Contents

Preface 008
Chapter 1  The Long Perspective 013
Chapter 2  Radical Terrain 033
Chapter 3  NATO 055
Chapter 4  Story Buildings 080
Chapter 5  Practice in Person 112
Chapter 6  Pure ‘Narrativity’ 132
Epilogue 158
Bibliography 162
Index 164

One of the first great achievements of print, this extraordinary Renaissance book combines text and woodcut to create a captivating vision. Struggling through the dark wood of medieval thought, its protagonist Poliphilo searches for his love but stumbles on mysterious temples and Dionysian rites.