTURES FOR ACCOUNTABILITY  73

5 Understanding How Public Law Reinforces Administrative Responsibility  77
Phillip J. Cooper
Contemporary Challenges and Classic Issues  78
Classic Conceptions and Contemporary Governance  81
Public Law Responsibility in Different Forms in Today’s Context  83
Law’s Meaning at Two Critically Important Levels: Effective Practice and Legitimacy  89
Summary  95
Contents

6 Advancing Good Government through Fighting Corruption  97
   Milena I. Neshkova and Allan Rosenbaum
   Definition, Forms, and Consequences of Corruption  99
   Theories of Corruption  101
   Empirical Evidence on Corruption  107
   Strategies for Reducing Corruption  111
   Summary  118

7 Using Transparency to Reinforce Responsibility and Responsiveness  120
   Gregory A. Porumbescu and Tobin Im
   Knowledge about Effective Practice  121
   Research Findings and Evidence about Effective Practice  124
   Judgments about Effective Practice Grounded in Administrative Experience  130
   Implications  134
   Summary  135

8 Using Public Participation to Enhance Citizen Voice and Promote Accountability  137
   Tina Nabatchi, Jack Alexander Becker, and Matt Leighninger
   Understanding Accountability  138
   Understanding Public Participation  140
   Summary  150

PART THREE: IMPLEMENTING POLICY USING TOOLS OF COLLECTIVE ACTION  153

9 Developing Effective Relations with Legislatures  157
   Anne M. Khademian and Fatima Sparger Sharif
   The Context of Legislative Liaison Work  159
   Structural and Procedural Elements of Managing Legislative Relations  163
   Strategic and Tactical Elements of Managing Legislative Initiatives: No Surprises  170
   Summary  179
10 Designing Effective Programs 180
Michael Howlett, Ishani Mukherjee, and Jeremy Rayner
Components of Public Policy and Effective Program Design 181
Policy Programs and Policy Design: A Short History 184
Principles for Designing Programs: Policy-Program Linkages (I) 187
Principles for Designing Programs: Program-Measure Linkages (II) 191
Summary 195

11 Using Grants to Achieve Public Purposes 197
Sean Nicholson-Crotty
Scope and Mechanisms of the Grant-in-Aid System 198
The Politics of Grant Distribution 201
Managing Federal Grants-in-Aid 204
Summary 212

12 Contracting in Pursuit of Public Purposes 215
Zachary S. Huitink, David M. Van Slyke, and Trevor L. Brown
Fundamentals 217
Outlook 231
Conclusion 233
Summary 234

13 Coproducing Public Services with Service Users, Communities, and the Third Sector 235
Tony Bovaird and Elke Loeffler
What We Know about Effective Practice in Coproduction 238
Implications 247
Summary 249

14 Advancing Public Good through Entrepreneurship 251
Wolfgang Bielefeld
Knowledge about Effective Practice 252
Research Findings 255
Implications 268
Summary 269
PART FOUR: MANAGING FOR PUBLIC PERFORMANCE  271

15 Leading Public Organizations Strategically  275
   Richard M. Walker, Chan Su Jung, and Gong-Rok Kim
   Knowledge about Effective Strategy Content Practices  277
   Research Findings  280
   Implications  288
   Summary  291

16 Managing Effective Collaborations  293
   Michael McGuire and Chris Silvia
   Collaborative Public Management  295
   Managing Awareness  298
   Managing Boundaries  300
   Managing Constraints  302
   Managing Deliberations  305
   Managing External Constituencies  307
   Summary  309

17 Tracking the Quality of Services  312
   Harry P. Hatry
   The Brief History and Limitations of Service Quality Measurement  313
   Need for Multiple Types of Performance Indicators  314
   Sources of Data and Data Collection Procedures  316
   Improving the Usefulness of Performance Measurement Systems  320
   Uses for Service Quality Information  328
   Problems in Performance Measurement  329
   Role of Ad Hoc Program Evaluations  330
   Summary  331

18 Evaluating the Performance of Public Programs  333
   Kathryn E. Newcomer
   Context for Evaluation of Government Performance  335
   Evaluation Practice in the Twentieth-First Century  339
   Using Evaluation to Improve Performance  347
   Summary  351
Contents

19 Motivating Employees Using Public Service  353
  Wouter Vandenameele and Nina Mari Van Loon
  Theories and Evidence about Public Service Motivation  354
  Research Findings and Evidence  358
  Implications and Application: Harnessing the Power of Public Service
  Motivation  363
  Summary  365

20 Realizing the Promise of Diversity  366
  David W. Pitts and Sarah E. Towne
  Defining and Understanding Organizational Diversity  367
  Frameworks for Understanding Organizational Diversity and Work
  Outcomes  369
  Strategies for Managing Organizational Diversity  373
  Evolving Research on Diversity and Inclusion  376
  Future Directions for Research and Practice  379
  Summary  381

21 Understanding and Overcoming Resistance to Organizational Change  382
  Sergio Fernandez
  Resistance to Change  383
  Sources of Resistance to Change  386
  Overcoming Resistance to Change  392
  Summary  396

PART FIVE: DEVELOPING EFFECTIVE ADMINISTRATIVE SYSTEMS  399

22 Performance Budgeting  403
  Alfred Tat-Kei Ho
  Performance Budgeting Practices around the World  404
  Institutional and Organizational Constraints on Performance Budgeting
  Practices  407
  Implications for Performance Budgeting Design and Practices  411
  Summary  414
Contents

23 Designing and Administering Revenue Systems 416

Yilin Hou

Government Revenues 417
Reliable Revenue Systems 418
Patterns and Trends of Revenue Systems 419
Evaluation Criteria of Revenue Systems 419
Recent Research and Empirical Evidence about the Criteria 423
Revenue System Administration 427
Improving Current Systems 429
Summary 434

24 Managing E-Government 436

M. Jae Moon and Eric W. Welch

Advances in Theories and E-Government Studies 437
Advances in E-Government Practice 443
Moving toward E-Governance for Open, Collaborative, and Integrative Government 450
Critical Success Factors for the Management of E-Government 453
Summary 455

25 Designing Social Media Strategies and Policies 456

Ines Mergel

Distinguishing Types of Social Media Tools 459
Current Social Media Practices in the Public Sector 461
Designing a Social Media Strategy and Policy 462
Managerial Challenges for Implementing Social Media in the Public Sector 467
Summary 468

26 Compensating Public Sector Employees 469

Jared J. Llorens

The Unique Context of Public Sector Compensation 470
The Case of the US Federal Government 472
Challenges for Practice and Research 481
Practical Guidance for Public Managers and Policymakers 482
Summary 484
PART SIX: SHARPENING THE PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR’S SKILL SET  487

27 Enacting Collective Leadership in a Shared-Power World  489
Sonia M. Ospina and Erica Gabrielle Foldy
Collective Leadership and Democratic Governance: What We Know  490
Enacting Collective Leadership: What Research Tells Us  495
Enacting Collective Leadership inside Organizations  495
Enacting Collective Leadership in Complex, Shared-Power Environments  497
Enacting Collective Leadership in Large Collaborative Networks  499
Implications: Convergences and Cornerstones of Collective Leadership  502
Summary  506

28 Negotiating for the Public Good  508
Lisa Blomgren Amsler
What to Negotiate: Problems and Context  509
When to Negotiate and When Not To  509
Why Negotiate: Empirical Evidence on Practice  510
How to Negotiate: Tools and Skills to Prepare for and Initiate Negotiation  511
Principled or Interest-Based Negotiation and Positional or Hard Bargaining  519
How Not to Negotiate and How to Recognize Hard Bargaining  524
Summary  526

29 Becoming and Being an Effective Collaborator  528
Rosemary O’Leary
Knowledge about Effective Practice  529
Common Themes in the Literature  530
Implications for Applying This Knowledge to Public Administration Practice  541
Summary  545

30 Communicating Effectively  546
James L. Garnett
Applying Knowledge about Effective Communication Practice  547
Implications and Lessons from Hard Knocks Experience  559
Summary  562
31 Developing Intrapersonal Skills  564
   Maria P. Aristigueta and Robert B. Denhardt
   Intrapersonal and Interpersonal Skills  565
   Developing Intrapersonal Skills  567
   Practical Advice for Developing Intrapersonal Skills  573
   Summary  577

PART SEVEN: PROFESSIONALIZING PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION PRACTICE  579

32 Embracing Ethical Principles for Public Action  583
   Brian N. Williams
   Reexaming the Historical Meaning of Public Service  585
   How Best to Guard the Guardians?  588
   Emerging Opportunities to Embrace Ethical Principles in Public Action: A View from Below  591
   Out of Darkness and into the Light: Implications for Consistent Ethical Actions  594
   Conclusion  596
   Summary  597

33 Understanding the Obligations of Codes of Ethics  598
   Liza Ireni-Saban
   Codes of Ethics as Markers of Public Administration Professional Identity  600
   Measuring the Effectiveness of Codes of Ethics in Public Administration  605
   Assessing the Effective Implementation of Codes of Ethics in Public Administration  607
   Comparative Analysis of Codes of Ethics Implementation Efforts  608
   Summary  614

34 Understanding Your Liability as a Public Administrator  616
   Stephanie P. Newbold
   Knowledge about Effective Practice  620
   Implications  632
   Summary  633
35 Effective Governance, Effective Administrators 636
   James L. Perry and Robert K. Christensen
   What Distinguishes Effective Governance? 637
   What Makes an Effective Public Administrator? 643
   Public Administration as a Profession 648

References 650

Index 747

Charlie was an eminent scholar, valued colleague, caring teacher and mentor, and an activist for better government. Above all else, he was a wonderful human being.