Contents

Foreword xi

Introduction: Moving From Theory to Practice in Multicultural Counseling xv

About the Editors xxxvii

About the Contributors xxxix

Part I Case Studies With U.S. Racial/Ethnic Minority Populations 1

Chapter 1 Clinical Applications With African Americans
Shelly P. Harrell and Daryl M. Rowe 3
And Still I Rise: The Story of Nia 3
Redefined: The Story of Andre 13

Chapter 2 Clinical Applications With American Indians and Alaska Natives
Joseph B. Stone and Connie Hunt 21
Treating “Depression” in a Dying Native Relative: The Story of Will 21
Treating “Depression” in a Deeply Bereaved and Traumatized Client: The Story of Mary 28
Chapter 3  •  Clinical Applications With Asian Americans

Michi Fu

Fighting Chance: The Story of Donna 37
Intergenerational Effects of War: The Story of Wade 43

Chapter 4  •  Clinical Applications With Latina/o Americans

Melba Vasquez, Martha Ramos Duffer, and Cynthia de las Fuentes

Margaret Can’t Do It All (by Herself) Anymore 49
Multiple Roles, Multiple Identities: The Story of Elisandro 55

Chapter 5  •  Clinical Applications With Individuals of Middle Eastern and Northern African Descent

Sylvia C. Nassar-McMillan and Julie Hakim-Larson

Harnessing Fears During a Medical Emergency: The Story of Jacob M. 61
Silenced: The Stories of Dalia and Nabila 67

Chapter 6  •  Clinical Applications With Individuals of Multiracial Descent

Gregory J. Payton, Marie L. Miville, and Peggy Loo

“You Just Don’t Get Me!”: The Story of Anita 77
“I Can Make It on My Own”: The Story of David J. 85

Chapter 7  •  Clinical Applications of a White Therapist Working With People of Color

Julie R. Ancis and Nicholas Ladany

Two Worlds: The Story of Marcos 93
My War Parents Found My Gay Box: The Story of Benjamin 100

Part II  Case Studies Involving Special Circumstances With Ethnic Populations

Chapter 8  •  Clinical Applications With American Jews

Daniel C. Rosen and Ora Nakash

L’dor v’dor, or From Generation to Generation:
The Story of Scott 111
The “Other” in Us: The Story of Gabriella 116
Chapter 9  •  Clinical Applications With Immigrants
  Pratyusha Tummala-Narra and Diya Kallivayalil  125
  Negotiating Cultural Change and Identity: The Story of Nadia  125
  Loss and Political Exile: The Story of Paul  132

Chapter 10  •  Clinical Applications With Refugees
  Oksana Yakushko and Indhushree Rajan  141
  Fleeing Religious Persecution: The Story of Larissa  141
  Aftermath of Trafficking: The Story of Kamala  148

Part III  Case Studies With Other Multicultural Populations  157

Chapter 11  •  Clinical Applications With Women
  Christina M. Capodilupo  159
  Living in the Shadows: The Story of Monique  159
  I’m a Mother First! The Story of Simone  165

Chapter 12  •  Clinical Applications With Men
  Mark A. Stevens and Jose Montes  173
  Multiple Stories of Henry  173
  Why Am I Here? The Story of Martin  185

Chapter 13  •  Clinical Applications With Transgender Individuals
  Anita R. Hund and Jane E. Reid  195
  Just a “Phase”? The Story of Leslie  195
  An Incomplete Experience: The Story of Alice  201

Chapter 14  •  Clinical Applications in Sexual Orientation
  Douglas C. Haldeman  207
  No Home in the World: The Story of Tony  207
  Mission Impossible: The Story of Beth  211

Chapter 15  •  Clinical Applications With People in Poverty
  Debbie-Ann Chambers, Lucinda Bratini, and Laura Smith  217
  The White Picket Fence Life: The Story of Marisol  217
  Do You Have Eyes to See Me? The Story of Michelle  224