Index

A
Absolute up-front goals, 169, 182
Ad hoc decisions: backbone of compensation committee and, 215; changing pay plans with economic conditions, 212–213; Compensation Flatliners and, 105, 200; discretionary decisions outside of the pay plans, 209–212; planned and bounded discretion versus, 205–208, 214; as a root cause of misalignment, 121–123, 205; two flavors of, 205; what to do about, 213–214
Adair, J., 148
Adversity, as a teacher, 187
Aggressive target pay: bad analytics and, 129–130, 138–139; combatting, 142; four reasons for, 129–130; implicit pay positioning and, 130, 140–141; peer group abuse and, 129, 133–135, 136; as a root cause of misalignment, 121, 122–123; stated pay positioning and, 129, 130–133
AIG, 117–120, 124, 199
Aligned pay, defined, 11–12, 21
Alignment: creating and maintaining, 231–239; defined, 11–12, 21, 61–63; fair play and, 16–17; questions and answers, 63–68; searching for, 12–14
Alignment design choices, 199–200, 204
Alignment Model: as analytic tool, 14–16; portfolio approach and, 34; using, 74–75; zone used in, 34–35
Alignment NOzone, defined, 61, 62
Alignment Report: aggressive target pay and, 142; AIG, 117, 124; Cheesecake Factory, 175, 185; Copart, 149, 155; goal-setting and, 173–177; merits of, 79–80; Oracle, 132, 143; peer group abuse uncovered by, 134–135; reactions to, 103–104; reading the, 75–79; time horizon and, 195; Tyco, 85, 88, 89; VF Corporation, 77, 82; as work-saving tool, 234
Alignment Zone, definitions and descriptions of, 34–35, 61–62, 69, 81
Amazon, 201
Analytic tools, 14–16
Andersen, G. C., 188
Apple, 147
Ariely, D., 4, 5, 36, 218, 219
Aspen Institute report, 187–188
Assumptions, false, 221–224
Asymmetric information bias, 221
Asymmetric performance attribution bias, 221
B
Bad analytics and aggressive target pay, 129–130, 138–139
Balanced scorecard, 27
Benmosche, R., 119, 120, 124
Berkshire Hathaway, 201
Bezos, J., 201
“Big hit” incentive plans, 147, 152
Black-Scholes Stock Option Pricing Model, 44, 53, 262
Board: Alignment Report and, 250; role in compensation, 229–230
Boyatzis, R., 19, 27, 234
Buffett, W., 84, 201, 241, 242

C

CEO data, reason for using, 15
CEO decision-making, 36–37
CEO pay: at AIG, 117–120, 124; best-selling book on, 7; drivers of CEO compensation, 64, 70; at General Motors, 52; industry sector and, 65, 71; of internally promoted CEOs, 48–49; outliers, 7–8, 9–10, 68, 83, 232, 242; PAC pay mix, 49–51, 55; performance alignment and, 69; performance-adjusted, 8, 20, 41–46; real issues with, 8; separating out pay for new CEOs, 140; size of company and, 47–48, 54; at Tyco, 84–89
Chambers, J., 9, 10, 147
Cheesecake Factory, The, 174–175, 185
Cisco Systems, Inc., 9–10, 147
Clawbacks, 195, 196–197
Compensation: aligned pay, 11–12, 21; performance-adjusted, 20, 41–55; persistent problems with, 6–8; role of, 4–6, 17–19; strategic planning and, 166–167. See also CEO pay; Incentives; Performance-adjusted compensation (PAC)
Compensation committees: Alignment Report and, 250; Alignment Zone and, 35; backbone of, 215; role of, 227–229; stories about, 3–4, 60; subtle transgressions and, 13–14
Compensation discussion and analysis (CD&A), 57, 58, 190
Compensation Dogleg, description of, 92, 96–98, 107, 118, 122
Compensation Flatliner, description of 92–94, 105, 122, 200–201
Compensation Highflier, description of, 92, 99–102, 108, 122, 125
Compensation Lowlier, description of, 92, 102–103, 109, 122
Compensation philosophies that strengthen alignment, 234–235, 238–239
Compensation Riskseeker, description of, 92, 94–96, 106, 122, 146
Conference Board Task Force on Executive Compensation, 18, 73, 127, 158, 258–259
Conventional goal-setting: equity grants and, 161; mark-to-budget goal-setting system, 163, 164, 165–166, 167–168, 181, 183; motivational goal-setting system, 163, 181; as a root cause of misalignment, 122–123; Section 162(m) requirements and, 157, 158, 218; unconventional goal-setting versus, 167–168; what to do about, 178
Convergence, 236–237
Copart, 148–149, 155, 213
Cost of equity, defined, 32
Crystal, G., 7, 65
Crystal Report, The, 7
Culture of misalignment, 115–121

D

Data point, defined, 81, 236
Decision-making influences: asymmetric information bias, 221; asymmetric performance attribution bias, 217–219; defined,
217; false assumptions, 221–224; personality biases and group dynamics, 225–226; as a root cause of misalignment, 122–123; what to do about, 226–227
Decisions, quality of CEO’s, 36–37
DeFeo, R. M., 19, 28, 48, 116–117, 188–189, 209, 227–228
Denham, B., 18, 29, 74, 161–162
Design choices, alignment, 199–200, 203
Discretionary decisions outside of the pay plans, 209–212
Doglegs, Compensation, 92, 96–98, 107, 118, 122
Dot Foods, 13, 167, 259

E
EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization), 25–26, 37, 134, 263
Ego-driven people, 19
Eisner, M., 136
Ellison, L, 130, 131, 132, 133
Elson, C., 6, 153
Embarrassment factor, 84, 241–242
Emerson Electric, 18, 170, 194
England, D., 148
Enrico, R., 147
Entitlement, example of, 10
Executives and Alignment Report, 250
External hires versus internally promoted CEOs, 48–49
Extreme risk-oriented pay mix, 146, 147–149
ExxonMobil, 99–102, 108, 153

F
Fair pay (aligned pay), defined, 11–12, 21. See also Performance-adjusted compensation (PAC)
Fair pay problems: exactly pinpointing, 7–8; outliers and, 7–8, 9–10, 68, 83, 232, 242
Fair play and alignment, 16–17
Fairbairn, U., 23–24, 34, 127, 213
Fairness doctrine and an outraged public, 43
False assumptions, as decision influencer, 221–224
Farient Advisors, 6, 14–15, 23, 28, 73, 75, 137, 226
Farient’s Alignment Model, 15–16
Feinberg, K., 119
50th-percentile pay positioning, 126–128, 142
Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), 42
Five pay design forces, 115, 122–123
Fixed-share versus value-based grants, 200, 203, 263
Flatliners, Compensation, 92–94, 105, 122, 200–201
Flattening the curve: as a root cause of misalignment, 122–123; what to do about, 201–202

G
General Mills, 11, 171
General Motors (GM), 52, 147
Gestalt of what companies are about, 80
Goal-setting: Alignment Report and, 173–177; better guidance for, 177–178; competitive context for, 171; definitions of, 169, 170, 182; frustration over, 157–158; long-term, 194; no perfect system for, 171–172; open-mindedness about, 169
Goal-setting, conventional: equity grants and, 161; mark-to-budget goal-setting system, 163, 164, 165–166, 167–168, 171–172, 181, 183; motivational goal-setting system, 163, 181; as a root cause of misalignment, 122–123; Section 162(m) requirements and, 157, 158, 218; unconventional goal-setting versus, 167–168; what to do about, 178
Government: Alignment Report and, 251; message to, 245–249
Government intervention in executive pay, 6
Grant frequency and performance cycles, 194–195
Greenberg, H., 117, 118, 119, 120
Gupta, R., 43, 68, 79, 87, 98–99, 196, 207, 229

H

Hewlett-Packard (HP), 140
Highfliers, Compensation, 92, 99–102, 108, 122, 125
High-performing companies and alignment, 67, 72
Holdbacks, 196, 263
Hurd, M., 140

I

Implicit pay positioning, 130, 140–141
In Search of Excess: The Overcompensation of American Executives, 7
Incentives: “big hit,” 147, 152; highly leveraged, 146, 149–150; modeling incentive plans, 153; PAC pay mix, 49–51, 55; role of compensation, 4–6, 17–19; simplicity and, 35–36. See also Turbo-charged upside
Incremental size versus incremental performance, 66–67, 71
Industry sector: alignment patterns and, 65, 71; total shareholder return (TSR) and, 30–31, 39
Internal CEO successors, 48–49
International Rectifier, 140
Investors: message to, 243–245; short-termism among, 187–188, 191–192; view of pay, 5, 8–9, 31. See also Shareholders
IRC Section 162(m), tax code, 49, 50, 157, 158, 218, 263

K

Kanin-Lovers, J. S., 13, 14, 129, 166–167
Kaplan, R. S., 27
Keillor, G., 263
Khaykin, Mr., 140
Kozlowski, D., 84–86, 88

L

Lake Wobegon effect, 141, 263
Long-term goals, setting, 194
Long-term success and total shareholder return (TSR), 24, 28–30
Lorsch, J. W., 10–11, 35, 191, 197, 215
Loucks Jr., V. R., 18–19, 59, 80, 193, 194, 224–225
Lower Alignment NOzone, 62, 69, 102
Lowliers, Compensation, 92, 102–103, 109, 122
Low-performing companies and alignment, 67, 72
Lublin, J., 84, 85

M

Market intercept, defined, 78, 81
Mark-to-budget goal-setting system, 163, 164, 165–166, 167–168, 171–172, 181, 183
Marx, K., 241
Mattel, 13, 168
McDonald, M., 78, 262
McGurn, P. S., 8, 25, 31, 80, 82, 84, 170, 191–192
Microsoft Corporation, 58, 98
Minow, N., 32, 33, 51, 59, 94, 134, 136, 169, 241, 250
Misalignment: culture of, 115–120; defined, 21, 91; root causes of, 115, 122–123. See also Root causes of misalignment
Misalignment patterns: Compensation Dogleg, 92, 96–98, 107, 122;
Monks, Robert A. G., 7, 64, 85–86, 100, 233, 249
Motivation: compensation’s role in, 4–6, 17–19; power of incentives, 4–5; virtuous circle of compensation and, 41, 53
Motivational goal-setting system, 163, 181
N
Named executive officers (NEOs), 15, 46
O
Oracle, 130–133, 143, 263
Outliers, 7–8, 9–10, 68, 83, 232, 242
Overcoming Short-Termism: A Call for a More Responsible Approach to Investment and Business Management, 187
Overton, D., 174
Overton, E., 174
Overton, O., 174
Ownership guidelines, 196, 197, 263
P
PAC. See Performance-adjusted compensation
PAC line, defined, 81
PAC outcome, defined, 81
Patterns of misalignment: Compensation Dogleg, 92, 96–98, 107, 122; Compensation Flatliner, 92–94, 105, 122; Compensation Highflier, 92, 99–102, 108, 122, 125; Compensation Lowlier, 92, 102–103, 109, 122; Compensation Riskseeker, 92, 94–96, 106, 122, 146
Pay: aligned, 11–12, 21; investors’ view of, 5, 8–9, 31; power and, 233; role of compensation, 4–6, 17–19; spotlight on, 10–11; true measure of, 116–117. See also CEO pay; Performance-adjusted compensation (PAC)
Pay mix: extreme risk-oriented, 146, 147–149; PAC, 49–51, 55
Pay outliers, 7–8, 9–10, 68, 83, 232, 242
Peer comparison bias, 219–221
Peer group abuse, 129, 133–135, 136
PepsiCo, 57, 147
Performance and pay alignment zone: alignment as stated objective, 57–59; measuring performance-pay alignment, 61–62
Performance-adjusted compensation (PAC): analysis of performance across broad market and, 63–65, 69; calculating, 43–46, 53; CEO, 8, 9, 20; description of, 41–42; outliers and, 9–10, 20; pay mix, 49–51, 55; percentage of CEO PAC by position rank, 54; virtuous circle of compensation and, 41, 53
Personality biases and group dynamics, individual, 225–226
Philosophies that strengthen alignment, 234–235, 238–239
Planned and bounded discretion, 205–208, 214
Portfolio approach to performance measurement, 31–34, 40, 239
Power and pay, 233
Problems with pay: old and persistent, 5–7; pinpointing, 7–8
Psychological effect of equity, 188–189
Pugh, L., 78, 82
R
Rawl, L., 100
Raymond, L., 100, 101, 108, 153
Relative, after-the-fact goals, 170, 182
Restricted stock, defined, 261
Retention: argument, 224–225; as overstated issue, 13, 222–223
Riskiness of executive pay package, 49–51
Risk-oriented pay mix, extreme, 146, 147–149
INDEX

Riskseekers, Compensation, 92, 94–96, 106, 123, 146

Stock option exchanges, effect of, 175–177, 186

Stock options: bad timing and, 189–190; in calculation of performance-adjusted compensation, 44, 45, 53; at Cisco Systems, 9–10; defined, 261; government intervention and, 6; indexed, 150; as payout currency, 147, 151–152; runaway pay and, 50–51; as subtle transgressions, 13–14; time window for, 193–194; uncapped upside and, 150–151

Strategic planning and compensation, 166–167

Sustainability of TSR (total shareholder return), 32–33

TARP funding, 120, 248

Tax code, IRC Section 162(m), 49, 50, 157, 158, 218, 263

Terex Corporation, 19, 188–189

Tillerson, R., 102, 108

Time horizon and Alignment Report, 195

Time horizon of executive pay system, weighted average, 192, 198

Total shareholder return (TSR): defined, 24; financial performance and, 25–26, 37; by industry sector, 30–31, 39; long-term success and, 28–30; management and, 25–26; merits of, 24–25; sustainability of, 32–33; three-year TSR for the S&P 1500, 29, 37, 38

Transactional versus transformational leadership, 19

TSR performance outcome, defined, 81

Turbo-charged upside: alignment issues with, 153–154; “big hit” incentives, 147, 152; extreme risk mix, 146, 147–149; highly leveraged incentives, 146, 149–150; as a root cause of misalignment, 122–123; stock options as payout currency, 147, 151–152; uncapped upside, 146, 150–151; what to do about, 154

Tyco, 17, 46, 84–89, 91, 104, 115, 199

S

Sanger, S. W., 11, 36, 47, 59, 162, 171, 229–230

In Search of Excess: The Overcompensation of American Executives, 7

Sears Roebuck, 7

Shareholders: Alignment Report and, 250–251; compensation committees and, 35; as owners, 23–24; stakeholder value and, 27–28. See also Total shareholder return (TSR)

Short-term gain, long-term pain: as a root cause of misalignment, 122–123; what to do about, 196–197

Short-termism: bad timing and, 189–190; in executive pay, 190; investors and, 187–188, 191–192; ways to mitigate, 196

Simplicity and determining incentives, 35–36

Size of company and CEO pay, 47–48, 71

Slope of the PAC line, 81

Stakeholder value, 27–28

Starr International Company (SICO), 118

Stated pay positioning, 129, 130–133

Tyco, 17, 46, 84–89, 91, 104, 115, 199
INDEX 275

U
Uncapped upside, 146, 150–151
United States Steel Corporation, 57
Upper Alignment NOzone, 62, 69
Utilities and total shareholder return, 30

V
Value-based versus fixed-share grants, 200, 203, 263
VF Corporation, 76–79, 82, 91, 104

Virtuous circle of compensation, 41, 53

W
Wagoner, R., 52, 147
Williams, S., 79
Wiseman, E., 76, 78, 79, 262

Z
Zone, Alignment, 34–35, 61–62, 69, 81