BRIEF CONTENTS

Preface xix

Part I Theories, Themes, and Tools for Discovery
1 Introduction: Theories of Social Development 1
2 Research Methods: Tools for Discovery 43

Part II Early Tasks of Social Development
3 Biological Foundations: Roots in Neurons and Genes 85
4 Attachment: Forming Close Relationships 127
5 Emotions: Thoughts about Feelings 165
6 Self and Other: Getting to Know Me, Getting to Know You 206

Part III Contexts of Social Development
7 Family: Early and Enduring Influences 248
8 Peers: A World of Their Own 297
9 Schools, Mentors, and Media: Connections with Society 345

Part IV Processes and Products of Social Development
10 Sex and Gender: Vive La Différence? 388
11 Morality: Knowing Right, Doing Good 432
12 Aggression: Insult and Injury 476

Part V Policy and Prospects
13 Policy: Improving Children’s Lives 519
14 Overarching Themes: Integrating Social Development 560

Glossary 575
Author Index 587
Subject Index 609
CONTENTS

Preface xix

1 Introduction: Theories of Social Development 1
- Bet You Didn’t Know That . . . Newborns Can Recognize Their Mothers by Smell, 2
- Social Development: A Brief History, 2
- Critical Questions about Social Development, 3
  - How Do Biological and Environmental Influences Affect Social Development?, 3
  - What Role Do Children Play In Their Own Development?, 4
  - What Is The Appropriate Unit for Studying Social Development?, 4
  - Insights from Extremes: Genie, a “Wild Child”, 5
  - Is Development Continuous or Discontinuous?, 5
  - Is Social Behavior the Result of the Situation or the Child?, 7
  - Is Social Development Universal Across Cultures?, 7
  - Cultural Context: Parenting Advice Around the Globe, 8
  - How Does Social Development Vary Across Historical Eras?, 9
  - Is Social Development Related to Other Developmental Domains?, 10
  - How Important Are Mothers for Children’s Social Development?, 10
  - Research Up Close: Children of the Great Depression, 11
  - Is There a Single Pathway of Social Development?, 12
  - What Influences How We Judge Children’s Social Behavior?, 13
  - Do Developmental Psychologists “Own” Social Development?, 13
  - Is Social Development Focused on Only Basic Research or on Applied and Policy Relevant Concerns as Well?, 14
- Theoretical Perspectives on Social Development, 14
  - Psychodynamic Perspective, 15
  - Into Adulthood: Fatherhood and Generativity, 19
  - Traditional Learning Theory Perspective, 20
  - Cognitive Learning Perspective, 21
  - Information-Processing Perspective, 24
  - Cognitive Developmental Perspective, 26
Systems-Theory Perspective, 29
Biological Perspective, 31
Life Span Perspective, 35
A Variety of Theoretical Perspectives, 36
- Learning from Living Leaders, 36
Chapter Summary, 38
Key Terms, 41
- At the Movies, 41

2 Research Methods: Tools for Discovery 43

Getting Started: Formulating Hypotheses, Asking Questions, 44
Research Methods: Establishing Patterns and Causes, 44
- The Correlational Method, 45
- Laboratory Experiments, 46
- Field Experiments, Interventions, and Natural Experiments, 48
- Insights from Extremes: Lost and Found Children, 49
Combining Different Methods, 50
- Real-World Application: Treating an Aggressive Child, 51
The Case Study Approach, 52
Studying Change Over Time, 52
- Cross-Sectional Design, 52
- The Longitudinal Design, 52
- Into Adulthood: Behavior in Childhood Predicts Adult Outcomes, 55
The Cross-Sequential Design, 55
Selecting a Sample, 57
- Representativeness of the Sample, 57
- The National Survey Approach, 58
Meta-Analysis: Combining Results Across Studies, 59
Studying Development Cross-Culturally, 59
- Cultural Context: Challenges for Researchers, 60
Gathering Data, 61
- Children’s Self-Reports, 61
- Research Up Close: The Puppet Interview Method, 62
Reports by Family Members, Teachers, and Peers, 64
Focus Groups, 65
Direct Observation, 66
- Bet You Thought That . . .: Parents Can Accurately Report Retrospectively About Their Children’s Early Years, 67
Ways of Recording and Coding Observations, 70
Analyzing Data, 74
Contents

- Ethics of Research with Children, 76
  - Learning from Living Leaders, 78
- Chapter Summary, 81
- Key Terms, 83
  - At the Movies, 83

3 Biological Foundations: Roots in Neurons and Genes, 85

- Biological Preparedness for Social Interaction, 86
  - How Are Babies Prepared?, 86
  - Why Are Babies Prepared?, 90
- The Neurological Basis of Social Development, 90
  - The Brain, 91
  - Brain Growth and Development, 91
  - Hemispheric Specialization, 93
  - Neurons and Synapses, 94
  - Brain Development and Experience, 95
  - Mirror Neurons and the Social Brain, 95
- Genetics and Social Development, 99
  - Bet You Thought That . . . : Genes Determine Your Potential, 99
- Methods of Studying Genetic Contributions to Development, 100
- Models of Genetic Influence, 103
- Genetic Anomalies, 108
  - Research Up Close: A Genetic Risk for Drug Use, 109
  - Insights from Extremes: Autism, 110
  - Real-World Application: Genetic Counseling, Genetic Selection, 112
- Temperament: Causes and Consequences, 113
  - Defining and Measuring Temperament, 113
  - Cultural Context: Are Temperaments the Same Around the World?, 115
- The Biological Basis of Temperament, 115
  - Early Evidence of Temperament, 117
  - Consequences and Correlates of Temperament, 117
  - Into Adulthood: Shy Children Thirty Years Later, 120
  - Learning from Living Leaders, 121
- Chapter Summary, 123
- Key Terms, 125
  - At the Movies, 126

4 Attachment: Forming Close Relationships 127

- Theories of Attachment, 128
  - Psychoanalytic Theory, 128
Learning Theories, 129
Cognitive Developmental Theory, 129
Ethological Theory, 130
  - Insights from Extremes: Maternal Bonding, 131
How Attachment Develops, 132
  - Formation and Early Development of Attachment, 133
  - What It Means to Be Attached, 133
  - Attachment to Whom?, 134
The Nature and Quality of Attachment, 135
  - Bet You Thought That . . . : Babies Become Attached to Their Teddy Bears and Blankets, 135
Different Types of Attachment Relationships, 136
  - Cultural Context: Assessing Attachment in Different Cultures, 140
Parents’ Role in Infants’ Attachment Development, 141
  - Research Up Close: Early Experience, Hormones, and Attachment, 145
  - Real-World Application: Attachment When Mother (or Father) Goes to Prison, 149
Effects of Infant Characteristics on Attachment, 150
Stability and Consequences of Attachment, 151
  - Stability and Change in Attachment Over Time, 151
Attachments in Older Children, 153
Consequences of Attachment, 153
  - Into Adulthood: From Early Attachment to Later Romantic Relationships, 158
  - Learning from Living Leaders, 159
Chapter Summary, 161
Key Terms, 163
  - At the Movies, 163

5 Emotions: Thoughts about Feelings 165
What Are Emotions?, 166
Why Are Emotions Important?, 166
Perspectives on Emotional Development, 166
  - Biological Perspective, 167
  - Learning Perspective, 167
  - Functional Perspective, 168
Development of Emotions, 168
  - Primary Emotions, 169
    - Bet You Thought That . . . : A Smile Is a Smile Is a Smile, 172
Secondary Emotions, 178
Individual Differences in Emotional Expressiveness, 181
Development of Emotional Understanding, 182
  Recognizing Emotions in Others, 182
    ■ Cultural Context: Expressing and Understanding Emotions in Different Cultures, 184
  Beyond Recognition: Knowledge of and Understanding About Emotions, 185
Emotion Regulation, 188
Socialization of Emotion, 189
  ■ Into Adulthood: Controlling Negative Emotions in Adulthood, 190
Socialization by Parents, 191
Socialization by Other Children, 194
  ■ Research Up Close: Emotional Development in a High School Theater Program, 194
Socialization by Teachers, 195
  ■ Real-World Application: Teachers as Promoters of Emotional Competence, 196
When Emotional Development Goes Wrong, 197
  ■ Insights from Extremes: When Children Commit Suicide, 199
Causes of Childhood Depression, 200
Treating Childhood Depression, 201
  ■ Learning from Living Leaders, 202
Chapter Summary, 203
Key Terms, 204
  ■ At the Movies, 204

6 Self and Other: Getting to Know Me, Getting to Know You 206

The Sense of Self, 207
  Developmental Origins of Self-Concept, 208
    ■ Cultural Context: How Culture Shapes Self-Representations, 210
    Difficulty Developing a Sense of Self: Autistic Children, 211
Self-Perceptions, 212
  Global Self-Esteem, 212
  Domain-Specific Perceptions, 212
  Learning Self-Appraisal, 213
  Gender Variations in Global Self-Esteem, 214
  Social Determinants of Self-Esteem, 215
Identity Formation, 216
  ■ Into Adulthood: Identity Formation Continues, 219
Ethnic Identity, 220
Religious Identity, 225
  ■ Real-World Application: Sexual Orientation and Identity, 226
Development of Knowledge about Others, 228
Early Understanding of Intentions and Norms, 228
Later Understanding of Mental States: Theory of Mind, 228
■ Research Up Close: The Brain Beneath Theory of Mind, 229
■ Bet You Thought That . . .: Babies Are Not Mind Readers, 230
Understanding Psychological Trait Labels, 231
Perspective Taking, 232
Advancing Social Understanding, 233
Stereotyping and Prejudice, 235
■ Insights from Extremes: The Most Extreme Prejudice: Genocide, 238
Communication Between Me and You: The Role of Language, 239
Steps Toward Language Fluency, 239
Semantic Development: The Power of Words, 241
The Acquisition of Grammar: From Words to Sentences, 241
Learning the Social Uses of Language, 242
■ Learning from Living Leaders, 244
Chapter Summary, 245
Key Terms, 247
■ At the Movies, 247

7 Family: Early and Enduring Influences  248

The Family System, 249
The Couple System, 249
■ Into Adulthood: Transition to Parenthood, 253
The Parent–Child System, 254
■ Research Up Close: Transmission of Hostile Parenting across Generations, 259
■ Bet You Thought That . . .: Parenting Is a Brain Drain, Not a Brain Booster, 262
The Coparenting System, 264
■ Insights from Extremes: When Is a Family Too Large?, 265
The Sibling System, 265
The Family Unit: Stories, Rituals, and Routines, 270
■ Real-World Application: “Let’s Have Dinner”, 271
Family Variation: Social Class and Culture, 272
Differences in Family Values and Practices Related to Socioeconomic Status, 272
Cultural Patterns in Child Rearing, 273
■ Cultural Context: How Effects of Parenting Vary Across Cultures, 274
The Changing American Family, 276
Parents’ Employment and Child Development, 277
Parenting after Thirty, 280
8 Peers: A World of Their Own  297

Definitions and Distinctions,  298
Developmental Patterns of Peer Interaction,  298
  First Encounters in Infancy,  298
  Social Exchanges between Toddlers,  300
  Peer Play in Early Childhood,  301
  Peer Society in the School Years,  302
  Peer Interactions in Adolescence,  304
Peers as Socializers,  304
  Modeling Behavior,  305
  Reinforcing and Punishing Behavior,  305
  Contagion,  305
  Social Comparison,  306
  Cultural Context: Peer Roles and Relationships in Different Cultures,  306
Peer Status,  308
  Studying Peer Status: Acceptance and Rejection,  308
  Factors that Affect Peer Acceptance,  309
  Consequences of Peer Rejection,  315
    Bet You Thought That . . . : Names Would Never Hurt You,  316
    Research Up Close: When “Love Thine Enemy” Fails,  317
    Insights from Extremes: From Rejection to Revenge?,  318
Promoters of Peer Acceptance,  320
  Parents as Promoters of Peer Acceptance,  320
  Researchers as Promoters of Peer Acceptance,  324
  Peers Can Help Too,  326
When Peers Become Friends,  326
  Age Changes in Friendship,  326
  Interactions with Friends,  329
    Insights from Extremes: When Children Love and Protect Each Other,  330
Friendship Patterns,  331
9 Schools, Mentors, and Media: Connections with Society 345

   The Role of the School in Social Development, 346

   Schools as Social Communities, 346
   School Size and Organization, 347
   Class Size and Organization, 350
     ■ Bet You Thought That . . . : Homeschooled Children Were Socially Disadvantaged, 352

   The Teachers’ Impact, 353

   School–Family Links, 355
     ■ Cultural Context: Matching Classroom Organization to Cultural Values and Practices, 356

   School Integration, 359
   After-School Programs, 360

   Mentors Supporting Social Development, 361

   Natural Mentors, 362
   Mentor Programs, 363

   Electronic Media and Children’s Social Lives, 364

   Screen Media: Television and Digital Media, 364
   Positive Effects of Screen Media, 364
   Potential Negative Effects of Screen Media, 365
   Do Children Understand What They See?, 369
     ■ Real-World Application: Advertising Influences Children’s Choices, 371

   How Can Parents and Siblings Modify TV’s Negative Effects?, 372
     ■ Into Adulthood: Still Playing Games?, 373

   Playing Video Games, 374

   Smartphones and Social Media, 375

   Potential Positive Effects of Smartphones and Social Media, 375
   Concerns Regarding Smartphones and Social Media, 377
     ■ Research Up Close: Role-Playing Games and Social Life, 380
Contents

- Insights from Extremes: The Risks of Sexting, 381
- Learning from Living Leaders, 381

Chapter Summary, 384

Key Terms, 386
- At the Movies, 386

---

10 Sex and Gender: Vive La Différence? 388

Getting Started: Defining Sex and Gender, 388

Gender Differences in Growth, Abilities, Activities, and Interests, 389
- Changes in Adolescence and Adulthood, 392
- Stability of Gender Typing, 393
- Into Adulthood: Occupations for Men and Women, 393
- Sex Differences in Gender Typing, 395

Gender Stereotypes, 395
- Cultural Context: Cultural Differences in Gender Stereotypes, 397

Biological Factors in Gender Differences, 398
- Bet You Thought That . . . : Gender Identity was Determined by Biological Sex, 398
- Evolutionary Theory and Gender Development, 400
- Insights from Extremes: The First American Transgendered Person, 400

Hormones and Social Behavior, 401

Gender and the Brain, 402

Genetics of Gender, 404

Biology and Cultural Expectations, 404

Cognitive Factors in Gender Typing, 405
- Cognitive Developmental Theory, 406
- Gender-Schema Theory: An Information-Processing Approach, 407
- Comparison of Cognitive Developmental and Gender-Schema Theories, 408

Social Influences on Gender Typing, 408
- Theories of Social Influence, 408
- Parents’ Influence on Children’s Gender-Typed Choices, 409
- Parents’ Behavior toward Girls and Boys, 410
- Modeling Parents’ Characteristics, 413
- When Father Is Absent, 413
- Research Up Close: Gender Roles in Counterculture Families, 414

Siblings as Agents of Gender Socialization, 416

Role Models in Books, Games, and Television, 417

Peers, Gender Roles, and Gender Segregation, 418
- Real-World Application: Do Computers Widen the Gender Gap?, 419
11 Morality: Knowing Right, Doing Good  432

Moral Judgment,  433
  Piaget’s Cognitive Theory of Moral Judgment,  433
  Kohlberg’s Cognitive Theory of Moral Judgment,  435
  Insights from Extremes: Moral Heroes,  437
  Cultural Context: Justice versus Interpersonal Obligations in India and the United States,  441
  Turiel’s Social Domain Theory,  443
  How Children Learn the Rules and Distinguish between Social Domains,  446
Moral Behavior,  449
  Bet You Thought That . . . : Moral Judgment Leads to Moral Action,  450
Self-Regulation of Behavior,  451
  Individual Differences in Moral Behavior,  451
  Consistency of Moral Behavior across Situations and Time,  452
  Into Adulthood: The Love of Money Is the Root of All Evil,  453
  Research Up Close: Children Telling Lies,  454
Moral Emotions,  456
  Development of Moral Emotions,  456
  Do Moral Emotions Affect Moral Behavior?,  458
  Real-World Application: Adolescents’ Competence to Stand Trial as Adults,  459
The Whole Moral Child,  460
Prosocial and Altruistic Behavior,  461
  How Prosocial Behavior and Reasoning Develop,  461
  Determinants of Prosocial Development,  464
  Learning from Living Leaders,  470
Chapter Summary,  473
Key Terms,  474
  At the Movies,  474

12 Aggression: Insult and Injury  476

Types of Aggression,  477
Patterns of Aggression,  479
Contents

Developmental Changes in Aggression, 479
Gender Differences in Aggression, 481
Stability of Individual Differences in Aggression, 483
  Into Adulthood: From Childhood Aggression to Road Rage, 485
Causes of Aggression, 486
  Biological Origins of Aggressive Behavior, 486
  Social Influences on the Development of Aggression, 489
    Insights from Extremes: Child Soldiers, 493
  Combined Biological and Social Influences on Aggression, 497
    Research Up Close: Genes, Environmental Triggers, and Aggressive Behavior, 499
  Sociocognitive Factors in the Development of Aggression, 500
Bullies and Victims, 502
  Behavior of Bullies and Victims, 503
  Consequences of Bullying, 505
    Real-World Application: Cyberfighting and Cyberbullying, 505
  Conditions Leading to Bullying, 507
Control of Aggression, 508
  Bet You Thought That . . . : You Could Reduce Aggressive Feelings by “Letting off Steam”, 508
Cognitive Modification Strategies, 509
  Parents as Agents for Reducing Aggression, 509
  Schools as Venues for Intervention, 510
  Aggression Prevention: A Multipronged Effort, 510
  Cultural Context: Preventing Youth Violence, 513
    Learning from Living Leaders, 514
Chapter Summary, 516
Key Terms, 517
  At the Movies, 518

13 Policy: Improving Children’s Lives 519
What Determines Public Policy for Children?, 520
Types of Public Policy, 521
Children in Poverty: A Social Policy Challenge, 523
  Economic Hardship and Social Disadvantage, 523
  Effects of Poverty on Children, 523
  Programs to Reverse Effects of Poverty, 524
    Real-World Application: Early Intervention with Children in Poverty, 527
Child Care: A Problem Lacking a Unified Policy, 528
  Choosing Child Care: What’s a Parent to Do?, 528
  Effects of Child Care on Children, 529
How Can Policy Help?, 531
  ■ Research Up Close: The Florida Child Care Quality Improvement Study, 534

Teenage Pregnancy: Children Having Children, 534
  Factors Leading to Teen Pregnancy, 535
  ■ Bet You Thought That . . . : More Teens Are Having Sex Than Ever Before, 536
  Outcomes of Teen Pregnancies, 536
  ■ Into Adulthood: When Teen Mothers Grow Up, 538
  Reducing Teen Pregnancy, 539
  Support for Teenage Mothers, 542

Child Abuse within the Family, 543
  Child Abuse: A Family Affair, 543
  The Ecology of Child Abuse, 545
  Consequences of Abuse, 546
  Policies to Prevent Abuse, 547
  ■ Cultural Context: Child Abuse and Children’s Rights, 547
  ■ Insights from Extremes: Suggestive Interrogations and Legal Policy, 551
  ■ Learning from Living Leaders, 553

Chapter Summary, 556

Key Terms, 558
  ■ At the Movies, 559

14 Overarching Themes: Integrating Social Development 560

What We Know: Some Take-Home Principles, 561
  Views of the Social Child, 561
  Organization and Explanation of Children’s Social Behavior, 562
  Social Agents and Contexts for Social Development, 563
  Progress and Pathways of Social Development, 564

Glimpsing the Future: Methodological, Theoretical, and Policy Imperatives, 566
  Methodological Imperatives, 566
  Theoretical Imperatives, 567
  Policy Imperatives, 568

Emerging Leaders in Social Development, 569

At the Wedding, 574

Glossary 575

Author Index 587

Subject Index 609

References (Available from your Instructor)