Contents

List of Tables and Figures  xi
Preface  xv
Acknowledgments  xxv
About the Author  xxix

1. The Evolving Nature of Leadership  1
   Why Study Leaders and Leadership?  2
   What Is Leadership?  3
   Mapping the Definitional Terrain  4
   Chapter Summary  23

2. Critical Perspectives as Interpretative Frameworks  29
   Letting Go of Theoretical Certainty  30
   What Is Critical Social Theory?  31
   Central Themes of Critical Social Theory  33
   Using Critical Perspectives as Interpretative Tools  42
   Essential Preparation for Applying Critical Perspectives  49
   Benefits of Using Critical Perspectives  52
   Chapter Summary  53
3. Interpreting Leadership Theory Using Critical Perspectives  57
   - Critical Social Theory and Leadership  57
   - Evolution of Formal Leadership Theory  58
   - Implicit Leadership Theory  72
   - Chapter Summary  82

4. Person-Centered Theories  85
   - Trait-Based Leadership  85
   - The Leadership Challenge Model  90
   - Emotionally Intelligent Leadership  94
   - Strengths-Based Leadership  98
   - Deconstruction of Person-Centered Theories  104
   - Reconstruction of Person-Centered Theories  109
   - Chapter Summary  113

5. Theories of Production and Effectiveness  117
   - Style Theory  117
   - Situational Leadership  125
   - Path-Goal Theory  132
   - Deconstruction of Theories of Production and Effectiveness  138
   - Reconstruction of Theories of Production and Effectiveness  143
   - Chapter Summary  147

6. Group-Centered Theories  151
   - Leader-Member Exchange Theory  151
   - Team Leadership  160
   - Shared Leadership  169
   - Deconstruction of Group-Centered Theories  176
   - Reconstruction of Group-Centered Theories  180
   - Chapter Summary  185

7. Theories of Transformation  189
   - Transforming/Transformational Leadership  189
   - Servant Leadership  197
   - The Social Change Model of Leadership Development  206
   - Deconstruction Theories of Transformation  215